Cascade's 'old time' fourth celebration

Township Fourth of July celebration will be held again this year in the village of Cascade and on the Thornapple River between the Cascade Dam and the Ada Dam.

Chairman of this year's celebration is Stewart A. Christian, who also represents the Cascade Businessmens' Association. The booths and concessions, which are sponsored by the various associations in the township, will open at 9 a. m. on July 4.

They consist of a dunking booth, raffle, basketball throws, bottles and balls, a booth called "Under Seven and Over Twenty-One," hat sales and grab

The Cascade Christian Church will be having a chicken barbe-cue at about 5 in the afternoon. The Cascade Christian Reformed Church will be selling hot dogs, fritters, and coffee all day

The parade this year is headed by Lloyd Winslow and will get under way about 10 a. m. Those in the Forest Hills and Cascade area who are desirous of being in the parade should call Mr. Winslow at 949-1326.

There will be such things as a display of the fire department, horses, bicycles, floats, and antique automobiles.

At 12:30 the Thornapple Valley River Association will sponsor a boat parade, which will commence below the island at Cascade and will go to the Ada Dam. There will be judging of the floats at the backwater of the Ada Dam.

At 1 o'clock, there will be a canoe race from the Cascade Bridge to the Ada Bridge. Those wishing to participate in the

The "Old-Time" Cascade canoe race may contact George Harrity at 949-0478.

Among the afternoon activities will be a water-ball fight between the Ada and Cascade fire department at 2 p. m., and the chicken barbecue at the Cascade Christian Church, commencing about 5 p. m. mencing about 5 p. m.

In the evening there will be a rock and roll band and a dance between 7:30 and 9:30 at the Highlighting the early part of the evening will be a raffle sponsored by the Cascade Businessmens' Association that will commence at 8 p. m. There have been many prizes that have been donated by many of the businessmen in the surrounding area.

Climaxing this "Old-Time"
Fourth of July celebration will be a gigantic fireworks display which will commence between 9 an 9:30.

Marine Lance Corporal Richard S. Rolison recently arrived in Viet Nam and is located in the DaNang area. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rolison, 5690 Cascade

L-Cpl Rolison has been in the service since March 1966. He completed his basic training in San Diego, California, followed by an intensive course in Tank Operation and Maintenance at Camp Pendleton, California.

He was then assigned to Camp LeJeune, North Carolina, until his departure for overseas in January. Since that time he has been in Okinawa in tank maintenance operations.

Mrs. Richard Rolison, the former Niki Humbarger, plans to reside in Grand Rapids until L-Cpl Rolison's return to the States.

Camping trip

Members of Teen Fellowship, the 9th grade youth group at Cascade Christian Church, will have a three-day camping trip into northern Michigan July 5-

The group will camp at the state park at Burt Lake, having an all-day side trip to Mackinac Accompanying the youth group will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Strien and Pastor Raymond Gaylord.

In order to help raise funds for the trip, Teen Fellowship will operate a beverage stand at the Fourth of July celebration in Cascade.

Black-top dances are scheduled

Three "black-top dances" are being planned during the month of July by the Cascade Christian Church Youth Council.

The dances to be held out-ofdoors unless rain forces activities inside will take place Wednesday evenings from 9 until 10:45. All youth in the 9th-12th grades are cordially invited. No admission charge will be made. Refreshments will be available at a slight cost.

The only break in dancing will be an 8-minute talk on the inspirational-side by the follow-

These "black top dances"

These "black top dances" have been planned by Mr. Cueni of the Cascade Church, with an able assist by church youth. They are being held on an experimental basis, with an honest attempt being made to provide good clean recreation, as well as interjecting a few thoughts to challenge the minds of modern youth.

Wrestlers to attend clinic

Charles Matthews, wrestling coach at Forest Hills High School is keeping in touch with his boys through the summer. Monday they meet at the Matthews home for a long bike wide.

Later in the summer they have planned a canoe trip. For-est Hills has had a very good wresting team under Mr. Matthews' excellent coaching.

July 16 through July 22 Mich-

At the annual summer choir concert last Sunday evening at Cascade Christian Church, Mrs. Robert Woodrick, director of the choral music for children and youth, presented Miss Molly Blanton and Jonathan Gaylord with gold pins in recognition of outstanding service rendered in the past year.

Named to the Attendance Honor Roll for perfect or nearperfect attendance were: Sara Gaylord, Jill Chandler, Christine Den Houten, Jonathan Gaylord, Shirley Kingsland, Denise Seeley and Peter Gaylord.

After expenses of the concert were defrayed the children turned over a sum of fifty dollars to the church, to be applied toward the purchase of a Bald-win piano for the church sanc-

Husbands and Wives

The Scriptural teaching about the duties of husbands and wives is stated clearly in our Form for Marriage. The husbands are addressed with these words: "For the home which marriage establishes the Lord ordained that the man should be the head of the wife even as Christ is the Head of the Church, and that he should protect her and provide for her in love, a love which, if exercised in the spirit and after the example of Christ, will be conducive to mutual happiness.

The wives are taught that "God also ordained that the wife should be subject to the husband in all things that are according to His Word, showing him deference even as the church to Christ.

If this divinely-ordained order is carried into practice, "the liberty of both husband and wife is glorified by mutual loyalty to law, and a home so begun is the name of the Lord and regulated by His commandments becomes the very foundation of a Christian society and affords a foretaste of the eternal home.'

When husbands and wives forsake these commandments of God, they are not only heading for the ruination of marriage and the home in the way of divorce with all of its attendant evils, but they are also missing out on the blessings of a Christian home and a Christian society. MAKE YOUR HOME A CHRISTIAN HOME!

Thornapple Valley artists display

Mrs. Ruth May, Thorncrest, and Mrs. Harold Engen, also a resident on Thorncrest, examine a small portion of the work collected for the 4th of July Art Show at Cascade Township

An unusual success story is that of the crowds that have been growing each year as viewers visit the Art Show in the Cascade Township Hall on each successive July 4th.

The first year the display brought into the hall more than which seemed a large group. That year one painting was sold. The second year brought more well-wishers to the local artists and more paintings were taken home by delighted customers.

Last year there were over 700 people at the exhibit and Mrs. Thomas Rockett, who is in charge of the showing, says she does not remember just how many paintings were sold, but that it exceeded the former amount by several.

Not all of the paintings are for sale. This is really just an art show to display local talent; most of the members who place their work in the exhibit are from the Ada-Cascade area. Still price tags are on some items and each year more people make it a practice to stop and at least view the show as part of their day's celebration. Many of these have taken the

As Mrs. Rockett mentioned, "It is really sad to see someone spend as much or more for a print or reproduction as they would need to spend on an original. The difference is truly noticable when a painting is hanging in your home."

Most of the paintings will be representational work, although at least one local abstract artist, Helen Runciman, will also have a display. Jeanne Laird, who also paints, will this year show her stained glass work. Some of the others who have been working in oils and poly-

July 4th games

The Thornapple Valley Little League has completed its plans for the annual fourth of July all-star games.

This event will commence at 9:30 a. m. with introductory ceremonies and play is sched-uled for 10 a. m. Two games will be played simultaneously; one representing selected players from all major league teams and the other from all minor league teams.

On the field closest to the Lions Park, the senior division will have their game. Each coach has selected his teams outstanding players who in turn are assigned to a team designated as either the American or the National Division.

and Brian Mooney.

These players will represent the American Division, with head coach Ron Hennie, White Sox, and assistant coaches, Roger McKay, Twins, and Joe Mooney, Devils.

The National Division team will be coached by Roger Faulkner, Angels, with assistants, T. Marmon, Jets, Bob Fox, Dodg-
