AROUND AND ABOUT US.

Boy. Nine pounds and a half.

Another (Jas. H.'s) Weeks. Sunday was a sunny day for sleighing.

Miss Libbie Hoodford of Olivet, is visiting her old school friends in Lowell.

The Lowell District Council P. of H. will meet at Train's Hall next Saturday at 10 o'clock a. m.

The Congregational Church social at Mr. Graham's last Friday evening was well attended.

Somebody ought to toss a thimble full of ashes on the sidewalk just west of Scott's hardware store.

The proprietors of the pretty-waiver, girl saloons in Grand Rapids have been up to see the Mayor. They all intended to close up in a few days anyway.

The cold weather has a telling effect on everything—that man's cheek, who wanted to get trusted for a copy of the Journal, excepted.

A couple of horses have been permitted to run at large and endure the cold for several nights past. Who belongs to them?

Joe Fairchild, of the Reed City Clarion, was in town last week. He reports the Clarion in tune but says it takes the wind to make her sound.

The Lowell Cornet Band would tender their thanks to Messrs. Keyes, Collar, Odell, Hogan and Thomas for services rendered in connection with the Minstrel performance on the 15th.

Some maliciously inclined individual withdrew our door key from the lock last Tuesday, and pocketed it. If they will only return and get the lock now, they'll be twelve shillings ahead of us.

The millers from all parts of the State met at the Merchant's Exchange in Detroit on Tuesday of last week, and organized a State Association. W. W. Hatch represented Hatch & Crow of Lowell.

Don't know how to make money? It's just as easy as chewing gum. Get on "intimate terms" with a U. S. Senator and let somebody give you $50,000 for your influence. It'll be denominated "living wages," that's all.

South Lowell and Bowne Center Granges are both making preparations to erect Halls in their respective localities early this Spring. We understand the South Boston Grange is about to make a similar move.

E. F. Doty, while walking around heavily upon his right hand, severely spraining his thumb and wrist. The member is improving, and he will be able to do a job of tooth carpentering in a day or two.

We are in receipt of a copy of the Illustrated London News, from S. N. Parsons, formerly of this place, now a resident of Beachville, Ont. Canada, for which he will accept our thanks.

(We cannot supply back numbers of the JOURNAL either during 72 or 73.)

An Oyster Supper will be given at Mrs. McVean's in Downe, on Tuesday evening next, for the benefit of South Lowell Grange No. 118, P. of H. Everybody is cordially invited and seven miles is just a pleasant drive these moonny evenings.

Mrs. W. J. Atkins and another lady were enjoying the fine sleighing Sunday. The horse, a spirited animal, took fright a short distance beyond the upper Grand River bridge, gently spilled the ladies into the snow, and started for home. Nobody was injured but the cutter was somewhat "spiced."

We are in receipt of the February number of the Matrimonial Bazar, published by B. H. Burton & Co., Chicago. It is a wide-awake, eight page sheet, devoted to the purpose of procuring wives for lonely bachelors, and husbands for languishing maids. A purchasing agency is attached to the paper. Specimen copies ten cents.

The Old Settlers of this vicinity will give an "Old Settlers' Meeting" at Train's Hall, Thursday evening, March 4th. Stocking, Clafin, Howe and Robinson will furnish music, and J. M. Mathewson, it is announced, will deliver an address. Everybody is invited, both old and young. Bill at the Hall, fifty cents.

The attention of all consumers of kerosene oil is called to the pernicious and unhealthy practice of using lamps filled with that article with the wicks turned down. The gas which should be consumed by the flame is by this means left heavily in the air, while the cost of the oil thus saved, at present prices, would scarcely amount to one dollar a year for the lamps of a household.

The Republican electors of the township of Lowell will meet at the office of O. H. Look on the 24th day of February 1875, at two o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of electing three delegates to attend the County Convention, which meets at Grand Rapids on the 25th inst., and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the caucus.

The following item was handed in by a humane individual for us to write up: "Lucridus incident. Man's hat blew off. Dog picked it up and ran. Man disappears. Boy runs too. Everybody luffed. Dog disappears around the corner and is lost to sight. Man runs after boy for throwing snow-balls and then runs into Althea's and tried to run his cheek for a new hat."

The last issue of the Barry County Republican is exceedingly interesting.

The Greenville Independent inquires: "What hope has the world in Victoria Woodhull?" Damphewno.

The Congregational church society will hold their next social at Mr. P. S. Pratt's, a couple of miles north of town Friday evening.

The Firming's party at Music Hall Monday evening was a very successful affair. Over a hundred couple were present, and they all presented an enjoyable appearance.

There will be a Donation Party at Music Hall, Wednesday evening March 3d, for the benefit of Rev. A. Rogers, pastor of the M. E. Church. Mr. Rogers has no fixed salary but proposes to live on the offerings of the people. A cordial invitation is extended to all the friends of church and pastor. Come and make a liberal donation.

Wm. H. VanLeeuwen, deputy county clerk, has had double duty to perform this week, owing to the illness of Clerk Chipman, who is confined to his house. Mr. VanLeeuwen has acted as clerk for the Circuit Court, which in itself has been quite a task, besides keeping the Clerk's office in running order constantly. We think he deserves credit for his labor and energy and gladly grant it to him.—G. R. Democrat.

While performing double duty on Monday, Feb. 15, Mr. VanLeeuwen entered up thirty cases, and filed eighty-four papers. What way is that for a deputy to perform when the boss is sick?

Dearling & Barnes have a new advertisement in this week's issue. They have had a big run of business since their removal, and are now running a first-class carriage and paint shop in connection. If you want anything in their line, give them a call, and if it ain't all right they'll make it all right.

The Iowa Standard informs us that the largest audience seen in Union Hall this winter listened to Vic. Woodhull Wednesday evening. It further says there were 350 souls present. Guess they don't have any Amateur Minstrels with Sunderlins and Weekes for end men, up to Iowa, which can bring out an audience of 700.

Mrs. L. A. Tetley and Mr. J. A. Stewart formed a partnership and have been running the Morrison House for a few months past. Mr. Tetley, who has been absent the while, returned last week, took in the whole state of affairs, and preferred a charge of adultery against Mr. Stewart. Stewart was arrested and locked up, but effected his escape Wednesday night. He has since been recaptured, and is now in durance. The Morrison is closed.

It is probable that the Legislature will adjourn and attend the State Convention at Jackson. The Democratic Convention will be held on the second day of March and the Republican Convention on the third day of March. The National Reform party, consisting of John P. Cook of Hillsdale, will hold a State Convention in Lansing, March 3d, and will undoubtedly endorse the nomination made by the Democrats at Jackson the day before. John P. wants his convention held here so he can look over the State Treasury.

Victoria C. Woodhull lectured here on the 18th inst; subject—"Destiny of the Republic." The audience was not a large one but the lecture was intensely interesting. Of course some of her views concerning the future of nations were somewhat peculiar; so much so that but few could agree with her; and still she was frequently applauded and not once hissed. I must confess that I, in common with many others, was greatly disappointed in the manner of address and make-up of Victoria Woodhull. Never having seen her before, I had pictured to myself quite a different being to go with the name. I had expected to find a tall, scrawny, sharp-nosed, thin-visaged, narrow-breasted, repugnant, female, who, with one sharp glance could look a convention of insurance men out of countenance, and pile up blushes three deep, on such a face as the writer wears. But not so Victoria is a fine looking woman, of medium stature and good physique, and genteel appearance. On the rostrum she is a whole magnetic telegraph, and transmits her messages with lightning rapidity. She has fine dramatic power, and many of her utterances are rendered with most telling effect. She can take any part in the play, from low comedy up. Occasionally she steps aside during her lecture, and hits the horrid man a clip between the eyes, and especially does she take delight in hauling the clergy over the coals. She referred to Beecher several times, and once remarked that she it was who put him on that "gridiron." Some of her allusions were a little "loud"; not such as one would expect from Mrs. Livermore. She says she believes in calling things by their right names, and I think she does. That she is intellectually brilliant, and possessed of high culture, no one can deny; she is a woman wonderfully made. She thinks she has been the most abused creature in the world, but abuse only serves to her marching on. She thinks the time is coming when Woodhull will be in the hearts of her countrymen. Should the time ever come when her doctrines are taught instead of Sunday-school lessons, there will be a big change in this country. She believes in social freedom as well as political freedom, and until that is accomplished she thinks the human race will keep right on going to the devil. Equality of sex in all things, she argued with great force. When she stands on tip-toe and "brings herself," it seems like being in a barn during a thunder storm, with no lightning-rods on the barn.

State Items. A special meeting of stockholders of the Michigan Lake Shore railroad company, will be held at Grand Rapids, March 17th, to elect a board of directors, etc.

Capt. Enos Scott, of Lyons, was one hundred years old on the 12th inst. He has been a Mason 75 years. He claims to be a relative of Gen. Winfield Scott, whom he is said to resemble.

Ex-Co. Treas. of Wayne, John F. W. Thon committed suicide at his residence in Wyandott Saturday morning. It is reported that he was $85,000 short in his accounts, and that this was the cause of the act.

Ruelle, who was on trial for three days for the murder of Eishenhood in Wayne county last October, was convicted of murder in the second degree, the jury being out about two hours.

Michael Roderic, of Macon, Lenawee county, was arraigned before Justice Johnston, of Adrian, Wednesday afternoon, for refusing to support "his wife," but brought the suit to a sudden termination by agreeing to marry the woman, with whom he has been living for ten years.

Zack Layton and Henry Winne, both recently pardoned by Gov. Bagley (the one from state prison and the other from the house of correction), on condition of forever abstaining from the use of intoxicating drinks, have recently broken the pledge and committed breach of the peace. Layton, who lives at Morenci, while in a spree, after turning his wife out of doors, tried to hang himself. He has been returned to State Prison to serve out the remainder of his sentence.

At about 6 o'clock Thursday evening one of the boys employed in the Otsego woolen mills was lighting a kerosene lamp with a piece of paper when upon turning to extinguish the lamp took fire, the flames soon communicating with the oily woodwork of the building, and before assistance could be summoned, and scarcely permitting the operatives to escape, the entire building was wrapped in a sheet of flame. In less than two hours the Otsego Woolen Mills were burned to the ground. Only a small portion of the machinery in the carding rooms was saved.

A memorial of the Genesee county board of supervisors was presented in the House relative to robbing cemeteries of bodies for the university. It asks an amendment to the law, increasing the punishment in such cases and requiring the university authorities to keep a record, certified to under oath, of all dead bodies by them received, of whom received, who they were, and where from. The reading of the memorial called out an animated discussion as to what should be done with it, and finally it was referred to a committee of three who shall have power to send for persons and papers.

On Monday morning last about 3 o'clock a train of 21 stock-cars, drawn by two locomotives, going east on the D. L. & L. M. railroad, was capsized near South Lyon by means of a broken rail. One wheat car and nine cars loaded with cattle and sheep were pitched down an embankment. Over 40 cattle and 125 sheep were slaughtered, or injured so they had to be. None of the train hands were harmed, they being all in the caboose car. The loss to the railroad is at least $20,000. Passenger cars were blocked at that point for 12 hours.

Good News. Will Remain. The celebrated Physician for the Eye, Ear, Lung, Nervous, Female, and all Chronic Diseases, Dr. N. J. Aiken, has, at the earnest solicitation of his friends and patients, consented to remain, and has established a permanent office at 45 Monroe street, Grand Rapids, Mich.
