LOCAL NEWS.

A full report of the church dedication at Saranac will appear in our next. Wool in large quantities is still coming in at prices ranging from 35 to 40 cents.

We trust that the next circus that comes to Lowell will advertise. We are indebted to Hon. T. W. Ferry for public documents.

To Hon. W. D. Foster are we indebted for messages and documents of '72 and '73. E. F. Doty's dental office is now over Scott's hardware store. Good place for making extracts.

Now is the time when maps in water colors are seen on the back of the laborer's linen coat. Our weekly slanders will be few until after 4 p.m. takes his pictures out of the JOURNAL.

The village Samaritan picked up another saloon relic on Monday afternoon, and placed him in the lock-up. Dr. A. Peck returned from the Kentucky horse sale last week, and brought with him two colts sired by the famous Exchequer.

Remember that Friday is the last day of school. See programme elsewhere in the JOURNAL and attend the exercises. Subscribers who desire to do so can get their JOURNALS at this office, free of postage.

Pigeon holes from A to Z without money and without price. The Clam Lake News came to us last week enlarged to an eight column folio. Another evidence of prosperity in journalism. The News is a good local paper.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will hold a Strawberry Festival at Sprague's store, Wednesday evening June 25th. [All are cordially invited. By order of Com.]

We are going to roll in luxury. Seventeen delinquent subscribers have recently paid up and most of them a year in advance. Now we'll have butter every meal and wear stockings.

While other towns are being fenced in and painted over, Lowell is marching on. The new brick block on Bridge street will be an improvement worthy of a notice in the Grand Rapids dailies.

Bangweola started for Chicago on Tuesday morning of last week, in the charge of Mr. Armstrong. The Chicago races commence July 1st, and continue four days. We trust Bang will snatch one of the laurels.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL at Music Hall on Friday afternoon and evening of this week. A pleasant, social time anticipated. Remember the time and place. Be sure to attend. For the benefit of the Congregational Sabbath School.

We are not profane when we say that mankind is a mean "cus." Ministers of the gospel preach it and the bible proves it. Is there a man in Lowell who doubts it? If there is, he is the worst ingredient in the compound.

G. W. Parker, who started for Kentucky one evening not long ago, returned to Lowell before the next morning. If G. W. upsets any more local for us in this manner we'll sling a lively dose of republican adjectives at him.

We understand that G. P. Stone Esq., of this village intends putting up his first "Attorney" shingle in Carson City. George is a good fellow and a faithful worker and will make lots of friends and we hope lots of money in Carson City.

If the marshal don't take up the sidewalk leading from the Congregational Church east to Flat river, somebody may try to walk over it some night and break something. Only last Sunday night a man with a white hat broke one of the commandments while trying the experiment. Something must be done.

A printing office is an unhealthy place for inquisitive little boys. We seldom speak to them however when we catch them picking up type, etc. for we don't want to frighten the little fellows. We simply engage them to hang on to the crooked end of our stove poker with their coat collar, until we can walk with them to the head of the stairs. This ends the transaction and not a hard word passes between us.

The advance potato bug agents that came through this section a few weeks ago with maps of all the potato patches in the country on their backs, have reported to headquarters. Only seventy-five million arrived here last week to commence canvassing, but reinforcements being expected every day, we are encouraged to think that the bug campaign will yet be a successful one.

A man never appears so upright before his fellow man, as when he has a "stitch" in his side or a "crick" in his back. Possessed of either of these he never stoops to anything low, is never seen kicking ornamental dogs off the sidewalk, or stealing wood by the armful.

During the past two weeks it has been physically impossible for us to do any of these things, and we now feel entitled to the confidence of the public. LOWELL HAS AT LEAST ONE MAN who can out-swear all competition. We don't speak of this in a boastful manner, for we think he's the worst man of sin we ever knew, and we can't chuckle over that fact and sleep well nights.

A man who can rip out seventy-five choice oaths with one breath, and in such a manner as to jar the plaster loose, break window panes and stop an eight day clock, isn't the man to tell our children little stories.

FOR THE BENEFIT of subscribers who are not posted we insert the following, which we trust they will treasure up in the inmost recesses of their—noddle. This is what the law says.

"If a person orders his paper discontinued he must pay up all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount whether the paper is taken from the office or not."

FACT.—Ladies who are good looking, and possess the art of talking in an impressive manner, make successful book canvassers. Don't make any diff. what the book is, or what the price, when one of these charmers gets you cornered, and with a great "wallopin" tear rolling around in each eye, tells you all about how she never had any ma, and winds up her little story by saying, "Please do, I know you will, won't you?" "Miss so and so said she knew you would," etc. Enough said. Down goes your name, and out goes the fair one with your name, mentally ejaculating what you at the same time are emphatically and audibly saying, viz. that you are a fool—a fact which pleases her immensely and disgusts you intensely.

THE 4TH AT HASTINGS.—Hon. Mark D. Wilber, State Senator from the 14th district, will deliver the Fourth of July Oration at Hastings. It would be difficult to find a more graceful and effective speaker than Senator Wilber. We venture to say that as an orator, he stands at the head of the Michigan list.

Senator Dewey, who sat by his side in the Senate last winter, knew where to apply for a first class oration. If the JOURNAL readers of Bowne and adjacent townships desire to celebrate the glorious fourth, they will do well to go to Hastings.

EXAMINATIONS.—Examination of classes in the public schools will commence Wednesday June 25th. On Friday, at ten o'clock a. m. the following programme, consisting of recitations and declamations, will be presented:

- "There's but one pair of stockings to mend to-night," MISS FANNIE AVERY
Paul Revere's Ride BERTIE HINE
"Rock me to sleep Mother." MISS IDA COGSWELL
Supposed Speech of John Adams, EDWIN STEVENS
Barbara Freitchie MISS EMMA LAMB
Natural Bridge in Virginia, FRANK AVERY

At the close of the exercises prizes will be awarded by a committee chosen for that purpose.

Something better than a 4th of July Celebration!

It is with pleasure we announce to our readers that on Thursday, July 3d, Mr. Adam Forepaugh's stupendous Menagerie, Museum and Equestrian Aggregation is to exhibit at Lowell, afternoon and evening. Everybody in this section of the country remembers Forepaugh's last visit to this place in 1870. From that time to this no similar exhibition has visited us that was at all comparable in magnitude to Forepaugh's great Aggregation.

A GRAND MUSEUM of animate and inanimate curiosities has been added to this Aggregation. Among the most interesting are representations of the Siamese Twins, known the world over as one of the most remarkable freaks of nature. A new and wonderful phenomena are the Automatic Figures. These consist of a troupe of female bell-ringers performing beautiful melodies upon silver bells. A musical dog, cat, monkey, and rabbit also delight and amuse the nearer with harp and violins; living alligators, mechanical singing birds, a three thousand dollar doll, playing upon a guitar and saluting visitors with charming grace; the dying warrior, a finely modeled form of zouave breathing his last upon the battlefield, rare collections of statuary, illustrating scriptural history, from Madame Tussaud's gallery, London, England; and relics and mementoes of the revolutionary war, form very interesting features.

SLEEPING INNOCENCE, a life size automatic figure of a beautiful girl, breathing idyllic like mannequin; distorting mirrors making fun for all; antiquities from all parts of the world, fossil remains armor, life size figures of prominent generals, politicians, kings, queens, a magnificent collection of fishes, insects and reptiles.

A FREE MENAGERIE. In addition to the four Museum, Circus and performing animal show tents, a mammoth tent is set apart filled with living, rare wild animals. Our camels, elephants etc. number more than has been seen in any menagerie that has visited this county this season, and they are exhibited to the public free of all charge; there are also exhibited EIGHT MAGNIFICENT LIONS.

Also, the gun, or horned horse of Africa; an orang outang; nearly as formidable as the terrible gorilla; the hippopotamus and a full grown eland—a magnificent animal just imported from Africa.

A PAIR OF BEAUTIFUL ROYAL BENGAL TIGERS will delight all. A strange animal, called the "cariboo," an Arabian dromedary, black bear, Thibet bear, grizzly bear, white polar bear, brown bear, the ibex, a pair of magnificent ostriches, East India antelope, cashmere goats, South American jaguar, silver lion, of California, striped and spotted brenas, the lama, puma, buffalo, panther, leopards, black and spotted tigers, Suetland cow, sacred cattle, tawny lion of Kaffra, the zebu or oxunda, badgers, beavers, coons, wildcats, foxes, wessels, civit cats, wambats, gazelles, jackals, baboons, osetot, Rhinophor, hounds, apes, chamots, armadillo, hedgehog mandrill, sloth bars, etc., etc., will be exhibited; also cages containing a cassowary, king vulture, condor of eagles, black and white swans, a pair of African pelicans, white peacocks, African cranes, lyre bird, New Holland emus, birds of Paradise, white carrier doves, gray parrots, golden pheasants, macaws, King Lord birds, cacomots, silver pheasants, and in all 1,500 animals and birds.

DOUBLE TENT NO. 5 is devoted exclusively to the great circus display, where will appear at each exhibition, more and better performers, male female, and trick horses and ponies than any circus in the world can present, also performing Elephants, and monkey equestrians, a troupe of trained dogs, and a pair of performing lions and tigers, a riding goat, a performing unicorn, and other animals—

A grand public parade will be made on the morning of the exhibition day. Twenty Arabian horses will lead the column, drawing a gorgeous chariot styled the "Musical car of the Muses." Ten camels, richly caparisoned, will draw a den containing eight living lions. A drove of Suetland ponies, just imported, will be exquisitely decked and harnessed to a beautiful bird hower. A mechanical gymnast, manufactured in France by the celebrated, French mechanician, Houdin, will perform a series of most extraordinary gymnastic and acrobatic acts as the procession moves. A full military band will enliven the scene with popular music.

Herr Darios, the world famed animal-trainer, who so narrowly escaped a horrible death a few weeks since, while engaged in subduing a pair of Asiatic lions and Bengal tigers, will ride in an OPEN BOX surrounded by these sanguinary monsters, their limbs unbacked and free. A ball of statuary mounted upon wheels and filled with classical representations of the gods and goddesses of ancient Greece and Rome will appear open to public view.

A BATTALION OF HORSE gayly plumed, drivers uniformed, will draw the menagerie and museum wagons, the flags of every state in the Union will be carried in the procession, and upon the cages and dens, which are all painted blue and gold, there can be seen 360 beautiful pictures, from designs by the most celebrated artists representing classical, religious and zoologic subjects.

1,000 MEN AND HORSES constitute the entire working force of the institution, which is carried on with military discipline, ensuring good order and accommodation to all. And it should be remembered that the five tents used for the several exhibitions are completely separated from each other, and provided with different exits and entrances, and that a person visiting the Museum, Menageries and Aviary, in tents 1, 2, 3 and 4, neither sees nor hears anything relating to the circus exhibition in tent No. 5—unless he is desirous of so doing—and further, it should be borne in mind that one ticket for 50 cents, children half price, admits to all the great four shows.

The survivors of the Polish Arctic expedition have arrived in Boston.

A Scene in Boston. Recently a young man, poorly but neatly clad, applied for lodgings at a post office station, stating that he had just arrived in the city and was penniless, had a heart-broke and heart-broke. He was slowly dying with consumption, and, alone in the world, he sought only a place to remain until he died. His cheeks were sunken, and his hollow eyes told too plainly of the truth of his story. "I can do nothing but put you in a warm cell," said the kind-hearted lieutenant; "nothing but that, and you could scarcely breathe there. If you wish to go to the City Hospital, you will be turned away, for they receive no incurable cases there. Haven't you relatives who will take care of you?" "Not one, sir. I haven't a relative in the world. I don't know of my existence, and I can't stay long here, sir. It won't be only a little while that I shall clutter you with my presence. Can't I find someone who will take care of me?" "I can't tell me that a dying man's sake, sir, don't tell me that a dying man's sake, sir, don't tell me that a dying man's sake, sir."

A TERRIBLE calamity occurred to the family of Joseph Dalrymple, of Harrison township, a few miles from Elkhart, Indiana, Wednesday evening. A young son of Mr. Dalrymple set fire to the straw tick of his bed while retiring, and the father went to his room, followed by the mother and a sister about 19 years old. Mr. Dalrymple seized the burning tick and rushed down stairs with it, leaving his family behind. Everything combustible was set on fire by the flaming bed, shutting off the eyes of mother, daughter and son, and before any assistance could be rendered they perished in the flames, which completely destroyed the house.

AT HOME.

The French government has decided to loan a military transport to the United States.

At Hamilton, Canada, on Thursday, one Fields, crazed with drink, fatally injured his wife with an axe and then cut the throats of his two children.

JUROR JEROME NAROLENS has arrived in Paris, where his presence occasions some agitation. The French government writes this.

For a man and a woman, all in the dark, the time is long. The oak and the ash and the elm tree never one from another can I divorce.

THE WAR IN CHINA. Who constitute the Opposing Forces--Description of a Man--A Journey--and its Causes--Former Missions--From the New York Herald.

The imperialist forces that commenced their march against Talifoo about eight months since have succeeded in conquering the province of Tsin-tsin, signaling their success by a slaughter of 30,000 inhabitants and the capture of 500,000 head of cattle.

THE INSURRECTION. The insurrection in the Northern and Western provinces of China assumed serious proportions in 1896. The emperor, by the view of contracted territory, save that discontent with the central authority at Pekin was general and extensive. Many Musulmans were taken by the rebels to that part of the empire, but no good result was effected between them and the natives.

Religion in the University

A Letter from Senator Crosby which doesn't agree with Mr. McCracken - FRIEND HISE: As a member of the Senate Committee to investigate charges against the alleged sectarian character of the University of Mich., I have been especially interested in the controversy sought to be continued on the subject by Mr. McCracken, but pained to learn that he has misinterpreted the action of the Senate upon the presentation of his memorial. It is true as he states in his letter to you, that "when a paper is presented by a Senator, with the request that it be printed, it invariably takes that order unless objection made", but it is also equally true, that when petitions or memorials are presented they are not ordered printed unless by special request, and are only referred to in the Journal by their title. This may not have been the intention of the author of the memorial referred to, but was the understanding of many Senators as to the disposal of the same, when it was first presented in the forenoon session of Feb. 11th. The question however did arise and to definitely settle, and to satisfy both sides, (as to printing at length in the Journal) it was disposed of upon action of the Senate in afternoon of the same day on Senator Emersons motion.

This is the view I took of it at first, and reflection has only confirmed and strengthened my opinion. Now Mr. McCracken will hardly dispute what I have stated in reference to general action of the Senate during its late session with reference to printing of memorials etc; for there was frequent occasion to take action upon them (as to whether or no they should be printed). The vote upon the one in question was but ordinary and certainly in accordance with the practice of present Senate.

I take this opportunity to state further, that I regard the charge made by Mr. McCracken in his recent pamphlet on "Religion in the University", viz; that Senator Childs "in violation of all good taste and propriety solicited and received a position on the special committee", unwarranted by the facts, and calculated to injure a most worthy christian gentleman. Bold and outspoken in whatever he believes to be right, no matter what may be the result to himself personally, I do not think the Senator needs seek positions to which he is entitled by higher and purer claims.

As to the University, I am satisfied it will stand the storm, and it won't be long either. Attempts to impair its usefulness by making it any the less christian in its character and aim will fail, so long as our noble State will be guided by that wisdom and judgment which they have hitherto shown, and which is the common heritage of a free people.

I am Truly Yours,
MOREAU S. CROSBY.

PERSONAL.—Will, Edie returned last Friday from bleeding Kansas, after over a months ride in an emigrant wagon. Will in company with Mr. John Tate and family started from Kansas, 150 miles west of the Missouri river, on the 20th of May, and came across the country in the good old way "they used to travel". He was highly pleased with the trip, as it gave him a fine opportunity to see the country.

THE MEADOW KING MOWER.

WE INVITE the attention of all in need of a mower, to this machine. It is not an experimental machine, full of imperfections, as are nearly all new machines. It has been in use six seasons, (we have handled it two without selling a cent's worth of extras) and it has established a reputation second to none. We now offer it to farmers as the CHEAPEST MOST SIMPLE, and PRACTICABLE, machine in use. It is more durable and of Lighter Draft than any other mower made, and is
