Volunteers service to bookmobile

As their part in the Campfire Girls' community volunteer service training program three Horizon Club members have chosen to help on one of the Kent County Library System's bookmobiles.

Deborah Gage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gage of Knapp, NE, is assisting at the Orchard View stop in Grand Rapids Township; Linda Ezinga, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ezinga of Dickinson, SE, is assisting at the Richardson stop in Plainfield Township; and Cathy Woltjer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Woltjer of Den Hertog, SW, is assisting at the E. Newhall stop in Wyoming.

The girls will be helping Miss Margaret Broersma, librarian on "Big Red," by shelving books, preparing displays, and by assisting young patrons in filling out their loan slips.

Miss Helen Anderson, coordinator of Horizon Clubs, the senior division of Camp Fire Girls, states that there are 120 girls in the Grand Rapids area each of whom is giving from six to ten hours in volunteer service to various community agencies.

The area bookmobile schedule follows:
 Mondays: Cascade Drug Store, 6 to 9 p. m.; Wednesday, Cannonsburg, Belke General Store, 4 to 5:30 p. m.; Thursday, Orchard View School; 6:30 to 8 p. m.; Friday, Eastmont, Forest Hills Shop-Rite Market, 2:30 to 5:30 p. m.

Benefits all ages...

'Moby' carries over 5,000 volumes; makes area bookmobile stops

There is a Bookmobile named Moby that arrives every Friday afternoon in the Eastmont area and every Monday evening at Cascade. Here is parked for 3 hours once a week, a vehicle for the reading benefit of all of the population, young and old. There are over 5,000 volumes within Moby and every week at least 275 persons take advantage of the offerings.

But the figure is down from other years according to Howard Kalvin, the librarian aboard Moby. There should be around 350 people borrowing books; there have been that many in the past.

Howard, who has his Masters in Library Science and has been working for the last 3 years for the Kent County Library, says that perhaps the word has not gotten around lately. People have to be reminded of this service, strange as it seems. Of course, some readers have moved away and there are new residents who may not realize that Moby does visit once a week.

Nor do they perhaps realize that they can request books of a special nature if they cannot find just what they want aboard the Bookmobile. A buzz in Howard's ear or a call to the Kent County Library, will find everyone there trying to help locate special material if it is requested. Librarians will survey a round searching or may contact the Grand Rapids Public Library system or if necessary, the State Library. This takes time, of course, you cannot expect overnight service, but willing workers try.

The Bookmobile service comes to Eastmont and Cascade because these areas do not have permanent libraries of their own. "This is unfortunate," says Howard, "this is an area that needs its own branch. Here on a Bookmobile there is no encyclopedia, no reference work space, no elbow or browsing room." Moby serves both Ada and Cascade Townships with about half of the readers coming from each.

The amazing variety of books from pre-schoolers' picture stories to adult philosophy makes Moby a "fun place." Elementary and high school students find books full of just plain entertaining material written for their age levels, i.e. mysteries or hobby information. They can also pick up background material for term papers or find a qualified tome for those well-known Book Reports. Adults will discover shelf after shelf that run the gamut from biography to How to books, to politics and oceanography. In fact, everything is here or can be gotten that is found in a permanent library. "Even today," sighs Howard, "some people think a Bookmobile is just for children."

"We do not have Moby stopping near the schools in Cascade and Ada because we want adult borrowers as well as children," explained Howard. "In fact, that is why I suggested that we try to hold the hours in the evening so that young children may come with adult supervision and so that adults may come during and just after the dinner hours." Moby has its own generator which produces light and heat for evening hours and for the winter months. Stopping in Cascade in the evening makes the Bookmobile a community event instead of a school affair. This is for the family unit and for all ages. There is usually a crowd, but Howard would like to see more people interested. "Better than half of the readers at Eastmont and Cascade are adults," said Howard. "Hopefully the ultimate will be achieved in time and the citizens will find that they would like a Branch Library in the community."

Should this be desired, interested persons would have to contact the Township Board and present a case strong enough for the Supervisor to take to Miss Joyce Plune, Kent County Library Director.

Joan Mavis, 41, school teacher, passes; rites held

Mrs. Allan (Joan) Mavis, 41, of 4387 Braeburn Drive, SE, passed away Thursday morning, October 27, at Butterworth Hospital, after a long illness.

Mrs. Mavis was a substitute teacher in the Forest Hills District from 1955 to 1965, teaching Latin and history. She was a member and past president of the Bissell Guild of Blodgett Memorial Hospital. She also taught at Brownell Hall School for Girls in Omaha, Nebraska, for five years.

Mrs. Mavis was born and lived in Grand Rapids. She graduated from Creston high school and the University of Michigan. She was a member of Alpha Chi Alumni.

She leaves her husband, Allan; two sons, Mark, 15, and Scott, 12, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Marquardt of Grand Rapids.

Funeral services were held on Saturday at the Reyers North Valley Funeral Chapel. The Rev. Edwin J. Arnold of Second Congregational Church officiated. Cremation followed.

Charles Wapner finishes basic

Airman Charles J. Wapner, son of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Wapner of 1860 Hall, SE, Grand Rapids, has completed basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

He is now assigned as an administrative specialist with a unit of the Military Airlift Command at Langley Air Force Base, Virginia.

Airman Wapner, a 1966 graduate of Ottawa Hills High School, attended Grand Rapids Junior College.

Name chairmen for Mothers' March of Dimes

Every day, day in and day out, 700 children with birth defects are born in the United States. March of Dimes supported research seeks ways to stop this great destroyer of our young.

Kent County Mothers' March leaders, under the direction of Mrs. Louis VanderKaay, met in Grand Rapids Wednesday, October 25, to make plans for the Mothers' March of Dimes to be held January 25 to February 1. This activity raises annually the greatest percentage of the March of Dimes campaign.

The new film "The Only Kid On the Block," telling a story of Birth Defects, was shown. The National Foundation-March of Dimes' research, treatment and education programs in the field of Birth Defects, locally and nationally, were discussed.

Mrs. Charles C. Cartwright, the East Suburban Community Chairman, announces 1968 Area Chairmen as follows: Grand Rapids Township: Mrs. Robert Rodvoets and Mrs. Kenneth Lawrence; Kentwood: Mrs. David Van Putten, assisted by Mrs. Tom Bendokaitis; East Grand Rapids: Mrs. Peter Bulsok.

Mrs. John Tower, South Townships Community Chairman, announces 1968 Area Chairmen as follows: Ada Township: Mrs. Richard DeVos; Cascade Township: Mrs. Verlin Kaufman.

Paves 1.2 miles

The State Highway Commission reported October 27 that work has been completed on seven highway construction projects in eight counties.

In Kent County, work has been completed on M-21 between I-96 Freeway and White Hills Avenue, SE, east of Grand Rapids, 1.2 miles of paving.

Contractor on the $37,958 project was the Rieth Riley Construction Company of Battle Creek.

Bids were taken in July and the cost was financed entirely with state funds.

Goal is passed

One hundred and twenty-five young people from St. Michael's Episcopal Church and Cascade Christian Church made some two thousand calls last Saturday in behalf of UNICEF (United Nations' Children's Fund) in the Cascade and Eastmont areas, coming up with a total of $730.

The announced goal had been seven hundred dollars or 420,000 vitamin pills. Translated into pills, the achievement of the combined youth stands at 438,500. These pills will be sent to depressed areas throughout the world, as a Christian gesture on the part of Cascade youth.

Richard Palmer, Forest Hills high school senior and chairman of the 1967 "Trick or Treat" drive, wishes to thank the many persons that contributed; the youth that did the solicitations; and the adults that offered their homes for parties and drove young people in their automobiles.

This year's giving was the most generous ever—surpassing last year by well over two hundred dollars. In a day when we hear so much of juvenile delinquency, it is good to know that there are other youth who wish to do "for others" and to turn Halloween into a constructive holiday.

'The Dimensions'

"The Dimensions" will be the guest musicians at a teen dance to be held this Saturday night, November 4, in the Lowell Teen Center, Lafayette Street, Lowell.

Having an intricate style of their own, this talented and versatile group will play for the dance from 8 p. m. to midnight.

John Georgacakes is the lead vocalist with the group, and is also featured on the organ. His companions, forming The Dimensions are Brian Smith, lead guitar, Tom Chamberlain, bass, Paul Georgacakes, guitar, and Randy Roose on the drums.

All boys resided in Grand Rapids, with the exception of Chamberlain, who comes from Ada. An interesting fact evolving around the group is that each boy has an older brother playing with noted bands in this area.

Vesta Chapter, OES, to hold officer installation

Installation of officers for Vesta Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will be conducted in the Ada Masonic Temple on Saturday evening, November 4, starting at 8 p. m.

Installing officers for the ceremony will be Albina Grigas, PGE; Mary Miller, PGE; Margaret Martin, Pauline DeVos, and James Rooker. Mrs. Doris Cox, organist, will accompany Mr. Rooker.

Officers to be installed are Mrs. Richard Foerster, Worthy Matron, and Richard Foerster, sr., Worthy Patron.

Also to be installed are Evelyn Jansma, Roger Jansma, Mona Rooker, Irene Nellist, Alice Rooker, Martha Szudak, Barbara Coger, Eleanor Morris, Alice Morris.

Dorothy Bolhuis, Mildred Heter, Dorothy Weaver, Maude Fase, Ann Hayes and Walter Hayes.

If you think exploring caves should be a gamble try Mera-mec Caverns, 55 miles southwest of St. Louis, Missouri. Some 25 pinball machines were installed in the cave recently for those who might get bored looking at the rocks.

Area family needs help

Would you be willing to help a desperate family in the Ada area? The family consists of ten people with children ranging in age from nine months to 15 years.

The father is elderly and in poor health; but works steadily in construction work when the weather permits. There are many things this family needs.

If you are interested in helping, please contact one of the following members of the Ada Congregational Church, or mail contributions to the First Congregational Church of Ada, in care of the Social Concerns Committee.

Betty Houghton, 363-7455, Barbara Huebner, 676-5021, Mary Ellen Boonenberg, 949-1510, Jeanne Greer, 676-3596, or Lynn Soderberg, 245-9342.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Buth shows concern over M-21 situation

Dear Mr. Jefferies:

I have noted for some time your news articles concerning the severe traffic situation on M-21 from I-96 east to Ada. Citizens in the area have frequently mentioned the inadequacy of the road to handle the present day traffic load. This, plus news articles regarding accidents, and my own observations of the highway, have caused me to investigate when improvements will be made.

Contacts with the Department of State Highways led me to information that the above road wouldn't be improved for many years. However, because of the rapidly increasing suburbanization and traffic volumes in this area and the poor accident record on this portion of M-21 funds are being made available for improvements at an earlier date.

The proposed improvement, a widening to five lanes of pavement at an estimated cost of $2.8 million, is presently scheduled for letting in October 1971.

While 1971 might seem a long time in the future, it is much better than was promised a few weeks ago. Surveys and planning will take at least 2 years of the time ahead of bid letting.

Senator Robert VanderLaan also is interested in seeing that improvements are made on M-21 in eastern Kent County.

My concern at this time is that the legislature will make possible adequate funds for the Department of Highways to meet future commitments on highway construction.

I hope I can be a part to see that the above road and many others in western Michigan are improved as fast as possible.

Sevates collect $47 for UNICEF

The Sevates Youth Group of the Ada Congregational Church collected $47 for UNICEF (United Nations' Children's Fund) Monday evening, in the village of Ada.

The group, composed of 7th and 8th grade students, wish to thank all those who gave so generously.

Sacred concert set

The King Chorals, a male chorus, under the direction of Peter J. VandenBosch, will give a Sacred Concert Sunday, November 12, at the Eastmont Reformed Church at 9 p. m.

Everyone in the community are invited to attend this concert.

Board borrows $150,000 for operating funds

The Forest Hills Board of Education borrowed approximately $150,000 in operating funds.

Superintendent Robert Masten states that much of this money will be repaid when local taxes are collected and when all the state aid has been adjusted and paid.

At a recent school board meeting, approval was given for the replacement of a brick and marble identification monument in front of the high school. The monument is a gift of the Student Council from funds left to the school for this purpose by the class of 1964.

Dan Silver, president of the Student Council, presented three drawings to the board for their approval. The drawing favored by the students was approved by the board.

Fred Hoffman former Ada man passes

Fred C. Hoffman of Cedar Springs, formerly of Ada, died Monday, October 23, at the age of 72. Mr. Hoffman was born on October 25, 1895.

He is survived by his wife, June; five sons, Frederick of Ada, Charles, Timothy, Patrick and John Scott, all at home; four daughters, Mrs. John (Evelyn) Odom of Decatur, Georgia, Mrs. Annabelle Extron of Marysville, California, Alicia and Susan at home.

In addition, he is survived by four grandchildren; four sisters, Mrs. Pearl Huffman and Mrs. Bessie Wormnest of Rockford, Mrs. Mary Kramer of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Ruth Kukes of Lakeview; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at the Roth Funeral Home in Lowell, with the Rev. Faye Demerest officiating.

Mr. Hoffman was buried in the Ada Cemetery.

Parents, adults to be guests at open house

The youth groups of Cascade Christian Church, with the support of the Christian Education Committee, are sponsoring a series of three "open houses" at church the next three Sunday evenings, with an special invitation to parents and adults.

Meeting from 5 until 6:30, with a light refreshment period following, worship will be in charge of the different youth groups. Some sessions, the youth will share with the adults; whereas, some group meetings are planned for parents and/or youth alone.

The guest speaker at the first open house Sunday, November 5, will be Dr. William Kooistra, who is a clinical psychologist. He formerly was associated with Pine Rest Hospital. He will address the CYF and adults on the subject of "The Hazards of Affluence."

John Wardrop will speak to the Teen Fellowship, Chi Rho 7 and Chi Rho 8.

These joint sessions are being planned to bring the youth and parents closer together and also to give the adults of the congregation some idea as to the total youth program at the church.

St. Robert's to relocate parish church; land purchase gets approval

The Most Reverend Allen J. Babcock, D. D., our bishop, has approved the relocation of the Parish church of St. Robert's of Newminister, Ada, Michigan, & the purchase of property for this move.

Father Henry Niedzwiecki, pastor of St. Robert's states, "due to the insufficient acreage at the present site, and the approval of 85 percent of the parish in a poll taken on the question of relocation, we were prompted to make this decision."

Last spring, a parish poll was taken on whether to relocate St. Robert's Church; the poll showed that 85 percent approved the relocation. There were at that time 130 envelope users; 107 giving their opinion, with 95 families approving the move.

The present location is hampered by short acreage, less than five acres, and changes in the zoning in this area, since the church first originated, has changed.

The church committee and Father Henry have purchased property on Ada Drive. There is 275 feet of frontage on Ada Drive, opening to 15 acres of land, east and north of the Rooker hall and home.

A building committee has been appointed in the parish. Serving on the committee will be John Zanella, Dr. Ralph Schlosser, George Laidlaw, Francis Budnick and Thomas Vos.

At present, they are consulting with architects on the possibilities available to them. The church committee consists of Paul Roy, Joseph Popma, Ben Sremba, Martin Allen and James Peeney.

St. Robert's Parish was started 15 years ago by Father Voss, and since that time the parish has grown steadily with the changing of the Ada suburban area.

Highways have been enlarged, which make the present site less desirable than it was originally. It is the sincere hope of the people in the parish that this move will enable them to help correct many crowded conditions and to place their church in a more central location.

Angus sweeps top awards...

Music group sets meeting

Forest Hills Music Association will hold a combined meeting and candy distribution session Monday, November 6, at 7:30 p. m. in the Music Room.

All captains are urged to be present and pick up their candy for this annual sale.

The Association would like to thank the people in the community who have already sent in their donations. If all contributions were received, the Association would be in a position to purchase 5 1/2 uniforms for the band.

The Association had a potluck dinner last week, and several pieces of silverware were left at the school.

If you are missing any silver, please contact Mrs. Bob Gaskell, 949-0197.

A small Tupperware dish was also left behind!

Annual deer hunting contest

In their annual quest to find the largest set of deer horns, Gilmore's Sport Shop of Ada, is offering an array of prizes, in their seasonal Deer Hunting Contest.

To enter, area hunters must purchase their deer hunting license from Gilmore's. The 1967 season officially opens on Saturday, November 18, in the lower peninsula.

If the hunter is successful, he must take the deer's head, with horns intact to Gilmore's, where the scoring will be made. The hunter bringing in the best trophy catch will be awarded first prize.

The deer's racks will be scored as follows: one point for each inch of width measured from the inside area of the horns, and one point for each point on the buck.

Be sure to enter now!

Samantha finds new shop for chair caning

Dear Polly and David: Did you ever feel that the art of caning a chair was lost? I certainly did. I remember calling practically everyone that I knew to find someone to do a chair for me. I never did get a good lead. There was only one man I could find and he was so busy that he wouldn't take any more orders.

Well, now we can all rest easily. George and Pat McClellan on 28th Street (that's the part off Buttrick, not the south belt-line) have opened their own shop. They do cane weaving, web seats, rush and fibre and splint work.

Although the shop is new, they have been at this for many years for their own benefit. Pat first learned how to cane about twenty years ago and when she married, she taught George. Together they have had the thrill of picking up bargains at auctions and refinishing them. Because they could do the caning, they were able to buy items that others had to pass by.

Recently they discovered an heirloom of their own. George's grandfather was Rev. Clark of the former Ada Baptist Church. When they wanted to revitalize his pulpit chair, Pat removed the red velvet cushion and discovered caning holes in the seat. So now new material has been worked on the seat and it is completely refinished.

Something I never knew before was the difference between the cane weaving and web seats. The first is done when there are holes drilled in the wood around the outside of the seat area. The second method is used when there is a spline and there are no holes.

The splint work is done with hickory and is hard to do. It is usually on porch furniture or footstools, but doesn't appear in this part of the country as much as in the south. Fibre work looks just like rush, but lasts longer which surprised me. Pat says that very often people don't even know that they have fibre because it imitates the appearance of rush so well.

And there you are. I just thought I'd let you know that you can now go ahead and bid on a bargain even though the seat of the matter is missing.

Samantha

Worldwide Bible Reading
On a bookmark distributed by the American Bible Society there are these significant words: "Have you heard any good news lately? Man has an insatiable thirst for news—news—news, but especially good news. Startling headlines catch our eye. Commentators capture our attention. Letters excite our curiosity. The Bible is good news, news that concerns us. Take your Bible and read it. It's still front page copy. It's God's voice speaking to our new age. It's God's letter addressed to you! Reading it can mean a new life for you."
"Worldwide Bible Reading was started by the American Bible Society in 1943 when a marine on Guadalcanal, lonely for fellowship, asked his family to read the Bible with him daily." Since that time the American Bible Society has selected, published and distributed a list of Bible readings. This year the Worldwide Bible Readings extends from Bible week to Thanksgiving, October 15 to November 23.
The list of Bible passages for this week is: Nov. 2, Malachi 3; Nov. 3, Matthew 6; Nov. 4, Matthew 7; Nov. 5, Matthew 25; Nov. 6, Luke 2; Nov. 7, Luke 10; Nov. 8, Luke 15; Nov. 9, Mark 15.
Plan to read your Bible each day. You may secure a free copy of "Daily Bible Reading 1968" from the American Bible Society, 1865 Broadway, New York, N. Y. 10023.

Mail is important to servicemen at any time of the year, but at Christmas time, it is even more so. Therefore, you must begin planning now in order to have your Christmas packages and letters arrive at their destination by the holidays.

According to the Post Office Department, they will do everything possible to see to it that the servicemen in Viet Nam will receive their Christmas mail on time.

The final responsibility, of course, is up to you. Be sure to mail in plenty of time, thus insuring delivery.

The deadline for mail to all members of the Armed Forces abroad are:

Gifts weighing more than five pounds sent by surface postage rates, November 11; gifts five pounds or less, plus letters and greeting card sent by surface rates, these go by air on a space available basis, December 1; air mail gifts and greetings, December 11.

The deadline for all members of the Armed Forces in the States are:

Domestic surface mail and gifts to distant states, December

First snow storm hits

Last Friday's snowstorm set a new October record of 8.2 inches at the Kent County airport and sent area residents in search of all kinds of snow equipment. Snow tires, and the men to put them on, snow shovels and boots were hot selling items during the day as the flakes continued to fall. While this provided a most emphatic preview of the coming winter weather, some local optimists continue to talk bravely of Indian Summer and a mild winter.

New teachers enjoy varied summer jobs

Here are seven more new teachers who have made the scene in the Forest Hills School System this term.

Carol Burr

Carol Burr was graduated from Port Clinton High in Port Clinton, Ohio. She attended Bowling Green State U. at Bowling Green, Ohio, where she received a BS in Education majoring in Elementary Education. She is now teaching at Collins in the Mid Primary.

In college she belonged to two Ed. Associations. She has worked with Brownie troops and with children through the Red Cross as a swimming instructor. She also likes art, music, and sports and collects napkins, postal cards and shells. In addition she enjoys sewing and traveling.

Martha Deckman

Martha Deckman is also teaching at Collins in the fifth grade. She was graduated from North Central High School in Indianapolis, Ind., and from DePauw University in Greencastle, Ind. There she was graduated "with distinction" and received a BA in Elementary Education.

During three summers, she worked as a water safety instructor and guard for Woodland Country Club. During her college years, she belonged to the Womens' Recreation Assoc. and belonged to Kappa Alpha Theta. She reads, speaks, and writes French fluently.

Caroline Hoffman

Caroline Hoffman is another new teacher at Collins. She has the fourth grade students. She was graduated from St. Francis Xavier in Petosky. She attended North Central College in that city, Ferris State in Big Rapids, and received a BA in Elementary Ed. from Northern Michigan in Marquette. She spent several summers working as a telephone operator.

Phyllis Monique

A fourth new teacher at Collins is Mrs. Phyllis Monique who has the children of the sixth grade. She was graduated from Ottawa Hills in Grand Rapids and received her BA in Social Sciences with a minor in Speech Education from WMU. She did her student teaching at Alger School from where she came highly recommended by the teaching staff. During her college years, she was a Residence Hall staff assistant and a member and treasurer of Delta Zeta.

Elaine Sampanes

Teaching in Collins' first and second grades is Elaine Sampanes. She is a graduate of G. R. Central High and attended Junior College there. She received a BS in Education with minors in Science, Psychology, and Social Science from WMU. She took additional hours at MSU extension. She did her student teaching at Cedar St. Elementary in Paw Paw and some substitute teaching in the G. R. school system.

Miss Sampanes has also been a waterfront director, swimming instructor, and lifeguard at Camp Blodgett. She reads, writes, and speaks Greek fluently.

Mary Goodwillie

At Cascade the students in the fourth grade are enjoying their new teacher, Mrs. Mary Goodwillie. She was graduated from East Grand Rapids High and received a BS from Northwestern U. in Evanston, Ill., in Elementary Education.

She did her practice teaching at Lincolnwood Elementary, Rutledge Hall in Lincolnwood, Ill. In college she participated in theatricals, politics and sorority activities.

Mary Rivers

Mrs. Mary Ann Rivers was also graduated from East Grand Rapids and received a degree from Beloit College in Beloit, Wisconsin. Her minors were in English and Social Studies. She took additional hours at Aquinas, Fontbonne College in St. Louis, Mo., and at St. Louis University. She was a substitute teacher in Cedar Springs High and taught fourth grade in Cedar Springs Elementary.

In college she was on the yearbook staff and Assistant Editor for two years and on the tennis team for three years. Mrs. Rivers is the mother of two young children.

"It is natural to inquire as to sources of the good we enjoy or the evils we suffer."

—Samuel Johnson

Care to spend a moment with history?

We have with us today the memory of Louis XIV (1638-1715). In spite of his carousings and the abundance of his mistresses Louis, King of France, managed to live a long life, dying at age 77, after reigning 72 years. This is quite a figure considering the numerous hazards to life and the limitations of medical science at that time.

Although Fagon, the court physician, disapproved of many of the king's favorite foods many dieticians today would agree with Louis that salads, fruits and spirits are essential to good health. Louis was a great story-teller, a skilled horse man and, at times, a thoughtful and considerate man. This paragraph exhausts his good points.

Louis XIV was a pathetic, deformed caricature of the Absolute Ruler. His many intrigues and devious ways with court personages revealed an extremely corrupt personality. He was a child of his times who by accident of birth came to hold the scepter rather than a shovel, a slate or a sloop-bucket.

He was raised in a brothel atmosphere where drunkenness seems to have been the usual condition, where women got their lovers to murder their husbands, where everybody could be purchased for gold.

A post-mortem examination showed the king's intestines to be, in size and length, double those of other men; many of the king's contemporaries had reached this conclusion long before his passing. A study of Louis' double-dealing with the Duc d'Orleans just before his death reveals how truly debased were the ethics of that day.

The fact that Louis was a monarch almost from the diaper stage gives one reason to blame him less and his society more. His was a treacherous, infamous, detestable world compounded of fraud, cowardice and revenge. It had to end.

The French Revolution set fire to a sad chapter of world history: it burned away much more than the divine right of kings. Aristocratic liberalism rose from its dying embers. Its ashes gave nurture to the political philosophy that the state exists for the sake of the individual. Beaucoup!

Turtles to arrive on November 8

Yes, the turtles are coming to the Forest Hills area again!

The turtles are those delicious chocolate candies that the Forest Hills Music Association sells annually to raise money.

This year a much larger supply has been purchased, due to the demand shown by residents in the past.

The members of the Music Association will start knocking on your door on November 8. Please support this worthy cause. Donation for the candy is one dollar.

Paddy's Group discuss appetite, weight control

"Balance Appetite and Activity for Weight Control," was the general topic of discussion at the Paddy's College Extension Study Group's monthly meeting.

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Blaine Venneman, Mrs. Jack Buys and Mrs. Bernard Schaaf handed out agree or disagree questionnaires pertaining to the food habits we now have.

Various points given were the facts that—People now-a-days can go to the store and buy so many sweets and fattening foods; don't exercise like people used to, they can get in the car and go, and don't have to walk to the corner store; and many of the young people are consuming too many potato chips, candy bars or pop for their lunch.

The next meeting for the Extension Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Albert VanderToorn, 5349—92nd Street, on November 28.

Discussion for this meeting will be centered around "Bone up on Meat."

Jill Molenkamp speaks vows to Greg S. Bacon

Miss Jill Ann Molenkamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Molenkamp, 1182 Cutter-Parkway, SE, became the bride of Greg Stephen Bacon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Bacon, 6301 Hall Street, SE, Friday evening in Berean Bible Church.

The bride wore an ivory linen sheath gown with hem and sleeves bordered in baroque Venise lace. A crown of lace held her veil, and she carried a white orchid surrounded by white feathered chrysanthemums and yellow sweetheart roses.

A yellow crepe sheath with matching lace yoke and sleeves with veiled wedding ring head-piece was worn by the maid of honor, Miss Judy K. Fairchild.

Bridesmaids adorned in gold were the Misses Cheryl J. Molenkamp, cousin of the bride, and Joy A. Molenkamp, junior bridesmaid, sister of the bride, and Vallery A. Rumisek. They carried baskets of autumn flowers.

Janna Ann and Michael Paul Molenkamp were flower girl and ringbearer. James C. Bacon lit the candles.

Allan S. Bacon, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushering were Bruce Bacon, and Richard A. Velting.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Bacon will reside at 300 Washington Street, SE, Grand Rapids. Both graduated from Forest Hills high school in 1965.

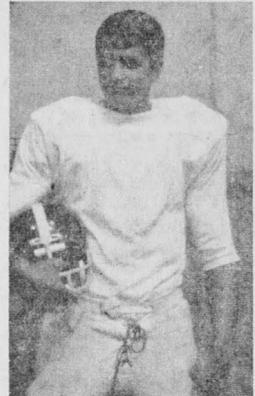

Ryan Ashley

Swing-backer Ryan Ashley played a fine game Friday night for the Forest Hills' Rangers against Hudsonville.

Ashley was on the receiving end of a number of passes for a sizable yardage gain.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ashley, 1191 Forest Hills, SE, and a senior this year.

Scott Wingeier

A tight game with Hudsonville, final score 19-18, was Scott Wingeier's debut as a Ranger quarterback. Scott, a junior, was in command of the situation all the way and played heads-up football throughout the game.

One drive for 80 yards was completed in one minute and 30 seconds and culminated in a Ranger touchdown.

Scott's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ken Wingeier of 7660—36th Street, SE.

Junior, Dan Mosher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Mosher of 7116 Four Mile Road, Ada, has been a consistently able player on the Ranger squad this year, and shows promise of even better things in his upcoming senior year.

Dan has been chosen as player of the week four times.
