Rescue The Rangers?

You are needed now to help us RESCUE THE RANGERS! Yes, friends, very seriously our Forest Hills Rangers athletic program is at a cross-roads. We are confronted with some serious problems, both immediate and distant. However, none of our problems are insurmountable providing we can solicit your assistance in solving them. We need you to help us determine what road to take. You hold the KEY to the future of our program, and we covet the opportunity to work with you to open the door to a bigger and better athletic program for the youth of Forest Hills High School.

The Forest Hills Athletic Boosters' Club is the instrument through which we are channeling our efforts to solicit your patronage. The club has agreed to give me time at our next regular scheduled meeting, (Wednesday, December 5, 7 p. m.), to present to you the pressing problems of our athletic program.

Will YOU (Fathers and Mothers) please attend this meeting? You are so urgently needed at this time. Come yourself and bring a friend or neighbor. The more that attend the better it will be for all of us.

We promise that this meeting will be constructive in nature. We merely want the opportunity to speak constructively and positively to a large group of progressive thinking Forest Hills citizens. We promise to educate and enlighten, provide time for open discussion, and most important, answer any and all questions you might have in an honest, sincere, and forthright manner.

Again, we plead, will you give us one evening of your time for the welfare of the youth of this marvelous community. Here is the agenda for the evening. Be free to come and go as you please.

Agenda For Evening
7-7:30—Social Hour, Free coffee and donuts, meet the coaches, your friends and neighbors.

7:30-8—Football movie, Forest Hills Vs. Wyoming Park.
8-8:15—Phil Regan, "The Detroit Tigers in Japan."
8:15-8:30—Boosters Business Meeting.
8:30-9—"The Future of Athletics at Forest Hills," Edward Shy.
9-9:30—Open discussion and questions.

Go immediately to your calendar and mark down Wednesday, December 5, 7 p. m., in the Multi-Purpose Building. You can help us RESCUE THE RANGERS.

Forest Hills Boosters' Club

The Forest Hills Athletic Boosters' Club is an organization of Forest Hills citizens interested in promoting the athletic program at the high school. They are a small group of ambitious, sincere, devoted, conscientious men who have been willing to sacrifice themselves so that the community might enjoy the fruits of a well rounded athletic program. They are a small group of ambitious, sincere, devoted, conscientious men who have been willing to sacrifice themselves so that the community might enjoy the fruits of a well rounded athletic program. They are a small group of ambitious, sincere, devoted, conscientious men who have been willing to sacrifice themselves so that the community might enjoy the fruits of a well rounded athletic program.

These men, although small in number, are dedicated to the task of providing athletic facilities for Forest Hills High School. Since they organized in the spring of 1957, they have contributed to the high school $6000 worth of athletic equipment, and a field lighting system that cost $11,000.

WELL CHILD CONFERENCE

A Well Child Conference will be conducted by the Kent County Health Department in the All-purpose room of the Caledonia Elementary School on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month, from 1 to 3 p. m.

All well infants and pre-school children not under regular care of private physicians are invited to make use of his service. For an appointment call TW 1-8634.

Family Christmas Workshop Set

Plans are under way for the Annual Family Christmas Workshop, sponsored by the Christian Education Committee of Cascade Christian Church. Everyone in the family is invited to come and see all the things in the line of Christmas decorations for the home—candles, tree, table, and mantel decorations, bird houses, leather craft, table mats, family portraits, and many more.

This is a work shop—not a bazaar—where you may make things to give as gifts or to decorate your home. There will be a special interest table, with articles made and directions for you to follow if you want to make them—all sorts of ideas and materials for you to work on.

A simple, inexpensive supper will be served so that you may devote all Saturday afternoon preparing for Christmas. Everyone in the community is invited to visit and participate.

Drop Freshman And Jr. Hi. Basketball

The Forest Hills Board of Education eliminated Freshman and Junior High interscholastic basketball from the school athletic program at its regular scheduled meeting on Tuesday, November 20.

The Board cited the lack of revenue as the prime reason. The Board did not think they could spend school operating money for coaches salaries in light of the many cutbacks made in the school program, and the many requests by citizens for financial support for other programs that have been refused this fall.

The Board further stated that they will be unable to hire baseball and track coaches in the spring.

on the move

The new residents in the Cascade area at 3474 Goodwood Drive are James Snodgrass and Howard Smelker, who have recently moved here from 262 Morris Ave. They are the owners and managers of "The Pillar," a restaurant located at 817 Franklin at Eastern.

They are enjoying the quietness of suburban living and are looking forward to having a boat on the river next summer.

They enjoy golfing, fishing, hunting, and skiing, both snow and water. Welcome to the community!

Living in the apartment at 6740 Cascade Road are Gerritt W. (Jerry) and Janet Sheeres. Mrs. Sheeres is the receptionist and assistant at the Cascade Hospital for Animals for Drs. Siegel and Westcott, and Mr. Sheeres assists part-time while he is doing post-graduate work for his Masters Degree in Theology at Calvin Seminary.

The Sheeres have been married two months, and moved here from Grand Rapids.

JUNIOR HIGH TO SELL MAGAZINE SUBSCRIPTIONS

The students in the Forest Hills Junior High School will again conduct a magazine subscription drive early in March, approximately the same time as they have in the past.

Students in the school will appreciate very much if their patrons will favor their subscriptions.

Varsity Cheerleader Is Senior of Week

This week's choice senior is Linda Gayle Grimes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Grimes, 77 Fultonwood Drive.

Linda is an active member in Spanish Club, and might be recognized most any Friday evening cheering our varsity athletes on to victory as a varsity cheerleader.

Linda's subjects in her last year in high school include government, trigonometry, Literature, English, Spanish and sociology.

Linda's plans for the future center around teaching. She is undecided as to the college she will attend after graduation from Forest Hills.

Advisory Group Work To Attract New Industry

The Citizens Advisory Committee of the Forest Hills School District is making plans to take an active interest in promoting our area as an attractive site for new industry.

The committee feels that the long range problem of lack of operating funds can only be solved by having more industry move into our school district. A committee has been appointed to work with the various planning organizations and businessmen's groups of our township.

The next meeting of the Citizens Advisory Committee will be held at the High School Library on Tuesday, December 4th. The public is invited to attend.

Cascade Mothers' Club To Have Christmas Parties

A Christmas Program will be presented by the children of Cascade School December 11 at 7 p. m. in the Forest Hills Multi Purpose Building Tuesday, December 11. Refreshments will be served following the program.

The Burdell Group meets December 18 at 9:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Delores Stockwell, 2545 Linda Street, S. E., with Mrs. Dorothy Harrington assisting as co-hostess, at the annual Christmas Party.

Those attending are asked to bring a $1 exchange gift. Cascade Terrace meets at 9:30 a. m. on December 11, Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Christine Longyear, 3001 Thorncrest Drive. Members are asked to bring some favorite Christmas cookies they have made and the recipe to share.

The Westway Group will meet December 4, Tuesday, at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Peggy D'Archangelo, 2562 Patterson St., S. E. for their Christmas Party. The "Thumbs" will meet December 18, Tuesday, at 8 p. m. with Mrs. Caroline Meuser, 3565 Goodwood Drive as hostess. An exchange of gifts will be held.

Hi-School 'Scoops'

This is the last week of the second marking periods, and report cards are to go home December 5.

Basketball game with Rogers will be a home game, beginning at 6:30 p. m. November 30, Friday.

BOY SCOUTS SPONSOR TRAVELOGUE, SKATING PARTY

Three new scouts were inducted into Troop 269 at Orchard View School in a ceremony conducted by Scoutmaster Albert Hulsapple, Larry Holthrop, Dennis Houghton, and James Scott received their Tenderfoot badges.

The troop is sponsoring a travelogue and a roller skating party December 7 and 11. Details will be announced at a later date. Tickets are now in the hands of the scouts.

Post-Hi Plan Operation Santa

For the fifth consecutive year the Post-Hi, a youth group organization of Cascade Christian Church, have planned "Operation Santa" to help families in the community at Christmastime to have a happy Christmas.

They have organized this helping hand this year with the help of the advisors, Mr. and Mrs. John Titsworth, and hope to raise $250 to purchase gifts for fifty children.

They are making a plea to all who are interested in helping needy families—any money you would like to donate to this most worthy cause may be sent to either Mr. and Mrs. John Titsworth, 7120 Dorset Drive, Miss Jane DeArmond treasurer and secretary of the Post-Hi Group, or Mrs. Lester Williams, 3076 Jeanlin Drive, treasurer of the Youth Council, requesting checks be made to "Youth Council". If you care to donate any dolls or toys in good condition, they may be left in Fellowship Hall.

Sunday, December 9, at 5 p. m. the youth will meet at the Titsworth's to finalize the plans for carrying out their "Operation Santa." They are planning to shop for toys and clothing, and will have a wrapping party, when the gifts will be prettily wrapped and sorted for the families.

A Christmas Party will be given for the children in need by the youth too—with Santa making a visit. The CYF, the high-school youth group, will assist the Post-Hi this year with the wrapping of the gifts.

If you know of a family that should not be left out this Christmas, call Rev. Gaylor. The families being given Christmas Joy have been checked with the County nurse for needs of each family. If you want to make a contribution of clothing, please consult Mrs. Titsworth as to the sizes needed. Contributions of money will be itemized in a financial statement concerning Operation Santa following Christmas.

Post-Hi Youth want you to know this is not a helping hand for only church families—it is for all families in need in the community, and to thank you for any contribution you may care to share.

Correcting the statement, Miss Casey explains: "The Grand Rapids public library, which now serves about 200,000 persons, get $11,000 under the present state aid law. Under the new formula, if it qualified as a system, it could receive about $60,000."

Face to Face P-T Confabs Best

Face to face in conference with the teacher, parents can learn best just how their child stands, says William H. Mills, University of Michigan assistant professor of education.

Mills says he feels a parent-teacher conference should be a shared discussion, supplementing the report card parents receive from the school at the end of each marking period, and should be conducted in a free period when neither the parent nor the teacher is hurried to end the interview because someone else is waiting.

"It should be informative, objective, positive in tone, and take into account the attitude of the student," Mills says.

The U-M educator suggests that both the teacher and the parent should prepare for the conference. "In one school, teachers hold practice conference with each other. One first grade sends out an elaborate check-list before the parent-teacher conference.

"If the interview involves a high school student, sometimes the student and his parents can benefit from sharing in the conference with the teacher," Mills says.

"In any case, to walk into a conference cold, without any preparation on either side, could be a disappointment.

"At the beginning of a conference it is well for the teacher to present a paper and pencil to each parent, or even an outline. Growth data should be prepared in advance," Mills says.

"After the conference, the teacher should keep a written record—what we talked about, what commitments were made—to continue the line of communication for further talks, as needed, as parent or teacher.

"The value to the child is the important thing," says Mills. "It helps the teacher understand the child better. It helps the Dad or Mother understand that their child is improving even if the grades are only C or D.

"Perhaps at home, the student can be helped in areas of academic weakness."

Organized labor has been losing the sympathy and tolerance of the people generally, because of the few labor leaders who have acted as dictators in the unions they handle and their ignoring the rights of others.

A government that's big enough to give you everything you want is a government big enough to take everything you've got.

Building Codes Help Community

Next time you drive through a community—rural, urban or small town—look at the buildings. One glance and you will unconsciously size the area up as "good," "fair," or "poor."

"Quality of homes, stores, industrial plants, and other buildings places an almost indelible stamp on a community's character," states Louis A. Wolfanger, Michigan State University extension land use specialist.

Good construction means pride and safety for residents. What's more, it has a lot to do with value when property comes up for sale.

"Township and county building codes promote good building standards," Wolfanger writes in a newly-revised MSU Publication describing such codes. "Codes govern the two basic conditions of building quality, kind of material used and construction method."

Answer Confusing Press Statement On County Library

To dispel the confusion resulting from the statement made in the Grand Rapids Press by Donald W. Kohlstedt, Director of the Grand Rapids Public Library concerning the new proposed state aid plan for libraries, Miss Genevieve Casey, Michigan State Librarian, issued a statement this week about the plan.

The proposal is to be the topic of discussion at the Regional Governor's Conference on Libraries to be held December 4 in the Grace Episcopal Church. Both the dinner and the meeting which follows at 7:30 are open to anyone interested.

Dinner reservations at $2.00 may be made by writing or calling Mrs. Chester A. Hall, 636 Hoyt Street, S. E., Grand Rapids.

Kohlstedt was quoted in the November 15 issue as saying that "Grand Rapids public library gets about $10,000 annually from the state. This would be raised to about $78,000 annually under the new formula but only if the city and county library systems combine to form a city-county system. The county library system gets no state aid except $4,800 toward the salary of Miss Joyce Pleune, Kent County librarian, and would receive no more under the new proposal."

Ada

Notices will be sent home in regard to immunization "shots" of first and fifth graders. The Kent County Health Department will be at the Ada Town Hall to administer these injections 2:15, Tuesday, December 4. It is the responsibility of the parents to see that their children are immunized and to take advantage of this service offered by the County Health Department.

The Ada School will hold their Christmas Program December 21, at 9:30 a. m. at the school. Each grade, kindergarten through sixth, will participate in the program. After presentation, pupils will go to their rooms and have their Christmas Party before being dismissed at noon for the Holiday Vacation.

If children other than first or fifth graders need immunizations, a blank may be procured from teachers and other children may make application to receive 'shots.'

Thornapple Elementary School

The pupils of Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Lumley went on a trip to the museum this fall to visit the Planetarium and hear the lecture given.

The teachers at Thornapple School went to Flint to visit a non-graded school which has been in operation since 1956, where the children in the elementary grades have progressed at their own rate.

The teachers found the most gratifying result was the ease and comfortable manner of the children, probably caused by the lack of pressure in the various abilities of the individual child.

Knapp

The third and fourth graders of Knapp went to see Aladdin and His Lamp at Burton Junior High School on November 9, as did other pupils from the elementary schools in Forest Hills.

Lions Proclaim Leader Dog Week

The Lions Club, known for its sight conservation and blind work, announces Leader Dog Week, December 2 - 8, as proclaimed by Governor John B. Swainson. During Leader Dog Week attention is called to the important rehabilitation program being conducted at the Rochester, Michigan, Leader Dog School.

The non-profit school, Leader Dogs for the Blind, was founded in 1939 by Lions of Michigan—and has since trained nearly 2,000 Leader Dog "teams" (Leader Dog and blind person). Leader Dogs are furnished, without charge, to all eligible applicants. A Leader Dog enables its owner to enter fully, despite a handicap, into the life of the community—to live an active and contributive life of his own.

Lions arrange the enrollment of every eligible person who expresses an interest in obtaining a Leader Dog. Lions sponsor projects that are largely responsible for the success and growth of the unique school that provides happiness and confidence to blind men and women.

In addition to furnishing operating funds, Lions are always on the lookout for good, friendly German Shepherds, Labrador and Golden Retrievers—between the ages of one and two years—for the Leader Dog training program. All dogs are contributed—none are purchased.

Anyone knowing of a blind person interested in obtaining a Leader Dog—see a member of the Thornapple Valley Lions Club. Anyone interested in contributing a potential Leader Dog—write Leader Dogs for the Blind, Rochester, Michigan.

Exchange Students Visit Forest Hills

Last Wednesday we had four exchange students from Rogers High School, Two Junior girls and two Senior boys.

They were shown around the school and taken to classes by Julie Blower, Barb Paine, Bill Coly, and Larry Merchant. They enjoyed their visit very much.

I personally want to thank the student body for the wonderful example they showed for our guest. They were most pleased.

Businessmen To Help Santa Claus

A depot has been placed in front of the Cascade Pharmacy for you to place any broken toys you might have around your house.

The Cascade Businessmen have placed the container there for your convenience, and to make it a convenient spot for collecting toys that may be repaired to make them useful and attractive.

Local church groups and the Salvation Army will appreciate the thoughtfulness of the Businessmen in making possible the appropriate collection place and other Santa helpers will be repairing them in time for Santa's visit at Christmastime.

Rangers To Play Rogers Friday

The Forest Hills Rangers will open the 1962-63 basketball home season Friday night against Rogers.

The first game will start at 7:00 and the second game at 8:15.

Coach Jerry Dangel will probably start Clarence Stiles and Jim Jackson at forwards, Kent Fisher at center, and Jim Connors and Bob MacIntyre at guards.

Rogers is rated one of the pre-season favorites to win the O-K Conference basketball championship.

Have We Forgotten

It was only a few weeks ago that our nation was pretty much on edge about the Cuban crisis. What would happen? Christians prayed a little more and even the world breathed a few silent prayers. But soon the crisis eased somewhat and so did our thoughts of God. Last week our thoughts again turned to God as all Americans observed a day of thanksgiving. We thought of the many blessings we enjoy that we so often take for granted. And we were directed to thank God who had given us these many blessings. Our blessings continue, but what of our gratitude to God? How do we often insult God. We run to Him in trouble; we give Him a day a year in which we say a few prayers of thanks, and then we forget Him. Christianity is a full time joy. Don't forget God today. Read His Word, and love and serve Him every day. Here is the secret of a meaningful, happy life.

Active Oldsters Are Happier And Healthier, U. M.

Older people can be happier and healthier if they keep active, according to a doctor at The University of Michigan Medical Center.

Dr. C. J. Tupper, director of employees' periodic examinations, offers a concrete program of daily activities to help the aged help themselves. He advises them to: Cultivate appropriate extrovert activities. Moderate sports and club activities, he says, can "lead to a feeling of belonging and of being a contributing individual."

Keep in touch with current affairs. An older person's conversation can be interesting and stimulating if he's up-to-date on sports, politics, and books, Dr. Tupper explains. "Forget your past when talking no matter how superior you think it may have been. Focus your mind on the present and future."

Pay more attention to dress and posture. "Walk buoyantly and sit erect, and try to keep your face as free from distortion as possible," Dr. Tupper stresses that a better appearance contributes to success with others and increases self-respect.

Create a definite masculine or feminine personality. "A woman at 80 can be a fascinating and charming individual, obviously feminine; and a man of 80 can be strikingly masculine," Dr. Tupper says.

Also he cautions older people not to lose their sense of humor. All too frequently, he says, a person's sense of humor departs with the onset of aging.

He points out that other activities that help are writing letters, attending church services, and doing maintenance work.

A simple thing like developing an inquiring attitude about food can make mealtime an adventure rather than a dull routine, he adds.

Finally, Dr. Tupper says, these points can serve as a daily checklist to constantly remind senior citizens that they can do something about the way they feel.

His comments were made on a University broadcast, co-sponsored by the Michigan State Medical Society.

Anticipating the usual Labor Day traffic, Charles Henry Paul, Jr., of Stamford, Connecticut says: "Isn't it terrible that some motorists ahead of you drive so close?"

Grandparents Still Belong

The role of grandparents has changed considerably since the "good old days." How strong is the grandparent-grandchild bond in your family life today?

Lennah Backus, Michigan State University family life specialist, feels this bond can be made stronger since grandparents still have much to contribute to the lives of their grandchildren.

She says, for instance, that grandparents can enlarge a little child's concept of "my family."

"While it is of first importance that little children be able to think of mother and father as their strongest support, being able to widen the family group to include 'my grandmother' or 'my grandfather' builds a stronger picture of 'my family' in the eyes of the child," Mrs. Backus explains. "It also adds to the number of persons the child feels he can trust. Thus it builds confidence and security in the child because of more family members that he feels belong to him."

More Time to Share

"This has always been and still is one of the important functions of grandparents—simply to enjoy their grandchildren, to listen to them, to be interested in them, and to love them as they are," Mrs. Backus says. "Grandparents and grandchildren often have a greater amount of leisure time which can be shared. Thus grandparents may have more time to give children all of the love and comfort they need or that parents may be unable to supply."

Mrs. Backus cautions, however, that in the matter of affection, discipline and bestowing of gifts, it is best for grandparents to act in a "supporting role" to the parents and not try to weaken the role of the parents.

"Grandparents who live their own lives and broaden their own interests are less likely to use their grandchildren to satisfy their own unfulfilled needs," she says.

Grandparents can also serve in a very practical way, such as in the babysitting role. But, Mrs. Backus adds, grandparents should feel free to state what they are willing to undertake in regard to sitting with the children without fear that it will be interpreted as not wanting to spend time with their grandchildren. Small children can tire an older person even though he may be reluctant to admit it.

"One word of caution," Mrs. Backus continues. "Much as grandparents may want to be with their grandchildren and be able to enjoy them, they also enjoy the company of their own children." She suggests that young parents take time now and then to visit on an adult level with their older parents.

Using the Past

Describing another role of the consideration to building a trailer grandparents, Mrs. Backus says they "can be for a link between the past and present." Rather than censure older people for dwelling on the past, we might realize that perhaps their experiences could be used to advantage.

"The stories of a grandparent's youth can give children genuine and personal meaning to the past that youngsters are likely to gain in no other way, she explains.

"Association with grandparents can give children a picture of what older people are like and what older age is like," Mrs. Backus concludes.

"Children," she says, "need to carry with them a picture of older people free of fault-finding, dread, and misunderstanding. In this way, they can think of older age as a period that can be rich and fruitful and that has much to contribute to their future lives."

She notes that young parents, too, help to create this picture of older age. If they are out of sorts with their parents and become critical of them, the grandparents-grandchild relationship may suffer.

Mars Getting Closer To Earth Says Astronomer

Mars and earth are getting closer together.

Mars now is about the same distance from us as the sun and will reach its shortest distance from the earth around the first of February, explains University of Michigan Astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

As it draws nearer to the earth Mars becomes steadily brighter. It has been rising earlier and earlier until it now comes up around 11 p. m., Professor Losh notes.

However, Jupiter is by far the brightest object, barring the moon, during the November evenings, the Michigan astronomer adds. Jupiter appears directly south as the evening dusk sets in.

Professor Losh also notes that Venus has disappeared as the bright evening star in the western twilight. "On November 12, Venus passed the Sun, emerging after that date as a morning planet, and will be conspicuous as 'the bright star in the east' before sunrise during December."

Another planet is rapidly setting, Professor Losh says. Saturn in the constellation of Capricornus, or the Sea Goat, will disappear by 9 p. m. by the end of the month.

In the meantime, the sun is rapidly moving southward, appearing daily in shortened arcs across the sky. Says Professor Losh, "By the end of the month, the day will have shortened to about 9 hours and 20 minutes with only about 15 minutes to go to reach the shortest day of the year in December."

Students Hold Thanksgiving Assembly; Hear Speaker

The Thanksgiving Assembly was held in the high school gymnasium, Wednesday, November 21.

The pledge of allegiance was led by Larry Merchant, the student council president. Afterwards Kent Fisher gave the invocation.

The choir followed with two songs "Thanks Be To God," and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Reverend S. H. Moths of the Ada Community Reformed Church addressed the student body on the attitudes of Thanksgiving and also gave the benediction.

Singers Participate In OK League Choir Festival

The high school choir participated with the other Ottawa Kent League choirs in the annual choir festival. This year it was held at Wyoming Park High School at 8 p. m. on November 20.

Each of the eight choirs sang two separate songs and then combined under the leadership of the guest director to sing five additional songs.

Parents and friends of the choir members attended the performance.
