It's Cold Out There!

Snow, bitter cold, winds, and more snow is the top news about the area this week . . . for most people. Coming almost four years to-date, after the record breaking storm in 1967, it seems we're destined for the same results. The storm that struck the area last Tuesday morning dropped off in its severity Wednesday, but picked up where it left off Friday evening, causing residents and motorists to again find themselves stranded or just plain buried via the roadway.

The snow that fell was not heavy, but blustery winds made visibility near zero, and dropped the wind-chill factor to something like 20-30 below zero.

Friday night, motorists who traveled the snow-laden highways found themselves in sticky situations. Sometimes the roadways were closed to one-lane traffic only, and others were pegged as impassible.

Saturday's snow fall was light, as the storm seemed to take on a settled aspect, but Sunday saw the thermometers hit new, below zero temperatures, causing area residents to stick pretty close to the home fires.

Monday morning the temperature continued on a downward trend. Many workers were late on-the-job as their transportation vehicles failed to make the starting times.

Local industry was the hardest hit by the bitter cold as workers, in some instances, were forced to leave their jobs because of the cold climatic conditions.

Tuesday, temperatures registered in the 15-20 below bracket, and offered no relief for those who had to brave the outside weather. Besides getting their cars started, a lot of residents found themselves trying desperately to unfreeze frozen apparatus around the household.

Stamps from a self-service vending machine, located in the lobby of the Lowell Post Office, will be in-service.

This change in service is part of a recognition of the change in mailing habits of many postal customers, and is being incorporated by other post offices in the state.

Mail will continue to be collected, processed and delivered as heretofore.

Library To Host Kids Film Festival

"The Reel World," a seven-week children's film festival, will be held at the Lowell Library on Saturdays at 10:30 from February 13-April 3. Each program will be about 45 minutes in length.

The films, selected especially for their quality and appeal, are part of the film collection of the Kent County Library System of which the Lowell Library is a member.

The February schedule includes films of particular interest to children in the elementary grades: February 13 — "The Red Balloon" and "I Know an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Fly;" February 20 — "In the Forest," "Naica and the Squirrels," and "Nose to the Wind;" February 27 — "Alexander and the Car With the Missing Headlight," "The Chairy Tale," and "The Little Train."

The films, which will be shown during March, have proven popular with junior high people: March 6 — "Blind Bird," March 13 — "Beaver Valley" and "A Land Betrayed;" March 20 — a program of comedy headed by "Silent Comedies Headliners."

"Rabbit Hills" based on the ever-popular book by Robert Lawson will be shown on April 3.

Although there is no admission charge, the seating space at the Library is limited. Advance tickets, which will insure your child a seat, are available at the Library.

Board Reveals Agenda For Monday's Meeting

A variety of problems will be discussed at the meeting of the Lowell Board of Education Monday evening, February 8.

As the board members assemble in the Senior High School Library at 7:30 p.m. the first topic on the evening's agenda will be the request for a property transfer.

An important item on the agenda, which is expected to be held in long discussion is a reduction in State Aid, that is proposed and will heavily effect the school's system.

Other items listed, to be fully evaluated at the meeting are: a request for a pregnancy leave of absence; participation in Michigan State University's Teaching Extern-Intern Program; and the school's participation in the Grand Rapids Art Museum School Program.

The Poor Consumer!

The fate of business this year will depend to a great extent on how the consumer acts.

The poor consumer! Bedeviled by inflated prices, high taxes, unemployment, a sick stock market (apparently recovering now), he has socked away the money he could spare. In December record deposits were made in mutual savings banks and in savings and loan associations.

Even commercial banks, with their lower interest rates for savers, showed large gains in deposits. The banks have so much money now that it's embarrassing. They're having trouble lending it out—and lend they must if they are to make profits.

Despite sanguine economic predictions by government officials, the consumer does not seem about to embark on a spending spree. Sad memories of the last year or so are too fresh; and the consumer is still shouldering $100 billion in installment debt incurred in rosier days.

Board Welcomes Members

Lowell's YMCA Board met Thursday evening, January 28, to welcome its new members and elect a slate of officers for the coming year.

Roger Roberts was re-elected to serve as chairman of the board; Stan Gardner will be the vice-chairman, and Mrs. Beverly Anderson will serve as secretary.

The newly-elected board members include the Rev. Dean Bailey, Roger Roberts, Mrs. Harold Ball and Donald Kelly.

New Home Permits Reach Record For 1970 In City

New construction in the City of Lowell, including a gain in home building, reached an all-time high of $905,000 during 1970.

This was the report from City Manager/Assessor Blaine E. Bacon, who released the figures for the previous 12 months last week in a comparison chart with 1969 and 1968.

Total construction, including residential, commercial and institutional development, and miscellaneous permits for additions and remodeling totaled $1,025,920; $405,510 higher than in 1969.

Bacon's Annual Building Permit report revealed the following figures:

ALONG MAIN STREET

For those of us who are not quite ready to accept the judgment of weather satellites and all the predictions of forecasts, the time-honored prophet of the elements, the Groundhog, was to have made his annual appearance Tuesday, February 2. . . if his shadow was visible, he went back underground for six more weeks of winter . . . what is your prediction, did he, or didn't he?

Despite the snows that have fallen in the past two weeks, the Main Street businessmen are to be complimented on their efforts to keep the sidewalks clear for pedestrian travel . . . the only hazard comes when one goes to cross an intersection and is required to climb the back-throw from the city's plows.

"We just don't have enough hands," "Our servicemen are all out right now, and it will be at least an hour before we'll be able to get there," are remarks that have been made repeatedly by the town's service station attendants this week as the thermometers hit new lows and a lot of cars just didn't want to start . . . cars are like humans, there are times when they just don't want to get started either.

A "Good Samaritan" is hard to find these days . . . but during Friday morning's raging snow storm Jeff MacLaren of Smyrna stopped to aid a distressed motorist who was stuck in her driveway . . . without a hat on, and no gloves, MacLaren jacked the ladies' car up, shoveled it out, and aided her to recovery . . . chivalry is not dead, yet!

The outlook for construction, remodeling, etc., is unpredictable for 1971, as the weather. Despite the climb in building costs, it is predicted, however, that the average price of new homes built will drop; the new homes will be smaller and have fewer frills according to contractors.

With no permits for commercial or industrial construction being issued in 1970; City officials are looking for an increase in these areas in 1971; provided economic conditions hit a favorable upward trend.

Award Winning Airsled

In this day when snowmobiles are becoming a common sight in Michigan, an airsled is a rarity. Alex Adastik, however, is a prize winning local inventor who designed and built an airsled that travels on three runners with the aid of a seventy-horse-power Continental engine.

It was the late Jim Robbins, Indianapolis race car owner and sportsman, who after viewing the plans for the airsled, commissioned Adastik to build the current model. He wanted it for hunting in the Dakotas where he owned extensive lands and a large lodge.

The length of the sled is fifteen feet with a seven-foot width. It is constructed with an aircraft tubular chassis with a one-eighth inch plywood body covered with fiberglass and epoxy paint. Adastik has had it traveling up to fifty miles an hour on snow.

Following the untimely death of Robbins, in an aircraft accident just before he was to take delivery of the airsled, Adastik entered the craft in the Fifth Annual International Rod and Custom Car Show in Grand Rapids last month. It took first prize and won the designer a large trophy in the Airsled Division.

Although this particular sled was begun in 1967, there was a period of time during which Adastik did not work on it. He resumed his labors last year, completing it last summer.

However, airsleds were nothing new to Adastik. He has been designing and building such craft since 1955. Some of the older models were enclosed. He knows of one that went to Montana where it is still in use. Another was purchased to transport students to school in South Dakota. That was powered by an old Model A engine.

But it isn't all fine sledding with Adastik. He is also interested in air boats, airplanes, cars, go-karts, and hovercraft. The latter will be his next project. Something with an air cushion that can hover over land or water. Vehicles aside, he also is interested in phase converters.

The Adastik shop, which is behind his home on Grand River Drive, is filled with editions of magazines of the mechanical nature. Alex decides the lack of young men who are interested in "tinkering." His own son, Dan, built an electric bicycle that had other motorists confused. Seeing him riding it on the road they could tell something had been added, but expecting a conventional gasoline motor, they were astounded at the lack of sound. Actually Dan's bicycle was powered with two twelve-volt batteries. He is presently serving in the United States Army with a medical unit in Germany.

Adastik is a member of the Sport Aviation Experimental Aircraft Association. He also has a job that many men would envy, he is on the staff of the U.S. Auto Club Technical Committee. As such, he is a car-watcher every year at the Indianapolis Raceway during the time trials. After the trials, he follows a specific car throughout its entire mechanical checking trip, before and after the races.

Adastik, who is employed at Thierca, Incorporated, is looking for a buyer of the airsled so that he can get on with his next project, the hovercraft. In preparation he is building a landing area on the Grand River. Now he just has to wait for the ice to melt.

BOARD VOTES NO ON REQUEST FOR MOBILE PARK REZONING

At the monthly meeting of the Cascade Township Board, clouds of legalese floated in the basement room where fifteen interested citizens had gathered on Monday evening.

The three lawyers present were discussing the long-time problem of a mobile home park in the township. Walter Freihofer, attorney for the township; Jon DeWitt representing the Garner Corporation of Detroit; and Dale Rhodes who spoke for a group of residents of the area, were heard.

Following discussions, the fall-out resulted in a three-to-two vote in favor of denying the request of the Garner Corporation to have the board rezone two parcels of land to D-1, residential on 28th Street.

A brief history of the Garner Corporation's attempts to build the mobile home park on a site located on the south side of 28th Street near the village was presented by DeWitt. A rezoning had been requested on May 27, 1970, following hearings on the park plans.

The zoning ordinance was rewritten at that time by the Planning Commission and approved by the Board to become constitutional. However, the amendment adopted by the board was declared void by the courts at a later date. In turn, this seems to have voided the entire ordinance.

"My clients and I feel somewhat in limbo," declared DeWitt. "We have complied in all respects with the ordinance as amended prior to the time the ordinance was struck down. Therefore, we would like to have the board rezone the area for the rezoning now, and then put in the new building restrictions in the new ordinance."

Freihofer commented, "He is asking you to take application and in effect rezone to D-1 in line with the Planning Commission's recommendation." DeWitt: "For the specific use of mobile homes."

Patterson: "Subject to specific plans and specifications. I understand that the Planning Commission has a Citizens Committee working on problem of lot sizes."

Rhodes: "My clients have asked you to carry provisions in the amendment commensurate with Cascade's standards. We have sought the standards to be imposed on the mobile home development."

DeWitt: "Let's get the rezoning accomplished so that we can get going. Insure that the Garner Construction Company builds its park along with standards that will be imposed with all that is built in Cascade. An attempt has been made to work out reasonable standards. I think Rhodes wants standards that would apply to single family homes. If so, I think there would be a referendum."

Rhodes: "Many meetings have been held, but formal steps are behind us. Relative to standards, it is interesting to note DeWitt's favorable response. There is the possibility that the board would agree. DeWitt wants to avoid those standards. He can have a court declare them unconstitutional if he is really concerned. Don't let this board be used for an end-run. Don't let Garner have a special deal."

Miner Cook: "Rhodes seems to think that there is a push to bring this into court. On the other hand, I have had mobile home parks up to here. We have worked on this problem for twelve years and I am tired of it."

"Now the completion of the property is about to change. There will be a road alongside by next year. This land might be more valuable as something else than a mobile home park. I suggest that the request be denied."

No sooner had the request been turned down than DeWitt asked for a rezoning of that part of the property which holds one hundred and sixty-seven sites as originally planned for the park. Following a recess for a caucus, the board recommended that it take no action until someone could review the entire history of the property.

In other action the board appointed Charles "Sandy" Burlingham to represent it on the Utility Advisory Board of Kent County.

The board declared that the Young Marine camp on Thornapple River Drive must be vacated by April 1. It had been in violation of residential zoning.

Regarding the problem of solid waste disposal, the board moved to join the City of Grand Rapids in a contract that will allow licensed haulers from the township to participate. Private citizens belonging to municipalities who are members may also use the facilities by paying a gate fee. The nearest location to Cascade Township will be the Kentwood site.

Final approval was granted to two plots, Hidden Hills No. 2 and Cascade Woods. The latter is located off Cascade Springs Drive. A request for street lights in Maracaibo Shores was also approved.

Married Saturday

Mrs. Natusa of Lowell was the Matron of Honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Brower of Alto and Mrs. Dale Finkler of Lowell.

Serving as best man was Frank J. McMahon of Lowell. Groomsmen were Patrick Myers and Michael McMahon, both of Lowell, and the ushers were David and Mark Blanding.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers will reside in Lowell.

Forest Hills Hi-Lites

BY SHIRLEY DYGERT

Just imagine having been where the balmy breezes blow during the last couple of weeks. On their way south to the Florida Keys, the John Hancock and the Nevas Stars visited nine historic houses in Tennessee.

The homes, all open to the public, are administered by the Association for Preservation of Tennessee Antiquities and are scattered throughout the state.

They include: Belle Meade Mansion, Nashville; Crockett Tavern, Morristown; the Craven House on the side of Lookout Mountain, near Chattanooga; Pansy House, east of Knoxville; Crayfont, near Gallatin; Carter House, Franklin; the Brazelton Cabin, between New Market and Jefferson City; the Lee House, Memphis, and its neighbor, the Fontaine House.

One of the warmest parties given for June Bracketton who is to become the bride of Jonathan Moseley on Saturday was the "June Picnic" arranged by Sylvia Montez. The hostess filled her home with bundles of flowers, most real, some artificial; turned up the heat a little, and invited her guests to wear their prettiest cottons.

Gifts for the bride-to-be were along the picnic lines, i.e. a huge hamper furnished by Sylvia ended filled with unbreakable plates, stainless tableware, paper and cloth tablecloths and napkins, salt and peppers, and containers for everything from casseroles to mustard.

The guests which included Jeanne Montez, Mary Harding, Helen Baccomb, Ruth Wanders, Phyllis Markley, and Edith Anderson, also tried their hands at cooking winners in the fireplace and smores for dessert.

Other guests joining in the fun of summer in winter were Teckla Hammerstew, Mary Anne Muggins, Judith Candow, and Joanne Candow.

If you have any idea that you want to get in on some of Mrs. Quigley's famous Chicken 'n' Biscuit dinner this year, you had better hurry to purchase your tickets. There is a limit of 400 and when they are gone, that's all, folks!

The dinner will be held on Saturday, February 13, with servings at 4:30, 5:15 and 6 p.m. at the Cascade Christian Church.

At Ada Congregational Church, the members are saying their regrets to their choir director, Patsy Clark, who had to resign her position due to the ill health of her father in Texas.

Deep disappointment was felt by hundreds as the weatherman through some perverseness not understood by mere mortals, decided to cancel the Woodland Invitational wrestling match on Saturday. Those unhappy souls included the wrestlers of eight conferences, the coaching staff, the parents, fans, and all of the people who had worked so hard to decorate the gym, play the music and prepare the food.

But this sort of unexpected activity of Mother Nature goes along with living in Michigan . . . if you were elsewhere, there could be other problems. Coach Chuck Matthews spent most of the morning trying to get the Adrian team members into a match at Union. They had arrived the day before and were being housed with generous families in the area. As it turned out, two other teams did arrive from Battle Creek and Niles-Brandywine schools. The four teams held a round-robin and the boys got in their wrestling although no trophies were presented.

Dresses are being pressed and shoes are being polished by those who plan to attend the annual Snow-Ball at Forest Hills High School on Saturday. The Sevyn will play the music while the semi-formal party-goers enjoy a night out. Several couples plan to have dinner before or light suppers after the dance.

The king and queen will be crowned in ceremonies at the dance. The court was selected on Monday and Tuesday from which the royal pair will be elected.

Have you been re-cycling lately? Don't forget to dump those old glass bottles in the containers at the three local stores. They were provided by the Girl Scouts for your use. It's easy to get out of the habit in this weather, but pollution control is a never-ending effort.

As a reminder since Earth Day, the East Grand Rapids Library is presenting a special film, The Gifts, on Thursday, February 11, at 8 p.m.

The Thornapple Community Theatre is planning its Spring production. It will present "How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying."

This vehicle satisfies all requirements for family entertainment. It is crisp and breezy, loaded with laughs and songs, and one that children can understand as well as adults. Watch for audition dates.

A LITTLE CLOSE — Gets Arrow Forward Joe Rinard (No. 43) when he attempted to block the shot of an oncoming Cooperwille shooter. Teammates Pete Olson, Chris Collins, and Denny DeWitt look on, awaiting a rebound.

ARROWS FALL TO COOPERSVILLE

Basketball Spectators, Players Stranded...

BY BROOKE JOHNSON

The Lowell Arrow Cagers scoring was held to their season low as they were stopped by the Cooperwille Broncos 39-70 in what proved to be one of the longest stays at the visitor's court yet.

Because of the blizzard which pushed drifts as high as four feet across the roads the Lowell spectator and player buses remained at the Cooperwille High School overnight until the roads were clear enough for their return trip Saturday morning.

Along with the student spectators were a large number of teachers and parents who acted as chaperones.

When the verdict to remain at Cooperwille overnight was reached, bus driver George Day and Mrs. Bernard Hendricks began taking names of the students staying overnight to allow school officials to notify parents of the situation.

Served Meals
Cooperwille school officials and personnel extended a warm welcome to their Lowell visitors and provided mats in the gymnasium for the students to sleep on.

Along with the aid of Lowell Hot Lunch Supervisor Mrs. Verel Bovee, the Cooperwille staff served a late night snack to the stranded victims, and a breakfast Saturday morning.

The buses returned to Lowell around 8:30 Saturday morning after a 15 1/2 hour trip to see the game.

The Arrow's slowest scoring game of the season produced another mark in the Arrow's defeat column.

Last week Arrow guard Denny DeWitt was the leading scorer in the Tri-River Conference but this week's game placed him second behind Cooperwille forward. DeWitt's scoring was held at 11 points, compared to Hendrickson's 23.

Johnson Out
The Arrows were hampered by the loss of starting guard Blake Johnson who went out early in the first quarter with an ankle injury which may put him out of action for the next two or three games.

Veteran guard Pete Olson scored only one point, but fed forward Joe Rinard who picked up four points and guard Chris Collins who notched in nine points.

Lowell worked the ball well in the first quarter, but unfortunately, the Arrow forwards were at odds with the much taller Cooperwille team.

Forward Jim Bovee came on in the 4th quarter and scored five points. The Arrows hit a little less than 40 percent at the charity line.

This week Friday the Arrows played host to their fellow classmates, the Cedar Springs Red Hawks at 8.

	Field Goals	Free Throws	Fouls	Total Points
Denny DeWitt	5	4	4	11
Chris Collins	4	1/4	2	9
Jim Bovee	2	1/3	2	5
Joe Rinard	1	2/8	5	4
Denny Kissinger	2	1	4	4

Title Hopes Brightened By Two Big Victories

The Lowell Junior Varsity Basketball team moved back into title contention with a big 72-63 win over Greenville.

The Red Arrows are now in second place with Greenville. Belting still leads the league, but Lowell will play Belting the last league game of the year.

The Arrows played a fine overall game with four of the five starters in double figures. Joe Ellis and Kris Kropf led with 17 points each, followed by James Harden with 15, Dan Murphy with 11, and Tom Wernet with eight. Wernet's 19 rebounds made up for his lack of double figure scoring.

Lowell trailed by four points at half time but fine third and fourth quarters made the difference. The Arrows shot 439 percent from the floor.

Controls Broncos
Lowell ventured to Cooperwille for a game with the tall Broncos and immediately took control of the game. The fast breaking Arrows took 9-17-3 first quarter lead, combining a stingy defense out rebounding the taller Broncos 19-10. The second quarter was another big one as the Arrows roared to a 39-16 half-time lead.

Substitutes Play
The third quarter saw many substitutions and the fourth quarter was played entirely by substitutes. All 15 Lowell players played at least a quarter, with nine of them scoring. Leading scorer was Kris Kropf with 20 points, Joe Ellis with 14, Dan Murphy with 12, Tom Wernet with 10 and Rusty Steffens with six. Lowell completely dominated the boards, bringing down 51 rebounds to the tall Broncos' 21. Lowell shot 444 from the floor and .700 from the free throw line, making 21 of 30 attempts.

Lowell will play host to the Cedar Springs J.V.'s at 6:30 at Lowell this Friday.

UP — Goes Denny Kissinger to rebound a missed shot of an opponent in the Cooperwille-Lowell game which ended with the Arrows behind 39-70.

Coach Recognized For 'Pursuing Excellence'

An open letter, which was included in the Woodland Invitational wrestling match program, and written by Athletic Director, Edward Shy, honored Coach Chuck Mathews of Forest Hills High School.

Although the match was canceled because of inclement weather, the letter still stands, according to Shy. It reads:

"The philosophy of pursuing excellence, outsmarting your opponent, and constantly applying competitive pressure; along with the 3 D's of Discipline, Dedication, and Desire have made Coach Chuck Mathews one of the most respected coaches in Michigan and his teams are one of the most feared.

In addition to developing the best in a skilled athlete, Coach Mathews has the ability to take a boy with physical limitations and develop him into a respectable wrestler, and often a champion. Never has a boy, willing to pay the price, ever gone down hill under the tutelage of Mr. Mathews as self-confidence on the mat is a hallmark of his competitors.

Also, Chuck Mathews excels in his attention to the details that often go unnoticed, such as purchasing and caring for equipment, organizing tournaments, and preparing a statistical handbook at the season's end.

I am proud to have a man of Coach's calibre on our staff and hope he has many more successful seasons at Forest Hills."

Kenneth Anderson Gets Re-elected To MTA Board

Recently re-elected by his peers to the Board of Directors of the Michigan Township Association for a fourth term, Kenneth B. Anderson, Clerk of Ada Township, takes pride in the organization's ability to "get things done."

"The association was instrumental in arranging auditing classes at Kellogg Center last year for township clerks and accountants. It was organized so that they could learn identical methods and uniform procedures pertaining to their positions." The state treasurer's office sent representatives to the classes in order to aid in the program.

Under the auspices of the MTA another session will be presented in May, 1971, for newly elected officials and those who have not previously participated. Mr. Anderson said that it is mandatory for every township with a population of over two thousand to hold a yearly audit.

In addition, Mr. Anderson said that the MTA has a registered lobby in the state legislature where it is able to pass resolutions regarding townships. Anderson sits on the Resolution Committee of the board of the Fifth Congressional District which includes Kent and Ionia Counties.

"Strength Through Education" was the theme of the most recent three-day convention held by the MTA in Grand Rapids under Executive Director, Colonel Joseph Parisi, at Grand Rapids and Ionia Counties.

"We are aiming for a one hundred percent membership of Michigan's townships; we have almost that now," claimed Anderson. "We meet four times a year to pursue policies for local government."

Mr. Anderson said that he will be re-elected to the annual Board of Review sessions to be held February 12, 1971, in Fremont for the west-central portion of the Michigan Tax Commission. He also is active in the annual district meetings at which speakers from State offices are on the agenda to educate and inform all township officers.

Chaplain Most will discuss his work with prisoners and how he asks them to put their lives in the hands of God. The meeting will be at the church. All are welcome.

Initiated Into SigmaDelta Chi

Fifty-four student and professional journalists from the mid-Michigan area, including Linda Clark of Lowell, a Junior at Central Michigan University, will be initiated into Sigma Delta Chi (SDX), a national professional journalistic society this Friday, February 5.

Miss Clark, a Journalism major at CMU, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clark, of Route 2, Lowell.

The CMU chapter, a local organization for the past three years, was unanimously invited to join Sigma Delta Chi at its annual convention last fall in Chicago.

Frank Angelo, managing editor of the Detroit Free Press and past national president of SDX, will present the CMU chapter with its charter. Keynote speaker for the event will be Al Fitzpatrick, news editor of the Akron Beacon Journal, who supervised the newroom coverage of last spring's Kent State University incident.

To be eligible for membership in Sigma Delta Chi, a student must plan on some aspect of journalism as a profession. Besides the print media, members are sought from broadcast journalism and journalism education.

When a student graduates from college, he can then join the professional chapter in the area of his employment. SDX is the only national-international professional organization for journalists. It has over 21,000 members in its 216 chapters.

The Central Michigan University Chapter is the largest student chapter in Michigan and the second largest in the Mid-West.

A special film, open to all, entitled "The Gifts" will be presented in color Thursday, February 11, at 8 p.m., in the East Grand Rapids Public Library at 740 Lakeside Drive.

"The Gifts" is a new documentary film about the American Landscape and what has happened to it during the course of the past two and a half centuries. It is not about dirty water. It is a film about beauty and the spoiling of beauty and the undermining of greatness.

The film is narrated by Lorne Greene, with original music by Skitch Henderson, from a script by Robert McBride.

Mrs. Joan Wolf, West Michigan Environmental Action Council, will introduce the film and relate to the community. The Land Betrayed, a Kent County Library film showing action taken by citizens against the creeping ugliness in America will close the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Club To Meet
The Mr. and Mrs. Club of Ada Community Reformed Church will hold an open meeting on Friday, February 12, at 8 p.m. The guest speaker will be Chaplain William Most of the Forgiven Man Mission.

Chaplain Most will discuss his work with prisoners and how he asks them to put their lives in the hands of God. The meeting will be at the church. All are welcome.

Retains Appointments For Two Year Term

State Representative Martin D. Butch (R-Comstock Park) has received his committee appointments for the next two years. Butch, who recently began his seventh term in the Michigan House has retained the appointments held previously.

He will continue to serve on the House Committee on Taxation and Roads and Bridges, of which he is the Republican Vice Chairman and ranking Republican. He will also serve on the Legislative Council for the Michigan House.

Butch said he was pleased to continue working in areas in which he is familiar. "Taxation and Roads and Bridges are areas which are especially important to the people of my district. Everyone is concerned that we do not raise taxes during this period of financial uncertainty in Michigan and I intend to work in this committee to prevent just this.

Our whole tax structure could be re-evaluated however, and especially in the area of the funding of public education. Taxes are on everyone's mind right now, and I feel my continued membership on this committee will give me a more effective voice for the interests of the people of my district." Both commented.

'Cupid's Deal'

"Cupid's Deal" All Games Party will be held in the auditorium at St. Paul the Apostle Church on Burton Street, Friday evening, February 5, at 8 o'clock.

St. Cecilia Circle members will hostess the event with Mrs. Edward L. Najar and Mrs. Orvano V. Tomasi co-chairmen of arrangements. Mrs. Jerome M. Smith is in charge of tickets.

A Valentine motif will be carried out by the decorating committee including Mrs. William M. Cary, Mrs. Joseph J. Panella and Mrs. Willard C. Moran.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Frederick L. Camling and Mrs. Earl Solberg; favors and prizes by Mrs. Ralph Campioni, and publicity by Mrs. James C. Norman.

Rural Mail Patrons Can Aid Delivery

Rural Route Carriers make every reasonable effort to serve the greatest number of customers possible during severe weather, using alternate routes or retracing when necessary.

They are not, however, required to provide service on foot when roads are impassable or should they be required to attempt to provide service by motor vehicle during periods of inclement weather that civil authorities consider road travel hazardous, and advise or request the public not to travel.

Customers are responsible for keeping approaches to their rural boxes clear of snow and all other obstructions which may make delivery of the mail difficult or at times impossible.

Kirk Haybarker, Kim Crook and Marta Schneider eye United Fund check presented to their groups.

Fund Benefactors

Checks totaling $425 were given this week to three organizations who benefited from the monies collected in the annual United Fund Campaign held last October.

Each year, a certain percentage of the amount collected is returned to Lowell for distribution to various civic groups by the Lowell Community Fund Board, consisting of four members from the Lowell Lions and Rotary Clubs.

Accepting a check for $200 for the Boy Scouts was Kirk Haybarker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Haybarker, North Hudson Street, Lowell. Kirk is a 4th grade student at Bushnell School and has been in the Cub Scouts for two years.

The $125 check appropriated to the Campfire Girls was accepted by Marta Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schneider, 800 Lincoln Lake Road, Lowell. Enrolled in the 5th grade in the Intermediate School, she was a Blue Bird prior to joining the Campfire Girls.

Kim Crook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Crook, 480 Hillside Court, Lowell, received the check for $100 awarded to the Girl Scout groups of the community. Kim a fifth grade student in the Intermediate School is a four-year veteran of the Girl Scouts.

In past years, the Lowell Community Fund Board has made contributions to the Youth for Understanding program, the Boy Scouts and the local YMCA.

An additional $500 forthcoming from the United Fund in April of this year, will be distributed among local groups, according to Dr. Robert Reagan, D.D.S., secretary-treasurer of the Fund Board.

Reappointed To Three House Committees

State Representative Stanley M. Powell (R-Ionia) has been reappointed to the three House committees he considers most pertinent to the interests of his legislative district and his own inclinations.

Representative Powell will be a vice chairman of the House Towns and Counties in the 1971-72 session, reflecting his long concern with local government. As a member of the Constitutional Convention, he said he was gratified to be reappointed to the Committee on Revision and Amendment of the Constitution.

Finally, as a life-long farmer, he will again serve on the Consumers and Agriculture Committee.

Committee assignments have much to do with determining the flow of legislation for the next two years. Representative Powell is beginning his fourth consecutive term in the House, in addition to a two-year stint from 1931-33.

Set Third Annual Snowmobile Race

The Grand Rapids Jaycees will host the Third Annual Grand Valley Snowmobile Race on the campus of Grand Valley State College in Allendale on Saturday, February 20.

Previous races have been held at Johnson Park in Grandville, but the Grand Valley State College site was chosen this year because paved parking, bleacher seating and adequate rest-room facilities for spectators and racers are available.

As in previous years, this race is sanctioned by the Michigan International Snowmobile Association and conforms to all of the standards, including driver and spectator safety regulations, of the M.I.S.A. Anyone age 14 or over may enter the races providing he or she is or becomes an M.I.S.A. "racing member" and pays the $10 race entry fee in addition to the regular M.I.S.A. membership fees.

It is anticipated that approximately 250 machines will be registered and will be racing for trophies and cash prizes of approximately $2,000.

Driver registrations will begin at the Grand Valley State College Fieldhouse promptly at 9 a.m. on Saturday, February 20, and will close at 11:30 a.m. Application for advance registration may be made by calling 534-2462 or writing Mr. Phil King, 2650 Earle S.W. in Grandville, Michigan 49418.

The first race will begin at 12:00 noon.

The meeting closed with the playing of Charades. On January 20, the group held a discussion on plans for future meetings. Games were played and the winners were awarded prizes.

Following the making of Valentines for the people in local rest homes, the Kilope group closed their meeting on January 27 by playing Charades.

Durene Collins, Scribe

The Lowell 4th grade Camp Fire group, with Mrs. David Coons as their leader, has chosen "Tao Kon Ya" as its Indian name.

This stands for "friendly singers," which represents the girls' wish to have fun and give service.

Members of the group are Cathy Baird, Etta Clelland, Tammy Fuller, Karen Kelly, Pam Phillips, Marcie Purcell and Sharon Wierenga.
