EDITORIAL TALK.

-Hon. Waldo May, the straight greenback nominee for Governor of Michigan, in his letter of acceptance,

"My heart bleeds when I look around me and see the men with whom I have fought, shoulder to shoulder with this hydra-headed monster-fusion-betrayed into the deadly embrace, yet I have no words of vituperation or bitterness to express, but, in a spirit of brotherly love will do all that lies in my power to win them back to the pure principles of true Greenbackism, on which I firmly believe, depends the life of this glorious repub-

In my opposition to fusion with Democrats I do not wish to be understood to condemn the honest rank and file of the party, but unscrupulous, arrogant and aristocratic bankers and bondholders have assumed the leadership of both the old parties and are legislating in the in-terest of their class and against the toil erats following, with the exception of two or three of the most insignificant from this position Furthermore, a fusion with either of the old parties always serves to create uneasiness and distrust, and as a rule divides the Natio causes disorganization as the result. In my honest judgment nothing has served to so effectually impede the growth of this we have only to look at the result in Maine the banner Greenback state.

Mr. May's ideas in regard to fusion are very correct. The situation in Michigan is the same as that in Maine before the Maine election, and the result in Michigan will tally well with Mr. May's predictions.

-The Agricultural World last week published in full the article from our paper which it garbled and mu tilated in a previous number, thereby confessing its rascally work. It was like pulling its own teeth for the World to do this, but the editor had been told by men of his own party that he had done a mean thing and so he publishes the article in full and then attempts to misconstrue it the same as before. In doing this he knows that he willfully and deliberately and maliciously hes. He knows that no bonest man can put the construction to it that he does. The N. Y. Tribune claimed that among the strikers in this country the foreign element predominated. We claimed in our article that it was the escaped criminals and felons that were the strike breeders among the foreigners, and not any other class of foreigners. And that was all there was of it. The editor of the World knows it if he is able to read; and comprehend the English language. But here is the richest of all the World's lying up to date. The World says:

"It is well known and has often been asserted by members of his own party that J. W. Hine was in favor of the proscription of all foreigners, by the repeal of the naturalization laws and the exclusive choice of native Americans for office—the very essence of Know-Nothingism of 1853."

The above is but the product of a diseased mind and a depraved heart. The World knows there isn't a word of truth in it; he knows it is a lie made out of whole cloth. It needs no reply. We have written columns in favor of foreign immigration and foreign representation in office and our readers know it. Mr. Murray's hired man of the World means to earn his money, not by telling the truth. If he is satisfied with that kind of support we shall not complain.

-"Republican misrule." This is what the fusion organs in Michigan claim they are fighting. "Republican misrule." Where is it? Make one definite charge of Republican misrule in this state. Point to one single instance of Republican misrule. Indicate in some way if possible where it may be found. We want to see it. Our readers want to know all about it. The fusion organs World in its next issue will charge us have been howling "Republican mis- with having poisoned our grandfather, rule" all through the campaign and not we desire to say right here that the Is it in any other county? They do not with the World's allegation.

tell us where it is. We ask them to the people this "Republican misrule" any proofs of "Republican misrule" they would produce them. Intelligent sciences. readers will not be deceived by this groundless cry of "Republican mission organs know it, every one.

-Gen. Hooker, of Mississippi, the democratic congressman who delivered the address at the Ionia fair this year, s not only in favor of protection to home industries, but he is also in favor of river and harbor improvements. The Grand Rapids Democrat thinks Mr. Webster misstated the fact when he said in his speech at Grand Rapids that Gen. Hooker defended the river and harbor bill. The following which we clip from Gen. Hooker's published speech in the Ionia Sentinel would seem to show that he was in favor of it. He said:

Here let me say that I had the honor to be instrumental in obtaining the only aid for river and harbor improvements ever granted to my state, and in doing that I did not vote to aid the monopolist or the capitalist alone, but the humblest man that cuts a tree deep in the pine forest feels the benefit. The laboring men feel the impulse that it gave the logging business of the state. It was not for monopoly or capital, but for lab-or, that the assistance was obtained, and just now when the pine of Mississippi is coming into play to supply the place of your exhausted forests in Michigan.

-The Agricultural World attempts to prejudice the temperance vote against the Republican candidate for Senater by asserting that the liquor dealers association have "endorsed him." If the Republican candidate for senator has been endorsed by that association he certainly is not aware of it. He has made no overtures to that or any other association and doesn't propose to. Can Mr. Murray say that? Not if reports are true. The Republican candidate for senator is not truckling for votes. He stands squarely on the state Republican platform and there is where he will stand terest of their class and against the toiling millions, hence, in my opinion, it is unwise and extremely dangerous to take them into our confidence as allies. It seems to me that no good can result from placing in power such men as compose the fusion ticket—a national banker at the head, with hard-money Demograte following with the exception of Agricultural World will not drive us to the end if he gets covered over by straightforward course won't win, he prefers defeat. The malicious attacks on us by Mr. Murray's hired man of the

-The Republicans of Ohio were beaten because they didn't secure votes enough can gains. to elect. They didn't secure vote enough because the whole anti-temper ance vote went to the Democratic the National party, as fusion or combination with the old parties. In proof of cut off one end of the Republican line cut off one end of the Republican line and the prohibitionists cut off the other end. And between the two the Republicans were badly beaten. The Republicans made temperance a party issue and the Democrats and prohibitionists defeated them on that issue. The object of the prohibitionists in helping by voting a separate ticket to defeat the ends they desire to accomplish is one of those things past comprehension.

-Perhaps the fusion organs take as an evidence of "Republican misrula" the fact that during the year 1881 the cost of the criminal prosecutions in this county was about $15,000 less than in any of the four preceding years, or, rather, that the saving to the tax payers of this county for 1881 in the management of the prosecuting attorney's office alone was $15,000, as compared with the aver- friends in Norwich, N.Y. age of the four preceding years. If this is "Republican misrule" it is far preferable to fusion rule and the taxpayers of Kent county will so declare at the

-That the editor of the World belongs to a class of donkies the Hollanders call EZEL (ass), is plain to be seen by the ears he sticks up when he hears that the Hollanders and Germans are going to vote for Mr. Hine for senator. -G.R.

This coming from a paper, edited by a Hollander, speaks for itself. In the future we shall not deem it worth while to pay any attention to the braving of the World's quadruped referred to. We owe the public an apology already for giving so much space to expose the rascal. We find that his reputation for indecency and crookedness has been known for some time.

-Mr. Sagendorph, the prohibition candidate for governor, will get a few thousand votes. What use can be made of them? What is there in the Republican platform that the prohibitionists object to? Is it the plank demanding the submission of the prohibitory amendment! Or, if that is just what they want, why do they vote a separate tick-

-What will the prohibitionists of Michigan gain by voting the prohibition state ticket? What did the prohibitionists of Ohio gain? Answer:-A democratic victory, with no restrictions whatever on the liquor traffic.

-Mr. Begole is anything to beat Gov. Jerome. He is bobbing around like an empty barrel in a mill pond, hoping to be pulled ashore at Lansing, but when he gets through bobbing he'll find himself still at Flint.

-Four years ago and two years ago the Greenback party in its platforms denounced the Democratic party as too corrupt to be allowed to hold power again. How?

-The worst thing the Democrats can do is to get control of congress just before a presidential election. But they don't seem to see it.

-The prohibitionists of Ohio made a sad mistake. They see it now. The prohibitionists of Michigan should profit by it and not make the same mistake, -Hon, W.O. Webster is making friends every day. Many Republican greenbackers will cast their votes for him.

-Fusion won't win, but if it should whose victory would it be? And what would they do next?

-Yes, Ohio went democratic but there has been a Republican gain of three votes in one town in Texas. -Let Republicans remember that the next Legislature will elect a United States senator. -On national issues Ohio is still a Re-

A paper called the Agricultural World published at Grand Rapids, has made a villainous attack upon James W. Hine, editor of the Lowell JOURNAL. Now, this "agricultural" paper is nothing more than the worst kind of a political sheet, controlled by a man who goes in on the principle of supporting the can-obtain a circulation by claiming to be published in the interest of the tillers of the soil. But, intermingled with the electrotyed "farm notes" and editorial

GRATTAN GATHERINGS.

John P. Weeks, a pioneer, and resident of Grattan for over 37 years, fell asleep Oct.7, aged 74 years and 11 months. For 30 years he had symptoms of consumption, and the past few weeks his sufferings have been terrible; still he bore them with exaited patience. Let his record be: "He had a great, loving heart for all mankind, was a most affectionate husband and father; he wronged no man, neither coveted he any man's possessions, he believed in one God, Supreme Ruler of all, but could not accept the christian belief in Jesus as a Savior, saying to Maud shortly before death: "I so long to go, there is nothing whatever in the way; I wish all could find such con.fort in religion as I find in mine." He was an indetatigable worker, working as far as his strength would allow up to six weeks previous to death and making during the season of 1881, one hundred dozen rakes, and made so far in 1882 sixty dozen. He leaves a wife, three sons, and five daughters, to whom his place can never be filled. Burial at Mason's cemetery, Oct. 9. The following from Gray's Elegy, was select-
