Forest Hills Boosters to hold potluck supper meeting Nov. 23 per meeting of the current ath-

The first supper, held at the start of the school year, to kick-off the football season was a decided success.

The team certainly followed up with a wonderful performance to just be nudged out of a league championship by a very good Wyoming outfit. Sincerest congratulations go to Coach Shy and his boys.

The Boosters' Club hope to inaugurate just as good a basketball and wrestling campaign and so all parents and friends of the Rangers are urged to turn out on the 23rd of the month for another good supper and athletic program.

Dinner is to get underway by 6:30. All are asked to bring their own table service and 2 dishes to pass. Each dish should be enough for ten persons.

Dr. Robert Paine has appointed the Phil Johnsons, Paul Jasons and Walt Joneses to act as the committee for the event.

The Forest Hills Music Association will sponsor an adult variety show on April 23 and

Guild Work Shop is November 17

A Guild Work Shop presented by the Kent County Osteopathic Auxiliary will be held at Grand Rapids Osteopathic Hospital on November 17, from 9:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

The purpose of the Work Shop is to stimulate interest in the Osteopathic Guilds.

A hospital guild is an organization made up of a group of people who have an interest in helping a hospital and its patients. By giving freely of their time, guild members provide many little extras that make a patient's care and convalescence easier and more en-

Co-chairmen of the Work Shop are Mrs. Raymond Huldin and Mrs. James Boss. The program will begin in the hospital auditorium with a welcoming speech from Phil Vicari, the hospital administrator.

The guests at the Work Shop will then tour the hospital and the intern's quarters. Following the tour, the Work Shop booths are to be visited, where the function and operation of a guild will be explained.

The guest speakers, both from Mount Clements, and Mrs. Byron Kraft, State Osteopathic Guild President, and Mrs. Campbell Ward, State Osteopathic Guild Co-ordinator. Luncheon will be served compliments of Grand Rapids Osteopathic Hospital.

Last week saw the high series for the season broken and high game for the season broken twice. Loren Barton started the week off with a real big night rolling a 208, 202, 253 -663 series for high game and series for the season.

But, Harvey Eickhoff came back Friday and beat the high game by rolling a very fine 257 game which is now high for the season.

The women also did some mighty fine bowling. "Cookie" Cornelisse had a high series of 569, and Marian Kutchey rolled a big 214 for the high game of the week.

In the Jackpot Sunday night, Ron and Bev Holst again merged as first place squad winners and Jack Thompson and Lil Keiser were second. The Jackpot is now at $35.40.

Ada nurse aids Vietnamse people

To join a team of health workers from the U.S. and other nations who are assisting Vietnamese civilians in the current crisis, Miss Dorothy DeLooff, nurse officer with the U.S. Public Health Service, will take up her duties this month in Saigon. She is the daughter of Mr. Leonard DeLooff, 3825 Kehoe Dr

She is on a two-year assignment to the U. S. Agency for International Development for her work in Vietnam. She will assist Vietnamese nurses in a training program and in extending hospital services.

AID health workers, like agricultural and education advisors, will confine their activities to the "white" (safe) and "gray" (safe by day) zones of the county. "Black" zones are unsafe at anytime because of Viet Cong raids.

Miss DeLooff has had wide experience in nursing both in the U.S. and abroad. She recently returned from West Pakistan where she was on an AID assignment for two years. She supervised and taught at the

Getting Acquainted

Some people are very hard to get acquainted with because they hide themselves inside a shell of shyness and reserve. Others we never get to know because we have nothing in common with them; we are not interested in the same things. Then there are those who are very different from us, who move in another social circle; we are not on their level or they are not on ours, and we never get to know one another. And of course there are many we never meet and never have opportunity to get acquainted with.

Sometimes we think God is hard to get to know. And maybe He is. He lives so far beyond and above us. He is holy; He dwells in glory; we are ignorant and foolish nobodies in His presence. How can we feel at ease with Him and really get to know Him? His thoughts, His ways, His whole being is 'way beyond our comprehension.

Yes. We surely would never get to know God if He did not want us to become acquainted with Him. We would have no right to go to Him if He did not invite us. We would not be able to find Him if He did not want to be found. Long ago a man in misery cried out, "Oh that I knew where I might find Him!" (Job 23:3) But Moses, that great leader, said, "Thou shalt find Him if thou seek Him with all thy heart." (Deuteronomy 4:29) Is it worth while—to seek and know God? Jesus said that to know Him is life eternal!
