Promote P.T.A. Membership Drive

The Membership Drive is getting under way for the Forest Hills High School P. T. A. Soon your daughter or son will be bringing home an application for P. T. A. membership. We trust you will look upon this favorably and help make the P. T. A. 100 percent strong.

Dues for the year are only fifty cents and your support for this organization is indeed needed.

The students in the Junior High School departments will be helping in the drive for membership and the home room obtaining the highest percentage of membership will receive the College Edition of the Webster New World Dictionary of the American Language for their use.

So, please, won't you join our group? It will help bring you close to your children and enable you to know more about the school that he or she attends. We have a high school that we can be quite proud of, and surely when you start attending the P. T. A. meetings and get to know our two very capable principals, Clarence Boerman of the Junior High and Dean VanLandingham of the Senior High departments, you will realize our children are indeed under wise leadership and as you get acquainted with the teachers of the various classes, we know you will feel inside you, a contentment when you know everything is going well.

There are but five meetings scheduled for the P. T. A. this school calendar year. One is behind us now; that was the potluck dinner held September 22. The next four are Nov. 17, Jan. 26, Feb. 23 and April 27.

Phillip Fletcher, teacher vice-president, who is in charge of PTA entertainment has some interesting programs and speakers planned for the next four meetings. Our theme for the year is "Developing Desirable Attitudes in Use."

So, do come and join us. We would like to meet you and to know you, and we want you to get a chance to meet us and to know us. Let's be a close knitted group! Let's have "Togetherness" of the parents and teachers! Let's back our Forest Hills High School PTA 100 percent!

The Superintendent's Corner

The present teacher shortage in America is critical.

There are still 25 vacancies in the Elementary Schools of Kent County. Within the past two weeks we have contacted 7 teachers' colleges and several independent teacher placement offices. Not one prospect for a vacancy could be found. Were it not for the unexpected return from Europe of a man teacher, one vacancy in our school system would still exist.

period when absences occur are certain to be difficult to secure. Last year over $5,000 had to be spent in hiring substitute teachers. That was a normal year. Since there are only one-third as many substitute teachers available, we contemplate some serious problems. If there are any mothers in the District who have at least 90 semester hours of college it would be possible to get them certified for one season.

Cascade Mothers Club To Sponsor Card Party

The first fund raising event of the present school year will be an All-Games party at the Cascade School. The date is Friday, October 21, and the time is 7:30 p. m.

Tickets are now on sale by group leaders or Mothers Club members for 50 cents per person. Tickets may also be purchased at the door. If every member of the Mother's Club who enjoys playing cards—bridge, canasta, or anything you wish—will invite three neighbors or another couple to make up a table of four, they will have a very pleasant evening and help this party to be a real success.

The money raised this year is pledged to be spent towards a finer reading program for your children. Supplemental books and reading aids will be purchased for the school as soon as the money becomes available. Perhaps you would like to contribute towards this aim even if you find it impossible to attend the card party.

An evening of enjoyment, while working to attain a splendid goal, is the purpose of this event. Do plan to come. Bring your husbands, friends and neighbors and you will fill the all purpose room at Cascade school on the evening of October 21st.

Attaining Quality, Financing Education, Most Serious Problems, State Head Says

"As educators and as administrators we have ever sought to improve, to broaden and to upgrade our school programs in order that we might better prepare our children and youth. The task of attaining QUALITY education is not an easy one. Major improvements can only be accomplished by making basic changes in present practices," Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett told the Michigan Association of School Administrators at its 31st annual conference last Thursday, September 22.

"For the school year 1960-61, I believe that our most serious problem, the most far-reaching and the hardest to solve, will be that of adequate financing at all levels of education," said Dr. Bartlett. He emphasized, however, that although adequate financing is basic to every phase and level of education, money alone is not a cure-all for the many ills of education.

He said that a clear indication of the financial position of our schools is found in the amount of money they have had to borrow in the past two years. This has amounted to almost $150 million.

It is estimated that the cost in interest fees for the use of these borrowed funds could run as high as $5 million. "This is money," stated Dr. Bartlett, "that could well have been used to pay for needed equipment; it could have been used to hire 1,000 teachers, or build more than 200 classrooms."

At present the annual enrollment increase is between 50,000 and 55,000 pupils. With this increase come two attendant problems: one, we do not have enough adequately trained and fully qualified teachers to man available classrooms; and, two, we continue to lag behind in the number of adequately equipped classrooms needed to provide rooms where none now exist, to replace obsolete and unsafe facilities, to relieve overcrowding and eliminate multiple sessions.

Dr. Bartlett told the group that there are still eight buildings in use that were constructed before 1850 and another 271 school buildings are being used that were built before 1900. In our state today, more than 57,000 space-age youngsters are attending classes in half-century old structures.

By projecting classroom needs for the next five years, it was found that by the 1964-65 school year we must have an additional 28,000 rooms. This is estimated on an enrollment increase of some 250,000 and to take care of the backlog that now exists. An expenditure of approximately $1.2 billion will be necessary if we are to build these classrooms.

"Hand in hand with our classroom shortage," said Dr. Bartlett, "we find a critical need for better-trained, fully certificated teachers."

This school-year some 8,000 full-time teachers, of approximately 68,000, will not meet the minimum for full certification. They are teaching on special certificates. Dr. Bartlett also touched upon other areas of interest to educators, such as local school district organization, the need for constant curriculum study and revision, and the need for mandatory school in-pection. He told the school administrators that he felt that "our major responsibility today, as it has been in the past, is to see to it that parents, business men, professional people, labor and industry, our state legislators and our national congressmen are made fully aware of our problems and issues in education and that they are kept informed concerning new developments on an up-to-the-minute basis."

It All Depends On the Feeling!

New families have the rare experience of buying all new furniture at one time. It is only the newly weds and their buying is usually somewhat limited because of lack of funds.

It's probably just as well for no woman would want to face so many decisions at one time. According to Eleanor Densmore, County Extension Agent in Home Economics, most families buy a new piece occasionally. The problem they face is finding something to match what they already have. Fact is, we don't really try to match them up exactly any more—we just try to blend them. Even then one can become confused.

It helps to remember that furniture can be roughly divided into two large groups—the formal and the informal.

Formal styles often are named after the English or French royalty who favored it. These kings and queens could afford to have skilled craftsmen create their furniture, and many intricate designs made in fine woods are found in these formal styles.

Informal furniture often developed in rural areas as simplified copies of more formal styles. These were fashioned in native woods and include such styles as Early American and French Provincial.

Although different designs from different periods can be used together, it is usually safer to stick with either the formal or informal feeling throughout the room.

It is also wise to select furniture that is similar in scale. Bulky furniture likes the company of other large, sturdy-looking pieces. Small, slim-lined furniture is more comfortable with its own kind.

Autumn Rhapsody Due in Michigan

This map, prepared by the Michigan Highway Department, shows state trunklines leading into and through some of Michigan's popular fall color tour areas. Several communities that offer mapped tours are indicated. The statewide matted map is designed for use in conjunction with the accompanying Michigan Tourist Council feature, "Autumn Rhapsody Due in Michigan."

Nature's rhapsody of color will soon begin in Michigan. The first chords of the Overture to Autumn have been sounded. Under Nature's baton, a delicate theme is woven between the heavy warmth of summery days and the sense-sharpening chill of autumn nights. Frosts moving southward from the steel-blue waters of Lake Superior set the theme as a crescendo of color rises over the quiet greenness of Michigan's 19 million acres of lush forestland. Trees adopt hues of yellow and brown, with here and there a cymbal clash of livid-red, in a wild display of doomed beauty. Even the suburbanite deserts his expressway-regulated homeward route for a delightful detour along tree-arched side roads.

Autumn is one of Nature's shorter compositions but easily the most brilliant. Concert date is left to the whim of the conductor but Michigan's Tourist Council has arranged a personalized booking agency for those who want free tickets to the performance. A card or letter to the Council office, Lansing 26, Michigan, will bring a report on when the performance is about to begin.

The first movement of this natural masterwork opens with a muted fanfare of frigid wind sweeping southward across Lake Superior into the upper peninsula. Many communities throughout the state have charted special tours of their areas for the autumn traveler.

Munising and outlying points in Alger county offer numerous planned tours through some of the most densely forested areas in the state. Escanaba is the starting point for five tours varying in length from 72 to 130 miles. The view from atop Pine Mountain in Iron Mountain, Michigan affords a spectacular scenic vista.

Gogebic county has conveniently marked the special scenic attractions within its boundaries with wooden Indianhead signs for easy fans will find countless camera subjects along the well-planned group of four tours outlined in Menominee county. Marquette's Sugar Loaf Mountain, Lake Superior shore drive and the historic copper country of the Keweenaw peninsula present different viewpoints of the rugged upper peninsula dressed in its varicolored autumn raiment.

The northern half of Michigan's lower peninsula is covered by more than three million acres of public and private forests which begin the autumnal transformation about a week after its start above the Straits of Mackinac.

Alpena suggests that the fall US-23 from Standish to Rogers City with a return down M-65 or M-33. Cadillac has outlined four tours, varying in length from 20 to 70 miles. Charlevoix is another central point from which four planned color tours emanate.

Cheboygan area fall color enthusiasts recommend US-23 from Rogers City to Mackinaw City, and US-27 from Cheboygan to Indian River. Grayling offers a marked color tour and suggests a canoe float trip down the picturesque Au Sable River. From Houghton Lake, color tourists will find the trip on highways M-76 and M-55 through the Ogemaw hills and US-27 south to Harrison especially attractive.

Hubbard Lake in Alpena county is the center from which color tours radiate along highways US-23, M-65, M-72, and M-71. From Ludington, highways US-31 and US-10 run north, south and east into vivid fall color areas, including the Manistee National Forest. Mackinaw City features tours along the heavily-forested shore line facing the Straits of Mackinac.

Newaygo county has outlined a 125-mile circle color tour which takes the visitor through eight area towns and features such points as "Little Switzerland" and the Big Prairie. Oscoda directs the color tourist to the scenic Au Sable river drive or a boat trip on the river to Five Channels dam. Otsego county highlights the scenic drive on M-32 from Gaylord to Alpena.

Port Austin is the central point for color tours on M-25, east to Harbor Beach and west to Bay Port. St. Helen, in Roscommon county, recommends the system of county roads lacing Houghton Lake State Forest. A triangular route runs north from Standish on US-23 to Tawas, west on M-55, then south on M-70, M-33, or M-76 for a scenic trip on excellent roads.

At Tawas, the fall color devotee is directed to the Huron National Forest, the Au Sable river or to Jameson's wildlife sanctuary. Vanderbilt, in Otsego county, has mapped a leisurely fall color drive along US-27, where sharp-eyed travelers may get a glimpse of Michigan's protected elk herd.

The final movement of this autumn symphony of color will be played to a vast audience in the southern portion of Michigan's lower peninsula.

Barry County has a planned 35-mile tour taking travelers west from Hastings into the Yankee Springs recreation area and returning by a different route. From Howell, a visitor in search of autumn beauty is directed east on US-16 to Kensington Metropolitan Park. US-23, between Saginaw and Bay City affords excellent fall color viewing. Kalamazoo county offers three tours from 33 to 45 miles long. Chelsea has two mapped trips that make an easy afternoon's drive. Battle Creek recommends the arboretum and the Kellogg bird sanctuary.

Mapped color tours for motorists and guided nature hikes just minutes from downtown Detroit are offered by the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority. St. Louis, in Gratiot county, guides tourists to the Pine River Road for autumn beauty. The Irish Hills in South-central Michigan near Jackson present many opportunities for color viewing.

Throughout the state, swimmer-bereft, lonely beaches seem to withdraw from the chilly caress of windswept waters. An insect rhythm section, augmented by occasional booms from a torpid bullfrog, sets a subtle background for nostalgic solos from birds reluctant to begin their seasonal emigrations.

Human Relations Director To Address Orchard View Parent-Teachers Club

For October 17, the Parent Teachers club of the Orchard View School have secured Miss Mary Brand, director of Human relations of the Detroit Public Schools.

Miss Brand will speak on "The Community Educates Too." The program will start at 8 p. m. Refreshments will be furnished and served by the girls home economics class of Orchard View. All parents and teachers of the community are invited to attend to hear this very interesting and informative speaker.

CASCADE EXTENSION GROUP TO MEET ON OCTOBER 18

The Cascade Extension group will meet on Tuesday October 18, at the home of Mrs. Martin Vanderveen, 2228 Thornapple River Drive at 1 p. m. for luncheon. The lesson will be on "Fabrics."

Varsity Team Defeats Lee

The Forest Hills Rangers won their third game against one loss Friday night by defeating a stubborn Lee team 12-8 on the local gridiron.

The Rangers scored early in the second period when Art Homrich ran the ball over from the one yard line on a quarterback sneak. The touchdown capped a 60 yard drive that featured running by John Van Tassel and Dick Schroder.

The Rebels scored a two point safety a few moments later when the Rangers fumbled in their own end zone.

The Rebels took an 8-6 lead just prior to the half when Lee Coutchie scored on a 45 yard pass play.

The Rangers tallied the game winning touchdown in the fourth quarter when Doug Stiles scored on an 11 yard sweep that capped a 45 yard drive.

Score by Quarters:

Forest Hills	0	6	0	6
Lee	0	8	0	0

Non-Conference Game

The Forest Hills Rangers will play a non-conference game Friday night against the Wyoming Park Vikings at Wyoming Park starting at 7:30. The Vikings recently withdrew from the Grand Valley and will compete in the O-K Conference beginning with the 1961 season.

The Vikings have a dangerous ball club because of the presence of Larry Schoonmaker, who is probably the speediest back in the Grand Rapids area. Larry has scored all the touchdowns scored by Wyoming this year except one. Most of them were on long runs. In last year's game Larry suffered a broken leg against the Rangers. The Vikings scored a 20-6 win over Rogers in the opener. They lost a close 14-12 game to Lowell before succumbing to powerful Godwin last week 32-0.

James Monroe was President of the U. S. when Florida was purchased from Spain.

Explorer Post Elects Officers

Cascade Explorer Post 2334 elected the following officers: president, Sybrant Dykhouse; vice-president, Lyle Dykhuizen; secretary-treasurer, Douglas Stiles; district representatives, Bill Merrow and Chas. DeMink; quarter master, Dick Osborn.

Any boys over 14 who would like to join the post are invited to attend on Monday evening at 7 p. m. at the Cascade Christian Church. Milton Heaven is the explorer advisor.

Cascade Wranglers Perform at Football Game

Members of the Cascade Wranglers 4-H group did a square dance performance on horses at the Junior College Dodge City Football game Saturday night at Houseman field between halves.

The club did a real nice job and received a lot of applause.

Members of the club are Peggy Clark, Tom Goorhouse, Priscilla Fredrickson, Dan Doorn, Nancy and Bill Zoellmer, Nancy Walma and Bill Slager. Connie Goorhouse did the calling for the group.

Without the help and cooperation of the parents who furnished transportation for the horses and the equipment the group would have been unable to make this performance.

The group is under the direction and leadership of Mrs. Ted Walma and Nancy Walma.

COMMUNITY CLUB TO MEET ON OCTOBER 21

The Murphy School Community Club will meet on Friday evening, October 21, at 8 p. m. at the school. The speaker for the evening will be Clayton VanDyke, who will talk on "The Incorporation of Paris Township."

It is hoped there will be a good turnout for this meeting.

'Ask Permission' Hunters Urged As Season Opens

About three quarters of a million small-game hunters will head for Michigan fields this month. Most will find that farmers aren't such bad guys.

In a 1958 survey, the Michigan Conservation department found that four of five farmers would let a party of one or two hunt on their land.

"They seldom say 'no' when a hunter asks permission," points out Charles Shick, Michigan State University wildlife specialist. "Most sportsmen are responsible people, and conservation groups are working on the few who aren't."

For example, the Michigan United Conservation clubs have printed cards offering a $50 reward for information leading to the arrest of any hunter who causes damage. The clubs' 65,000 members leave a card with each landowner they visit.

Small-game season opens on October 20 south of a line from Bay City to Muskegon. October 1 was opening day north of that line. Shick passes on these tips to hunters:

"Get to know a farmer before the season opens. Then chances are he'll be glad to see you come.

"Don't hunt in groups of more than three or four. No one likes to feel he's being invaded.

"Invite the farmer to join you. He'll appreciate it even if he can't accept.

"Find out where the farm boundaries are. Then you won't accidentally trespass on a neighbor's property.

"Ask the farmer where you can park in his yard. The car assures him you'll return before going home.

"Never fire a shotgun toward livestock or buildings, even though they may seem out of range.

"Keep guns unloaded and pointed in a safe direction around people, farm buildings and livestock.

"Ask the farmer first."

THIS NOT THIS!

Careless gun handling is one of the leading causes of hunting accidents in Michigan every year. This unwitting hunter above (right) shows a prime example of what NOT to do! Always keep your gun pointed away from you and others. Before crossing a fence, lay your gun flat on the ground with its stock pointed toward the fence. Do not walk in the path of the barrel. After crossing, pull your gun through the fence (left). Never climb a fence with a loaded gun!

"Iron Horses" in Final Pasture As Monuments

ANNIVERSARY GIFTS are these two locomotives, donated by Chesapeake and Ohio Railway to Detroit, Michigan and Washington Court House, Ohio. Locomotive No. 2776, left, is shown in Washington Court House's Community Park, where it was dedicated as a monument to a bygone era in railroading. Kids swarming over the old steamer were made "Junior Engineers of No. 2776." Mrs. Gay Willis of Washington C. H. (Mrs. Ohio of 1960) is leaning out of the cab while R. N. Lynch, C&O superintendent, Hocking Division, is holding the hand of Fayette County Sesquicentennial Queen, Mrs. Joyce Denton. At right is Locomotive No. 1223, presented to the Michigan State Fair Commission for permanent display at the State Fair Grounds in Detroit. Knocking in gold spike during dedication ceremonies were, left to right, John Hanks of the New York Central, chairman of the Greater Detroit Railroad Community Service Committee; Donald L. Swanson, general manager of the Fair, and Buford G. Nash, C&O assistant regional manager, Detroit. The steam engines were given away by C&O as part of the railroad's 175th Anniversary observance this year.

Miss Lily Byrne Becomes Bride of Howard J. Vroma

Miss Lily May C. Byrne became the bride of Howard J. Vroma on Saturday morning in St. Patrick's church, Parnell. Rev. Gordon Grant performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Raymond F. Check Your Trailer Heater Before Your Deer Hunting Trip

Hunters are being cautioned by Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, to make sure their trailer heaters are safe to prevent a recurrence of the tragedies which killed nine and hospitalized at least four hunters in Michigan last year.

Deaths among hunters and others using trailers were attributed to a heater whose vent was improperly designed and constructed. It allowed carbon monoxide to accumulate in the trailer instead of being drawn out into the air where it would be harmlessly dissipated. The defective heater is no longer manufactured.

Quick action by health department officials and the state police resulted in the issuance of warnings to travelers hauling trailers on Michigan highways. Warnings of danger were also broadcast statewide in newspapers and on radio and television.

If you have reason to believe your trailer heater may not be functioning properly, have it checked immediately by a reliable service agency. Do not use the trailer until the heating unit has been tested and declared safe. Your local health department will advise you on the matter of checking the heater and venting system.

Safety precautions for heaters include:

1. All gas heaters must be equipped with an automatic shut off control which shuts off the flow of gas to the pilot and burner in case of pilot flame failure.
2. Vent stacks should be of approved construction, appropriately sized in accordance with heater manufacturer's instructions. Such vents should be installed in a rigid manner and should be raised at least eight inches above the roof line. The weather cap should be non-collapsible with an open area equal to at least the duct area.
3. The gas heater should be constructed and installed solidly to withstand road shock.
4. Air intake for combustion must be supplied through openings to the outside with such openings being adjacent to the heater and having an area of about 10 square inches.
5. Complete and permanently attached instructions for operation of gas heating equipment must be provided.

Carbon monoxide is a silent killer. It strikes without warning because it is an odorless, colorless gas. It only takes a few minutes for enough carbon monoxide to build up to kill a person. It's always safer to leave a couple of windows open. Even if it means carrying extra blankets, the added safety precaution will be worth it.

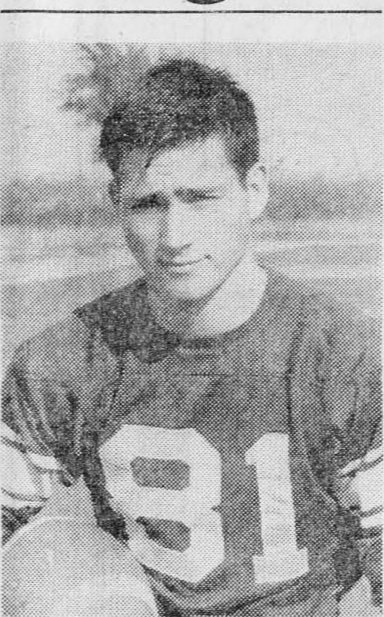

Car windows should always be left open a little while traveling also, according to health department engineers. Carbon monoxide fumes can leak into the car and cause death or illness, particularly if the muffler is defective.

Fifty-nine persons died from accidental carbon monoxide poisoning in Michigan last year.

The Olympic Games, first held in 776 B. C. were discontinued in 394 A. D. and not revived until 1896.

Lowell's first centenarian, Mrs. Lucky, died in 1861 at the advanced age of 101 years.

Meet the Rangers

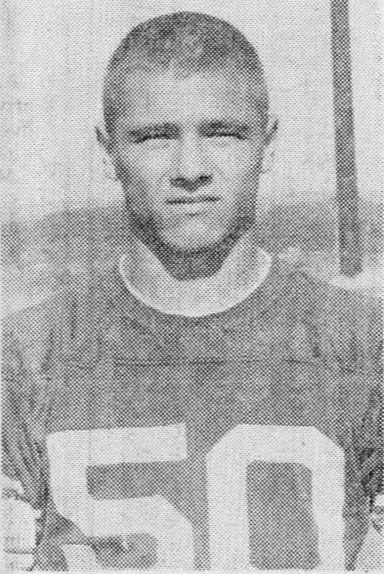

John Van Tassel

John is playing his fourth season for the Forest Hills Rangers. John has very good speed and is rapidly developing into one of the Rangers best running backs.

He will start at halfback for the Rangers against Wyoming Park this week. John has been used primarily on the defensive unit this season, but he has developed so rapidly that he is being moved up to the number one unit on offense.

Extremely quiet, John takes his football seriously. He runs the hurdles and high jumps on the track team. A good student, John plans to attend college after graduation. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Tassel of Argo Street in Eastmont.

Nick Duiven

Nick is a Senior end playing his fourth season for the Rangers. Nick is quick and agile. He possesses a good pair of hands for pass receiving. He is also a good punter.

His quick reaction makes him an effective blocker in the Ranger forward wall. Nick made a sensational catch for a touchdown in the Kelloggsville game. He plays on the basketball squad, and is the O-K Conference high jump champion.

Nick intends to enroll at Junior College next year. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Duiven of Cascade Road in Cascade.

Her sister, Mrs. Clair H. Cryslar attended as matron of honor. Miss Karen Silcox and Mrs. Bruce Fase were bridesmaids, wearing street length dresses of gold taffeta, fashioned with basque bodices and bouffant skirts. Their headresses were tiaras of gold velvet, accented with pearls. Their cascade bouquets were of gold and bronze chrysanthemums.

Bruce G. Fase assisted his brother as best man. Ushers were Carlton Wilcox of Clarksville and Clair H. Cryslar.

At a reception held in the church parlors, Mr. and Mrs. Clare A. Weis, brother-in-law and sister of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. William Fryover, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom were masters and mistresses of ceremonies. Hong Kong Children Aid
Kent Goal of Crop Drive

"450,000 hot rice dinners for Hong Kong school children", was chosen as the goal for the 1960 Kent County CROP DRIVE, to be conducted during Thanksgiving Week, at a meeting of the County CROP Committee held the past week at Central Christian Church. County Chairman Don Oosterhouse emphasized that monetary goal of $5,000.00 will provide that many hot rice meals for Hong Kong school children, most of them refugees from Communist China, who would otherwise in most instances go hungry.

Besides choosing the Hong Kong food project as their specific goal, the CROP Committee also decided to continue the plan of working closely with the Kent County Council of Churches, with a representative in each participating congregation wherever possible.

CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program) is the food distribution arm of the Church World Service

Division of the National Council of Churches. Other local committee members, besides Chairman Don Oosterhouse, are Mr. and Mrs. McGuire of the Fountain Street Baptist Church, Rev. Paul Robinson of the Grandville Methodist Church who is also Methodist Denominational Representative on the State CROP Board, Mrs. Daniel Oaks representing the Kent County Council of Church Women, and Floyd Hilliker of the Church of the Brethren, Publicity Chairman.

LADIES TO MEET

The Ladies Aid of the Ada Christian Reformed church will meet at the church at 8 p. m. on Tuesday evening, October 18.
