PTR Mission comes to Ada

The Preaching, Teaching and Reaching Mission begins in the Ada Community Reformed Church on Friday evening at 9 p. m. with a 24 hour prayer vigil which will conclude on Saturday evening at 9 p. m. The Preaching Mission begins Sunday morning at 10 a. m. with the Rev. Wilbur Ringalda, pastor of the Third Reformed Church as guest minister. His message is called "The Greatest Danger in Life."

The Sunday evening service at 7 p. m. will center itself around "A Voice of Warning." Monday evening at 8 p. m. the missioner will ask everyone to consider "The Supreme Worth of a Soul."

Tuesday evening is called "Youth Night" and begins at 8 p. m. looking at "The Way into the Kingdom." For our final consideration in the Mission the Rev. Ringalda will speak concerning "The Costliness of Discipleship" on Wednesday at 8 p. m.

Along with the Mission, visitors will be going out into the community to invite people to come to Ada and share in the P.T.R. The pastor, the Rev. Sylvester H. Moths, will set up pastor's classes where those interested in learning "What Christianity is" may come. These classes will be held on Sunday afternoons at 2:30 and Wednesday evenings at 8.

The public is invited. No special offering will be received, and no obligation will be imposed. It is an attempt on the part of the Ada Community Reformed Church to be a real servant of the community.

Anyone interested is invited to come, or call Rev. Sylvester H. Moths for further information.

Car museum constructed to show antiques

To get old cars in out of the weather, a local machine shop foreman and his wife have built Woodland Cars of Yesterday Museum at 6506-28th St., S. E., the first of its type in Kent County.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Grooters have constructed a 6,000-square foot L-shaped structure that will house from 35 to 50 antique cars, one dating back to 1898.

The new facilities, which recently opened, also feature besides restored cars, an oldtime Gas Pump that actually operates, a horse drawn popcorn wagon and other interesting antiques.

The completion of the museum is the end of a ten year dream of Grooters. The cars on display at this tourist attraction, will be changed often, and the exhibits will be of interest to all ages.

Mr. Grooters is foreman and part owner with his father and brothers of the Grooters Machine Shop. When business gets to the point where Mrs. Grooters cannot handle it, Mr. Grooters is anticipating taking on the position fulltime.

Some of the rare antique cars on display are a 1906 Cadillac, reclaimed from a Massachusetts river bed; Buicks from 1908, 1918, 1923 and other years; a 1925 Minerva; 1930 Cadillac; several Model T Ford "depot hacks," and a 1908 Brush.

Scout News

CUB SCOUT PACK 3284

Martin-Collins Cub Scout Pack 3284 recently held their Pine-wood Derby at Martin School with the following results: Pat Comrie of Den 7 took first place, and Bob Meyers of Den 6 took second place. Pat and Bob each received a trophy. Wayne Hendricks from Den 6 took third place.

These three boys will play Cascade Cub Scout Pack 3334 in the near future.

Damages school property Horseback riding is forbidden

Considerable property damage, especially on athletic fields, caused by horses running on school property has caused considerable concern for school officials.

As a consequence school officials of Forest Hills have been forced to prohibit all horse back riding on all Forest Hills school property. The tax payers of the district can ill-afford the expense of repairing good grass and bushes torn up by horses.

The school hopes that all citizens of the district will cooperate in keeping Forest Hills school property as beautiful as possible at a minimum of expense.

Many from this area work at new Fred Harvey airport restaurants

Many ladies from this community have found ideal working conditions at the new Fred Harvey restaurants at the new Cascade Airport. The nation-wide chain has a coffee shop, bar and restaurant on the first floor and pictured here the newly opened Golden Eagle restaurant and cocktail lounge on the second floor balcony. The new dining room opened last Friday after special open house events for the press on Wednesday and Kent County officials on Thursday evening.

The Fred Harvey complex will include three restaurants, two bars, a gift shop and a motel at the Kent County Airport.

The most elegant of the restaurants is the Golden Eagle restaurant and cocktail lounge on the second floor balcony. It features red leatherette chairs, walnut paneling, red carpeting and colonial coach lights.

The Golden Eagle is available to clubs for banquets, fashion shows and receptions.

A bar and restaurant on the first floor have been open for two months. They are decorated in the same Early American tradition.

A coffee shop on the first floor has cypress paneling and offers a quick snack or a full meal. The gift shop, with walnut fixtures, is scheduled to open next week.

The motel across the road will have luxurious accommodations, including a swimming pool, and is scheduled to open the first week in June. It is expected to provide a headquarters for many sales meetings and conventions.

Fred Harvey operations started in Topeka, Kansas, in 1876. They now extend from Cleve-

Rev. L. Dalrymple speaks to Bible Study Group

The Mid-Week Bible Study Group of Cascade Christian Church will have a potluck dinner at 6:30 p. m. in Fellowship Hall on April 29.

Please bring your own table service, salad, casserole or dessert. This dinner meeting is open to all adults in the church.

Music Association to sponsor rummage sale

The Forest Hills Music Association will sponsor a rummage sale on Saturday, May 9, from 9 a. m. until 3 p. m. at the Ada Town Hall.

Anyone wishing to dispose of any articles this week is requested to call Mrs. Harry R. Gaskell at 949-0197. A list of names will appear in next week's issue where you may drop off your article or call for them to be picked up.

Brahman bulls, bucking horses at rodeo premiere

The Buckin' E Ranch rodeo stock will be displayed to the public for the first time on Sunday, April 26, at the Lowell 4-H arena, starting at 2 p. m.

This group of approximately 30 head of wild horses and 14 Brahman bulls, will be ridden by the cowboys for practice before the first rodeos of the forthcoming season. The Buckin' E rodeo stock is quartered at Reed City, and the 50 cents admission is being charged to defray the expenses of transportation, with any sum above the actual costs to be donated to the Kent County 4-H Clubs.

Cowboys from Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, and Michigan are expected to be present to test their prowess against this new string of fresh rodeo stock. The horses have been assembled from all over the Northwest and Midwest area for their abilities to unseat would-be riders. The Brahman bulls are from Florida and Texas; areas long noted for the rank calibre of bulls produced in these regions.

Since this is an exhibition staged primarily "for the fun of it", and not as a contest, a good time, Western-style, should be enjoyed by both spectators and cowboys alike.

Object... Success

A generation ago my father was considered a successful man, having educated himself and having worked his way from the bottom up in railroad-ing. He died while I was still in high school leaving my mother to raise the three of us. I won a basketball scholarship enabling me to have one year of college. That one year opened many doors for me but I have learned that a man can educate himself, making him equivalent to a college graduate, if he'll read a wide variety of books and publications.

During World War II I served in the Army for 4 years. Army life is highly socialized which means you learn to take orders and be obedient. There was a time to take advantage of what was offered and I became a candidate for officers training. I made the grade primarily because I had learned to read. I still can't get over the number of men who read nothing but "comic" books. I'd recommend the service to any young fellow who is restless or who hasn't been able to find his place in life yet. There are many educational advantages available which are as worthwhile as a man makes them.

I had a short taste of politics after the service which is fine for those who can become sincerely concerned and dedicated to the needs of his fellow man and his community. Dealing with people is always satisfying but political offices change parties from time to time and that can leave you out of work. I now work for a trucking concern, selling shipping space. My work is challenging, steady and earnings run above average.

Even in sales, competition is running higher every day. Alert aggressive men with greater knowledge are being sought for good jobs, read some of the want ads to see what employers are seeking.

If I may, I'd recommend to our young fellows of today to work hard at every phase of their educational opportunities and go to school as long as they are able. After that—"keep reading."

Best Wishes. H.L.N.

We sincerely wish our readers would consider sharing their experiences with our youths. If you think this column has merit, please accept the invitation to write; Object Success Box 128, Lowell, Michigan.

Cascade School carnival time

On Saturday, May 2, the Cascade Mothers' Club presents the Cascade School Carnival for 1964!

From one to seven p. m. fun and excitement will be the order of the day both inside and out at the Cascade School. Tickets are being sold by all the mothers and by the fifth and sixth grade classes at 25 cents each or five for $1.

A contest is being held in conjunction with the children's selling and both individual and classroom prizes are being given. Lucky ticket holders are eligible for fabulous door prizes which include a two wheel bicycle, transistor radio, a set of dishes, a salad set and a microscope.

The atmosphere of a genuine carnival starts on the outside where a ferris wheel, pony rides and miniature golf await the children. Inside, the thrills of a magic show, games of all kinds, cotton candy, pop corn and hot dogs, a cakewalk and the ever popular make-up, and first aid booth make this carnival the greatest ever.

Magic shows will be held between the hours of two and four p. m. and an art exhibit of the Cascade School children's work will be on display in one of the rooms. Pie and coffee will be waiting for the parents.

Circle Saturday, May 2, on your calendars and you can depend on a lot of fun, frolic and frivolity if you join the rest of the crowds going to the Cascade Carnival.

A recent study of smoking habits of high school students reveals that 30 per cent smoke every day; in the upper age bracket, 15 to 17, 41 per cent of the boys and 25 per cent of the girls smoke every day.

Tap school trees for maple syrup

The third grade students at Martin school have been having an interesting as well as instructive science lesson on "making maple sugar." The group bored a hole four inches deep in each of the three hard maple trees in the school yard and tapped the trees. The students then boiled the sap, and by using a syrup thermometer they were able to determine when their project was completed. The group enjoyed three sugar parties.

Plant tree on Arbor Day

Recently, George Romney, Governor of the State of Michigan, proclaimed April 23, 1964, in Southern Michigan, and May 7, 1964, in Northern Michigan, as Arbor Day and urged all Michigan citizens to join him in planting a tree or trees so that a thoughtless waste would not someday mar one of the most picturesque landscapes in these United States.

A ceremony honoring Arbor Day will be held at Cascade School on Thursday afternoon, April 23, at one p. m. Participating in the ceremony, in which a flowering crab tree will be planted, will be Harold Chambers and Mr. Masten.

The tree to be planted on the school grounds is being donated by Harder and Warner Nursery.

Relatives survive Alaska Quake

The Milton Heavens, Denison Drive, S. E., have had two letters from their cousins, George and Lucille Woodward of Seward, Alaska, who say they are fortunate to be alive after the Good Friday quake and tidal waves. Their home was badly damaged, their household goods and clothing gone, or ruined by water, oil and silt. Some of their clothing and linens were found in trees a block away. Their car was washed out to sea.

Eight minutes after the big quake in Anchorage, a 49 foot tidal wave hit Seward, a coastal town of 19,000; washing buildings away like match sticks and causing the Standard Oil and Texaco Oil tanks to burst and burn many buildings.

The first wave came up to their waists, but they were able to get to higher ground before the next seven waves hit. These were all higher than the first, and the second was the one that washed their car out to sea.

For over a week they had no heat, lights, water or sewage disposal, but luckily the weather was just under freezing.

They are full of praise for the Red Cross, who immediately flew in with clothing and supplies and to the Army who provided them with G. I. rations. Mess halls were set up in the high school.

1963 1/2 Ford captures top honors at Road Gents' Rod and Custom Show

Miss Mary Lou Vaughn, daughter of Mrs. Vada Vaughn, Route 3, Lowell, was crowned "trophy queen of the show." In recognition of the honor, Miss Vaughn, a senior student at Lowell High School, was awarded a trophy and a traditional bouquet.

Carol Moore, A. S. Haarman exchange vows

She wore a street-length gown of pale lavender brocade, matching rose headpiece and carried a bouquet of variegated lavender and white pompons. Miss Mary Moore served as her sister's bridesmaid, and she was attired in a similar ensemble.

Thomas Haarman assisted his brother as best man, Mitchell F. Wiczorek of Lowell, Tim Moore, brother of the bride, and Leslie Wiscombe of Troy served as ushers.
