Mutilate Discarded License Plates

Secretary of State James M. Hare warned Michigan drivers buying new license plates to destroy or mutilate their old, but still valid, license plates and tabs.

"The old green and gold plates with their 1961 tabs can be used until midnight on February 28, 1962," Hare said. "When buyers of 1962 licenses mount their 1962 green and white plates they often fail to destroy their discarded license. Criminal elements in the community can pick up such plates attach them to a vehicle, and steal the vehicle, use it for a joy ride, or use it in committing a crime."

Because the original owner does not know it is being misused, nobody reports the "missing number" and the police have difficulty in apprehending the thieves, or in checking out chiselers who may be using someone else's plates on an old jalopy for a few hundred days of no-fee driving.

Hare suggested that all persons keep their old plates in their basements or other reasonable secure place until March 1, or that they tin-snip them in half to avoid their being used illegally before tossing them into a trash can. He pointed out that every year a few innocent people have some unpleasant explaining to do to enforcement officers when "their plates have been reported on a vehicle involved in a crime, a hit-run accident, or a teen-agers rumble."

Nearly 2.5 Million Students Leave School

With the need for trained personnel more acute than ever in view of the advancing technological age, it appears that America is not getting the most from its youthful population.

Not only does it pose a problem from the standpoint of utilizing our available manpower; it has become a dangerous social situation, according to some of our leading government officials.

A major problem apparently is the large number of students who are leaving school before they receive their education. Statistics now point to the fact that about 2.5 million of the 10.8 million students now enrolled in public and private schools beneath the college level quit school before graduation. And laws in many states permit them to leave before the age of 16.

Although the number of dropouts is not rising perceptibly, the advent of the automation and space age is lifting job requirements, making it more difficult for untrained people to earn a living.

Emphasis now among some educators is placed on keeping teenagers in school until high school graduation and in bolstering instruction in sciences, languages, and vocational training for those obviously not destined for college.

Cascapers Plan Christmas Square Dance Party

On Saturday, December 9, the Cascapers are holding a Christmas square dance party. The entertainment committee has big plans, including holiday decorations, exchange of small gifts and a visit from Santa.

The Club formed last year with 28 couples interested in learning to square dance. To the pleasant surprise of those forming the club, membership has reached fifty couples; the limit as set by the constitution. Most of these couples plan to attend the Christmas dance.

At their last party, the club members approved their new constitution and by-laws.

This Christmas party typifies the club's objective "to encourage the membership to enjoy early and modern folk dancing and to provide an opportunity for social recreation for the club members."

Annual Christmas Workshop, Saturday

On Saturday, December 2, from 1 to 8 p. m. the Fellowship Hall of the Cascade Christian Church will be a busy place. This is the date of the annual Christmas Workshop, to which everyone in the community is welcome to come and bring the entire family for an afternoon and evening of working and playing together.

This is not a profit making affair, but here you may learn to make such things as Creche figures, recipe holders, sugar forms for Christmas tree decorations, swags for door and mantle (demonstrations on swags at 2 and 7 p. m.) and as usual there will be an idea table for all kinds of decorations and gifts.

There will be a light supper served by the Doerr Guild from 5 to 7 p. m. There will be things for the little tots to make also, so bring the entire family.

More effective means to protect the housewives from unscrupulous dealers must be found, and I have called a meeting with Agricultural Director G. S. McIntyre to determine more effective action.

A recent survey in southeastern Michigan showed that, when inspectors weighed 1,589 packages of meat in 44 retail stores, they found 54 percent of them to be short weight. In one store, all the pre-packaged meat in its display case was short weight.

These overcharges ranged from 1 to 53 cents—and the consumer was cheated to that extent.

But this is only one form of cheating that is being uncovered. People who can afford meat least are being defrauded when suet and other bulk is added to hamburger.

The housewife is also subjected to other deceptive practices such as "butter" cookies with no butter, "egg" noodles with no eggs, "creamed" cottage cheese with no cream.

Deceptive labeling is cheating and deliberate overcharging is stealing. Neither is to be tolerated nor to go unpunished. If our laws need to be made more stringent, so that the penalty for violators is more severe, this should be considered.

My office intends to see that resources we now have to protect the consumer are utilized to the fullest, and that additional steps are taken where needed.

Most of our merchants are honest and want to give their customers the best values they can. It is the fraudulent dealer who concerns us.

I urge all citizens, who may have questions or complaints, to contact the Foods and Standards Division of the Michigan Department of Agriculture in Lansing, or regional offices in Detroit, Benton Harbor, Grand Rapids, Flint and Escanaba.

Alcoholism Information Week, an educational and informational campaign emphasizing that alcoholism is a treatable disease, will be observed in Grand Rapids and Kent County from November 26 to December 3, it was announced today by Mrs. Lorraine Burgess, president, Grand Rapids-Kent County Council on Alcoholism, Inc.

The campaign in the city and county is part of a nationwide observance being sponsored by the National Council on Alcoholism, the national voluntary health agency in the field of alcoholism, the Grand Rapids-Kent County Health Departments, and Alcoholics Anonymous.

"Alcoholism is one of America's four major health problems, along with mental illness, cancer and heart disease," Mrs. Burgess said. "It is estimated that there are 5,000,000 alcoholics in the country. We have approximately 4,000 to 5,000 in the city and county. However, there is help in our community for the person suffering from the disease of alcoholism. During Alcoholism Information Week we hope to call this fact to the public's attention, thanks to the wonderful cooperation we are receiving from newspapers, TV, radio and other informational media."

The Grand Rapids-Kent County Council on Alcoholism maintains an Alcoholism Information Center at 312 Ashton Building, open 1-5 p. m. Monday through Friday, phone GL 1-2217. This organization also cooperates closely with the Grand Rapids Health Department Alcoholism Out-Patient Center at 303 Ionia, N. W., Phone GL 6-6566, Ext. 321, and Alcoholics Anonymous, GL 4-4992.

PTA COUNCIL HOLDS CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON, DEC. 5

Scenic Michigan Freeway Wins National Award

A 21-mile section of Interstate 75 Freeway in Northern Michigan has been selected as one of America's most scenic new highways. The freeway, which extends from Indian River to Mackinaw City, was cited as an outstanding example of a highway designed to take advantage of the natural terrain and scenic beauty of the area. State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie will receive a plaque from Parade Magazine and Better Highways Information Foundation, sponsors of the national contest to pick the nation's finest new highways.

Short Weight in Pre-Package Meats Shocking Public Gyp, Governor Warns

By John B. Swainson
Governor of Michigan

Shocking disclosures by the Michigan Department of Agriculture of overcharging the housewife through short weights in pre-packaged meat should put all of us on the alert.

More effective means to protect the housewives from unscrupulous dealers must be found, and I have called a meeting with Agricultural Director G. S. McIntyre to determine more effective action.

Michigan Issues New Winter Sports Guide

Michigan's 1961-62 statewide ski map and winter sports guide is just off the presses and is ready for distribution, according to the state tourist council.

This year's winter sports map—the seventh annual edition—is the largest ever produced, listing locations of 84 skiing, skating and tobogganing centers and the facilities offered by each.

Some 50,000 copies of the publication, "Fun in the Snow," will be distributed throughout the nation—primarily in the midwest—during the winter season, council spokesmen said.

Single copies or quantity supplies of "Fun in the Snow" are available on request, without charge, from: Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing 26.

The Superintendent's Corner

With winter's snowy and slippery roads approaching, bus drivers and teachers have been advised to listen to WOOD every morning, beginning at about 6:45, when precarious road conditions develop. This radio station has given particular attention to this problem and has indicated a willingness to announce the closing of school or other pertinent information.

The Superintendent has been given a special unlisted number to call with a coded method of announcing any decisions.

To help in making a wise decision as to whether or not to close school, scouts are sent out to observe road conditions and report to the Superintendent beginning at 5 a. m. He in turn contacts the State and County Road authorities for their latest information. On the basis of all of this investigation, the decision is made.

Basically, we are committed to holding school every day possible, but the safety and health of the children are uppermost in our minds. Parents have always been very cooperative in this matter. Their patience and special accommodations that assist in getting the children to school are much appreciated.

O-K Conference League Starts Friday; Forest Hills to Play Kelloggsville

The Forest Hills Rangers will meet the Kelloggsville Rockets in the first O-K league game of the season Friday night in the Forest Hills gym. The Rockets are heavily favored to win the O-K League championship this year as they have four regulars back from last year's squad that won the championship. Included in the group is Dan Edwards, 6 ft. 4 in. star of the Rockets. Coach Jerry Dangel's boys have been hampered somewhat during recent practice sessions because of the installation of bleachers in the gym. However, the Rangers are expected to provide good opposition for the Rockets. The Reserve game begins at 7 with the Varsity game getting underway about 8:15. Workmen are rushing the construction of bleachers and all 2,000 are expected to be ready for Friday night's game.

Sixty Students Attend Don Melvojn Show

Merry Goebel "We want a coffee pot," was the cry of the Senior High School teachers to the student council. That's how it all started. The student council found out that if an organization went on the Don Melvojn Show they would get a coffee pot. Bill Martin, student council president, asked for volunteers and on Saturday, November 25, thirty boys and thirty girls, all Juniors and Seniors, attended the show.

The Juniors are busy with many money making projects for their coming prom. The Spanish club has been invited to East Grand Rapids High School's Spanish Club. Our Spanish Club will be served food and will then listen to a speaker. A dance by the Spanish Club is planned for Jan. 26. The club will also have their Spanish Christmas party.

The Latin Club Initiation is being planned. The invitations are being engraved and a good time is planned by all. The club has just elected their new officers, who are: Donna Edison, President; Sandy Dryer, Secretary; and Barb Paine, Treasurer.

Named All - Conference

The championship Forest Hills Ranger football team placed three players on the All-Conference football team selected by the eight coaches of the league.

Tim Baker

The three Forest Hills players making the honor squad were right end Tim Baker, right tackle, Dennis Graham and right guard Sy Dykhouse.

Jim Perrin, a tackle, and Doug Stiles a halfback, made honorable mention.

Sy Dykhouse

Voting was close at every position as there was a wealth of good football players in the O-K league this year. Only Seniors made the honor squad and only three juniors made honorable mention.

Coach Edward Shy, happy with the three Forest Hills selections, felt the Rangers have several other boys worthy of all-conference, but in an eight team league it was impossible to get more than three boys on the squad. Rogers, Lee, and Kentwood didn't place a man on the honor squad.

The three players and Mr. Shy will be feted at two banquets sponsored by the Grand Rapids Press and the Kent County Chapter of the Michigan State Alumni Association.

There are other situations that arise on a fishing trip, the details regarding some I cannot put into print without indulging in purple prose of a nature that would bar this here column from going thru the postoffice.

Dennis Graham

Tim Baker was the only unanimous choice of the coaches. Dennis Graham was elected on the first ballot, ahead of Dan Edwards of Kelloggsville. Sy Dykhouse was elected on the second ballot, behind Denny Kiel of Byron Center.

Thanksgiving Assembly Hears Rev. A. J. Verburg

The guest speaker at the Thanksgiving Assembly on November 22, was Rev. A. J. Verburg from Ada Christian Reformed church.

The High School band played the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" for the Prelude.

Rev. Verburg said the invocation and the audience sang the "Thanksgiving Prayer." Following the hymn, Karen Timmer gave a few Thanksgiving thoughts.

"No Man is an Island" was sung by the High School Chorus, after which a "Thanksgiving Origin" was given by Brady Crinion. A Triple Trio from the chorus sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Rev. Verburg's message was entitled, "Thanksgiving is Thanksgiving."

The band and chorus played and sang the "Nations Creed", after which everyone sang "God Bless America," and Rev. Verburg said the benediction.

Speech Class Members Host Discussion Meet

Merry Goebel

Pat Doyle, Carole Pearson, Merry Goebel, Derk Vinkemulder and Doug Stiles, along with Mr. Fletcher, played hosts to three other schools for speech discussion on November 21. The other schools were Union, Hudsonville Unity Christian, and Godwin.

The discussion, held in the library, on "Federal Aid to Education" started at 2 p. m. and ended at 2:55 p. m.

Special Weekly CON-CON REVIEW

Reading, research and frequent committee sessions are monopolizing the time of delegates to Michigan's Constitutional Convention.

The one complaint voiced most often by the 144 delegates is that there are not enough hours in the printed material furnished each individual, along with attending committee meetings and general Convention sessions.

Most of the real work of the Convention is accomplished in committee sessions.

Under the guidance of President Stephen S. Nisbet (R) of Fremont, Vice-Presidents Edward Hutchinson (R) of Fennville, George Romney (R) of Bloomfield Hills and Tom Downs (D) of Detroit, 13 standing committees have been created—nine substantive and four operational.

The committees consist of 15 to 27 members with the chairman, and first vice chairman being Republican and the second vice chairman, a Democrat. The party membership ratio for each committee is two to one Republican.

The nine substantive committees are charged with the responsibility of studying the 27 articles of the Constitution. These committees are: Rights, Suffrage and Elections; Legislative Organization; Legislative Powers; Executive Branch; Judicial Branch; Local Government; Finance and Taxation; Education; and Miscellaneous Provisions and Schedules.

The four operational committees of the Convention are: Style and Drafting, Administration, Public Information and Rules and Regulations.

Committee Sessions are usually scheduled at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m. and immediately after general Convention session. Committee hearings are frequently held in the evening and some are planned for week-end sessions.

Football Awards Assembly Held

A football awards assembly, honoring the O-K Champion Forest Hills Rangers will be held Friday afternoon at 1:45 in the high school gym before a combined gathering of the Jr. and Sr. high student body.

John Hoekje, a local resident, and a highly successful coach and official, will be the principal speaker. Edward Shy, Varsity football coach will present the boys their awards. Also, the championship trophy will be unveiled for the first time and will be presented to the school.

Jerry Dangel will present reserve team awards and Jim Mohr will present cross-country awards. The high school band under direction of Miss Jan Markle will play. The assembly is being directed by Ferris Post, director of student activities.

Bill Martin, student council president will act as Master of Ceremonies.

Any adults interested in the assembly are welcome to attend.

No Food Budget For Most Families

A recent study of food buying behavior shows that the majority of families do not use a formal food budget.

These families originally arrived at the amount of money spent for food through the trial and error method, or by buying what food they wanted without being extravagant, but also without fixed cost limits.

Mary Zehner, Michigan State University specialist in consumer marketing information, received these responses in a survey of homemakers.

"The majority of homemakers shop first and then make up menus from available food stocks rather than plan menus and shop for those foods required," Miss Zehner says. "Most homemakers view food shopping as a very important activity. They use a shopping list, but plan to make many purchase decisions in the store. As to cost, they view their food expenditures as being fairly constant over long periods of time."

When questioned as to their general approach to food budgets, the majority indicated a combination of long range planning and a flexible spending guide.

Quality Yule Trees Must Be Trimmed

G. I. Stotz shows how he begins early to shape a 3-year-old Scotch Pine. The bottom whorl of branches are removed to let in more air around the tree and for easier cutting at harvest time.

G. I. Stotz finishes the final shearing of a Scotch Pine ready for sale this fall.

What started out as a part time tree planting hobby for G. I. Stotz of Grand Rapids has now become a limited paying hobby from his Scotch Pine plantation in Courtland Township.

A few years ago Mr. Stotz purchased 25 acres of idle run down land with a small woodlot on it. This fall he has sold 1,000 top grade Scotch Christmas trees to an outstate buyer. In a few days, these loose sheared or irregular sheared six foot trees will be cut, baled and some of them wrapped in cellophane, ready for shipment.

Stotz, District Manager of Michigan Bell's Grand Valley area, was raised on a farm. Back in 1951, a talk by an S. C. S. conservationist from Ottawa County, aroused his interest in reforestation and two years later land was purchased.

For several years Gerald Stotz has been a one man conservation tree planting publicist. His 30 minute slide talk has been given to many area service clubs and to other interested groups. The slides are scenes taken from his own tree farm.

He has studied, asked questions and has experimented with all phases of growing and marketing. Sons Jerry and Roger are pine plantation experts also. They learned from their dad and were his labor force; Mrs. Stotz helped also.

Jerry now a chemistry instructor in Royal Oak, has begun a 40 acre plantation in Newaygo County.

Stotz has identified 22 hardwood and pine tree species in his woodlot. He was advised to underplant white pine in open spaces in the woods and this practice he has done.

Red and Scotch pine make up the pine plantings.

"There is no quick and easy profit in Christmas tree growing," says Mr. Stotz.

His cost of production runs about 50 cents per tree that is sold. He believes that the small acreage grower has the best chance to realize some profit. Otherwise labor costs for spraying, shearing and marketing limit any possible profit.

Gerald believes that a living green pine tree is still our best Christmas religious symbol, and has more Yuletide meaning than any artificial tree can ever give.

Electronic Wizardry Combats Vandalism

Electronic wizardry is being used to an increasing extent to combat the costly problem of vandalism in our nation's schools, John E. Haines, Minneapolis-Honeywell vice-president, says many school officials are turning to electronic security systems to protect buildings during non-class hours.

An indication of the staggering losses being inflicted by intruders is the fact that vandalism costs nearly $400,000 a year in Chicago schools and in Baltimore more than $80,000 is spent annually just to replace broken glass.

Haine, whose firm is a leading manufacturer of electronic security equipment, says that among the more sophisticated devices now being used to detect intruders are electronic fences and noise and sound detectors. One type of electronic fence is Honeywell's recently-introduced tau wire system that can be run around a school, a room or an object. It automatically turns in an alarm when anyone touches or cuts it.

The firm's electronic noise detection system consists of a number of combination microphone-speaker units located at key places throughout the school. When it "hears" something unusual, a window breaking, footsteps, drills—it automatically turns in an alarm at a control panel in the custodian's office. He then flips a switch to listen in on the area to determine the cause of the disturbance.

Santa Claus is In Town

Santa Claus beat even the Thanksgiving turkey into town this year. But, as one TV commentator said: now that Thanksgiving is past, the mad Christmas rush starts in earnest. Now comes the mammoth job of mass brain washing, as we are urged to spend every cent and a little more to help Santa make it a merry Christmas. And so gradually but surely the real meaning of Christmas is lost: the commemorating the birth of Christ our Savior. The only way we can survive, is to break out of this mad rush of materialism, and take time to be holy; spend time with God's Word. Facts About 324 Public Libraries

Michigan claims the signal honor of being the first state to make provision for libraries in her first constitution in 1835. That year the Constitutional Convention met in Detroit, then little more than a village of 3,000. One clause marked the recognition of library service: "As soon as the circumstances of the state will permit, the legislature shall provide for the establishment of libraries, one in each township, and the money which shall be paid by persons as an equivalent for exemption from military duty, and the clear proceeds of all fines assessed in the counties for any breach of the penal laws shall be exclusively applied to the support of said libraries."

There are 8,800,000 books in Michigan's 324 libraries.

Total circulation of Michigan's public libraries last year was 30 million, a jump of 1 1/4 million over 1959.

Quality in Measuring School Outlays

National expenditures on education are well over twice that of a decade ago—now about $390 a year per pupil—but that tells only part of the story of today's schools. It has been pointed out that while "communities that spend more give their youngsters higher-quality education, which in turn pays off in higher incomes and higher tax revenues," the ultimate test is in the quality of the schools. "You may be spending a lot, but for the wrong things, or spending so little that you couldn't possibly have the schools you need."

Recognizing that education priorities vary widely, the editors note that all districts do share certain fundamental needs, and "these have led to standards on which most education experts and a number of citizens' groups agree." They recommend the following yardstick:

ATTENDANCE. Youngsters in the community should go to school for at least 12 years. If they don't attend regularly, or dropouts are high, better see why the schools aren't holding them.

SCOPE. School programs should be diversified so that all types are helped to develop—the bright, the slow, those who are heading for college and those who are heading for jobs.

TEACHERS. Every teacher should have a liberal education as well as substantial knowledge of the subject field or fields in which he teaches. The school system should be willing to pay at least what other school systems pay, and as much as workers get in other occupations that require a college degree (national average teacher pay is $5,400, ranging from slightly over $3,500 in Mississippi to nearly $7,000 in California).

STAFF SIZE. In elementary schools, teachers shouldn't have classes larger than 25 pupils; in secondary schools, the teacher load shouldn't be higher than five periods a day involving a total of 125 to 150 students; English teachers should be responsible for no more than 100 students. The school system should have a full complement of specialists, consultants and supervisors—roughly no fewer than 50 professionals (including teachers) to every 1,000 students. In high schools, a full-time assistant principal is needed for every 750 pupils and a clerk or secretary for every 250 pupils.

SCHOOL SIZE. To be economical, enrollment should be at least 500 for a four-year high school, 350 for a three-year school, 250-300 for an elementary school.

BUILDINGS. The construction program should be characterized by careful, long-range planning. Too many districts wait until the last minute before they build. Outdoor needs generally require an acre and a half for up to 315 pupils in grades one, two and three; about six acres for up to 315 pupils in grades four, five and six; and around 13 acres for up to 750 pupils in grades seven and eight. Classrooms should be planned for a wide variety of learning activities, and plenty of room should be allowed for counseling, labs and administrative use. Elementary schools as well as high schools need good libraries.

These are the criteria, according to the editors, which will help a community decide whether it is getting its money's worth in the schools.

Women's Talkativeness May Be a Big Advantage

It may be that women talk too much—but it could be a point in their favor, contends Dr. Elizabeth M. Drews, associate professor of education at Michigan State University.

She told a Girl Scout conference in Chicago that communication is a "distinctly human" quality. Surveys have indicated, she noted, that women show more human concern than do men, and, she said, there are areas where women, in particular, have much to offer.

Dr. Drews included psychiatric services, training for emotionally disturbed children and counseling in a list of national needs which women desiring to use their talents might consider.

Helen M. Ritter, Howard Hobbs Exchange Vows

Three attendants wearing street-length gowns of blue and carrying cascading arrangements of yellow chrysanthemums, preceded Miss Helen Marie Ritter down the aisle of the First Congregational church of Lowell, Saturday evening, October 28. Before an altar decorated with candelabra, and baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums she became the bride of Howard Hobbs of Alto.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Ritter, 6215 Bancroft Avenue, Alto. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hobbs of Hesperia, formerly of Alto, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. E. F. Marquardt of Battle Creek, performed the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Dorothy Snyder of Allendale, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Miss Betty Wittenbach.

Entering the sanctuary at the arm of her father, the bride was adorned in a floor-length princess style gown of Chantilly lace over slipper satin, complimented with a fitted bodice, long sleeves that came to a point at the wrist, and a tier-lace panel down the back. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion was held in place by a crown-tiara of sequins and pearls, and she carried a White Bible topped with yellow rosebuds and white chrysanthemums.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Margaret Rash. Bridesmaids were Miss Sharon Dintaman and Mrs. Robert Shaler. The attendants wore identical gowns fashioned with princess-style midriff and bouffant skirts. Brief veils secured by a flowered headband completed their ensembles.

The groom was assisted by Richard Johnson as best man, with Charles Ritter, jr., brother of the bride, and Darrel Rash, serving as honor attendants. Terry Dintaman and Ken Korhom of Grand Rapids seated the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Norman of Rockford and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dintaman of Alto acted as master and mistress of ceremonies at the reception which was held following the ceremony in the Masonic Temple.

Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Cape Cod, the couple are residing at 5420 Morse Lake Rd., Alto.

The new Mrs. Hobbs is employed at an insurance agency in Lowell, and Mr. Hobbs operates the Eastmont Gulf Service Station.

JoAnn Fortuna, Stanley Haraburda Wed Saturday

Miss JoAnn Fortuna became the bride of Stanley C. Haraburda on Saturday morning in St. Isidore's Catholic church at 10 o'clock Mass. Rev. Theodore Liebek performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with light blue and white carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert J. Fortuna, 870 Diamond Ave., Grand Rapids. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Haraburda, 10421 Cascade Rd., Route 2, Lowell.

Mrs. Haraburda provided the traditional wedding music on the organ and accompanied the soloist Mr. Schaab.

For her wedding, the former Miss Fortuna chose a floor-length gown of bouquet taffeta designed with a chapel-length train. Her basque bodice was complimented by a jeweled scoop neckline accented with Chantilly lace. Her fingertip length veil of English illusion was held by a Mary Queen of Scots crown of pearls and braid. She carried an arrangement of feathered white carnations and pink sweetheart roses.

Miss Margaret Prawdick, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of royal blue taffeta, designed with scoop neckline. Her headdress was fashioned of two small cabbage roses with circular veil and she carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations against a background of crisp net lace bells. Attired as the maid of honor were the bridesmaids, Miss Ann Haraburda and Miss Patricia Radilinski. Miss Karen Fortuna was her sister's junior bridesmaid. The attendants carried identical bouquets of pale blue and white carnations.

Miss Patricia Lynn Fortuna served as her sister's miniature bride and Daniel Haraburda was the miniature bridegroom.

Assisting as best man was John Haraburda. Seating the guests were Kenneth Adams and Richard Hartwell.

At the wedding breakfast and afternoon reception held in the Guest House, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kozlowski and Mr. and Mrs. Chris H. Quiter were master and mistress of ceremonies. The newly-weds went on an Eastern honeymoon.

If Mother could return to her traditional duties in our economically broken homes, the forces of juvenile decency would receive a greater assist than Federal millions will ever provide.

THINGS TO COME

Latest in attack warning systems is an electronic device that can be built into new radios, FM or AM, or adapted to present sets to turn them into warning alarms. A shoe sanitizer capable of destroying germs without harming shoes is being introduced for bowling alleys where shoes often are rented.

To prevent lint and static electricity from forming on apparel in dry cleaning plants, we now have a spray for use in all natural and man-made fabrics.

And if starlings or other birds are your problem, there is an odorless repellent which gives a sticky footing for the birds, who avoid it like humans avoid the "hot foot."

Are you contributing a share toward the one hundred million dollars spent annually on comic books? This amount is four times the annual book budgets of all public libraries and exceeds the amount spent on textbooks.

Venison Can Be a Gourmet Food

Is there a deer hunter in your family? If so, there's a good chance that you'll soon be cooking venison. It is truly one of the highly prized game meats and is an appetizing dish if it is properly prepared, according to E. Eleanor Densmore, County Extension Agent, Home Economics.

There's an excellent bulletin entitled "Venison" put out by Michigan State University that offers serving suggestions ranging from "deer burgers" to venison pot roast. Different cuts are diagrammed and the best cooking method is indicated for each cut.

The bulletin also includes instructions for bleeding and dressing out the deer and cutting and preserving the carcass.

You can obtain a copy of "Venison", (Extension Bulletin E 253) at the Kent County Cooperative Extension Service, 728 Fuller NE, Grand Rapids, Michigan at 10¢ a copy.

MICHIGAN IS MANAGEMENT KNOW-HOW

Michigan offers to industry management know-how in a degree that is unmatched anywhere.

Here in Michigan, management headquarters of mass production, we have more management skills than anywhere in the world. That includes—Pittsburgh, Chicago, Essen—everywhere.

Our management know-how is not limited to mass production industries, although the world looks to Michigan's leadership in that area. Michigan's management know-how excels in production of drugs and the many other products of our State. It is outstanding in the world of finance.

With management headquarters of the Big Three automobile manufacturers located in Michigan, this management leadership extends to supplier companies, management know-how is necessary to industrial development.

With our diversity of industrial skills, natural resources, transportation, markets and management know-how, Michigan is a great place for industry.
