Jottings & Jimcrax.

Pay subscriptions now. Regatta at Detroit this week. One peach, with one nice fat worm, 1 cent. Everybody speaks well of Sweet's Hotel. Kent county's state tax this time is $52,701.05. The D. & M. is the boss railroad in Michigan now. The Saturday Evening Post retains its juiciness. Chief Joseph would make a real nice looking corpse. Montgomery Queen's circus will visit Lowell, August 28. Saranac folks say their crops are drying up. Ditto here. Honey thieves have been inspecting hives at Smyrna. Hollin H. Deal of Ionia and Miss Emma Watson of Ashley. Married. Grand Rapids has 282 streets and more than 17,000 street gables. The water in Grand River is reported to be lower than ever known before. The Oshtemo postoffice was burglarized on the night of the 7th. Prof. J. W. Carns will principal the Saranac high school another year. Mrs. Geo. Wilson of Saranac was thrown from a buggy. Arm broken. The Evening News excursion was a big thing and all who went had a big time. In England they slaughter cattle with dynamite. Did you hear 'em like before? Foster & Miller have sold the Monitor and Reporter, of Mt. Clemens, to David L. Cooper. Willard Hall, a young man of Saranac, was recently drowned in the river at that place. Morgan Bates has hung up his Faber and separated himself from the Marshall Statesman. Fire broke out at Grand Haven Friday morning and destroyed $12,000 worth of property. Why don't the lightning rods peddle strikes?—Er. They are waiting for lightning to strike. A 12-foot-long cornstalk adorns the Union Sentinel office. Corn was very high last year. The managers of the State Fair and the Jackson Agr'l. Society are making each other trouble. M. & A. Jacobson open their stock of dry goods and clothing in the Pullen block this week. "I amateur service Miss," said the first-baseman as he assisted a young lady over the fence. That was a glorious rain on Monday. It fell on the just that time—the other showers went around. The Lansing Republican says that the first wheat ever shipped from Saginaw county was shipped Aug. 2. Julia A. Moore is out with some more poetry and this time a man doesn't know whether to laugh or to swear. H. D. Root of Mayfield harvested 600 bushels of wheat from twelve acres. It would sound bigger to say 600 bushels to the Road. Many Lowell people attended the grove meeting at Saranac. Gamba's steamer had all the business it could attend to.

Two Kisses.

"Two Kisses" is the title of a new novel. Good thing if 'to be continued.' Theodore Tilton doesn't take up any more room in the streets of London than any other man. Two circuses a week ought to satisfy Toledo if Toledo isn't the biggest aggregation of selfishness on earth. The christian who doesn't pay his debts will find lots of bridges gone between him and heaven. When Blue Jeans Williams buys a new suit of clothes it would be well for him to get sack cloth and ashes. The agricultural college base ball club is going to swing around and see whether it has good grounds for its conceit or not. Speaking about the color line in Louisiana—is there any such line visible now to the naked eye? Echo answers—"aye." Let us hear more about that 20-foot-long blue racer at Cannonsburg. Has he swallowed a yoke of oxen yet? Yoke and all! The Ionia Commandery will go to Cleveland Aug. 28. About 25 Lowell Sir Knights belong to this Commandery. The Sentinel says Ionia county will pay $23,000 State tax this year. This is less than half the amount that Kent shells out. The Cass club of Detroit played a game of base ball with the Ionia club and the score was 13 to 5 in favor of the Cass boys. Two car-loads of very fine combing wool belonging to Dwight Hurlbut of Grand Rapids, reached Pittsburgh just in time to be burned up. Henry Miller, of Hastings, has lost a snake. The reptile was a foot long and crawled out of Henry's stomach and got away. No reward offered. The cake and ice cream festival by the Baptists Friday evening was well patronized. The Cornet band did some good playing for them. The firemen came out Monday evening with the band. After the parade the boys did some good work throwing water, climbing buildings, etc. Horatio Seymour has written another remarkable letter;—remarkable for the absence of that familiar sentence, "Your candidate I cannot be." About one half of the liquor dealers in this county have not paid their State tax; report says. They ought to be held as prisoners at the bar. There are 31 widows in Ovid who pay taxes, and they are all good looking. Two trains leave Lowell for Ovid every day, Sundays excepted. The rope-walker walked the rope without accident but he lost his balance when he left a note at this office addressed—"Ed. of JOURNAL." From five acres Jacob Whorley of Easton got 255 bushels of "Foulk's" wheat. Foulks ought to be satisfied with 53 bushels to the acre. Mr. & Mrs. L. B. Adams have gone to Jonesville. Mrs. Adams will reside there while Mr. A. is on the road selling goods for H. S. Smith & Co. of Grand Rapids. Mr. A. D. Shear of Florida, son of J. B. Shear, Esp. has been here visiting his parents. Miss Emma Shear of Paris, this county, has also been visiting at Mr. Shear's. There were over 100 preachers at the Potosky camp meeting. One who was there says that there were but few new converts made, but some of the old ones were warmed over. Chas. H. Leslie goes this week to Old Virginia and will invest in real estate there if he finds a fair suit. He will look around among the Lowell and Ionia delegations already settled there at or near Ford's Depot. Watermeloncholy time it will be about the last of the month.—Lowell Journal. Watermeloncholy slander that if people catch up they muskmeloncholy grow! Squash it.—Det. Post. Some pun-kins ain't you. We inadvertently omitted to speak last week of the temperance meeting at Train's Hall on the Sunday evening previous. But it was a good one just the same. An Ohio democrat says he would give $10,000 to see an editor that never told a lie. We shall probably be absent from home about four days. This amount will put us in very comfortable shape. How to make money: Buy an orange for five cents. Eat the orange. Throw the peel on the sidewalk. The first man that steps on it slips up and falls down. That's worth a quarter. Net proceeds, one orange and 30 cents. It is said that a few puffs from a cigar will scent all the milk in the room. That may be, but a few puffs from a cigar will take ten cents out of a man's pocket where it puts one cent in the milk. There's no sense in trying to make a point there. It didn't hurt Jay Gould any to have his face slapped but it might mean to pick him up and drop him over a railing in front of a basement barber shop to be talked to death. He managed to get out alive but it was a close shave. Ida Lewis says she would not marry the best man that ever walked in boots.—Exchange. We have never been sorry that we first commenced to walk in shoes and have walked in shoes ever since. There isn't a no in 10,000 that doesn't wear boots, Ida; no one in a million.

Excursion on the D. & M.

Excursion on the D. & M. to Grand Haven next Monday. Train leaves Lowell at 8:40 A. M. Round trip $1.00. Stanza, fresh from Julia A. Moore's poetical fountain: "Friends that love you are glad to see That you can let the vile strong drink be." How true. Whose friends is not glad that we have all let it be? Nobody's! Is they! Who dares to say so! Out upon them that does! Shame, shame on them that is! THE RACES.—Remember the races at the Lowell Driving Park next Saturday, commencing at 1 P. M. sharp. Some rare sport expected. Dr. Malcolm is getting everything in good shape for a good time. New Uniforms.—The Lowell Cornet Band came out Monday evening with their new uniforms, making a very fine display. The uniforms are elegant in style and very creditably made. The boys will do to go away from home now. EXCURSION.—The excursion to Grand Haven and Muskegon left yesterday morning. A large number of Lowellites went. The Lowell Cornet Band made an excellent appearance and received many good compliments both for playing and appearance. RED RIBBON.—The regular meetings at the Reform Club rooms are decidedly interesting. Attend them. At the last meeting several stirring speeches were made and a good deal of enthusiasm awakened. Also, attend the Sunday evening mass meetings at Train's Hall. GOOD TREATMENT.—The excursion by boat to Saranac, Thursday afternoon was O. K.—the boys say. The party included the L. C. Band and all were handsomely treated by the good people of Saranac. Refreshments were served in fine style and our folks came home feeling that they owe Saranac one. WOODING'S ENTERPRISE.—C. T. Wooding, proprietor of the Boyce Feed Cutter, has been getting a showy and substantial wagon for his agents to ride around in, to exhibit and sell his very excellent machine. Stone made the wagon, Wilson ironed it and Kerekes painted it. Wooding has also a very noble set of double harness with "git edges" for his team to wear. Fuller did the work and it is a boss job. We understand that Messrs. J. M. Pratt and G. Hand will go out with the Feed Cutter. Two better salesmen it would be difficult to find; and a better feed cutter than Wooding's has never been made; so good judges say. MADE HIM SICK.—An agent came from Grand Rapids to Lowell the other day to solicit job printing. He stopped at a certain law office and examined a lot of letter heads, note heads, cards, etc., just printed at this office. He told what he would duplicate the bill for and was surprised to find his figures higher than ours. And he acknowledged them and there that Lowell turned out just as good printing as Grand Rapids and at figures too low to encourage him to come again. If good work and low prices will make them sick, we propose to make an invalid of every agent who comes to Lowell to steal our patronage. We'll do it or bust, and we won't bust, either.

Very Personal.

Mr. Perry Montonye, a staunch democrat from Big Rapids, is in the city.—Grand Rapids Democrat, Aug. 11. Mr. Perry Montonye, the staunch democrat from Big Rapids, was in this city, also. He came here with another man's wife on the 8th inst. and the name of the other man's wife being Amanda Eggleston, from Ludington. Both occupied the same room at the hotel that night. Both occupied the same room the next day. Both intended to occupy the same room the next night, but both got mightily slipped up. Amanda's legal protector—to wit—her husband, arrived here on the 9th. It was a warm day and he kept shivering all after dark. Just as the whip-poor-will was beginning to put in his work, and the festive toad was beginning to hop his evening waltz, and the cricket was tuning its evening chant, and the lovely owl was hooting his hideous hymn, and all nature was taking a bath in the dew of heaven, and miserable sunners were playing the deuce on earth, Mr. Perry Montonye tumbled into bed in room No. 7 (and Amanda was about to come tumbling after) when officer Hogan, accompanied by Amanda's husband, entered the room—the room No. 7. Mr. Perry Montonye, rested in the Lowell lock-up that night and officer Hogan delivered him Friday morning to Deputy Sheriff Whitcomb of Grand Rapids who came here after him and escorted him to the county jail. We don't speak of this to show that it has any political significance for it may, be possible, while Mr. Perry Montonye is a staunch democrat from Big Rapids, that Mrs. Amanda Eggleston is a staunch republican from Ludington. We can't tell. Trip to Mackinaw. Mrs. Nellie Mosher and Mrs. M. C. Barber took a trip to Mackinaw from Potosky before returning home. Mrs. Mosher gives the following account of the trip: "A party (16 of us) left Potosky by the inland route for Mackinaw. We went six miles by stage, then by boat through Crooked Lake, then Crooked River—and crooked it was—then across Bart Lake, then down Indian river. We stopped at the Lake View House, which is a small log hut, but they furnished us a delicious dinner. At this point we changed boats and crossed Muller Lake to Cheboygan, stopping one hour for supper. We explored Cheboygan and found it a lively town, were let down the "Locks" from Cheboygan river into the Straits of Mackinaw, and crossed the straits, a distance of 18 miles. The waves rolled high and it was next to impossible to keep our equilibrium. We arrived at Mackinaw at 9:15 in the evening and after a night's rest started on a general exploring trip around the island. The first place we visited was the Fort which is 183 feet above the level of the sea; from there to Arch Rock, a grand specimen of the works of nature. Next to Lover's Leap, which has an archway underneath called the "Devil's Kitchen." If his majesty claims on all who have their names there, he has been very successful in "gathering them in." A row boat ride on the Straits was highly enjoyed. After remaining two nights and one day our party left Mackinaw, taking the steamer Van Haute down Lake Michigan to Potosky. As we had in our party two lawyers and their wives, (Mr. Ellsworth and wife from Greenville, and Mr. Peeler and wife from Three Rivers,) we were a very law abiding people. Potosky is certainly one of the most lovely retreats in warm weather. The heat is never oppressive, the air is very invigorating, and the varied amusements for which the place is noted afford the best possible opportunities for rest and recreation. Political Notes. Maine and Iowa Republicans see it in about the same light. The greenbackers of Michigan are out with a new and somewhat modified platform. Gail Hamilton writes with a two-edged sword, dipped in the blood shed for freedom. The Democratic State Convention of Pennsylvania will be held on the 23d day of August. Hendricks is talked of as a possible presidential candidate on the democratic ticket of 1880, but the name of Tilton is not mentioned in connection with any public office any more. A commission of three is to be appointed to act with a like commission on the part of Canada, to arrange for the return of Sitting Bull and his followers to the United States. S. B. is an ugly Bull to take by the horns, but it's got to be done sometime.

Senator David Davis is not so unhealthily as report said he was.

A convention of the anti southern policy Republicans of Ohio was held at Columbus Thursday night, and resolutions were adopted severely condemning the action of the Republican State Convention, indorsing the President's policy. Ohio is in for Old-time this fall. The Virginia "conservatives" after three days of bitter struggle in convention, nominated Hon. F. W. Halliday as candidate for Governor. There were no less than seven "conservative" or democratic candidates for the nomination of Governor. After fighting for three days the convention concluded to take a Halliday. The state gave nearly 45,000 democratic majority last fall. It will probably elect Halliday without help from any other State. The Republican state convention of Maine was held last Thursday. Governor Connor was renominated unanimously and by acclamation. Two resolutions, one condemning the other commending the President's policy were offered and both tabled. The resolutions adopted declare it to be the imperative duty of the government to protect by all Constitutional means every citizen; view with alarm the complete consolidation of all political power in the south in the hands of those lately in arms against the Union, while Union men are ostracized or banished; condemn the nigardly action of the democratic house for withholding the army appropriations, and favor a sound currency, based on coin and redeemable in coin, etc. The State Fair. The State Fair will be held at Jackson this year commencing Sept. 17th and closing the 21st. The premium list, permit us to say in the language of another, is a great credit to the typographical skill and taste of its printers, Messrs. Applegate & Fee, the well known and popular publishers of the Adrian Times, and in its general style and appearance is the equal of any of its predecessors. A brief reference to its contents shows us at a glance that it invites competition, and appeals directly to the farmers, stock-raisers, mechanics, manufacturers, artists, horticulturists, pomologists and florists of the State. The premiums most amount to $10,000, which will be paid in cash, and we know that this old society has never failed to pay 100 cents on the dollar, as it has never failed to make an annual exhibition since 1849, which can be said of few such organizations. JACKSON. Jackson, where the State Fair is located for 1877, is the county seat of Jackson County. It is centrally located in the heart of a fine and rich agricultural section of the county. Its railroad facilities are not excelled by any town in the State. It is the centre, so to speak, of the Great Michigan Central Railroad system. It is connected by daily line of railroad with Grand Rapids and points in the northwest of the State; with Lansing and Saginaw in the north and northeast; with Detroit in the east, with Adrian and Toledo in the south, with Fort Wayne in the southwest, and Chicago and the West. The Fair Grounds are compact, well arranged and beautiful, and the halls, sheds and grand stands are spacious and convenient. The Fair Grounds are but a few minutes walk from the main street and depot of the city. THE GRAND CAVALADE OF STOCK, will take place on Wednesday afternoon Sept. 19th, and will commence its circuit around the beautiful half mile track at precisely two o'clock. This feature of the State Fair of 1877, will be worth seeing. The Cavalcade will include all the Thoroughbred Horses and Cattle on the Ground, as well as other domestic stock entered for exhibition. Owners of stock are expected to be promptly on hand and have their animals ready and in place for the Grand Cavalcade. All morning trains, from nearly all parts of the State will arrive at Jackson in time to allow passengers to witness this Cavalcade. Recollect, half fare. "SWEET FORGET ME NOT."—This is the title of a new and magnificent song with a remarkably pretty waltz chorus composed by "Bobby Newcomb," of minstrel fame. It is sung by Primrose and West of Haverly's Minstrels; Delaney and Hengler, of the "Tony Pastor Troupe"; Alah Richmond, and other first class artists, all over the country. This song will surely be admired by everybody. Price 40 cents per copy; can be had from any music dealer or from the publisher, F. W. HELMER, 50 West 4th St. Cincinnati. List of LETTERS REMAINING in the Post Office at Lowell, Kent Co., Mich., Aug. 15, 1877. By their works Ye shall know them.—The Spencer Optical Manufacturing Company of New York have already made themselves known to thousands of the afflicted, by the perfection of their Diamond Spectacles, each pair stamped with the diamond trademark. For Sale in Lowell by J. C. West. AUCTION SALE! A Good Farm of one hundred and twenty acres described as E. half N. W. quarter sec. 23 and S. E. quarter, S. W. quarter S. 14 Town 7, North Range 10 west, extending two acres on which a school house stands, with a good house and 200 well of water, and an orchard. About 60 acres well improved, situated in a pleasant locality, about two miles north east from the village of Ada; will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, on the 20th day of September next, at 2 o'clock P. M. at the house on the premises. Terms made known on day of sale. JOHN HENNESSY, 7-3 Dated August 10, 1877. Ponce deLeon, when he visited the shores of America, sought long and ardently for the "Spring of perpetual youth," and those who believe therein might never grow old in appearance. People of our day have in part discovered a substitute for this unfound spring, in Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia, a few applications of which gives to white or gray hair that dark, strong and glossy appearance peculiar to youthful beauty. If any of our readers doubt this, let them try a bottle, and be convinced of the truth of our assertion. True Merit Will Win.—A few years since the proprietors of Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horse-bond introduced it here. It was not peddled, put sold on its merits. Our people soon found it to be reliable, and already it has become the most staple and popular pulmonary remedy in market. It quickly cures the worst coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, asthma and incipient consumption. Nothing acts so nicely in whooping cough, and it is so pleasant that children readily take it. Containing no opium, or other dangerous drug, it is as safe as it is sure. Trial size, 10 cts.; large size, 50 cts. and One Dollar. Sold by J. C. West, and agents everywhere. Also Agent for Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup, which never fails. Pleasant to take, and requires no physic. Price 75 cts Good Advice.—Now is the time of year for Pneumonia Lung Fever, &c. Every family should have a bottle of Doan's German Syrup. Don't allow for one moment that cough to take hold of your child, your family, your friend's Consumption, Asthma, Pneumonia and Group Hemorrhages, and other fatal diseases may set in—Although it is true German Syrup is curing thousands of these dreaded diseases, yet it is much better to have it at hand when three doses will cure you. One B. O. C. will last your whole family a winter and keep you safe from danger. If you are constipated, do not rest until you have tried this cure. Same bottle 15 cents. Trial size 75 cents. Sold by your druggist, J. C. West, Lowell, Mich. It has stood the Test.—If you doubt the wonderful success of Shiloh's Consumption Cure, give it a trial; then if you are not perfectly satisfied, return the bottle and we will refund the price paid. It has established the fact that Consumption can be cured, while for Coughs, Hoarseness, Asthma, Whooping Cough, and all Lung and Throat troubles, there is nothing like it for a quick and positive cure and it seldom fails. 10 cents, 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. If your Lungs are sore, or Chest or Back lame, use Shiloh's German Syrup three times a day. Sold by J. C. West. Dr. Shiloh's System Vindicator is no doubt the most successful cure for Dyspepsia, and Liver Complaint we ever knew of, and, though we could not guarantee it, in cases of Consumption, where general debility, loss of appetite and constipation exist, it will restore and regulate the system while Shiloh's Cure allays the inflammation and heals the lungs. Price 75 cents. Sold by J. C. West. HACKMETACK, a rich and fragrant perfume, Sold by J. C. West. THE CROSS-TRESSCEN T A volume of thrilling interest by the eminent historian L. E. Brockett; embracing the Annals and True Social, political, and religious history and condition; their home-life, varied customs, and peculiarities, the causes of the war, the issues at stake—Christianity, Liberty, Slavery, and the rights of man; and other nations involved; Biographies of the rulers, Statesmen and Generals. All richly illustrated. The book millions need now. Wanted instantly, 3,000 copies on any liberal terms. Address HUBBARD BROS., Publishers, 36 La Salle St. Chicago, Ill. 567. NOTICE OF COMMISSIONERS ON CLAIMS. State of Michigan, County of Kent, ss. Probate Court for said County. The undersigned having been appointed by the Hon. Cyrus E. Perkins Judge of Probate of said County, Commissioners on Claims in the matter of said Estate, and six months from the 24th day of July, A. D. 1877, have been allowed by said Judge of Probate, to all persons having claims against said Estate, in which to present their claims to said Commissioners. Notice is hereby given that we will meet on the 15th day of September, 1877, at 10 o'clock, A. M. at the office of James H. Werks in the Village of Lowell in said County to receive and examine such claims. Dated, August 10, 1877. JAMES H. WERKS, Commissioner. CHARLES H. HINE, Commissioner. NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC. Whereas, my wife Louisa Raymond, has left my bed and board without just cause or provocation, this is to give notice to any and all persons not to harbor or trust the said Louisa Raymond on my account as I shall pay no debts contracted by her after this date. Dated July 28 1877. 476 MARVIN RAYMOND. The bed my husband speaks of above you will find where your mother hid it the week before I left you, and the board I would have liked to have cooked for you, I could not, as the store we got that I would have liked to have used to cook your board, your mother had returned to Shepard's hardware store, and as for getting treated on your account I would not without seeing your Guardian.
