NUMBER 27.

LOWELL JOURNAL

JAS. W. HINE, EDITOR.

Publisher's Announcement.

During my absence from home this winter the business affairs of the JOURNAL will be left in charge of Mr. CHAS. H. KNIFFIN, the foreman, to whom all subscriptions and other dues to the JOURNAL may be paid. Mr. Kniffin will also have charge of the local department of the JOURNAL and patrons are requested to send him all items of interest that may come to their knowledge. The publisher desires to make special request that all subscriptions, and all other bills due, be paid promptly. Mr. Kniffin will be ready to see the patrons of the JOURNAL at the office in TRAIN'S HALL BLOCK, each week day, from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. Give him an early call.

Weekly editorial letters from Lansing may be expected in the JOURNAL during the winter and the writer will endeavor to make them interesting. Very truly yours,
Jas. W. Hine.

EDITORIAL TALK.

To say that Senator Ferry should be dropped simply because he has been abusively attacked and maligned is to say no more nor less than has been said by some of our exchanges. They argue that owing to the "feeling" growing out of the contest it is better to pick up a new man for Senator. On the surface this has a plausible look, but it won't bear more than a passing inspection. Apply this as a rule and it is an easy matter to defeat the best and purest man that comes up as a candidate for office. All that is necessary to compass his defeat under such a rule is for a few personal enemies to open up their mud batteries and attempt to besmear his name or his record. It matters not that they fail as they have failed in the case of Senator Ferry) to make the mud stick, all that is necessary under this rule is to throw the mud. Now we earnestly object to the adoption of any such rule. No greater injustice can be done to any public man than to permit him to be misrepresented and maligned and defeated by reason of false accusations. It would be cowardly to stand by and see him beaten or pushed aside by such unfair means. It would not only be a gross injustice to him, but when it is well known that he is really the choice of the people the wrong is manifestly greater. It must be evident to all political observers by this time that the charges against Senator Ferry have not been sustained. He has been accused of immorality and drunkenness and the accusers are unable to prove the charge. Even so pronounced a partisan paper as the Grand Rapids Leader says: "It is evident that Mr. Ferry's friends are rather getting the better of his enemies in meeting the charges of immorality and drunkenness made against him." With eighteen years of public service at Washington it is strange that all these serious charges against Mr. Ferry should be withheld until now. If true why were not the facts known and proven long ago? Mr. Ferry is charged with having been put to bed drunk at the National Hotel at Washington. The proprietor of that hotel denies the charge emphatically and also certifies to the good character of Senator Ferry, who has been charged with immoral conduct at the same hotel. (See letter on second page of JOURNAL.) Now if all these charges are false, who says drop Ferry and pick up a new man, simply because such charges have been preferred? It would be manifestly unjust, to say the least.

The Michigan legislature convenes at Lansing on Wednesday, Jan. 3, 1883, at noon. On the 16th of January each house "shall openly, by a viva voce vote of each member present, name one person for senator in congress; and the name of the person so voted for, who shall have a majority of the whole number of votes cast shall be entered on the journal of each house. At 12 o'clock the next day both houses will meet in joint convention, and if it shall appear from the journals that the same person shall have received a majority of all the votes in each house, such person shall be declared elected senator for six years; but if the same person shall not have received a majority of the votes in each house, the joint convention shall then proceed to choose by a viva voce, (word of mouth) vote of each member present, a person for senator and the person having a majority of all the votes of the joint convention a majority of all the members elected to both houses being present and voting, shall be declared elected and in case no person shall receive such majority on the first day, the joint convention shall meet at 12 o'clock of each succeeding day during the session of the legislature, and take at least one vote until a senator shall be selected."

Gen. Beauregard "has written a book" and it is said that it gives Jeff Davis a severe drubbing. It was Gen. Beauregard who, during the war, wanted all abolition prisoners executed with the "garrote." The editor of the JOURNAL has in his possession a copy of the telegram Gen. Beauregard sent to that effect. It created a great sensation at the time and Gen. Beauregard was then regarded as one of the most inhumane confederate generals in the service. The general now seems to be as tame as the tamest.

The opposition papers and a few Republican papers hope to defeat Ferry by preventing the Republicans from holding a senatorial caucus. Anti-caucus is Anti-Republican, in this case.

JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

E. Hatch is home from East Saginaw to spend the holidays.

We shall have to "stop that paper" soon if not renewed.

Loren Henry, of the Greenville schools is home for the holidays.

L. K. Alger and Frank Alger arrived home from Dakota last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Chapman spend vacation with friends in Eaton Co.

C. A. Kniffin went to Mackinaw Monday to remain during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Rand of Grand Rapids are visiting Lowell friends.

S. G. Vining and wife of Lakeview have been making the Aveyrs of this place a visit.

D. Oliver, of the Model Mills, Grand Rapids, spent Christmas with his family here.

Editor Rose makes sundry marked improvements in the Grand Rapids Post.

Mr. & Mrs. E. A. Sunderlin and M. N. Hine and daughter Christmased at Pewamo.

J. W. Van Leeuwen of Grand Rapids is publishing a little weekly called "Our Yankee-Dutch."

A brighter society paper than the Detroit "Chaff" has not found its way to our heart.

New styles fancy job type just received at this office. Just the thing for cards, note heads, &c.

A fruitful Christmas tree at the Walker House made merry the hearts of the help in that hotel.

Abe Peck and Lute Gardner, of the Michigan University, are spending the holidays in Lowell.

Register of Probate Adolph Mason and wife, of Grand Rapids, spent Christmas with friends in Vergennes.

Miss Nora Kyp is visiting her mutual friends, Mrs. Clara Shaw and Miss Lizzie Robinson of this village.

W. B. Wyman, formerly of this town, now clerk in the Grand Trunk Railway office at Detroit, is home for the holidays.

A very acceptable Christmas gift was that of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bacon of this village. It weighs 84 pounds and is a girl.

Notice is hereby given that those boys must stop catching on sleighs in the streets of this village. By order of the Marshal.

Hon. Geo. M. Dewey of the Owosso Times is a candidate for Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate and he would make a good one.

A pleasant surprise occurred at the residence of R. W. Graham Monday, a report of which will appear in next week's JOURNAL, from one who was there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dawson of Fremont Center, this state, brought the remains of their little girl to this village for burial last Wednesday. The funeral was on Thursday.

Our tonsorial neighbor, Hiram Du Plant, returned from the east last week with a bride for his Christmas present. In the language of Jeff Joererson, "May they live long and prosper."

Christmas was celebrated Saturday evening at the M. E. and Congregational churches and Sunday evening at the Baptist Church. The trees were well laden with presents and happy childhood was there full of anticipation and joy. It pays.

A portion of the wedding feast prepared for Mr. & Mrs. L. D. Wood was kindly sent to the JOURNAL office, and pronounced most excellent by a committee of ladies who stole it from our sanctum. Such is an editor's life.

One of the most valuable presents plucked from the Christmas tree at the Baptist Church was a cash gift of $35, to Mr. and Mrs. S. Wait "from their friends." The worthy couple desire to express their heartfelt thanks to the donors and to wish them a very "Happy New Year."

After this week Mr. C. H. Kniffin will have charge of the local department of the JOURNAL. He will also have charge of the subscription list and books of the office. Subscribers and others owing the JOURNAL will oblige the publisher by making prompt payments to Mr. Kniffin.

"The Rose of Spring," a delightful polka composed by Prof. John Hoff and dedicated to Prof. Swensberg and students of the Grand Rapids Business College, has been received. The title page is embellished by the fair form and features of Miss Bertha Swensberg, daughter of the Professor.

The JOURNAL has received a copy of Farmer Reynolds' book of poems. There's many a little gem in the volume. The author wove the muse very successfully. "Lord Rupert and Lady Clyde" may be a trifle too Walt Whitmanish, and yet it is a genteel handling of a delicate theme compared to prose reports of similar experiences in life, seen daily in the columns of the press.

Dr. A. B. Grant of this village, assisted by Dr. Haskins of Alton, recently performed a surgical operation on Mrs. J. P. Parly which promises to give her permanent relief from a painful ailment of long standing.

London Bell Ringers at Grand Rapids to-morrow night.

Miss Deegan returns thanks for her little folks for a Christmas present.

Dr. Helen E. Deane of Grand Rapids took Christmas with Lowell friends.

Battle Creek has a paper called "The Nightly Moon." It must be a little Luna.

Mr. Fuller of Allegan county is visiting his sister Mrs. R. W. Graham of this village.

Mr. & Mrs. C. P. Wightman of Chicago are visiting Mr. W's sister, Mrs. C. Althen of this place.

The Ladies' Waits club give a party this evening at the rooms of Mrs. C. D. Hodges in Train's Hotel.

Home for the holidays: Miss Bessie West, from the Michigan University and Miss Orinda Barkley from Olivet College.

Mrs. A. S. Benjamin will give a temperance lecture at the M. E. Church in Keene Thursday evening, of this week, and at the Fallasburgh school house on Friday evening.

Baptist social Wednesday evening, at the residence of Mrs. Barkley. Fried cakes and coffee will be served. All are cordially invited.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. Owen's, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Subject for discussion, "History of the Womens Christian Temperance Union."

Old years sermon to the old next Sabbath morning; New years sermon to the young in the evening. S. S. concert postponed one week. At the Cong. Church.

Peter J. Coppens, formerly of this village, and Miss Emma Macdonald, of Grand Rapids, were married yesterday. It is the JOURNAL's judgment that each has won a prize. Heaven bless the union.

Christmas was celebrated at G. W. Crosby's, in Vergennes, by the marriage of Mr. Hiram Tallmadge, of Big Rapids, and Miss Marcia Francisco, of Grand Rapids; Rev. C. Oldfield, officiating. The bride is well known here and highly esteemed by all.

This is the last JOURNAL for 1882. We shall as early as possible, make out a new list of subscribers and it is important that all who desire to renew for 1883 do so now, if any present subscribers do not wish to take the JOURNAL, longer they will please notify us and their names will be dropped from the list. No subscriber in arrears is expected to order his paper discontinued until his subscription is paid in full. Of course no honest subscriber will ask that.

Christmas visitors here from abroad: Fred Wickham, of Windsor, Ont.; Miss Ethel Wickham, Ionia, Cap. J. M. Weatherax, Mr. & Mrs. D. Driscoll Stanton; Miss Mary Owen, Miss Emma Cook, Miss M. E. Dwight, Mrs. Adare Look, Mr. & Mrs. A. E. Bolt, Miss Pangborn, several Hodges, F. W. Hine and others from Grand Rapids; J. T. Headley, Henry Smith, Ada; Mrs. G. T. Hine, Pewamo; Mr. and Mrs. C. Crawford, Lewis Spaulding of Caledonia, and scores more whose names we have not.

The following young ladies will receive calls from their friends on Monday Jan. 1st, 1883, from two till five P. M. as follows: Miss Tillie Robinson, Belle Malcom, Annie Carby, Carrie Stiff, at the residence of F. B. Hine; Mary Deegan, Addie Young, Libbie Van Wagner, at the residence of Mrs. U. B. Williams; Bird Coleman, Elyda Young at Mrs. Wm. Coleman's; Jessie Stone, Belle Squire at the residence of Mr. C. G. Stone; Nettie Wilson, Mattie Walker at the Walker House.

H. J. S. Hooker, King—Thos. Daniels, Scribe—Ira Nash, Capt. H. C. G. Stone, P. S.—A. J. Hooker, E. A. C.—W. Wisner, G. M.—J. E. Lee, "—J. F. Ecker, "—H. G. B. Balcom, Treas.—C. F. Wooding, Secy.—H. Nash, Sentinel—S. T. Robinson, Chaplain—Thos. Daniels.

The new officers of Lowell Lodge, No. 90, P. & A. M. are as follows.

W. M.—J. Q. Look, S. W.—A. J. Hooker, J. W.—C. W. Wisner, Treas.—Chas. Althen, Secy.—H. Nash, F. D.—W. S. Barnes, J. D.—H. D. McWilliam, Tyler—S. T. Robinson, Stewards—J. C. Hare & B. G. Wilson.

Not a Candidate.

—Quite a number of state papers and many personal friends throughout the state have kindly nominated "Senator Jas. W. Hine for President pro tem. of the new Senate." While he appreciates the compliment thus bestowed he nevertheless feels it to be his duty to announce that he is not a candidate and desires to have it so understood. The President of the Senate, Lt. Gov. Crosby, being from Kent county, we do not feel that it would be just to choose the President pro tem from the same district. Let the compliment go to some more worthy member from some other district. There will be men of excellent ability and legislative experience in the Senate who can fill that position with credit. Kent county, although the most populous Senatorial district in the State, (and second to none in wealth and intelligence) does not ask for more than its just share of the "honors."

A reporter of the Grand Rapids Democrat softly chants thusly:

"The largest, liveliest and most growing town in Kent county outside of the Valley City is Lowell. Many new buildings and among them two fine brick blocks have been put up in this place during the past season. The streets are filled with conveyances, and trading houses are alive with business daily. It is the center of a fine farming country hence its growth and business prosperity. A large three story brick hotel has just been finished and furnished, and will be opened to the public by a grand party and supper Christmas evening."

And he is right.

Mail Routes to Let.

Proposals for carrying the mails from Lowell to Hastings and from Lowell to Grattan will be received at Washington up to Jan. 6, 1883. Bidders should mail their proposals not later than Jan. 31 in order to have them reach the department in due time.

That Wedding.

The wedding of Dr. & Mrs. L. D. Wood which occurred one week ago to day was a very pleasant affair. At about two o'clock the friends and relatives began to arrive and by three the parlors were filled with a large company who were anxiously awaiting the appearance of the bridal company. As Mrs. W. J. Webb was concluding Mendelssohn's wedding march the happy and elegantly attired couple entered the parlors preceded by the bridesmaid and groomsmen, Miss Ella Kopf and Mr. S. W. Taylor. The Rev. J. S. Valentine of Lansing was in a happy mind and tied the knot in a very pleasant and effective manner. After the usual congratulations, the serving of richly prepared viands and some choice music, the happy one (couple) left amid a profusion of handshaking and best wishes for their future prosperity. The presents were numerous and fine and showed the high esteem in which the newly wedded couple are held.

At present Dr. Wood is again at his professional duties where he will remain until Jan. 1st, when he will move to Grand Rapids and occupy the dental parlors of Dr. Thomas R. Perry, who retires from the practice. From a long and intimate acquaintance with the Dr. we take pleasure in saying that he is a young man of irrefragable character as well as of superior skill in his profession. Hence we bespeak for him a happy and prosperous career in his new field of labor.

This bride has always been a favorite where she is well known.

The Opening of Train's Hotel.

Train's Hotel was formally opened on Christmas. The house is a credit to the town and to the projector and proprietor. Most of the rooms are elegant, spacious and decidedly pleasant. The office, dining room, public sitting room and private parlors are especially fine, while the smaller rooms are all desirable. The house is furnished throughout in first-class style. There is no shoddy in any part of it. One very excellent feature is the water supply which is constant and serves the whole house. Take it all in all it is a first-class house such as is seldom found in towns of this size or even much larger. It ranks among the very first. "Mine host" C. D. Hodges has an efficient clerk in Mr. Pascal McCloud, recently from Windsor, who has had valuable hotel experience. The bar in the basement is kept by Mr. Spaulding of Caledonia. Efficient help has been secured for the dining room, kitchen, and general house work. Monday afternoon large crowds went through the house and all were loud in their praises of it. Hicks' Lowell Band played several spirited selections in front and then took a tour through the house.

Early in the evening the hotel was crowded with invited guests. All the rooms were thrown open and the guests were delighted at the arrangement, convenience and elegance of the same. Visitors were present from Grand Rapids, Ada, Caledonia, Ionia, Stanton, and many other towns. At 9 o'clock Mr. J. M. Mathewson delivered the opening address, which was listened to with marked attention by a large audience. The address was very appropriate and abounded in pleasant simile and poetic illustration. Following the address came the announcement "supper is ready." Several connoisseurs present affirmed that it was the finest collation it has ever been their good fortune to partake of. It would be difficult indeed to suggest any improvement in the bill of fare, the fare itself, or the manner in which it was served. About 300 persons were here delightfully feasted. In the drawing room mirth and music reigned supreme until a late hour, while at Train's Hall the light fantastic was being put through with the best heel and toe vigor in the market by about 150 couples. The event was one long to be remembered by the hundreds of participants. That Train's Hotel, second to few in the state, may be supported and sustained as it deserves is the wish of the general public.

Surprised.

Dec. 12th, being the 15th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Krum of Vergennes, their friends planned a surprise party for them which proved to be a very pleasant affair. They were invited out for the evening and numerous friends took possession of the house during their absence, put up a handsome hanging lamp and lighted it, and arranged the other presents in artistic style. Soon the house was filled with friends and "Ed." and "Temp." were sent for. They came and found six of the company in the kitchen awaiting their arrival. Ed. started for the parlor with an armful of wood, and just as he opened the door the light was turned on and in the presence of a parlor full of friends Ed. came very near throwing his armful of wood over his head. Order being restored Leander McLean made a few well chosen remarks in presenting the gifts which were a full set of glass ware (36 pieces), a beautiful silver and glass double pickle caster; several vases and a hanging lamp. The surprise was complete and Ed. allowed that something in his throat that temporarily interfered with his powers of speech. After refreshments were served (and the lay-out was fine) the company departed, voting it a success. The bride's cake was presented by Mrs. D. S. Blanding and it was just splendid. The worthy couple were serenaded by a party of charivari artists of the first school.
