REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

STATE
For Governor—DAVID H. JEROME, of Saginaw.

COUNTY.

Senator 2d District—JAMES W. HINE.
Sheriff—ISAAC F. LAMOREAUX.

EDITORIAL TALK.

—Mr. Lemuel Clute, of Ionia, a life-long and influential democrat, has written a letter to the Ionia Sentinel repudiating the whole fusion movement, and expressing his belief that it would be much better for the whole people to have the Republican ticket elected this fall than for the fusion element to prevail.

—Political parties in other States might have obtained a good lesson in the way of platform literature from the Michigan democrats, but they did not profit by it. The platforms are generally very long and very diffuse. They lose in strength and grow in length.

—The coming together, then, was not to promote any public good, nor to further any noble principle. It was simply to get the spoils of office, an organized mob of politicians on the public treasury.

serves the most cordial and hearty support of every Republican in this district. It is not necessary for him to write letters defining his position. The people know where he stands. He is not a wealthy man. He was nominated for his personal worth, because of his personal fitness for the place. He has no big "bait" to open to buy votes with, but he will have votes enough to elect him without buying them, if every Republican in this district will put his shoulder to the wheel and do his duty.

—The Ionia National is one of the few greenback papers in the state that has the courage to stand up against fusion and fight to maintain the declared principles of the greenback party. While we do not agree with the National's ideas of governmental policy, we admire its pluck and sincerity in defending the cause it espouses; and the many palpable hits it gives the fusionists for bartering their principles for spoils, are unanswerable.

—The temperance meeting at Train's Hall Sunday night was largely attended. Rev. J. M. Van Wagner and Rev. C. Oldfield addressed the audience. These meetings occur once in four weeks and are attended with much interest.

—The Ladies Literary Club will hold its next regular meeting at the Bank parlors Friday, at 3 o'clock P. M. It is a good work in the place. Let it be well supported by its old members and strengthened by the addition of new ones.

—Some of the fusion organs are trying hard to make out that the combined opposition is not "fusion," but simply "co-operation." Be-gone, is that so?

—The next house of representatives at Washington will consist of 323 members.

—The Republican nominee for Governor of New York is Judge Folger. He is a first-class man.

A gentleman from Howard City, named King, will soon put a stock of dry goods, boots and shoes &c. in Booths store, Bank Block.

Married: At the residence of the bride's father in Keene Sept. 20, by Rev. J. S. Valentine, Mr. Perry Sayles, and Miss Juliet Bowen, both of Keene.

Mr. Abner Knapp of this village, who is 84 years of age, built twelve rods on side walk without assistance, and they say it is the best piece of sidewalk in town. Uncle Abner died nobly.

Married—at the residence of the officiating clergyman in this village, by Rev. D. L. Eaton, Mr. B. H. Hartwell to Miss Florence Nightingale Eaton, both of Cannon.

Subject at the congregational church Sabbath morning: The man at the gate beautiful, and what can be of it. (Acts 8:2.) Or does Christianity pay? Subject in the evening: How not to do it. (Acts 26:28.)

Main and Bridge streets have been well guttered and the gutters have been well gaved and our village authorities are receiving and deserving credit for the many street and sidewalk improvements made this season.

Miss Jessie Hooker left Lowell yesterday for Elk Point, Dakota, to teach, having been offered a lucrative position there. Miss Jessie is an excellent teacher and a young lady of real merit, and we bespeak for her many warm friends in her new home.

At the request of the board of directors of the Ionia Agricultural Society Hon. G. W. Webber while in Washington secured the services of Hon. Chas. E. Hooker of Mississippi speaker at the Ionia fair. In writing to the secretary of the fair Mr. Webber says: "He (Hooker) has an empty sleeve from wounds received in the service of the confederate army. He was wounded during the siege of Vicksburg; was afterwards promoted to rank of colonel in the cavalry, and was attached to Gen. Polk's command. He is a fine type of the southern gentleman, and is largely interested in agricultural pursuits, owning an extensive plantation in Mississippi. I can endorse him most heartily."

Observers of congressional proceedings will remember Col. Hooker as one of the most polished and effective debaters in the house. His appearance as the orator at the fair will be hailed with delight by people who appreciate a fine and instructive address on such occasions.

Several grave stones in the village cemetery have been broken and defaced by some cruel, heartless wretch or wretches who ought to be ferreted out if possible and severely punished. It is difficult to imagine what could induce anybody to do such wicked work.

Mr. Luke Gardner is another Lowell representative at the State University; entering this week upon a course of pharmacy there. Lowell has started in the right direction in an educational line, being well represented at the University and at the Grand Rapids Commercial College.

From Porter Carr come some sample potatoes, "Mammoth Pearl" and "Beauty of Hebron," which for size, smoothness and quality cannot well be beaten. The yield was about 250 bushels to the acre. Fred Johnson, of North Boston, also leaves some Burbank Seedlings which are very fine. Michigan against the world.

The fair at Cook's Corners last week was well attended and the exhibits were good. The races were quite exciting and were witnessed by many lovers of fast horses. President Divine is as jolly a soul as "Old King Cole" and made every body around him feel happy. From Lowell in attendance were G. W. Parker, Dr. Malcolm, M. P. Perry, M. Hiler, the JOURNAL editor and others.

A disastrous fire occurred at Smyrna early Thursday morning, destroying Geo. Hoppough's general store, Carrie Moe's millinery store, O. F. Mann's harness shop, Geo. Ecker's wagon shop, L. Stall's blacksmith shop, Ben. White's ice house, a barn, and slightly damaging other buildings. Hoppough had $2,100 insurance on his stock, the balance being a total loss. Estimated loss on buildings and stocks $10,000. It is a hard blow to Smyrna. Supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

At the fusion convention at Ada last Wednesday, Mr. J. C. Train of this village was nominated as the democrat-greenback candidate for representative to the state legislature from this (3d) representative district. Mr. Train is well known as a very enterprising citizen of this place, a man of means and untiring energy, and the fruits of his labor are found largely in brick blocks and other valuable property in this village.

He is a strong candidate and will no doubt make a lively canvass of the district. Mr. Train espoused the greenback cause in its infancy and has been a zealous worker in that party ever since. Formerly he was a Republican, and the Journal thinks he ought to be today. Personally he and Mr. E. R. Johnson, the Republican nominee, are good friends and the contest between them, while it will be lively, we trust will be friendly. Both are well known and each has a strong personal following.

Notes from Lowell District Council. The last meeting of the L. D. C. was held at Alton Grange Hall, and the prospects at 12 o'clock M. were anything but encouraging for a good time. Several of the members of Alton Grange were Married—In this village, on Saturday Sept. 23d, Mr. Fred G. Stone to Julia Lawrence, both of Lowell.

Hon. W. O. Webster is expected to speak in Lowell Saturday evening Oct. 7.

Judge Perkins, chairman of the Republican Co. Committee, County Treasurer Verdier, the secretary, and Jas. Van der Sluis, the next county Treasurer were in town last night to hear "Rob" Frazer.

The score made by T. E. Webster, of the Bay City Peninsula Rifles, at the great Creedmoor match—100 out of 105—is the best shooting on record with a military rifle, either in this country or in Europe. Mr. Webster is the present Judge of Probate of Bay county, this state. Years ago we went together at the Delaware Institute, Franklin N. Y. and his partners of the same literary fraternity. He helped the editor of this paper in his Latin and we helped him in base ball, and other things. We helped each other down from the bell tower one night when "Old Prof." discovered us studying the—constellations. Webster always hits the mark with unerring accuracy and we are not surprised to find him the champion at Creedmoor.

Notes from Lowell District Council. The last meeting of the L. D. C. was held at Alton Grange Hall, and the prospects at 12 o'clock M. were anything but encouraging for a good time. Several of the members of Alton Grange were at the State Fair, and the location being on the very edge of the jurisdiction of the council prevented many from attending, but to use the language of one of the Brothers on his way home, "we cannot tell what a day will bring forth," for after partaking of one of the best of dinners, such as we always have at the council, Bro. Hancock's gavel, called the Patron to the floor, and the regular order of business was taken up and responded to promptly, and when the W. L.'s department was reached he called on sister Sarah White of Alton Grange for a recitation, who responded and was followed by Sister Mosher with select reading. And when the Query Box was opened it was found to contain more Queries than time would permit to be answered, and the two following were placed under the head of "Unfinished Business" for next meeting, which will be held at Vergennes Hall, 2d Saturday in the Oct. 1st. "From what sources does the Government receive its greatest revenue." 2d. "What kind of knowledge should our school teachers strive to impart," and the following was added to the programme: Vergennes grange to furnish music and each grange a recitation. Marking wool and the general business of the council, assigned to the purchasing agent.

What we claim for Parmelle's Condition Powders is that they are made of the purest and best materials that can be produced, and they will invariably effect the cures for which they are warranted, as the hundreds of testimonials in our possession will give abundant and satisfactory evidence. Directions with each package. Remember and get Parmelle's Condition Powders. They are the best. Price, 50 cent per package, full pound. Sold by J. Q. Look.

Cement Wells. Cheaper and better than brick or tile. These wells are as well protected against surface water and vermin as drive wells are protected, and, unlike the drive and tubular wells, are free from the danger of never getting out of repair and can be successfully worked in "quick sand" and water wells, where other wells fail. We make our wells of the best hydraulic cement, large enough to operate two buckets, and warrant them from top to bottom to be as true and level. New wells made and cured wells cemented on short notice, in Kent county and vicinity. Be sure and see some of these wells and know their merits before ordering any other. Best of references furnished on application. W. H. DAVIS & Co., Oakland Center, Kent Co.

It is said that Mexico had no banks until last February, when a concession was given to a party of French capitalists, with a capital of 25 million francs, and a second bank has recently been established at Sonora by Boston parties.

It is given out by Jay Gould's friends that he has withdrawn from Wall street with his heretofore detested intention to his railroads and to the Western Union Telegraph company, of which he is about to become president.
When the war closed a party in Georgia owned $100,000 in Confederate bonds that have been lying in the safe for 17 years, and regarded as worthless. The other day they took them to Atlanta and sold the pile for $700 in currency.

MY MICHIGAN.

Jain A. Mason, the sweet singer of Michigan, has been heard from again. She has another lady.
A farmer in the town of Henrietta, Jackson county, has grown 2,000 bushels of potatoes from 20 acres of land.
Mentioned, the horse stolen from the Jackson farm grounds a few nights ago, has been found, having been abandoned by the thieves.
Danet Goggin, the old man who killed his wife at St. Mark's hospital in Grand Rapids some time ago, by stabbing 21 times, has been convicted of murder in the first degree.

The Worcester base ball club failed to keep their agreement to play the Grand Rapids club a match any more this year, save by long delay.
Citizens of Rome, Lenawee county, have found specimens of the dyctyna fasciata, in their water supply, and are not happy. The bug is not what scares them, but it is its awful name.
The score made by T. E. Webster, of the Bay City Tennis Rifici, at the recent Creamer match—100 out of 100, is the best shooting on record, with a military rifle, either in this country or in Europe.
A soap peddler mysteriously disappeared on East Siasoon a few days ago, and so did a young lady at the same place where boarded. But the anxious friends of friends have been allayed; the party only married and went to Flint.

The boiler of a Chicago & Northwest river railway engine worked for Menominee, and hauling a passenger train, exploded while en route, near Onondaga, Wis. a few days ago, blowing the engine, blowing the engine, blowing the engine to the ditch, but not disabling the trucks, so that the train proceeded safely until its momentum was exhausted. It is said the passenger boat sank, nothing of it until the train derided. —Puck.

Which Should I Marry?
I have had some very interesting letters recently from some of my subscribers. One of them was from a young man who had just graduated from college and was looking for a wife. He had a list of five women whom he was considering, and he wanted to know what I thought of each one.

"Well, here are the five women whom he was considering: Mrs. A. B. C., Mrs. D. E. F., Mrs. G. H. I., Mrs. J. K. L., and Mrs. M. N. O. Each one had her own set of qualities, and it was a difficult matter to choose between them.

There were a great many people at the wedding. The bride was the daughter of an old and respected citizen of the town. The groom was a young man of excellent family and good education. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. S. J. Jones, who was assisted by the choir of the church. The wedding was a very happy occasion, and the bride and groom were united in the bonds of matrimony.

A Misstatement Corrected.

A Grand Haven letter to the Chicago Tribune, of which the following is a portion, appears in a number of the state papers.

Section 49.

The manufacture, gift or sale of spirituous, malt or vinous liquors in this state, except for mechanical, medicinal and sacramental purposes, under state supervision, by persons thereto licensed by the state, is prohibited.

Separate bills providing for the amendments were introduced in each branch of the legislature.

The vote in the senate was 21 for the amendment and 10 against it. The vote in the house was 65 for the amendment and 32 against it.

It required 67 votes to pass it in the house, and it only received 65, which was two less than the constitutional requirement.

From this it can be seen that the amendment did not pass either branch of it. And as it did not pass, Gov. Jerome could not veto it.

The constitution of Michigan provides that if a proposed amendment shall be agreed to by two thirds of the members elected to each house, such amendment or amendments shall be entered on their journals respectively.

As a matter of fact, the statement that Gov. Jerome did veto it is untrue in whole and in part. It is a pure invention, without a shadow of foundation.

This calumny rests on no better foundation than the other stories circulated about one of the purest and best governors Michigan has ever had.

The attempt will meet with disastrous failure.—Post and Tribune.

Thus saith The Lord.

In the JOURNAL of Sept. 20th J. M. V. W. says: The Christian world with a wonderful unanimity, and under the direction of the inspired Apostles have chosen the resurrection day, and not the dark, mournful, gloomy day when our Saviour lay in the tomb.

A Valuable Work. We refer to Crain's Illustrated Family Atlas of the World. It contains 327 pages, 200 handsomely engraved illustrations, 81 perfectly executed maps of every country on the globe.

Mr. A. J. Brown, of Jackson, the agent will begin canvassing in this vicinity Sept. 1. The books will be delivered on or about Nov. 1st, or those desiring earlier can purchase them of him for cash at any time.

APPLES WANTED.

Apples wanted immediately for evaporating by Bradley & Sunderland who are prepared to take any quantity.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.

The County Board of School Examiners will meet the teachers of Kent county for examination as follows:

Grand Rapids, Friday, Sept. 1, 1882. Lowell, Saturday, Sept. 30, 1882. Rockford, Saturday, Oct. 14, 1882. Grand Rapids, Friday Oct. 27, 1882. Cannonburg, Saturday, Nov. 4, 1882. Caledonia, Saturday, Nov. 11, 1882.

THE BEST BARGAINS EVER OFFERED IN LOWELL FOR ALL KINDS OF GOODS IN THIS LINE.

Must be sold to make room for New Goods. Come one come all and see our goods and get our prices. Come one come all and see our goods and get our prices. Remember the place. I. E. STRONG & CO. 1st door East of Post Office, Lowell, Michigan.

MY WORK SPEAKS LOUDER and BOLDER THAN ALL ADVERTISING.

It required 67 votes to pass it in the house, and it only received 65, which was two less than the constitutional requirement.

From this it can be seen that the amendment did not pass either branch of it. And as it did not pass, Gov. Jerome could not veto it.

THE CONSTITUTION OF MICHIGAN PROVIDES THAT IF A PROPOSED AMENDMENT SHALL BE AGREED TO BY TWO THIRDS OF THE MEMBERS ELECTED TO EACH HOUSE, SUCH AMENDMENT OR AMENDMENTS SHALL BE ENTERED ON THEIR JOURNALS RESPECTIVELY.

As a matter of fact, the statement that Gov. Jerome did veto it is untrue in whole and in part. It is a pure invention, without a shadow of foundation.

MY WORK SPEAKS LOUDER and BOLDER THAN ALL ADVERTISING.

It required 67 votes to pass it in the house, and it only received 65, which was two less than the constitutional requirement.

THE CONSTITUTION OF MICHIGAN PROVIDES THAT IF A PROPOSED AMENDMENT SHALL BE AGREED TO BY TWO THIRDS OF THE MEMBERS ELECTED TO EACH HOUSE, SUCH AMENDMENT OR AMENDMENTS SHALL BE ENTERED ON THEIR JOURNALS RESPECTIVELY.

As a matter of fact, the statement that Gov. Jerome did veto it is untrue in whole and in part. It is a pure invention, without a shadow of foundation.

This calumny rests on no better foundation than the other stories circulated about one of the purest and best governors Michigan has ever had.

The attempt will meet with disastrous failure.—Post and Tribune.
