Ed Sullivans Enjoy Short Vacation in Florida

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sullivan of Ada returned home two weeks earlier than planned from their Florida vacation. Together with many long distance phone calls, numerous special letters, and a hurried airplane trip back to Ada, just one week after arrival in Florida, all due to pressing business matters, this made their vacation trip more like work than work itself.

They took time however to drive through the keys and have a first hand look at the tremendous damages of the late hurricane, (Donna). She will not be forgotten for many years.

Houses were so completely demolished their concrete foundations were the only parts left, and some of these were damaged so severely that they are useless to rebuild on.

We have pictures of a large boat in the sixty foot class that was blown out of the gulf, mowed down four houses and several large trees. And finally came to rest several hundred feet from where it started. The once beautiful palm trees are a scabby, sick looking mess.

But like our very own Michigan, and our twisters that flatten our towns and villages, the people are never in defeat. They quickly clean up and rebuild.

So to Florida, and Yankees with Florida homes, a hearty salute to you all.

Ed

MURPHY COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING ON MARCH 20

The Murphy Community Club will meet on Monday evening, March 20 at the Murphy School at 8 p. m. for a regular meeting.

The House of Representatives approved and sent to the Senate a proposal for a constitutional amendment which would allow the state to assist with bringing industry to Michigan. The proposal carries a provision which will set up a fund of $5,000,000 which can be used to make loans on a matching basis with local funds, to assist a new industry to become established.

The proposal embodies many of the suggestions made by the Governor in his message to the legislature on the subject.

The House approved Senate Joint Resolution C, already approved by the Senate, to give the people of the District of Columbia the right to vote for president and vice-president. It requires ratification by 38 states to become a part of the Federal Constitution.

The House approved a proposal of the Rules Committee to create another committee composed of nine members to study the problems of industry and tourist business. This raises to 48 the number of standing committees of the House.

Another Rules change would add two to five members to most of the present standing committees. The new members will be named by Speaker Don R. Pears, and there will be an equal number of Democrats and Republicans appointed to the new posts.

Legislators raced deadlines for introduction of bills this week, with a total of 376 bills being introduced as of Thursday evening, in the House and 193 in the Senate. Committees are busily studying these measures and holding hearings, all a necessary part of the legislative process.

The House passed and sent to the Senate, House Bill No. 3, which amends and brings up to date, the laws which govern the courts of our state. The bill provided considerable fireworks on the floor, both during General Orders and upon final passage.

A bill to regulate the private detective business was introduced this week which would bring this activity under licensing by the office of the Secretary of State, and provide for licensing fees. It would end certain abuses that appear to have been occurring when some people engaged in the "private eye" business were not trained or qualified to do the job.

Last Monday evening, Republican members of the Legislature gave assurance that they would support the party ticket in the April election, indicating a better feeling and understanding between the Legislature and the State Central Committee.

MENTHOL A-MOVING

The swiftly rising popularity of menthol cigarettes with the American public is currently a dominant factor in the growth of the cigarette market, a major tobacco company points out.

Joseph G. Crume, vice president of Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corporation, noted that the increase in menthol cigarette sales in the first eight months of 1960 was equal to more than half of the increase for all types of cigarettes combined—7.5 billion units for menthol brands as against a 14.3 billion rise for all brands.

In 1959 sales of menthol cigarettes totaled 51.1 billion units, for an 11.3 percent share of the total market. Mr. Crume predicts a possible rise for menthols this year to nearly 14 percent of the market, with a further gain to around 16 percent possible by 1962.

B & W experience with menthol cigarettes goes back to 1933, when it introduced Kools, the first popular menthol brand.

Actually menthol is just one of many taste accents that cigarette companies have experimented with since 1900. "The only difference," reports Mr. Crume, "is that the smoking public likes menthol but had no taste for the others." He cites cloves, spearmint, cinnamon and certain wines as a few of the cigarette flavors that have been tried over the years.

Religious Growth Found in College

Many religious institutions have not really prepared young people to know what to do about doubt when it comes, suggests C. Grey Austin, University of Michigan assistant co-ordinator of religious affairs.

"Too often a student feels that if he has doubts he really belongs outside the church," Austin explains. "We try to help him see that his own religious institution has the greatest resources for helping him with his problem."

"In many cases, students have not really been educated in their religion beyond the junior high level. This means that when they come to college they haven't had the opportunity to think about religion at the college level. As a result, they are less able to meet religious challenges than challenges in other subject areas."

Austin feels that if a student does lose his faith in college it probably was immature to begin with. "On the other hand," he says "I think many students do grow up religiously while they are in college and they do this with the help of the churches which put some of their best trained people to work with students."

Austin believes the time when faculty members enjoyed sniping at their students' religion is pretty well over. "Certainly students are challenged in classwork to do some re-thinking but there are not many professors today who enjoy stating an atheistic position just to jar students. For the most part, the challenges are constructive and are meant to be."

A major challenge comes to the student simply because he finds himself in a community made up of people of widely divergent religious backgrounds, he adds. "This is often the student's first experience in meeting people of differing faiths."

"Most students react with a great deal of curiosity about other faiths. Foreign students are often very capable of talking about their religious beliefs. This provides a stimulation not easily found in most communities. With 1,650,000 Americans now living and working abroad, understanding of other faiths becomes increasingly important."

Austin sees growth in the religious process on a campus of many faiths as "one that should not alarm people." The U-M, through its Office of Religious Affairs, "tries to help the churches to work effectively with students and provides students with information about religious groups. Religious counselors help the students over the rough spots within the framework of their own faith," he explains.

In addition, a series of noncredit courses is available to students of Catholic, Protestant and Jewish faiths. These supplement the many U-M courses in the field of religion.

A Safe Heat Lamp
Many farm fires are started by makeshift heat lamp installations. As a result, many fire insurance companies have either adjusted their rates or now require that farmers have an approved heat lamp installation. A correct installation can provide safe and efficient supplemental heat. Here are the essentials for a safe system: (1) unit plugged directly into a permanent circuit outlet; (2) rubber-jacketed, asbestos-insulated cord approved by Underwriters' Laboratories (type HSJ); (3) unit hung by chain or No. 9 wire, never by the cord; (4) heat-resistant porcelain switchless receptacle; (5) strong bail or guard band on reflector to provide mechanical protection as well as to roll the unit over and direct the heat rays upward should the lamp ever fall with the cord still connected.

The National Safety Council says: Be sure your windshield wiper blades and arms are in perfect condition. You need one ounce of arm pressure for each inch of rubber blade length to sweep off rain or road spray, instead of sliding over it and causing poor visibility.

What's IQF?

Have you noticed the letters... IQF... on some of the polyethylene packages in the frozen food chests? IQF means Individual Quick Freezing, a modern freezing technique for vegetables and fruits, says Virginia Heit, Michigan State University Food Marketing Agent for Grand Rapids area. As its name indicates, this method consists of freezing every green pea, green bean, corn kernel and strawberry individually instead of the conventional block freezing system. The frozen units of fruits and vegetables are then packed in polyethylene bags.

There are some advantages to IQF because it does mean that vegetables can be packaged in the larger size bags... and this is usually less costly to the consumer plus the fact that you can take out what you need without fuss and put the remainder back into the freezer.

Next time you see the letters... IQF... you will immediately know that these letters mean... Individual Quick Freezing.

Michigan's Educational System Outstanding in the Nation

Michigan's educational system is recognized as outstanding in our nation and is geared to assist our progressive industry.

Twenty years before Michigan was admitted to the Union in 1837, the University of Michigan was founded. Twenty years after Michigan became a State, Michigan Agricultural College, the first land grant college in the United States, was opened.

Michigan pioneered the kindergarten. It is among the leaders in primary and secondary schools. At the college level, Michigan is unsurpassed in curricula and faculty.

To keep pace with Michigan's industrial progress, its colleges and universities have placed increasing emphasis on research. The recently opened Institute of Science and Technology at the University of Michigan is an important contribution to the State's industrial advancement. Research in electronics and space vehicles has opened new fields for Michigan industry. Research is going on continually in agriculture, mining and other areas.

Michigan ranks third nationally in the number of enrollments for degrees of Bachelor of Science in Engineering. It is sixth in the number of candidates for degrees of Doctor of Philosophy.

In addition to making direct contributions to the progress of business and industry through research, it educates the men and women who will provide top level management and scientific personnel in future years. It trains our young people in the professions, the humanities and the arts as well as in the fields of business, industry

Full Moon Fixes Date of Easter

April Fools' Day this year will begin with a full moon—the moon that will fix the date of Easter with no fooling.

"The full moon at 12:48 a. m. April 1 is of special interest, for it is the full moon that fixes the date of Easter," Professor Hazel M. Losh of The University of Michigan notes.

"In 325 A. D., the church fathers gathered in council at Nicaea, and among other things set the date for Easter once and for all.

"It was designated as the first Sunday following the first full moon that comes after the vernal equinox. This year the Sunday falls on April 2, a relatively early date," the U-M astronomer explains.

"Probably a good reason for using the full moon for reckoning Easter was to enable the pilgrims traveling to the Holy City to have the advantage of full moonlight for comparatively safe travel by night as well as by day.

"This date fluctuates over a period of 35 days between the equinox and April 25, the latest date on which Easter may occur. In 1943, it occurred on the latest date, this will not happen again until 2038 A. D. In 1951, it came as early as March 25.

"These extremely early and late dates are rare, the earliest possible one not due until 2285 A. D.," Professor Losh says.

State Park Permit Regulations

"If I buy an annual state park windshield permit, do I still have to pay 50 cents every time I come to the park? If I change cars during the year, can I remove the permit and put it on my new car?"

These are two of the many questions that Michigan's parks permit requirement has raised during its first month.

The answer to the questions above is "no". Parks users need either a $2 annual or a 50-cent daily permit, not both. However, if a family owns two cars and has a permit on one, it must buy an annual or daily permit to enter are not transferable from one car to another.

Here are other questions which parks managers are being asked.

"You mean I even have to have a permit in the wintertime?" Yes, the permit requirement went into effect January 1 at 55 of 62 state parks. Parks men are issuing violation notices to visitors who do not have permits on their cars. Persons receiving these notices either have a five-day "grace" period to buy annual permits or must purchase a daily permit before leaving parks.

Actually, it will pay those who plan to swim, picnic, and camp at parks this summer to buy their annual permit now so they can get the most for their money.

"Will the money from the permit go back into parks?" Yes. Pending legislative action, the Conservation Department will launch a $5,000,000 parks improvement and lands acquisition program in 1961. The program, to be financed by permit sales, calls for $1,000,000 in new lands purchases and $4,000,000 in improvements to campgrounds, picnic areas, parks utilities, toilets, bathhouses, and other facilities.

"Where do I put the permit on my motor scooter?" Any suitable place where it will be visible. For other vehicles, it goes on the lower righthand corner of windshields.

Warts Hold No Cancer Danger, U-M Doctor Says

Warts are caused by a virus and are in no way related to cancer, a University of Michigan dermatologist contends.

E. Richard Harrell (M. D.) says "A person can have a wart for many years, and it will never be cancerous." He disagrees with a widely-published statement by a physician which indicated that a "fair percentage" of warts become cancerous.

Warts, according to the U-M specialist, are harmless skin growths which result from abnormal cell multiplication, while cancer grows at the expense of healthy tissue. He feels the confusion developed because certain types of skin cancers may look somewhat like warts in their early stages of development.

Dr. Harrell said the body reacts to the wart virus in much the same way as to the measles, chicken pox or mumps virus. Like most viral disorders the wart is contagious to susceptible people. On first contact with the germ, usually in childhood, the body summons all defenses to build antibodies and expel it. But while measles last only two weeks, a wart can remain for any length of time.

The dermatologist explains that because the growth affects only the skin surface, it is not irritating enough to immediately create the necessary antibodies.

Eventually, however, the body overcomes the wart virus and is then immune. At this point the wart "suddenly" disappears—with no thanks to a full moon, a drop of blood, midnight burial of dishes or other folk-medicine "cures."

A wart can appear anywhere on the skin: on the hands, feet, face or mouth. Dr. Harrell says. The virus that causes the outward-growing bump on the hand is the same one responsible for the plantar wart, that painful introvert on the sole of the foot. Because of their location on the weight-bearing surface, plantar warts are forced to burrow inward, probably exerting pressure on tiny nerves deep in the skin.

MICHIGAN IS EDUCATION

Historically, the nation has always recognized Michigan's leadership in education. Michigan, from its earliest days, has recognized that education holds the key to future leadership and greatness.

Michigan's annual investment of nearly one billion dollars in education has resulted in an educational system, from kindergarten to college and beyond, unexcelled anywhere in the world.

For industry in Michigan, this educational system provides skilled workers and managers, versatile technicians and scientists in number and quality equalled in few other places. One more reason Michigan is a great place for industry.

Help carry Michigan's message to the nation. Clip this ad and mail it to someone in another state with your own comment. Let's talk up Michigan and its advantages for industry. Together, we can assure a greater future for all of us.

• Non-Freezing Automatic Stock Waterer •

Stock watering units that take advantage of ground heat, heat in the water itself, and a small supplemental heating unit can be installed to provide year-around, ice-free water to all kinds of livestock. These units can be located in the open, in covered feeding sheds or partially protected areas. Only a small amount of water is stored in the unit—water flows into the bowl as the animals drink. This provides a constant supply of fresh water several degrees above freezing. When the waterer is not being used, warm ground air rising in the tile base below frost line and a small thermostatically-controlled heating unit placed near the float valve keep the water supply from freezing. One such automatic waterer will furnish fresh water to 30 head of cattle and 60 head of hogs. Detailed information about this unit is available in the office of the local county extension agent.

Money does "grow on trees" for tree farmers. Today 46 states, aided by the federal government, offer the small woodland owner free technical advice and assistance in forest management. The United States Forest Service estimates that there are about 48 million acres in need of replanting—and much of this land is good for nothing but trees.

SHORTAGE OF PENNIES

There has been a shortage of pennies in the U. S. recently, a situation which has been attributed to various reasons, including piggy banks and a rumor that certain 1960 copper coins with a small "o" might have an intrinsic value as a collector's item.

Individually, the lowly penny may not be too important to the nation's economy, but collectively they become the mouse that roared. One penny of the consumer's dollar, for instance, represents $3.13 billion in business today, according to Sales Management, a leading publication in the marketing field. This compared with $2.54 billion in 1955.

Lynch Calls for Four-Part Program of Township Action

let the Township mushroom as it may, with the eventual blight and slum areas which will most certainly follow. In Ada Township we have three principal groups: The people living on farms, those living in the village, and those living on smaller tracts which are neither village nor farm. To solve the problems that face our Township, we shall need the combined efforts of all our residents. The first step in this direction will be to improve communications as to what is being done month by month by the Township officers and the Town Board. It is reasonable to expect that our voters, being better informed on current issues, will take a more active part in shaping the decisions that affect us all and will unite in a common purpose—to seek answers that are best for the township as a whole.

Last week I announced my intention to run as a Republican "sticker" candidate for the post of Ada Township Supervisor in the General Elections scheduled for next April 3rd. Since this announcement I have met many residents of our Township at meetings which were held to investigate what measures I would endorse if I were elected. I feel that all of us learned something from these meetings, and I'd like to take this opportunity to place certain views on record.

First of all I have been surprised that so many of our voters seemed to feel that there were no "big issues" involved in this election. It seems to me that at least four major issues will very soon require the prompt and capable attention of the Township Officers, and these issues are: Unification of the Township, Planning for Expansion, Zoning for Best Use of Land, and Development of Township Roads. Let me mention a few points related to these issues.

In the matter of unifying the Township: During the period of the past ten years Ada Township has grown considerably, and it will grow even more rapidly in the years ahead. We must choose whether to meet this expansion with a planned program or whether to expand: Our township is expanding, and we must have a realistic plan to regulate this growth. Industry is moving out of the cities, and some of it will be coming our way. This can be a good thing or otherwise, depending largely on how well we prepare for it. We need industry to provide jobs for our people and to decrease the individual tax load by spreading the burden over a wider base. At the same time there are many fine residential districts that must be protected from any industrial invasion. By converting some of the now-vacant land in Ada Township to commercial use we will protect these homes and will attract desirable companies as occupants of these business areas. In short, the right type of business in the right location will be an asset to every resident of Ada Township.

These are two "planks" in the platform I offer the voters, and I should like to discuss other programs next week. Please give these issues your sincere and earnest consideration. We cannot let ourselves lag behind—let's move forward in an orderly, down-to-earth, common-sense manner with YOUR candidate for Supervisor, Richard A. Lynch

3rd Annual Variety Show Huge Success Pay A Penny

Sy Dykhouse

"Everything's Coming Up Roses" and Friday night, March 10, everything was coming up music, magic, and modern jazz. The third annual Variety Show sponsored by the choir had come to Forest Hills High School.

Everyone felt that it was a terrific show with one exception. There wasn't enough room. With approximately 750 patrons in a room built for 500, it was a little crowded. Due to this crowded condition, next year the Variety Show will be held for two nights.

There was a lot of work put into this show by the choir, Mr. MacInness, Mr. Lyons, Mr. Klawiter, and a host of others; but it was well worth it since their satisfaction is great from doing such a terrific show.

The show contained two parts with an intermission between. Coffee and cookies were served for the adults and cokes for the young set. This proved a very good idea for intermission, but again it was very crowded. We are sure though, that by having the show for two nights next year, things will be much better. Although the acts and decorations will have to go quite a ways to top this year's set.

Card of Thanks

I would like to thank all the students of the Choir and Band who participated in the Variety Show, the acts, the stage crew, Don Lyons and their classes for the outstanding sets and decorations. Without the wholehearted cooperation of everybody involved, we could not have had a successful show. C. MacInness

Mike Krueer

A move has been made to strengthen the already standing rule that no student is to be in the hall without a hall pass or out of class without the permission of the teacher. It was announced Tuesday the 7th, that any student caught in the halls without a pass is to be fined one penny and the teacher at the class from which the student is absent without a pass is to be fined one penny.

The money obtained from these fines is being contributed to the fund raising drive for the new college.

Forest Hills Finishes Basketball Season

The Forest Hills basketball team ended their season Friday, the 3rd with 3 wins and 13 losses. This was the Rangers second season of Varsity basketball, and was by far its best season. It has shown that the Rangers are always striving for improvement.

Even though the Rangers will be losing 10 seniors through graduation, the Rangers will be gaining quite a few good players from the reserves. So we should expect an even better season next year.

The scores of the games for this year are:

	They	Us
Caledonia	43	36

The Rangers lagged behind 18-2, 31-13, and 44-19 at the conclusion of the first three periods respectively. Then in the fourth period the Rangers came back to score 13 points against their highly favored opponents, but it wasn't quite enough and the Rangers were forced to go down in defeat.

Forest Hills

Duiven 2-3-7; Bailey 2-1-5; Grimes 0-4-4; Schroeder 2-0-4; Boomers 1-3-5; Hughes 0-1-1; Bushouse 1-0-2; Graham 0-2-2; and Simkins 1-0-2.

Downed by W. Ottawa

The Rangers on Friday, March 3, took the lead 14-13 at the conclusion of the first period against West Ottawa. But they unfortunately ended up on the bottom, 55-41.

After having the lead at the conclusion of the first period the Rangers dropped behind 30-27, and 44-35, at the conclusion of the next two periods. They tried a comeback in the fourth period but were knocked down into a defeat.

Reserves Triumph

The Ranger Reserves triumphed March 3, over West Ottawa 55-49. The victors gained their lead in the first period 12-6 and kept it throughout the rest of the game. The Rangers lead 26-19 and 41-37 at the conclusion of the 2nd and 3rd periods respectively.

Doughnuts?

Starting with last Thursday, the 9th of March, the Senior Class will hold weekly doughnut sales. The sales will be held every Thursday noon until the end of the year. The doughnuts will be sold to both Junior and Senior Highs. Because the Junior High bought so many last time, the senior class has promised to buy more for the next sale.

$9.15 was made on the first sale. It is hoped that by having more doughnuts on sale, a greater profit will be made in the future.

Girls to Slave For Lazy Boys

Mike Krueer

Monday, March 13 will mark the official beginning of "Twirp Week" at Forest Hills. During this week, the girls will take the part of the boys in such activities as carrying books, opening doors, sharpening pencils, and all the other little jobs that the FHHS boys are always willing to do for the girls.

The "Twirp Week" is to be terminated Friday night by a twirp dance which will be held in the All Purpose Building.

The festivities of "Twirp Week" are being sponsored by the Spanish Club under the direction of Brian Cornell, President of the Club.

Citizens Committee Meets To Discuss Activities

Mary Jervis

The Citizen Committee had a meeting Tuesday at 8 in the room of B-1 of the High School.

The Committee discussed having a Senior and Junior play. This is highly objected by Mr. Van Landingham and Mr. Fletcher. If this idea is approved a teacher will work with the students.

Also discussed by the Citizens sub-committee was the problem of keeping teachers. They decided, after Mr. Chambers agreed, that the teachers salary needed to be raised in order to meet the standards of city schools.

These ideas will be given to the board of directors, who will make final decision.

The meeting adjourned at 10:15 p. m.

Down With Communism!

Mike Krueer

Friday the 10th of March, the entire High School body saw a film entitled "Operation Abolition". This film was about the Communist incited riots in San Francisco and showed how a few men, trained in starting riots, can move 1,000 or more students into mass rebellion whether they believe in the Communist ideas or not.

The film showed police tactics in breaking up the mobs. The film pointed out how the newspapers played up the riots and blamed police for injuring students when actually the police were hurt more than the students.

The film was explained by Captain Randall of the Sheriff's Department. A panel discussion was to have been held, but due to lack of time, the panel discussion had to be postponed.

Art Class in Process Of Sculpturing Figures

The Senior High Art classes are in the process of sculpturing clay figurines of every shape, size, color and form. These then will probably be displayed to the school within the next few weeks.

These sculptures start with a ball of green clay, any size which is molded into the desired shape and is set to dry. Then it is sanded down, painted and glazed with a white paint-like material that dries to a clear shine when baked in a clay oven.

The projects vary from beer mugs and jewelry boxes to figurines of dogs, horses, elephants and a variety of characters. The art classes have done an exceptional job in this type of Ceramic work.
