786 Volunteers Participating in Scout Campaign

The Grand Valley Council Boy Scouts of America Camp Development Campaign, in full swing since February 1, has recruited 786 volunteers to carry the Boy Scout cause to the people in seven western Michigan counties.

Chairman L. V. Mulnix, Jr., estimates that over 1,200 volunteers will be recruited by May 1.

"These aren't people who are only involved for a day or one week. Many of our volunteers have been working since February and are in contact with our headquarters daily," he said.

Contributions to the camp campaign are being turned in at the Grand Rapids Headquarters, which is located at 60 Monroe N.W. Officials will not disclose total amounts until May 1, after which weekly reports will be announced.

The campaign will continue through June 8, 1968.

Long Tenure Ends

BY PATT BAMBRICK

After a long and distinguished career in teaching, Orval E. Jessup will present his last concert on behalf of the Lowell School System next Thursday, (May 9) at 8 p. m. in the high school gym.

Mr. Jessup will be retiring at the end of the school year after having taught for 37 years, 29 of which have been spent in the Lowell area.

A graduate of Rockford High School, Jessup received his Bachelor's degree from Western Michigan University, and earned his Masters at the University of Michigan in 1940.

Before coming to Lowell, his first five years in teaching were spent at Gladwin High School where he originated its band and orchestra. For the next three years he taught in Elkton where he built up their existing music department.

When he first came to Lowell, schools were quite a bit smaller, with a total of perhaps 500 students. About 250 of these were enrolled in the high school, and many were "tuition students" who came in from outlying districts.

Although mainly a teacher of music, Jessup at various times taught English, history, arithmetic and assorted other subjects. It would seem that specialization was not as feasible in days of yore.

Until two years ago, he taught all the music from the fifth grade through high school.

In the first few years of his tenure here, many extra-curricular activities claimed his spare time. His bands held summer concerts, and it was not unusual for them to play at banquets and for school plays.

He directed the Lowell Methodist Choir for 13 years, and was also active in the musical affairs of the Showboat; having directed and arranged for the chorus, band, and the endmen from 1941-58.

A former Master of the Lodge of Masons, he has held many other positions with the organization. Secretary for eight years, he is also a past Excellent High Priest of the Royal Arts Chapter.

Many of his bands have received 1st division in area and state competition, and he had the best Class B band one year. Perhaps his greatest thrill, though, was when, in 1941, his orchestra received a 1st division plus from all three judges.

"The hall we were playing in and the orchestra seemed to be made for each other. They aren't even supposed to give a plus rating, but all three judges gave us one."

Among the most satisfying aspects of teaching, Jessup lists former students who go on to a career of teaching music, and hearing from students who now appreciate all the knowledge that he tried to instill in them when they were in his classes.

Upon retirement, Jessup and his wife (who will retire from teaching at the end of the school year, too), plan to spend a lot of their time fishing and travelling. He also has an avocation, that of tuning pianos, so it looks like the future is full.

Anyone who can learn to water ski after the age of fifty, (both he and his wife did), is sure to have adventure and interest in the offing.

Supervisors Posts Hang in Balance:

County Apportionment Decision Near

Next Tuesday may well be "day of decision," for Lowell's future role in the affairs on the Kent County Board of Supervisors.

According to George Cook, county legal counsel, the Michigan Supreme Court may issue a decision on May 7 wherein county supervisors must be elected from newly apportioned districts.

Based on a "one man, one vote" decree affecting representatives to be elected to the county board, Lowell would be absorbed into an apportioned district comprising of townships, villages and cities, with a total population of about 40,000.

If the Supreme Court rules in favor of reapportionment, Lowell will lose its two current representatives on the board of supervisors, and in their stead one supervisor from a 40,000 populated district would be elected to serve the area.

Currently the Kent County board has 73 members, but under the new system that number would be greatly reduced, probably to some 20 or 25 members.

If the Supreme Court decides on the reduced number of supervisors, candidates for the post would be required to file nomination petitions before deadline date, which is June 18.

No elective official, such as city councilmen, township supervisors, or village officials, would be eligible to run for the office and still remain in office.

According to County Clerk Jack Bronkema, a member of the Kent County Apportionment Commission, a hearing will be held on the apportionment on May 9. However, citizens may file appeals within 30 days of this hearing.

Schedule for Trash Pick-Up

Clean-Up Week (May 6-10) is nearly here, and it's time to think about all those old and unused items you have been collecting.

This is an excellent time of the year to go through the house and weed out old furniture, clothing and other odds and ends that have accumulated during the year.

City Manager Bernard C. Olsen has announced that special trash pick-ups will be made on Monday (May 6) and Tuesday (May 7). Trucks

Flushing Friday weather permitting!

Lowell City Water Department will be flushing the water mains on Friday morning. Please plan your use of water for washing.

will run routes on the east side of the city Monday and the west side on Tuesday. Trash should be at the curb by 8 a. m. to assure removal.

Olsen has strongly urged that anyone burning trash take every precaution to make certain that fires stay under control.

Many of us keep putting off repair jobs on our homes and in our yards throughout the year. Clean-Up Week is an excellent time to make a concentrated effort to do some of this long delayed work.

Burroughs Reports Loss for Quarter

J. P. Burroughs & Sons, Inc., of Saginaw, of which C. H. Runciman Company of Lowell is a subsidiary, today reported a net loss for the first quarter of 1968 of $140,685.

Sales for the first quarter were reported at $5,217,822.

The net loss on outstanding shares of 1,424,142 was .099c per share, compared to .059c during the same quarter of 1967.

A company spokesman noted that first-quarter reports traditionally reflect a loss when sale of agricultural commodities is at a low ebb.

The Runciman Company services a wide area of West Michigan with facilities located in Lowell, Ionia, Freeport and Clarksville. Its basic products are beans, seeds and fertilizers.

A school custodian and his principal out Saranac way got into a verbal tiff over a pedagogical applique of the study of English. Angrily the custodian shouted: "It ain't like when I went to school, nowadays the kids ain't teach-ed right; you don't learn 'em nuthin'."

A willow tree, said to be about 200 years old, and located at the Collins home on S. Hudson, had to be destroyed this past week. This means that the old tree was around when the Indians set up their settlements along the Grand River, and that's a long time ago.

Be it said that John Te-Verde, of Grand Rapids, has a unique profession. He cleans weather-stained cemetery monuments, makes them just like new.

Over this past weekend, a road rally was held by the Mustang Club of Grand Rapids that ended in Lowell... after a number of check-point stops between Ada and Saranac.

The first five drivers were handed trophies donated by Ford Motor Company and rallymaster Art Conrad of Lowell was supposed to have received a cup. Conrad came up short-handed, however. It seems his son forgot to bring along the piece of special hardware!

A complete face-lifting, inside and out, of the A&W Drive-In by the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Kohlbeck of Ada will be finished in time for their spring opening on Friday, May 3rd.

The entire parking lot has been black topped and the kitchen has been streamlined for greater convenience in order to improve the already fine quality of food and service for which they have become known.

Congratulations are in order for the Lowell Police Department for raising $488.83 in the annual Old Newsboys paper sale last Thursday. These contributions, from residents and merchants, will help support the Youth Commonwealth camp activities for underprivileged boys.

Find Body of Missing Lowell Man

The body of William N. Wierenga, 64, missing since April 16, was found Friday by passing boatmen on the Grand River near the city limits.

A Kent County medical examiner and Sheriff's deputies were called and removed the body to shore. Cause of death was ruled accidental by drowning.

Finding of the drowned man followed an intensive search by deputy sheriffs, Lowell police and skin divers over the four-day period along the river.

ONE OF THE OLDEST trees in Lowell went under the power saw this week. The giant willow, located on South Hudson, was believed to be approximately 90 years old.

Antiques on Display Saturday

Final preparations for Saturday's "Antique Festival" in Lowell were underway today.

One of the highlights will be a display of old cars ranging in age to 55 years. Many of the vintage cars have been on display throughout the week at local dealer show-rooms.

The festival is scheduled for the 4-H Fairgrounds starting at 10 a. m. Saturday, following a parade down Main Street from Bowes Road to the former Eberhard Market. The high school band will then lead the parade to the fairgrounds.

Many unusual antique items will be on sale throughout the day.

In addition, a Model T, popcorn wagon will be in operation, according to Duke Thomet, chairman for the event for the Lowell Chamber of Commerce. The Grand Rapids Horseless Carriage Club is co-sponsor.

A free pony and other door prizes are to be given away. Donations of $1 will be accepted. Children under 12 will be admitted free.

Carnes Races to 2 Wins

Grand Rapids' speedster Bob Senneker, driving a 1965 Chevelle, ran out of time before Bob Carnes of Kalamazoo ran out of room in Saturday night's semi-late model stock race at the Berlin Raceway.

So Carnes, the winningest driver of the 1968 season, hung up his first victory on the Marne oval in the season's opener, before a near-capacity crowd.

Senneker sliced Carnes' big lead but was still several car lengths behind when the checkered flag dropped.

Carnes' 1957 Chevrolet had taken the lead on the 15th lap from George Cooper of Bay City in a '65 Chevelle, and immediately opened a sizeable working margin while Senneker was working his way through traffic. Once Senneker got clear, he steadily cut Carnes lead but simply ran out of time.

Randy Sweet of Grand Rapids in a 1965 Ford was third in the 25-lap feature run, with Tom Marks in a 1957 Chevrolet finishing fourth.

In pre-race ceremonies Rich Senneker of Grand Rapids, driving the "Hav-A-Bar" special, was awarded a trophy and $50 for sporting the nicest looking car to begin the 1968 season's competition.

Joy Fair of Detroit established a new one-lap qualifying record of 18.49 seconds for the Marne oval. The fastest of 44 qualifiers, Fair also paced the fast car dash.

CARNES CONTINUES WINNING STREAK

Kalamazoo's Bob Carnes registered his third main event victory of the young racing season at the Kalamazoo Speedway Sunday night, in the semi-late model stock car division.

Carnes crossed the finish line in the 25-lap feature on the 3/4-mile oval only inches ahead of Tom Marks in a 1957 Chevrolet, Rich Senneker in a 1964 Chevelle and Randy Sweet in a 1965 Ford.

Senneker, a former super modified driver catching a new ride this season, set a new one-lap qualifying record of 14.48 on the banked circuit.

28 Finish Road Rally; Raise $200

Twenty-eight of 34 cars entered in the Mustang Club of Grand Rapids road rally managed to reach the finish line Sunday.

The course, which terminated at Rosie Drive in Lowell, was subject to a number of last-minute changes, which caused a number of cars and drivers to become lost between Lowell and Ada.

Grand Rapids drivers, led by John Penn Davies with Linda Penn Davies as navigator, swept the first three positions. Area participants who finished included Julie Keller, Al Sorenson, Jim Sorenson and Sharon Sorenson.

A total of $200 was raised for the USO and presented to regional director Tom Junze by Jack Keller of Grand Rapids. Junze said that the monies would be sent directly to Viet Nam to benefit U. S. servicemen stationed there.

Art Conrad of Lowell served as rallymaster.

Pinch-Hit Single Key to Triumph

A pinch-hit single by Ryan Ashley, his fourth of the season, boosted Forest Hills High to a 2-1 baseball decision over Rogers in the O-K Conference last week.

Ashley's safety drove in Tom Teft in the fourth inning to break a 1-1 deadlock and hand Carl Justice the decision on a six-hit pitching effort.

Outfielder Rob McCormick sparked the Rangers' six-hot attack, getting two double and a single in a three-for-three effort at the plate while catcher Tom Dygert belted a pair of hits in three tries.

SCORES FIRST ACE AT SASKATOON GC

Larry Wingeier of Lowell, a student at Western Michigan University, collected the first hole-in-one of the season at Saskatoon Golf Course.

Playing with Russ Gelders and Gerald Boone, he connected with his tee shot on the 145-yard par three fourth hole.

Arrows Now 1-1 in Track

Lowell High's track team finished its first week of conference competition with one loss, a 106-12 whitewash at the hands of the Rockford Rams, and a 64-54 victory over Comstock Park.

Powerful Rockford placed first in every event against the Red Arrows, who were forced to settle for three seconds and a like number of thirds for their twelve points.

Last Friday at Belding, Lowell came from behind to register its first league triumph against the Panthers of Comstock Park.

Trailing 36-14 after the first six events, coach Bob Perry's thinclads came on strong to outscore their opponents, 50-18, in the last eight events to win going away.

Dan Heintzleman was Lowell's top scorer, finishing first in the 180-yard low hurdles and second in the 100-yard dash.

Bob Kimble of Comstock Park scored one-third of his teams' total, finishing first in the high jump, long jump, 12-yard high hurdles and second in the low hurdles for 18 points.

Lowell met Cedar Springs Tuesday. Next Tuesday the

Topple Thinclad Records

One of the season's best races is shaping up for Friday's track meet when Forest Hills High takes on Godwin Heights.

Hurdler Archie Warner of the Rangers is matched against Godwin's Tim Leatherman under the lights at Wyoming Park Field.

Warner already has registered a new school and conference record this season with a mark of 15.2 seconds in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Two other school records also have fallen this season, including a fine 10.40 effort in the two-mile run by Al Bacon and 11-foot pole vault efforts by Bob Vanden Bos and Russ Gruchow.

The latter were set last week in a 79-38 romp over Hudsonville in which the Rangers won nine individual events in track and field as well as the two relays.

Warner and Steve Russ sparked the victory, each collecting two first place spots and teaming on the winning sprint relay. Warner swept the hurdles while Russ took honors in two dashes and a second in the long jump.

Arrows will run against Sparta on the local oval. On May 10, Lowell will meet Belding, also at home.

Places 2nd in Michigan Jr. Olympics

Kim has been diving for three years in competition.

Strength

A recent advertisement shows a picture of a strong man with powerful muscles. The ad says that "YOU can build a powerful physique in a series of quick 7-second exercises that you do once a day in your own room—less than 2 minutes in all." This ad is appealing. It sounds good to hear that I can multiply my strength and develop my vigor in an easy way without strenuous exercises, or tedious work-outs.

Bodily strength is indeed a wonderful blessing. No doubt many of us should do much more for the development of our bodies than we are doing.

But there is a spiritual strength which is far greater and much better. It is a strength which must be developed by means of strenuous spiritual exercise. There is no easy way to secure this strength. There are no short-cuts to spiritual power.

For this kind of strength we must "be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might." This we do by putting on "the whole armour of God, that we may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil." (Ephesians 6:10,11). This is the strength that we really need!

As a hand craft project, the girls made plastic place mats for the Dad-Daughter Dinner, decorating them with Indian symbols cut from colored tape. At present the group is practicing a skit to be entered in the try-outs for the Junior High Variety Show. Participation in this makes the members eligible to receive the Annual Project Award. Four 9th grade girls attended the Junior Hi meeting last week to discuss ways in which the rank of Torch Bearer may be earned individually next year.

At future meetings the group will be giving service by helping younger Camp Fire Girls learn the songs to be used at the Council Fire. Two school candy sales and participation in the annual Keewano Council sale have raised enough money for the members to plan ahead for a restaurant party and a visit to the planetarium at the Grand Rapids Museum.

MRS. WABEKE

On Southern Honeymoon

Linda Mae Clark became the bride of Samuel Wabeke in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church of Alto on April 13. The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark of Route 1, Lake Odesa, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wabeke of Wyoming.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father wearing a cathedral style wedding gown with tiered lace and a floor length mantilla veil.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Nancy Clark, as the maid of honor. Her bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie Tyler of Freeport and Miss Ruth Dykstra of Wyoming.

Jim Wabeke attended his brother as best man. Other groomsmen were Dale Volkers, Doug Baker and Steve Clark.

The bride and groom are presently in Charleston, South Carolina, where he is stationed with the Navy.

The new Mrs. Wabeke is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fay L. Clark of Lowell.

RON MOORE RECEIVES MASTERS

Mr. Moore is a counselor at the Lowell Jr. High School and plans to move to Lowell in the near future.

Forest Hills Hi-Lites

Milt and Ethelyn Heaven, Dennison Dr. spent an exciting weekend at Pioneer Park in Muskegon during the Spring Camp Out of the Wandering Wig Wags. This colorful name is applied to the Grand Rapids Chapter of the National Campers and Hikers Association of which the Heavens are members along with nineteen other families including the Dan Woods and Chuck Shermans also of Ada.

The organization is only about a year old. Every family in it owns a camper with the exception of one hardy family who prefers to camp in a tent.

The business of the weekend was devoted to making teams for the State Camp Out in Armada, Michigan. There will be horseshoe pitching for the men and the women will have a wild time tossing rolling pins a la Maggie and Jiggs.

There was a cozy potluck on Saturday night in front of the Lodge fire.

Meanwhile over on Greenbriar Drive great shouts of joy and victory were bouncing off the walls of her home in honor of Pat Gustavson as the news spread that she had taken first place in her division of the Youth Talent Exhibit at the Grand Rapids Public Museum. Pat created a collage of torn tissue papers in various colors which depicted a scene of mushrooms in a swamp. The vegetation is seen through the luminous colors giving the viewer an emotional reaction as well as pragmatic appreciation of the art.

Mrs. Mona Rooker, Ada Dr., has just returned from New Carlisle, Indiana, where she and Mrs. Levina Warn, James St., visited an old friend, Mrs. Margaret Watt. These three ladies became acquainted many years ago when they all worked together at the telephone company offices in Grand Rapids.

Sandra Bier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bier, Grand River Dr., will be married to Daniel Olmsted, son of the Eugene Olmsted, Bailey Dr., on May 4 at Ft. Benning where he had just graduated from NCO school.

Attending Sandy will be a classmate from Grand Valley State College, Miss Gail Fox, and helping Dan as best man will be his brother, Tom. The elder Biers will fly to the ceremony while the Olmsted's plan to drive.

At a kitchen-furnishings shower given for Sandy by Mrs. George McClellan, 28th St., each guest decorated a dish towel with embroidery paints to give her a total wardrobe of fourteen unique towels. While the guests which included her mother, Miss Fox, and friends from the college enjoyed orange cake, punch and coffee under a clear plastic umbrella filled with live flowers, Sandy described her wedding gown which will be white dotted Swiss with white embroidered flowers, with a short skirt and long sleeves. Her veil will adorn a crown of the same material.

The couple plans to live in Columbus until Dan is transferred.

Miss Karen Fryover, granddaughter of Mrs. Maude Fase was accepted into the Vesta Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star in Ada last week. The Chapter will be holding a Friendship Night on May 3 at which time guest officers from the other twelve chapters of Kent County will be present. This meeting will be open to the public and will feature entertainment. Decorations for the evening have been planned by the Worthy Matron, Joanne Forrester, to follow the theme of the purple orchid, which is her flower for the year, and the Open Bible will be represented.

Eleven members of the Chapter visited the Grand Rapids Chapter last week. They were Mr. and Mrs. Forrester, Alice Rooker, Mona Rooker, Barbara Coger, Evelyn Jansema, Barbara Chessman, Penny Densmore, Dorothy Weaver, Martha Szudzik, and Mrs. Fase.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Charles Althen of Richland and Mr. and Mrs. Aime Girard of Springdale are the parents of the couple.

Miss Jane Althen was her sister's maid of honor and Miss Amy Althen her sister's junior bridesmaid. Mary Beth Sedoff and Miss Kathy Sedoff, cousins of the bride, were her other attendants. All wore identical gowns of mint green peau-de-soie.
