A TOUCHING WAR INCIDENT.

A correspondent relates the following incident of the recent war in Spain: "A volunteer was firing and advancing as the civil guards retreated, when he heard a wretched voice asking for water. The volunteer, a young man whose heart had not yet been petrified by the horrors he witnessed around him, ran up to where the voice came from. A civil guard was lying in a pool of mud and blood. He was shot through the breast, and his glazed eyes heralded approaching death. He was lying close to a fountain. Without losing a moment the volunteer ran to the fountain, and back his cup full of water. The blood was gushing from the poor soldier's mouth; but the volunteer having raised his head to his knees poured down his throat the precious liquid. It was getting dark, and up to this time the volunteer had not noticed the features of his companion; imagine his horror when he discovered that the drooping head was that of a child; which was disengaging itself from his arms, and was being held by a man in military dress, who was his father, a respectable non-commissioned officer in the Civil Guards. The unfortunate man did not recognize his child; it was too late, he sank to eternal rest, with his head resting on the knees of a repentant son, who has now thrown away his life and resolutely refused to fight again."

A rich man, who had no children, proposed to the poor widow...

Which shall it be? Which shall it be? I looked at John...

I will give a house and land while you shall live, if, in return, from out your seven...

"Come, John," said I, "We'll choose among them as they lie along..."

"No, no," said John, "I would not dare to take him from behind his back..."

Then she softly up she went, And with her hand she laid...

And so we wrote, in courteous way, As could our hearts desire...

"Dearly-beloved brethren (hem)!" began the District Attorney...

"Dearly-beloved brethren, we are gathered here in the sight of God..."

"I say, sur, are ye the boss lawyer of the bar?" said the District Attorney...

"Are you on the marry?" the stranger asked pleasantly...

"I mean have ye ever done any marryin' yerself?" explained the stranger...

"Well, no," said the District Attorney, "Bekase I'd like ye to spolie myself..."

"Oh, certainly," said the District Attorney, "Well, come on this—there's a horse..."

Writing from Kurrahee, India, on the 8th inst., the correspondent signing himself H. Isaac Walton...

"The cable between Kurrahee and Gwadar (a distance of about three hundred miles) suddenly failed on the evening of the 4th inst..."

"No gain or diversion can describe the extravagances of congratulation that followed this impressive ceremony..."

"It was a very lively assemblage indeed. Old Brady himself could hardly keep his feet, and refused to charge for his rum..."

"Something that is handed down in the Flat this day for when Mr. Brady was sober or even ordinarily drunk, he was a great skinflint..."

"So I'm I said Lanky Tom, giving a sharp little kick to a gentleman on whom he was while sitting..."

"You lie," answered the General, and shot him through the head. It was done before poor One-eyed Jim could raise his pistol...

"The view was taken of it by the Flat next morning, and as a public manifestation of confidence in the purity of the means of conveyance..."

"There was nothing mean about the flat. It cheerfully voted a holiday to boy One-eyed Jim..."

"One-eyed Jim, in life, had a habit of sneering at the means of conveyance used for driving him to poker..."

"The friends will please gather in a circle," While this was being done in the flat...

"Dearly-beloved brethren (hem)!" began the District Attorney in a peevish tone...

"Dearly-beloved brethren, we are gathered here in the sight of God, and in the face of this court..."

"I say, sur, are ye the boss lawyer of the bar?" said the District Attorney, putting on his hat...

"Are you on the marry?" the stranger asked pleasantly, as he got off the mule and took a seat on a rock by the water's edge...

"I mean have ye ever done any marryin' yerself?" explained the stranger, leisurely cutting a pipeful from a plug of tobacco...

"Well, no," said the District Attorney, "Bekase I'd like ye to spolie myself..."

"Oh, certainly," said the District Attorney, "Well, come on this—there's a horse for ye..."

A NEW THING

UNDER THE SUN!

West's American Tire Setter

For Setting Carriage and Wagon Tire Cold, on the wheel,

With which any of BROOK TIREs can be set in Ten Minutes.

It is one of the most wonderful time and labor-saving machines of the age.
Not tearing the wheel to pieces, not taking out bolts, no breaking paint, no burning the felloe or boring new holes, but simply taking the wheel from the axle, putting it into the machine, and returning it to the owner, tightened in the most satisfactory manner, all in two or three minutes.

The undersigned has one of these machines at his blacksmith shop, and has the

EXCLUSIVE RIGHT

For the town of Lowell. All who have seen it operate pronounce it the best invention in use for setting tires.

Remember I warrant all tire set with this Machine.

HORSE SHOEING

I have nothing to do with moved all work to

WILSON'S OLD SHOP

J. S. Wilson,

"A New Broom Sweeps Clean," is an old adage, and we shall try and prove the adage true as regards a new firm, but shall endeavor to do as clean work after the newness has worn off

Every shrewd business man can buy goods for Cash at about the same price, and no man can buy and sell goods without a profit. Hence, when a merchant advertises that he can sell his goods a great deal lower than his neighbors, every sensible person knows that he is promising that which he is unable to perform.

We expect to buy our goods

CHEAP AS CASH CAN BUY THEM,

and to sell them as cheap as they
CAN BE AFFORDED,
