

ISLAND PARK-IT'S PAST, IT'S FUTURE

Back in the early 1900's one of the most talked about picnic areas was Lowell's beautiful Island Park . . . where you could stroll along its banks bordering the Flat River with your gal at your arm and enjoy the scenic duty that it had to offer. Added into a thing of the past and a mosquito haven when area residents lost interest in its continued support.

A lot of people have talked about it, some service groups have even considered it, but nobody has ever taken a solid stand and done something about it, until four energetic men of the community got together recently, and decided now was the time.

What we're talking about is the transformation of the small island on the Flat River (behind Art's TV and the Debonaire Shop) back to a picnic area; one that will hopefully be a product that the town will be proud of.

The work officially started last Saturday, when the do-gooders Larry Wittenbach, Chuck Lippert, Vince McCambridge and Carlen Anderson made their way over to the island, where, with brush cutters in hand they started the clearance phase of the endeavor.

The climax of their first day's work saw the island take on a new look, with Lippert being the victim of poison ivy, some sported new blisters, and others were just plain tired. What they need now is HELP!

There is a lot of work yet to be done if they are to have the island ready for the viewing of spectators during Centennial Week, and the scene of a Mardi Gras lobster bake prior to the opening of Showboat.

If you would like to volunteer your manpower, they will be glad to find a shovel, brush cutter or rake that isn't being used. One of the biggest tasks will be the construction of a catwalk like bridge that will carry the park traffic over the Flat River.

The bridge, one of the main reasons the park was originally abandoned, is the big problem facing the supporters. The early spring flooding conditions is one of the big factors involved in the type of bridge that is to be constructed. Some feel that it will have to be a removable structure, as a permanent fixture will not stand up under the swift moving current and icy conditions. A more affirmative decision will be made on this topic after they have contacted some of the construction firms in the area. They have already been donated a large pile of telephone poles, which could adequately be used for the bed of the bridge.

When the clearing of the island is done, the bridge set in place, then another phase of the renovation program will go into effect. The island will be dotted with picnic tables, grills, and other picnic aids. Perhaps this is where the local garden clubs could assist, by adding beautification to the island.

If time is permitting, and you can help, or if you would like to financially get behind this group and give them your support, contact the Lowell Chamber of Commerce, and they will tell you when the next work session will be.

What Was It?

Was it a whirlwind, a devil cloud, a dust blow, or what, is the questions that are being asked by residents along Lowellview Avenue, who witnessed as well as experienced a freak occurrence of weather between 5:30 and six o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Not carrying the velocity of a tornado, but forceful enough to carry a steel umbrella picnic table across a fence, lift a little girl off a truck and do considerable damage to homes in the area, one of the residents commented that it was "like nothing I'd seen before."

In talking to Mrs. George Miles of Lowellview Avenue, she related the experiences that took place around their home. "My children were playing in the yard when my oldest boy looked up to see his sister being lifted off a parked pickup truck. Using a level head, he grabbed her and summoned the other children to follow him to a safer area. Just then the swiftly moving demon picked up our picnic table and deposited it in our neighbor's yard, at the same time ripping shingles off the house, twisting our TV antenna and scattering debris around the yard."

After things had settled down, the Miles made several attempts to contact the weather bureau in hopes that they might find out what kind of tricks the weather was playing, and perhaps issue a warning to other residents in the area. But they came up against a blank wall, as each number they dialed offered them no help.

Area residents are reminded that if such an occurrence should happen in your neighborhood, reports should be made to the Department of Commerce National Weather Service, Local Forecast, 949-4253.

In a statement to the Lowell Ledger Tuesday morning, William Jones revealed his plans not to seek re-election to the Lowell Area Schools' Board of Education.

The deadline for filing petitions for the two openings on the board is Monday, May 17. The last day to register for the June 4 election is Friday, May 14.

Ivan Blough and his crew of workers who put the New Orleans motif in front of the Lippert Pharmacy on East Main Street, went to work again this week, but it's on West Main Street this time . . .

Their target this time is the McGee Building on the corner of Broadway and Main Street which houses the Lowell Cafe. Shooting for a completion date of Centennial Week, or thereabouts, the building is already sporting a paint job of gold, on its upper half.

Besides giving the building a new face, the owners have renovated the interior of the building with a new kitchen, paneling, paint, and hard work.

It's over the top for the Cancer Drive in the City. Chairman by Doris Boyd of the Lowell Business and Professional Women's Club, this year's drive has already reached a total of $1,075; this exceeds last year's drive proceeds of $1,072.

The final accounting of funds has yet to be made, but Mrs. Boyd and her workers are to be congratulated on a job well done.

Quick action last week by Lowell Police Chief Barry Emmons saved the life of an employee at Eberhard's Thrift-Mart on West Main Street . . .

Following the near-tragic event, the other employees of the store issued a "Card of Thanks" this week to the Police Chief for his quick response.

DeWitt Trenching Company began work this week to install an underground conduit line for Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

The line will run from Lincoln Lake Avenue to Cumberland Avenue, west of the City limits.

City Officials To Welcome Portland

The eight days of Michigan Week are upon us once more, and the 18th annual event promises to be as exciting as the first. From the May 15th events through May 22 observances of every kind are being staged in Michigan communities.

Michigan Week chairmen have laid their plans carefully throughout the year and volunteers are wholeheartedly implementing those plans to promote "Michigan—Land of Hospitality."

Lowell City officials and department heads will observe Michigan Week by going to Portland on Monday, May 17. Activities there will include a 10 o'clock parade into town led by the Portland High School Band.

The visiting dignitaries will then be the guests of the Kiwanis Club for a noon luncheon, after which they will spend the afternoon touring the city's facilities.

On Friday, May 22, Lowell will roll out the red carpet and play host to Fred Rowe, jr., Mayor of Portland and a delegation of visiting city officials.

This year's parade, starting at the intersection of West and Main Streets will be headed by the State Rated No. 1 band from Lowell High School. Parade time is 10 a.m., and the residents are urged to get out and see the band in full uniform and greet the visiting dignitaries.

Following an afternoon luncheon, a tour planned by the Michigan Week committee will be made of the highlights of the city.

Eastbrook Fashions

Certainly one of the most outstanding spring events for Forest Hills residents will be the Eastbrook Fashion Forecast. Seventy-two models, all from the area, will be featured in the immense style show to be held on Friday, May 14, at 9 p.m. in the Eastbrook multi-purpose room and Schensul's Cafeteria.

Fashions for summer will be worn by men and boys as well as members of the distaff side. They will be showing clothes for warm weather wear from the most formal attire to the easy-care sports styles. The colorful affair will be narrated by Buck Matthews as he presents whole families of models and their friends. Fifteen Eastbrook stores have contributed large wardrobes of apparel for the presentation from head to toe coverage. Spring decorations, background music, and dozens of door prizes will add to the gaiety.

The proceeds of the evening's events will benefit the over one hundred and twenty swim team members of the Forest Hill pool which is located at Forest Hill Road and Greenbriar Avenue. This is not to be confused with the Forest Hills High School's athletic program, which has no swimming pool.

Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. Ronald Broersma and Mrs. Charles Bacon. Helping them to co-ordinate the undertaking are: Mrs. Thomas Rens and Mrs. Charles VadenBerge in charge of models; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Russell, program; Mrs. Paul Wetherbee and Mrs. Jack Landman, refreshments; Mrs. Thomas Horning, tickets; Mrs. Lloyd Lindland and Mrs. Roger Matthews, decorations; Mrs. George Yankovich, door prizes; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Beasecker and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Urbanski, follow-up; and Mrs. Donald Griffith, publicity.

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE

"Where do we go from here?" "What's the first step and how soon?" are questions now being asked of school officials and Board of Education members following the May 4th voter approval of the $5,250,000 School Building Bond issue.

Leonard Sinke, school superintendent, in an attempt to answer these questions, stated today, "Let me say first that I am, naturally, very pleased with the results of the election. Even though the vote was light, Lowell citizens passed the issue by an almost two to one margin. I feel this indicates the local residents are aware of the pressing need for new buildings and also recognize the tax relief that the State of Michigan is providing."

"It is also my feeling that the citizens committee, teachers, students and many other local groups worked very hard in the election. It was this cooperative effort that made it successful," Sinke added.

"As to what the next steps are," the superintendent continued, "school officials are currently working with the financial consultants to receive final approval from the Municipal Finance Commission in Lansing to sell the bonds. Hopefully the bonds will be ready to sell sometime in July."

"If everything develops according to plan, through the sale of the bonds, then contracts for the Middle School will be let and construction on that building will begin this Fall," Sinke said.

The other buildings are to follow as more complete plans are developed for them, the Ledger was informed, but this will necessitate more staff and citizen involvement as study committees will be formulated and many angles studied before the final plans are drawn.

The final tabulation of votes by the election board and the board of canvassers were:

Two Alto Boys Killed In Crash

Five persons were killed and four were injured in a three-car crash on M-37 Friday night at the north limits of Middleville, Barry County officials reported.

Dead at the scene were Donald C. Burd, jr., 21, of Alto, driver of one car; Randy J. Ward, 22, of Alto, passenger in Burd's car; Jay C. Kidder, 35, driver of a second car, and his passengers, Patricia Ann Kidder, 30, his wife, and Mrs. Floy Graham, 85, all of Nashville.

Deputies said Burd's northbound car apparently crossed the centerline and collided almost head-on with Kidder's car. Both then struck the third car, driven by Mrs. Florence Hatfield of Hastings, which had almost stopped. The Kidder and Hatfield cars were southbound.

Burd who resided at 8596 Acorn Street, Campau Lake, is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Burd, sr.; two brothers, Gregory of Lowell and Jeffrey at home; three sisters, Mrs. Donna Pedderson of Sparta, Karel and Teresa, both at home; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Burd, Sr., of Alto and Edward Hoffius of Grand Rapids; several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral services were held Monday at two o'clock at the Jonkhoff Caledonia Chapel with burial being made in Alaska Cemetery.

Ward is survived by his wife, Kathleen; a step-daughter, Michelle; his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Hagstrom of Alto; his father, Keith Ward of Grand Rapids; three brothers, Ronald Waud and Daniel and Kenneth Hagstrom, all at home; two half-sisters, Laurie and Kelly Ward; one half-brother, Jeffery Ward, all of Grand Rapids; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hynes of Caledonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Ward, sr., of Grand Rapids, several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Services were held Monday morning at eleven o'clock in the Jonkhoff Caledonia Chapel.

Showboat Plans Mardi-Gras Affair

Right now it's only a "good idea," but one that will be a first for the community of Lowell and a reality this summer on Wednesday, July 21, the day before the opening of Showboat.

At the Showboat Board of Directors meeting Monday night, Chuck Lippert, presented his total advertising budget for the 1971 show and introduced his plans to hold a Mardi Gras celebration and clam-lobster bake to herald the opening of Showboat festivities in Lowell.

As one board member put it, "it sounds very enthusiastic," "do you really think we can do it?" Why of course, where there's a will there's a way, and the new board of directors of the Showboat have a certain drive that will turn the event only into a successful endeavor.

Other discussions and important products of this year's show was the Talent Night plans being made by Clark Vredenberg's committee, the Queen's Contest being staged by the Jaycees, parking arrangements handled by Fred Phelps, and police assistance under the direction of Barry Emmons.

Herb Elzinga volunteered to aid Lippert on the outdoor advertising phase of the show's promotion and the meeting was adjourned until next time.

ABIE'S IRISH ROSE

"ABIE'S IRISH ROSE" - To some this title holds no meaning, but to the members of the graduating class of 1946, it was the year that was.

Never to be forgotten will be the class' presentation of "Abie's Irish Rose," that went on stage before record breaking audiences.

"Young and innocent, but unafraid, we began our high school days as Freshmen in the fall of 1942. There were 110 of us and at our first class meeting we selected our officers. As president we chose Robert Kyser; vice-president, Irwin Bristol; secretary, Joann Ellis; and treasurer, Stanley Alexander" . . . this was the beginning of the Class History of 1946 as it was written by Marjorie Behnke.

On June 19, 1971, at the Forest Hills Country Club, the class will reassemble for a 25th reunion . . . will it be easy to recognize your classmates after 25 years? That is only part of the story yet to be told.

All plans for the reunion have been completed and invitations have been forwarded to the sixty-three graduates, and their teachers. It wasn't an easy job to track down all the addresses and whereabouts of all concerned, but the committee was successful in their search; with the exception of Joe Norton. No one seems to know where Joe disappeared to after graduation.

Over one-third of the class has responded so far, with acknowledgements and acceptances coming back from as far away as California, Arizona and Sweden. One surprising note uncovered by the planning committee was the fact that over half of the class is still residing in the Michigan area . . . mostly in Grand Rapids, Ionia, Saranac, Lowell, Alto, Ada, and Cascade.

Yes, when the cocktails are served at 7:30 on the evening of June 17 there will be a lot of chatter filling the room . . . remember the year we had the championship football team in the Grand Valley conference . . . do you recall the year Donald Keiser served as our class president . . . or will they chuckle over the boastfulness of Charlie Doyle's superman physique in the class will . . . or Phil Schneider's slipshod methods . . . or Barbara Richmond's burning of the mid-night oil, but not for study?

Green Survival Studies

Sixth grade students at Collins School made posters to correlate with their studies on Green Survival, a program designed to teach awareness of their environment. The posters were one part of the total program. Each was to tell a story of environmental concern and point up a way to save our earth. Prizes for the contest were shovels which had been a part of the lobby display at Collins School. Winners were, left to right, 1st - Loreta Hogan, 2nd - Bill Nienuwkoop, 3rd - Carl Hassall, 4th - Brek Rosengren, 5th - Peggy Sneden, 6th - Sheri Mackay.

VOTE ON POOL

At a recent meeting of Forest Hills residents interested in seeing a community pool built in the area, petitions signed by over eight hundred citizens were turned over to the district's school board.

The issue of the pool construction and maintenance will appear on the June 14 ballot in two parts. It is estimated that the cost of construction will be approximately $600,000. This cost would be borne by all taxpayers who in turn would also benefit from the use of the pool.

Some questions by those approached during the time of the signing of petitions showed that many persons did not understand that this would be a community pool to be used by all; young and old, students at Forest Hills High School and students of other schools in the area. The project is being planned as an instructional facility, a community use facility, and an athletic program facility.

If the pool and its maintenance are approved, it will be built at the present Junior High School. Swimming instruction for students at that grade level will be included in the athletic program. The pool would also be open to families during the evenings and on weekends.

Vote Registration
The deadline for voter registration is this Friday, May 14. The following month on June 14, four issues will be on the ballot in the Forest Hills School District.

Residents of Grand Rapids, Township, Kentwood, and the City of Grand Rapids will vote at Collins School. Others will vote at the High School, this includes residents of Ada, Cascade, and Cannon Townships. The polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Applications for absentee ballots may be obtained at the School Board office on Ada Drive on May 10 and the ballots on May 24.

The speaker will be Walter T. Jones, Industrial Engineer in the Management Consulting Services Division of Ernst and Ernst. His subject will be "The Science of Management."

The entire grouping of talent will be open to the community. It has been designed to display both efforts of students and faculty in school work and in private hobbies.

Three amateur movies can be seen as well as many still photos. It should be a field day for photographers as they catch expressions on the faces of fond parents, envious classmates, and admiring students.

The organized acts which will follow one upon another to keep the entertainment rolling will begin with the Variety and J.V. choirs promptly at 2 p.m. Variety acts and other musical aggregations will continue to keep visitor's attention until 7 p.m.

While browsing through the displays of hooked rugs, posters, macramé, old cars, and dozens of other enticing projects, viewers will be reminded that the play, "Don't Drink The Water" will begin at 8 p.m. each evening.

Refreshments will be sold throughout the day and evening. The displays will be located on the front lawn and in the mid campus.

Heart Attack Fatal To George Mueller

A 1947 graduate of Lowell High School, who later became the Superintendent of Parks for the County of Kent, George W. Mueller, died of an apparent heart attack last Tuesday afternoon at the age of 42.

Mueller, who had just completed a round of golf with some of his fellow employees was stricken while driving at 44th Street and Poinsettia Avenue around 6 o'clock.

According to police authorities, Mueller's eastbound auto struck the left rear of another car, swerved over the north curb, knocked down a mail box on 44th Street, continued over a lawn, swerved to the south side of the street, striking another car, and halted in shrubbery. He was revived at the scene, but died shortly after 7 p.m. in Blodgett Memorial Hospital.

He was a lifelong Lowell resident, earning his bachelor of science degree in Forestry at Michigan State University and subsequently served as a Naval officer in the Korean conflict before becoming employed by the Kent County Park systems as a laborer.

His father, Edwin D. Mueller, is a longtime member and former chairman of the Kent County Road Commission, which also is in charge of the park system.

George was promoted in July, 1956, from laborer to forester, and in 1960 from forester to assistant superintendent of parks and forestry. He was advanced to the superintendent's position in July of 1965.

Following the last rites at the Roth Funeral Home on Friday afternoon at two o'clock, he was laid to rest in Bailey Cemetery, Vergennes Township. The Rev. R. A. Wittenbach of the Centreville United Methodist Church officiated.

Mr. Mueller is survived by his parents.

Sky Divers Aim For Orchard View

Something seldom seen in the flesh will be featured at the Penny Carnival to be held at Orchard View School on Leffingwell and 3 Mile Road on Saturday, May 22, between 2 p.m. and 6 p.m.

Two sky divers will be floating in mid-air after a spectacular fall from a plane high over head. From the heights they will plummet earthward in a display calculated to take away the breath of the most sophisticated space age youngsters and their parents. The sky divers will aim for a spot near the school yard after releasing their parachutes which will check the long downward trip from the bright blue heavens.

Along with the featured attraction, the carnival will boast a fun house, fish pond, pony ride, drawing, hay rides, and other carnival atmosphere booths.

Food will be available in the form of bar-b-que, coffee, salad, and pies. Several committee members have been working for the last month to prepare for the event under the chairmanship of Doris Stoval.

Rotary Sale To Benefit Youth

When the auctioneer's gavel hits the podium on June 5, the Lowell Rotary Club's annual fund-raising event will be underway.

As Al VanderLaan shouts off "Now what am I bid for this item," he may be auctioning off an article that was donated by your neighbor, or a space taker-upper that had cluttered your own garage or basement for years, months or days.

Now's the time to search your premises and if you have any articles that you would like to donate, all you have to do is pick up your telephone and call 897-9259 or 897-9949, and arrangements will be made to have the items picked up.

All types of items will be accepted, excluding large appliances (such as stoves, refrigerators, etc.) and clothing.

Through the proceeds of past year sales, the Rotarians have very ably supported the Youth for Understanding program, the exchange student program, Boy's State, Camp Emory, Cub and Boy Scouts, etc.

The June 5th sale will be held at the 4-H Fairgrounds, commencing at 1:30 p.m.

Twelve young ladies were selected to the Kent County Honor Group at the 4-H Style Revue on May 1 at Calvin College. Nearly 90 girls participated in the Senior Miss Self-Evaluation and modeled their garments in the afternoon program. Creations ranged from lace formal gowns to gothic pants and vinyl coats.

Selected for the honor group were Becky and Betsy Hill and Karen Elzinga of Walker, Jerilyn Sharp, Sandy Spadoni, and Sandy Longstreet of Wyoming, Margaret May of Sparta, Cindy Koersma and Margie Thome, Cornstock Park, Janis Curtis, Lowell, Nancy Nyblag, Kent City, and Maryellen Estes, Grand Rapids.

About 60 younger members selected at their district achievement programs also modeled their project garments in the afternoon style revue.

The style revue is a part of the Personal Appearance Project of the 4-H Program. More information about this or other projects and activities of the 4-H Youth Program of the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service may be obtained from Mrs. Phyllis O. Constance and Alan Snider, 4-H Youth Agents, 728 Fuller N.E., Grand Rapids, Michigan 49503. Phone: 459-4471.

THE FAMILY SHOE STORES

Eastbrook Fashion Forecast To Benefit Swim Team

What's new on the current style scene? For fashion's sake an unusual evening's entertainment for families will be the coming spectacular forecast of summer's styles.

In an immense show designed to appeal to men and children as well as fashion conscious women, seventy-two models from the Forest Hills area will parade before their peers on Friday, May 14, at 9 p.m. in the Eastbrook Room and Schensul's Cafeteria.

The all-encompassing presentation will feature a smorgasbord of fashions from sports to formal attire. In some cases, whole families will be participating in the enormous undertaking which will be interlaced with delightful commentary by Buck Matthews.

Fifteen stores will be contributing a colorful variety of wearing apparel in the "Eastbrook Fashion Forecast." In addition, a number of Eastbrook and area merchants are contributing door prizes, decorations, and patron contributions.

The proceeds from this gigantic display will be used to purchase equipment for the Forest Hills Swim Team, whose pool is located just off Forest Hill Road. This is not to be confused with the school system which has no pool.

The co-chairmen of the Eastbrook Fashion Forecast go over the commentary of the show with Buck Matthews of WOOD-TV, who will be the evening's narrator and master of ceremonies.

Outfitted from head to toe in the latest attire the models will include a number of family groups such as Charles Vandenberg and children, Cathy, Bob, Tom, and Jim; Ronald Broersma and Pam, Kim, and David; Thomas Rens with Robin and Tia; Roger Matthews and Nancy and Sue; Mr. and Mrs. Randall Preston and Kim and Lynne; William Orr and Kim; Paul Wellert and Jeff; Mr. and Mrs. Donald VanBullichem and Karen; Gary VanderLende, coach of the Forest Hills swim team, Mrs. VanderLende, Greg and Dan; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Strazisar, and Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Frost.

Also assuming the poses and attitudes of models will be the medusians: Jack Keller, Dwight Russell, John Wandas, Thomas Evert, Lloyd Lindland, Donald Cooper and Daniel Albertson.

The younger set will be represented by Karen and Claire Horning, Donna and Cheryl Bunda, Nicki and Mary Beemsterboer, Barb and Jenny Wassink, Bart, John, Bruce, and Karen Bacon, and Lauri Slughter.

Other fashion-wise models will be Marti Griffith, Julie Fudge, Cindy Linscott, Joyce Bean, Joel Crouse, Lisa Schooley, Laurie Westover, Diane Schelling, and Kerry Van Kaulen.

Also trapping nest bits and tucker array will be Vicki Yankovich, Cindy Winter, Katly Marmon, Gina Casolaro, Nancy Hagerman, Tracy Grigware, Paula Elliot, Debby DeVieger, and Sue Stack.

Coach Gary VanderLende introduces Marti Griffith and Karen Horning to the bottom of the freshly painted pool.

Postage Increases Take Effect May 16

Postmaster Charles Doyle said today that increases in most postage rates will take effect May 16 as the new United States Postal Service begins its task of achieving self-sufficiency as required by the Postal Reorganization Act.

Mr. Doyle noted that general postage rates have not been increased since 1967 when Congress passed what was to become its final legislative act in this respect.

He pointed out that, earlier, requests for rate increases were proposed to Congress in 1969 by both President Johnson and President Nixon. In addition, President Nixon proposed an increase again in 1970, although none of the proposed increases was acted upon by Congress.

Mr. Doyle explained that the new increases - authorized on a temporary basis until the newly created Postal Rate Commission can make recommendations to the Governors of the Postal Service on permanent changes - will raise first-class letter rates from 10 to 8 cents an ounce, and airmail letter rates from 10 to 11 cents an ounce. Post cards will go from 8 to 9 cents each and airmail post cards will go from 8 to 9 cents each.

The increases will be borne more by business than by individuals, the postmaster pointed out, since about 75 percent of first-class and airmail is from commercial mailers.

Johnson To Compete For National Title

State champion, Bernard Johnson of Grand Rapids, will compete for a new car and a college scholarship in the national final of the 1971 Operator Driver Excellence program to be held in Milwaukee, Wis. this weekend, May 14-15.

The 16-year-old Michigan entry will match safe driving knowledge and skills against youthful champions from 20 other states and the District of Columbia. Top prize is a new Dodge Challenger and a $1,000 college scholarship. Second and third place national finalists will be awarded $1,000 college scholarships.

The program is sponsored annually in the interest of greater traffic safety by the American Veterans of World War II, Korea, and Vietnam (AMVETS) and the Dodge Division of Chrysler Corporation.

A sophomore at Forest Hills High School, Johnson decided to enter the state's entry in a row that Grand Rapids has provided the state's entry in the national competition. Last year's entry was Robert Stander, who came in second in the finals. High school students are eligible for Driver Excellence competition upon recommendation of the head of their high school's driver education department, provided they have completed a driver education program during the 12-month period immediately prior to entering competition and have been issued a learner's permit, driver's license, or equivalent, during the year of participation.

Muscular Dystrophy

Holly Schmidt, National Muscular Dystrophy Girl, is a Michigan resident.

An annual drive for funds to benefit victims of Muscular Dystrophy will be held in this area on Saturday, May 25. Muscular Dystrophy is a general designation for a group of chronic diseases whose most prominent characteristic is the progressive degeneration of the skeletal or voluntary musculature. There is no effective treatment for any of the dystrophies as yet. Medical management is limited to relieving symptoms of the diseases. Orthopedic devices are prescribed at appropriate stages in progression. However, clinics throughout the United States, one of which is located in Grand Rapids, are working in research studies in nerve, muscle, and metabolism in the hope that these will lead to the complete scientific understanding of the biological processes that give rise to the muscular dystrophies. MDA, Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, annually spends more than $2,000,000 on its research program. Equipment for the use of the victims is purchased from funds given voluntarily as well as family aid and instruction.

Seeks Information On Dual Jobholding

How many people are supplementing their regular pay check with a second job? Robert A. Yenkey, Director of the Bureau of the Census regional office in Detroit, announced today that information on the subject will be collected during the week of May 17 from a number of households in this area. The questions are in addition to the usual ones asked in the monthly survey on employment and unemployment conducted nationwide by the Bureau for the U. S. Department of Labor.

Results of this monthly survey provide a continuing measure of economic conditions in the country. The March survey found that unemployment, on a seasonally adjusted basis, had edged up to 6.0 percent from 5.8 percent in February, and that this increase was largely among 16 to 24-year-olds, many of whom were entering the labor force for the first time. Total employment remained basically unchanged at 78.5 million.

Facts supplied by individuals participating in this voluntary survey are kept strictly confidential and results are used only to compile statistical totals.

The interviewer who will visit households in this area is Mrs. Lucy Hall, of 3046 Knapp N.E., Grand Rapids.

Wed 50 Years

Miss Eva Ketcham became Mrs. Carlton Fairbrother on April 27, 1921, in Detroit. That memorable event, and the happenings down through the years, were all relived when the Fairbrothers were honored at an open house in commemoration of their fiftieth wedding anniversary on May 2.

Following their marriage, the Fairbrothers resided in the Detroit area, moving to their present home on Bancroft Avenue in Alto nine years ago.

The home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fairbrother on Alaska Avenue, was the scene of the golden open house. Acting as co-hosts were their other two children, Robert of Farmington and Donna Wilhelm of Grand Blanc.

In honor of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Urbane, 438 Cedar, N.E., Grand Rapids, an open house will be held Sunday, May 16, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The open house, to which all friends and relatives are invited to attend, will be held at the American Legion Hall, 3811 West River Drive, N.E., Comstock Park.

Hosting the event will be the Urbane's children, Mr. and Mrs. James Urbane, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Urbane, Mr. and Mrs. James (Evelyn) Kissinger, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Urbane and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond (Ilene) Mervay.

Coris Mae Richards and Alphonse Urbane were married on May 18, 1921, in St. Mary's Church of Grand Rapids by Father Reese.

Forest Hills 'Hi-Lites'

Last call for reservations for the All Sports Banquet. Be sure to let the committee know whether you plan to attend the dinner that honors the Forest Hills High School athletes and their coaches. It will be held on Thursday, May 20, at Adri-an's Terrace.

Kay Duivan says that you'd better not plan on a hair appointment this Friday... all of the high school girls will be taking them as they prepare for the Prom that evening.

So far over fifty husky boys have planned to be on the annual Varsity Club Canoe Trip over Memorial Day weekend. Coach Rosenengen is still getting you votes for the event. Generally, it is a case of being more in the water than on it, on one of these hairy rides, but the memories are usually worth it.

This weekend will see the members of Indian Guides, fathers and sons, on a special camp-out at Mantoulin. Most of them will be there for two nights with plenty of activities planned for all day. Who will come home more tired? There will be canoeing, horseback riding, fishing, races, food, more food, hiking, visiting, camp lore, and an impressive ceremonial campfire.

At FHHS there is an outstanding class in shorthand. Several students are rolling along at unusually fast speed, but Linda Carrick, senior, is really piling up records. She has just completed the greatest speed ever recorded at FHHS with over 160 words a minute! That's some scripping in anyone's books.

Now about that trip to France. Anyone may go. This tour is not confined to students attending FHHS; it is open to adults, students from other schools, alumni from former trips, in fact, anyone who can come up with the very minimal fare.

The whole tour begins in Grand Rapids, not in New York. The costs include air fare, insurance, an American doctor, chaplains, food, lodging, four days in Paris, two days in southern France on the beaches in the sunshine, and a couple of days in the countryside. You just can't get all that in most package plans, no matter how great the group rate.

Present eighth graders who will be studying French in the ninth grade next year are particularly welcome to have the opportunity to go with the group. Around seventy-five people have already indicated that they are interested.

The trip, which will be held next spring during vacation, is under the sponsorship of the Lyle Fellowship which promotes international cultural and educational student exchanges. For further information you may call Mr. Goodyke at 897-8145.

It's spring and we're all pleased to see the flowers. But did you forget to plant some? A huge variety of both flower and vegetable plants will be on sale Saturday, May 15, all day, at the corner of Ada Drive and Forest Hills Road. The sale is being promoted by the Eastmont Reformed Youth Group of that church. Ken Postema is the president of the group with the sponsors being Mr. and Mrs. Bill Landheer. The proceeds from the sale will go toward the purchase of a projector.

Don't forget your open invitation to follow fashion's trail on Friday, May 14. This is for men and boys as well as young ladies and girls. The fashion forecast is the big, big style show at Eastbrook. The Fashion Forecast in which your own neighbors will be the models. The show begins at 9 p.m. and will prove to be highly entertaining.

STATE YOUTH ENCOUNTER

Over 200 youth from all over the State of Michigan will convene in the Cascade area this weekend as they participate in the State Youth Encounter of "Amazing Grace," at the Cascade Christian Church.

The festivities will all begin at the 1:30 p.m. registration period on Saturday, May 15, with the afternoon discussion and program sessions getting fully underway at 2 p.m.

LaRay Salaberry, Fremont Pastor, will moderate three positions to be presented, including "The Jesus Movement" by the Rev. Maurice Gordon of the Church of the Full Gospel (Apostolic) in Grand Rapids.

Rev. Gordon is bringing persons from the so-called "Jesus Movement" to share with the total group.

The second position will be "Catholic Renewal (Pentecostal Movement)" by Sister Amata, assistant professor of Sacred Scriptures at Aquinas College in Grand Rapids.

The conclusive position will be "The Other Way Youth Center" by the Rev. Richard J. TerMaat of Grand Rapids. Rev. TerMaat will speak of the more traditional "Middle-of-the-road" Protestant position, with a strong emphasis on religion in action.

Between 3:45 and 4 p.m. a free refreshment has been set up with a panel discussion and smaller group sessions taking effect from 4 to 5 p.m. At 5:30, dinner will be served in the church's fellowship hall with a business meeting to follow.

At 6:40, the youth will depart for the Grand Rapids Teen Center where they spend their evening either in the coffee house, bowling, playing billiards or pool, utilizing the facilities in the gymnasium or visiting the snack bar.

Upon their departure at 10 o'clock, they will return to the Cascade Christian Church where their weekend host and hostesses will greet them.

After enjoying Sunday morning breakfast with their new families, the youth will embark again to the Cascade Church where they will engage in a Sunday School session in Fellowship Hall at 9:15 a.m. A film on "Eucharist" will be shown with Boyd Hughes leading the discussion.

A special Sunday morning service at 10:30 will be held with the church's pastor, the Rev. Raymond Gaylord delivering the sermon. Special music will be provided by the choir from Hudsonville Unity Christian High School.

The two-day encounter will come to a close with the serving of a noon luncheon and the holding of friendship circles.

'EACH ONE TEACH ONE' DOES WORK

Five years ago, Mrs. Betty Yeiter started her reading program for junior high school students with reading problems, she had a regular load of six classes a day of sixth, seventh and eighth graders. Each year there were more students with more complex reading problems. This year, Mrs. Yeiter decided she needed help—like the old lady in the Shoe "She had so many children she didn't know what to do!"

Not one to be daunted, Mrs. Yeiter decided to seek help right at home. She asked for volunteers from the study hall to help other students with reading difficulties. Two students volunteered. After making certain they were good readers themselves and after some instruction from former trips, in fact, anyone who can come up with the very minimal fare.

The whole tour begins in Grand Rapids, not in New York. The costs include air fare, insurance, an American doctor, chaplains, food, lodging, four days in Paris, two days in southern France on the beaches in the sunshine, and a couple of days in the countryside. You just can't get all that in most package plans, no matter how great the group rate.

Griffam-Svoboda Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Griffam of Bangor, Maine, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Cynthia Lee to Bill Eugene Svoboda, son of the Reverend and Mrs. Gordon J. Svoboda, former residents of Alto.

Miss Griffam is a senior at Bangor High School and Mr. Svoboda is attending the University of Maine. A June wedding is planned.

Back in 1909, when horse-and-buggy travel reached an all-time peak, there were 30 fatalities for each 100 million horse-traveled miles.

Today, with more than 96 million motor vehicles driving 967 billion miles a year, the traffic toll is just a little over five fatalities for each 100 million miles.

word spread so that when Mrs. Yeiter sent out an SOS for more volunteers, the response was gratifying.

Fifteen student-helpers have worked this past year either on a one to one basis or in small groups.

Improvement in the reading skills is the basic goal of Mrs. Yeiter's program. This is determined through testing in the various areas of reading abilities—vocabulary, comprehension, etc. And the students have shown marked improvement.

With the success of this year's student-helper program behind her, Mrs. Yeiter looks forward to next year's being even better. John Gabrion, principal of Lowell Junior High has encouraged Mrs. Yeiter and her helpers to continue.

The work might be tedious and maybe even frustrating at times, but improvement in reading is the reward that makes it all worthwhile.

Introduces Legislation To Increase Benefits

Charging that Congress "has played politics" with senior citizens long enough, U. S. Senator Robert F. Griffin (R-Mich.) has introduced legislation to:

Provide for automatic increases in social security benefits corresponding with cost of living hikes;

Increase the amount of income a beneficiary may earn from $1,650 to $2,400 without losing social security benefits.

Griffin's bill—the Social Security Adjustments Act of 1971—comes on the heels of congressional approval in March of a ten percent increase in benefits retroactive to January 1.

"While I supported the ten percent increase," the Michigan Senator said, "I seriously question the wisdom of depending upon the beneficence of Congress to maintain parity of the social security dollar."

Rather, asserted Griffin, "it is time to enact permanent legislation to ensure that social security benefits will keep pace with the rising cost of living."

The Griffin bill would direct the Secretary of HEW, whenever the cost of living rises three percent or more on an annual basis, to increase monthly social security benefits by the same percentage.

To absorb in part the added cost of the increases, the measure would provide for automatic adjustment of the contribution and benefit base, based on increases in average taxable earnings.

Doug Schueller, No. 1 singles for Forest Hills High School, in a win against Kentwood's No. 1 single player 6-0, 7-6.

Netmen Win, Tie, Lose

A win, a tie, and two losses provided a heavy week's work for the Forest Hills tennis team. It was 3-3 against Cedar Springs in the second try against that team. The first time around, the Ranger's had suffered a defeat.

On Wednesday of last week, Forest Hills was shut-out by the Godwin netmen 5-0; a team which the Rangers had previously defeated. It was a 4-1 victory for Forest Hills over the tough Kentwood team on Friday. On Monday, however, the Rangers traveled to Holland where they lost in a non-league match 9-0.

In the Kentwood match first singles, Doug Schueller took his opponent 6-0 and 7-6. Chip King, second singles won his match and first doubles, Rob Blanchard and George Beshek were successful as were third doubles, Mark Butler and Dan Gallagher.

The Cedar Springs match saw second and third singles, Chip and Joe King, respectively, both win their games with first doubles, Benesik and Blanchard taking their sets.

On Friday, May 14, the team will be matched with East Grand Rapids in an away meet. Saturday, May 15, will see the team in Cadillac as guests at an all-day invitational.

Mismarked Putt Causes Shut-Out

This week's golf action has put the Arrows into a third place conference position and pushed their record to 5-3-1.

The Arrows follow Greenville in second, as first place was edged away from the Yellow Jackets when Sparta defeated them - and landed the conference title.

Sparta caught the Arrows for a second time by walking off with a 5-0 victory on Alpine Golf Course Monday.

The Arrows missed breaking the shut out by only one stroke after a penalty stroke was added when an Arrow golfer mismarked a putt.

Ron Austin took low medalist with a 38 followed by Dale Soderstrum with a 40 for Sparta.

Jon and Kim Schwacha tied for the Arrow's low medalist honors. They were followed by Tom Giess and Terry Abel, shooting 44 and 45 respectively.

The Arrows shut out Cedar Springs last Wednesday at Arrowhead Golf Course.

Jon Schwacha fired a 40 to lead the two teams, followed by Kim Schwacha, shooting a 44. Tom Giess and Terry Abel both brought in 45's to bring the Arrow's stroke total to 174 compared to Cedar's 188.

Olson Delivers Loop Victory

Senior, Pete Olson, switched from centerfield to the hurling spot and steered the Arrow's record to 3-3 with a 10-5 win over Coopersville.

The Arrows also dropped a 5-0 game to Greenville Tuesday. Olson took the loss and his record holds at 1-1.

The Arrow's troubles began when Greenville hit off in the second inning with 2 singles hit in on a following double.

The score held at 2-0 until the fourth inning when Olson hit Dave Hansen with a pitch. Hansen went to second on an error, advanced to third and scored on a sacrifice to left field.

Greenville again scored when an error let in two runs in the seventh, making the score 5-0.

Olson struck out nine batters against Coopersville, pitching six innings.

Twenty-nine boys attended a baseball clinic at Detroit Saturday, May 8, presented by Detroit Tigers. Coaches, Rivers and Copeland, would like to thank Don Phillips, Bruce McMahon, and Ed Steffens for supplying transportation for the young Arrows.

The Arrows will begin Class B Pre-District action Saturday, May 29, when they will meet the victor of the East Christian-Central game. If they win this one they will travel to Greenville for the District's on June 5.

Slater Hits Homer,

In another grueling week, the Forest Hills baseball team played five games, during which a school record was broken and another threatened.

It was Dave Slater, in the second game of a double-header with Union, who produced a home run, triple and two singles to break the team record for most total bases in one game.

A one-hitter pitched by Ron VanderBaan against Kentwood was the second best pitched game in the history of the Rangers.

The week's total victories brought the Forest Hills season record to 14-4. This week will see the Rangers move into the second round of league play. With five of the seven teams fielding outstanding teams this year, it looks like it will go right down to the wire.

It was Forest Hills 3-Godwin Heights 2 in the week's opener. Steve Van Putten won his fourth game of the year as he bested Jim Hessel in a tight pitching duel. Bill Heneveld's triple to the right field corner was the game winning hit.

In the game against Creston, Forest Hills lost by one run, the final score was Creston 2-FHHS 1. The Rangers lost their first game to a city school when they blew a one-run lead in the last inning. Steve DeFouw pitched a fine three-hitter, struck out five and did not walk one man. Both of Creston's runs were unearned.

Forest Hills returned with a victory against Kentwood, 5-1. Ron VanderBaan turned in a sterling performance on the mound and John Dzierzyo's infield single in the third inning that spoiled the no-hitter. Joe McCormick paced the FH hitters with a double and a single. Dave Slater put the game away with a 380-foot two-run homer in the fifth inning.

In the double-header against Union, it was Forest Hills all the way. The first game was won by a score of 2-0. Scott Vashaw stopped the Red and White with his second shut-out of the year. He only allowed three hits and he only faced twenty-four batters. Vashaw also knocked in the first run with a single. Bill Rodenberg's sacrifice fly plated the other Ranger run.

Forest Hills tromped Union in the second game with a final score of 11-6. Kevin Mead contributed the sixth straight complete game by Ranger pitchers to notch his second win. The Rangers bombarded the Union pitchers with sixteen hits and gave Mead a ten-run cushion by the second inning. Slater slammed his second homer in as many days to end the scoring. Also having a big day at the plate were Tim Weston and Matt Pellerito who got three singles each.

The next scheduled game will be at East Grand Rapids on Friday, May 14, at 4 p.m.
