Due Notice.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

In a few weeks the JOURNAL will enter upon its tenth year, and with the first number of Vol. X., I shall commence sending the JOURNAL to those subscribers only who have paid in advance, and shall adhere strictly to the advance pay system as long as I continue to publish this paper. My reasons for taking this step have been given in previous numbers of the JOURNAL, and all who have come forward to comply with the requirements, have left their approval and best wishes. All this is encouraging; so much so, that I want as much more of the same as I can get.

The announcement of this new departure was made early, in order that all subscribers might have abundant time to pay up before July 1st.

RENEW! RENEW!

At once, and rest assured that the JOURNAL will always be a welcome visitor to you if the head and hands of its editor can make it such. Let the editor devote the vast amount of time he is compelled to lose in looking after his back pay, to the work of writing up the news of the day and local events, and he will give you a much better paper. A new subscription list will be made out in a few weeks, and in order to have your names transferred, to that list it will be necessary for you to Pay up before July 1st.

The above is for delinquents. Any efforts, no matter how strenuous, on the part of our friends, to secure additional subscribers to the JOURNAL will be fully appreciated by their obedient servant,

JAS. W. HINE,

JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

Arrangements will soon be made to effect a Woman Suffrage organization in Lowell.

Temperance lecture at Train's Hall this Wednesday evening by Mr. Russell, of Detroit. Go and hear him.

Two valuable horses, "Mountain Boy" and "Little Longfellow," fell dead on the race course at Grand Rapids last week. Heart disease the supposed cause.

Mr. A. Calkins, of this township, says nearly all of his sheep that were dog-bitten have died. He proposes to do a little prosecuting before long.

Atkins & Greene, of Lowell, challenge any firm in the State to show a larger or better assortment of agricultural implements than they now have on exhibition.

A meeting of the stock-holders of the K. L. & N. M. R. R. will be held at Train's Hall, in this village, on Thursday, July 9th. See "notice" elsewhere in this paper.

The races at Grand Rapids, last week, were by far the most successful ever held in that city. The "boys" will probably have another meeting in the fall. Horsemen who have been there once will go again.

If you want the job of building that new town hall at Bowne Center, read the notice in this number of the JOURNAL, and send in your bid. Bowne is bound to keep up with the times.

Mr. R. Bouwreziytsczhckeyie has removed his stock of furniture to the vacant building on West Water street. Mr. B. is a very social being, and the way to approach him when you want a favor, is to walk right up to him, grasp him by the hand and say, in a frank, off-hand manner, "how are you, Mr. Bouwreziytsczhckeyie?"

It will soon be time for candidates to leave their business, on account of their health, and ride out.

Butter is now down to a reasonable figure, and a good many have gone to eating it again.

A man at Benton Harbor, who has been in the habit of sleeping with his boots on, was told by the landlady that he mustn't do it any more. He said they were an old pair and didn't think the bugs could hurt 'em much.

If Detroit, East Saginaw or Grand Rapids want to celebrate the Fourth, they had better go in and have a good time when they can. Lowell will not celebrate the Fourth this summer.

Large quantities of wool have been brought to Lowell this week. Yesterday prices ranged from 43 to 47½ cents per pound. Wool money is a good kind of money to pay up small accounts with.

We return our sincere thanks to many subscribers for their promptness in responding to our call to renew their subscriptions before July 1st. And it is especially gratifying to us to hear them say—as nearly all have said—"the advance pay system suits us, go ahead."

The American Newspaper Directory for 1874 is out, and a copy has been received at this office. It exhibits the names of 7,784 newspapers in the United States and Dominion of Canada; an increase of 498 over last year. It is typographically No. 1, and to the publisher a valuable book in many respects.

THAT Grand Picnic and Strawberry Festival at Hustedville to-morrow, (Thursday.) Music by the Lowell Cornet Band, and fun for the million. Take a ride out there; breathe the pure air and refresh yourselves with the good things that farmers, wives and daughters fix up for that picnic. Then come home and grumble because you can't have such "vittles" every day.

As will be seen by their advertisement, Messrs. Geo. B. Balcom and H. A. Nimocks have entered into co-partnership in the jewelry business. Both are excellent workmen, and will, we hope, receive the patronage they deserve. Their stock of jewelry, watches, clocks, etc., will bear inspection. Call at the post office and see for yourselves.

Don Henderson, of the Allegan Journal, generally picks out the plainest words when expressing an opinion; but isn't he drawing it a little mild when he says, "If Congress has any respect for the wishes of the people they will at once repeal that infamous tax on knowledge—the odious newspaper postage law?" That's altogether to slow, Don, after the whaling they have already had.

The Democrat's correspondent, "Flyer," writing from Ionia, says that town is dead because of the crusade, and Lowell is all life because "the women there have minded their own business." He says that the farmers will not go to trade at Ionia because they cannot get whisky there to drink, but go instead to Lowell where they can get all they want. Yet right on top of this assertion this disinterested observer states that "you can see less evidence of drinking in the places where liquors are sold without restraint, than you can in the crusade towns." In other words, he declares more liquor is to be had in the towns where the farmers will not trade than in the towns where they do trade. "Flyer's" statements are a little mixed.—Saturday Evening Post.

We should think so. And one might say after reading the above that mixed drinks fly to Flyer's head occasionally. Quite a compliment Flyer pays to the intelligent farmers of Boston, Campbell and Keene, doesn't he? Ionia may sell less liquor now than before the crusade, but there is certainly no evidence here that Lowell sells more. In fact, the indications have been that there has not been as much liquor sold in Lowell this season as heretofore. There have been fewer drunkards seen at all events. And as for the farmers who come from Ionia County to trade in Lowell, the assertion that they come here because they can get their drinks, is pure bosh. Flyer can't find five men in Ionia County who come to Lowell to trade now that have not done their trading here, more or less, for years. Take a seidlitz powder, Flyer.

J. Beadle, formerly of this village, is now running a hotel at Clam Lake.

The Reed City Clarion says Mr. H. B. Alden, of Lowell, has purchased the National Hotel at that place.

Salt is said to be a good ague cure. Get a barrel of it and take it, and then, if you think it helps you, buy some.

The winters in California are very mild, they say, and yet it is Coolie there than it is any where else in this country.

In sending bills to subscribers a few mistakes have occurred, but we intend to keep figures from lying if we can.

The Rev. Dr. Fisk of Grand Rapids, recently gave the Rev. J. Morgan Smith an old school dose on the suffrage question.

H. Gaylord Holt came to town last week to purchase wool. His place of business is in the frame building east of West's drug store, where of course the highest market price will be paid.

THE editor of the LOWELL JOURNAL says that in a few weeks he shall commence sending his paper only to pre-paid subscribers. We have tried it a month and find it pays admirably.—Midland Times.

We have been out of our little jail the most of the time during the past week, and if the JOURNAL is unusually uninteresting this week, "pink" it and put it on the top shelf in the pantry.

It was our intention to speak further of the "narrow-gauge" this week, but owing to the inclemency of the weather, etc., we have been speaking about the beautiful climate in California, and other strange places, where ague is unknown.

Now that the papers are hunting up all the heroines of the day where—we would falteringly ask—where is that noble and daring young creature who, regardless of the envy and scorn and finger nails of her sex, first rushed into a school room full of girls with a big brass buckle on her belt? Where is she?

A NEW hotel has recently been opened in Eagle block, corner of Lyon and Kent streets, Grand Rapids, which, in all its appointments, is one of the best conducted hotels in the State. Though opened only a few days ago it is already having a large patronage, and as long as E. F. Covell remains proprietor the "Commercial" will prosper. The location is central, the rooms are large, furniture new and well selected, dining hall convenient and fare No. 1. In short, if you go to the Commercial hotel once, you will be liable to stop there again.

S. B. Knapp, Esq., stood it as long as he could without "a letter from home," and then sent for the JOURNAL. And he says: "As I am here, 120 miles north of Lowell, and in almost a wilderness, I thought I could not get better posted with the outside world than through your paper. Fife Lake is a beautiful body of water, about 1½ miles across either way, lying in the south east corner of Grand Traverse County. The Grand Rapids & Indiana Railroad runs along its western shore about ¼ of a mile. The State Road, from Saginaw to Traverse City, runs on the northern shore. The soil is sand, covered mostly with pine timber. There is Norway pine mixed in with the yellow pine. The lake has high banks and dry; and from what I can learn and see it is very healthy here. I have not seen any one that showed any signs of the ague, and there is not much sale for quinine. The villages of Fife Lake are two rival towns about ½ mile apart, both contending for the depot, which is not yet permanently located. The present building being at the north town, and the siding at the south town. Each town contains about 20 buildings of all description. I am at the south town where I have charge of Ira W. Gilbert's saw mill; and making on an average, [25,000 feet of lumber per day. We have no lawyers here, so you see we live in a peaceable and respectable community. If a case comes up it is brought before the Justice, who asks the witnesses such questions as he thinks proper, and then decides according to his best judgment; and 'justice' is what they generally get. We have preaching here once in two weeks, a Sabbath School every Sabbath, and a picnic in prospect."

State Politics.
The nomination of Gov. Bagley and Lt. Gov. Holt by the Republican State Convention and their re-election in November, by the usual fat majority, are undisputed questions. They have honored their positions and deserve the people's endorsement. As to the remainder of the State ticket but little has yet been said, aside from the general endorsement by the press of our Kent County candidate for Secretary of State. In fact, several gentlemen, in different parts of the State, who have been looking rather longingly for that position of trust and honor, have withdrawn their names and will support Mr. Holden.

The Jackson Citizen says:
We observe that the Allegan Journal and Lowell Journal favor E. G. D. Holden, Esq., of Grand Rapids, for the position of Secretary of State. Their selection is a good one. Mr. Holden is located in the right part of the State, and is a gentleman of ability, and a hard working, earnest Republican. He possesses qualifications that would make him a popular and competent official, and he would add strength to the ticket.

The Flint Globe says:
* * * * * We second the motion cordially. Mr. Holden is a man well qualified for the position, and will perform the duties of the office with credit to himself and with honor to the State. He has been for many years identified with the Republican Party, having done it excellent service in many ways. But this does not constitute his sole claim to the office. He can fill the office to the entire acceptance of the people, and that is of itself a reason why he should have it if he wants it. The choice of Mr. Holden would be peculiarly acceptable to the people of the Sixth Congressional District. * * *

The Barry Co. Republican says:
Mr. Holden is undoubtedly the first choice of Barry for Secretary of State, and is in every manner thoroughly fitted for the position. That the west is entitled to name the candidate no one will question; neither can a better man for the position be named, either East or West. Several gentlemen who had intended to become candidates have withdrawn their names and will support Mr. H. will all their influence.

The Big Rapids Magnet heartily seconds the motion of the Allegan Journal for the renomination of Gov. Bagley, and also welcomes the name of E. G. D. Holden, Esq., for Secretary of State. After commending the Governor's administration, it says of Mr. Holden: "We know him to be a man of business ability and integrity. He is an indefatigable worker, and no man in Western Michigan has ever done more than he to roll up tremendous Republican majorities.

The Pentwater News favors Mr. Holden's nomination. It says: "We know Mr. Holden to be a staunch Republican, an earnest, active worker, and believe him to be a good man for the place."

If there is any sight more ludicrous in the eyes of the people than that of a donkey attempting to roar like a lion it is the appearance of Senator Cook, of Hillsdale, as he stands trying to peek through a back window into the State Treasury and howling "reform," after he has been invited to go in at the front door and look over the wonderful irregularities of that office. But Mr. Cook prefers to howl, so let him howl. Years ago, when he was regarded—by himself—as a politician of some sagacity, this kind of trickery might have been successfully resorted to in working up political capital, but to-day these little "drives" are so transparent that the motive behind and the object ahead, are perfectly visible to the naked eye. But it isn't necessary to worry about Mr. Cook. The Lansing Republican laid him out last week in the most approved manner. We suggest that all such reformers (?) are liable to have their political goose cooked.

The State Republican Committee met in Jackson on the 9th inst., and named August 26th as the time for holding the State Republican Convention. Each representative district will be entitled to four delegates, and each organized county having no representatives will be entitled to two delegates. The convention will be held at Lansing.

Claim that they CAN and WILL SELL THE SAME QUALITY of Goods CHEAPER than any other Jewelry House in the State, for the following reasons:
They buy EXCLUSIVELY for CASH, which enables them to take advantage of the market.
They are the only Jewelry House in the State that imports their own purchases DIRECT through the Detroit Custom House, paying no commissions to New York importers.
They buy directly of the manufacturers, thus saving to their customers the jobber's profit.
Their Foreign Watches, French Clocks, Music Boxes and Opera Glasses are made to order expressly for their trade, and are far superior to similar goods offered to the general trade.

The women of Big Rapids have commenced the prosecution of sa-loon keepers.

C. A. Fox, formerly train dispatcher of the D. & M. R. R. has gone to the Insane Asylum at Kalamazoo.

Ashes were kept in a box, and three families had no house to live in, at Goodrich.

Commencement exercises of Olivet College will be next Thursday, June 18.

The next college year will commence Sept. 17.

When an Adrian man wants to shoot a cat, he applies to the Common Council for a permit.

Dan Rice is making his fifty-sixth farewell tour and will soon be in Michigan.

The June races of the Saginaw Driving Park Association commence on the 23d and continue four days.

One hundred entries have been made. The editor of the Portland Observer says his wife has a baby weighing eight pounds and he advocates female suffrage.

During the present season the State Salt Inspector has inspected 294,715 bbls. of salt, which is 104,000 bbls. in excess of the crop for the corresponding time last year.

Thirteen ladies who went on a cruise in Adrian, were looked in a sa-loon, and obliged to remain from three o'clock to ten p. m. when they were rescued. At one time a riot seemed imminent.

A fragment of muscle not larger than the head of a pin, taken from the dead body of Mr. McDowell of Allegan county, and examined by Dr. B. Barnum of Jackson, was found to contain fifteen trichinae, or over 80,000 of these animals to the cubic inch.

A Detroit painter oiled some rags to wipe picture frames, and left them lying in the sun while he went to dinner. Before he returned they ignited and but for prompt discovery the building would have been burned and attributed to incendiarism.

S. C. Boylan, of Battle Creek, recently plowed up a quantity of well-preserved bones which once belonged to a person seven feet in height. A quantity of weapons consisting of a highly polished flint tomahawk, spear heads and arrows were found in connection with these bones.

A lady patient of the Health Institute at Battle Creek, recently escaped in the night, and wandered about the city in her night clothes, with her hair streaming in the wind. Several people who were on the street at that time avow they saw a ghost.

Mr. Frank E. Yates, Captain of the Grand Haven Boat Club, and champion scull carman of Michigan, has gone to New York where he will contest for the diamond sculls championship of New York State against R. W. Ratabone, the present champion.

The Grand Haven Herald wants Mr. Holden, the candidate for Secretary of State, to come up for State Treasurer. If the Herald isn't too particular about it, we presume the forty or fifty papers throughout the State that have said a good word for our next Secretary of State, will keep right on talking and not say a word about State Treasurer. We think so.

The Adrian Horticultural Society is making extensive preparations for entertaining, free of expense, the delegates to the June meeting or Strawberry Festival of the State Pomological Society, which will commence in that city on the 23d. Five members of the Grand River Valley Horticultural Society have been chosen to represent this section at that meeting. Quite a number of our citizens, members of the State Society, and others propose to attend the meeting.—Grand Rapids Eagle.

NEW LOCATION! NEW ADVERTISEMENT!

It is a very easy matter to write out an advertisement which says "WE WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD!"

"WE HAVE THE BEST & CHEAPEST GOODS IN THE MARKET!"

"WE DEFY ALL COMPETITION!" ETC., ETC., ETC.

Now the printer would just as soon put this style of language in his advertising columns as any other, but the advertiser would just feel a little chagrined if he could see the incredulous smile on the face of the compositor when he was setting up the type.

And the readers of advertisements are getting about as incredulous as compositors. MORAL—Don't believe every thing you hear, especially in the advertising columns.
