LOWELL JOURNAL JAS. W. HINE, EDITOR.

EDITORIAL TALK.

The political prohibitionists who followed the lead of "The Lever," worked against Gov. Jerome and voted for Sagendorph for Governor. The JOURNAL, some weeks before election, spoke its opinion freely on this point and said that the only thing the prohibitionists could hope to accomplish by such a course was the election of Begole. Begole is elected and this is not all. In fighting the head of the ticket the entire ticket was materially weakened, so much so that several Republican congressmen and many Republican candidates for the state legislature are lost. In summing up the results what do we find? Well, to go back to the beginning we find that the political prohibitionists wanted the submission of a prohibitory amendment to the people. We find that the Republican state convention at Kalamazoo, in answer to the demand of these prohibitionists, put a plank in its platform demanding the submission of such amendment. We then find that a majority of the state temperance alliance in convention at Jackson ignored the action of the Republican state convention and voted to support Begole or Sagendorph. We find that they worked diligently against the Republican ticket. We find Begole elected and the Republican majority in the Legislature largely reduced. It requires a two-thirds vote of each house to submit to the people an amendment to the constitution. In the Senate there are 19 Republicans, three short of the requisite two-thirds. Unless some of the fusion members vote in favor of it, (which is not likely) the amendment cannot be submitted. No doubt the intention of the political prohibitionists was honest, but the course he took was powerfully unwise. In fighting the Republican ticket he has lost much more than he has gained.

The election of Begole—by Republican votes—carries with it a deal more than the office of Governor. The following is a list of officers who are appointed by the Governor and the "organized appetite" is after their places with a wide open mouth:
State Commissioner of Railroads,
State Commissioner of Immigration,
State Commissioner of Insurance,
State Commissioner of Swamp Lands,
State Oil Inspector,
State Salt Inspector,
State Librarian,
Adjutant General,
Quartermaster General,
Inspector General,
Warden State Prison,
Warden State Prison,
Members State Military Board,
Private Secretary to Governor,
Governor's Staff,
State Prison Inspectors,
Inspectors House of Correction,
Board of Control Reform School, School for the Blind, Insane Asylum, Public School at Coldwater, and State Board of Charities, &c.

Republicans, therefore, who worked and voted against Gov. Jerome voted to turn out all the Republican officials from the above named offices. They voted to turn out such faithful, true and prominent men as Railroad Commissioner Williams, Insurance Commissioner Row, Com. of Immigration, Col. Fred Morley, Warden Watkins, of the Ionia prison, and many others who have honored the positions they have held. Republicans elected Begole governor, but Begole will know them not when he makes his appointments.

—One of the most absurd charges made by Senator Ferry's opponents is that he is largely responsible for the defeat of Gov. Jerome and several Republican congressmen in Michigan. Such talk isn't even good nonsense. The fact is there are certain anti-Ferry persons and papers in this state that are determined to aid in carrying out a programme to defeat Ferry, if possible, and permit Mr. Hubbell to name Mr. Ferry's successor, and in the absence of any good reasons for their action, unjust and untruthful charges against Mr. Ferry are thus preferred for the purpose of making their "programme" more attractive to the Republican members of the incoming legislature. Let the Republican senators and representatives elect hold themselves above all petty quarrels and go to Lansing with the fixed purpose of faithfully representing the will of the majority, uninfluenced by personal strifes and prejudices. The Legislature, not the lobby, represents the people at Lansing.

—The election in Michigan in 1874 resulted in such a greatly reduced Republican majority as to cause great rejoicing among the Democrats, who then confidently predicted a glorious democratic victory in this state in 1876. After the election of 1876 the returns showed a plurality of 26,461 for Hayes over Tilden and a Republican majority of 17,401 over both Tilden and Cooper. The democratic rejoicing in Michigan just now over a prospective democratic victory in this state in 1884 will terminate with a prolonged wall from the same source when the result of the '84 election is declared.

—Now that the campaign is over we will venture to suggest that the Republican speakers had altogether too much to say about the river and harbor bill, so long as that bill was not a party measure it wasn't really necessary for the Republican party to shoulder it in this campaign. The Republicans ought, at least, to have made the democrats carry half the load for there were more Republicans who voted against it than Democrats.

—The Agricultural World virtually acknowledges that its abuse of the Republican candidate for senator helped the latter instead of hurting him. This is the only point on which the JOURNAL and World have agreed for some time. Some folks think we ought to buy Carroll a new hat to pay him for his labors, but we don't. The No. 5 he has been wearing is good enough. He can put more paper under the sweat leather and make it fit and look as good as a new one.

—Hon. Geo. M. Dewey, of the Owosso Times, one of the most earnest temperance advocates in the state, in commenting upon this item from the Lansing Republican: "Political prohibitionists have the consolation of knowing that they have defeated the submission of a prohibitory amendment to the people," says:

"Now while we hope this result will not follow, as we think it best that the question be now settled by a vote of the people, and thus take it out of politics, we do think the political prohibitionists acted both very unfairly and unwisely."

—Now there is Rowley, of the Ionia Standard, one of the brightest young Democrats in Michigan. He waded through blood (metaphorically speaking) up to his chin for Begole and if his services are not recognized we shall feel like writing the Governor an open letter. As the Governor's private secretary Rowley would be a daisy. He is a graceful writer—and a good speller, too.

—Gen. Innis was the outest out-and-out anti-fusionist two weeks before the nominating conventions. Suddenly he met with a change of heart, and shouted lustily in behalf of fusion. To make a long story short Gen. Innis wants to be Gov. Begole's railroad commissioner.

—F. M. Carroll, Sir. Your application for "some fat appointment" is on file. If you can produce affidavits showing that you opposed me in the campaign I think I can do something for you—Begole, P. S.—Hine ought to do something for you if I don't. How would you like to be janitor in my barn?—B.

—As to the methods of temperance the question is one that should come up solely on its merits and not be the adopted issue of any political party. It is in this way, and this only, that the true verdict of the people can be obtained.

—How is this for a Republican presidential ticket for 1884?
For President: Gen. W. T. SHERMAN,
For Vice President: ROBERT T. LINCOLN!
'Rah for Sherman and Lincoln! That would sound pretty well.

—The Free Press tried to make out a few days ago that Lieut. Gov. Crosby's election was in doubt. Mr. Crosby's calling and election are sure, we are happy to say, and the same genial, prompt and capable officer that presided over the last senate will preside over the next senate.

—That hitherto inexorable two-term rule is suspended. We waste considerable ink and paper weeks before the conventions were held, trying to show up the folly and danger of such a rule, but the majority could not see it. The majority see it now.

—HON. J. W. BEGOLE.—Dear Gov.—I hear that Col. Sanford wants to be Railroad Commissioner. Don't let him monkey me out of that plum. Recollect what you told me just after the convention, don't you? Eh? What? Give Sanford suthin' else. Yours etc.—INNIS.

—If Col. Sanford of Lansing doesn't get a fat office under Begole it will be because some other chap gets his work in ahead of him. The Col. did valiant service for Begole and verily he shall have his reward.

—Will the Democrats bring out Cleveland, or Butler, for President in 1884? It is understood that Benjamin has one eye on the White House and the other on—well, it's mighty uncertain what his other eye is on.

—Hon. Geo. H. Hopkins, of Detroit, is named as the right sort of a man to elect as speaker of the house at Lansing. Mr. H. has served two terms in the house and is well qualified to take the speaker's gavel.

—We did demand that some of those offices should be abolished but we withdrew the demand. There ain't so many of 'em as we thought there wuz.—Many Fustists.

—Now that election is over you will hear no more about Gov. Jerome's "rostering boisterousness" at Yorktown. Campaign lies go into their holes after election.

—Why didn't Ben Morse of Ionia catch on to something? The Free Press nominated him for Governor months before they put up Begole, but Ben wouldn't play.

—Yaple, the kid who downed Burrows in the fourth district, is said to be a clever fellow, but in Burrows' seat in congress he will be as a pea in a peck measure.

Let no one suffer while I have the spoils to distribute.—J. W. Begole. P. S.—Draw on me.—J. W. B.

—The organized appetite, I fear, will get away with my vittles too quick.—J. W. B.

—Very likely Mr. Samuel J. Tilden hath, before this, pronounced his goose cooked.

To Our Subscribers.
The regular weekly circulation of the JOURNAL is nearly 1,500 copies. Many subscriptions fall due this month (Nov.) and a still greater number next month. ### JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

A very handsome storefront—J. Q. Look's.

Good thing—that drain in rear of Union Block.

To Mr. and Mrs. Norman Miller, a 64 lb. daughter.

Howard and Pease have enlarged their store.

If you want to know what a mean man you are, run for office.

Noticeable improvements in M. C. Barber's grocery.

Mrs. J. Q. Look is at the home of her parents in New York state, seriously ill.

A large quantity of wheat was marketed here yesterday at 95 cents for good.

The M. E. Social will be entertained at Mr. H. Wheadon's on Friday evening. See if your subscription has expired. One dollar will revive it for another year.

Howard and Pease have engaged Mr. James Trednick as salesman in their Clothing Store.

Justice Hunter has been on the sick list for some time—seriously afflicted with salt-rheum.

Mr. Henry Crotty, of Lansing, spent Sunday in town as the guest of his mutual friend, J. P. Murray.

Jas. Moore Esq. of Port Huron, has been visiting his brother J. C. Moore and family of this place.

Congregational social at the residence of Mrs. F. King this Wednesday evening. To all a cordial invitation.

E. R. Craw is preparing to start up the Springfield mills and will soon be ready to do custom work in good shape.

If the incoming county officers prove to be as efficient and straight as the outgoing ones have been they will make for themselves records to be proud of.

Will Eddie have exchanged his house and lot in this village for 62½ acres of wood land near the Springbrook mills, owned by Mr. N. Strong.

To Mr. & Mrs. Will Lally, Nov. 17th a fine 12 pound boy. If Will isn't a proud pa he ought to be. Three pounds over regulation weight you know.

A big fire in Grand Rapids last night. The Kent Furniture Co. and A. B. Long & Son's mill burned. Loss reported $50,000; insurance $45,000.

A young chap of the male persuasion has engaged board and clothing for 21 years at Jasper Hubbell's Nov. 13th.—Weight 84 lbs.

W. J. Snow and wife, of this vicinity, go to Chattanooga, Tenn. to live, Mr. Snow having secured a situation with a big lumber firm there.

One correct answer to the problem in last week's JOURNAL has been received, and only one, so far. It will be published after others hand in their results.

The Impromptu Club will give a Thanksgiving party at Train's Hall Thursday evening, Nov. 30. Music by Balcom's orchestra.

The Agricultural World will now play sweet on the farmers again until another political campaign is ushered in—provided it holds out till then. It is about as much an agricultural paper as an ant hill is a farm.

To avoid any collision with the opening of the new hotel Christmas night the party at Music Hall announced for the 25th of Dec. will be held Friday evening, Dec. 15. By order of Com.

"I see you are no temperance man," he remarked to his neighbor, who wanted to know why. "No temperance man would have his window blinds painted a wine color," was the sad reply.

The way the vittles party marches up to the trough shows that it was correctly named an "organized appetite. When Gov. Begole commences to pass the offices around, you will see a scramble akin to a herd of swine fighting for a kernel of corn.—Charlotte Republican.

Many subscriptions to the JOURNAL are due. Subscribers will please notice the date to which their subscriptions are paid and let us hear from them soon. All renewals should be made before the old subscriptions expire in order to have the paper continue without omissions.

Col. Charles E. Grison of St. Johns, grand commander of Michigan Knights Templar, and president of the state military board, died Monday afternoon of Bright's disease. Funeral this afternoon.

The editor of the Grand Rapids Democrat is publishing a list of the democratic candidates for office in Kent county that have been defeated in years past. When he gets through we advise him to close the last chapter with—"to be continued."

Mr. Amos Rathbone, one of the oldest and most prominent citizens of Grand Rapids, died Monday (20th), aged 74 years. "Uncle Amos" will long be remembered as one of the best natured, kindest hearted, and most generous men in the Grand River valley.

Modesty forbids republishing in the JOURNAL the many very complimentary press notices concerning the editor's record on the political turf, but modesty does not forbid a deep and grateful appreciation of such notices. Thanks, brethren, we hope when you run for office you will pull through without a breaker skip.

Somebody stole a horse and buggy belonging to a Mr. Compton of Keene, Monday night. The horse was hitched just east of the Bank in this village and the thief cut the "run-strap" and put out, 'up to present writing (Tuesday evening) nothing has been seen or heard of thief or property. Officers are in search in various directions.

Hon. E. R. Phinney, one of the Representatives elect from Saginaw county, was a resident of Saranac about eight years ago, employed in the oat factory of Mercer & Slater. He subsequently went into business for himself at Carson City, and is now extensively engaged in the manufacture of lumber, shingles and salt at E. Saginaw. He has many friends and acquaintances hereabouts who will be glad to learn of his promotion and prosperity.

The story going the rounds to the effect that Congressman Webber is log-rolling with Hubbell to beat Senator Ferry is denounced as a base fabrication by Mr. Webber. Mr. Webber believes that Senator Ferry is the choice of the Republicans of Michigan and his belief is well grounded.

Last Friday occurred one of the most severe electrical storms ever known in this country. Telegraph lines were paralyzed and for several hours could not be operated. At night, the grandest electrical display in the heavens took place that has ever been witnessed in this region of the universe. Some people looked upon it as the forerunner of a coming dissolution of this material world. Others were blasphemous enough to call it heaven's bonfire over the recent democratic victories.

One of the most gorgeous liars that the recent campaign evolved (and it sprouted some who were very industrious) was the chap who attempted the wholesale falsification by which it was proposed to defeat Jim Hine for the senate in Kent county. Ananias must now give up the champion belt.—Det. News.

And Carroll, of the so-called "Agricultural World," is the jealous possessor of that belt. He laid out Ananias "cold-er" a wedge.

Revivalist Harrison is still in Grand Rapids trying to frighten people into heaven. He is an emotional pulpitor actor, intensely sensational, and fairly lights the fires of hell to show his hearers the way to the better land. Three ladies of his congregation have become insane already over his frightful portrayals and more may be expected to follow. He seems to preach the fear of hell, not the love of the master, as the motive that should move sinners to repentance. Christ was very unlike Harrison.

GRAND OPENING
Of Train's Hotel, Monday Eve, Dec. 25th. This new and elegant hotel will be opened to the public on Monday evening, Dec. 25th, 1882, on which occasion there will be a grand party given by the incoming host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hodges. Elaborate preparations are being made for the coming evening and it will no doubt be one of the most pleasurable affairs ever enjoyed in Lowell.

NEWS & NOTES.
The greentakers claim all the credit for Butler and Begole.
Mr. Baine considers the Republican defeats of 1874 as a great deal worse than this year.
Steps are being taken for stirring up a big revival of religion in the Siguway valley.
The three Washburn mills at Minneapolis last week made a total of 37,743 barrels of flour.
A Philadelphia butcher says he sells almost all his tainted and poor beef to a beef-tan manufacturer.

Three clothing stores have been closed on chaste mortgages at St. Louis, Grand county, recently.
A very valiant Democratic newspaper of Massachusetts alludes to the Hon. Benjamin F. Butler as an emetic.
Caroline Whitman, of Fremont, Co., has been at East Saguway looking for her stray husband, but she found him not.
E. S. Phillips shingle mill, two miles north of Meosta, burned Tuesday night, loss $4,000 or thereabouts with $1,000 insurance.

A London paper predicts that Mr. Oldham will appear when the present parliament ends, the most colossal minister of modern times.
The Casopio Vigilant says Congressman Ellet Yapp is a "boy who has peddled the declamation of other men's words" over the fourth district.
The color line is strongly drawn in Boston, and a writer of that city thinks that if general affluence of race ever come in America they will be in the south rather than in the north.
A New York policeman, upon being asked what the members of the force fear most in their contact with the unruly, reply: "Kisses and rocks in the hands of half-grown baders."

Pawucket, R. I., with a population of 20,000, is the largest town under town government in the United States, and its citizens by a majority of 96 have refused to accept a city charter.
The 19 men who were arrested in New York last Tuesday for fraudulent registration were asked where they lived. "Where we keep our clothes," were their replies. "And where do you keep your clothes?" "On our backs," they said with one accord.
Charles T. Stanton, Republican candidate for state superintendent of Illinois schools, is probably defeated. He was known as Prohibition whipper and lost him many anti-prohibition votes, and he got no prohibition votes from the Prohibitionists had a candidate of their own.
Prof. Tyndall promises a grand sight at Niagara Falls to whoever may be there about 5,000 years from this. When the Horseshoe will be a part of the Great Island, draining both banks as the gorge recedes, leaving a nearly level terrace between Goat Island and the edge of the canyon. The American side will be drained, and the channel of the river which now makes the American fall will be cultivated.

We of the W. C. T. U. believe that the sale and use of intoxicating liquor as a beverage is against the best interests of society and the best interests of humanity. We are determined to destroy it in the end both body and soul. It fills our almshouses and our prisons, makes widows and orphans, desecrates the home altar, corrupts our legislature and degrades every body and everything that comes within the reach of its influence. And we hope by earnest and persistent prayer and labor to do something towards the uprooting of the evil.
"One drunk man from town— that we heard come from that wretched days since we passed the semblance of a man lying in a gutter where he had fallen; his head beating on his uncovered head whose locks were thickly sprinkled with gray. It seemed to us a sight that must move the stoutest heart yet among many passed carelessly by with sneering and the remark, 'that old man.' Yet he was pure one. Oh, my brother! have we become so familiar with Vice's untidy face that we even cease to pity the down-fall of our brother's life? Far, rather let us put her vile visage so far from us that, 'to be hated none' will be seen."

It is slanderously asserted that the first regular message sent over the telephone wire from Jackson to Detroit was an order for lager.

The owners of the dam at Grand Rapids are putting a new fish chute in the center of the river. The old chute was found to be worthless.

It is stated that the private rewards offered for the capture of Navin, the absconding mayor of Adrian, foot up $5,000.

Fred Slocum of the Holly Advertiser is about to enter the bonds of matrimony. The fair lady who has promised to make him happy is Miss Eva Leonard of Linden.

Notice is hereby given that (providence permitting) the 1st Wesleyan Methodist Church of Clarksville Mich. will be dedicated the 31 of Dec. 1882 at eleven o'clock.

Notice is hereby given that I Patrick Carey township drain commissioner of the township of Vergennes in the county of Kent will on the 4th day of December at the house of Benjamin Fairchild in said township at ten o'clock in the forenoon meet parties for the purpose of settling contracts for the construction of a ditch.
