Mr. Hayes is recognized by 40,000,000 people as President, and for those New Yorkers to thus snub the guest of their city was, in our opinion, a great mistake. We will venture to assert that the President would not meet with such treatment in any one of the Southern States. We hope that he will soon find it convenient to visit the South, that he may compare the treatment that he will receive from the White Leaguers with that of the New Yorkers.—Vicksburg Herald, Dem.
