Football Season Underway at Forest Hills

School Opens September 9th

Superintendent Harold Chambers of Forest Hills Schools announced this week that school will open on Friday, September 9. Children in grades 1-12 will enroll in the morning and return home in the forenoon. Full schedules for all children will begin on Monday, September 12. Kindergarten children will enroll Friday for those whose last name begins with the letter A-L; the others will enroll on Monday the 12th.

Total enrollment for the coming year is expected to exceed 2400 children. This would be an increase of 320 over the total of 2080 enrolled in 1959. Four new busses have been added to the Forest Hills Fleet bringing the total number of vehicles for regular operation to 25, there are some reserve busses for emergencies. Spare bus drivers are needed, both men and women.

Special Education

Special education classes will be operated again this year in Honey Creek school, the elementary grades will be divided between Lowell and Forest Hills the same as last year. These students who have difficulty in regular classes, will be transported similar to last year.

Divided for Best Class Load

Superintendent Chambers said: "Every effort has been made to assign children in such a way as to provide the best classroom load possible. We are sorry that all children cannot attend the school of their choice. But we are fortunate to have good school busses which will convey them safely to the best location for this year. About 100 new homes have been and are being built and there has been considerable moving out and in. All of these conditions complicate the placement of children. It is our aim to have an average of about 29 elementary children per class room and we shall do our best to have it that way. Without a doubt there will have to be some exceptions."

New High School Students to Enroll

New high school students who will be going to the Forest Hills High School for the first time this year, from the 9th through the 12th grades should enroll prior to the opening of school on September 9th if it is possible to do so. Come to the school office for enrollment.

Cascade I.G.A. Offers Football Season Tickets

In a special offer to Forest Hills fans Cascade I. G. A. is cooperating with the Boosters Club to sell season tickets to all the local teams home games at a savings of $1.05 per ticket.

In the teams first season on its own field they will play four home games beginning September 23. With the special offer advertised on page 3 of this issue you can save 25 per cent over the regular price.

Ada Oil Team Wins Class D Championship

The Thornapple Valley Little League Indians sponsored by the Ada Oil Co. became Class D Champions last week by defeating teams from Saranac and Ionia.

They did it the hard way, playing on strange fields and coming from behind to win in both games; the second game in extra innings.

Ada Oil Co. the "Go, Go Indians" sponsor, are the newest in the league and will have the trophy on display. This, we hope, is the beginning of a trophy rack they will have to make for coming awards the "Go, Go Indians" will earn.

A very grateful thanks to the boys and assistant coaches Bud Koessel and Sam Ervine, for the most excitable season, and hope to return as coach next year, Florian Swierczek.

Attend Junior Camp

The following youth from the Cascade Christian church who have completed the 4th and 5th grade, will be leaving Sunday, August 28 to attend Junior Camp at Crystal Beach near Frankfort:

Matters to be discussed include the keeping of attendance records, announcing any new forms, and information concerning the special education classes conducted throughout the county.

Teaching Vacancy Remains in Cascade

The 2nd grade position in the Cascade Elementary School remains unfilled and Superintendent Harold Chambers reports that he has no prospects with which to fill the vacancy.

Enrollment Day Extended For Forest Hills System

Students in the Forest Hills system will remain in their respective buildings 2½ hours on the day of enrollment instead of 1½ hours as previously announced.

School administrators announced the measure to enable teachers to better handle the many details of the enrollment proceedings such as the receiving of rental and supply fees, the meeting of parents, and the registering of new children.

The high school is especially in need of the extended time in order that the new daily program may be more fully tested.

"Aboard The Heather" by Theresa Collins

There has been an unusual amount of heavy weather this year. We stayed at Mackinac Island several days because we wanted to, but met there a number of boats who wanted to go back home somewhere on Lake Michigan but didn't want to buck into the strong west wind through the Strait all the way past "the shank", Waughoshance, before they can turn southerly.

We had always been aware that sailboat people are do-it-yourselfers, and carried accordions, harmonicas, guitars, ukes. Here we met a motorboat that had an organ aboard, another an electrical Hawaiian guitar. David is gregarious also musical. Before long there were some dandy jam sessions going on, and everyone had lots of fun.

When the wind changed everyone started moving. It was novel to be sailing in waters where you really need charts, and to know those waters well enough not to have to use them. It was a lovely clear day and all the landmarks were very clear. We had heard of a wreck, "Freebooter" a beautiful big Mackinac Race contender for many races, had won the race in her class this year. The owner and the racing crew had to go back to work, and a couple of young men were to sail the boat back to Chicago. But they got caught in a squall and were driven on the reef at "Skill-agallee"—Isle au Galet. As we sailed past we could see the once proud queen lying on her side, her mast at a 45 degree angle, with a tug nearby working on her trying to salvage as much as possible.

We sailed into the harbor at Charlevoix and found many friends there, for all kinds of boats find this a favorite harbor. Everyone is glad to see us, to see that we are all looking so exceptionally well (why shouldn't we, practically living outdoors for well over a year) to marvel that Heather came through everything so safely, and that we were all friends and were still living together.

After a few days of intensive work Skipper was ready for a little variety. So in company with Dr. Baum's "Elysia" and Dr. Van Zwalenburg's "Jaecel" we sailed to Harbor Springs. It was interesting to see how these three different types of sailboats sailed on the same course. On one tack one would do better, on another tack another boat had the advantage. When we made port there was a swimming party. Then all the parents came over to "Heather" for the Hour of Charm, while all the next generation settled on "Elysia". Everyone had such a lot of fun that Dr. Baum said, "Let's all have dinner ashore, as my guests, to celebrate your return." The fun continued, and the food was very good. As we all keep discovering, the company of good friends is the best ingredient.

The following morning was a hard rain, but we sailed back to Charlevoix. Some really heavy weather followed, and we were able to have some more jam sessions, now with different boats. One late afternoon when we were having the family from "Venus" over for the Hour of Charm, we were having so much fun with two accordions and a guitar, even Kevin's flute-ophone, their skipper went back to their boat and got two horrible masks. Donning these masks, two of our merry company walked down the docks, startling and amazing everyone. Then somebody took a cup and passed it around. They collected 31 cents. Music hath charms. We must remember this.

Then our time ran out and we set sail for Frankfort, in company with "Jaecel." The following morning we left early and sailed and motored to Manistee where we wanted to look up cruising friends the Roger Campbells, who call their boat "Four Bells."

Last year when we were in Manistee they treated us to a wonderful dinner as a Bon Voyage gesture. Now with that voyage completed we wanted to return the courtesy. They all came down and had lunch with us, but it was the day of the Rotary Club picnic, so why not come to the picnic with them. That sounded like fun, Bruce Glenn and Kevin all wore their white sailor suits, and looked so appealing. The weather was superb, the food was good, we met some fine people—the picnic was a success.

Next morning we left early and arrived in Pentwater by noon. The boys went swimming, and I went to the laundromat which is exceptionally convenient here. This was going to be one time when we arrived home in good order, not with mountains of soiled clothing. While I was getting the laundry ready a woman came up and asked "Is this the Heather, and are you the Collins?" I said "Yes" and she said she had been reading paper at home. I felt odd, here I was involved in laundry, whereas she implied high adventure.

We met more cruising friends and had a pleasant evening while the boys went to a movie. The following day we just sort of ran out of luck for a while, we had water pump trouble again. Skipper took it all apart, oiling everything carefully, while the boys sailed the boat. There wasn't much wind, but we'd have made port all right. Then the motor ran fine, and we stopped at White Lake. There we met more cruising friends, rafted the two boats side by side, and visited and had a swimming party.

Then we started singing, and had the most fun of all the jam sessions so far. We ate together, which is always so much fun. When we were through Skipper said, "Let's make sure all the dishes are on the right boat, and we will boat, and we will be on our way. I think we can make Muskegon tonight." And that's what we did, though it wasn't quite as simple as that. We were motoring along in the dark, right into the wind, when the pump acted up again. Skipper went below to see what he could do about it, and the boys raised sail and we went on by sail, just loafing along. Skipper said he just couldn't make the thing cooperate, and that as long as we had wind now, we would sail into Muskegon and have it fixed there. Skipper and David were pulling Heather up the channel, and came to the Coast Guard station, when several men came out knowing things weren't right. He asked, "Aren't you Kreigh Collins?" Then they told us to put Heather into their private harbor for the night, and the mechanic said he would go to work on the water pump first thing in the morning. Everywhere we've been and have had contact with the Coast Guard, we've found them most cooperative. The trouble proved to be minor, the mechanic in New Orleans had left a part out. We were on our way soon. But we reflected again on our incredible luck—so many places where this same trouble would have been disastrous.

We turned into the channel at Holland at 1:40 p. m. just a few days less than a year since we left on this grand circle tour. It seemed perfectly natural to be in familiar surroundings again, it was grand to be greeted by old friends. Most curious sensation of all was when people would say, "I enjoyed reading about your travels in your letters to Suburban Life." This made the effort worth while, for many of them were written when I was dead tired.

We wanted to see the family first. Judy and Erik came down to see us just as they were taking off to a wedding in Adrian. We met Grandpa and Nana at the Schnitzelbank and had a fine celebration dinner. It was wonderful to look at them across the table, looking just like always, and to be able to talk with them. It really is grand to be home again. But here is something strange—what is home? We are now as much at home on Heather as we ever were in our house. We think it simply marvelous that Skipper is able to provide both for us, so no choice is necessary.

Some of today's movies should be pitied rather than censored,

Auto Price Hikes Government Fault

The motoring public is once again faced with the possibility of sharp price increases on numerous automotive fronts because of attempted government infringement on small business.

This is the warning issued by Thomas F. Abbott, Jr., chairman of the NADA National Affairs Committee, and a Fort Worth, Texas, automobile dealer. Mr. Abbott is leading the franchised new car dealers' struggle to retain their present retail and service establishment exemption from the Wage-Hour Law, which is one of the first items on the Congressional sessions.

"Once more small, local businesses have to battle for survival because of proposed federal laws which would add tremendously to the cost of doing business," Mr. Abbott pointed out. "We are not fighting exclusively for the automobile dealer. We are fighting for Mr. John Q. Public. He's the man who must suffer in the long run. He's the man who's going to have to absorb the higher costs which dealers must charge for service should they be forced to operate under certain provisions of the proposed Wage-Hour bill, from which the type of retail and service establishments we represent have heretofore been exempt."

The Texas dealer explained that the franchised new car dealers of America, whose factory-approved service shops keep America mobile, are obligated to maintain around-the-clock service facilities to keep the gears of business in motion. "Dealers who will have to pay time-and-a-half for all hours worked over 40 will have to pass this cost on to their customers in order to survive," Mr. Abbott said.

The increased cost for service is only one of a number of price hikes the public can expect, Mr. Abbott explained, since the owners of vehicles who sell to and serve the public will also be subjected to the increased service charges. "And you can be sure that such services as telephone companies, electric power companies and others are not operating on such a big margin that they can afford to absorb the higher overhead costs of operating their service vehicles. The public is bound to feel the price jolt all the way down the line in practically every monthly bill."

The NADA representative said that the farmer will be particularly hard-hit, since he will no longer be able to have his tractors, farm trucks and other units serviced at his dealers' shops without paying higher prices. At the present, dealers are able to take in such vehicles for servicing on weekends, eliminating all lost time for the farmer.

The far-reaching effects of this measure are almost too much to comprehend," Mr. Abbott warned. "Since almost every American product is transported by trucks somewhere along the route to the customer, the price of that product will almost certainly be inflated along the way, due to higher service charges on the transporting vehicle."

Mr. Abbott said that NADA, which feels that a dealership is strictly a local business and should thus control rates of pay and hours worked according to local conditions, will continue to fight for the dealers' historic exemption in the remaining weeks of this session of Congress to assure American motorists the most for their motoring dollars.

Breakfast Stokes The Human Engine

If you lack that jet-age pep most mornings, your engine probably isn't getting the right fuel.

Dietitians at The University of Michigan Medical Center say breakfast is the most important "refueling" stop for the machinery of your body.

Only through an adequate breakfast," says Miss Betsy Bigger of U-M's Nutrition Clinic, "will you gain enough energy to efficiently complete important morning tasks."

In addition to energy, a good breakfast supplies protein, minerals, and vitamins which are vitally important to health.

Start your day by eating meat, milk or eggs, along with the toast or cereal, juice and coffee that has become the standard breakfast of many people. The rewards, dietitians say, will be more efficiency, alertness and resistance to fatigue—in short, more pep.

Sometimes we think it would be a good idea for somebody to lecture some property owners about the value of using good paint.

My Neighbors

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Daane, 1137 Patterson S. E. announce the birth of a son on August 20 at Butterworth hospital.

A daughter, Kathleen Ann, was born Thursday, August 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Jack McClellan. She weighed 7 pounds 7 ounces and was born at Blodgett hospital.

Michigan Again Lumbering Center

Michigan no longer deserves to be called the "cut over, burned over, devastated forest land state." Dr. Paul A. Herbert, chief of the Michigan Economic Development department's research division, emphatically points out that this once familiar reference to Michigan's vast northern areas and the Upper Peninsula is no longer true.

In 1959 for the first time, Michigan led all of the Great Lakes states in the production of pulpwood, according to a report just released by the U. S. Forest Service. And even then, Dr. Herbert said, only half of the state's annual production is being cut.

Michigan mills used 699,000 cords of pulpwood in 1959, an increase of 27 percent over 1958. Of this 603,000 cords came from Michigan forests, 86,000 cords from Canada and 10,000 cords came from other states.

The report shows that 51 percent more pulp was cut from Michigan forests than was used or imported by Michigan mills. In 1959 the cut in Michigan was 1,053,000 cords. Of this total 447,000 cords went to Wisconsin.

"Even with this excess of cut from Michigan forests to meet the requirements of Michigan and Wisconsin mills, Michigan forests are now producing twice as much pulpwood annually as is being cut," Dr. Herbert said.

One of the chief reasons for Michigan's bright pulpwood picture is that Aspen, once considered a useless species, is now a desirable pulpwood. Over one-third of the pulpwood now cut in the Great Lakes states is Aspen, and 39 percent is cut in Michigan.

"This is a far different picture than that of a few decades ago when the state had millions of acres of cut over and burned waste land, a situation that followed the ruthless days of lumbering operation," Dr. Herbert said. "Michigan today is green, and its excellent conservation practices are keeping it that way. In fact a big job today is finding new uses for our vast forest resources," he concluded.

The amount of expressway mileage in Michigan has more than tripled during the last three years—from 101 miles on July 1, 1957, to 365 miles today.

"After all is said and done, you usually find more has been said than done."

Beverly Michael Becomes Bride of Terry Herman

Rev. Elwood Berkompas performed the ceremony which united Miss Beverly Ann Michael and Terry Karl Herman in marriage Friday evening in Northlawn church.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Michael, 5356 Cascade Road S. E. are the parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Albert Herman, Leonard Street.

A gown of silk organza fashioned with diagonal pleats forming the bodice was chosen by the bride. The skirt was circled with Swiss embroidered lace. A silk organza bow held her veil and she carried a bouquet of white Amazon lilies, roses and ivy.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Robert Allen Krueger of Fort Wane, Indiana. She wore a moss green and white silk taffeta dress with strap sleeves and scoop neckline. She wore a green bow headpiece and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and ivy.

The bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Joustra and Mrs. R. Wayne Beak and the junior bridesmaid, Miss Linda Michael, sister of the bride, wore ensembles like the honor attendant's.

Lynn Herman was his brother's best man, and ushers were Robert G. Brown, Lawrence King and Frank Stoddard.

Assisting at the reception held in the church parlors were Miss Patricia Sysko, Mrs. King, Mrs. Stoddard, Miss Karen Smith, Miss Shirley Tisdell and Miss Sharon Tisdell.

The couple are on a wedding trip to Montego Bay, Jamaica, and will be at home at 4742 Marigold Street S. E. after September 1st.

SON AND FAMILY VISIT FROM INDIANA

Returns from Germany

Howard Aylesworth

Howard Aylesworth, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Aylesworth, 30 White Hills, N. E., returned Tuesday after spending the summer in a 1,500-room castle in Tübingen, Germany.

Howard, who will be a junior at Forest Hills, helped his German family to conduct tours through the 800 year-old building, originally a Cistercian monastery and now a state-operated museum.

Hans Haug, son of the German family with which Howard was staying, was an exchange student to this country last year with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eschels and family of Grand Rapids.

The Aylesworths also had a German exchange student, Walter Heinze, living with them last year. Through Walter, Howard became interested in the program.

Introducing America

All the exchange students have been very carefully screened to insure the success of their year-long visits. Academic brilliance is never a prime consideration in their selection, but most of the students are outstanding in many ways.

The State Department conducts the exchange program with the assistance of the World Council of Churches, represented in Kent County by the Grand Rapids and the Kent Council of Churches.

The purpose of this program is to introduce students of other lands to America, and to acquaint them with the American way of life by arranging for them to live with American people.

All the students are most eager to be good ambassadors to the United States. And, at the same time, the American families with which they live are eager to do their part.

Mrs. Burkhead spoke for the entire group of American parents when she said that helping with the exchange program is just as "important in our own little way as all the high diplomatic maneuvering" which goes on in the world.

The Burkheads—and all the other Americans taking part—hope to show their exchange student "America as it really is."

Japanese Girl in Lowell

Kent county is fortunate to have 12 exchange students this year. They will all arrive this month and will remain throughout the school year until about July 15, 1961.

Other students in this area include Yosuko Moriya, 20, who arrived last week from Tokyo, and

GUESTS FROM YPSILANTI

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Heaven, 7249 Denison Drive entertained their cousin Joe Heaven and his friend David Eaton of Ypsilanti over the week end.

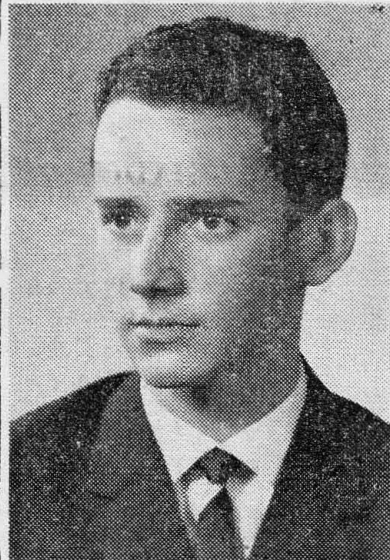

Forest Hills Exchange Students Arrive

Schloss Bebenhausen, the 12th century German castle in which Howard Aylesworth, 15, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Aylesworth, 30 White Hills, n. e., spent the past summer. One of the former dukes of Wurttemberg, whose family owned the castle, was made a king in 1813 by Napoleonic decree after he contributed 25,000 men to the French emperor's wars. Wurttemberg, located in southwest Germany between Baden and Bavaria, remained a kingdom until the end of the first World War. Between 1918 and 1934 it was an autonomous state, but it was divided after World War II between the Bonn Republic states of Hohenzollern and Baden. A fast-growing legend maintains that, after these set-backs, the last queen died in 1946 of a broken heart. Now a government-operated attraction, the castle is famous for its ancient rose garden started by the original Cistercian founders.

Four new exchange students arrived in this country last week to begin their year-long visits with four area families and to attend Forest Hills high school.

Also returning this week was a local youth who had spent his summer in Germany as part of the exchange program sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches.

Hans Reimer Lucks

First of the exchange students to arrive was Hans Reimer Lucks, 16, from Kiel-Holtenuau, Schleswig-Holstein, Germany.

The son of a head clerk and departmental expert for the retail business and the tourist traffic at the Chamber of Commerce and Industry at Kiel, Hans will be staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Jones, 261 Greenbrier, S. E.

Hans arrived by plane at Metropolitan airport in Detroit on August 15 after the trans-Atlantic flight from Europe.

Before his arrival in this country, Hans wrote his American parents and told them "I am very fond of gadgetting various things. I do it with a group of friends in order to get new suggestions and to have fun."

Besides "gadgetting," Hans' hobbies include sports, books, crafts, and camping. He participated in the parliament, sports clubs, and a yachting club at his high school in Germany.

"I prefer to do my homework by myself, but in my leisure time I am together with many other persons," he added.

Hans hopes "to picture the country for myself and relatives" back home during his stay in the United States. Already he has remarked that he never knew his "first few days in America could be so wonderful!"

The Jones have two sons of their own, Jim, 14, and Jeff, 11. Jim attends Forest Hills junior high, and Jeff is a 6th-grader at Collins. Mr. Jones is a salesman for the Simmons company.

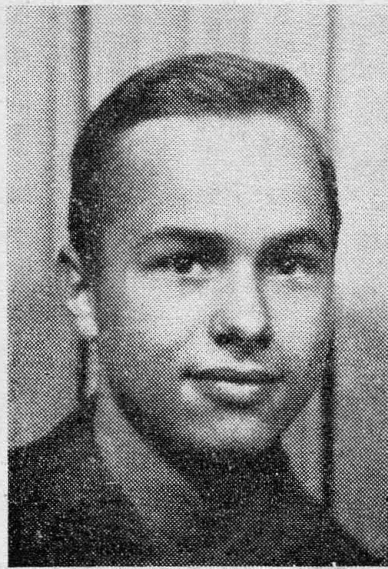

Pirkko Linna

Pirkko Linna, 17, of Tampere, Finland, arrived by plane last Friday in Detroit where she was met by her American parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Sytsma.

Pirkko's father is an estate owner, and she has a number of brothers and sisters. Her hobbies are drawing, swimming, and modeling.

The Sytsmas, who live at 4380 Braeburn, S. E., have three children. Fred, 16, is a senior at Forest Hills; Ann, 14, is a Forest Hills freshman; and Tim, 10, is a 5th-grader at Collins school.

Mr. Sytsma is supervisor of process engineering with the diesel equipment division of General Motors.

Lutz Jochen Storbeck

Also arriving last Friday was Lutz Jochen Storbeck, of Dortmund, Germany, who will stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Kutchin, 140 Lochlmond, N. E.

Lutz, who has one brother, and whose mother and father both hold M. D. degrees, is 16 years old. Like the other exchange students, he will be a member of the senior class at Forest Hills, though he receives no credit at his high school in Dortmund for his year's studies here.

The Kutchins have two children, Marcia, who is 8 and in the 3rd grade, and Daniel, 10, a 5th-grader. Both children attend Collins school.

Mr. Kutchin is connected with the Camera Shop in Grand Rapids, who will spend the year with Dr. and Mrs. Orval McKay of 416 Howard Street, Lowell. Yosuko will be a senior at Lowell high school.

Arrangements have been made to give the exchange students the opportunity to attend Community Concerts, the Grand Rapids Symphonic Concerts, and Civic plays.

Michael Hayns

The opening of school on September 9 will mark the 17th birthday for Michael Hayns, who arrived in Montreal Sunday aboard the liner Italia.

Michael comes from Burton-on-Trent, Staffordshire, England, where his father, the late Mr. Hayns, was a pharmacist. Mike has one older brother.

Mike is very interested in sports, especially swimming and such track events as the hurdles, broad jump, etc. He enjoys cycling and playing rugby, and he wrote that he "would like to have a go at your American football."

Mike will be spending the year at the Thornapple River home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Burkhead, 2561 Cascade Springs Road. Mr. Burkhead is connected with R. D. Burkhead and associates, manufacturers' representatives for building supplies.

The Burkheads have four children. David, the eldest, is a graduate of Lowell high school and now a sophomore at Miami University; Mary, 16, is a junior at Forest Hills; Bob, 14, is a freshman; and Barbara, who will soon be 8, is a 3rd grade student at Cascade.

Miss Castle Speaks Vows

Miss Jean Anne Castie and Philip James Neidlinger repeated their marriage vows at 7:30 p. m. in the Kalamazoo Frist Congregational church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Keith.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Heamon Castle, 652 Dogwood, Ada, are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Neidlinger of Kalamazoo.

The bride wore a floor length gown of organza with a short brush train. The fitted bodice featured a round neckline trimmed with Chantilly lace. The lace motif was repeated in the bouffant tiered skirt. Her fingertip length veil was secured by a small crown of iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Mary Castle. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Steven Springer of Indianapolis and Miss Joyce Probasco of Kalamazoo. They wore azure blue organza frocks styled with elbow-length sleeves and bouffant skirts and their headdresses were of matching tulle. The maid of honor carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and asters, and the bridesmaids' bouquets were of white carnations and lavender asters. Benay Halput was the flower girl.

Stanley Bushouse assisted the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were John Costello, William Smith and Richard Rossio.
