Drivers Enjoy Holiday, Too!

A modern record of sorts may have been set over the Thanksgiving weekend, according to area police agencies.

Only 18 accidents were recorded in Kent County during the four-day holiday and not one of them resulted in serious injury, according to Deputy Don Harrington of the Kent Sheriff's Department.

This was two more mishaps than in the same period a year ago, but the 1968 toll produced one fatality and several severe injuries.

"Traffic was lighter than usual," said Harrington, "and conditions, for the most part, were ideal."

In addition, Harrington said, it appeared drivers were more courteous than usual. "It certainly would be nice," he added, "if every traffic report contained as little tragedy as this one!"

Initial Steps Taken to Save Vital Waterway

Plans for the take-over of the Cascade Dam from Consumers Power Company are proceeding smoothly, according to Supervisor Al Heemstra of Cascade Township.

Petitions signed by residents of the backwaters have been given to the Kent County Drain Commissioner Frank Bouma and are being processed. Bouma will be directed to propose a special assessment district to the Kent County Board of Supervisors sometime in December.

Engineers who studied the dam when the waters were down for the purpose of determining its condition have made a favorable preliminary report, Heemstra says.

Consumers Power Company expected to dismantle the dam before December 31, has agreed to keep it in operating condition for a portion of the new year or until the township is able to take title.

This is expected to be sometime in March if the project continues without problems, Heemstra says.

Call Meeting of River Group

The board of the Thornapple Association, Incorporated has called a special meeting for its membership next Tuesday (December 9) at 8:00 p.m. in the Old Township Hall in Cascade.

Discussion will be held regarding several items of interest to residents between the Ada and Cascade dams.

One subject will be the assessment and taxation problem connected with the association's ownership of the Ada dam. Recommendations of the board will be presented.

A financial report of the first year of operation will be given. A report on the work and findings of the river lowering project will also be discussed.

City Gets Mandate on Sewage

City councilmen in Lowell were handed a "hot potato" at their regular meeting Monday night in the form of a decree from Michigan Water Resources Commission that the city must get rid of phosphorus ingredients presently existing in the municipal sewage system.

The MWRC Board gave the city until December 1, 1972, to comply with removal of at least 80 percent of the phosphorus (sometimes called phosphates) from the city's discharged wastes.

Reason for the Water Resources dictum is that the presence of phosphorus is the cause of plant growth, especially algae, which is said to contribute to pollution of rivers and lakes.

To eliminate phosphorus, the city must build additional treatment facilities and use a chemical alum which is reported to be very expensive. The new project potentially involves many thousands of dollars.

The council voted to meet the issue head-on. It is sending Mayor Arnold Wittenbach, City Manager Bacon and an engineer to East Lansing to meet with the MWRC officials for preliminary discussions on the issue.

Next on the council agenda was a discussion on improvement of land purchased in 1968 for cemetery purposes.

After hearing a report from City Manager Bacon that facilities were available for a land survey, topographical map and aerial photographs, the council voted to appropriate $1,500 to cover the cost of the survey.

Council also appointed a committee of five to update a city ordinance regulating the operation of the new cemetery.

Appointed were Councilman Herb Reynolds, Councilwoman Virginia Myers, Councilman Harold Jefferies, City Manager Bacon, and Judd Witterink.

In other action, the council heard a report by the city manager of a survey conducted by highway engineers of speeding conditions on N. Hudson.

The engineers, Bacon said, had found that in a 90-minute period 148 vehicles passed a spot near Spring St., and that most of the vehicles exceeded the 25 mph speed limit.

Of these offenders five were school buses. Commercial vehicles averaged more than 30 mph, the report revealed. The engineers said they would recommend that the limit be upped to 30 mph.

Council would up the meeting by voting a $35 Christmas bonus to city employees.

LOWELL BEER STORE—Open every day and evening until 10 p.m. Sunday until 9 p.m.

P.O. Extends Hours for Yule Rush

Expanded service to postal patrons during the annual Christmas mailing rush was announced today by area postmasters.

The Lowell post office will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily and will be open on Saturdays from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on December 6, 13 and 20, according to Postmaster Charles R. Doyle.

In addition, special collections will be made daily at 3 p.m. from December 15 through the 23rd at collection boxes on Main Street and at business concerns to help speed non-Christmas mail, Doyle said.

Milt Hein, postmaster at Ada, announced plans for Saturday hours. The Ada post office will be open from 8:15 to 11:45 a.m. on December 6 and December 13 from 8:15 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. on December 20. The Ada office also will maintain regular hours of 8:15 a.m.-4:45 p.m. daily.

Mobile Home Plan Nears Approval

A proposal to construct a mobile home complex on 28th Street in Cascade Township cleared another hurdle during the regular monthly meeting of the township board Monday night.

Board members, acting on the recommendation of the township planning commission, agreed to permit usage of B-1 zoning for this purpose providing that the developer meets certain stipulations.

These include construction of a permanent building as an office building for the complex and furnishing of a plot plan and building design for approval at a later date.

Jack Smith, who also is developing residential plots in the area, was present as was Peter Price, chairman for the planning commission.

The township planners also forwarded a recommendation that the board rezone R-1 and R-2 properties in the township, but action on this matter was deferred to the January 5 meeting.

The appointment of Hester (Mrs. Paul) Slater as deputy treasurer was approved. This is to be a non-salaried position.

Clerk Minor Cook reported on the sanitary bond sale by stating that the bonds had been delivered on November 19. A sum of $162,000 plus $3,700 accrued interest from June 1 until November 19 was collected. The township paid to Grand Rapids a total of $159,499.52 for construction leaving a balance of $2,500.48.

The clerk also reported payment of $1,344 to the Kent County Library fund for the township's share services. This includes the Bookmobile service in Cascade every Monday evening.

The board also approved forwarding payment of $375 to the Kent County Road Commission in keeping with a previously agreed-upon program for rebuilding the 52nd Street bridge. Payments are to be made over a 10-year period on a shared-cost basis.

Board to Hear Legislative Report

The latest information available on progress of school legislation will be presented to the Lowell Area School board of education at its monthly meeting next Monday night.

Superintendent Carl Hagen will report on results of a county-wide meeting with area legislators earlier this week during which Kent County school officials learned that the much-discussed school aid bill may not be passed in the State Legislature until late spring.

The board will also hear a report from the music department. The meeting starts at 7:30 p.m. and is open to the public.

OK 4.7-Mile Reconstruction of M-21

The second phase of a program designed to improve M-21 between Lowell and Grand Rapids has been approved by the Michigan State Highway Commission.

Construction is expected to begin in the fall of 1973 on widening and reconstruction of 4.7 miles between I-96 and the existing four-lane dual highway in Ada.

The commission announced this week that it has approved an engineering report, including design changes at the Forest Hills Avenue intersection that were made as the result of a public hearing held last July.

Cost of the project, exclusive of right-of-way and engineering, is expected to be about $3-million.

A total of 2.2 miles will be widened to five lanes with curb and gutter to be installed in residential, commercial and industrial zones. The remaining 2.5 miles will be reconstructed as a four-lane divided highway with an 80-foot median separating the lanes.

A five-lane bridge is to be constructed over the Grand Trunk Railroad to replace the 42-year-old two-lane span now servicing traffic on M-21.

Highway officials say that local traffic is to be maintained during the construction period.

Eye Move to Bolster City Police

The lack of manpower in the Lowell Police Department came up for discussion at Monday's session of the city council.

Especially vocal on the need for bringing the police personnel up to strength was Councilwoman Virginia Myers.

She said: "We need five officers in the police department and we need them right now, and this is the time to seek applications from qualified men."

City Manager Blaine E. Bacon was asked what was being done about putting on another officer at this time.

Bacon replied: "I am working under the 1969-70 budget which, as you know, was adopted last July 1 before I entered the city manager's office."

"There's nothing I can do about adding another officer to the force until our next budget is adopted next July."

The city charter empowers the council to "make additional appropriations during the fiscal year for unanticipated expenditures required by the city," but charter provisions for additional appropriations stress that the added funds must be used to "relieve an emergency endangering the peace and safety" of the city.

The four officers presently serving on the local force must work during prescribed hours, but on weekends, when these working hours have been used up, the city must depend on the volunteer police reserves to take up the slack.

The police reserves generally serve without pay. The only exception is when they are specifically assigned to duty on a complete shift.

Urge Sale of Hydro Plant, Dam

The Lowell Light and Power Commission has notified the city council that its hydro station and dam located on the Fiat River, north of Lowell, should be put up for sale.

In addition, the poles and wires leading from the hydro plant to the city, should be disposed of, the Lighting Commissioners said.

First constructed in 1895-96, and modernized over the years, the hydro plant supplied electricity for Lowell lighting needs for more than a half-century.

Several years ago, the plant ceased operations when the city's lighting facilities were converted to a much cheaper diesel power.

According to reports, Keene Township officials in Ionia County, where the hydro plant is located, were approached about the possibilities of having the township buy the plant and dam, but the Keene officials said they were not interested.

Another governmental agency, the Michigan Natural Resources Commission, also indicated that it was not interested in taking over the facility.

Before the sale can be consummated, however, the city council must be armed with the correct legal procedures required and accordingly the city solons referred the matter to the city attorney for a report.

NEW SYSTEM FAVORED

Coming into favor is a new system by which fire engines, police cars and ambulances can use radio transmitters to switch traffic lights in their favor as the approach intersections.

Issue Ticket to Driver in Collision

A three-car accident on W. Main St. in Lowell resulted in the arrest of a Rockford man by police on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor.

Police said that Ivan Craft, 31, drove his car into the rear of a car owned by Thomas A. Kenyon of Grand River Drive, Lowell. The impact caused the Kenyon car to plow into a station wagon belonging to Harry W. Carigan of Aiden Nash.

Craft, who suffered minor cuts in the collision, was taken to Butterworth Hospital for treatment, and later taken to Kent County jail.

Released on bail, he was scheduled to appear before 63rd District Court Judge Joseph White to answer to the charge of drunk driving.

In other local police action, officers observed Wells Warren Walker, 21, of Grand Rapids, speeding. However, when apprehended, Walker had two minors as passengers and both reportedly were drinking.

Walker was ticketed for contributing to the delinquency of minors and taken to jail. He was released on bond to appear before Judge White.

Vandals in Ada

Vandals broke into an unfinished home at 6242 Scotchhill Drive in Adacraft Commons over the weekend and caused extensive damage.

Kent County Sheriff's Deputy Ade Deurloo said that the vandals spread mastic paste, which is similar to tar, on walls and fixtures throughout the house and then scratched and tore wallpaper from the walls of a hall and stair well.

Will Not Seek Re-election, Mayor Announces

Arnold Wittenbach, who has served for the past eight years as a member of the Lowell city council, announced today that he will not seek re-election in 1970.

Mayor of the city since 1964, Wittenbach said he was making his plans known "well ahead of time so that others who may be interested in running for the council would have time to develop their own plans."

The veteran chief executive said that he was retiring from public office "because I no longer have the time to devote to the job demands."

Wittenbach had announced he might not run last spring, but when no other candidates appeared to challenge for a seat on the five-member council, he filed nominating petitions hours before the deadline.

"There should be far more interest in civic matters on the part of other people in the city," he declared. "Maybe this will help to stir up interest. I would like to see enough candidates for the council to bring about a primary election."

Two council members, Mrs. Virginia Myers and Carlen Anderson, whose terms are up in 1970, have announced that they will seek re-election.

Whether a city primary election will be held in 1970 depends on the number of nominating petitions filed at the City Clerk's office before 5 p.m. on January 19.

If six or less petitions are filed at that time, there will be no primary. The names of the candidates appearing on the nomination papers will then automatically be placed on the regular April election ballot.

If however, more than six persons file nominating petitions, a primary election will be held on February 16, and the candidates receiving the highest number of votes will be declared nominees for the April election.

For the first time in election history, Lowell voters will do their balloting with new voting machines, two to each precinct.

Voting by machine is relatively simple. However, voters requiring assistance in the use of the voting machines may call upon election clerks for guidance.

To vote, the elector takes hold of a red-handle lever at the right of the machine and pushes it downward. This closes the curtain and sets the machine in readiness for voting.

Next, the voter is faced with a list of candidates and over each of these names is a small lever. As the voter finds the name of the candidate of his or her choice, the voter places the small lever OVER the name the favored candidate, and leaves the small lever right there.

After voting is completed, the voter again grabs the red-handle lever and shoves it back into its original position. This causes the curtain to open and the voter then steps out of the booth.

Each vote is automatically totaled on a counter at the rear of the voting machine, which means that the election results, including absentee balloting, are announced a few minutes after the closing of the polls.

Absentee balloting is done with the use of paper ballots, which are supplied by the City Clerk.

Voters interested in learning how to use the voting machine prior to the election can obtain instructions by going to city hall during office hours.

COMPLETES TRAINING, OPEN SERVICE STATION

Robert Lambert, who lives with his family at 3961 Causeway Drive, Lowell, has received a diploma from the oil industry's most comprehensive course in service station operation. This three-week course is conducted at a specially-equipped training center operated by Standard Oil in Detroit.
Lambert recently began operating the station located on the corner of Clyde Park and 36th Street in Wyoming.

Name Area Chairmen for March

District chairmen and district captains of the Lowell, Ada, and Cascade area volunteers for the 1970 March of Dimes campaign have been chosen by the Kent County...

Each year in the past, the FHMA has conducted a sale of candy turtles and seldom have any been left.
Not so this year. The sale started out slowly, then settled down (if you'll pardon the expression) to a snail's pace.
Bob and his wife, Millie, who reside at 4900 Ada Drive, believe there are many people in the area who might wish to buy a box. In fact, Bob would even encourage purchase of a case for donation to a favorite charity or Boy Scout, Cub Scout or Girl Scout troop.
Proceeds from the sale will help the music association.
And you'll be doing the Gaskells a favor, too. They'd like to get their home back into some semblance of order again!

'Turtles' Really Move Slow!

Turtles are notoriously slow movers, but what has happened to the Forest Hills Music Association "turtles" makes the real McCoy look fast by comparison.
At least that's the opinion of the Robert Gaskells each time they survey those 20 cases of candy turtles... each one containing 24 boxes... sitting in their living room.

Bank Again Will Sponsor Viet Calls

Hundreds of servicemen in the Vietnam theater of operations will be receiving a very special Christmas gift again this year. James W. Carpenter, president of Union Bank, said the bank is picking up the tab for the fourth straight year for servicemen from this area to make a free phone call home during the Christmas holidays.
Since "Operation Holiday" began, some 2,500 area men serving in Vietnam have been given an opportunity to call their wives or families. Starting Monday, December 1, any wife, parent, brother or sister of a serviceman in Vietnam may make applications for this year's call at any Union Bank office.
Calls are limited to three minutes and to residents of Kent County or Georgetown Township of Ottawa County. After the application is completed, the bank forwards them to Kent County Chapter of the American Red Cross for processing.
A letter then goes out to the serviceman and to the person who made application, telling them a free phone call has been approved. Recognizing the difficulties of making a telephone call while fighting a war, the bank tells servicemen to make the call "from a staging area, while you are back on 'R and R,' any time, anywhere that you can commandeer a phone."
In past years, many servicemen have used a ham radio to link up with telephone connections to the States. The bank pays the bill without question. Calls are now permitted year around although it's hoped the serviceman can call home at Christmas. Carpenter, in a letter prepared to go to each serviceman, said:
"Our bank is happy to play a small part in bringing you together with your folks at home at a time when families want to be together."
Applications will be taken until Christmas Day.

Bell Announces Plans for Major Expansion

Michigan Bell Telephone Company announced today that it will spend $10,760,000 next year to expand and improve telephone service in the Grand Rapids area.
Kenneth J. Whalen, Michigan Bell president, said in Detroit that the expenditure is part of the company's record $260,245,000 and marks the first time that the company-wide outlay will exceed the quarter-billion-dollar figure.
"The size of next year's construction program reflects not only the company's confidence in the future of Michigan, but also our determination to provide the amount and quality of communications services necessary to serve the public," Whalen said.
"We have been able to maintain good service and keep pace with the sharply rising demands on our facilities," he said. "But recently we have had to raise our sights to make sure our construction plans are in line with changing customer needs."
Robert I. Thole, Michigan Bell manager for this area, said next year's total expenditure for Grand Rapids will be allocated as follows: Outside plant facilities, $2,535,000; telephone equipment in homes and offices, $2,895,000; central office equipment, $4,570,000, and buildings $760,000.

YOUNG DRIVERS CHEATED?

Dr. Robert O. Nolan, assistant director of the Michigan State University Highway Traffic Safety Center and a leading authority on driver education, told a recent conference that Michigan 'teen-agers are being cheated—and their lives endangered—by the growing trend toward short summer session driver education courses.
Nolan said Michigan public schools are being paid by the state at the same rate for three-week summer courses as they are for the semester courses which once were in the majority. But, he said, youngsters can't obtain the proper training in such a short period.
He said about 70 percent of youngsters are now being taught in the summer periods.

Michigan Motorists Log Record Mileage

Motorists drove an estimated 13.4 billion miles on Michigan highways in June, July and August, an increase of 6.5 percent over the same period of last year, the Department of State Highways reports.
Travel was up 4.7 percent in June, 5.9 percent in July and 8.4 percent in August.
The August increase marked the 22nd consecutive month that traffic volumes have exceeded those for the same month of the previous year.
Through August, statewide travel this year was up 7.3 percent over the same period of 1968. This included increases of 10.9 percent in the eastern upper peninsula, 9.3 percent in southeastern lower Michigan, 8.1 percent in the south central and Thumb area, 4.5 percent in the northern lower peninsula, 4.3 percent in southwestern lower Michigan, and 2.8 percent in the western upper peninsula.
Department travel estimates are based on gasoline tax collections and on traffic counts at 53 permanent locations on state highways and county roads.

Women's Club Program Notes Changes on Main Street

Members of the Lowell Women's Club reminisced with Mrs. John Bannan at their last meeting as she spoke in detail on the many changes on Main Street over the years.
Older residents will remember when Wisner's Woolen Mill occupied the area now in use as the city parking lot. The drive-in bank is now located at 414 East Main Street where the residence of Dr. McDonnell once stood.
Mrs. Bannan, who refers to herself as an "old timer" around Lowell, says she does some research but also relies on her memory of the good old days.
Other changes along Main Street over the years include the disappearance of the back part of the old Trains Hotel on West Main Street, at Broadway, the front part has been incorporated into the Sprayer Company Building; the land now occupied by the Super Save Grocery was previously occupied by the three-story brick Davis house; the old First Baptist Church on East Main Street has become an antique store and the Farmer's Home, a white wooden hotel on Riverside Drive back of the Lee Block of the 5 cent to $1 store has been modified.

Few Snowmobiles Exempt from Registration Law

The snowmobile season is now underway in Michigan... and this means that Department of State officials will brace themselves for the added hours of registering these machines, according to Secretary of State James M. Hare.
All snowmobiles are subject to a 1968 law which requires registration with the secretary of state and attaching (or pointing) identification number to each forward side of the snowmobile.
"There are two exceptions to this law," Hare explained.
"No registration is needed if those machines used on the owner's property, or on land under his control. And no registration is necessary for a snowmobile operated exclusively in a special snowmobile event of limited duration. This event must be conducted according to a pre-arranged schedule under a permit granted from local authorities."
Registration fees from now until December 31 will be $5.00. This fee will be scaled down to $2.00 on January 1 for the second year of the three-year registration cycle.
The popularity of snowmobiling in Michigan is growing as evidenced by these facts:
Michigan leads the nation in snowmobile ownership with approximately 75 to 100 thousand snowmobiles. The Department of State has already registered over 70 thousand of these machines;
There are over 4,000 organized Michigan snowmobile owners and clubs;
Last year this state experienced 100 organized snowmobile safaris and 100 competitive races.
Calling for greater attention to snowmobile safety, Hare outlined the following suggestions:
1. Know your machine. Carry tools, necessary spare parts, extra fuel.
2. Stay on marked trails when on public lands.
3. If you can carry litter in... you can carry it back.
4. Know ice conditions. Check thickness, know thin spots and old fishing holes.
5. The new owner should not go on his own. Study with experienced drivers.
6. When in strange country, check conditions.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
I was very happy to hear that a column by John Ham on getting to know birds is being considered by your newspaper. There should be a great deal of interest in it for the many transplanted city dwellers who are eager in any knowledge they can get about the countryside they have moved into.
John Ham, being a bird bander and a teacher as well, is especially qualified to write such a column.
Yours very truly,
Barbara D. Durno

Lowell High Impressive as Lowell Wins Opener

Serving Lowell, the team in the center spot from range Ted Published every Friday. School's outlook for the Tri-Michigan 49331. The school considers it to continue to show as second class mat. Coach Jack Kemper after with Publisher and Editor of 17 rebounds and clipped in after Business Manager. 56 victory over Ionia last week. Photographers. The conference action next Tuesday. Special Correspondent. The first of three straight. Advertisers.

"Members are well pleased" with the overall performance of the non-league triumph over what appeared to be a strong team from Ionia. The margin of victory was not as great as it might have been. During the first half, Lowell went almost four minutes without a shot. However, two field goals in the closing seconds enabled Red and White to leave the floor at halftime with a 23-14 lead.

Forward Blair Cogan, who shared rebounding honors with Herb Hill, also contributed to the scoring range in the third period. Cogan's three-point shot was the key to Lowell's defense being obvious at the outset as the Bulldogs concentrated on opposing high-scoring DeWitt of the Arrows. As a result, the 0-1 sharpshooter managed to find the range on just six of 20 field goal attempts to go with one free throw for 11 points. He also grabbed 11 rebounds.

Lowell's shooting was not as effective as it might have been as the Arrows sank 27 of 71 field goal attempts for 48 percent. Kemper noted that his team maintained good ball control throughout the game. He had fewer turnovers than might have been expected in a "steering game," he said. Ionia managed to come up with only one double-figure score as Tom Fuller, the lone holder from last year's team, slipped 16 points through the hoop.

Rangers Will Field 'Green' Team Under New Basketball Coach
Of the thirty-three basketball players at Forest Hills High who stepped out for the coming season, only three are lettermen from last year.

However, Coach Larry Wilson, new to the Rangers this year, says:
"We are in the process of rebuilding the team. I feel that by mid-season we will have shown good improvement."

The first games of the season will be played this Friday, December 5, at home against Hudsonville. The freshman game will get underway at 4:00 p.m., followed by the JV game at 6:00 p.m. The varsity game starts at approximately 8:00 p.m. "We have been concentrating on fundamentals," said Coach Wilson. "We could be stronger in the passing and dribbling, and our shooting needs consistency, but we show up well on the defensive end of the floor."

Rob Mc... guard is returning from last year's but was... injury due to a football knee injury. Battling for the center guard position are junior Ken Stromeyer, sophomore Scott V... and senior Marty Everic.

At center, will be Dirk Van Westriemen, a junior, or Dennis De Vries, a senior. Competing at forward are Ron Vander Baan, Bob Warner, Curt Linscott and Curt Ray. Bill Veasey will be at guard.

"Most of this team is young and inexperienced," said Wilson. "But with desire, which I know they have, and hard work which they have been showing, they will see a lot of action."

"This is a tough league, especially West Ottawa and Wyoming Rangers, but we will be ready for every ball game," Wilson added.

JV basketball, under new Coach Jim Ogilvie, is hoping to develop a winning squad from two holdovers from last year's squad, plus several promising boys up from the freshman squad. One freshman, Randy Lanning, has been promoted to JV.

Schedule Change, New Floor for Ranger Quintet
A conflict in state regulations on the part of Rockford has forced a change in the 1969-70 Forest Hills High basketball schedule. It was announced this week by Athletic Director Ed Slay.

Rockford had scheduled two other games during the same week, the maximum permissible in one week under high school rules.

The games will now be played at Forest Hills on Friday, January 2.

Ranger teams will be playing home games on the newly-rebuilt high school gym floor, which was installed over the summer and fall months to replace the warped surface of recent years.

Host Quad Mat Tournament

Can you imagine eighty-eight thousand boys playing "cat and mouse?" This is what is going on in more than 2,000 high schools in the nation, according to Coach Chuck Mathews of Forest Hills High School.

That many young men are involved in the sport of wrestling today compared to less than three hundred schools with programs ten years ago.

The reason the sport has caught on so well, says Mathews, is that there is a place for every size, shape, and weight boy.

"Challenge Night" at Forest Hills will be held this Thursday (December 5) at 7:30 p.m. Winners of this competition will meet wrestlers from three other schools... East Grand Rapids, Muskegon Catholic and Fruitport... on Saturday in a quarterfinal meet at 1:00 p.m. at Forest Hills.

Each of the schools coming to this competition had an excellent record last year. East Grand Rapids was the runner-up regional champs in Class A while Muskegon Catholic took fourth in the state. Fruitport had only one loss and ended third in the state.

"This is going to be good company and we'll be in the midst of it," said Mathews. "If you want to see the boys preparing, you should watch the Challenge Night."

Coach Mathews took the idea from a college source and is promoting the evening as a "no-admission" event. Every boy in a green and white varsity suit will have gained at least one wrestling in all green uniforms will be challenging for positions on the starting team this year.

The Rangers are defending O-K conference and regional champions, and possessors of a 17-0 dual record last year. Several regulars from last year were among the 80 who turned out for wrestling. They include Jim Leyndyke, Chip King, Mark Kelly, Tee Weitek, George McCarger, Craig Van Slysters, Bob Roy, Bob Taylor, Tom Dewey, Jim Dygert, Bill DeShane, John Price, and Jim Vander Boon.

Greatly missed from last year's squad will be Larry Card 127-lb. state Class B champion and winner of 36 straight matches without defeat.

Notes and Nonsense from "Windy Nob"

NOTE... Dear Readers: I goofed and I'm sorry. I forgot about the news going in early because of a holiday. Last week I got the news started, then decided to check the local papers for a certain item, and to my profound amazement I found I was too late.

Hope everyone had a Happy Thanksgiving. Well, another deer season is past, and I must say I'm not sorry. The Seese-Krebs group had a pretty good year again. We averaged out better than last year, but we hunted long and hard to do it.

Some of us hunted every day. We had a lot of fun hunting together, but boy, are we tired! The weed crop was excellent this year and the snow kept them tough and tangled. A lot of them break easily when dry, but this year it was like having ropes tied on your legs. And the briar patches were impossible thanks to all the wet weather, most of them were rooted at both ends, and even then were taller than average. It was pretty cold a couple of days, especially for the ones standing or sitting.

When you hunt with a group, something funny or unusual happens that someone is going to remember and laugh about later. Last Thursday (Thanksgiving) Day Ray Murray was hunting with us. We got back to the car after hunting out this one section, and Ray told about hearing what he thought was a squirrel barking at him. When he looked back he found a big White Leghorn rooster sitting up in the tree. This was in a woods, in the middle of the section about one half mile from the nearest buildings. Well, okay????? It's Thanksgiving morning, so why not illusions about a figure of some kind. The guy likes to eat and it's nearly noon. I figured after a good meal he would be fine.

Friday we were back in the same section. I came up out of this pot-hole and climbed up on this stump to see where the rest of the group was. I looked across a field toward the woods and nearly fell off the stump. There it was!!! Walking along the edge of the woods.

I saw Cousin Barb headed toward the woods so I hurried along and would you believe, we had a chicken chase. We chased that silly rooster clear across the woods and never did catch it. Of course with heavy boots and several layers of warm clothes, we were not moving too fast. A couple of others saw the silly bird also. Otherwise, I don't think I would be telling this.

Help in the center spot from rangy Ted ...
But for a springy triumph over what apparently is not too str. an Ionia quiet.

Guard Craig Witteach banged in 10 of his game-high 22 points in the third quarter as Lowell increased its margin to 33-34 entering the first minutes.

Forward Blair Cahoon, who shared rebounding honors with Hoesli in hauling in 14 rebounds, also found the scoring range in the third period, earning nine of his 17 points.

Ionia's defense became obvious at the outset as the Bulldogs concentrated on opping high-scoring Denny DeWitt of the Arrows. As a result the 6'1" sharpshooter managed to find the range on just 2 of 20 field goal attempts to go with one free throw for 11 points. He also grabbed 11 rebounds.

Lowell's shooting was not as effective as it might have been as the Arrows sank 27 of 71 field goal attempts for 38 percent. Kemper noted that team maintained good ball control throughout the game. He had fewer turnovers than might have been expected in an opening game, he said.

Ionia managed to cope up with only one double-figure scorer as Tom Fuller, the lone holdover from last year's team clipped 16 points through the hoops.

The junior varsity all freshman teams were not as successful, the former dropping an 85-64 crush after keeping matters close for three periods and the frosh bowing by a 69-44 count.

FOUL PLAY - Ionia's Dave Handlon (25) is caught in the act of fouling Blair Cahoon of Lowell as he seeks to shoot over John Klein (43). Moving in for possible rebound in Sid Hayward (42). Looking on in rear is Craig Witteach of the Arrows and Steve Hausserman (11) of Ionia.

NOTE: ... Dear Readers: I goofed and I'm sorry. I forgot about the news going in early because of a holiday. Last week I got the news started, then decided to check the local papers for a certain item, and to my profound amazement I found I was too late.

I hope everyone had a Happy Thanksgiving. Well, another deer season is past, and I must say I'm not sorry. The Seese-Krebs group had a pretty good year again. We averaged out better than last year, but we hunted long and hard to do it.

Some of us hunted every day. We had a lot of fun hunting together, but boy, are we tired! The weed crop was excellent this year and the snow kept them tough and tangled. A lot of them break easily when dry, but this year it was like having ropes tied to our legs. And the briar patches were impossible thanks to all the wet weather, most of them were rooted at both ends and even then were taller than average. It was pretty cold a couple of days, especially for the ones standing or sitting.

When you hunt with a group, something funny or unusual happens that someone is going to remember and laugh about later. Last Thursday (Thanksgiving) Day Ray Murray was hunting with us. We got back to the car after hunting out this one section, and Ray told about hearing what he thought was a squirrel barking at him. When he looked, he said he found a big White Leghorn rooster sitting up in the tree. This was in a woods, in the middle of the section about one half mile from the nearest buildings. Well, okay!!!! It's Thanksgiving morning, so why not illusions about a few of some kind. The guy likes to eat and it's nearly noon. I figured after a good meal he would be fat.

Friday we were back in the same section. I came up out of this pot-hole and climbed up on this stump to see where the rest of the group was. I looked across a field toward the woods and nearly fell off the stump. There it was!!!! Walking along the edge of the woods.

I saw Cousin Barb headed toward the woods so I hurried along and would you believe, we had a chicken chase. We chased that silly rooster clear across the woods and never did catch it. Of course with heavy boots and several layers of warm clothes, we were not moving too fast. A couple of others saw the silly bird also. Otherwise, I don't think I would be telling this.

Youth Take Lead in Creative Worship

New expressions of worship was the goal of the Senior High Fellowship of the First Methodist Church of Lowell as they led their congregation in Creative Worship during the two services of November 23.

Planned by Michael Potter and Elizabeth Lomas, the services found nineteen young people participating in its leadership. The services drew upon contemporary sources of music and writing with an appeal to break through the pretense of righteousness and confront the major issues of the day.

Youth taking part were Sue Bauer (organ chimes and offertory); Beth Lomas (prelude and anthem); Elaine Stormanz and Rick Engle (responsive reading); Sharon Bauer and Jeanne Leeman (call to worship and benediction); Nancy Coons (morning lesson); Joan Anderson (ritual of fellowship); Shirley Krebs (closing hymn); Michael Blough and Michael Potter (dialogue sermon); Ushers were Robert Bewell, Dan Lomas, Joe Ellis, John Doyle, Jim and Doug Barnes. Mr. and Mrs. Randy Johnson, the Senior High Counselors, served as the greeters.

Church Program on Sunday

"The Life of Christ in Music and Art" will be presented by the combined choir of the Lowell First United Methodist Church on Sunday, December 7 at 5 p.m.

A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The I-Ki-Ca-Ga campfire group has been busy during the fall months on many projects. Among these have been selling candy, a hike to Fallsburg Park and the making of Christmas projects. Officers are: Stephanie Hartley, president; Laurie Harris, vice-president; Carol Johnson, secretary; Nancy Bier, treasurer and Laurie Canfield, scribe. Mrs. Sue Harris and Mrs. Violet Miller are the club leaders.

"FOUL PLAY" - Ionia's Dave Handlon (25) is caught in the act of fouling Blair Cahoon of Lowell as he seeks to shoot over John Klein (43). Moving in for possible rebound in Sid Hayward (42). Looking on in rear is Craig Witteach of the Arrows and Steve Hausserman (11) of Ionia.

Host Quad Mat Tournament

Can you imagine eighty-eight thousand boys playing "cat and mouse?" This is what is going on in more than 2,200 high schools in the nation, according to Coach Chuck Mathews of Forest Hills High School.

That many young men are involved in the sport of wrestling today compared to less than three hundred schools with programs ten years ago.

The reason the sport has caught on so well, says Mathews, is that there is a place for every size, shape, and weight boy. "Challenge Night" at Forest Hills will be held this Thursday (December 3) at 7:30 p.m.

Each of the schools coming to this competition had an excellent record last year. East Grand Rapids Catholic took fourth in the state. Fruitport had only one loss and ended third in the state.

"This is going to be good company and we'll be in the midst of it," said Mathews. "If you want to see the boys preparing, you should watch the Challenge Night."

The Rangers are defending O.K. conference and regional champions, and possessors of a 17-0 dual record last year. Several regulars from last year were among the 80 who turned out for wrestling. They include Jim Leyndyke, Chip King, Mark Kelly, Ted Werke, George McCarger, Craig Van Sloyers, Bob Roy, Bob Taylor, Tom Dewey, Jim Dygert, Jim De Stane, John Price, and Jim Vander Boon.

Greatly missed from last year's squad will be Larry Cardin, 127-lb. state Class B champion and winner of 36 straight matches without defeat.

BY SHIRLEY DYBERT

A great many people had friends and relatives in their homes for Thanksgiving dinners last week. There probably isn't another story to match what happened at the Bob Hanes though.

There were twenty guests for the full treatment when suddenly young Tim announced to his mother that one of their dogs was busy delivering puppies. Actually this dog is not really theirs, just a stray that happened to adopt the family last month. She was giving thanks for a warm home by presenting them with nine new members of the menage.

The Hanes already had two of their own so the count went suddenly from two to twelve! Everybody was pretty active there for awhile. Jerri trying to keep the dinner in order, Bob building a bigger dog house, and the kids loving it all.

Latest word is that if you would like a darling puppy for a Christmas present, the number to call is 676-1881.

Then there is the post-script to the football season. Fans who attended the Rockford game will not soon forget how our team had to travel three miles at the half to get to the locker rooms... thus delaying the return to the field for fifteen minutes for which we were promptly penalized by the officials.

Well, these same officials hold a banquet at the end of the season and this year presented with appropriate words and music, the Best of the Year Award to Coach Rosenkranz. This is all in the spirit of fun, but he will forever remember that night when he gazes upon his gold plated football boot.

Have you heard the newest ditty? It goes: You're not in Without Your Pin, (or substitute) Be the First Kid at Your Bus Stop With a Booster Pin.

The Forest Hills Athletic Boosters have just put on sale some two inch green and white pins for every age. If you happen to be graduating in the next few years, you can have one that says Class of... Otherwise if you are a little too young or possibly a bit beyond that age, you can buy one that says BOOSTER in the middle. They will be sold at the athletic events.

Don't forget the big challenge night... no admission, for the wrestling team, this week Thursday, December 4, 7:30 p.m. Wrestlers will be selected for the big quad meet that FH is hosting Saturday at 11 p.m.

Basketball starts Friday night against Hudsonville, also at home.

December 5, Friday, Ada Christian School Christmas bazaar from 5:00 p.m. There will be films for children and bar-b-q's sold between 5-7 p.m.

December 6, Saturday the Cascade Community Party and the Party Time Club.

Monday, December 8 it will be FH vs Greenville in wrestling there. December 9, there will be a match with Wyoming.

Tuesday, December 9, three big school bands will present one exciting concert at 8 p.m.

Tuesday, December 9, Special meeting of Thornapple Association, Inc. 8 p.m. at the Old Cascade Township Hall on Thornapple River Drive.

Last call for reservations for the Cascade Community Party on Saturday. Call Jean Serne on Goodwood if you haven't gotten your tickets.

One of the gatherings to be held before that party will be in the home of the H. Schneiders. They have invited the Roger Armstrongs, Glenn Dunks, Brian Estes, and Donald Howlands to join them.

Other of their guests will be the Carl Reids, Claus Pahl, Buzz Van Ierssen, Darrell Ziegler, and Tom McAnalens.

Among those planning to attend the Party Time Club's evening to be known as the Holiday Happening are: Arlie and Bev Albrecht, Jay and Mary Ann Wersma, Howard and Nancy Vandenberg, Bernie and Helen Mohr, Dick and Carolyn Lynch, Robert and Jo-Ann Burnham, and Clement and Patty Edwards.

Also enjoying themselves at the Woodland Hall auditorium will be Bill and Sally Chapman, Dale and Lois Decker, and Randy and May Preston.

These last two no sooner returned from Hawaii where they spent a fabulous time in posh hotels and on lush tropical islands, then May discovered that she had to learn all of the lines for the lead role in Pincocchio to be presented by the Thornapple Community Theatre. If she is seen glancing off into the distance, she is either dreaming of those former carefree days, or memorizing her part.

Three-Band Concert Scheduled December 9

Music lovers have a great treat coming next Tuesday, December 9. At that time an innovation to Forest Hills High School will be presented.

Never before has the high school had three bands... a ninth grade band, junior varsity band, and varsity band. All three are under the direction of Marion Sanderson and will present a program at 8:00 p.m. in the multi-purpose building.

The junior varsity will appear first to play Marcha Poco by Moore, an old favorite. This will be followed by Carillons at Christmastide by Calkin, a fantasy on "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day" and Two Nativty Carols For Band by Gordon.

The last two are medieval carols, "Dormi, Jesu!" and "Nowell!"

The ninth grade band, which is new this year, will present Brighton Beach March by Latham, Christmas Music for Winds by Cacavas, Christmas Fugue by Brown, and Lawrence of Arabia by Jarro. This last is from the movie of the same name.

The varsity band plans to play Valdes by Hansen, a Norwegian concert march; Christmas Triptych by Leist, three choral pieces for band; and West Side Story by Bernstein, selections from the Broadway musical as arranged by Dehoff.

In addition, the varsity band will close the program with Sleigh Ride by Anderson, The Twelve Days of Christmas by Bilik, and Symphonic Concert March by Bonelli, arranged by Falcone.

MRS. SARGANT 693-2247

Thanksgiving Day Services, held at the Bowne Mennonite Church, were conducted with the assistance of the members of the church at White Cloud. Other visitors from Sauli Ste. Marie and Traverse City joined the local members in worship and at the carry-in dinner following.

Rev. and Mrs. Harry Schrock were made more than happy, in response to their request for leaves. They certainly say Thank You to all who responded, and they still have more to gather as soon as the weather and leaves are such that they can be loaded. Perhaps if we are very good next season they may let us see what the results will be in their garden.

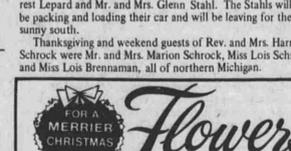

Sunday, October 25, the Messes Mary, Carol and Marilyn Zook were baptised and accepted into membership at the Bowne Mennonite Church.

The writer received a call from Mrs. Ivah Birman of Lake Odessa, who stated that she attended a birthday open house for Mrs. Charles (Lula) Erickson of 142 Adams St. in Ionia Sunday afternoon. Lula who was a local girl, living in these parts the main part of her life, is now home from the hospital where she spent several months following her fall, fracturing her hip. She gets about the house in a wheel chair and still cannot stand up. She gets very discouraged so why not send her a card?

Air-Conditioned 'Ride' Keeps Potatoes Fresh

Shoppers have been noticing that some of the potatoes they've been buying seem "fresher" than before. And there's a good reason for it. Some potatoes are being pampered more, all the way from farm to grocery stores.

They're going by rail, but not in conventional box-type cars, but rather in a new air-conditioned car that provides a controlled internal environment. Whatever the weather outside, desert heat or winter slant, the potatoes inside are kept comfortable. It's all possible through a covered hopper car made by ACF Industries.

Potatoes from Arizona, California, Colorado, Nebraska, North Dakota, Minnesota and Washington have been involved in bulk shipments to markets in Illinois and points east and south.

An attraction to shippers is that just one such car can carry 180,000 pounds of potatoes, while the normal box car load is only 55,000 to 60,000 pounds. And because they're carried in bulk, no crating or sacking is required.

But the biggest advantage is that potatoes arrive at markets in better condition than ever before.

During the 1970s, it's expected that the tons of potatoes shipped by rail will rise sharply, as the Northern Pacific Railway, pioneer in this form of potato movement, is adding a fleet of 51 cars to the 10 it already has in service.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Deming of Alto and Mr. and Mrs. Narciso A. Repollo, Sr., of Bricktown, New Jersey.

The bride chose a gown of nylon and lace with a bouffant skirt and scalloped neckline trimmed with sequins. A rosette of lace and pearls held her veil.

Attending the bridegroom was Kenneth Knurr, best man and Erick Knurr, Michael Dodds, Kenneth Colburn and Donald Jouma, groomsmen.

Following an Eastern honeymoon, the newlyweds will make their home in Cascade Village.

Three-Band Concert Scheduled December 9

Music lovers have a great treat coming next Tuesday, December 9. At that time an innovation to Forest Hills High School will be presented.

Never before has the high school had three bands... a ninth grade band, junior varsity band, and varsity band. All three are under the direction of Marion Sanderson and will present a program at 8:00 p.m. in the multi-purpose building.

The junior varsity will appear first to play Marcha Poco by Moore, an old favorite. This will be followed by Carillons at Christmastide by Calkin, a fantasy on "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day" and Two Nativty Carols For Band by Gordon.

The last two are medieval carols, "Dormi, Jesu!" and "Nowell!"

The ninth grade band, which is new this year, will present Brighton Beach March by Latham, Christmas Music for Winds by Cacavas, Christmas Fugue by Brown, and Lawrence of Arabia by Jarro. This last is from the movie of the same name.

The varsity band plans to play Valdes by Hansen, a Norwegian concert march; Christmas Triptych by Leist, three choral pieces for band; and West Side Story by Bernstein, selections from the Broadway musical as arranged by Dehoff.

In addition, the varsity band will close the program with Sleigh Ride by Anderson, The Twelve Days of Christmas by Bilik, and Symphonic Concert March by Bonelli, arranged by Falcone.

IDEAS ON ALL ASPECTS OF HOME IMPROVEMENT AND REPAIR ARE GIVEN IN "THE COMPLETE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF HOME MAKING IDEAS," edited by Barbara Bradford, which can now be obtained at the Kent County Library, Lowell Branch.

MSU Science Program Continues to Improve

The Michigan State University campus at East Lansing is gradually becoming a center of excellence in science.

One year ago the National Science Foundation (NSF) awarded the university a grant of more than $4 million which has been used in a developmental program in the area of physics, mathematics and chemistry.

"This grant is one of the largest ever awarded to MSU," says Dr. Milton E. Mulder, vice president for research development. "Each of the participating departments had to demonstrate that they were already very productive in research and training of graduate students and we were selected through a highly competitive process across the nation."

All three departments report that with aid of the grant they have been able to recruit outstanding graduate students and well-qualified professors for research and training programs.

Digit-Letter System Changed for Plates

Michigan's 1970 automobile license plates will, for the first time, bear three letters and three numerals, Secretary of State James M. Hare announced.

Along with the change in plate design, Hare said, the expiration date for 1969 passenger car and motorcycle tags has been extended to March 31, instead of the end of each February. Commercial and trailer plates will expire on the last day of February each year, as in the past.

The shift in expiration dates was to help reduce the congestion and long lines of plate purchasers as deadlines approach. An additional month in which to buy passenger tags after commercial and trailer plate purchases have tapered off should alleviate the problem of crowding, Hare pointed out.

Commercial and trailer tags went on sale October 1 and the first new passenger car plates will be available November 15.

The new plates will have a gold background with white letters and numerals representing the colors of Oakland University, Hare said.

"The change to a system of three letters and three numerals, from the former system of two letters and four numerals," Hare explained, "is another step in our program to prepare for the future."

"The steadily increasing number of automobile registrations in Michigan demands a more flexible method of accommodating them. The new combination will permit the issuance of millions more plates without having to increase the number of characters on the tags. We could, by using every conceivable combination of letters and numerals, issue more than 20-million plates without fear of duplication."

The Michigan Department of State expects to issue more than five-million sets of plates for 1970, the largest number in any single year. At least four-million of these sets will go to passenger car owners.

Michigan first began using combinations of letters and numerals on its license plates in 1933.

City of Lowell Council Proceedings

Regular meeting, Monday evening, November 17, 1969 in the council room of the city hall.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor pro tem Herbert M. Reynolds at 8 p.m. and the roll was called.

Present: Councilman Anderson, Jeffries, Mrs. Myers, Reynolds.

Absent: Mayor Wittenbach.

IT WAS MOVED BY Councilman Jeffries, supported by Mrs. Myers, that the minutes of the November 3, 1969 meeting be approved as presented and the reading waived.

Yes: Jeffries, Reynolds, Mrs. Myers, Anderson.

No: None.

The City Clerk read the following list of deposits which had been made since the last regular meeting:

General Fund $58,235.51

Cemetery Fund 100.00

Water Fund 2,559.90

Sewer Fund 225.00

The following lists of bills payable had been sent to the Council with the Agenda and therefore were not read:

General Fund $25,837.89

Street Fund 1,109.94

Sewerage Fund 717.04

Water Fund 2,192.50

*Street bills were paid from Major and Local Funds; see invoices for breakdown.

COMMUNICATIONS

1. Letter from a "concerned citizen" of Lansing, Michigan urging City of Lowell participation in the campaign to start use of proposed emergency number "911." Manager Bacon will procure more information and return it to Council.

OLD BUSINESS

1. Bid on Police Cruiser. Bids were opened publicly in the office of the Manager, as advertised, in the afternoon of November 17. These bids were on the 4-barrel carburetor model. Only two bids were received, the low one was in amount of $1,990.00 from McQueen Motors for a Plymouth cruiser, as specified. The Manager recommended acceptance of the low bid. (See MOTIONS)

2. Manager Bacon reported he had secured a figure of $11,198 from Dykema Construction for installation of proposed sewer main in Foreman Road but he estimated it could be done by city forces for approximately $7,462.00. He recommended waiting until spring and doing it by city forces.

Robert Rittenger, on the Foreman Road special assessment roll for aforementioned sewer, objected to others paying for the corner lot owned by Fred Beachler. The Manager explained that said corner lot had previously been specially assessed for sewer and owner would have no benefit to be gained and therefore could not be assessed again. It was explained that everyone on the roll, including the owner, was being assessed a portion of the cost, although the Manager stated the cost for this lot could be assumed by the City. M. W. Briggs, also on the special assessment district, expressed satisfaction with the arrangement.

Councilman Jeffries expressed objection to the City's assuming any cost of the additional lot, since it had already been burdened with the entire cost of the Lowell Public School's share. He added that the School was shirking its duty in refusing to pay its share of the sewer main installation.

No further action was taken and the roll was not altered from the revised roll confirmed by Council on October 21, 1969.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Consideration of proposal to purchase a 15'x18' motor boat loaned to the Police Department by Chief Berntson. Manager Bacon stated it would no longer be necessary to make such purchase because a local citizen, who wishes to remain anonymous, had given a 12-foot aluminum boat and trailer, together with a 5 1/2 hp. motor to the City for use by the Police Department.

2. Request of Light and Power Board that the City Council enter into a contract with Consumers Power Company which would place the Light and Power in a more favorable position with respect to purchase of gas from Consumers. Mayor and Clerk authorized to sign the contract. (See MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS)

3. Request of Jean Stiles, Bowers Road, for a statement from the Council conforming that a kenneled license at her place of residence would not be in violation of local ordinances. (See RESOLUTIONS)

4. Continued membership in the Grand River Watershed Council was recommended by the Manager, concurrence by the Council was given and membership dues authorized.

Want to Call Vietnam at Christmas? Plan Ahead!

Local residents were advised today by Michigan Bell Telephone Company to plan ahead if they wish to talk during the coming holiday season to relatives or friends stationed in Vietnam.

"It is generally easier for a serviceman to call home than for his family to try reaching him in Vietnam," said Robert L. Thole, manager here for the company. "And to avoid disappointments, servicemen are encouraged to notify their families in advance if they expect to telephone home, particularly during the holidays."

More than 42,000 calls were completed between the United States and Vietnam last year. Most of the calls were made from Vietnam rather than the U. S. because of the difficulty in locating servicemen when calls come in from the States, Thole said.

"The heavy concentration of so many troops in a small country at war creates some real communications problems," he added. "Service is still not what we would like it to be but it has been improved substantially in recent years."

Travel restrictions and curfews in Saigon complicate the task of locating servicemen to take telephone calls. For this reason, when a call is made to Saigon it is important for the caller to have the serviceman's unit, his APO number and, if possible, a telephone number where he can be reached.

Until 1967, servicemen could call home only from Saigon. Calls now can be placed from hospitals and bases in Ton Son Nhut, Long Binh, Cam Ranh Bay, Nha Trang, Qui Nhon and Da Nang.

E. S. Callers, however, can reach only telephones in Saigon and the immediate vicinity.

The speed of handling a call to Vietnam depends on the volume of calls pending at the time and the availability of the servicemen in Vietnam. Calls between the U. S. and Vietnam average about 350 a day, but this figure is expected to increase during the holiday season.

Calls originating in Vietnam are handled "first come, first served" at various telephone centers operated for servicemen. But when a serviceman does get to a telephone, it is usually just a few minutes before his call is completed to the States. Saigon is 13 hours ahead of Eastern Standard Time.

In 1965, communications facilities in Vietnam permitted the completion of only 30 calls a day between the two countries. Two commercial high frequency radio circuits were operated four hours a day.

There are now 10 circuits available for Vietnam service, and these are generally open 12 to 15 hours a day. The circuits go by ocean cable or satellite to Hong Kong and the rest of the way by high frequency radio. The calling hours are not continuous because radio circuits between Saigon and Hong Kong are subject to interference several hours a day.

The first three minutes of a station-to-station call to Vietnam is $9. A person-to-person call costs $12 for the first three minutes. Additional minute rates for both station and person calls is $3.

THE MERGER TREND

Three old-time traffic safety organizations—the National Highway Users Conference, the Automotive Safety Foundation and the Auto Industries Highway Safety Committee—have completed agreements to merge next January into the Highway Users Federation of Safety and Mobility. Initial financial support will come from some 600 industries, businesses and highway user organizations now funding the three groups.

The organization will continue to be based in Washington. The headquarters and field staffs will be combined.

GOOD TRICK, BY GULL-Y!

This may be strictly for the birds, but a bird trainer has contacted officials in Alaska offering to instruct seagulls in patrolling oil pipelines to spot leaks from the air and somehow activate radio transmitters to signal repair crews.

VA Benefits Available

Veterans widows were reminded today that if they have a limited income they may be eligible for a Veterans Administration pension.

Under current law, according to Robert M. FitzGerald, regional office manager of the VA in Detroit, qualified widows of wartime veterans who have died of causes not related to their service are eligible if their income is no more than $2,000 if they have no children, and no more than $3,200 if they do.

If a widow does not qualify for a pension because of a higher income or because she remarries, her children may still be eligible to receive pensions.

Pensions are based on need, FitzGerald explained. Compensation is paid to the survivors of veterans who die of service-connected causes, and the income of the survivor has no bearing on eligibility or the amount paid.

Persons seeking further information were urged to contact their nearest VA office.

POLICE OBJECT TO COLOR CHOICE

The Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police has objected to Secretary of State James M. Hare's decision to make the 1970-71 Michigan automobile license plate colors white numerals on a gold background, especially since they may be used more than one year. The Police Chiefs contended the color combination will prevent easy identification of vehicles.

MACP President, Chief Dean A. Fox of Kalamazoo said Hare's policy of "complimenting" various Michigan universities and colleges by selecting their colors for annual plates needed to be shifted to a "more realistic approach."
