EDITORIAL TALK.

-The Lowell JOURNAL speaks tersely and with truth as to frequent change of congressmen: "Retiring a good congress-man at the close of his second term, simply because a foolish sentiment prevails that he has had it long enough, and should give way to make room for a new apprentice is wisdom turned bottom side up. It is denying the value of exper-tence, and pandering to the selfish de-sires of ambitious politicians who think that they who serve them best serve their country best." This is about the sentiment we expressed two years ago when our Lowell friend was beut upon the trade between Ionia and Kent by the success of which a promising congress-man was retired and a novice put into his place. The district must now try another new man for the services of those who have had experience probably can not be obtained. We must there-to change its mind, nor has it seen any ly can not be obtained. We must there-fore beware of doubtful experiments and cast aside the pernicious and foolish "claims" of localities, and seek a congressman worth the making. It will not be safe to rely too much upon the opinions of themselves entertained by candidates, for they are likely to be a trifle high-colored. . The best man is not likely to be the one who discovers very early his specially great qualifica-tions for the place and makes haste to betray the microscopic character of his

The Gazette is mistaken when it says we were "bent upon a trade between Ionia and Kent." Long before the convention was held two years ago the matter was thoroughly canvassed in all the counties of the district and by common consent, it may be said, it was conceded that the nomination should go to Ionia or Muskegon. The claims of Ionia were so strongly urged four years ago that other portions of the district (not the Journal) said "wait two years and then Ionia's claims shall be recognized." ing act, but that doesn't necessarily Such being the fact Judge Stone was not a candidate for renomination at the close of his second term. man will be found and elected.

-The Democratic state central committee met at Lansing one night last week and held a love feast. Some members of the committee-about halfstrenously opposed the fusion scheme, but the fourth-of-July oration by Col. Sanford, together with the grand pyrotechnic display of other brilliant lights of the party, won over a majority of the committee and it was decided to hold the Democratic State Convention at Jackson Aug. 23, the day appointed for the Greenback State Convention at Grand Rapids. The plan proposed is for the Greenback convention to nominate one-half of the State ticket, the Democrats to nominate the other half, and then to jointly spend about $1,50 for dispatches between the two conventions to ascertain how they like it, etc. The Greenbackers are advised by the Democrats to adopt a nice, little, short platform-one they can all carry around with them without much trouble, and the Democrats propose also that each convention shall ratify the whole business in concert and then go forth as one man to slay the enemy with a big slew. Whether the conventions will carry out the plans proposed remains to be seen. There will be some vigorous kicking done first, and we can name a few who will be likely to loosen the soles of their shoes in the manly exercise. The sole and entire object of the fusionists is "pap." They will have no declaration of principles-nothing but a few "catch" words for a platform, meaning nothing. They have abandoned their party platforms entirely and now strike out for a guerilla fight expecting booty. They can't deliver the vote they promise to control. We know many greenbackers and democrats who refuse to be delivered over to any such scheme. They don't see it. The State has thousands of just such obstreperous greenbackers and flict over the question of political assessdemocrats. But let the conventions put up a fusion ticket. The Republicans don't care whether they fuse or refuse-whether they dig for themselves one grave or two graves. It's their fu-

Not so "pithily remarked," after all. It was the mayor's duty as well as privilege to give the address of welcome for the city and it was none the less Gov. Jerome's duty to speak for the State. -The Gratiot County Journal says of the anti-third term talk and the auditor

The Lowell JOURNAL presents some orcible reasons for the renomination of Auditor General Latimer, despite the horror some have for the third term bugbear. If an officer is found competent and worthy, and the people desire to confer an office on him three or four terms, or even more, what valid object-ion can there be to it? Certainly in an office like that of auditor general, which requires experience and famillarity with its varied and complicated intricacies, the two-term rule has less force than in any other department of the state gov-ernment. This is especially the case at a time, too, when a radical and sweep-ing change is to be made in the tax law, with which the auditor general's depart-ment is so closely identified. This papsound argument advanced why it should

A congressman may vote to amend the national bankqualify him for running a bank.

-The Journal's articles on the twoterm question have been copied and and four years' experience had placed commented upon by over twenty of our best exchanges. The majority-in fact nearly all-of our esteemed contempo raries agree with the JOURNAL that it is risen as have many others who have not the part of wisdom to apply the twoterm rule to such members of congress four or six terms. Under free trade we suppose the temperature would be considerably lowered. -Congress has agreed to adjourn before long.

> -Hugh Peoples may not be convicted-the jury may disagree. It is pretty hard to convict a man charged with murder now a-days unless he was seen to commit the deed, and even then his conviction is not so sure. It is so easy to make insanity hereditary in the family these days that it bothers the best of juries to tell a sane man from a lunatic, according to the law and evidence.

-The telegraph brings the thrilling intelligence that "Mr. Blaine is going to stump Maine." As Mr. Blaine has been in the habit of stumping Maine quite regularly for the last 30 or 40 years we place the dispatch on file as one entitled to our fullest confidence.

-The boundary lines of Connecticut have never been definitely determined and it is feared that large quantities of wooden nutmegs have been misappro priated by other states.

-Georgia not being one of the doubtful states there will be no fuss made up this way should the Hon. Alex H. Stephens be elected Governor of Georgia.

-The best man in Michigan may be sent to congress and fail to "make his mark" in two terms. But then, to give him a third term would produce fits in some families, and there's nothing some families dread so much as fits. -Congressman Hubbell and Geo. William Curtis are having a paper conments. Hubbell thinks the law is on his

The Royal Templars of Temperance of this place, at its regular meeting authorized her to engage in a week of temperance work, the order paying the necessary expenses. Tuesday forenoon the undersigned meet at the office of the Lowell JOURNAL and drew up the notice appearing in last week's issue-stating among other things that there would be on Sunday evening a Union Temperance meeting of the churches. At that time it was not anticipated there would be any difficulty in arranging with the pastors for such Union meeting and a committee was appointed to see them and make necessary arrangements. For, presumably, good reasons the pastors of the Baptist and Congregational churche declined to unite in such meeting---but this fact was not definitely known until it was too late to change the notice in the JOURNAL. While the posters do not fully meet our approbation so far as Mrs. Warren's lectures are concerned we think all who have heard them will agree they were well worthy of the respectful hearing and careful consideration of every friend of temperance and ought to be productive of good.

The first step toward the correction of an evil is to diffuse information concerning its extent and influence. this information is given in words that burn into the very heart and cause the tears to flow or awaken "thoughts too deep for tears," the book that conveys it is to produce a profound sensation in the moral and political world. Such a book is the "Women of Mormonism" edited by Jennie Anderson Froiseth, which recites in plain unvarnished tale the story of a Woman's wrongs under the accursed system of polygamy. It shows how many of them marry missionaries abroad, supposing them un-marries, only to find, on reaching this country, that they already have several wives. It shows how some have con-sented to their husbands taking other wives for the sake of support for their children. It shows how others have been led to become plural wives by pretended revelations from God. It pretended revelations from God. It shows how this accursed system is robbing our homes of our beloved daughters led away by fanaticism. It shows what legislation is needed and finally what is being done by Christian Churches and schools to counteract the fatal poison that desbook since the days of Uncle Tom's Cabin is destined to exert such an influence over the American people as the "Women of Mormonism." It will urge the voter to demand of Congress immemediate and efficient action in the enactment of needed laws. It will furnish facts with which the press and the pulpit may arouse the people to united ac-tion. It will stimulate the benevolent to greater exertions in planting in the territories of the New West the moral agencies needed to reform and purify society.

EDITORIAL TALK.

-The Lowell JOURNAL speaks tersely and with truth as to frequent change of congressmen: "Retiring a good congressman at the close of his second term, simply because a foolish sentiment prevails that he has had it long enough, and should give way to make room for a new apprentice is wisdom turned bottom side up. It is denying the value of experignce, and pandering to the selfish desires of ambitious politicians who think that they who serve them best serve their country best." This is about the sentiment we expressed two years ago when our Lowell friend was bent npon the trade between Ionia and Kent by the success of which a promising congressman was retired and a noyice put into his place. The district must now try another new man for the services of those who have had experience probab-ly can not be obtained. We must there-fore beware of doubtful experiments and sound argument advanced why it should cast aside the pernicious and foolish not be done. "claims" of localities, and seek a congressman worth the making. It will not be safe to rely too much upon the opinions of themselves entertained by candidates, for they are likely to be a candidates, for they are likely to be a trifle high-colored. *The best man is not likely to be the one who discovers very early his specially great qualifica-tions for the place and makes haste to betray the microscopic character of his vision.—Allegan Gazette.

The Gazette is mistaken when it says we were "bent upon a trade between Ionia and Kent." Long before the convention was held two years ago the matter was thoroughly canvassed in all the counties of the district and by common consent, it may be said, it was conceded that the nomination should go to present incumbent to administer the du-Ionia or Muskegon. The claims of Ionia ties of that office-involving the transiwere so strongly urged four years ago tion from the old to the new systemthat other portions of the district (not we cannot believe. A congressman the Journal) said "wait two years and may vote to amend the national bankthen Ionia's claims shall be recognized." Such being the fact Judge Stone was qualify him for running a bank. not a candidate for renomination at the close of his second term. -The Democratic state central committee met at Lansing one night last week and held a love feast. Some members of the committee-about halfstrenously opposed the fusion scheme. but the fourth-of-July oration by Col. Sanford, together with the grand pyrotechnic display of other brilliant lights of the party, won over a majority of the committee and it was decided to hold the Democratic State Convention at Jackson Aug. 23, the day appointed for the Greenback State Convention at Grand Rapids. The plan proposed is for the Greenback convention to nominate one-half of the State ticket, the Democrats to nominate the other half, and then to jointly spend about $1.50 for dispatches between the two conventions to ascertain how they like it, etc. The Greenbackers are advised by the Democrats to adopt a nice, little, short platform-one they can all carry around with them without much trouble, and the Democrats propose also that each convention shall ratify the whole business in concert and then go forth as one man to slay the enemy with a big slew. Whether the conventions will carry out the plans proposed remains to be seen. There will be some vigorous kicking done first, and we can name a few who will be likely to loosen the soles of their shoes in the manly exercise. The sole and entire object of the fusionists is "pap." They will have no declaration of principles-nothing but a few "catch" words for a platform, meaning nothing. They have abandoned their party platforms entirely and now strike out for a guerilla fight expecting booty. They can't deliver the vote they promise to control. We know many greenbackers and democrats who refuse to be delivered over to any such scheme. They don't see it. The State has thousands of just such obstreperous greenbackers and democrats. But let the conventions put up a fusion ticket. The Republicans don't care whether they fuse or refuse-whether they dig for themselves one grave or two graves. It's their fu-

-The Gratiot County Journal says of the anti-third term talk and the auditor general:

The Lowell JOURNAL presents some forcible reasons for the renomination of Auditor General Latimer, despite the horror some have for the third term bug-bear. If an officer is found competent and worthy, and the people desire to confer an office on him three or four terms, or even more, what valid objection can there be to it? We have no doubt that Finder please leave it at the store of Col-Mr. Copley knew what he was voting for, and is familiar with the provisions of the new law-perhaps the old, also, but to argue that a new man, even a legislator, is as well qualified as the ing act, but that doesn't necessarily

Grand Rapids will celebrate "the 4th" in grand style. The principal feature of the day, aside from the usual patriotic exercises, will be the prize drill and sham battle, to take place on the fair grounds. From the city papers we take the following items:

The following is a list of the military companies already entered for the prize drill and sham battle that is to take on the fair grounds July 4:

Detroit Light Guards; Detroit City irays: Jackson Guards; Ottawa Blues; Grand Rapids Guards; Board of Trade Guards, Chicago; Co. B, of Second Regiment, Chicago.

Manager Tillotson is in correspondence with several other companies, some of which will undoubtedly enter, but the above is sufficient to insure the greatest military exhibition ever seen in Western Michigan. It will be seen that the list embraces the finest companies in the West, and some most excellent drilling may be expected. The The prizes are: First, $800; second, $300; third, $100; and as each company is determined to win the first prize if possible, there will undoubtedly be a hot contest.

The judges are three officers of the Regular United States Army and will be appointed by the Adjutant of the United States.

The above companies will all take part in the sham battle, and in addition there will be the celebrated Fourth Wm. H. Osborn. Received with thanks Battery Light Artillery of Toledo, which Managers Whitney & Tillotson have specially engaged for the battle.

At that time it was not anticipated there would be any difficulty in arranging with the pastors for such Union meeting and a committee was appointed to see them and make necessary arrangements. For, presumably, good reasons the pastors of the Baptist and Congregational churche declined to unite in such meeting---but this fact was not definitely known until it was too late to change the notice in the Journal.

While the posters do not fully meet our approbation so far as Mrs. Warren's lectures are concerned we think all who have heard them will agree they were well worthy of the respectful hearing and careful consideration of every friend of temperance and ought to be productive of good. We hope the time may come in this and every other place in the land, when all temperance workers shall see eye to eye and work in all things barmonious

THE DOCTOR'S LAST HAPPY RE SOR.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 11, 1882. I recently had a very difficult case of Consumption. I treated it in the most scientific manner possible, but to no effect; patient grew gradually worse. Rather than give up, as a last resort, I decided much against my wish to use a remedy that had cured one of my former patients. Greatly to my sur-prise the patient began to gain, and in a much shorter time than I dared to ever expect, she was completely cured. The name of this remarkable remedy is Dr. Kings New Discovery for Consumption.
I now use it altogether in my practice.

The concert at the Baptist church was a decided success every respect except the noise made by certain specimens of the "genus homo" -we cannot call them gentlemen-in the back part of the church. As a noise that was a success. The church was crowded many standing outside unable to gain admittance. 'The "Welcome" by Master Floyd Remington and Miss Hattie Denise aged 5 and 7 years was very well given indeed as was also the recitation by the little Busy Bees. Their class exercise, "The Rainbow" was very nice and they formed as pretty a little rainbow as one often sees. And did all have the heart and will of Miss Mary Millers class, heathen children would not long want the Bible. The recitation, "Keeping his word" by Miss Mary McVean was finely rendered. The duct "Are the windows open toward Jerusalem" by Misses. Bertha and Jennie Graham was very nice as were the re-citation by Miss Laura Fairchild— "Only Sixteen"—and Miss Belle Easter-by, "No Seat in Heaven." In the class exercises by Gleaners, "Rock of Ages," the parts were well sustained as was the exercise" Jesus the light of the World by Mrs. Remington's class. The building of the light house by this class added much to the beauty and effectiveness of the piece and the decorations, and last and most lovely of all the memorial piece, in memory of those gone from the school to the spirit land within the past year. A beautiful cross of moss and shells was placed in the center of the rostrum and on that were hung with appropriate words, a wreath of bright buds for Bertie Denise and Manly Parrot. A wreath of white roses for Millie and Addie Parrott and a sheaf of ripe wheat for Mrs. Miller, the whole was crowned with autumn flowers and immortelles. The parts in recitation were well rendered by Mrs. Fairchild, Mrs. Skidmore, Miss Lillie Remington and Miss Luna Taylor.
