No debate between Junior high opens subscription drive for Suburban Life Lynch and Clancy

Although TV and radio carried a story of a coming de-bate between Ada Township Supervisor nominee, Fred Clancy, and incumbent supervisor, Richard Lynch, there will be no debate

Fred Clancy in a statement on Tuesday said that he would not debate with Lynch because he was not a candidate and there was no basis for a discussion between them.

Lynch had challenged the primary nominee to a debate in a letter dated October 14.

ANNOUNCING

November 5th we will be open on Saturdays. Closed on Mondays starting October 31.

Traffic jam looms as Ada booms! Ever since 1957, when the State Highway Department built The ninth annual subscription a new Grand-Thornapple River bridge and widened the highway for a 1.6 mile stretch, M-21 travelers have known Ada as "the place where the road widens out." Soon, however, they will recognize Ada as the "east end of the traffic jam."

There's a reason for the jam. Ada has been growing-more so in the last six years than in the previous 16. Population alone has gone from 2887 in 1960 to an estimated 4,300 today. Two more subdivisions are under construction now, with 3 more (one to have 1000 homes) on the drafting boards.

M-21 a menace?

But while this growth adds to traffic, they're not on the highway-as are six new industrial and commercial concerns fronting directly on M-21, with more coming. Leader, of course, is Amway Corporation with its 180,000 square feet of floor space; 33 expansions up since its beginnings in 1959. Amway probably generates more traffic than any other individual Ada Township firm, what with its more than 500 employees entering and leaving, its dozens of heavy trucks coming and going, and its literally thousands of visitors and plant tour-takers annually

Ada area.

But just this last year, the congested highway has seen the opening of a drive-in restaurant, a service station, a railroad crossing and a new industrial park-with highway entrances to a drive-in bank, a sub-division, and an advertising agency in the planning stages. These businesses, in addition to advertising agency in the planheld for brothers ning stages. These businesses, in addition to several older

After all of the votes were tallied, Miss Linda McCormick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCormick, Ada Drive, Ada, was chosen to reign over the homecoming festivities as the queen of homecoming, and the king honors went to Randy Ashley, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ashley, Forest Hills Rd. They reigned over the dance held in the multi-purpose room, decorated in the autumn that is upon us. It was a hard game to lose, but the spirit was high. The half time ceremony was very impressive, with the Forest Hills Band, under the direction of student Charles Cribley who played the Hawaiian War Chant. The parade started with the lead car with the exchange students, Mrja Jukala of Finland, Akemi Tsunakawa of Japan, in her native dress, and looking like the proverbial China doll, and Rudi Freiberger of Germany. In open convertibles the queen candidates were presented. Miss Karen Stiles, last year's homecoming queen, and r. Howard Dahlman presented Linda McCormick with the bou-

The students of the various classes did an unusually good production on their floats, showing a great deal of imagination, plus a lot of hard work. The freshmen came out with their float, Gopher Victory, a little brown gopher, perched upon a green background, the Sophomores outdid themselves with a large green and white train, "Let's Chew Them Up" as the theme. The Juniors after a great deal of problems, mainly finding their lovely float perched on the top of Runciman's barn, and taking 2 nights to get it down off its lofty perch, and ready again after a heavy rain storm the previous night, took first place with their white dog and its wagging tail and head, the theme was "Let's Lick em." The Senior's float was a first class production creation, a blue whale, with lighted eyes and a great deal of personality for a whale. The Senior float was disqualified due to the sudden high flying of the junior float, even though very few were involved in the antics of the junior float, the whole class had to suffer. The seniors who worked so hard

Words

In the latest issue of Christianity Today, October 14, 1966 there are several very interesting articles on the general theme: "Crisis in Communication." In a panel discussion on this current subject, Mr. Louis Cassels, religion editor of United Press International, submitted the idea that people are buried by too many words. Here is what he said: "United Press International must move close to a million words a day of news from one part of the world to another! You can imagine what a tiny fraction of this amount one person can read or absorb. A great selectivity must go on by editors of newspapers and by producers of television news programs. But even with all their selectivity, consider the amount of information that is hurled at the ultimate consumer by newspapers, by television, by radio, by magazines, by books. I read the other day that over 1,500 religious books alone are published each year!"

Is it possible that we who have so much to read actually read so little? Is it possible that we who have so much to which we may listen actually hear so little that is worth-while? How many words of the Bible to you read each day? How many minutes do you spend listening to God? How regularly do you attend your church services each Sunday? Take time for the Wonderful Words of Life!

In last week's Suburban Life there was over two full columns of type used to berate and belittle the candidate who was nominated by the voters for Supervisor, Mr. Fred Clancy. It was signed by one of the most wealthy men in Ada Township, Mr. Jay Van-Andel, who is also one of the principal owners of the million dollar Amway Corporation. His name also appears as part of a committee, who, without blushing, call themselves the "Committee For The Preservation of Honest Government in Ada Township." The adding machine says this amounts to a total of $612.30. We received, from not over a dozen contributors, $460.00. Note that the expense is more than we collected. Besides we could not pay anything towards the printing of the folders that were mailed out, but our credit is good. When we filed the statement of expenses at the County Clerk's we showed all that had been paid out, up to that time, but did not list where the contributions came from. (We know what happened to some who appealed their tax assessments to the state-they got another boost, which we hear Mr. Lynch now chuckles about.) We told Clerk Bronkema that we were not going to expose anyone who could be penalized. We now ask you "havenots" to contribute $5 or $10 dollars each, with the assurance that your names will not be exposed. This adv. costs, so send in a check to help pay for this an the other messages you will get. There is much that you should know and THERE IS MUCH WE CAN TELL. Send to EDE : TT.

Welsh. This frightens me.

In a recent issue of your paway possible to get him elected. per Mr. Welsh asks the ques-tion, "Why are Mr. Lynch and I am so sorry that I didn't show my appreciation to Mr. Lynch for all his work on my his friends so anxious to stay in office?" Since this question behalf before this. And so you see, Mr. Welsh, Mr. Lynch is running again bebothered me also I decided to find out for myself. Maybe I can help Mr. Welsh. cause there are a lot of sleepy-I found out that Mr. Lynch gets only a straight salary as heads like me who have finally awakened to the fact that we supervisor with no expense alalmost have your kind of govlowance. $4,500 a year isn't very much at all when you ernment and that scares us. > The Editor of Suburban Life: You were extremely generous to the forces of "Honesty" in the space you gave in your re-cent issue. I shall not be so demanding.

Mr. Jay Van Andel's "Hot Letter" was long but I waded through it. If he had attended the Township meeting last Monday he would not have accused me of "ghost writing" Mr. Clancy's letter. I stated very plainly that I was neither for nor against the Zoning Ordi-did ask the question; if this was passed by the people in would climb to the top of the 1949, how could it be thrown township flagpole to write Mr. out the window without the con-Lynch's name if that's the only sent of the people? During the discussion I learned that a home could be built on a 90-foot lot and asked why I would have to provide 2 acres for a home in the zone I was in. I was told that I could get a variance. If this is so, the ordinance does not mean too much if it can be changed that easy. So I was not the "Ghost writer." I was sorry to read state-ments regarding Mr. Clancy that did not measure up to the claim of "Honest" committee. A snide remark about Mr. Clancy's service in our armed forces does not come with good grace from one who has become a millionaire in a short time. Why a half truth? He said "recently lived in Ada Township about two years.' Mr. Clancy lives in one of the few ancestral homes that has been in his family nearly a century. He spent his boyhood helping on the farm where his father dealed in work horses. Mr. Clancy's last 6 years in the Air Force was spent as Chief Administrative officer in nance as I had not read it. I Mrs. Willard Combs, left, and Mrs. Clifford Kohlbeck pre-October 23.

The undersigned, as a nucleus, have constituted ourselves as the Preservation of Honest Government Committee in Ada Township.

This committee's purpose is to keep and support the progressive, honest township government which we have had for the past several years.

We and many others have been seriously disturbed by the misinformation which has been persistently spread by a small but vocal group of individuals who have opposed equitable assessing practices, township zoning, sewer development and other forward steps in recent years. We are seriously disturbed by the defeat, in the August primary, of Richard Lynch, the best Supervisor the Township has had in our memory; and we do not believe that result represents the majority opinion of the voters. We are deeply concerned at the possibility of election of any township official who is under the influence or domination of George Welsh, or any other private individual. In the November General Election we will support Richard Lynch, the incumbent Supervisor, for re-election. We will also support John Adrianse for Trustee, and will work for the reelection of Neal Vande Peerle as Treasurer, Kathyrn Sytsma as Clerk. This is the team, along with Kenneth Anderson, Trustee incumbent, which can and will carry forward the word of the Township.

We intend, before the election, to discuss the issues which are important to continued progress in our Township and to try to clear up the confusion and doubts which have been so assiduously spread around. It is hoped that other unbiased citizens will take part.

Those who also want honest and progressive township government are urged to join us.

Members of this organization agree to publicly support the above statement and permit use of their names in this organization's literature.
