Clean-up Theme Designed to Rid Ada of Junk Cars

BY SHIRLEY DYGERT

The month of April has been designated as Clean-Up, Paint-Up and Fix-Up Month in Ada Township by Supervisor Fred Clancy . . . and the 30-day period will be used extensively to rid the township of junk cars.

At Monday night's bi-monthly meeting of the township board, Clancy said that Building Inspector Herman Stukkie will inspect the township for violators to the junk car ordinance and give owners 30 days in which to comply with the law.

Clancy also noted that two area men have offered to pick up and dispose of junk cars providing they have wheels. Owners wishing to avail themselves of the service are asked to contact John Mazie (Em 3-1060) or Bob Landis (676-3396).

The township fire department budget was accepted from Chief Stan Osmolenski to be placed before voters at the April 4

Report Death of Marine in Viet Fighting

Word has been received of the death last Saturday in Vietnam of Marine Lance Corporal Ronald Creager, 18, who had many friends in the Murray Lake area.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill T. Creager of 610 Kendallwood NE, Cpl. Creager and his parents were summer-time residents on Causeway Drive at the lake.

In addition to his parents, Cpl. Creager is survived by a brother, Thomas.

Mrs. Leo Davies, a neighbor of the Creagers at Murray Lake, said the family had received word of Cpl. Creager's death when a munitions truck he was riding struck a land mine. The Davies son, Mike, joined the Marines following Cpl. Creager's enlistment and is presently in Okinawa en route to Vietnam.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete at VanStrien-Alman Funeral Home.

CLOSED - The Coach Stop in Ada will be closed on Easter Sunday all day. c50

Voter Registration No. 1 Goal

A concerted effort to increase the number of registered voters in the Forest Hills School District is one of the primary targets of the newly-organized Citizens Committee.

The committee is working on a tight deadline, however, since registrations for the May 4 special millage election will close on Friday, April 3, at 5 p.m.

District residents not now registered must sign up with the township clerk of residency on or before that date to be eligible for the millage vote.

The committee is headed by Jack Landman, Jim Crosby, Charles Anderson and Don Cooper with William Zolmer and Roger Mathews serving as liaison members from the board of education.

The board announced at its meeting of March 17 that it will seek voter support on May 4 for the same proposal turned down last week by a margin of 113 votes.

Board members pointed out that rejection of a proposal calling for 15 mills of operating levy over a three-year period left Forest Hills Schools with no voted millage for future operating expenses.

The millage was scheduled to replace 13 mills for operating that expired with recent tax collections.

One of the dangers of lack of local support, it was pointed out by the board, was the fact that all state aid would be withdrawn if there is no operating millage approved by district voters.

Board members also agreed to continue efforts to inform district residents of the need for 15 mills for the three-year period.

MAINS TO BE FLUSHED NEXT WEEK:

Hope to Relieve 'Red Water' Problem in City

An extensive program to flush iron from water mains in Lowell will be held next week with indications that a regular schedule will be maintained throughout the year.

City Manager Blaine Bacon reports that numerous complaints have been received in the past several weeks regarding the "red water" coming from water taps throughout the city.

Few Issues, Quiet Race for Council

It may be the absence of important issues of immediate concern or simply continued lethargy and apathy . . . but whatever the case, Lowell apparently is headed for a quiet election come April 6.

Three members are to be elected to the City Council from a field of six candidates.

Included are incumbents Carlen Anderson and Mrs. Virginia Myers, who won two-year terms in the 1968 election, and political newcomers Avery W. Block, Herbert (Raymond) Jones, Dr. Herbert R. Mueller and Alice Rittersdorf.

Two of the three council positions to be filled are for two-year terms and will go to the No. 1 and No. 2 vote-getters. The third position will be for one year and will be filled by the candidate polling the third highest total.

A new mayor also will head up the council for the coming year, to be selected from among the five council members at an organizational meeting following the election. Arnold Wittenbach, who served as mayor for six of the eight years he served with the council, is not seeking re-election.

Holdover members of the council, elected in 1969 to two-year terms, are Herbert Reynolds and Harold Jefferies.

Mayor Wittenbach has indicated that he will submit a list of appointees to a proposed charter amendment study group at the meeting of April 7 at which he will preside for the final time.

The meeting originally was scheduled for April 6, but was postponed to permit City Manager Blaine Bacon and City Clerk Laura Shepard to handle election-day duties without interference.

Mrs. Shepard announced that absentee ballots will be available at City Hall from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday (except April 6) and on Saturday, April 4, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

New Plates Required by Wednesday!

With the deadline for purchasing 1970 Michigan license plates but a few days off, Michigan finds itself nearly 900,000 plate sales behind a comparable date of a year ago.

"Even though the deadline for purchasing passenger license plates was extended a month this year," notes Secretary of State James M. Hare, "we still are plagued by those persons who wait until the last possible moment to buy their plates."

So the Secretary of State, who is issuing this reminder for the last time because he is retiring at the end of this year, is predicting the long lines of angry plate buyers at the end of March . . . again!

Area residents are urged to purchase their 1970 plates at the Secretary of State office located at the Western Auto Store, 219 East Main, Lowell. Old plates expire at midnight next Tuesday, March 31.

Bacon said the foremost problem is that the water tends to stain clothing that is being washed. He said a number of callers also indicated difficulties in preparation of food.

"However, it should be pointed out that the water is perfectly safe to drink," said Bacon. "The city's water supply is chlorinated continuously and is regularly checked by state officials. Results of these tests are available for inspection by residents at city hall."

The "red water" problem is the result of natural iron in the ground water which comes from the two city wells (located north of Foreman Road and west of the C & O Railroad.)

The wells were constructed in 1964 and 1965 at which time it was determined that there was just enough iron content to cause occasional "red water" and the city began treatment by adding phosphates and chlorine for control by keeping it in suspension.

"As the wells have gradually produced greater quantities of water, the amount of iron content has increased to a leveling off point that is nearly double that at the time of placing the wells in production," says Bacon. "The treatment of 'red water' by our present method is limited and we have reached that limit."

The only method to completely eradicate the "red water" problem is to have a central iron removal plant, according to the manager. If such a plant were to be considered, it would appear that it could be tied into a water softening plant which would produce a high quality water product, he says.

"Until such time, the city can only continue to do the best possible job with methods now available and being used," said Bacon. "This means continued phosphate and chlorine treatment coupled with several thorough water main flushings annually and a program of weekly flushings of shorter duration in the problem areas."

The Water Department will begin the spring flushing program next Tuesday, March 31, and will continue Wednesday, April 1, Thursday, April 2, and Friday, April 3.

All residents are cautioned to be careful in their use of the city water supply during this period because the flushing action breaks iron loose in the system and "red water" may result.

Beginning Friday, April 10, the water department will flush large segments of the system weekly on Fridays through the spring, summer and fall and possibly next winter as well, Bacon notes.

Residents who experience the "red water" problem are requested to call city hall, 897-7111, in order that steps may be taken to relieve the problem.

By the time these words see the light of day in print, chances are that life will have settled down somewhat for Charley Doyle.

For the uninitiated, Charley serves as postmaster for Lowell and is, by nature, a little on the nervous side even when things are calm.

Within the last week, things have been far from serene for Charley when you consider that (1) mail deliveries from outstate points were all but halted by postal employee strikes in Detroit and Chicago; (2) after many years of patient waiting the lobby in the Lowell office is being renovated; and (3) he emerged as handicap champion of the singles event in the annual city bowling tournament.

Naturally, we wish to offer Charley sincere congratulations on his ability as a kegger, but we'd like to also ask what happened in the doubles . . . when he was my partner!

If this is spring, you can have it . . . and welcome!

Sonogagun . . . the calendar says it's getting high on to March 31, which means the end of the one-month period of grace for purchasing 1970 auto license plates is just around the corner.

According to state officials, almost as many last-minute buyers will descend on license bureaus this year as have done so in prior years when the deadline was the last day of February.

So get with it gang. (Which reminds me, I'd better get down and buy mine, too!)

Of course it's spring . . . with many reports of robins returning and geese flying north.

Mrs. George Butler of Lincoln Lake was the first to call saying she had spotted several robins in the yard. That was on St. Patrick's Day. Come last Friday, chances are those birds wished they'd stayed down South.

Other signs such as ice floating down the Grand River . . . the Thornapple River . . . and the Flat River, plus Bruce Walter spreading grass seed and fertilizer on his lawn while being pelted by flying snow!

It would appear that the committee charged with selecting this year's headliner for Lowell Showboat may be having trouble.

In recent years, the show's star and dates have been announced much earlier . . . which would seem to indicate that this time the right personality for the right amount of money at the right time is not available.

The Forest Hills Board of Education is going to re-submit its proposal for 15 mills of operating millage for three years to district voters again on May 4.

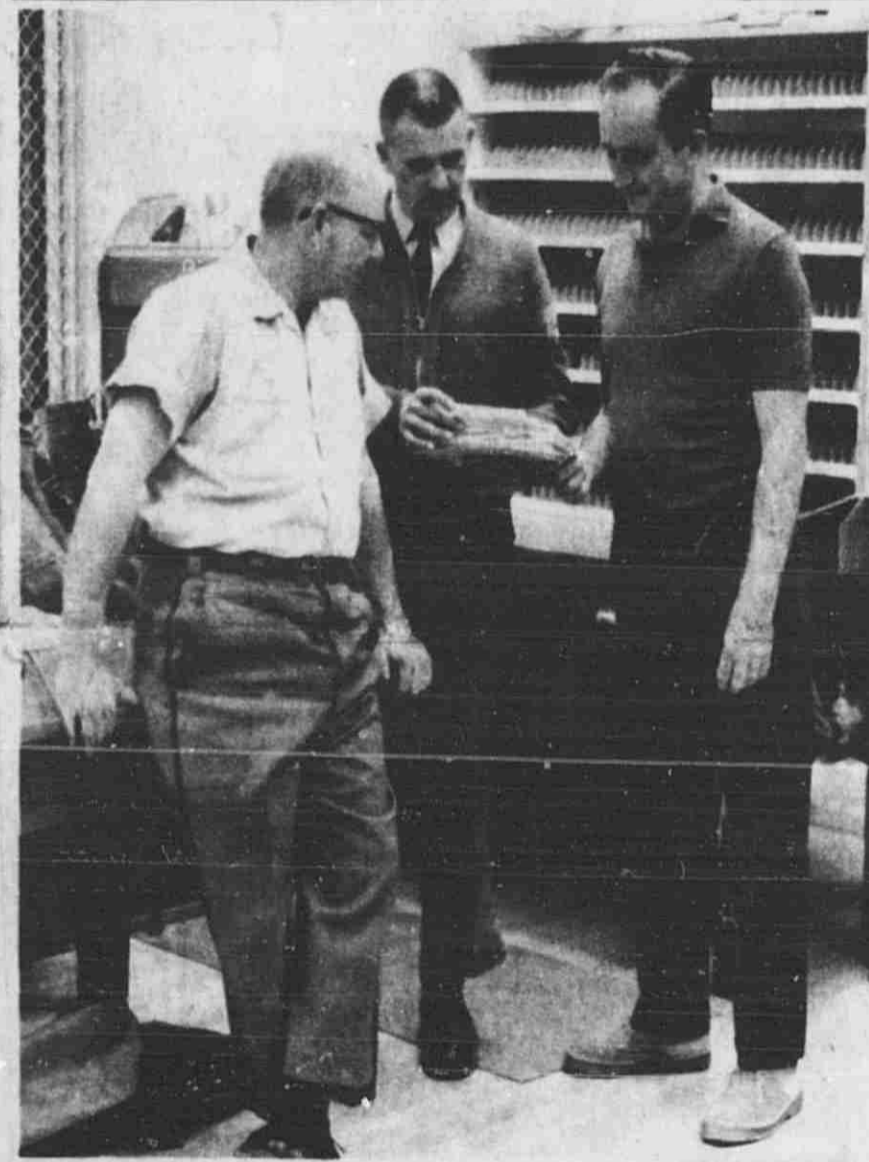

One reason given is that voters in all-too-many cases told board members AFTER the March 16 election that they did not understand they were voting on new millage.

This comes as no great surprise . . . despite the fact we noted in this column just two weeks ago that this was the case. People, it seems, read and understand that which they want to understand . . . and shuck off anything else.

So once again, folks, the millage request is for new operating money for the schools . . . it is not being added to the 13 mills that had been in effect . . . and without the millage there will be practically no education program!

Congratulations are in order to three basketball acquaintances of long-standing:

1. To Lofton Greene of River Rouge High for another Class B state championship on the eve (it's presumed) of his retirement; 2. To Will Robinson for a Class A championship with his last Detroit Pershing High team before going on to a coaching career in the college ranks; and 3. To Fred Zollner of the Pistons, who persists in coming up with last-place teams in the NBA and who may, finally, have come up with the long-awaited "big man" in the person of St. Bonaventure star Bob Lanier, whom the pistons got in the college draft . . . by finishing last!

JUST A TRICKLE - The volume of mail in the Lowell post office slowed down to a bare trickle early this week as postal employees in Detroit and Chicago . . . plus other major cities . . . went out on strike. By mid-week, however, much of the mail was moving again. Shown here with a handful of first class letters that arrived Tuesday are rural carrier Bernard Kropf (left) and city carriers Rex Collins and Mac Fonger (right).

Outbreak of Speeding Reported

Lowell police reported issuance of numerous speeding citations during the past week, many to youthful offenders apparently suffering from spring fever.

One motorist was scheduled to appear before District Judge Joseph White this week. Arrested and charged with careless driving was Joseph K. Jeluso, 19, of 11314 Ann Street, Lowell.

Four area residents appeared in District Court last week on various driving charges and were fined after entering guilty pleas.

James B. McFall, 26, of Alto was assessed $128 in fines and penalties on a charge of being drunk and disorderly by becoming involved in an automobile accident.

Barbara Heather, 48, of Ada and Dwight Hughes, Jr., 25, of Lowell each paid fines totalling $108 for driving while under the influence of alcohol.

A $58 fine was levied against Gary C. Smith, 17, of Lowell for driving without a license.

Drama Awards Captured by LHS Students

Two Lowell High students who had earlier won honors in local competition were listed as award-winners in the drama division of the fifth annual Olivet College Fine Arts High School Day last week.

Mitch McMahon received a second place and is eligible for a half-scholarship to the Olivet Creative Arts and Modern America Workshop this summer. An honorable mention went to Pat Hobbs.

Set Registration for Driver Ed Summer Class

Summer driver education classes will be held in the Forest Hills School District this year for those who have registered at the high school. Students need not attend the Forest Hills Schools, but must be fifteen before June 1.

Those who are eligible and interested are urged to register by appearing at the high school office at 5901 Hall Street during the week of April 6-10.

Persons wishing to enter the program who cannot register during that week are advised to enroll ahead of time since no registrations will be accepted after April 10.

Caledonia Sets Millage Vote

A special millage election is scheduled for qualified voters of the Caledonia Community School District on Monday, May 4, it was announced this week by Superintendent Harold Whipple.

Residents of the district who are not presently registered to vote in the election have until Friday, April 3, at 4 p.m. to register with the township clerk of residency.

Set Registration for T-V Baseball

The Thornapple Valley Baseball League will be getting under way in early May, according to Robert Dangel, who is scheduling meetings and practices.

Registration dates have been set for Saturday, April 4, between 9:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon and on Wednesday, April 8 from 6:30 p.m. and 9:00 p.m.

The registration will take place at the Old Township Hall in Cascade on Thornapple River Drive. Boys must register on one of the two dates offered as none will be accepted after April 8.

Any boy who will reach his 9th or 10th birthday on or before December 31, 1970 is eligible to play Major League ball. If a boy is 11 years or 12 years old on or before December 31, 1970, he is eligible to play Minor League baseball.

Boys who are 13 or 14 years old on or before December 31, 1970 will be eligible to play Major League baseball.

All boys who fall in these age groups must play in the required leagues. There will be no changing of leagues allowed for any participant.

At registration, each boy must be accompanied by a parent or guardian and have his birth certificate. A fee of $4.00 will be charged. This fee is to pay hats and to replace the money formerly raised by a candy sale.

If any boy cannot afford to pay his fee, a way will be found to pay it for him. Contact Dangel at 868-5542 prior to registration for any information regarding fees or registration.

Eight Southpaws Seek FH Hurling Chores

Forest Hills High's baseball team may have one of the most unusual pitching staffs in its league this year. There are nine men out for the position and only one is right-handed.

Seventy-one boys turned out the first day of registration for season. In an unprecedented move, Coach Mathews cut the team to forty-five members.

"We have never wanted to cut. I hate to leave out any young man that wants to play the game, but we have only one field on which to work and we just could not handle such a crowd," said Mathews.

The team now is made up mainly of sophomores and freshmen with only one regular returning letterman, Rob McCormick. Hot battles are shaping up for some positions; both Bill Ronenburg and Ron Vanderbaan are working out for shortstop while striving for the catching job are Jeff Van Strien, Mike Osmolenski, and Matt Pellerito. Hovering over the first base are both Tony Downenberry and Scott Vashaw.

COLD DISHES
June Crosby's new book, "Serve It Cold!" which can be obtained at the Lowell Kent County Library, contains recipes for hundreds of delicious cold dishes.

Plant Expansion Means Longer Tours

People who would like to see for themselves the expanded plant and office facilities of Amway Corporation at Ada, are cordially welcome to take one of the company tours. Scheduled visits are being held under the new schedule tours now begin from the Administration Building lobby at 9 and 11 a.m. and 1:30 and 3:30 p.m.

Groups of more than 15 persons are urged to contact Milton Weeks, Amway Tour Director, in advance, so that special arrangements can be made for them.

EARN HONORS AT U. OF M

A graduate of Lowell High School was among those honored at the 47th Annual Honors Convocation at the University of Michigan Friday (March 20).

Steve Lessens, a freshman, earned a 3.75 out of a possible 4.0 for the first semester. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lessens, Elm Street, Lowell, travelled to Ann Arbor to attend the convocation.

Plant a Tree... and Help to Purify Air

The importance of trees in maintaining and improving the quality of man's environment gives impetus for observed Arbor Week in Michigan April 19-25.

Trees and other plant life not only have great aesthetic value but do much to improve the air man breathes by taking carbon dioxide out of the polluted atmosphere and giving off oxygen which is mandatory for animal life including man.

This is pointed out in Governor William Milliken's proclamation calling upon all citizens of Michigan to observe Arbor Week by planting trees about their homes, schools and places of business.

Michigan is the only state to observe Arbor Week instead of Arbor Day because on one or two days do not give opportunity for full and proper observance of Arbor Day.

Michigan's national tree leadership warrants this extended annual observance of tree planting. Michigan grows over 90 varieties of trees, more than any state in the union and more than can be found in all of Europe. With 59 national champion trees out of a total nationwide of 117 species Michigan leads the nation with most big trees of any state.

Fifty-four percent of its total land area is classified as commercial forest land but more trees are needed to fight against air pollution in the more heavily populated areas especially since our cities have lost their great elms to disease.

In the past beautification has been given as the chief reason for tree planting, and this is important, but to that has been added the equally important reason of air purification.

There has been a tremendous increase in observance of Arbor Week on the part of schools, civic bodies, service groups and the general public in line with increased interest in beautification of residential and commercial property and our parks and cities—but the increased awareness of the importance of trees in the fight against air pollution should bring about even greater participation.

As in the past, the governor will plant a tree on the state capitol lawn furnished by the Michigan Association of Nurserymen who as in the past will place a potted evergreen tree on the desk of each legislator.

Thrilling Voyage Featured in Film

A thrilling story not soon to be forgotten is "Kantuta—in the Wake of the Kon-Tiki."

It will be narrated by Edward and Nina Ingris on Saturday, April 4, in the multi-purpose room of Forest Hills High School at 8:00 p.m. This is the fifth in the Ada Congregators travel series.

Perhaps one of the most outstanding characteristics of Edward Ingris is his love of adventure. Inspired by "Kon-Tiki," Thor Heyerdahl's best-selling book and Oscar-winning movie, he made his first attempt to cross the Pacific in a raft in 1956.

The raft received the name "Kantuta" from a flower used to make salve which was believed to be immortal by the Incas.

Soon after it was launched, the balsa raft was swept into the Humboldt Current and deposited in a Pacific whirlpool near Clipperton Island, north of the equator. For forty-seven days, the five inhabitants of Kantuta were trapped in the swirling waters. Finally the U. S. Navy, after searching for a week, saved the five from almost certain death.

Later Edward was able to make a successful raft journey that took him to the Tuamotou Islands and ended in Tahiti. Ingris, besides being a leading composer and conductor with a world wide reputation, is considered an accomplished photographer. He filmed a series of thirteen travel and adventure films and assisted the late Ernest Hemingway in filming "The Old Man and the Sea."

MRS. DAVID BALDUS

Miss Beachum Becomes Bride of D. Baldus

Solemn marriage vows were exchanged Saturday evening by Miss Patricia Lynn Beachum and David Floyd Baldus in First Congregational Church, Lowell. Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beachum of Lowell and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Baldus of Coopersville.

The bride wore a gown of ivory peau de soie featuring camel-toe sleeves and mandarin neckline, with bodice and cuffs fashioned of Venice lace. The full skirt was adorned with a detachable train secured with a large bow. A camelot cap trimmed with matching lace held her chapel length veil of illusion.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Donna Beachum, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Sylvia Baldus of Coopersville, sister of the groom, and Miss Karen Stephens of Langston. Flower girl was Beth Ann Beachum, sister of the bride.

Best man's duties were performed by Bradley McLouth of Comstock Park. Groomsman were David Bennick of Kalamazoo and Morris Ford of Eastmanville. Seating the guests were Dennis Paris of Grand Rapids, and Perry Beachum, brother of the bride.

MRS. CHARLES GRUDZINKAS

Wendy Craig Married

An exchange of wedding vows solemnized Saturday morning in St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Parnell, between Miss Wendy J. Craig and Charles R. Grudzinkas. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Craig of Clarksville and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Grudzinkas of Ada.

Lace adorned with appliques of ribbon over satin fashioned the bride's empire styled gown. A matching sheer bodice head-cover completed the bridal ensemble.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Antoinette J. Grudzinkas of Ada. Patrick J. Pullen of Ada served as best man. Seating the guests were Patrick D. McGarry of Ada and Phillip H. Schneider of Lowell.

The couple plan to make their home in East Lansing. HAVING A PARTY? Going on a trip? Have a funny for the paper? In Forest Hills call Shirley Dygert, 676-3721; in Lowell call the LEDGER-SUBURBAN LIFE office, 897-9261.

Announce Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. John VanDriel, Five Mile Road, Ada, have announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Wendy, to Larry F. Nannings of 2819 Chamberlain. Parents of the prospective bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Nannings of Grand Rapids.

Miss Van Driel is a 1968 graduate of Lowell High School. Mr. Nannings, a 1963 graduate of Kentwood High School, is part owner of a heating and air conditioning concern.

The engagement of Miss Donna Jean Dilly to Gary C. Laux, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Laux of Belding, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dilly of Lowell.

Miss Dilly is a 1969 graduate of Western Michigan University. Her fiancé is a Lowell businessman.

A June 20 wedding is being planned.

All About Lowell

BY CECILE CROWNINGER 897-8597

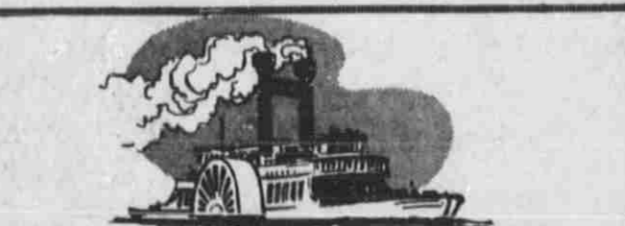

Captain Robert Gallagher, home from Viet Nam on emergency leave at the death of his father, Patrick Gallagher of Lake Odessa, was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil DeRushia and Mary. The Gallagher family were formerly residents of Lowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Jessup attended the Legislative Issues Seminar, sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches, at the Lansing Civic Center last week Wednesday. They spent the night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gilmore, and had lunch Thursday with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ronald Jessup.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thorne and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thorne attended the Junior College Band Concert at Fountain Street Baptist Church Sunday evening. Miss Toni Thorne was a member of the band.

Reservations for the District B. and P. W. meeting must be made with Mrs. Irene Osborne before April 8th.

Two cousins in the Bancroft family were baptized Sunday morning by Rev. Beulah Poe, at the Alto Methodist Church. Pamela Sue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Sterzick; and Ronald David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Bancroft, Ronald extends the R. D. Bancroft name to the fourth generation. After the church services Mr. and Mrs. Lutha Sterzick had dinner with their son and family at the home of the latter. And the Bancrofts, including the two grandmothers, Dey and Bancroft, went to the home of Pancakes for breakfast.

Another coincidence occurred in the Alto Methodist Church Sunday morning when a young uncle and his niece were baptized; Kim Anthony, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wittenbach, and Tricia Kathleen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wittenbach.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blocher of Lowell are honoring their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Blocher on their Silver Anniversary Sunday, April 5, with Open House at Snow Community Hall on Snow Avenue north of 36th Street, from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. An open invitation is extended to all relatives and friends.

Grand Rapids Chapter 10 of the American Society of Women Accountants held their 27th annual Public Relations dinner at Blythefield Country Club last Tuesday evening with Mgr. Hugh Michael Beahan as guest speaker. Attending from Lowell were member Donna Jean Ford, her guests Mr. and Mrs. Evert Wittenbach and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wittenbach, and representing the Lowell business and Professional Women, Irene Osborne and Ila Melle.

From the Ada area were president elect Martha Szudzik, her husband Raymond and guests Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Grooters. Also attending were Mr. William Halliday of Amway Corporation and Mrs. Halliday.

Mrs. Frank Marsh, longtime Lowell resident, it confined to a nursing home while she continues to recuperate from a broken hip incurred last fall. She is showing fine progress and is able to get around a bit with a walker. The days are still long and she would welcome mail or visits from her Lowell friends. Her address is 3180 Washington Avenue, Grandville, Michigan.

MRS. DONALD AYERS

Forest Hills Hi-Lites Baubles, Bangles and Beads Turn Eggs into Treasures

BY SHIRLEY DYGERT 676-3721

Jim DeYoung, sixth grader at Collins, is in the midst of a fun and valuable experience. With money he had saved and some help from his parents, he was able to take off from Chicago in a jet last Sunday and fly west to meet his grandparents. By the time that his parents returned here from Chicago, he had already visited an Indian reservation and walked a golf course. Jim will be gone for about three weeks. In that time he will visit a university campus at Fresno, see the Petrified Forest, Las Vegas, Disneyland, and the Grand Canyon.

Jim will drive back with his grandparents, the Mart Bruinkins, as they finish their vacation.

Jack Norden celebrated his eighteenth birthday at the Coach Stop in Ada with his co-workers Dottie Polgase, Judy Roche-lean, Jean Starnard, and Phyl and Tom Johnson. A large cake with candles was the piece de resistance following the luncheon in his honor.

By the way, notice to all Coach Stop lovers, the restaurant will be closed on Easter Sunday... too bad for those who had wanted to have a special dinner there, but the Johnsons decided that they would like a family day too.

Good news for FH wrestling fans... Curt Thon took a third in a variety match at Michigan Tech and Larry Cardinel really went all out and got himself a fourth in the Mid-America.

The Thornapple Valley Stumpwater Collectors Society held the Rites of Spring party last weekend. The Dan Hallerators were the hosts at the sumptuous dinner with its breezy theme. The favors for the ladies were bottles of April Violets cologne and each received a bird call. The tables were set for four all over the house and each was respondent with a spring bouquet.

The Forest Hills Country Club will be holding a buffet entitled Portrait of Spring on April 8 for members and guests. Drawings for prizes and a program by Chris Panopolos will be features. He will be showing wigs, wigs, and hair stylings and his wife Joan will give a make-up demonstration.

The Thornapple Lions are planning a Spring Party to be held on April 10 at the new Howard Johnson Motor Lodge on 28th Street. There will be cold buffet with hot German potato salad. Music will be played by the Lyle Stovall Trio and the fun is expected to start at 9 p.m. and run until 1 in the a.m. The chairman of the party are Chuck Weston and David Annibell, well known entrepreneurs. Should be a gay affair and one that will start the season with a carefree attitude.

Lowell High Band Offers Calendars

The Lowell High School band will once again offer for sale their popular community calendar. Birthdays and anniversaries of families purchasing a calendar will be listed, along with school, club, and church activities for the year.

Band members are now taking orders, and the calendars will be available in September. Proceeds will go into the uniform fund.

Library Greets Spring

Spring has sprung at the Lowell Public Library, with gaily colored bulletin boards decorated for Easter by Anita Hahn. The shelves are bursting with many light and lively novels for spring-time reading. On display are many garden books with ideas for vegetable and flower gardens. Also available are many fine records, including some timely ones of Easter music. PAPER TABLECLOTH - 300" X 400" - roll, $4.00 at the LEDGER-SUBURBAN LIFE office, 106 North Broadway, Lowell.

What's Your Health Problem?

HEADACHE
Headache due to structural disorders of the upper spine is a recurrent type headache at the base of the skull. It may begin as a dull ache at the base of the skull and progress to a piercing pain that radiates to the top of the head and along the sides of the head to the temples and behind the eyes. Pressure along the course of pain may reveal "tender spots" in the scalp and extreme tenderness at the junction of the base of the skull and the neck over the area of the first spinal segment. Because of the associated pain and muscle spasm along the back of the neck, the condition is frequently confused with the muscle tension type headache. There may also be an associated dizziness and nausea that has sometimes led to the condition being erroneously called migraine. Headache which is due to structural disorders of the upper spine may be present in the morning and gradually disappear during the day only to return in late afternoon or evening. X-Ray and clinical studies show that the "spinal headache" is due to an alteration in the normal alignment and range of motion of the upper two or three spinal segments. This structural or mechanical defect tends to occlude the nerve openings located between adjacent vertebrae. The upper spinal nerves which pass through the occluded nerve openings are compressed and irritated. The result is pain along the course of the nerves as they supply the scalp and neck muscles. Colorful Missionary Film to Premiere

The Kentwood-Forest Hills premiere of a colorful new missionary film, "For Christ's Sake," will be held on Sunday, March 29, at 9 p.m., at the East Paris Christian Reformed Church. The new, feature-length sound motion picture has been produced for the Reformed Bible Institute of Grand Rapids, in connection with its 30th anniversary. Since its founding in 1940, over 1,045 students have completed one or more years of study at the school, and several hundred alumni are serving in evangelist or missionary assignments throughout the world. "For Christ's Sake" provides a close-up of 27 of these alumni in action, including Mr. David Northouse, Minister of Evangelism, East Paris Christian Reformed Church. About 30,000 miles of travel went into the production of the film. Dr. Dick L. Van Halsema, President of RBI, journeyed with two Grand Rapids men, Donald Bratt, director, and Ernest Czetti, photographer, to various points in the United States, Japan, Taiwan, the Philippines, Ceylon, India, and England. Shooting began in May of 1969 and production was completed in January.

Mrs. Bert Blank 66-3454

The W.M.A. ladies met with Mrs. Doris Sawdy for their regular meeting and election of officers Thursday evening, March 12. After the Devotions and business the evening was spent with visiting and the eight members were served a nice desert lunch by JoAnn and Karen Sawdy. Rev. Lee Palmer and family were Saturday evening guests of the Steve Barnums at Woodland. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Zook and family; Rev. Harry Schrock and family; the Marvin Jantz family of Augers; and Rev. Oldenburg, speaker at the Bowne Mennonite Church, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hoffman at Logan. Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gray of Clarksville were Saturday callers of mother, Mrs. Blank. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Myers and daughter of Freeport were Sunday evening guests of the Keith Fox family. Mr. and Mrs. Keith Fox were Monday evening visitors of mother, Mrs. Ida Fox, of So. Bowne. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Zook and family; Rev. Harry Schrock and family; the Marvin Jantz family of Augers; and Rev. Oldenburg, speaker at the Bowne Mennonite Church, were Sunday dinner guests of Rev. Daniel Zook and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thompson were Tuesday evening visitors of Mrs. Ethel Blank. I was partially in error when I recently reported a social note regarding Gary Groyer, who was back home for a week from the Eastern Mennonite school. He is not a graduate this year as stated. Sorry.

STAR CORNERS Mrs. Ira Blough 868-2507

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller, with the Home Builders Class of Calvary Church, enjoyed dinner at Fingers Restaurant Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Russ Swanson and son Jeffrey were Tuesday dinner guests of their mother, Mrs. Esther Swanson, at Grand Rapids. Mr. and Mrs. David Krebs and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Robert (Bob) Krebs of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Russ Swanson and Jeffrey and John Krebs were Sunday evening dinner guests of the George Krebs. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Heasley and two daughters of Grand Rapids spent Saturday afternoon at the Francis Shaffer home. Mrs. Margaret Olinsky and Mrs. Evelyn Batey of Grand Rapids were Monday afternoon callers. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan K. Blough and family, Mrs. Ray Barber of Lowell and Miss Marva Anderson of Alto were Sunday evening lunch guests at the Ira Blough home. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fox were honor guests at a surprise "open house" given by their children at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Meyers at Freeport Sunday afternoon to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. Several relatives and friends from this area attended. We extend our congratulations to Treva and Carl. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Seese of Freeport called at the Francis Seese home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. George Krebs accompanied Mrs. George Kowalczyk of South Bowne to a Credit Union supper at Ramona Terrace Saturday evening. Yolanda, Pamela and Diane Miller were Saturday overnight guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Freeman Hoffman. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Seese, Fred Fuss and sister Hanna, Harold Krebs and Leo Bryant were last week callers at Ira Blough's. Mrs. Lois Kaufman of Kalamazoo spent the weekend at home. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller and daughters were Friday supper and evening guests at the Ovid Miller home at Morrison Lake. Several friends and relatives called on Mrs. Alex Wingier last week.

Kent Benefits Top $10-Million

Robert M. FitzGerald, manager of the Michigan Veterans Administration Regional Office in Detroit, disclosed today that the VA spent $10,633,214 in Kent County to aid veterans during fiscal 1969. This includes $1,092,198 in compensation and pensions.

Funds spent in Kent County, FitzGerald said, also included $1,450,479 for readjustment and vocational rehabilitation, and $17,500 for insurance and indemnities. Regional office expenditures and hospital operating costs in the state of Michigan amounted to $49,324,901. The VA also spent $311,472 in Michigan for construction and related costs.

According to FitzGerald, the VA is the third largest Federal Agency and operates the largest (166) hospital network in the free world, as well as administering one of the biggest insurance programs in the nation.

Named Food Sanitarian

Appointment of Edward J. Wykes as chief food sanitarian for Kent County and Grand Rapids has been announced by Dr. W. B. Prothro, Kent County Public Health Director.

Wykes, a Grand Rapids food inspector for the past twenty-five years, has been in charge of city food inspection since 1968 when the city and county health departments were merged.

A state food service inspection act that went into effect in January, 1969, gave the county health department the responsibility of inspecting all retail food operations. Prior to the act, municipalities could exempt themselves from food inspection.
