The Ladies' Benevolent Society will meet at the residence of Mrs. C. T. Wooding on Friday afternoon. Full attendance desired.

ALL of eighteen hundred and seventy-four papers, announce that the Duke of Edinburgh and Princess Maria have been married. Nothing has been received from any other source to confirm the statement.

BAY CITY is noted for its accidents, man-haters, and wife-killers. The latest scene was Patrick Thomas, a man of 60, in the act of murdering his wife with an axe. He left her for dead, but the wounds have not yet proven fatal.

A NEW paper has recently been started at Chase, Lake county, called the Weekly Herald. Its publisher, Thos. D. Talbot, shows commendable grip, and we think he'll win in that Chase.

THE meeting of the State grangers at Kalamazoo was largely attended by the Patrons of Michigan, over 500 delegates being present. Among those who went from this section were Hon. A. S. Stannard and wife of So. Boston, Morgan Lyon of Vergennes, and Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Curtiss of Lowell.

HON. M. S. CROSBY, our worthy State Senator, confines himself very closely to his insurance work. Though not especially delighted with the thought of going to Lansing this winter, he considers it important that an extra session should be held, and is ready to obey the summons.

WE believe that Cyprian S. Hooker Esq., of Lowell, is now the oldest mason living in Michigan. If not the oldest he is one of the oldest. Mr. Hooker was made a mason in the year 1818, and has been one of the most active members of the craft nearly 56 years. His first light in masonry was given him in Painted Post (N. Y.) Lodge, No. 203. He has been a resident of Michigan since 1827, and came to Lowell, in time to erect the first frame house in the township, which was, we believe, in 1846. Being one of the charter members of Lowell Lodge No. 90, Mr. Hooker has always been and is yet, a most faithful attendant at its meetings, and an earnest worker. Hooker Chapter No. 73, R. A. M., of this village, was named in honor of the worthy subject of this sketch, who was first chosen King, and subsequently High Priest. He has been a Knight for many years and belongs to the De Molai Commandery of Grand Rapids, beloved by all his brother Knights. Though now nearly seventy-seven years of age, Mr. Hooker is remarkably active, and the night must be a bleak and stormy one that keeps him from meeting with his brethren of the mystic tie, "when there is work to do."

EDITOR JOURNAL.—In last week's JOURNAL, in the article on James Barnard, there appears a slur on Theodore Nelson Esq., wholly uncalled for and doubtless unintentional on the part of the writer, and I therefore conclude that the informant either did not know the facts or designedly withheld them. Mr. Nelson generously consented to be bail for Mr. Barnard for the appearance of the latter for trial at the March term of the Circuit Court, and he justified as such bail, but on examining the papers closely, they were found to be so fatally defective that bail could not be taken. And the only thing which Deputy Sheriff Tate could do was to put Barnard in jail according to the command of his mittimus. The next morning Judge Hoyt granted a writ of habeas corpus, and discharged Mr. Barnard indefinitely on account of said defect. Thus ends that prosecution, and the taxpayers of the county will have to pay the bills.

T. J. SLAYTON.

LOWELL, Jan. 26, 1874.

YOU ASK how trade and commerce is in Grand Rapids and the commercial men of that city will say, "Ju-sa-lem! mighty dull" but a cursory glance about the county offices will show you that business there is lively. Register Hunt is at his post from morning till night, and always busy. We are informed by parties who have had considerable business done there, that Mr. Hunt is very popular and one of the best Registers Kent Co., ever had; which Mr. Hunt's friends in Lowell are glad to hear. The County Register's room is being enlarged to take in the office occupied by the Judge of Probate. And friend Harlan, the Judge, and Perkins, the Register, will hereafter be found in the new structure one door beyond. They have no time to fold their hands and take a little more sleep. County Clerk Chipman, though always jolly and happy, is at present doing as much work as ought to be required of two able-bodied County Clerks. The Courts and the Supervisors are unloading their lumber together and Chipman is piling it all up for both. Prosecuting Attorney Burlingame has been hauled about the county day and night until he would rather go a fishing or have a deputy. On the who we think our county officers earn their money.

LT. GOV. HOLT has returned from his visit to Europe, much improved in health and in time to preside over the deliberations of the Senate at its special session in March.

WHILE M. B. Hine Esq., of Austerlitz, was present at the meeting of Grangers at Kalamazoo last week, he received a telegram from home announcing that his mill dam had gone out. The recent "break up" caused considerable damage in various localities.

L. D. SUNDERLIN, of Fort Scott, Kansas, arrived in town last week. "Denny" is engaged with his father in the manufacture and sale of Dr. Sunderlin's ague remedy. We understand their headquarters will hereafter be at St. Louis, Mo.

REV. L. F. WALDO started for Pentwater last Saturday morning, having decided to accept the call extended to him by the Congregational Church of that place. The best wishes of his Lowell friends go with him.

MUNELL "was not himself at all," at Auburn. The man arrested there rejoices in the cognomen of Crowley, and he wouldn't change boots with a dozen Munells. Crowley was released, the officers have returned, and Munell is (a journalist ought not to allow his sympathy for the friends of a criminal to so influence him as to withhold information that would bring that criminal to justice, but in this instance) we cannot tell where.

MR. J. E. MASS, agent for the new History of Grand Rapids, is canvassing Lowell and vicinity. The work contains a complete history of the city and county with interesting biographical sketches of the principal men of the past and present. He is also selling chromos of the Yosemite Valley, with a key thereto, for one dollar each. Mr. M. puts up at the Morrison House.

"I've got a desire to go West and grow up with the place; I've got it bad. I want to breathe the pure mountain air and draw my little sister to school on a hand-sled, where it's easier for children to honor their father and mother than it is here. I want to go now before I forget it."

—Our reporter looked into the hotel and saw at a glance why he felt as he did. The other fellow had him cornered and was about to demolish him with his fist. The prayer of the petitioner was not granted, but the petitioner's ears were cuffed into rolls.

THERE is so much of beauty and artistic excellence in the February number of the ALDINE, no lover of the fine arts can well allow it to remain a closed book.—The promise held out for the New Year, in the January number, of a volume of surpassing worth and taste, is sustained in this issue. A dozen beautiful pictures embellish its pages, more than half of which are original American views. Mr. W. M. Cary has a spirited full page picture of "Antelope hunting on the on the plains." Mr. John Hows has a series of five pictures, which he drew last summer in the lovely region of the famous Juniata River in Pennsylvania. One of these is a grand and massive whole-page picture, representing "The Juniata River," near Huntingdon, Pa., showing a deep cut through the rocks on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad. Two large companion pieces give the beholder wild and rugged views of the inlet and outlet of "Sinking Spring," a river which flows a mile under the mountains. Two other charming sketches, full of beautiful water, cloud and foliage effects, are sketches of the river—"Dewiston Narrows," and "Juniata River near Lewiston." Specht has a fine picture of Scotch greyhounds, "Gentlemaen of Leisure," and "Cinderella," is one of those fairy-like pictures, after Lejeune, representing a pretty maiden sitting by the open fire-place.

The Literary contents of this number of the Aldine are choice, varied, and original. The catalogue is so lengthy that we cannot enumerate, but we think we can safely say that no other American publication ever offered its readers so many art and literary attractions. Subscription price, $5, including chromos, "The East" and "The West." James Sutton & Co., publishers, 58 Maiden Lane, New York City.

JOHN S. HOOKER was the first mason made in Lowell Lodge No. 90, and the first High Priest of Hooker Chapter No. 73, R. A. M.

REV. D. L. EATON is favorably spoken of for pastor of the Lowell Congregational Church. We are inclined to think Mr. Eaton is the right man.

MR. WM. CARLETON, whose flaming posters announced that he would recite at Music Hall last Wednesday evening, evidently expected a large audience to greet him, but ere the hour arrived for the poet (?) to appear, it was generally understood that this Wm. Carleton was not WILL M. CARLETON, our Michigan poet. The agent who distributed the circulars was a generous chap; he permitted as many of our citizens as would, to believe that they were to be favored with a rich treat by the famous Will M., and quite a number were at first deceived, but soon became enlightened, and didn't invite their families to accompany them to the "Carleton readings." Only two or three came, the readings were indefinitely postponed, and the next day Mr. Wm. C. and his man Friday, started for Grand Rapids, dead broke and as down-hearted as the old lady who went "over the hill to the poor house."

THE G. R. Democrat recently observed that the Hastings Banner, whose editor was a State Senator, the Kalamazoo Telegraph, whose editor was Secretary, and the Lowell JOURNAL, whose editor was Assistant Secretary of the Senate, were all in favor of an extra session of the Legislature. That's a good joke, and the only reason why we didn't get it off before Clark did, is because we didn't think of it. But don't leave any of them out. There is Rose, of the Big Rapids Magnet; he is a member of the House, and has written a more plausible yarn than any of us, in favor of that extra session of twenty days at three dollars a day. We could have put a little more vim into our article than we did, but that three dollars a day doesn't include boarding and washing. And in this connection we might mention that Miller, of the Mr. Clemens Reporter, the Asst. Enrolling Clerk of the House, is still undecided as to the wisdom of holding an extra session. But not so with W. S. George & Co., of the Lansing Republic; they are State Printers and heartily approve the Governor's call.

To the Friends of the Cause of Temperance.

We the undersigned, being desirous of furthering the cause of temperance, and thereby promoting the universal good of mankind, by removing from our midst and surroundings the great stumbling block to happiness and progression, Intemperance; and believing it obligatory on us that we leave our record through this checkered life untarnished and worthy the emulation of our children and all others who may look to us for council and advice, the moulding of whose future lives, whether for good or evil, is more or less in our hands,

Therefore: To bring about such a desired result, the moral and religious training of our youth as well as future social and intellectual development, we earnestly invite your co-operation in behalf of the good cause. To initiate this movement we have called a meeting to be held at the house of J. D. Husted, on Thursday evening, January 29th, 1874, to discuss the merits of this subject preparatory to organizing a Lodge under the Temperance Banner, leaving it to you under what society we will organize—whether Good Templars or Sons of Temperance. We solicit the aid of all favorable to the undertaking, and cordially invite your presence at the proposed meeting. We are in the Cause of Temperance.

Claim that they CAN and WILL sell the same Quality of goods
Cheaper than any other Jewelry
House in the State, for the following reasons:

They buy exclusively for Cash, which enables them to take advantage of the markets.

They make a personal selection of Foreign Goods in the markets where they are produced. They are the only Jewelry House in the State that imports their own purchases direct through the Detroit Custom House, paying no commissions to New York importers.

Their annual sales are Five Times as great as those of any other house in their line in the State, making their expenses a smaller percentage on the amount sold. They buy directly of the manufacturers, thus saving to their customers the jobber's profit. Their Foreign Watches, French Clocks, Music Boxes and Opera Glasses are made to order expressly for their trade, and are far superior to similar goods offered to the general trade.

Joseph Komela has been arrested at Albany, N. Y., at the request of the Sheriff of Macomb County, charged with a murder perpetrated in November, 1872.

David Parmenter of Ionia township was seriously injured a few days since, by being thrown from his sleigh, through the horses running away.

Selma Hed, the little Swede girl who received such terrible injuries in the railroad accident at Muir, in August last, has so far recovered as to be able to walk out with a crutch.

Coal of a superior quality, containing but slight traces of sulphur, has been discovered within the corporate limits of Mason, at a depth of forty feet from the surface. The vein is two feet eight inches in thickness.

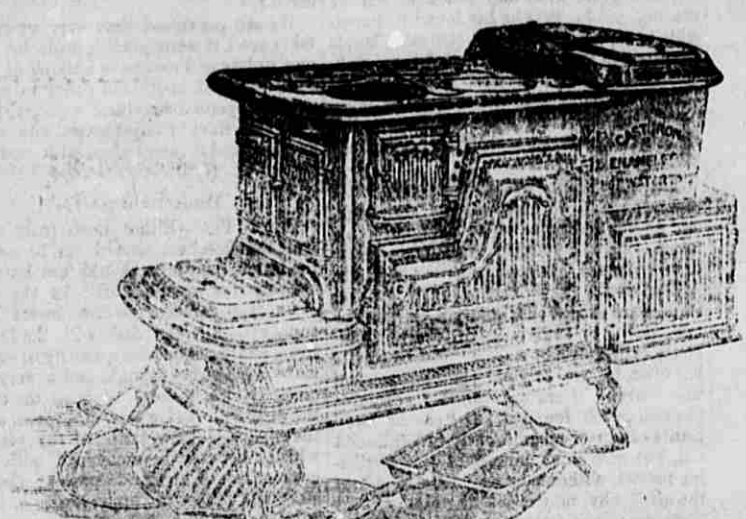

Francis W. Sellock, one of the prominent merchants of Paw Paw, was arrested on the 20th, charged with forging a mortgage for $505 and held in the sum of $2,000 for his appearance February 10th for examination before Justice Galligan.

A serious affray occurred at White Pigeon, on the 23d, between Charles Mayett and Frank Hathaway, in which Hathaway was assaulted by Mayett with an ax, cutting several gashes about the head, one or more penetrating the skull and occasioning very dangerous if not fatal wounds. Mayett fled and has not been arrested. The trouble arose from family difficulties.

The Coldwater Republican says: A singular epidemic is prevailing among the horses in different parts of this country. They are attacked with what we should call a "crazy fit," rearing and plunging in their stalls, sweating very freely and frothing at the mouth. As soon as they are taken from their stalls the paroxysms subside, and the animal becomes quiet. No cases have yet resulted fatal.

NEW FIRM, AND CHEAP GOODS.

"A New Broom Sweeps Clean," is an old adage, and we shall try and prove the adage true as regards a new firm, but shall endeavor to do as clean work after the newness has worn off.

Every shrewd business man can buy goods for Cash at about the same price, and no man can buy and sell goods without a profit. Hence, when a merchant advertises that he can sell his goods a great deal lower than his neighbors, every sensible person knows that he is promising that which he is unable to perform.

We expect to buy our goods as

CHEAP AS CASH CAN BUY THEM, AND TO SELL THEM AS CHEAP AS THEY CAN BE AFFORDED, MAKING

AND
SMALL PROFITS,
OUR MOTTO,

Put us to the test and see if we can perform what we advertise.

THE ALDINE.

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsome Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in book or News Store.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or flimsy interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. The possession of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engraving in any other or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos besides!

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Theodor Moran and J. D. Woodard.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attractions any of its predecessors.

MEMBER FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in The White Mountains, New Hampshire; the other gives The Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscriber should indicate a preference for a given subject, the publishers will send "Thought of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14x20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longing of his heart.

TERMS.—$4 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 cents extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, framed and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the canvasser is given bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES BUTTON & CO.

Canvassers Wanted.

Any person wishing to act permanently as a local canvasser will receive full and prompt information by applying to
