LAST MEETING OF THE CAMPAIGN.

COME OUT!

EDITORIAL TALK.

—A bitter personal attack against Gov. Jerome is being made all along the fusion line. Illustrated circulars, heart rendering and blood curdling, are being scattered all over the state, vilifying the Governor and shamelessly falsifying his position before the people. It seems to have been planned by the fusionists to open a fusillade of this kind a few days before election just as the Democrats did a few days before the last Presidential election. Then the people at the polls showed their condemnation of the villainous attempt by means of the Morey letter to beat Garfield. The voters of Michigan will rebuke the same effort to beat Gov. Jerome and the Republican ticket this fall. Let every honest voter go to the polls next Tuesday and by his vote and work put the seal of condemnation upon such dishonest and disgraceful attempts to defeat a political opponent. The fusionists are desperate. They depend upon their ability to mislead and deceive the people to secure a victory. Be not misled; be not deceived by the lying backbocks of the Begole party. On the contrary renew your efforts at your homes and at the polls and show the world that truth and decency cannot be crushed out by falsehood and trickery. Let every Republican do his duty, let every honest voter do his duty and such disgraceful and dishonorable methods will be stamped out.

—Hon. W. O. Webster should receive the vote of every Republican and greenbacker of Republican antecedents in this congressional district. He is a first-class man and we believe he will be our next congressman. Hundreds of Republican greenbackers will vote for him in preference to Houseman, because they know Houseman, if sent to congress, would act and vote entirely on the Democratic side, and therefore when it comes to choosing between a Republican and Democrat, Republican greenbackers prefer the former and will vote for him. The straight greenback nomination in this district was a failure and cannot draw many votes. The contest is between Webster and Houseman. Vote and work for Webster.

—The fusion organs of Grand Rapids have been trying hard to find a weak spot in the Republican ticket. They have made vigorous assaults upon several candidates and been beaten every time and they are mad because they are beaten. The course pursued by said fusion organs shows that they have no faith in their ability to win by fair means and therefore they will try the experiment of winning by foul means. Personal abuse, false assertions and backbocks are their entire stock in trade and will be from this out. After election they will be ashamed to look back over their campaign work.

—Cranky Carroll, he of the Agricultural World, told a man in Grand Rapids the other day that "it didn't make any difference whether anything he said against Hine was true or not, he was going to give it to him just the same." Cranky Carroll will please keep right on "giving it to him." But if he were awful sharp he would be more careful how he gives himself away. Want the affidavits Carroll? No trouble at all to get them.

—Republican greenbackers, democracy boasts that it has swallowed you. The Detroit Free Press heads the fusion ticket "Democratic Ticket" and the democratic orators speak of you as their late allies. And they chuckle thereat, with great glee.

—The members of the Legislature to be chosen at the coming election will elect a United States Senator. It is therefore important that special attention be given to the legislative ticket in order that the Republicans may have a clear working majority in the next legislature. Bear this in mind.

—The Republican county ticket has not a weak spot in it. It is composed of first-class men. The fusion organs have done their best to find a flaw in it somewhere but they have signally failed. And they are gnashing their teeth at their failure.

—Every voter owes it to himself to be honest with his convictions and to vote as his judgment and conscience dictate. Let this be done in every instance and the fusion vote will be very light this fall.

—That poor, demented Carroll of the Agricultural World appeals to the fusion organs for help, but there is no help for him.

—Maine says to Michigan: "You can beat fusion just as easily as we did if you work."

Would-be Gov. Begole was very generous with other people's money when he said "Draw on me." The fire relief fund was in his hands and it was not Begole's money they "drawed on." Very cunning dodge but too transparent to make voters for Begole.

County Clerk Fred S. Clark was very pleasantly surprised the other day when the Board of Supervisors presented to him an elegant and costly silver water service. Fred has been a true and faithful officer and this "token" was well deserved.

A. B. More of Ionia spoke for the fusion ticket at Train's Hall last night. Good audience and Ben. is a good talker. Some liked what he said and some didn't. Can't please every body.

The adventists, who have had their tent located here for the past two months closed their meetings here last Sunday. The meetings have been well attended, and quite a number of converts reported as a reward for their exertions. We understand they have closed for the season.

All voters must register on or before Nov. 4, or they cannot vote Nov. 7.

"It don't make any difference whether what we say against Hine is true or not, we are going to give it to him just the same." So says Carroll, of the Agricultural World, in private conversation. What a nice man that Carroll is. And yet there are people who really think he is neither smart nor honest.

We have been favored with a sample quart of cranberries, from Black Spruce farm. Mr. Johnson is quite enthusiastic on the subject of raising cranberries here in Mich. He says there is a great deal of swamp land here at present worthless, which is perfectly adapted for cranberries, and which in the shape of successfully cultivated cranberry marshes would be of immense value to the owners.

A correspondent from Grattan says: "Sellers will receive more than his party vote in this part of the district." And so he will. The people up that way know him to be a live man, ready and willing at all times to lay off his coat and do all he can for the good of his district. His opponent lives in the southwest corner of the district and is but little known outside of his own town.

Mr. Thomas Lowden of this township is the inventor and patentee of a labor saving machine for farmers which supplies a long felt want, the same being "Lowden's Patent Drag Saw," with which one man can do the work of two and do it easily. This Drag Saw is simple in construction, light, durable and cheap, and easily operated by one man. It can be used with any common cross-cut saw. Town and county rights for sale by Mr. Lowden, the patentee, whose address is Lowell, Mich.

All voters must register on or before Nov. 4, or they cannot vote Nov. 7.

Monday's Eagle contains a column article from Louis Gale explaining how he came to give Carroll an affidavit contradictory in part to the one against him. The letter shows up Mr. Carroll's true inwardness—which to say the least is very rotten. We are informed that an extra dose of bile will appear in the World this week. Let it come. The World's vile attacks on the various Republican candidates have been denounced on all sides as villainous and disgraceful. Even so stupid a dunce as Carroll may find it out some day. In fact we hear he has already arrived at the conclusion that he is in a very tight spot. Others have known it for some time.

Programme of L. L. C. for Nov. 10. Response at roll call, quotation from O. W. Holmes; selected reading by Mrs. Frank King, Mrs. Craw and Mrs. F. B. Hine; recitations by Miss Young and Mrs. J. W. Hine; Music in charge of Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Miss Deegan critic for the third quarter. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Pease November 10.

Before our next publication day the voters of Michigan and of other states will gather at the polls and there decide the question of party supremacy. In Michigan the Republican party, which for over a quarter of a century has wisely controlled the affairs of state, is confronted by a combination of forces incompatible to each other in all their declared principles as recorded in the previous platforms of the two combined parties. The combination therefore was not formed to promote any cherished principle or push to the fore any pronounced issue; it was formed simply to wrest, if possible, the offices from the party in power and gather to itself the spoils of office. This is a fair statement of the case and will not be denied by any reasonable, fairminded man. Such being the fact the question has been asked, and asked in vain, why should the party in power give up the reins of our state government to this combination of spoils hunters? The only answer we hear is that "there should be a change." Why should there be a change? To this question we get no reply simply because no good reason or a change can be embodied therein. Under Republican rule the state of Michigan has prospered beyond all expectation. Its affairs have been wisely governed in every official department. Economy and wisdom and honesty have been found in our state officials. Under Republican rule the state has lifted the big debt (left as a legacy by the Democratic party,) paid millions of dollars for the building and maintenance of our state institutions, of which all are proud, and to-day has a big balance on the credit side of the ledger account. During all these years of prosperity under republican rule, the valuation of property has increased almost beyond comparative computation. The rights of all men have been protected. Wholesome laws have been enacted for that purpose; and to-day the State of Michigan stands foremost among the states of the Union, in the intelligence of its people, the magnitude of its industries, the condition of society, in its agriculture, horticulture and all the varied resources developed within her borders. The progress has been constant and rapid and every aid that legislation could grant, looking to the upbuilding of all these varied interests, and the promotion of all classes of society, has been granted by the party in power. Who asks for a change? What change is wanted? Could any party have done better? To the Republican party of Michigan it may truly be said: "Well done good and faithful servant—keep right on in the same line of duty for another two years." It is time to ask for a change when the interests of the people demand a change, and that time has not yet arrived. So the voters of Michigan will declare at the polls next Tuesday.

All voters must register on or before Nov. 4, or they cannot vote Nov. 7.

Spiked!

The poor little Carroll of the Agricultural World is a sad predicament. He tries to tie his way out and is spiked to the wall.

Last week we copied an article from the Grand Rapids Eagle showing up the further rascality of the irresponsible and dishonest scamp who controls the columns of that disreputable sheet called the Agricultural World. The Eagle's article explained how this Carroll tried to bribe the Saturday Review to publish a few lines as original that he (Carroll) had prepared, so that the World could copy it, give credit to the Review and circulate copies of the World containing the item all through the rural districts for the benefit of Mr. Murray. The day after this expose of Carroll's villainy appeared in the Eagle, Carroll came out with a card in the Grand Rapids Leader denying the charge as false and asserting that he had not been to the Review with any such offer or article. His denial was a flat-footed falsehood. He had been caught at his contemptible trickery and had no way of escape.

He thought by denying it the matter would there end, but not so. The following affidavits, which appeared in Friday's Eagle, pin Mr. Carroll to the wall and prove him to be, just what the public have for sometime known, a—well, a very unreluctant sort of a biped.

The following is clipped from Friday's Eagle:

WAYS THAT WERE DARK.

The Eagle having noticed, and denouncing as it seemed proper, a trick resorted to by the editor of the Agricultural World, to divert votes from Mr. Hine, the Republican candidate for State Senator, for the benefit of Mr. Murray, the Democrat, and to the benefit of his denial; the following affidavits may serve to give some further light concerning the matter:

State of Michigan, County of Kent, ss.

—Louis Gale, of said county, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that he is editor of the Saturday Review, a newspaper published and circulated in said county, that on Friday, October 20, 1882, one F. M. Carroll, one of the proprietors of the Agricultural World, came to him and stated that he had written an article and wanted it inserted in the Saturday Review, and that his purpose was to defeat Hine for State Senator, that he wanted to copy the article from the Review, it being the acknowledged policy of this section, and by so doing it would secure the solid temperance vote for Murray, and submitted the following article:

"The Review need not waste space in endorsing J. W. Hine for State Senator, because there is probably not a liquor dealer in the county who will not heartily support that gentleman. He is well known to be on our side of the main question, and both the whole sale and retail associations in this city have endorsed him. Murray is a prohibitionist and must be beaten."

I informed him that Mr. Stanton, the proprietor, was out of town and when he came back that I would submit the matter to him. Carroll then stated that he was anxious to have it appear in Saturday's Review, as he wanted to republish it in the Agricultural World of the next week, and that he would pay me the money at once if I would name the price and print the article. I then told him I would think the matter over and let him know during the afternoon.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 25th day of October, A. D. 1882, LINCOLN BOWEN, Notary Public, County of Kent, Mich.

—Fred A. Vanderveer of said county being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the foreman in the office of the Saturday Review, that he is acquainted with F. M. Carroll, one of the proprietors of the Agricultural World, and that said Carroll came into the office of the Saturday Review on Thursday or Friday of the week last past, and inquired of this deponent for Mr. Gale. I informed him that he had just left the office and could not inform him when he would return. Mr. Carroll then said "Have you got an article set up this week endorsing Hine?" I told him that we had not had anything to do with Hine, and that the Review was not supporting him, and further said not. FRED A. VANDERVEER.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 25th day of October, A. D. 1882, LINCOLN BOWEN, Notary Public, County of Kent, Mich.

He squirms badly.

Last night came the Agricultural World with a supplement containing several affidavits, mostly Carroll's, which are not up to par just now. As to Gale's affidavit saying that Carroll did not write the article, &c. Mr. Gale answered in full in Monday's Eagle, completely demolishing Mr. Carroll in his effort to screen himself. In reference to this we publish the following extract from Gale's expose of the rascal Carroll:

"Mr. Carroll's affidavit is also true as far as its specific denials are concerned; but the whole of it is intended as a denial that he offered the liberal inducements to put up a job on Jimmy Hine, in the Review, then it is false. If it is intended as a denial that he furnished the material for the article, it is false. If it is intended to contradict, in any material point, my affidavit made before Mr. Bowen, it is false. The publication of the affidavit which he begged from me, as a means of protection from the damaging effects on him of this whole dirty anti-Hine game shows how mean a man it takes to put up such jobs; and a man who goes back on his pledge, on honor, in a manner which shows that he intended to break his promise when he made it, might possibly lie a little, to save his mutton."

That is what Mr. Gale says of Mr. Carroll, since Mr. Carroll on the plea that it would "ruin his business" begged Gale to hold up on him. In another place in the same letter Mr. Gale says: "But the gist of the issue is, did F. M. Carroll try to get me to put an article in the Review strongly endorsing Mr. Hine; did he state that his object was to republish said article for the purpose of hurting Mr. Hine and helping Lyman Murray and did he offer me inducements, in money, to persuade me to put the article in? To all of these interrogatories I desire to answer, most emphatically, 'yes!'"

Mr. Carroll will please chew that. He knows he is guilty and squirm which way he will he can't get out of it.

It was Sworn To.

To the Editor of the Grand Rapids Eagle.

I noticed in the columns of the Democrat this morning an article from F. M. Carroll, editor of the Agricultural World, stating that he did not think that Mr. Louis Gale ever signed or wrote the affidavit as published in your paper last evening. As to the truth or authority for publishing the same, I know nothing about it, but will inform Mr. Carroll that the affidavit was read over to, and subscribed in and sworn to by Mr. Louis Gale in my presence, on the date mentioned, notwithstanding Mr. Carroll insinuates that the jurat was false (or in other words I lied). Prosecuting Attorney. The Eagle has several times had occasion to notice the efficiency of Prosecuting Attorney Maynard, in the performance of his duties. The following are some of the reasons briefly stated, why he should be re-elected: His administration is a model one so far as honesty, efficiency and economy are concerned. He has conducted business on purely business principles, and has been so successful that he will save to the taxpayers of Kent County at least $25,000, in hard cash, in two short years. No Supervisor, no juror, no officer or any Court, it is believed, no matter what his politics may be, can be found who does not speak in the highest terms of the ability, honesty and fidelity that has characterized his work. Because those who desire to use the criminal law to collect private debts and gratify their spite, have learned that they will receive no aid or comfort from his office. Because the good name of every citizen respected, and no order for an arrest given until a most thorough investigation of the facts is made. Because, all men, and all classes of citizens are treated exactly alike; and when the bottom facts show real cause are prosecuted vigorously without fear or favor. Because, persons accused of crime, and held for trial, are treated, as a rule, at once, thus saving the expenses of boarding them at the jail—a practice that prevails in no other county. Because, a case made good in a court of record without giving a weeks notice in open court, of the intention to do so; thus giving complying witnesses and others an opportunity to be heard if they have any objection to the order being made another charge made by Mr. Maynard, and which has received the commendation of the Legislature of the State. Because Mr. Maynard, by four years' work in the office has acquired that experience in conducting the affairs of the office without which no man can do efficient work for the people.—J. H. Eagle.

There was quite a stir last Wednesday afternoon, on the vacant lot west of A. B. Johnson's store occasioned by an exhibition of the working of a simple Feed Mill which J. W. Donnan has secured the agency of for this place. The Mill is what is known as The "Osage"—made in Whitewater, Wisconsin and is operated by means of a team attached to the end of a 12 foot sweep. It is made almost entirely of iron, and the work which it performs was a surprise to all who witnessed its operation. As a sample of fine grinding it ground some grove wheat, and some damp, musty oats, as fine, and several said finer, than grist mills are in the habit of doing it. It is said to grind corn and cob at the rate of 10 to 15 bushels an hour; shelled corn at the rate of 8 to 10 bushels an hour; corn and oats at the rate of 6 to 8 bushels an hour, and wheat at the rate of 6 bushels an hour. It is just what our farmers need. It is simple to operate, durable, and sells complete at $40, which is very reasonable. Go to J. W. Donnan and ask him about it.

ATTENTION, EVERYBODY. Having sold my stock of groceries to M. C. Barber I shall in a few weeks remove to Kansas and it is therefore necessary that all accounts due me be paid at once. All parties owing me can make their payments to M. C. Barber who is now in possession of the grocery. Lowell, Oct. 30, 1882. WM. R. BARBER.

The undersigned, having purchased the grocery stock of Wm. R. Barber, will be found at the old stand ready to wait on old customers and all others whomay favor him with their patronage. M. C. BARBER.

WHY SUFFER? With Dyspepsia when Parmelee's Dyspepsia, Diabetes Kidney and Liver Cure will work wonders, relieving you at once. Do not wait till Dyspepsia has overcome and Diabetes has taken full possession of your body but remember that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." BY NEGLECT What is at first but a slight cold, becomes a cough, straining and exhausting the lungs till such an inflamed condition exists, that powerful remedies are always unable to stop the disease and the person goes into consumption through mere neglect. Do not be so foolish but use Hamilton's cough balsam, which removes the impure matter from the throat and lungs and exerts a healing influence on the diseased parts. Even those who are but the wrecks of their former selves receive wonderful help. In Croup and Hooping Cough it is invaluable. Price 25 and 50 cents, sold by Hunt & Hunter.

FROM HAMILTON. A gentleman writes: "I have suffered for over four years with night losses and general weakness, caused by abuse. I had tried all the advertised medicines, and a number of eminent doctors, and I found no relief or benefit. I have used six boxes of Magnetic Medicine, and am entirely restored." See advertisement in another column.
