NUMBER TWENTY

Wood Carver To Show Technique

The Thornapple Valley Artists wish to announce the postponement of the art demonstration, David E. Carpenter, master wood carver will demonstrate his woodworking technique on Tuesday, August 13, instead of previously announced August 6. The T.V.A. cordially invites all friends of art to attend this demonstration and display of Mr. Carpenter's woodworks.

Membership in the newly formed art group will be offered soon to all interested in the arts. Plans for the future include adult art education taught by well-qualified instructors.

The Cascade Businessmen are permitting in their establishments the display of our T.V.A. works. These works are for sale. The T.V.A. gratefully acknowledges the businessmen's cooperation and appreciation of our local artists.

Miss Vollink Wins Air Force Medal

Miss Linda Vollink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Vollink of 7024 Cascade Road S. E., has just recently won the American Spirit-Honor Medal as the outstanding Air Force recruit at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. This award was presented to her by Col. Christopher Bressan, Commander of the Basic Military Training School at Lackland.

Miss Vollink competed against six male recruits. The award is presented to those recruits who show outstanding devotion to duty and willingness to accept responsibility as well as other basic military traits reflecting high spirit.

It should also be noted that Miss Vollink was presented another award during her basic training. From the whole United States, she was chosen as the WAF Recruit of the Month.

This is the first time in twelve years that the same person has won both awards.

Upon completion of her training, Miss Vollink expects to enter communications work.

Spends Two Weeks At Interlochen Music Camp

Carole Jo Provoche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer J. Provoche of Bailey Drive, is spending an exciting two weeks at Interlochen Music Camp. She was selected to attend the All State Choir of the University of Michigan and is enjoying every moment of it.

On July 28, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Slanger and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Provoche visited Carole at the camp and also attended the first concert of the All State Choir, which was a huge success. Carole told us all about the activities that the girls are taking part in, such as swimming and swimming lessons, semi-private voice lessons, ensemble practice, and most of all getting along and enjoying living with girls from many different states. Carole Jo is having a wonderful time and is very happy that this opportunity came to her.

On Vacation

Mrs. Eilyn Bruinslot, Suburban Life correspondent, will begin her vacation this Thursday. During her absence, until August 14, Mrs. Carol Reterstorf, 1851 Laraway Lake Drive will be happy to take your news.

Mrs. Reterstorf's phone number is 949-2659.

Molly Bee To Sing At Ionia Free Fair

Molly Bee, appearing for the first time at the Ionia Free Fair, August 8 to 10, is a veteran of show business although the pretty singer is only in her early twenties.

Miss Bee has appeared around the world, traveling with Bob Hope in Europe and then making appearances in the East on her own. She has entertained at almost every state fair in the country.

Molly started her television career at the tender age of 11. At the age of 13 she first appeared on national television on the Pinky Lee show. She then spent two years on the Tennessee Ernie Ford show. Still a youngster, she starred for six months on the Ray Anthony night-time show singing ballads and other "grown up" songs for the first time. She has appeared with Ed Sullivan, Roy Rogers, Jimmy Rogers, Jackie Gleason, and Jack Benny.

On her first personal appearance, Molly broke a six-year attendance record in Evansville, Indiana, and followed by breaking the attendance record in the coliseum at the Ohio State Fair. She's been starring on the state fair circuit since then.

Molly as appeared in the motion pictures "Summer Love", "Going Steady", and "The Chartreuse Caboose". She has had hit recordings in "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus", "Tennessee Tango", and "Since I Met You Baby".

Sharing the spotlight with Molly at the Ionia fair will be Johnny Desmond, Buster Keaton, and Warren Covington and his band.

Farewell Party Fete MacInness

A group of friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Coger last Friday evening, July 26, to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Carroll MacInness. Mr. and Mrs. MacInness and children have lived for quite some time on Wendell Street S. E. They moved to Kalamazoo, Michigan, this past week-end, and their new address will be 1112 Highgate, Kalamazoo.

Those who attended the farewell party were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Vekasi, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Chandler, Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Gaylord, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Strien, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lupton, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Bruinslot, Mr. and Mrs. James Banta, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Palm, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Bishop, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hamer.

Little Red School House News

A group of ladies met at the home of Jeanette Titworth on July 17 at 9:30 a. m. to plan the Cascade Mothers' Club program a fund raising events for the coming year. Please be on the lookout for our ice-cream social to be held on September 15. Details will be published later.

The first general meeting will be held for all fathers and mothers on September 30. A potluck supper is being planned. The theme for this evening is "The Little Red School House."

It should be a colorful and interesting evening for both parents and teachers to get acquainted. Remember this date and plan to come.

Michigan Shoreline Tour

Ever consider Michigan's shoreline for a touring summer vacation? Here are 2,254 miles of scenic frontier along which the vacationer may find as many different moods as suit his fancy. Perhaps a small portion of this long coastline will be enough; there is too much to see in a single summertime. Choose Lake Huron for the sea-sort of sunrises that come to our east; or Lake Superior for moody unpredictability and violently wild nature. Where people populate, there are roads to carry the traveler to the towns, hamlets, and cities of this coastal empire. Where wilderness is needed, we are still lucky to have unhighwayed expanses along our Superior shore. To find solitude there, the traveler must leave his car and use Shank's Mare or Aluminum Canoe. Michigan's many islands also offer coastal opportunities. Take your pick and find a beach to poke along. The sun is sunnier, the air is airier, and the memory of such a trip will linger longer. —Mich. Dept. of Conservation

Michigan School Districts Cut To Only 1600

Michigan's school districts, reduced by more than 200 during the 1962-63 school year, now house 93.4 per cent of the state's children and 95.09 per cent of the tax valuation in K-12 districts.

However, Dr. Bartlett points out, that while this high percentage is commendable, approximately one of every ten youngsters in out-state Michigan does not reside in a district, which offers a complete K-12-grade program.

Closing figures for the 1962-63 school year showed Michigan with 1,583 districts, 554 of which offer K-12 education or are in the process of acquiring the high school grades. The K-12 districts are serving a membership of 1,676,657 children. A year ago, 1,789 districts were in existence.

"Fifty years ago, in 1910, we had 7,333 school districts, and as recently as 1957, when I took office, there were 3,190 districts in Michigan, which shows a decrease by more than half in just six years," Dr. Bartlett comments. "So, while we are definitely making progress in reorganizing our school districts to provide full educational opportunity for all our youngsters, the fact that so many out-state youth in these modern times are not housed in K-12 districts should spur concerted efforts to insure them their full educational right."

"For this reason, Dr. Bartlett explains, a re-organization study bill, either the same or very similar to the one that failed of passage last spring, will be introduced in the next legislative session. "This bill offered an extremely equitable solution to our reorganization needs in that it provided for district self-appraisal and encouraged an orderly and well-planned reorganization of our districts but left the final decisions and actions strictly with the local voters."

Commenting on Alpena's recent mergers which have resulted in the state's first local school district coterminous with intermediate district boundaries, Dr. Bartlett calls it a good example of consolidation to serve a logical geographic area. The Alpena Public Schools actually transcend county lines to include 44 students in Presque Isle Township, Presque Isle County, and will enroll nearly 7,000 students in September. The co-operative spirit that voters of Alpena County have shown to provide adequate high school facilities for their youth will bring great educational and economic benefits to this community."

The new Alpena School District was formed by a series of eight annexations and one transfer of property within the county over a period from January, 1962, through May, 1963. The Presque Isle district was annexed to Alpena in 1957.

Champion Pony Pulling Team At Free Fair

The 1962 Pony Pulling Champion will enter his team of ponies in the August 6 competition at the Ionia Free Fair, contest supervisor Charles H. Lange announced. "Harold Montgomery, the 1962 champion, will again be challenged by last year's runner-up team, owned by Dewayne Wright," Lange said. "It looks like a real good contest."

Ponies from around the state will attempt to bring honors to their owners by pulling cement weights mounted on a sled for a distance of 14 feet. The record for the two pony events stands at 6,000 pounds, pulled at Greenville in 1961.

"We expect 4,500 pounds to be the top pull here if the weather continues to be dry," Lange said. "Dry weather promotes more resistance from the ground and makes the pull much tougher." With many of the state's top teams entered, however, Lange is optimistic.

The contest, sanctioned by the Michigan Pony Pulling Association, is open to anyone with a team of ponies under 46 inches in height. "This is the first time a light weight pony pulling contest has been held at the Ionia Free Fair," Lange said.

New Residents

The community would like to extend a warm welcome to Mr. and Mrs. William Lozano and son, Robin, of 1410 Laraway Lake Drive S. E. Bill, Delphine and Robin have made their home in the Cascade area as of July 1.

They have lived in Grand Rapids for the past two years, prior to which they were residents of Detroit. Both Bill and Delphine are employed by the Grand Rapids Board of Education. He teaches at Junior College, and she teaches art at Creston High School.

Since their move to the Cascade area, they have become active members of the Thornapple Valley Artists and urge those with great art ability or none at all to join this congenial group.

The impetus for the move to Grand Rapids was the contract offer from the Board of Education to set up a course in the Humanities for the day college and adult education program. By way of explanation—the Humanities is a course in the tracing of the cultural thought of western man as reflected in his arts.

His son, Robin, is seven years of age, and will be a second grade pupil in the Thornapple School.

Week-End Guests

Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Gaylord of Dorset Drive S. E. had as their guests for the week-end Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Barnard and their three sons, David, Tom, and Stephen, of Indianapolis, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Van Landingham and children of Mt. Dora, Florida, and formerly of Cascade, will be spending next week-end in Cascade. They will be the house guests of Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Gaylord and Mr. and Mrs. John Hamer.

Skindivers Enjoy Underwater Exploring In Michigan's More Than 1100 Lakes

Michigan is offering vacationers a wonderful chance to get away from it all while trying something new.

With more than 11,000 inland lakes and some 3,000 miles of Great Lakes shoreline in the Wolverine State, the Michigan Tourist Council suggests exploring "inner space" on a skindiving adventure.

Exploration is the chief lure for skindivers. To invade the cool depths and walk the decks of a sunken ship with the feeling that any dive may uncover sunken treasure.

There are hundreds of sunken ships in the waters that surround Michigan. Since 1679 when La Salle's schooner, "Griffin" disappeared on a Great Lakes voyage, the list of major ships wrecked on the Lakes has mounted to well over 600.

The story of major Great Lakes shipping disasters has been written and published by Dana Thomas Bowen under the title, "Shipwrecks of the Lakes" and is available in many public libraries. From the descriptions in this book the general locations of these wrecks can be determined.

Many sunken ships are easily located. A gambling ship, resting on the bottom of Lake Charlevoix, is a magnet for Michigan divers. Two freighters lie in the fairly shallow waters off Pentwater. Dozens of other wrecks are well-known to the inhabitants of lakeshore towns on Michigan's coastline. Wooden vessels are preserved by the freshwater and are safe from the ravages of the toredo worm that destroys wood in salt water.

Skindiving equipment stores, in addition to providing recharging service for air tanks and supplying underwater gear, are usually a good source of information concerning choice diving spots.

"Skindivers are sometimes a clannish bunch," says veteran Michigan diver Norm Swanger, "but they quickly accept a visiting diver into the fraternity. The site of a well-preserved wreck is information that is readily shared with others."

Though a distinction can be drawn between "true" skindiving, using only mask and flippers without underwater breathing equipment, and seuba (Self Contained Underwater Breathing Apparatus) diving, the term "skindiving" has come to be applied to any underwater free-swimming.

It is estimated that there are more than five million skindivers in the United States. A spokesman for the Michigan Skindivers Council says that there are more than 5,000 persons who own diving gear in Michigan. Many of these divers belong to the more than 60 diving clubs in the state.

Visitors to Michigan who are looking for interesting diving sites can get in touch with club members through state police posts or the local sheriff's department. Law enforcement officers often call upon skindiving groups for assistance in recovering evidence thrown into the water or for rescue operations.

Men, women and children of every age enjoy skindiving but good physical condition is a prerequisite. A complete physical examination before attempting the sport is a must. Persons with heart or respiratory disorders place themselves in jeopardy when they venture underwater.

The greatest hazard to skindivers is the motorboat. A diver who surfaces unexpectedly in the path of a speeding boat has little chance to escape injury. A safety measure is the diver's warning flag—red with a white strip crossing it diagonally—that tells boaters of the presence underwater of a diver.

The deep, clear waters of such Michigan lakes as Higgins, Torch, Elk, Mullett, Black and Crystal are popular diver training grounds. Proper training in the use of equipment and the techniques of skindiving is very important.

Michigan, with four times the water area of any other state, offers a challenge that few divers can resist.

Ernest Gates, Sr. Ada Farmer Dies After Long Illness

After a long illness, Ernest O. Gates, Sr., aged 67, of 3259 Honey Creek Avenue, Ada, died last Friday at his home.

Mr. Gates was a native of Edmore and an Army veteran of World War I. He was a farmer in Ada for 29 years and retired because of ill health in 1957. He was also a member of the Egypt Valley Grange.

Surviving are his wife, Emogene; two sons, Roland of Detroit, and Ernest O., Jr. of Tampa, Florida; two stepsons, James A. Pullen of Ada, and Maurice E. Pullen of Rockford.

Funeral services were held this Tuesday at the Metcalf Chapel with Rev. Frank R. Hollingsworth, Minister of Counseling of Park Congregational Church, officiating.

American Legion To Meet in Cascade

The Cascade American Legion Post will be meeting the second of August, Friday, at 8 p. m. at Annie's Grill. We would like everybody to please try and attend, since no business can be conducted if there is not a quorum present.

If people will come to the meetings, there are several awards and presentations that should be made.

Martin School Brownie Troop To Be Organized

Girl Scout Neighborhood Chairman Carol Dunlap has announced that there will be a mothers' meeting, August 6, at 2:30 p. m. at the Lion Park on Thornapple River Drive outside of Ada.

Plans will be made at that time to register the girls who will be in the second and third grades at Martin School. Consent slips will be signed and the place and day for meetings will be discussed.

At the present time there are 19 girls interested in the new troop and several mothers have expressed a willingness to help on a troop committee. Any mother who would like for her daughter to belong to the troop is welcome to attend the meeting.

SHOULD A DRUG STORE BE MORE THAN A SUPERMARKET?

We, at Cascade Pharmacy think so. And so do lots of people who woke up this morning with the sniffles, a headache, a cough, or some other common ailment.

An automatic vending machine, or an automatic purchase that depends almost entirely on the number of times a brand was exposed on television, IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR THE ADVICE OF A PHARMACIST.

May we take care of your drug and prescription needs?

Boys! Girls!

Next Tuesday is the big day. Our Vacation Bible School begins at 9 o'clock in the morning. Be sure not to miss the fun and new friends you will make. Have mom or dad bring you to Cascade Christian Reformed Church at 9 A. M. Or have them call 949-0529 and we will come and get you. Call today, before you forget. Mom and dad, I am sure you provide your children with the best food you can, so they can grow as healthy and strong as possible. Is their soul any less important? Let us help you teach them about Jesus and His Word. With so many influences of evil at work today, why not teach them of the love of God and love for each other as the Bible teaches it?

You Get Service When You Bank Here

SO, WHAT'S WRONG WITH MONEY? Nothing that checking account can't cure. One of the big troubles with cash is that it takes a lot of chasing around town to get it where it's supposed to be when it's supposed to be there. A checking account here stops all that running around. Just mail in checks for your bills. Canceled checks are proof of payment.

Shoreline Changes: Rights and Wrongs

With Great Lakes waters down to their lowest levels in about 30 years, Michigan shoreline owners have "temporarily" acquired a sizable chunk of bottom lands. Some owners may see this as a chance to permanently expand their lakeshore property by making fills and putting in seawalls. Many others are unhappy because their fishing and boating docks have been left high and dry. Whether shoreline owners view this low-water period as a blessing or curse, there are several things they should know to avoid causing more problems. For the time being, they have a "moving freehold" title to lands that lie exposed below the ordinary high-water mark. This gives them the right to dredge channels, build such structures as docks, and make other improvements on the exposed bottom lands—as long as these developments do not keep waters from returning to their natural levels. Since this title remains subject to the public trust, come low or high water, permits must be obtained from the Conservation Department and U.S. Corps of Engineers before changes may be started. Purpose here is to protect public values and also to keep owners out of legal trouble with their neighbors.

Cool As a Cucumber
Do you wilt as the days become hotter and muggier? I always envy the woman who somehow manages to remain unruffled and unwrinkled and "cool as a cucumber" while I perspire, my hair gets frizzy and my clothes become a wrinkled, sodden mess. I've decided she must sit in the shade, and drink pink lemonade from dawn to dusk.
Do you ever wonder where such expressions as "cool as a cucumber" come from?
There's the story that the Roman Emperor Tiberius was mad about cucumbers. He grew them on portable beds so they could be wheeled around by slaves and catch all available sunshine.
It's true that sunlight makes cucumbers grow rapidly, but strange as it may seem, the hottest rays never seem to penetrate the cucumber itself. Scientists have poked thermometers into cucumbers still on the hot vine and discovered that the inside of the cucumber was some 20 degrees cooler than the surrounding air.
So maybe "cool as a cucumber" is more than just a saying, at least we associate cucumbers with coolness.
Cucumbers may be either "slicers" or "picklers."
Slicers are larger and suitable for dill and sliced pickles as well as salads. To peel or not to peel them is a matter of choice. They do look attractive with the dark green rim, especially if scored before slicing. The thin wax coating with which they are treated to prevent wilting, is quite tasteless and harmless.
Most of us slice a well-chilled cucumber, and serve it crisp. Europeans often lightly salt them, and let them stand an hour or longer, then squeeze out the excess brine before using the cukes in a salad. Maybe your mother or grandmother did it too. Cucumbers then were often bitter and this helped to reduce it. Today the bitterness has been pretty well bred out of commercial cucumbers.
Europeans often lightly cook cucumbers too, and they are quite tasty. Cut them about one-fourth to one-half inch in thickness and saute them for three or four minutes in a little butter. Your guests will find them a bit of a surprise, but a delightful one.

Lowell Rifle Club Sets National Record

The National Rifle Association has announced that Lowell Rifle and Pistol Club of Lowell, Michigan established an official national record on July 14, 1963 by firing a score of 1044-9x out of a possible 1200 points with the .45 caliber pistol.
Competing in an NRA sanctioned tournament at Jackson, Michigan broke the previous record of 1022-10X for the difficult 120 shot National Match Course.
In recognition of the outstanding marksmanship necessary to establish a national record, Lowell Rifle & Pistol Club has been awarded a certificate of accomplishment by the NRA.

THIS SIMPLE FORMULA CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE:—

DS + BT = S.S.

Four out of five auto accidents happen because a driver doesn't allow enough braking time for a safe stop when unexpected danger occurs.

And, on today's heavily-traveled city streets and high-speed highways, unexpected danger is common.

But you can make the difference between smash-up and safety every time, by using this simple formula: D. S. + B. T. = S. S. (Danger Sighted + Braking Time = Safe Stop)

It's the Space Age on the highway, too. Leave enough between you and the other fellow!
