Farewell performance set for 'Headhunters'

The final performance by the locally famous Headhunters will take place at the Lowell Teen Center on September 8th. Nominally a rock and roll band, the Headhunters have become known as a very diversified group, offering music to please everyone. Headhunters fans will have no trouble recognizing their favorites in the picture above. Back row, left to right: Dick Nowak, Jim Hagen and Tom Speerstra. Middle row: Dick Lee, Tim McLaughlin and Roger MacNaughton. Front row: Marty Gostnell and Terry DeWitt.

The first Teen Center dance of the Fall season will also feature disc jockey John Shannon, the "Big Irishman," from radio station WGRD in Grand Rapids. It will be held in the Runciman Elementary Building from 8 p. m. to midnight.

The Headhunters

Headhunter history began about two years ago when four Lowell High school students pooled their musical talents to start a group. The original group consisted of Dick Nowak on drums, Roger MacNaughton on piano, Tim McLaughlin on bass, and

Rep. Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., Rep. Geraid R. Ford, K-Mich., made a fuss over the Bonnie Blue Bells, Wyoming's baton twirling corps, during their trip to Washington, D. C., to take part in the Grand National Junior Baton Corps Competition. Ford greeted Mrs. Bonnie De-Laat of 6785 Grand River Drive, Ada, the corps' director, as the group gathered on the U.S. House of Representatives side of the U. S. Capitol building. The Wyoming organization, which has won the Michigan junior baton corps twirling championship for eight consecutive years, placed second in the national competition.

Alma College, with an antici-pated enrollment of 1,250 students for the fall term, begins in September the third year under an academic program in which most students study only three courses during each of three 11-week terms.

The college's new Bruske Residence Hall, with rooms for 210 students, and the new Hamilton Dining Commons will be ready for their first use by students at the start of the fall term.

Meanwhile, work on the college's new Physical Education Building, which features both a large gymnasium and swimming pool, is proceeding on schedule. The building, the seventh major structure to be erected at Alma College within the past 10 years, will be ready for student use a year from now.

One of the highlights of the 1967-68 year at Alma College will be the participation in academic and cultural activities on the campus by the college's af-filiate artist, Miss Mary Beth Peil, lyric soprano. Miss Peil, who has been one of the most promising young performers with the Metropolitan Opera National Company, will be on the Alma campus six times during

Manual on self-defense

Travel a lot in your business? Well, the next time you pack your bag it might be well to include a manual on the art of self-defense. It could come in handy.

The crime rate has been rising in many American cities; and it is not just the recent riots that are to blame. Crimeeverything from muggings to house robberies-is on the upswing If you're physically attacked you can use whatever force is necessary to protect yourself. But remember this: there's a possibility that when you get into an altercation the court will decide you're the attacker. For instance, if someone calls you a dirty name or insults your wife your recourse is to call the police. If you assault the namecaller you're legally cast as the attacker and liable for dam-

Impression

A few weeks ago an advertisement impressed me: "We press so you impress." We impress others by the neatness of our clothing. True, clothes do not make the man; but clothes do tell us something about the man. First impressions often are true; and generally remain unchanged.

To impress means to press in or on. With reference to immaterial objects it means to cause or imprint a vivid im-pression; as to impress ideas on the mind, or a scene on the memory. It means to affect forcibly or deeply, as to impress one favorably. At times we may be too much concerned about the impression which we make on others by our external appearance. But we are often far too little concerned about the impression we make on others by our Christian life. What impression do other people receive from you about the Lord Jesus Christ and the church of Christ? Are you bearing in mind that others ought to see the Christ living in you? The early Christians made a definite impression! Of Peter and John it was said: "And they took knowledge of them that they had been with Jesus." Act 4:13. Are you with Jesus? -John Guichelaar spires the peasants of Asia. In quite another vein David Lawrence, in the May 22, 1967, U. S. News and World report observes that time and again we have had revolutions in America. His long list necessarily includes the emerging predilection of some to glorify those exponents of civil disobedience who prefer revolution at the total expense of others in the community. He further notes the recent multiplication of crime; the spectable of teachers being physically intimidated in our schools; the infectious, sickly, rebellious exhibitionism of youth, and the rising abuse of the principles of free speech and the right of dissent which, if continued, must ultimately destroy those those precious rights. Pathetically, the crowning (?) injury now comes in the inconsistent words of Whitney Young, sometimes moderate civil rights leader, who while extolling the great beneficence implicit in the Declaration of Independence adds "but what we want is the happiness, not the pursuit."

There is no question but that S. Grant, our 18th president, spoke to our time in "Too long denial of saving. guaranteed right is sure to lead to revolution-bloody revolution, where suffering must fall upon the innocent as well as the In spite of our great strides in education, in housing, in recreation, the incisive logic of these words is being demonstrated today.

And the words of Richard Whately, Archbishop of Dublin, also coming from the last century, speak now more clearly than ever: "The best security against revolution is in the constant correction of abuses and the introduction of needed improvements. It is the neglect of timely repair that makes re-

Janice Robbins, Fred Baker, jr. wed Saturday

Trinity Reformed Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Janice Mae Robbins, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robbins, Grand River Drive, Ada, and Frederick C. Baker, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Baker, sr., of Leonard St., E., Grand Rapids, Saturday evening.

The former Miss Robbins chose an A-line gown of linen with a lace bodice and short belled sleeves. A petite lace cap held her floor-length silk tulle veil edged with matching lace.

Mrs. Ronald Smant was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas VanderPlow. Mrs. J. Bernard Gorter and Miss Marcia Bowen of Spring Lake

They wore petal pink organ-za gowns, their mini bodices accented with re-embroidered alencon lace. Their headpieces were bouffant bows securing floorlength veils.

J. Bernard Gorter was best man. Seating the guests were Donald McWilliams of Spring Lake, Paul Joldersma, Ronald Reetz and Darryl J. Robbins.

Big race for mods Saturday

The Michigan State Championship race for super modifieds, postponed because of rain last week at the Berlin Raceway in Marne, Michigan, has been rescheduled for this Saturday evening, September 2, with qualification runs beginning at 6 p. m.

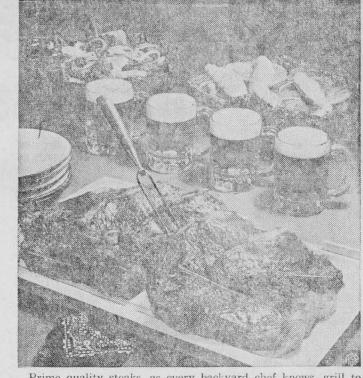

Back in 1951 the first Michigan State Championship for somewhat milder running super modifieds was held on the clay oval surface at the Ionia Fairgrounds. Going for 500 laps, the race was halted on the 478th lap due to darkness, and Gordon VanderLaan of Grand Rapids was declared the winner.

Since its inception into a season packed full of championship events, the MSC has been run at Ionia, the Grand Rapids' Speedrome, and the Berlin Race

Bill Wiltse won the first title event at the Berlin Raceway in 1959, and started the Berlin Raceway Hall of Fame with his big win. Since that time such great drivers as the late Dick Carter, the late Jimmy Nelson, the late Mort Andresen, Art Bennett, Gordon VanderLaan & Bob Knight have driven their way to victory in this annual race, now in its 16th year.

The rich $6,000, 70-lap main event, carrying a $1,000 prize to the winner, will be run in two 35-lap legs on the seven-sixteenths mile Marne oval fol-

Marinate BBQ Steaks In Beer

Prime quality steaks, as every backyard chef knows, grill to utter perfection over charcoal. But prime meats are both rare and costly for regular use. However the more economical cuts, treated with a proper marinade, can rival the choicest steak in flavor, juiciness and tenderness.

For steaks that will be charcoal grilled, by far the best marinade is beer. Men who've taken over the summer cooking chores for years can attest that a seasoned beer or ale marinade penetrates the meat with a tenderizing influence — and adds a delicious, subtle flavor.

It's easy, too, because what BBQ meal is ever complete without a plentiful supply of the thirst-quenching amber brew?

Beer Marinated Steaks 6 individual steaks, cut thick 2 onions, sliced 1/2 clove garlic, minced cup salad oil 1 (12-oz.) can of beer, about

Early in the day, lay steaks in a single layer in a shallow pan. Arrange onion slices on top. Add garlic to oil and dribble over steaks. Pour on enough beer to completely cover meat. Let marinate several hours. When ready to cook, remove steaks and grill to taste over white-hot charcoal, brushing with marinade during cooking. Yield: 6 servings.

Sheriff Ron Parsons, who has just finished his first sucessful year as head of the Kent County Sheriff's Department, says with pride, "Michigan has adopted this system and is closing the gap between the number of wanted persons being arrested and those remaining un-detected. LEIN is a teletype computer system linking State, Sheriff & City Police for the purpose of seeking wanted persons, stolen cars, descriptions and other key information.

Sheriff Parsons explained, 'This will be a boon to the taxpayers, first of all, it is being paid for by the state and not locally. It is a computer program that makes old teletype systems nearly obsolete with the time and effort that is saved by its use. It does work on the same wires, however; but as questions here are fed into the computer, results are returned immediately. Facts from the central computer are returned in seconds whereas they used to take a great deal longer. With the old method, a question was teletyped to Lansing and an operator there had to leave the machine to look up the answer and then return to relay the information back to the Kent County Sheriff's Department. Now, armed with LEIN, Sheriff Parsons says, "The policeman holding a suspect or vehicle, radios all facts to his department and in turn this information is sent to the com-
