LOWELL JOURNAL
JAS. W. HINE, EDITOR.

EDITORIAL TALK.

—The Lake City (Missaukee Co.) Journal deals the LOWELL JOURNAL a terrible blow between the eyes for asking so many saucy questions in regard to the U. S. Senatorship. As soon as we found that we'd been hit (the Lake City editor sent word that we had) we called in a doctor and after shaking his head a few times very doubtfully, he said he feared we would recover. The Lake City paper is in favor of Austin Blair for U. S. Senator, to succeed Senator Ferry. We can't help that. But when he states as one of his reasons that Mr. Blair "isn't a Third-Term man, either," our beloved friend Barker, the able and accomplished editor of the Lake City Journal, will pardon us if we stop long enough to smother a smile with our red wipe. We distinctly remember seeing friend Barker's paper before the Chicago Convention, when it was shouting for Grant and the "third term" with all its power. And we saw Barker, too, several times in a procession all by himself, wearing a third term badge and a bright smile that haunts us still. But enough of this. Ex-Gov. Blair is a good man, but it is not probable that a very large boom can be worked up for him for senator. This being the case it is not necessary to speak of his turning his back upon his party and going over to the enemy, at a time when the fight was hottest. True, he afterward saw his mistake and came back, and was made a regent of the Michigan University by Republican votes, but this by no means entitles him to a better standing in the party than scores of others who have never been persuaded to leave their ranks. We regret; it is not likely that a very large boom can be worked up for Ex-Gov. Blair for U. S. Senator. Not just yet.

—The prospect for a fusion of the democratic and greenback parties in Michigan does not seem to brighten as time rolls on. There are vigorous kickers against the scheme in both parties (more from the greenback than the democratic) and it is quite probable that before the conventions are called, enough bad feeling will have been engendered to defeat the purpose of the fusionists. If by combining against the Republicans the opposing parties could be assured of success, the fusion scheme would no doubt meet with general favor, but without this assurance, which no sensible man wants to take the responsibility of recording, it seems improbable that the democrats and greenbackers of Michigan can be brought together upon one platform and under one banner. They tried the experiment once and the result was not such as tends now to create much of a boom in the fusion business. We shall look for three state tickets in the field (not including the prohibition ticket) and a rousing Republican majority over all. The people of Michigan are satisfied with the administration of state affairs and have good reason to be. And they have a way of saying so at the polls that is really exhilarating.

—If the JOURNAL could have its way there wouldn't be a state or county political convention held in Michigan this year until after the first of September. A two months' campaign is long enough. What we need in this country and state is less political cat-hauling and more attention to business. A long political campaign means an unnecessary expenditure of time and money, neglect of individual duty to the regular pursuits of life and the stirring up of more bad blood than is either desirable or necessary. A short, decisive campaign is what the JOURNAL would like to see, and now all in favor of that say "aye."

—Owing to a pressure of his own private business, Hon. M. C. Burch has tendered his resignation as U. S. Attorney for the Western District of Michigan, to take effect June 25, next. Hon. Jno. W. Stone, of Grand Rapids, has been nominated by the President as successor to Mr. Burch. The nomination is a popular one. Mr. Stone will ably fill the position so long held and creditably filled by Mr. Burch.

—Senator Ferry deserves the grateful thanks of every Michigan farmer for the good work he has done in pushing through a bill for the protection of innocent purchasers of patented articles, such as the drive well, &c. Senator Ferry has always been found ready to defend the interests of the farmer and all laboring classes.

—Greenbacker Brumm of Pennsylvania wants a currency "based on the intelligence and patriotism of the American people." If the election of congressmen were based entirely upon the intelligence of the people Mr. Brumm would have never lifted up his voice in the halls of congress.

—Guiteau has given the American people another allopatical dose of disconnected sentences, thus proving himself guilty of one more crime—that of murdering the King's English. The only real good sentence we ever saw of Guitau's was the one Judge Cox pronounced.

—A Syracuse grave robber was shot through the head the other night while playing his vocation. Justice is sometimes fired from a shot-gun.

—The Big Rapids Herald intimates that "Tom Bates" of the Grand Traverse Herald supports Hubbell for Senator because Hubbell had Bates appointed postmaster, and that "Jim Hine" of the LOWELL JOURNAL supports Ferry because Ferry had "Jim Hine" appointed postmaster. This would be a pretty good item if it were a truthful one. Leaving brother Bates to answer for himself, "Jim Hine" arises to remark that it was not Senator Ferry who secured "Jim Hine's" appointment. "Jim Hine" supported Ferry years before "Jim Hine" was made postmaster, and has supported him ever since and supports him now to the best of his ability, because he believes Senator Ferry to be the best man Michigan can send to the United States Senate. Brother Nisbitt of the Big Rapids Herald should take something to neutralize the acid in his stomach. Pass the demijohn to Bro. Nisbitt; he's dry.

—The bill for the extension of the charters of national banks passed the House Friday by an overwhelming majority. Reason has not yet deserted her throne in that branch of the national legislature. The vote stood 125 yeas, 67 nays.

—The poet grinder of the Detroit Free Press worked out a couplet on the Port Huron Times and LOWELL JOURNAL the other day, and then sent for a doctor. The man of medicine came, wiped the poet's nose with a blotter and pronounced the case softening of the brain.

—Canadian butter is smuggled into Maine, concealed in carloads of kindling wood. If the butter is like some we tried once at a Canadian lunch counter it will split the kindling wood all up fine, ready for use, before crossing the line.

—Detroiters are singing anthems to their Lord (M. C.) so great is their joy over the passage of the Detroit public building bill, which the said M. C. so ably piloted through. Serves 'em right.

—Michigan democracy being without a leader the Post and Tribune suggests that Col. Messmore of Grand Rapids be asked to step to the front. Is the Colonel well upholstered?

—Hanlan's winnings in England amount to about $50,000. That's what a man gets by padding his own canoe.

—The loudest talkers against national banks are they who know the least about that system of banking.

—Wonder if Jay Gould and them fellows ever growl at the price of beef-steak?

—Oscash is in Canada. Ta-ta, Oscash.

JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

W. S. Gerrish, a wealthy lumberman, died at Ex-act last Friday.

Mrs. Carrie Clark of Cannon visited Lowell friends last week.

Chas. O. Bostwick has been appointed postmaster at Cannonsburg.

Mrs. W. E. Drew of Muskegon is in town; the guest of Mrs. J. Flanagan.

Mrs. Nellie Misher is teaching in the Hancock district; wages, $6 a week.

An item overlooked.—Mrs. Barkley returned from Greenville some two or three weeks ago to reside in Lowell.

Decoration Day next Tuesday. It will be quietly observed here. Don't neglect to "Cover them over with beautiful flowers."

Mr. Freeman S. Jones informs the JOURNAL that he will soon begin to build on his lots west of the Davis House.

Some days ago Drs. Grant and Robertson and families moved into the residence of M. N. Hine, M. N. remaining as a boarder.

Counterfeit $10 gold pieces are in circulation. Some rainy day examine your hoarded wealth and see how much bogus you are carrying.

There will be a pie social at the residence of Mrs. C. D. Pease this Wednesday evening and everybody is invited to pie. It will pay to go.

Mr. J. S. Bristol, a prominent merchant of St. Johns, was at I. E. Strong's over Sunday; returning home with Mrs. Bristol Monday a. m.

Mrs. C. W. Fuller and two sons start this week for California to join her husband who has been working at San Luis Obispo for sometime.

The Allegan newspaper was continued. Peace, brethren, peace. Why, if you keep on in this way, you'll drive every dove out of the equity.

Dr. A. B. Grant of this village was elected general secretary of the State Homeopathic Society, at the convention in Grand Rapids last week.

That model paper, the Gratiot County Journal, is sweet 16. Rob. Smith is an A 1 newspaper man and gets out one of the brightest papers in Michigan.

A case of diphtheria reported at Mat. Hunter's in this township.

A list of "dead beats" and "poor-law" persons is being made up in town and the JOURNAL has furnished a few names to adorn the catalogue. The biggest fool in this world is the dead-beat who thinks people don't what he is. He is not only known where he lives but his standing is made known in other towns as well. He would be surprised if he knew how thoroughly well known he is by men who are strangers to him. He would indeed.

The weather has been rather unfavorable for ice cream makers, but a very fine quality of the frigid sweetness was dealt out at Medler's dining hall Saturday night. It will be found there during the season.

D. H. English sold Aldrich & Forman of Lowell, a grade shorthorn steer sixteen months old for $18.00. He only decided a short time since to put him on the market, during a portion of which time he gained five lbs a day. The same parties took two yearlings of him at $78 48, one of which was only twelve months old. He thinks if it will pay to keep other breeds until they are nearly three years old and sell them for less money he can afford to keep shorthorns and sell them for the above prices.—Sarasau Local.

THE JOURNAL is in receipt of a note complaining of some "loose-tongued individuals" who "take delight in scandalizing" and the writer asks us to publish their names or "give them a dose" that will cure them of their habit. The writer is perhaps aware that every town has its scandal mongers and that to attempt to drive them from their occupation is a big undertaking. Lowell is perhaps no worse off than other towns in this respect. Very likely we have our full quota of the "loose-tongued" species but they generally do themselves more harm than those they seek to injure, perhaps the best way is to let their tongues wag at will until they wag themselves tired. People have acquired such a thorough knowledge of the scandal monger that what he (or she, as the case may be) says or does is counted for what it is worth, which is 0. Still, there is about as much scandal mongers that should be borne in mind. They are the ones above all others that need watching. No matter what their professions may be, they are almost without exception the worst pills in the box. They use their tongues on others to draw attention from their own vices and it is amusing sometimes to see how easily deceived they are. They are the sly coons of society that crawl around in the dark for their game, and when daylight comes they are innocents and virtue, shocked at the misdeeds of others. You can trust them as far as you can throw a ball by the tail—just about.

Last Thursday was Ascension Day, or Holy Thursday, a day observed in commemoration of the ascension of Jesus which, according to the diary of the evangelist, occurred on the fortieth day after his resurrection. On "Holy Thursday" this year there was probably more hard drink disposed of in Lowell than on any other day of the season. There was more swaggering and swearing on the streets than usual; more red faces, bleary eyes and more "impediments of speech" than usual. If Jesus saw and heard all that was done and said here on "Holy Thursday" He must have been strangely impressed. In fact, looking at the eternal fitness of things, the observance of Ascension Day in Lowell was anything but appropriate. It is due to Lowell's citizens, however, to say that those who were most conspicuous in the demonstrations of the day were strangers. There were stray men and strange women in town and their conduct indicated that they have always been strangers to decency. They were not very noisy but very sly and cunning, and their minds were more on things carnal than on things spiritual. Religious holidays had better be unobserved than so shamefully barbaled.

ED. JOURNAL.—In an article in the Detroit Evening News of recent date, to the effect that the so called diphtheria in Lowell was not diphtheria upon the diagnosis of others who say there was a cough with the disease, the writer says: "There is never a cough with the disease." This is new, yes, very new, emanating as it does from one who has evidently devoted a great portion of his time to observation and very little to research. But he is neglecting a duty he owes not only to the profession and suffering humanity—he should make an immediate and vigorous effort to bring about a revision of the medical literature of the day and of all ages; for, see the errors taught by such recognized authorities as Reynolds' System of Med. page 67, vol. 1, pub. 1880.—In treating of diphtheria says: "Sonorous change of the cough and cough of unequal violence with expectoration of false membrane, &c."

Ziemesen's Cyclopaedia of Med. vol. 1, page 612, pub. of 1874 says: "Cough comes on occasioning great suffering, having a peculiar barking, flat sound, &c."

Flint's Practice of Med. page 1605, pub. 1873 says: "Cough with feebleness of voice points to the most serious realization of affection." Wood's Practice of Med. vol. 1, page 510, pub. of 1866 says: "When the disease is fully formed along with the stilled voice and cough there are paroxysms of intense dyspnoea, &c."

I have no doubt, however, that if the gentleman would call the attention of the authors quoted to the matter, they would immediately issue revised editions of their works, giving him due credit. "So there now!" M. D.

THE DOCTOR'S SECRET
Probably no new development will more surprise the public than to learn the secret of success of certain leading physicians. When they have a difficult case of throat or lung disease that baffles their scientific skill, they prescribe Dr. Kings New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs & Colds, having it disguised in a prescription bottle, with their own directions and name attached. The patient is cured, and they get the credit. —(True.) Trial bottles free at Hunt & Hunter's Drug Store. Large size $1.00.

A WORD OF CAUTION.
As is usually the case where an article of true merit has attained a world wide reputation by its wonderful results, as the celebrated Electric Bitters have done certain unprincipled parties have endeavored to imitate them, and expect to induce an unsuspecting public to purchase their fraudulent wares. Ask your druggist for the genuine Electric Bitters that are guaranteed to cure, and no others. Sold by Hunt & Hunter at 50c.

More than fifty-five thousand of Dr. Pierce's Liver Pads were sold the first year of its introduction and since then its sales have more than trebled. Physicians and patients speak highly of it, and Dr. Miller, of Buffalo, N. Y., is guaranteed largely than any other remedy he has used. Several other physicians say the same thing. For sale by Hunt & Hunter.

What a sound business man says: Captain J. M. Carter, president of the Atlantic Steamship Company, writes as follows: "I have used Dr. Pierce's Kidney Pad in a severe case of kidney disease which afflicted me to an alarming degree, and from which I could get no relief. The pads cured me entirely and the expense was only two dollars. For sale by Hunt & Hunter."

A COMMON MISTAKE. To consider as consumption what is really an affection of the liver. To keep your liver healthy and your blood pure and thus avoid many distressing complaints, use Parmelee's Great Blood and Liver Purifier. It cures sick and nervous headache, indigestion, and removes all unhealthy bilious secretions of the stomach and bowels. For constiveness no medicine is so effectual, also for bad breath, sour stomach, &c. A positive guarantee of no cure, no pay. Price per bottle, $1, sample bottles, 15 cts. Sold by Hunt & Hunter.

THE HUMAN LOCOMOTIVE. Should be carefully engineered, otherwise it may run off the track of life at any moment. To keep its delicate internal machinery in perfect trim, or put it in good working condition, use Parmelee's Dyspepsia Compound. The tone and vigor which it imparts to the stomach, its appetizing effects, the relief it affords in headache, its anti-bilious properties, and its superior merits as a general corrective, makes it the most valuable family medicine of the age. Price per bottle, $1; sample bottles 15 cents. Sold by Hunt & Hunter.
