EDITORIAL TALK.

While much is being said concerning the numerous candidates for nomination on the republican congressional ticket, very little has been heard from the other side as yet. It is quite probable that the democrats and greenbackers of this district will fuse on a candidate for congress and make a vigorous fight to win. The name of Col. I. E. Messmore has been spoken of in this connection and if he is a candidate he will make it a lively campaign. The Colonel is a rousing speaker, is thoroughly familiar with "the tactics," and is one of the most persistent and indefatigable workers in the field of politics. Although a staunch democrat and editor of the leading democratic organ in Western Michigan, his views on the finance question, etc., are not so objectionable to the greenbackers as to arouse much opposition from that source. Should he receive the nomination there would be a lively contest in this district. We think, however, that the best man the opposition can put up will be beaten by the Republican nominee, if he be the right kind of a man.

Ex-Senator T. W. Palmer of Detroit, having been nominated by the Menominee Herald as a candidate for Governor, desires to have it known that he is not a candidate and requests his friends to say that under no circumstances would he accept a nomination this fall. Mr. Palmer's decision is final. He is in favor of Governor Jerome's renomination. The JOURNAL will make a prediction. Two years from this fall Mr. Palmer will be nominated for Governor on the Republican state ticket. Another prediction: He will be elected by an overwhelming majority. One more prediction: He will make a mighty good Governor.

Does Bowley remember the result of fusion some years ago in this congressional district? He certainly has not forgotten Judge Shipman's funeral. We remember all about it. Bro. Hine, it is indelibly written on the tablet of our mind, and like the glorious democratic principles we uphold it cannot be rubbed out. We are willing to own up that we got whipped in '76 in this district, but if Providence or Gen. Innis will give us another chance to make a fair square-toe fight we'll pledge ourselves to get as good a "drop" on the enemy as the hangman did on Guitteau.

Do you suppose Providence can get Gen. Innis's consent? The greenbackers of Ingham county held a close communion meeting a few days ago and voted down a resolution favoring fusion with the democrats. But just wait till the state conventions are held and then see the cuddling.

That brilliant Russian military leader, Gen. Skobeleff, is dead. He was a brave soldier and a much worshipped hero. Had he lived undoubtedly he would have become one of the greatest generals in the world.

The bombardment of Alexandria began yesterday. And now the question is—shall Egypt be ruled by Egyptians or kept under foreign control? It looks bloody.

The peppermint oil crop of 1882 is going to be immense: at the same time there are just as many babes kicking and yelling as ever.

JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

Marked improvements in West's drug store will develop soon.

Mr. Thomas Lally sheared 710 lbs of wool from 104 sheep.

Thos. Hales has sold his stock of groceries to Barney McGee.

Miss Jessie Hunter and Mr. Abe Peck go to Read City this week to visit relatives.

A beautiful granite monument, costing $400, has been erected in the Cox cemetery by J. C. Hare, to the memory of Solomon Lee, deceased.

Ad Kniffin is home from Mackinaw City for a short stay. He brought with him more than a ton of big whitefish just taken from the lake and the JOURNAL was generously remembered.

J. B. Church & Co.'s successor is C. C. Hazel. This means that the boot and shoe store of C. C. Hazel is again open for business, the Detroit firm having gone home, after vainly striving to fill it all their own way. Hazel is still on deck and H. B. Church is the head of the new firm. Success to the new firm.

It is the intention of the proprietor of the Bankrupt store in this village to close out his remaining stock of goods at once and to this end all prices have been reduced to such figures as cannot fail to satisfy the purchaser. Great bargains are now offered at the Bankrupt Store. Call early, before the stock is gone.

Mrs. G. T. Hine returned to her home in Pewawo last Saturday.

Mrs. I. E. Strong is spending a few days with her mother in St. Johns.

New advs: F. W. Wurzburg and G. Stokette, Grand Rapids.

The Ionia races were very good. The attendance was not very large.

The Standard says over 300,000 lbs. of wool had been marketed in Ionia up to last Friday, the average price being about 35 cents.

The Ionia Standard calls us "the red-headed philosopher of the Lowell Journal." This calls for a laugh.

Married:—On the 5th inst., at the home of the bride's parents in Vergennes, by Rev. S. C. Woodard, Geo. E. Bowers, of Hillsboro, Dakota, and Miss Clara Collar, of Vergennes.

At the annual school meeting Monday night R. W. Graham, F. B. Hine and D. Platchter were elected trustees. The sum of $75 was voted for library purposes. The session was slightly stormy.

Meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the Baptist Church, Friday, July 14 at 3 p. m. Programme: Essay, by Miss Jennings; select reading, by Mrs. Lewis; Recitation, by Mrs. D. Church.

The next meeting of Lowell District Council, P. of H. will be held at South Boston Grange Hall on Saturday the 13th day of August next. Patrons are requested to bring samples of wheat in the straw.

The executive committee of the Northwestern Michigan Press Association met at Cadillac last Thursday and voted to postpone the annual meeting to be held this year until Aug. 15. The meeting will be held at Grand Rapids and the session will last two days, beginning at 10 a. m. on the 15th prox.

The Lowell JOURNAL thinks the Republicans should encourage a Democratic fusion in the State, as the most effective means of organizing the growing Anti-Monopoly Greenback party. Bro. Hine for once is correct in his estimate of cause and effect. With the Greenbackers hopelessly disgraced the Republicans would have nothing to fear from Democracy in Michigan.—Ionia National.

Yes, but the JOURNAL didn't say "the growing Anti-Monopoly Greenback party." It said "the Republicans ought to encourage the Democrats and Greenbackers to form a coalition" because "there is no more effective way of disorganizing those parties than to bring them together on the state ticket." That is what the JOURNAL said and it doesn't like to be put on record as having ever uttered such an absurdity as the National quoter.

Messrs. Roland Shaw & Co., of Chicago, have signed the contract for the completion of the K. & L. R. R. They are already at work in efforts to dispose of the bonds, and are confident of success. They have until Dec. 1st to effect the sale of these securities. If successful, and there is little to hinder that, backed as the firm is by the Pan Handle company, they will soon after begin the work on the grade. President Cobb, of the K. H. & L., speaks very hopefully of the prospects, and claims that the road will be one of the most important trunk lines in Michigan.—Hastings Banner.

Manager J. B. Skinner and Major E. A. Howard, representing the Mich. Mutual Benefit Association of Hillsdale, have been here for a few days working up a branch organization in this village. Quite a number of our live men have joined, being fully convinced the managers represent a safe and worthy mutual benefit association, possessing some advantages over many other similar organizations.

Considerable excitement was created last week by the announcement in Grand Rapids papers that the lumber firm of King, Quick and King of this village had been arrested on complaint of D. H. Waters of the Michigan Barrel Company, of Grand Rapids, charged with larceny, said papers claiming that the complaint charges the firm with having stolen logs from Flat river, belonging to said Barrel Company and that "it is estimated that during the past three years at least $20,000 worth of logs have been stolen from this river." It is true that this firm has been arrested but the charge is not larceny. The charge is, in effect, receiving stolen property knowing the property to have been stolen. There are two sides to this case as in other cases, and Messrs. King, Quick and King feel perfectly confident that they can show a clear record in this matter. They have purchased a great many logs bearing the marks of previous owners and have restamped them with their own brand, which of course they had a right to do. There are other facts which will be brought out it is claimed concerning previous transactions with the Barrel company, and a counter suit will probably be commenced soon, if not already begun. The published reports so far have presented only one side of the case and have seriously reflected upon the honor and good name of King, Quick & King, a firm that has built up a large and profitable business here and done much for the good of Lowell.

Mr. J. M. Mathewson of this village and Messrs. M. J. Smiley and R. W. Butterfield of Grand Rapids represent the defendants in this case. The examination was commenced yesterday before Justice Holcomb of Grand Rapids.

One of the finest hotels to be found anywhere in this section of the moral vineyard is "The Northern" at Big Rapids. It is an admirably constructed and elegantly furnished house and there isn't a shoddy streak in the whole establishment. Sid Roosevelt is mine host of this popular hotel and he is a good man in a good place. We'd like to see him clear $100 a day for 10,000 days, and if he can't do it in the hotel business let him go into the newspaper business.

Enroute to Cadillac the other day the editor of the JOURNAL stopped off at Big Rapids, a very enterprising and comely city, 55 miles north of Grand Rapids, on the G. R. & I. We rode all the way, much to the surprise of the Big Rapids editors who had previously invited us to come a la tramp. Visited the offices of the Pioneer and Herald, two rattling good newspapers. Big Rapids editors are good feeders and away from home would pass for "blatant bondholders." They live in a live town and, by the way, somebody has hitherto remarked that "a live paper makes a live town." We believe it. Big Rapids is growing and it has the appearance of being a safe town to tie to.

In company with Hon. E. O. Rose of Big Rapids we visited Cadillac last Thursday. Bates of the Grand Traverse Herald and Chapin of the Cadillac News, the former President and the latter secretary of the Northwestern Michigan Press Association, were there, the quartette forming a majority of the executive committee of that association. The committee voted to hold the next annual meeting of the association at Grand Rapids, August 15 and 16, and will endeavor to make the meeting a success. All newspaper men are invited to attend. A few minutes' stroll about the city of Cadillac gave us an opportunity of seeing some marked improvements since our visit there nearly a year ago. It is one of the best lumber towns in the state. A new paper has just been started there, by Alf Ringe, called the Cadillac Times, which has been given a good send-off. The News is a very bright and prosperous paper and has an excellent reputation.

Hon. H. H. Hinds of Stanton writes an interesting letter to the Michigan Farmer setting forth the advantages of the northern pine stump lands as sheep ranges. Mr. Hinds says: "As to climatic influences your readers require no discussion from me, as it is a well known fact that northern Michigan is favored with a climate superior to any locality in the union; and while our winters are rather long the death dealing blizzards and extreme low temperatures so common in the northwest never chill the blood of our Michigan stock. As to the first proposition, it is a matter of fact that the country is a very fertile one. All kinds of grasses are indigenous to our soil and it is only necessary to fallow our dense forests or destroy them by fire when a carpet of grass grows up, which is very much improved by sowing timothy and clover seed right in the woods." The sheep he continues "can be carried in large flocks for a merely nominal cost per head and the wintering can be largely reduced in both length of time and cost of feeding by reserving a portion of the range for winter pasture only." He cites the fact that his fine Merino flock "went out to pasture until the week of Christmas," and then went to pasture again this spring about April 1st. "As to the fecundity and breeding conditions of our wood sheep, the visitor is always satisfied in looking over our flocks." In closing he predicts that the pine stump lands of Michigan will in a "very few years be able to turn out the largest flocks of sheep east of the Mississippi river."

The following special to the Chicago Tribune from Louisville, dated the 4th, is supposed to refer to Carrie Toles, formerly of Lowell, who departed with one Weitzell of Grand Rapids and was connected afterward with a pretended suicide in Detroit and later was arrested for larceny in Southern New York. It is the same woman, she is certainly "leading a life" whose paces are remarkably fast and varied:

About 3 o'clock this afternoon Charley Kent, formerly of Jacksonville, Ill., shot and killed Tom Bennett, a man of the name of the trouble was a woman. About three months ago Kent married Bennett's mistress, a woman known about town as Carrie Bennett. A short time ago Kent went to Gunnison and left his wife home. On his return yesterday he went to his room and found Bennett in bed with his wife. Kent at once left the room without saying anything, and would have nothing more to do with her. To day he was walking up Harrison avenue, when he heard some one saying behind him, "There goes the ——— now." He turned and saw Bennett within a few feet of him. Bennett at once attacked him and struck him on the side of the head with some heavy instrument. The two men clinched, and Kent, seeing Bennett reach as he supposed for a revolver, drew his gun and fired, the ball taking effect in Bennett's right shoulder blade. The wounded man ran across the street and fell dead in about five minutes. The parties are all well connected in the east. Kent belongs to one of the best families in Jacksonville. The woman's right name is Carrie Toles, and is the daughter of a wealthy farmer at a place called Hickory Corners, Mich. Her grandfather, Eben Pennek, is said to be one of the wealthiest citizens of Hastings, Mich. Bennett is from Mansfield, O., and is highly connected. Kent was arrested and locked.

C. D. Hildebrand, the reformed outlaw lecturer three nights at Train's Hall to large audiences. He is not an educated man, but he is a very earnest and enthusiastic speaker and holds the closest attention of his audience from the opening to the close of his lecture. His exposition of prison management and the horrors of prison life cannot fail to stir the heart, and his appeals to men—especially to young men—to shun the intoxicating cup, come with such force and earnestness as to impress the hearer that he is as sincere in his work as he is earnest in his entreaties. Hildebrand charges nine-tenths of the crimes committed to whisky and depicts with thrilling effect the horrors and miseries of the criminal's life. For over four years he has been lecturing on temperance and prison reform and says the remainder of his life shall be spent in the interests and for the good of humanity. Previous to the late of his reform his had been the life of a criminal and for 18 years he was a prison convict. If he has reformed, if he is striving now to lead a life of virtue and sobriety and is determined to devote the remainder of his days to reform work, even though his dark record cannot be forgotten, let him be encouraged in his new life. He can accomplish much good among certain classes if he continues to labor in the field he has chosen and proves to the world that he really is what he claims to be, a reformed man. The testimonials he presents from many excellent men—certifying to his sincerity and earnestness in his work, are certainly entitled to favorable consideration so long as his behavior is consistent therewith.

One of the most delightful musical entertainments we have had in Lowell was the soiree Friday evening, by Mrs. I. E. Strong, assisted by Balcom's orchestra and other home talent, and Mr. & Mrs. Bolt of Grand Rapids. The programme was admirably arranged to begin with and as admirably presented. Balcom's orchestra was at its very best and fairly carried the audience at the outset. Mr. & Mrs. Bolt sang better than ever and that is saying a good deal. They were loudly applauded. A very beautiful thing was the trio "Overture Don Juan"—piano, organ and clarinet—by Miss Mary Owen, Mrs. W. J. Webb, Mrs. W. H. Hine, Mrs. I. E. Strong, and Mary Sherman, and the vocal quartette ("The Sea bath its Pearls") by Mrs. E. R. Collar, Mrs. J. W. Hine, Messrs. Sunderland and Hicks, was finely rendered. Among Mrs. Strong's little pupils who most creditably performed at the piano and organ, were Katie Enos, Nellie Edie and Ruby Hine. Mrs. Strong's piano solo—"Rondo Capriccioso" was most brilliantly performed. The instrument was perfectly under her control and it poured out its soul without stint. She responded to the hearty encore and again did the piano respond with rapturous feeling. Mr. Bolt did himself proud in his vocal solo, and it was noised about a good deal that the last selection by the orchestra was simply immense. We believe it. If any proof is wanted as to the high order of musical talent in Lowell, ask any or all of those present at the soiree Friday night. It is something Lowell may well be proud of, and if that perfect harmony may ever be found among all our musicians that we find in their instruments, it will be a blessed good thing for Lowell and for the musicians. So note it be.

At the home of his brother, (C. D. Prase) in Lowell, Saturday evening, July 8, 1882, Mr. Wm. H. Pease, aged 35 years and four days. A most exemplary and worthy man, and one to his reward. He was ready, aye, and anxious to go.

The obsequies took place on Monday. Brief services were held at the house, Rev. Mr. Van Wagner officiating, and the remains were taken to Grand Haven, escorted by about 40 Sir Knights of the De Molai Commandery of which he was an honored frater. Ten Lowell Sir Knights were among the escort. Services were held in the Episcopal church at Grand Haven, conducted by Rev. Mr. Burford of Grand Rapids. The remains of the departed brother were buried by the Sir Knights in the new cemetery near Grand Haven, the ceremony being very impressive. Peace to Will. He is at rest.

A Card. We desire to tender our heartfelt thanks to the friends who so kindly aided us in caring for our late brother during his fatal illness, and especially to Messrs. J. S. Hooker and J. Q. Look for their continued attention to his wants; also to the Knights Templar of De Molai Commandery for performing the last sad rites over the remains of our departed brother. Mr. & Mrs. C. D. PRASE.

Card of Thanks. I desire to tender, through the columns of the JOURNAL, my sincere thanks to Mr. G. B. Balcom and his excellent orchestra, and to all others participating, for their kind assistance so acceptably rendered at the musical soiree on Friday evening.

Mrs. I. E. STRONG.

ALTO VOICES. Farmers say that the great amount of rain is causing wheat to rust badly in some localities. Mrs. Pinney of Middleville is visiting at Mr. Miller's. Misses Mella, Minnie and Audie Remington of Bangor, Mich., are guests of Miss Lillie Remington. Mr. A. E. Bolt has sold a fine piano to J. Miller and an organ to W. T. Remington. There was a good turnout at the picnic the 4th; better than was expected, the weather being so unfavorable. There were five schools present, also representatives from a number of other schools. A martial band from Caledonia gave the audience some lively music and if "old Sol" had not been quite so modest and hid his shining face quite so much the day would have been more enjoyable. We heard a number say "how much better I have enjoyed it than last year. And our thought was it is not because the burden of sorrow that was pressing our hearts so sorely at that time, is in a measure lifted now, that the cause of it has suffered the penalty of his foul crime and is forever removed from sight and hearing. The sale of ice cream candies &c., under the auspices of the Baptist Society brought about $32 into the parsonage funds.

GRATTAN GATHERINGS. A little daughter of J. Petree very ill. Mrs. J. Beardsley, Miss Dell Miller and Mr. J. Miller of Fairplains, and Miss Ella Waters of Oakland Co., have been visiting at H. Lesstler's. A party from Grattan and Greenville visited Lowell last Thursday.

The Davis House has been repaired. Mr. L. B. Lull, of Kent City, and daughter Frankie, are in town. The residence of Will Winegar in Vergennes was entirely destroyed by fire Monday night, including about half its contents. The loss above insurance is not far from $400.

The Lowell National Bank yesterday declared a semi-annual dividend of five per cent.

L. E. Rowley, the brilliant editor of the Ionia Standard made us a pleasant call Monday morning, in company with his good Republican uncle, Mr. J. M. Babcock.

At Rest. Calmly and peacefully we laid her at rest. Away from the toils and cares of earth. No more by the trials of life oppressed. In the grave so quietly sleeping. "I would not live away" how oft she would say. While on her a couch of sickness and suffering she lay. I long to be called from this earth away. To a land where there's no pain or weeping. Jesus at last has answered her prayer. Her work here is finished her crown she will wear. In that beautiful forever on take thy rest. With thy hands gently folded upon thy cold breast. No more by the sorrows of this life oppressed. In the grave so peacefully sleeping. Ever dear mother thy brow shall be fanned. With breezes fresh from heaven's land. Thou hast labored forever that happy band. In a land where there's no pain or weeping.

THE DOCTOR'S LAST HAPPY RE SOR. Evansville, Ind., Jan. 11, 1882. I recently had a very difficult case of Consumption, I treated it in the most scientific manner possible, but to no effect; patient grew gradually worse. Rather than give up, as a last resort, I decided much against my wish to use a remedy that had cured one of my former patients. Greatly to my surprise the patient began to gain, and in a much shorter time than I dared to ever expect, she was completely cured. The name of this remarkable remedy is Dr. Kings New Discovery for Consumption. I now use it altogether in my practice.—[Leading M. D., Evansville. Trial bottle free at Hunt & Hunter's Drug Store. Cement Wells. Cheaper and better than brick or tile. These wells are as well protected against surface water and vermin as the best of any other, and unlike the drive and tubular wells, are free from the taste of iron, never get out of repair, and can be successfully used in any soil, and water wells, where drive wells are a failure. We make our wells of the best hydraulic cement, large enough to operate two buckets, and warrant them from top to bottom. They will last forever. New wells made and cased, wells cased and lined, and all other work done in a reliable and satisfactory manner. For all other best of references furnished on application. W. H. H

Stewart's Marvelous Memory.
The wonders of Bernhard's memory have been on his side, if nothing more. The man's habits and mode of life were very regular at church, at his club, at his business, at his home. He never forgot the most trifling details of his business, and he remembered the pattern of every piece of goods that had ever been on his mind. He was interested in the carpet, studying it attentively. "Where did you buy that?" he demanded at the last of the room committee. "At your place, I believe." "I'm surprised to see you with the million-dollar carpet in your room. We never had that pattern in stock. We could have had a pattern of that similar, except that those little white flowers were white." "There is some mistake," he said; "the little flowers on our carpeting were white." It was found on investigation that the pattern had been white, so obviously white and so to the eyes of some of the committee members, that they were given over them with a stiff blush and slipped in white.
