JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

Frosty nights, very. Bring out your overcoats. Farmers report insect in their wheat. Uncle Tom's Cabin at Train's Hall Nov. 14. Remember the prize party Friday night. Congregational social at Mr. E. Fuller's to-night. J. E. Chapin of New York was in town last week. Chas. A. Renwick of Duluth in spending a few days in town. Samuel Innis of Canada is visiting relative in town. Singing school at Music Hall Thursday evening. Go. The Michigan relief fund at Boston amounts to $61,368. A bouncing new baby at Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kelley's of this village. A number of our correspondents failed to send in their items last week. Dr. Peck & McDannell now occupy rooms up stairs in their new building. Eugene M. Sprague of Cedar Springs was in town yesterday. De looks hearty. C. E. Stoddard of Saranac gets 90 days at Ionia House of Correction for stealing clothes. C. G. Stone will move to his new store in the new block soon. He has been waiting for the glass. The five per cent international postage stamp will contain the likeness of President Garfield. The fatal horse disease, "Pink-eye" has not got this far, but is reported in Grand Rapids. J. W. Parker has been making some very noticeable improvements in his residence on Hudson street. James Verplanck a Greenview saloonist took 40 doses of morphine at one time last Thursday, and still lives. The Promenade Concert and Ball by Balcom's Orchestra Thursday night was enjoyed by a small but select party. The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Driscoll, of Stanton, was buried at Fox's Corners yesterday afternoon. Mrs. J. Baumgardner will sell at public auction her farm implements on Nov. 3d, at her residence on sec. 6, in Campbell. The road leading to Upper Grand river bridge from the south has been closed on account of work on the South Boston road. As this is the diphtheria season parents should keep their children at home whenever they show symptoms of sore throat. It still rains and the mud is getting so deep that the "small boys" will soon be obliged to walk on stilts to avoid drowning. H. Naak is building a large residence opposite the Calhoun House on bridge street. When completed it will be used for a tenement house. The total expenditures for sickness and the funeral of President Garfield is estimated at $427,650, of which the United States will pay about $100,000. H. E. Hogan has sold his store at Freeport and is again in Lowell. He intends to remove to Westwood and engage in business soon. The diphtheria circulars mentioned last week have been well distributed, and it is hoped much good will result from them. The residence of Thos. Daniels of Keene burned with its contents last night. Mr. D. and family were away at the time. Cause of fire not known. The shingle mill engine gave out last Wednesday causing a suspension of business for about two days. The mills have not run one full week without accident since Sept. 1st. Chicago has contributed $19,000 to the Michigan fire sufferers. Just half the amount which Michigan sent to Chicago while aiding her own destitute to the amount of nearly $500,000. A number of new cross walks are being put in and in accordance with the suggestion of the JOURNAL the low places on Bridge and Main street are being filled with gravel. Guiteau was brought before the Court at Washington Oct. 14, and pleaded not guilty. His counsel asked for time and the day set for the beginning of his trial was November 7. A number of new and popular books have been added to the school library of District No 1. The library now numbers 571 volumes, which shows well for the district. H. C. Sessions of Ionia has been appointed as one of the delegates to represent Michigan in the Mississippi river improvements convention, being held at St. Louis to-day. For a short time only trial subscribers are being taken for The Echo, the weekly edition of The Detroit Evening News, at nominal rates. Any one can have a copy three months for the trifling sum of ten cents. Nothing cheaper in the way of a newspaper was ever known.

Work has been commenced on the Baptist church.

The building will be raised and moved several feet east, a steeple added, and a bell put in, which will add much to the appearance of the structure.

The M. E. Social will be held at the residence of Mrs. Daniel Oliver on Friday evening Oct. 28th. Literary exercises will be given and refreshments served. All are cordially invited to attend. Uncle Tom's Cabin at Train's Hall Nov. 14.

The next meeting of the Union Literary Society of West Lowell and vicinity will be held at the residence of Charles Townsend, on Saturday evening, November 5.

A man from Saranac and a man of Lowell had some words in front of the post-office in this village last Saturday evening. The words soon led to blows. The result was the man from Saranac can't say he was never whipped.

The sad intelligence has just been received that Mr. C. A. Clark of Leona Holt Co. Nebraska formerly of this village who went west a few years since to engage in business, was recently bitten on his leg by a mad dog and died from the effects on the 14th inst. He lived two weeks after he was bitten. Mr. C. is a father of the Clark Brothers who own the Lowell Woolen Mills at this place, and was well known by many of our readers. The full particulars have not been received.

The mud being so deep this week, and not being an expert in the art of still-walking the editor pro tem has been obliged to use the shears quite freely in order to procure a reasonable amount of matter with which to fill the columns of this week's JOURNAL. The editor is expected home in time to give some jottings from Yorktown in next week's issue, which will, in a measure reward our readers for their kindness in accepting this and the last JOURNAL as numbers of the present volume.

Rev. J. M. Van Wagner, than whom no minister was ever more widely or favorably known in Sedalia, has accepted a call to Lowell, Michigan, and moves westward again. Mr. Van Wagner has the push and vim of the West, which age cannot tame, and we welcome him as he comes this way. If he should make any further changes may they bring him still nearer Sedalia.—Sedalia (Mo.) Times.

Members of the the Grand Rapids' Lowell Club who were in this village over Sunday, were enthusiastic over the prospective attendance from the city at the select party which the club is to give at Train's Hall on Friday evening, Nov. 11. Unless present indications are at fault, the party will be a complete success.

The success of The Detroit Evening News has been wonderful. Prior to its establishment no Detroit daily had ever had a regular issue of over 5,000 copies. The founder of The News hoped to gain 10,000 subscribers, but deemed it would be a work of some years. Notwithstanding the paper closed its first year with a circulation of 12,000. At three years it had reached 17,000, and 20,000 copies was then put at the limit of possibilities. But 20,000 was reached and passed in the fall of 1878, since which period the growth has been steady and constant, until to-day it exceeds 33,000 copies per day—a circulation surpassed by but a few daily newspapers in the United States. And all this has been won by sheer merit alone.

Programme for L. L. C. to be held on Friday next, Oct. 28th, 1881. Ancient and modern Theaters, Mrs. Enos; Atlas of Rose, Mrs. Barber; Petrified forests of California, Mrs. Brower; History of the Flax plant, Mrs. Hicks; Paper on house keeping, Mrs. Giles; Humorous reading, Miss Robinson; Effect of the Crusades, Miss Giles; Questions for debate, Ist., "Is the mind of Woman, inferior to that of man?" 2d., "Is a lawyer justified in defending a bad cause?" 3d., "Is truth invincible, if left to grapple with falsehood on equal terms."

The terrible news reached here Monday, that a young man named James H. Eldridge, aged 19 years, living two miles east of Saranac was killed by the late train Saturday night. He went to Saranac last Saturday, and it is reported indulged too freely in strong drink. He went to the D. G. H. & M. Railway depot where he broke some glass from a window and started down the track. This we understand, was the last time he was seen until sometime Sunday, when some young men who were hunting discovered him lying dead on the railroad track between Lowell and Saranac. His skull was badly crushed, one leg was severed above the ankle, the other leg driven completely through his body; one arm was cut off at the shoulder, and the clothing was almost entirely torn from the body. We have not learned whether he had parents living there, or any of the particulars concerning the inquest.

Teachers' Examination.

The regular fall examination of teachers for Kent County, will take place on Friday and Saturday, October 28 and 29, 1881, in the Supervisor's room, Lyon St. Grand Rapids, Mich.—(County Board of School Examiners.)

Correspondence.

SARANAC.

Trade is good and the merchants are having a good trade. On Saturday evening a young man by the name of Eldridge was killed by the cars one half mile west of this place. He was drunk. The death of Eldridge afforded one of the best temperance lectures delivered here this season. His body was badly mangled. Cor.

VERGENNES VILLAGE.

How beautiful the trees look with their new fall costume of old gold and crimson. The annual meeting of Vergennes Detective Association will be held at their Headquarters Monday evening Nov. 7. Mrs. T. I. Daniels is very sick with Quinsy. Mrs. Del Krum and Miss Grace Blanding are on the sick list. Mrs. B. N. Lobdell of Northville N. Y., is visiting her mother, Mrs. D. M. Miller. Ione.

ALTON ATOMS.

Miss Ina Conley is on the sick list. Mr. & Mrs. Mark Adams of Battle Creek has been visiting Mr. A's sister, Mrs. Andrew's and other relatives. Mrs. W. H. Alger has sold his farm to W. H. Brown for $1,600 and intends to leave for Dakota soon. The next regular meeting of the Alton Literary Society will be held at Grange Hall Wednesday evening, Nov. 2d. Miss Cora Alger left for Napoleon on Thursday last to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. E. Moorman.

SOUTH BOSTON NEWS.

H. Stark's horse became frightened at a paper which the wind was blowing when going to Church Sunday morning and threw Mr. & Mrs. Stark out, fortunately it did not injure them much and only damaged the buggy a little. The Ladies of the M. E. Sewing Society will hold an Oyster Social at the Hall on Wednesday evening, Nov. 21 1881. All are invited. Jas. L. Chapman of Kalamazoo made friends in So. Boston a pleasant visit last week. Our Select School has a splendid reputation, and more pupils are expected.

OKAFIELD ODDITIES.

The Barnards have sold their farm of 80 acres, 60 improved good buildings together with $700 worth of personal property all for $2,600. Dirt cheap. It cost us more than that to improve it years ago. A. T. Bickford is the lucky man. The old lady did not like her neighbors, and no love lost was the cause of sale. Christian Anderson whose name denotes his nationality, has bought 40 acres of Hollis Brooks for $1,000. Mrs. John Brigham has been trying to die of late but the Lord is not quite prepared to give her a seat among the angels and her prospects of recovery are better. Harvey A. Rowley's new house is approaching completion. It is one of the best residences in town. Lyman Spaulding rejoices in a new barn, painted red. About 60 people had a very enjoyable time at the annual meeting of the Library association. John E. Peterson was re-elected president, Mrs. Niel Stewart Secretary, and Miss Sara Peterson Librarian, whose report shows the Library to be in a healthy condition. We were all pleased to see R. B. Cornell present. He brings good reports from the Tennessee colony. To him we owe the initiative steps of the White Swan Reading school and Library. The next meeting of Club will be at Franklin Bowmans Saturday evening the 29th. M. T. Jr.

GRATTAN GATHERINGS.

It seems as if the autumn foliage was never so gorgeous before. The insect cometh like a vast army and the young wheat turneth black with mortification. C. M. Slayton exhibited at the Grange a number of Snowflake potatoes, one weighing 2 lbs. 6 oz. Who goes ahead of this record? Mrs. A. Lambertson of Alton, was with Grattan friends last week and visited the Grange. Come again. "Auntie" Rhodes of Ada is visiting with her old-time friend Mrs. L. E. Brooks. Church social and picnic dinner at the Ashley parsonage, next Friday. Come one and all and enjoy yourselves. Rev. T. Robinson has returned from the burned district and says no description can make the terrible result of fire apparent, 1,500 sufferers must subsist from now until next harvest by the charities of the benevolent. Small rough-board houses are being erected, and monthly allowances of cash dealt out to families. The articles most needed now are women and children's underclothing, especially the latter, household utensils, needles, thread, buttons, scissors, little things, which have been overlooked by the relief committees, yes and thimbles too—anything in this line will not be amiss. Numbers of the people are afflicted with peculiar sore eyes, the result of the fire and smoke. They are very thankful and appreciate the aid bestowed. Rev. G. Harris, of Smyrna preached at Grattan Church Sunday, P. M. No regular services there at present. MAID.

AROUND BOWNE CENTER.

Diphtheria still rages at Freeport. Dr. Peckham buried his only child here one day last week. A. L. Coon is very low with fever. D. L. Nash of Ionia is visiting relatives and friends. Miss Nellie Carns of Shepardsville is visiting her cousins, Miss Clara Morgan and Mrs. F. L. Colson. There was about 1200 pounds of young Ladies and Gents to match, pulling candy for Miss Em. Holcomb last Friday night. There is an old Granger taking orders for the life of President Garfield. Of course he sells you a single book at wholesale, if he don't forget it, and it is just the book we all want. It is reported that J. M. and John Nash are about to engage in the mercantile business. Colson Bros. about to retire. OLD STYX.

MY MICHIGAN.

A boy named Wildberger, in Grand Rapids, Friday, while practising on stilts, fell and broke one arm and one leg.

A horse stolen at Orleans Ionia Co. last August was found on the 7th, hitched to a tree in Easton, where it had died of starvation.

The Central Michigan bee keepers hold their semi-annual Convention at Lansing to-morrow.

The Muskegon mill men did not carry their point in the late strikes, but they go on record as the best behaved big gang of strikers ever heard of in that region.

The Hon. Bela Corbush of Holly, aged 65, died Friday night. He had lived in Oakland county 42 years, and in Holly 14 years and was well known throughout the county.

A lad named Frank Murphy was playing with a toy pistol in Muskegon, Thursday, when it was discharged, wounding a man named Winters in the head.

At Blissfield, Thursday, James Westerman, aged 87, was buried. He was one of the oldest settlers in Livonia Co. and a member of the first Old Fellows' lodge in America.

The supervisors of Muskegon county have asked prosecuting attorney DeLong to resign on account of his alleged sympathy with the strikers and rotters, at whose meetings he was a prominent speaker. DeLong says he will not resign.

Freeman Bennett of Fenton, an aged man who fancies that some one is trying to wrong him, tried to shoot Burdick Potter last Wednesday. He was arrested and examined before the circuit court commissioners for insanity, but they discharged him, none of the witnesses being willing to swear that they believed him insane. If he does kill somebody they would all swear him insane, probably.

A serious accident occurred at the Spaulding & Wilkins manufacturing establishment at Hastings Saturday forenoon about 11 o'clock, resulting in the instant death of Charles Brown of Maple Grove township, a lad of 17 years, employed in the wood shop. At the time of the accident he was elevating lumber to the third story of an elevator that worked by steam. He had a light load, and in violation of the rules of the establishment, stepped on the platform to ride to the loft. The man at work with him told him to get off and go up the stairs, but he said "No, I will ride up this time." The man pulled the rope and started the elevator with Brown on it. It moved steadily up until it arrived at the third floor, when in stopping the rope used for lifting the platform suddenly parted where it had been spliced. Mr. Doxy standing by, attempted to catch Brown but only just caught his coat sleeve. The platform and the load descended with great rapidity to the lower floor striking it before Brown had reached the second. He fell partially head first or in a horizontal position striking the back of his neck across the upper beam of the elevator and breaking it. One leg was also broken. The coroner's jury exonerate the company from all blame and find the cause of death as stated above.

How to Help the Michigan Fire Sufferers.

It is now evident that relief sufficient to place the fire sufferers in comfortable circumstances can not be obtained and many are obliged to dispose of at least a portion of their farms. These lands are practically clear of timber, and can be purchased at prices ranging from $5 to $18 per acre. The soil, naturally fertile, has been vastly enriched by the fire, and is in splendid condition for spring crops. Markets are near and accessible by water or rail. There is not the slightest possibility of another fire.

Parties who desire a cleared farm at the price of wild lands, and at the same time wish to aid the sufferers, are requested to come to the burned district and investigate for themselves. Those who can not do so, may get any information desired free of charge, by addressing Relief Committee, Minden, Mich.

Probate Order.

Probate Order.—State of Michigan, County of Kent.—At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Kent, holden at the Probate office, in the City of Grand Rapids, on Tuesday, the fourth day of Oct., in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty one. Present, Cyrus E. Perkins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of James Dunham deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified of Milton M. Perry, Administrator de bonis non of said Estate, praying this Court for License and authority to sell certain real estate therein described and for reasons therein set forth.

Thereupon it is Ordered, That Monday the seventh day of November next at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs at law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate be required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate Office, in the City of Grand Rapids, in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted: And if further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Lowell Journal, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Kent three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

CYRUS E. PERKINS, Judge of Probate. ADOLPH B. MARON, Register. 15w3.

CASH PAID—For ox-bow timber delivered at the Depot.

F. O. TAFT.

O! WHAT A COUGH.

Will you keep the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that most terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of 50 cts., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your Cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves Croup, and Whooping Cough, at once. Mothers do not be without it. For Lame Back, Side, or Chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. For sale by Hunt & Hunter.

DISPEPSIA & LIVER COMPLAINT.

Is it not worth the small price of 75 cents to free yourself of every symptom of these distressing complaints, if you think so call at our store and get a bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer, every bottle has a printed guarantee on it, use accordingly and if it does you no good it will cost you nothing. Sold by Hunt & Hunter.

Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. A marvelous cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, Canker mouth, and Head Ache. With each bottle there is an ingenious nasal Injector for the more successful treatment of these complaints without extra charge. Price 50 cts. Sold by Hunt & Hunter.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.

Counterfeiters are ever on the alert to find fresh fields to which they never intend a worthless article. Prof. Guilmotte's French Kidney Pad was brought out about ten years ago, and since then a host of friends without skill or conscience have sought to imitate it by many worthless affairs; but a discriminating public will not be taken in by such which is good, and the Guilmotte Pad more than holds its own. It cures all kidney diseases and succeeds where medicine often fails. Ask your druggist if it is not so. Sold by J. K. West.

FREE OF COST.

All persons wishing to test the merits of a great remedy one that will positively cure Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, or any affection of the Throat and Lungs—are requested to call at Hunt & Hunter's Drug Store and get a Trial Bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, free of cost, which will show you what a regular dollar-size bottle will do.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.

In these times of quack medicine ad verterisements everywhere, it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise, and which really does as recommended. Electric Bitters we can vouch for as being a true and reliable remedy, and one that will do as recommended. They invariably cure stomach and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary difficulties. We know whereof we speak, and can readily say, give them a trial. Sold at fifty cents a bottle, by Hunt & Hunter.

WORTHY OF PRAISE.

As a rule we do not recommend Patent Medicines, but when we know of one that is really a public benefactor, and does positively cure, then we consider it our duty to impart that information to all. Electric Bitters are truly a most valuable medicine, and will surely cure Biliousness, Fever and Ague, Stomach, Liver and Kidney Complaints, even when all other remedies will fail. We know whereof we speak, and can freely recommend them to all.—Sold by Hunt & Hunter.

WE HAVE FOUND WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT.

Something to cleanse their blood and drive out all the vile humors. Something to give them an appetite. Something to give them new life, new health, and vigor. Parnee's Great Blood Purifier will do it. No disease can exist where this remedy is used, so complete is its operation. Price $1 per bottle 15 cents. Sold by Hunt & Hunter.

"TRUTH IS LIFE."

There is nothing that tends to relieve the human frame from the toils and turmoils of every day life more than quiet rest and sleep and rest at night. Parnee's Dyspepsia Compound will make you sleep as sweetly as you could desire, for the most frequent cause of sleeplessness is dyspepsia, and by the use of this compound the liver is stimulated to healthy action, and you "feel like a new man" and sleep as you have never slept before. Sample bottles 15 cents; large size $1. Sold by Hunt & Hunter.

DOES IT INJURE THE SKIN?

It is not! Hamilton's Oriental Balm is entirely free from anything calculated to injure the skin or health. It is decidedly the best thing in the market. It removes tan, pimples, freckles, moles, patches, black worms or grubs and leaves the skin clear and transparent. Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold by Hunt & Hunter.

A LEVEL HEAD.

Sits on the shoulders of that man who when his horse becomes afflicted with spavins, ringbone, gall-springs, halt, founder scratches and the like secures a bottle of Parnee's Universal Liniment, the best and most effectual medicine of its kind. Some of the most remarkable results ever effected by a healing remedy, have been produced by this Liniment. Price 50c per bottle; sample bottle 25c. Sold by Hunt & Hunter.

DRY LUMBER FOR SALE.

Dissolution of Co-Partnership.

The co-partnership heretofore existing under the name of Howk & Hine is this day dissolved by the sale of the interest of the late M. B. Hine to Robt. G. Bostwick. All accounts and notes will be collected by Howk & Bostwick. Lowell Oct. 11th, 1881.

A. J. Howk, C. R. Hine, Executor of the last will & testament of Milton B. Hine deceased.

Dr. J. B. Goodsell, the dentist, of Lowell has received a splendid upright piano, manufactured by McIntyre & Goodsell of Grand Rapids, which is admired by all who see it. From testimonials in their catalogue by well known musical men and citizens they make as good an instrument as is made anywhere and at full as low price. They make no shoddy instruments and guarantee them for 5 years. Those contemplating buying would do well to examine the one at Dr. Goodsell's, over Mrs. Sprague's millinery store on the bridge and examine the tone and design of this instrument.

Vergennes, Oct. 20, 1881, Came into my enclosure Oct. 12th, one white and red two year old heifer, with slim sharp horns. The owner is requested to prove property, pay charges and take her away. Seth T. Robinson. 15w2

NEWS & NOTES. Our President weighs 215, and our Vice President 315 pounds.

Litta is about to marry her manager, and will thenceforth manage him.

At least 27 of the 48 members of the United States Senate which met in July 1881, are dead.

Herr Krupp is working over some unsold cannon into steel rails for the United States market.

Gen. Hancock got up a $5,000 banquet to the French army officers at Yorktown.

Queen Victoria has taken advantage of the depression in real estate in England to purchase several farms in Wiltshire.

Dr. Charles Howard, publisher of the Scientific American, fell dead of heart disease on Broadway, Thursday.

Glider, Stedman and Howells are all guessed at as the successor of Dr. Holland in the editorial chair of the Century Magazine.

Cleveland authorities fine boot-blacks for "congregating on the sidewalk." As soon as a boy congregates, up he goes.

The commune tigers, Louise Michel, is loudly applauding, to her audiences in Parisian slums, the assassination of President Garfield.

The President's official letter paper reads "Office of the President of the United States," instead of "Executive Mansion," as of yore.

John Walter, the owner of the London Times, likes this country so well that he wants to have his family live here long enough to become such as are.

Mrs. Cornwell West, who is going to come as lady of the house for her cousin, the new British minister at Washington, is a little brunette whose dresses are perfectly yunyum.

A Washington letter says President Arthur is as much of a sphynx to politicians as Grant was. He is courteous and genial, but while he keeps his ears open, he keeps his mouth shut.

Madame Tussaud has added a wax portrait of Guitene to the attractions in her London exhibition. The American people, though, will never be satisfied until they have waxed him themselves.

The Free Press says "Ingersoll is going to abolish hell in New Mexico." Well, if he can abolish it faster than the Indians can raise it, he is the man for the place.

In his banquet speech at Winnipeg, Lord Lorne said "Canada wanted to be the friend of the United States, and not her foe," with this assurance staring her in the face, the United States breathes again, and will go on.

The qualifications named for one of the park commissioners of Chicago are, that he is an Irishman, a Roman Catholic and a democrat. Everybody knows the kind of constituency that ejects such officials into a city government.

Dr. Sims, of New York, who has been one of the severest critics of the President's doctors, says that as soon as the beast's bullet struck General Garfield's spine, his case was hopeless and beyond human aid.

The combat between the editors of the Cincinnati Gazette and the Cincinnati Commercial has reached such a stage that the Atlanta Constitution wants the fire department called out to play on them. Blessed are the peacemakers.

Sir Thomas Wade, the British minister to Pekin, who has been a resident of China 40 years, recently concluded to do honor to an intimate old Chinese friend by attending his funeral, and then learned for the first time that no foreigner was ever permitted to attend the funeral of a Chinaman.

Astronomers are watching for the star of Bethlehem, last seen in 1572, and now due. Before the above date, it was seen in 1264, its previous appearance having been in 945. It appeared at the time of Christ's birth and thus gets the name. When it came in 1572, it was so bright that it was clearly visible at noonday, and faded away, assuming various hues as it went.

John Battersby is ruined. For 20 years he has been the greatest and only living skeleton on earth, of the tented schools. Now he is gaining flesh. From 57 pounds he has, in six months, grown to 127, and is still at it. A man weighing 127 pounds isn't much of a curiosity, but the wife of his bosom, wooed and won during museum companionship, is a 625 pound fat woman, and perhaps Mr. Battersby is trying to grow fat enough to be worthy of her.

A number of Iowa people are going to Dakota to settle.

Daniel Shea, an old man, was found dead in his bed in East Saginaw, Friday morning.

Nearly all the Muskegon sawmills are running again at 10 hours a day, having yielded to the strikers for the present.

Senator Conger, of Michigan has bought a $21,000 residence at Washington.

Wheat blockades are reported all over the state. Elevators full and railways not moving the grain.

The editors in the third district are trying to get up a convention of themselves to be held at Jackson.

A strange and fatal disease has broken out at Farmington, Oakland county, and several deaths are reported.

An Ann Arbor girl confined at the Adrian reform school for girls is as wild as a hawk and kicks, bites, scratches and bangs the other girls around at an awful rate.

Wednesday, Francis M. Kent, one of the oldest and best business men of Grand Ledge, was stricken with paralysis but is slowly recovering.

The Hudson Post says that a blue racer, four feet four inches long, was killed on the platform of the depot, last Wednesday. It was the only snake of this kind which has been seen in this county for years, and it was killed before it had time to get its baggage checked to visit its relatives in other counties.

Sojourner Truth has been lecturing the Chicago people on their vile habits of drinking whiskey and using tobacco. She also spoke against capital punishment, evidently being unimpaired that much of the population of Chicago needed hanging.

There is curious "crank" at Big Rapids. The Magnet says this fellow's name is Luke Lyons and he imagines that he is grand master of the grand lodge of free masons; that he has taken one degree higher than any other living mason, going up into the clouds to get it. He claims to have passed through the earth twice, and that he controls the minds of all the people in the United States. Lyons says he was formerly a catholic, but he got too holy for them and joined the Methodist church, that being the only one pure enough to associate with. He declares that if President Arthur does not follow the course laid out by Garfield he will die within a year by an act of Providence. He also asserts that if this country should ever elect another military president he (Lyons) has been chosen by the Almighty to kill him before inauguration day, and that he will execute his holy orders.

Didn't Know Oats. One day a little knot of men, among whom were two Michiganians, got into a dispute in Deadwood regarding the ancients. A part of the crowd held that oats was a great poet, while others asserted that he was an orator, and it was finally agreed to leave it to a grocer around the corner who was supposed to be well posted on all matters. The crowd therefore proceeded to his store in a body, and the spokesman brusquely queried: "Say, Jim, can you settle a dispute?" "Yes, sir," was the prompt reply. "Well, then, what was Oats's best hold?" "Oats—Oats—hold on a minute," replied Jim as he started for his desk. He opened his ledger, ran down the index to "C," glanced over the names, and then returned and said: "Don't find him here on my books, and I reckon he was some scrub who jumped in here awhile, got down to roots, and then took the cross-cut for Gunnison. Did he go through any of you?"

Adage by a young lady: "Man proposes, but mamma disposes."

Care in the Use of Postal Cards.

Great care should be taken in the use of postal cards, which should never be employed if you have anything of an unusual or ambiguous nature to communicate. An editorial writer of the New York Times, evidently writing of personal experience, says: "A newspaperman once planned a story in which a lady unhappily married was to sue for a divorce, and to make sure of being correct, wrote to a lawyer friend, stating the case as he meant to describe it. Back came a postal card: 'You could not get a divorce on the grounds you mentioned in New York; you might in Connecticut or Maine.' This card, handed by the carrier to Mrs. Newspaperman one forenoon, when her husband was away at business, raised a breeze in the household which was not allayed for some days."

A little Dubuque boy who had heard his mother and father discussing the prospects of the president's recovery, and had pondered over it a month or two, that if the president did get well it would be because all the ministers and christian people had prayed for him, asked, "Mother, is it that they call all the ministers reverend doctors?"
