JOURNAL NOTINGS.
Saturday was a lively day. Races, fights and lots of business.
Quite a number of Lowellites attend the Campmeeting Sunday.
Miss Emma Lamb is spending a portion of her vacation at Grand Lodge.
Oris Bonney of Grand Rapids dropped dead of heart disease Friday night.
"Joe" Frazer, an old Lowellite, now a resident of Guelph, Ont., was in town last week.
St. Johns has a spoke factory that employs forty men. Can't it time Lowell spoke for one?
M. E. social and literary exercises at Mrs. M. S. Cogswell's Friday evening. All are cordially invited.
Miss Libbie Pullen of this village has been engaged as teacher for district No. 15, Grand Rapids township.
Mr. & Mrs. Robert Hardy of Keene have gone to Scotland on a visit, expecting to be absent about three months.
Last week when Ionia buyers were paying $1.11 for wheat Lowell buyers were paying $1.13. Later our buyers paid more.
Married,—at the residence of M. B. Kerekes, August 11, by Justice R. Hunter Jr. Bela A. Kerekes of Lowell to Miss Carrie Raimer of Boston.
Mr. W. W. Hatch now occupies the house lately vacated by Warren Langley and M. B. Hine has taken possession of the Hatch place for which he recently traded a farm.
The August meeting of the Grand Rapids Driving Park Association will be held next week. Many fine flyers are expected and the President informs us that the meeting promises to be a big success.
Uncle Ben Ryder, whom everybody thought was permanently disabled months ago, is quite himself again; able to be out on crutches. He hopes to be able to take a back-hold with the boys this fall.
Mrs. J. T. Thompson desires to express her heartfelt thanks through the JOURNAL to the masons for their kind assistance rendered at the funeral of her late husband; also to the masonic insurance managers for the prompt payment of insurance on his life.
The editors of the fifth congressional district should organize a publishers' association. So says the Allegan Journal, and the Standard most heartily endorses the suggestion.—Ionia Standard.
The JOURNAL supports the notion and calls the previous question.

Wheat $1.15.
Mrs. J. S. Bristol of St. Johns is at Mrs. Strong's.
J. C. West & L. D. Sunderlin did not go to Dakota.
A letter from Sheloan, Wis., in our next.
Prof. W. E. Ransom has returned from the west.
Supt. of Police Davis of Grand Rapids has resigned.
Taft will have his new saw-mill ready for business in a few weeks.
Prof. John Loomis of Chicago has been spending a few days in town.
A set-to between a couple of "well" men caused some excitement Saturday afternoon.
To Mrs. M. D. Court, Aug. 12, a fine daughter. A little Supreme Court all by itself.
Mrs. James Blain, of Romulus, N. Y., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. Q. Look, of this village.
Another incendiary fire broke out in Ionia Saturday night destroying a cigar store and a barber shop.
There will be a Sunday school picnic in the grove back of the So. Boston parsonage next Wednesday; hour not stated.

Miss Charlotte McPherson and Miss Clara Doeman of Grand Rapids were at the Dake House Sunday, guests of Mr. Geo. Meyer.
The Grand Rapids Democrat of yesterday says: Lottie Ellsworth, a married woman from Lowell, will have a trial in police court to-day on the charge of visiting a house of ill fame.
Mrs. C. M. Vinton and sister, Miss Carrie Hunter, arrived in town last week from Mrs. Vinton's Dakota home. Mrs. V. will spend a few weeks here. She is in love with the west and speaks enthusiastically of that portion of Dakota in which she resides. Col. Vinton and wife are expected to visit Lowell this fall.
Max Denny went to Kalkaska, caught four dozen nice trout in Rapid river and left a fine mess of the speckled beauties for the JOURNAL to take care of. For which Max has the JOURNAL's thanks. There might have been a better fish made than the speckled trout, perhaps but there never was.

A trotting race between Mastenbrook's stallion and J. B. Fallass's stallion on Train's race course Saturday afternoon drew out a large crowd of spectators. The race, best three in five, for $50 a side, was won by the Fallass horse. The best time was 3:29; pretty good considering the track. A 60-rod running dash for $10 a side, between Mr. Westbrook's horse and one owned by Mr. Lucas was won by the former.
Mayor Stokette of Grand Rapids calls down upon his head the wrath and invective of the sinful element of that city because he has the manhood and courage to insist upon the enforcement of the city laws. Mayor Stokette may rest assured that his course will be approved by the best element of the city and if he holds out to the end of his term of office as well as he has so far he will be as popular an ex-Mayor as Grand Rapids ever had, and deserve his popularity, too. "Rah for Stokette!"

A Beautiful Gift.
Capt. E. W. Avery of this village, late foreman for H. S. Smith & Co. of Grand Rapids, was the recipient last week of a beautiful and costly gift from the employees of that firm, the same being a silver ice pitcher and goblet of rare pattern and superb engraving, worth about $30. Inscribed on the pitcher is the following:
"EARL W. AVERY, from employees of H. S. Smith & Co. Grand Rapids, Aug. 5, 1881.
Earl's big heart goes out warmly toward the boys for this manifestation of their good will and he is the last man to forget a thing like that.

The South Boston Road.
The JOURNAL's proposition in regard to gravelling the South Boston road is meeting with general favor, we are told. The people of South Boston are ready to contribute liberally to a fund for that purpose and so we understand are the business men of Lowell. As we said last week all that is necessary to insure the prosecution of the work is for somebody to take the lead. We suggest that a committee from South Boston be selected to act with a like committee chosen from Lowell to go ahead and raise funds sufficient to carry out the project. It can easily be done. We have heard several of our business men express themselves as ready to subscribe liberally. Now is a good time to begin the work. Don't put it off. We want to say next week that a move has been made in that direction.
LATER.—Since the above was put in type we are informed that J. C. Train and N. B. Blain of this village, D. H. English and C. C. Winegar of South Boston have been appointed as a committee to solicit funds for the project and provide ways and means for having the work speedily done. The job will probably be let to the lowest bidder. It will be necessary, it is thought, to raise at least $1,000. Let it be raised—it will be a good investment.

Found Dead.
Last Sunday afternoon a man named Wm. H. Patterson was found dead sitting in a chair in his room at the residence of Morgan Lyon in Vergennes. The circumstances attending the case are related as follows: Patterson, who had been working at Lyon's a few days, complained last Thursday morning of not feeling well and thought he would rest a day or two. Procuring some money of Mr. Lyon he came to Lowell and indulged freely in drinking; returning to Mr. Lyon's on Saturday, showing signs of debauch. Mr. Lyon and housekeeper had business in Lowell Saturday afternoon and Patterson was left at the home alone, and helped himself to some hard cider which he found in the cellar, but which Mr. Lyon had been careful to keep from him knowing his propensities for strong drink. Sunday morning Patterson was taken with vomiting and remained in his room. Mr. Lyons went to see him once or twice during the forenoon, but saw nothing to be alarmed at in his symptoms. When dinner was ready in the afternoon Mr. Lyon went to his room to call him, when he found him as above stated, sitting back in his chair dead.
Owing to the condition of the body it was found necessary to hold an inquest at once, whereupon Justice Hunter was notified who went to Lyon's, impelled a jury and the inquest was held Sunday evening. The jury found that Patterson had been in ill health during his stay at Lyon's but that the immediate cause of his death was his debauch begun here on Thursday. The remains of the deceased were buried by the township authorities of Vergennes, Patterson having no money or friends that could be found.
The deceased is believed to be a son of the late Lucius Patterson of Grand Rapids, who years ago was one of the most prominent lawyers of the state.

The Grand Rapids Sengerfest.
The grand festival of the fourth Peninsular Sengerbund will be held at Grand Rapids, from August 22 to 25. R. A. Wellenstein, musical director. The grand reception concert will take place Monday evening, August 22. The first matinee, Tuesday afternoon; second concert Tuesday evening; second matinee Wednesday afternoon; third concert Wednesday evening.
The principal soloists are Miss Emma Heckle, of Cincinnati, Prima Donna Soprano; Mr. Franz Remmert, of New York, Baritone; Mr. C. Fritsch, of New York, Tenor; Miss Kate Funck, of Cincinnati, Violinist; Mrs. Julia Hoops, Alto; Mr. S. E. Jacobson, of Cincinnati, violinist; Mr. Louis Han, Bass Baritone; Mr. L. F. Boos, of Jackson, Cornetist.
There will be a grand chorus of 450 singers, and a grand orchestra of 50 artists. The festival will conclude with a Gala Ball in the Fest Hall.
The concerts will be held in the new Fest Hall, on Lyon St., built expressly for the occasion at a cost of over five thousand dollars. The building fronts on Lyon St. and is situated in the Centre of the city, so that it can be easily reached by every street railway.
Its length is 140 feet, its width 90 feet, and its height over 40 feet, while it will seat over 3000 persons. The stage is 60 feet wide, 40 feet deep and is large enough to seat 400 singers and the orchestra. Although a temporary building, the Fest Hall is built very strong and safe, with 12 large doors of egress, so that it may be vacated within two minutes. The light will be furnished by a sufficient number of electric lamps and the decorations will be extraordinary fine.
So rare a musical feast will probably not be offered our readers again in a long time. All who can should attend.

Common Council.
LOWELL, Aug. 11, 1881.
Special meeting of the Common Council.
Present full board.
On motion the recorder was ordered to spread upon the roll of unpaid taxes for the year of 1880 the sum of $45, to cover the expenses of advertising sale.
On motion of Mr. Adams $400 was appropriated for drainage purposes.
The street committee were authorized to use so much of the money appropriated for drainage purposes as is necessary to lay drainage pipe on Kent and Washington streets; 6 inch sewer pipe to be laid on Kent and Washington sts. to the north side of Bridge street, and from that point 4 inch drain tile to Avery street.
On motion council adjourned.
E. E. SUNDBERLIN, Recorder.

A Little odd.
Mr. W. Fitch, of Alpine, gives the Eagle an account of a number of curious freaks of lightning which occurred during a storm on the evening of Friday 5th inst, at the residence of Mr. John Matthews, near Pleasant Postoffice in that township.
The bolt entered the roof near the corner of the house, tearing the shingles quite badly in entering. Thence it made its way into the room of a young unmarried daughter of Mr. Matthews, striking the bed in which that young lady was sleeping, destroying all four castors of the bed and one of the iron which joined the sides of the bedstead to the head, cannot be found. The hair upon the young woman's head was also considerably burned by contact with the electric fluid. Strangely, however, she was injured in no other wise. This phenomena is probably explainable from the fact that she slept upon a feather bed, which although it seemed to the young woman to be all ablaze from the electric sparks which it emitted, was really unharmed.

Another and perhaps still more peculiar freak of this particularly erratic bolt, was that in passing out of the room, it burned a hole in a tin oil can filled with kerosene oil. From the hole the oil ran out, but was not ignited.—G. R. Eagle.

"The Best Book Out."
One of the most interesting and instructive works of the day is beyond all doubt: the work entitled the "Museum of Antiquity" by L. W. Yaggy, M.S. and T. S. Haines, A.M., author of "Royal Path of Life" and other well known volumes. It is a work that cannot fail to absorb the deepest interest of the reader. It gives full and graphic description of ancient life, employments, customs and habits, the cities, palaces, monuments and tombs; the literature and fine arts of 3,000 years ago, &c. &c. The frontispiece is adorned with a fine illustration of the coliseum of Rome, built 2,400 years ago. There are in the book about 200 historic illustrations, rich in design and workmanship, by German artists.
The recent excavations at Pompeii brought to light many wonderful discoveries confirming the authenticity of bible records concerning the ancient city and in view of this the work possesses double interest to the general reader. Believers read it and accept it as divinely sent to prove to skeptics the authenticity of the holy writings and skeptics and unbelievers buy it because they want to see for themselves how much of bible history is confirmed by the recent wonderful discoveries. The authors are eminent men and their "Museum of Antiquity" we regard as one of the most valuable contributions to the world's literature. The book contains nearly 1000 pages of "revelations." Mr. E. A. Crozier of Grand Rapids, a young man working his way through college, is now canvassing this vicinity, and taking many orders. We have given the work a careful review and can heartily recommend it as "the best book out."

Correspondence.
AROLD BOWNE CENTER.
The Old Fellows are in their new hall.
C. L. Coppens' new house is taking shape; the brick work is done and J. C. Ball of Boston is doing the wood work.
Many steam whistles are heard, the wheat runs a large stream and the farmers are disappointed in the yield more and more expected. J. M. Nash 761 bu., G. S. Crunbaek 630 bu., M. A. Holcomb 514. 26 bu. to the acre is about the average, some more, some less, and lots more to hear from. Oats are a light crop. The dry weather has reduced the yield. Corn and potatoes look very limber about high twelve these hot days.
That party that tied a member's vest strap to his chair at the last council please don't tie his pants strap next time; you know what happened to his vest.
OLD STIX.
ALTO VOICES.
Very dry. And the wind-mill man flourishes much. A large number of new wind-mills are being put up around here this summer.
Mr. & Mrs. Geo. Stone of Carson City have been visiting Mr. & Mrs. D. M. Skidmore and other friends.
Mrs. Lucy McVean and Miss Maggie McVean are visiting friends in the southern part of the state.
A new arrival at Joel Merriman's. A nice little daughter. Mrs. J. Timpson who has been ill for sometime is reported somewhat better.
Considerable sickness is reported in town.
Mrs. C. M. Arnold cousin of Pres. Garfield who was killed a short time ago while crossing a railroad track with her uncle, Thomas Garfield, was an esteemed and worthy member of Kent Co. Grange. Mrs. Arnold was a lady of rare intelligence, and one whose smiling face and kindly manner will be much missed wherever she was known.
CLO.
SOUTH BOSTON NEWS.
The next meeting of the L. D. C. will be held at the Central Grange Hall Aug. 30, 1881. Subject for discussion WHEAT. Topics assigned as follows: The importance of wheat in the world's history, Mrs. L. Nash; Improvements in varieties A. McDiarmid; Operations of wheat speculators, E. S. Welch; How can we increase our yields by cultivation, W. S. Story; Co-operation in marketing wheat, E. D. Jennings; Insect enemies and remedies, P. P. Perrin.; Advantages to be gained in milling a larger share of our wheat at home, L. J. Robinson.... James Leak started for Dakota on Monday, prospecting.
C. C. Winegar has gone to N. Y.
Mrs. E. W. Tucker returns to her home in Indianapolis this week.
The dedication of the M. E. Church is postponed until after conference.
The campmeeting near Clarksville was largely attended on Sunday.
The following persons have been elected a board of Directors to take charge of the So. Boston Select School for the coming year: J. D. Stannard, Rev. J. E. Turner, W. Young,

W. S. Story and O. Markham. We do claim that there have more successful teachers gone out from this school in proportion to the No. attending it than any other school in Ionia Co., and as it is now starting out on a different basis let us all work to make it a grand success.... We hear good reports from Lowell and vicinity concerning the improvement of our road to Lowell, we hope that every one in S. Boston has decided to help make this enterprise a success, and as we are directly interested, let us not let this opportunity pass by without improving it, as we may not find the Lowell people as willing to help as now in a long time.... Mr. & Mrs. N. Trobridge started for Ohio on Tuesday.

GRATTAN GATHERINGS.
Corn and potatoes are suffering badly from the drought. Rain, more rain, is the universal prayer.... Threshing machines are plenty, and now and then wheat goes 20 bushels and over per acre, but the average is much less.... Rev. T. Robinson of Ashley, has been greatly enjoying a two week's visit in Southern Michigan.... The owners of Jay Mason's fruit evaporators, are taking advantage of the "dry" season, doing some lively work.... At midday last Friday an unknown man tied his horse and carriage at the gate leading to H. Lessiter's corn field and entering, quickly secured an armful of green corn, and departed.... A. S. White & Co., of Lowell have put up a windmill for John Byrne with tanks at the house, and barn, and other necessary apparatus.... Thomas Byrne is building a house in south Grattan, to be occupied by his parents, with two uprights 18 by 26 feet, 20 feet high and wing 16 by 24 feet, 12 feet high.... Here are a few brief items of Petoskey, which now number 2,500 inhabitants. All its hotels and private houses are thronged with tourists. Some fifteen persons find constant employment polishing the stones picked up on the lake shore. There are two papers printed here, the Democrat, and Record, published by Messrs. Mosher & McManus, doing a thriving business. Mrs. J. M. Smith formerly from Lowell is engaged in making fishscale jewelry, and can scarcely keep ahead of orders. We found our Grattan friends—Mr. & Mrs. Huntley—happy and with a house full. There is an immense travel from Petoskey to Cheboygan, on the Inland Navigation Route. Here we met our old time friends D. Keeny and wife, formerly of Vergennes. They are looking just as young as ever, and "Dan" is captain of the Steamer "Northern Belle" and his son, pilot. Along this route we saw a few farmer's homes bespeaking the sentiment: "Far from the madning crowd's ignoble strife, I'd have for thee and me a little cot to dwell."... Bay View, on Traverse Bay, is a charming spot—the grounds of the Methodist Association. Here we pitched tent, and took solid comfort in attending the different religious services, lectures, excursions, and enjoying the lake-breeze so beneficial in lung diseases. The atmosphere is entirely different from ours, and they have had plenty of rain. Mead could fill a column with points of interest visited, but would recommend all to see for themselves.

Obituary.
HARTWELL.—Died at her residence in Cannon, Kent County, Mich., July 29, 1881. Mrs. M. J. Hartwell, a member of Cannon Grange No. 37.
At a meeting of the Lowell Grange, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted as a tribute to her memory.
While we meet here in pleasant and happy greeting let us not forget that death has once more entered our midst and removed from among us to the beautiful rest above our worthy sister; and while we mourn our loss with saddened hearts, let us ever cherish her memory and strive to imitate her virtues. Therefore be it
Resolved, That in the death of Mary J. Hartwell, our worthy Chaplain, this Grange laments the loss of a sister who was an efficient member, a faithful worker and a ready promoter to the interest of our Order; one whose utmost endeavors were exerted for its welfare and prosperity; a friend and counselor who was dear to us all; a citizen whose upright and noble life was a standard of emulation to all mankind.
Resolved, That the Grange deeply sympathize with the afflicted son and friends in their bereavement and beseech our Heavenly Father to give them grace and support in this their time of sorrow.
Resolved, That as a token of respect for our departed sister the charter of our Grange be draped in mourning for sixty days and these resolutions be placed upon the records of our Grange and transmitted for publication in the Grange Visitor and LOWELL JOURNAL, and a copy sent to the family of deceased.

Wants to Know About Guitau.
(From the Detroit Post.)
A Post and Tribune reader of an inquiring mind sends us the following concerning President Garfield's would-be assassin. The inquirer will please console himself in patience until Guitau can be heard from. The letter is given verbatim:
Oakfield, Kent Co., August the 7th, 1881.
Editor Post and Tribune.
Dear Sir—Please inform me through your Paper if there is any truth in the following, if Guitau, Secured the States of Iowa and Illinois for Garfield and if Garfield had promised to give him a farm in Mission as Minister and then after Garfield was elected that he did not know him at all and if Guitau and Garfield ever held Protracted Meetings to Gather and if Guitau was engaged to be married and cauculated to take his bride with him his farm in Mission and the disappointment had halt Crazed him

Yours Most Truly
Lowell, Mich., August 5, 1881.
Gentlemen:—I own and use a "Roller Grain Drill," and by actual experiments I am convinced that wheat drilled in, will stand the winters better, than wheat sown broadcast, and covered in the best possible manner. And that drilled wheat will under the same conditions yield 4 more wheat to the acre.

Jeff Davis and wife have gone to Liverpool.

The news from the President this morning is most discouraging.

New York City as a summer resort is seen at its best in December.

Ex-President Hayes thinks he will run over to England this fall.

The widow of ex-President Fillmore died at Buffalo last Thursday, aged 71.

The race is not always to the swift bicyclist. Do you tumble? He does, too.

Gen. Grant has bought a $95,000 home in New York and proposes to live there.

Maud S. brought her record down to 2:10 at Rochester the other day. "Time is money."

Spotted Tail was shot with a revolver by Crow Dog. Mr. S. Tail was 53 years old.

Spotted Tail has gone to the happy hunting grounds; we never shall see him more.

The kind expressions of sympathy for the President by the Southern press is a gratifying sign.

Dr. Tanner proposes to beat his former starvation record. When such men die the world has fewer fools.

Bob Ingersoll says the devil bought Mexico at a tax sale long ago. Who is this devil Bob is talking about?

Rumored that Mr. Conkling talks of starting a newspaper. We trust his mind isn't falling so fast as that.

A falling off of 59 per cent. in the winter wheat crop of Illinois, as compared with last year, is reported.

Petersburg, Va., and vicinity were visited by a very destructive wind and thunder storm Saturday afternoon.

It is said that jewels are little worn at the watering places this summer. Left at home as collaterals, we presume.

Chauncey Depew says the newspaper press was what killed Conkling. Not so; the press only commented freely on the suicide.

Saratoga is losing caste. You can buy a nickel cigar there now for a quarter and hugging on the hotel verandahs is played out.

Ex-Senator Christianity's divorce suit has already cost him $24,000 in attorney fees and alimony. That little red-head girl he married he wishes had never been born.

Miss Vera Partridge of Elmira is said to be the handsomest lady in the State of New York. Would it be violating the game laws to cage her?

E. Wieman, a resident of Macomb county, writes much to prove that the earth is flat. Wieman, what a fool thou art.

A Chicago mail carrier confesses to having stolen 500 letters. He is properly enveloped, but there is no ten days return on the upper left-hand corner.

If President Garfield has been improving as fast as reported by the bulletins from day to day, since he was shot, he ought to be about the healthiest man in this country by this time.

The assessed valuation of Dakota foots up $30,000,000 now, an increase of fifty per cent. in one year. This does not include railroad property.

The Rev. Dr. Thomas, the celebrated Methodist divine of Chicago, is to be tried for heresy. The church thinks he is too liberal to be a Methodist preacher.

Ex-President Hayes is reported "as happy as a man can be." Feels like a three-year-old colt turned loose in a 1000 acre lot.

Within a year just past 64 feet have been added to the height of the Washington monument and they propose to keep right on with its altitude. Don't let the President hear of this until he is able to stand the shock.

The new criminal code of New York gives little encouragement to that class of devils who commit crime and try to get away by playing the insanity dodge. Give us all some code like that.

The New York Socialists "demand" of Secretary Blaine an explicit answer as to what he intends to do in the Leo Hartmann case. Perhaps foreign fugitives and felons are running things over here.

The Buffalo Express thinks that the expense attending the attempted assassination of the President should be paid by appropriation of congress. Here too.

The Virginia "straightout" Republicans adjourned without making a ticket, and the coalition Republican convention endorsed the Mahone ticket. The Democrats will win, as usual.

The New York socialistic labor party held a big meeting Saturday night to sympathize with and provide aid for Leo Hartmann, the political fugitive. The "socialistics" bore down on Secretary Blaine very heavily. It is thought that the Secretary will recover.

It is computed that there are 185,000 regular physicians in the world, 65,000 of whom are in the United States. If we carry the computation a little further we find, taking the average according to these figures, that there are in this country about 770 persons to each regular physician, or about 150 families. We charge nothing for this information.

THE PRESIDENT.

Little Hope of His Recovery.

The President is fast failing and it is feared that his days are about numbered. His stomach has ceased to perform its functions, from some cause or other, and unless a change for the better takes place very soon he must die. There seems to be no hope of his recovery this morning.

WEDNESDAY, 10 A. M. A dispatch just received from Detroit, states that the President had a restless night, indicating that he is no better.

Saginaw furnishes many recruits for the reform school for girls.

Base ball tournament at Fowlerville this week.

The spiritualists' camp meeting at Gogauac is largely attended.

Big Rapids demands a license fee of $30 of every circus exhibiting there. Which is about all a circus is worth anyhow.

During the past year Port Huron suffered fifteen pairs of twins to come unto her, and forbade them not.

The Detroit nine were "sent to Chicago" last Thursday. The Chicago nine stood 17, Detroit 0. Chicago is no pig. No sir, no pig; lived too long to be a pig.

It is claimed that Guiteau's father was once president of a wild-cat bank in Washtenaw county. It is a wonder that they didn't cashier his son, years ago.

The last game of base ball between the Chicago and Detroit nines resulted in favor of the latter by a score of 3 to 0. Pretty fine game that.

The third annual meeting of the North-western Press Association begins at Cadillac Aug. 22. Literary exercises, business and pleasure will be happily combined.

Somebody fired a rifle ball into the bedroom of Bay City's fire department chief the other night and the chief would like to form his acquaintance.

The fool wife of a Calhoun county farmer eloped with their hired man some months ago, and now wants to come back to her liege lord and be awful good—until they get a new hired man.

Otto Lanz of Amsden attempted to break into a house Saturday night and received the contents of a double-barreled shotgun for his trouble. He Otto have known better.

One of the boa constrictors has escaped from the Battle Creek museum. So says the State Editor of the Detroit News who was brought up to hate lies.

A Howard City family picked $70 worth of whortleberries this season, and the Evening News says it takes 2,000,000 whortleberries to make a dollar's worth. Who thought the News' liar was off on a vacation.

A Frenchman named John Allguire of Grand Haven gave himself up to the Sheriff Sunday night, stating that he had just shot and killed a negro named Fred Green. Green has for several years lived in Grand Haven with Allguire's mother, a white woman. Allguire stated that Green got into a quarrel with his mother and struck her a blow on the head with a gun and attacked him, and he shot Green in self defense. Green and his mistress were found dead. The woman's head was broken by a blow from a blunt instrument. The top of Green's head was blown off. The woman served a couple of terms in the house of correction for disorderly conduct. Young Allguire has a fair reputation, considering his surroundings.
