Looking to the future...

Looking to the future with an eye upon the past, the members of the congregation of Cascade Christian Church have embarked on yet another phase of their church's colorful history.

In April, celebrating their centennial year, the congregation dedicated a beautiful new sanctuary and office building. These two buildings were the second step in a continuing and well-coordinated plan to keep the physical plant in step with the growth of the membership.

The first of the new buildings in the complex, the educational and social activities facility, was dedicated in 1957. The future plan for additional educational units has already been approved for construction when needed.

Despite all this apparent emphasis on newness, the members have dedicated themselves to another undertaking which will carry them back into the past. Unlike many church buildings which are simply replaced when they are outgrown, the original Cascade Christian Church today stands proudly as the cornerstone to this modern church campus. A special committee under the leadership of chairman Harvey Comrie, is about to begin the task of restoring the "little white church in the vale" as closely as possible and practical to its original condition. It will not be an easy job.

Originally dedicated eighty-five years ago in October, the little church has served continuously through the years—and eighty-five years of activity have kept the old building young in spirit, but not in body. Careful inspection of the old church has disclosed serious dry-rot in the bell steeple, a condition which must be corrected immediately if the church is to survive the rigors of another windy season. This alone will be an expensive job and the committee is seeking advice on how best to accomplish it.

Inside the building is a challenge the committee welcomes because restoring the old sanctuary is going to be half working-bee and half scavenger-hunt. Most of the original furnishings (other than the pews and the communion table, which are

Marine gets 'Bronze Star'

Viet Nam veteran, decorated for heroism, feels Red guerrillas overrated, "Marines tops at ambush."

Captain Terry Turner received the "bronze star" for leading a Marine patrol under fire into a Viet Cong held village in July.

"The Viet Cong are better at springing ambushes than the South Vietnamese," said the soft spoken Marine captain who won the Bronze Star in Viet Nam, "and we're better than the Viet Cong."

Captain Terry Turner, 33, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Turner, 6974 Cascade Road, SE, spoke with the pride of a man who feels he has taken part in a difficult job that is being done well.

"The myth of the VC as a superman has been punctured," he said. "They don't like to stand and fight without a six to one numerical superiority. We surprise them, but they seldom surprise us."

Captain Turner and his wife, Janet, and children, Lisa, 7, and Michael, 4, spent two weeks with Captain Turner's parents and left Monday, November 1, for duty at Camp Pendleton, California.

His folks held an open house Saturday, October 31, for friends of the couple. The guests included:

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pullen, Mrs. Denton Pullen, Mr. and Mrs. Sybrant Dykhouse, Mr. & Mrs. R. B. Veneklasen, Mr. & Mrs. R. H. Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wykes, Nancy Wykes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Breed, Mrs. Marge Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson of Alto, Mr. and Mrs. W. Karl Schmidt, and Mrs. Patricia Gladstone.

Captain Turner is a graduate of Michigan State University in 1955. He wears the medials of an expert marksman with both pistol and rifle and the silver Army parachutist badge, earned during in intra-service exchange program.

Much of his service in Viet Nam, as a company commander in the 3rd Marine Division was spent on patrol.

"We cleared an area about six miles deep around Da Nang to keep the Communists from sneaking artillery in, and we kept them off balance with day and night saturation pag-rols."

"The temperature hit 110 degrees and most of the men left off their helmets and flak jackets. We traveled light with no packs, rations rolled inside socks carried at the waist and two canteens of water per man."

Marine patrols prevented the Communists from massing troops laying mines and recruiting fresh manpower from air villages. By protecting the air field the Marines supported the helicopter units which hammered the Reds daily as well as freeing South Vietnamese troops for offensive action.

His Bronze Star, given for "heroic operations against the enemy," was earned in July when Marines received reports that Viet Cong commissars were meeting in a village at Khoung My, six miles from where Turner was based.

Marching overnight his company forded a river, crossed a mined area and surrounded the village. When South Vietnamese security police arrived in the morning, the trap was sprung.

"We were right on top of them," Turner added. "When you throw a hand grenade in a hole and somebody throws one back, that's about as close as you can get."

Demonstrations protesting the war in Viet Nam have little effect on the morale of Americans there, he said.

"I'm not particularly disturbed by protests," Turner explained. "We were more interested in getting the job done."

These programs consist of motion pictures of fascinating parts of the world, with the photographer in person giving the narration.

Milton R. Hein, Postmaster of Ada, today was named Ada Chairman for Michigan Week, May 15-21, 1966 by H. Wayne Parker, Postmaster of Grand Rapids and Kent County Chairman.

Mr. Hein, Postmaster of Ada since October, 1959, has been past treasurer of the Ada Athletic Association. He has assisted in the projects of the Ada Business Men's Association. In the 4th of July parade this past year, he served as "best entry judge".

He also served on the Ada Michigan Week "DAY" this past year. "It's a real challenge to be appointed to repeat as Ada Chairman for Michigan Week", Hein stated. "It is my hope we can keep Michigan Week activities up to the high level of performance in the coming year. Michigan is the greatest state in the Union, but all of us have to be reminded. Michigan Week gives us that chance."

St. Robert's to collect clothes

We are well aware that a good share of the world's people are hungry every day. Famine stalks the face of the earth. What we too often forget is that these same hungry people are also in desperate need of clothing.

Here in affluent United States we waste more than these people ever have. We could stop wasting our substance by sharing it with the needy of the world.

Your old clothing still has a usefulness to the naked world and during the week of the 12th of November we shall have a chance again to send it to them through the Catholic Bishop's Thanksgiving clothing drive.

You may bring clothing to St. Robert's Church, November 12-13-14-15, and leave it in the basement of the church.

Ford speak on the value of our form of government and explain, in answer to questions, the work of the House Minority Leader; the Party Whip, the inner workings of a political party in Congress.

Mrs. Baldwin and Mr. Elenbaas, Government teachers at Forest Hills had arranged for Mr. Ford to speak to their classes.

House burns on October 28

First indication of Ernest Edge that his home at 2929 Cascade Road, SW, was on fire last Tuesday night, was when his radio-controlled garage door swung open and he was greeted by a wall of flames.

Neither the cause or source of the fire could be determined, but a major portion of the damage was in the kitchen and adjoining areas.

It was estimated that damage to the house and contents was about $20,000. A major share of the damage was caused by smoke which flooded the entire home.

The fire had gained such headway in the Edge home during his absence from 6 p. m. until 8:30 p. m. when he returned, that it took half an hour to bring it under control. The blaze ate away the kitchen supports to the point, the floor collapsed into the basement.

JV's lose to Wyoming, in last game

The Forest Hills Junior Varsity football team lost their last game of the season to the Wyoming Junior varsity team by a score of 21 to 13.

The Vikings struck early in the first quarter, by scoring on their third play from scrimmage, from their own 24 yard line with only a minute and 16 seconds of play gone by.

The Rangers came back after the kick-off and marched 70 yards from their own 30 yard line, with Mike Smith plunging over from the Viking five yard line for the touchdown. Steve Weber made the conversion.

Wyoming wasn't to be outdone, however, with two seconds remaining in the second quarter, they scored again, giving them a half-time advantage of 14 to 7.

On the opening kick-off of the third quarter, Dave Norman took the ball straight thru the middle of the Viking defense for a touchdown into to have it nullified on a clipping penalty at the 50 yard line.

With 5:39 left to play in the third quarter, however, they did manage to score with Jim VanderBaan carrying the ball over from the 2 yard line for a touchdown. Webers' conversion was not good.

Wyoming scored again in the fourth quarter from the Ranger's 4 yard line with 9:21 still remaining in the game.

This ended the scoring for the evening, with both teams showing excellent defensive power.

During the course of the football season, the Forest Hills Junior Varsity team scored a total of 186 points against their opponents while allowing only 27 points to be scored against them. We believe this to be quite an achievement.

November 11, Wyoming will play Rogers. This game will decide the championship for the JV's. If Rogers wins, Forest Hills will be the champions.

Marching

Recently it was my privilege to attend the Fall Music Festival of the Calvin College Music Department. The marches played by the Concert Band were especially stirring and inspirational. But what is a march? It is "a piece of strongly rhythmic music designed or fitted to accompany and guide marching," and marching is "measured and regular advance or movement, like that of soldiers moving in order; stately or deliberate walk; hence, advance; progress; course."

—Webster's New International Dictionary.

Marching is possible only under the guidance of a director who is in control of the military unit or of the musical band, and all the members of these units must follow the directions of their leader. Marching is possible only when every person is in step with the leader and with every other person in the marching unit.

The Christian must be in step with God's orders for his life, and he must follow wherever the Lord leads him. The Christian marching song is: "Onward, Christian soldiers, marching as to war, with the Cross of Jesus going on before; Christ, the Royal Master, leads against the foe; forward into battle, see His banners go." And our invitation is: "Onward, then, ye people, join our happy throng." —John Guichelaar

Maude L. Brown, 74, passes; last rites held

Requiem Mass was sung on Saturday morning, November 6, in St. Stephen's Church for Mrs. Maude Lillian Brown of 1144 East Paris Road, SE.

Mrs. Brown passed away on Thursday afternoon, November 11, at the age of 74.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. V. B. Rosewarne, Mrs. James Kelly and Mrs. Judd Tanis, all of Grand Rapids; one brother, Theodore Bly of Cheboygan; 15 grandchildren; and thirty-one great-grandchildren.

Burial was made in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Forest Hills went down to defeat Friday night after leading the league leaders for three quarters.

Wyoming's offense was stopped cold most of the game by a fierce, hard charging, and alert defense put up by the Rangers. As in the past years, however, Wyoming seems to be able to come up with several long gaining plays each game to win.

The Vikings are the biggest and most mobile of the teams seen in the area this year, and yet the Rangers out ran, and out fought them most of the game. Wyoming put together a well executed series of plays, aided by a costly penalty in the fourth quarter to pull from behind to win the game.

The Vikings received the opening kick off. The fired up Ranger defense forced a fourth and ten situation at once and Wyoming was forced to kick to the Rangers.

Mike Jason passed to Tom Poll, who out maneuvered three Vikings to snag the ball. A fumble occurred as Poll was crashed to the ground and Wyoming recovered on the Ranger 48.

On the first play Stalsonburg passed down the middle for the touchdown. Dave Brower was all alone as he caught the ball. The try for the extra point was partially blocked and wide of the uprights.

Forest Hills returned the following kick off to their 25 yard line. Berk Freeman squirmed his way up to the Ranger 40. Here Jason passed to Freeman on the 50 yard line. Wyoming intercepted the next pass on their 30. The Ranger defense forced a kick situation again.

Jason began to hit on his short passes to Tim Williams and Chuck Reintges to move again into Viking territory. Jason found Tom Poll open and hit him at the Wyoming six yard line. Freeman crashed his way through the Wyoming line for the touchdown. Walt Perschbacher kicked the extra point and Forest Hills had the lead 7-6.

In the second quarter both teams had moments of outstanding defense as well as offense. Forest Hills drove deep once only to have a pass intercepted and the run back to mid field.

A Viking pass took them to the Ranger 18. Again fine Ranger defense forced a field goal attempt on a fourth and ten situation. A fumbled pass from center ended the last threat of the half for either team.

Defense by both teams seemed to hold each team in check early in the third quarter. Then Bob Ranson of Wyoming broke around his left end and raced 60 yards down the north sidelines. He was caught by Gary Wingeier, from behind, on the Ranger 14. Three downs made two yards, and a double hand off carried to the five where the Vikings lost the ball on downs.

Freeman moved the ball to the Fourteen in three plays. A roughing the kicker penalty followed, giving the Rangers a first down on their own 29. Poll's next kick carried deep to the Vikings 25 yard line. The defense of both teams stopped any further sustained ball movement in the rest of the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, Wyoming with the ball on their own 18, began the successful series of plays that won the game.

Ranson ran to the 30 in one shot; a pass to Morse carried to the 45; another pass put the ball on the Ranger 45; a major penalty gave the Vikings a first down on Forest Hills 31.

The Ranger defense stiffened and forced a fourth down with short yardage. Fullback Jim Wicht then broke through three Rangers, cut around the open end, and raced 25 yards for the deciding touchdown. The try for the extra point was rushed and failed.

The Rangers came back on passes to Williams and Poll. They moved to Wyoming's 35. A fourth down pass was intercepted at the goal line. Wyoming was unable to gain was forced to kick again with just a minute and half left on the clock. Jason hit on a few short passes to again move the Rangers into Wyoming territory. Jason's next pass was to Poll at the Viking five, but it was snaked out of his hands at the last moment by the ever alert Wyoming secondary.

Thus ended the excellent effort of the Rangers to be the first team in the O. K. conference to defeat a Wyoming football team in four years.

The Rangers did score the one touchdown from scrimmage against Wyoming this year. The loss will bring a fourth place finish this year; a victory might have brought a share of first place.

Coach Bob Dangi and the team should be proud of their play this year. Crippling injuries early in the season forced Dangi to make major position changes. The new positions caused lapses at times that were very costly.

Little Red

Mr. Milburn Dosenberry wishes to thank all of the parents in Cascade School PTA as members. We did not reach the 100 percent membership goal we had hoped for, but we were very close. Let's try to make it before our dues have to be sent to National P.T.A. which is this next week. If you wish to join the rest of us, please do so now.

When it all has been turned in we give you the exact percentage achieved. If you did not receive your notice from school or it has been misplaced please do the following. Send dues with both Father and Mother's name on a slip of paper to school. Dues are 50 cents per person. Thank you again for responding so well.

Everyone keep Thursday, December 16, 1965 open for the annual Christmas Program. Mrs. Robert Woodrick has been and from now till then will be working with the children very hard to have a great program. If you are asked to help in some little way, please try to say "yes". Thank you.
