JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

S. A. MORRISON will give a Sugar Party about the 10th of next month.

Deputy Tate gave a man the job of counting the grades in the cooler Monday.

Hall & Ramsdell have got their Indian in good shape and propose doing business now.

A Sugar Festival will be given by the Methodist society, at the church, this Wednesday evening.

Mr. J. P. Flanagan has gone to Saranac, where he will sell pictures and frames at Chicago prices.

The mail train coming east took a misstep and walked of the track a little below here yesterday.

The Grand Rapids Guards passed through here Monday en route to Greenville to quell the disturbance among the lumbermen in that vicinity.

A man reported that he caught and sent to this office a seven pound pickerel one day last week. We've heard tell of fish stories before.

If anyone has lost a ten dollar greenback for which they can't account, such person will hear of something to their advantage by calling at this office.

THE First Spiritual Society of Lowell will meet in quarterly convention in Train's Hall, next Saturday and Sunday, March 28 and 29. Eld. T. H. Stewart, Lecturer.

Harry Dickenson, the gentlemanly business and contracting agent for the "Original Peak Family" harpists, vocalists and Swiss Bell Ringers, gave us a call yesterday. See his card to the citizens of this of this village on fifth page.

AN Indiana editor mildly observes in his local columns: "If you can't bring us wood remember us in your prayers. It is something to know, as we sit and shiver, that we are not forgotten if the stove is cold."

Scene in one of our dry goods stores; Young Lady—"How much for this piece of print?" Clerk—"Eight cents, mum." Lady—"Eighteen cents; I'll give you seventeen." Clerk—"Eight cents, mum." Lady—"Oh! eight cents; I'll give you seven."

Mr. J. F. Cheabro was arrested in this village on Monday on complaint of of H. A. Rice, on a charge of making false pretenses, in their washing machine transactions.

Waters possessing mineral properties superior to most if not all of the Mineral Springs in the Northwest, have been discovered at Paw Paw in Van Buren County, and Paw Paw aspires to be the resort for invalids in search of this remedy.

We've received a circular from a New Yorker who says he is coming to Michigan with a circus sometime, and if we will give him a half column puff he'll reciprocate—which we suppose means that he'll tantalize us with cigar smoke and squirt tobacco juice about our sanctum.

The jury in the libel suit against Woodhull, Claflin and Blood, after remaining out all night, returned a verdict of not guilty. Vic. and Tennie wept tears of joy and the excitement is said to have been the greatest ever seen in the general sessions court.

Heeman Dawson, the fellow who enjoyed himself so hugely when choking his wife, throwing kerosene lamps on the floor, and trying to put a head on Ad. Kniffin and so forth, has been tranquilized. They don't keep the necessities for his gratification at Hayne's Castle on the Grand.

REV. A. ROGERS delivered the second of his course of lectures on "Methodism" to a very large congregation last Sunday evening. His remarks were confined to the history of the Methodist Church in America, and were of the most entertaining and instructive character. He speaks further on the same subject next Sunday evening.

ONLY a penny. Impostors are appearing in many of the smaller towns of the State, and our citizens should be careful how they leave a seeker of alms in possession of a room containing anything worth carrying off. We were visited by four such personages Saturday and kept our eyes peeled lest they made off with a press or two; they couldn't find anything else if they should try.

Mr. Henry Lewis is agent and will canvass Lowell and Cascade for the Fire-side Friend, an excellent literary paper published weekly by Waters & Co. of Chicago. The subscription price is $3 a year, and for fifty cents extra ($3.50) they send either of two beautiful chromos, "Sunbeam" or "Cute;" the former is truly a Sunbeam. These chromos are given with the paper one year for $3.50, already mounted, varnished and framed in heavy black walnut and gilt frames.

WE HAVE heard it rumored by people past the prime of life that their days of courtship were their happiest—only a rumor. Wonder if they ever stood on the middle of a street-crossing half an hour with one arm around their love and the other holding down their head to keep each respectively from blowing away, with the thermometer at zero and an abridged edition of the flood meandering along their spine, waiting for a flash of lightning to show them the location of the fence corner.

TOWN TALK, of the Sat. Eve. Post expresses himself in a u-b-dam manner in the last issue of that paper, and we're putting up to the effect that he is not at work in the interests of the gambling fraternity, as, we believe, has been intimated by certain cotemporaries. He promises to show the victims how they have been fleeced without winning fifty or seventy-five 'cases' just to make it interesting. Sometime ago a reward of $25.00 was offered for his detection; certain persecuted individuals in that vicinity can afford to go ten-fold better now.

ONE of our citizens wanted us to write him up an advertisement for a cow, last Saturday. We wrote and had set up the following:

WANTED.—A new milk cow, for which cash will be paid. He called again Monday, and said he had just purchased a cow, but wanted a girl to do housework, and to save time and money, we might "just take out the word 'cow' and insert 'girl'." We did so and made it convenient to show him a proof just prior to going to press. He settled his bill to date, made a few scriptural quotations, and report has just reached us that he wants to dispose of his real and personal estate.

Amusing—to see business men rushing around the streets in their shirt sleeves endeavoring to make two shillings, and the women doing likewise trying to spend a couple dollars.

The original "Senior" Peak Family Swiss Bell Ringers, who will appear at Music Hall next Monday evening, March 30, are so well and favorably known all over our land that words of commendation from us would appear superfluous. This is their first visit to the West in thirteen years, but all of our exchanges are unanimous in recommending their entertainments as eminently first class and pleasing, and it is probable that at no time in the past have they ever given a more complete and attractive programme than they are now prepared to render. Let there be a full house to greet the coming of this time honored company. Reserved seats can be procured without extra charge at West's Drug Store where a diagram of the hall may be seen.

Thirty years ago James Lafferty stood at the wheel of the steamboat Eric where his companion was burned at his post, and his own clothes were on fire, hands and face crisped by the surging flames, to save the lives of passengers. He was a hero then. Time effaces these memories, and in the city where his praises were so loudly sung he now pines in jail a vagrant. Unless a life of continued effort adorns a noble character, individual acts of heroism are forgotten, and in the hour of adversity charity is withheld and punishment is visited with unrelenting severity for offences which would have once been overlooked. To-day a hero—tomorrow a vagrant.

ED. JOURNAL.—As many are anxious to know the result of my writing school, I append a report as given by Prof. C. G. Swensberg of the Grand Rapids Business College. The schools closed Thursday, March 19.

First class, 25 lessons: Ladies—Miss Clara Thomas, Miss Emma White, and Miss Louisa Hawes.

Gentlemen—Mr. Arthur Husted, John F. Norcutt, and Walstein B. Wyman. Second Class, 20 lessons: Ladies—Miss Esther A. Burnett, Miss Mary DeLaney. Gentlemen—Master Harry Easterbrook Albert Hine.

Miss Alice Jackson's writing was highly complimented. Prof. Hicks says: "The specimens exhibit a marked improvement, and are flattering both to teacher and scholar." Several visitors who were present at the close of the school were unanimous in the opinion that a great improvement was obvious. When I have decided as to the number and quality of the prizes, they will be sent to Prof. Hicks, who will distribute the same. I thank the Common Council for the use of the Engine room which was generously tendered.

I am, Yours Truly,
J. P. FLANAGIN.

P. S.—Many citizens promised to support the school, but pie-crust promises are of little avail anyway and their interests have not been promoted nor their credit increased.

The Trouble at Greenville.

GREENVILLE, March 23, 1874.

The skirmishing between the two booming companies on Flat River has commenced. The old company raised the gates of the dam at "six lakes" to comply, its officers state, with the terms of an injunction issued by the Circuit Court of this county against that company. The new company attributed a different motive, namely, that of leaving the up river logs without any water to run them. The new company promptly closed the gates. The old company sent officers who arrested the men at the dam and again raised the gates, assuring the new company at the same time that if the dam was again interfered it would be immediately destroyed.

The mill owners on the river, under a decision of the Supreme Court of this State to the effect that in streams valuable for floatage, merely, the rights of those using the waters for floating purposes was only equal to the rights of those who use the waters for manufacturing purposes, have not this season "drawn" their ponds as has hitherto been customary during log running times. On Saturday the new company cut the gates at Gowan and at the Underhill pond, and it was expected they would attempt to cut the gates of the ponds in this city on Saturday night; but fortunately no such attempt was made. The shutes are so arranged that logs may be run, but the mill owners refuse to draw their water and stop the mills, and they say that should any attempt be made to interfere with their rights, as at Gowan on Saturday, they will meet force with force.

The guards at the ponds on Saturday night were armed. It is hoped that an amicable adjustment may be made.

Later—The Grand Rapids Guards arrived here at six o'clock, and are now awaiting orders.

LATEST—The Guards returned to Grand Rapids last night without doing any bloody business. They had a good time and enjoyed the trip. The rioters are quiet and further disturbance is not probable.

The $150,000.00 Court House.

EDITOR JOURNAL: Do the people of this county realize that they are asked to vote at the next town meeting, to tax themselves $150,000.00, to build a new court house in Grand Rapids? And this large sum is to be paid in four years! Now isn't that a cool, a decidedly cool proposition! Just as if the people were not taxed anything already; while the fact is Mr. Editor, that we are taxed enormously. I wonder that the people in this part of Michigan are so uncomplaining under such a burden of taxation. The eastern and southern portions of the State do not pay such a heavy percent as we do. In the western part of the State of New York a farm worth $6,000 would pay a tax of $20; here $60 three times as much. Is it to be wondered at that tax collectors take four months for collecting taxes, instead of two; and even then are compelled to force payment by levy and sale?

Taxation at best, is oppression, and oppression is tyranny. And the apathy of the people under tyranny shows how hopeless is the despotism. But the reason given why we should tax ourselves $150,000.00, is to build the Court House now so as not to lose the site donated to the County on that condition. In reply I say that it is a location which we do not want; it is not central nor convenient for the county business; and to pay $150,000.00 in order to save a thing we do not want, is poor financing to say the least. We are now building a State Capitol to cost $3,000,000.00 and no one knows how much more before it is finished, and it has to be paid for now out of each yearly tax. The County jail is but just paid for. Our War Bonds and Bridge Bonds are but lately taken up and in the name of common sense, I ask, is there not to be some rest from such everlasting and oppressive taxes? May the people answer at the polls.

How natural it is for a man, when he makes a mistake, to korrek it by kissing someone else fur it.

M.S. SMITH & CO.
Claim that they CAN and WILL sell the same Quality of goods Cheaper than any other Jewelry House in the State, for the following reasons:

They buy exclusively for Cash, which enables them to take advantage of the markets.

They make a personal selection of Foreign Goods in the markets where they are produced. They are the only Jewelry House in the State that imports their own purchases direct through the Detroit Custom House, paying no commissions to New York importers.

Their annual sales are Five Times as great as those of any other house in their line in the State, making their expenses a smaller percentage on the amount sold. They buy directly of the manufacturers, thus saving to their customers the jobber's profit. Their Foreign Watches, French Clocks, Music Boxes and Opera Glasses are made to order expressly for their trade, and are far superior to similar goods offered to the general trade.

THE LOWELL JOURNAL TEMPERANCE.

While the press is so enthusiastically proclaiming the advancement of the "Woman's Temperance Movement," and applauding the glorious victories reported achieved, we must make known our doubts, relative to its propriety, its necessity, and the glowing pictures of progress portrayed by its leaders and colleagues. There are some men so depraved by nature that no influence is powerful enough to keep them from evil. Such cases must needs be exceptions as well to the triumphs of the "Crusade" as to the influences exerted in their behalf from any other source. Mothers who have sons to rear and dread the demoralizing influences produced by bad associations, ought to understand the nature of young manhood. It is excessively restless. It is disturbed by vague ambitions, by thirst for action, by longings for excitement, irrefragable desires to touch life in manifold ways. If you, mothers, rear your sons so that their homes are associated with the repression of these natural instincts, you will be sure to throw them into the society that in some measure can supply the need of their hearts. They will not go to the public houses at first for love of liquor—very few people ever really like the taste of liquor—they will go for the animated and hilarious companionship they find there, which they discover does so much to repress the disturbing restlessness in their breasts. See to it that their homes compete with public places in attractiveness. Banish, by every available means, those demons of dullness and apathy that have so long ruled in the household, and bring in mirth and pleasant games. Stimulate their ambitions in worthy directions. Whether they shall pass happy boyhoods and enter upon manhood with refined tastes and noble ambitions, depends upon you.

The influence of a wife is perhaps abridged by the facts of the training of her husband. He comes to her a man with his habits formed. As an almost general rule, women are content with a calm, colorless life, while men want stimulating society, and unless woman can comprehend this masculine need, they will fail to exercise that influence which might be made supreme. These crusaders, while they are gaining, one point by their "pluck" are throwing to waste innumerable attractions both around the hearthstone and family circle, as an eminent divine phrases it, "Return to your homes! Scorn the thought that you cannot make your households more delightful and attractive than a bar-room." Banish narrow asceticism. Be bright and stimulating companions for your husbands and sons. Understand that badly kept homes have driven more men into the irregularities of intemperance than anything, and then bear in mind that upon you mainly rests the responsibility for the evils arising consequent. We would not be understood to assert that intemperance would end with the change in the policy of woman that has been proposed. Intemperance often comes of causes too subtle for human analysis.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean is the most conspicuous advocate of "inflation" in the West, and its editorial columns continually reiterate the statement that we have not currency enough. But the manager of its commercial department needs some disciplining, for in his money article on Thursday last he used this language: "The demand for money is fair, especially from speculative operators, and there is little trouble experienced in obtaining all the favors requested. Outside parties are borrowing very little money at present, and the banks report no particularly urgent demand for money."

CHEAP GOODS.

"A New Broom Sweeps Clean," is an old adage, and we shall try and prove the adage true as regards a new firm, but shall endeavor to do as clean work after the newness has worn off.

Every shrewd business man can buy goods for Cash at about the same price, and no man can buy and sell goods without a profit. Hence, when a merchant advertises that he can sell his goods a great deal lower than his neighbors, every sensible person knows that he is promising that which he is unable to perform.

We expect to buy our goods as

CHEAP AS CASH CAN BUY THEM, and to sell them as cheap as they CAN BE AFFORDED.
