Publisher's Announcement.
During my absence from home this winter the business affairs of the JOURNAL will be left in charge of Mr. CHAS. H. KNIFFS, the foreman, to whom all subscriptions and other dues to the JOURNAL may be paid. Mr. Kniff will also have charge of the local department of the JOURNAL and patrons are requested to send him all items of interest that may come to their knowledge. The publisher desires to make special request that all subscribers, and all other bills due, be paid promptly. Mr. Kniff will be ready to see the patrons of the JOURNAL at the office in Train's Hall Block, each week day, from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. Give him an early call.
Weekly editorial letters from Lansing may be expected in the JOURNAL during the winter and the writer will endeavor to make them interesting.
Very truly yours
Jas. W. Hine.

Married.—On Christmas Day 1882, at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. R. T. Wylie of Campbell, Mr. Friedrich Robbin of Caledonia and Miss Sarah A. Livingstone of Downe, Michigan.
Prof. G. B. Holmes the able elocutionist who is making a tour of Michigan cities will give an entertainment in this place Friday and Saturday evening, at Music Hall. He comes very highly recommended.
Rev. and Mrs. J. M. VanAntwerp desire to extend thanks to their many friends in Keene who so well remembered them on Christmas. The presents were a handsome quilt and a purse containing $21 in silver.
We are informed that on Christmas eve some articles from the tree at the Alton Church, left in the building for the night, were stolen by sneakthieves. Suspicion rests on certain parties who had better "look a leetle out" in the future.
Mrs. Hunt, the celebrated temperance lecturer who is speaking in most of our large places to crowded houses, is expected soon to speak in Lowell. Her lectures are said to be full of humor and instruction. She will without doubt give a fine entertainment and have a full house.
Frank Darby, of Campbell was shot in the back Christmas, and died soon afterwards. He was standing near a straw stack, where a young man was prodding for a rabbit with the butt of a gun, which accidentally discharged, killing Mr. D.
School Library No. 1, has been removed from the Union school building to Graham's block, third floor. The library will be open to the public from 4:30 to 5:30, P. M. and from 6:30 to 8 o'clock, P. M. on Saturday of each week.
Frank Benedict's little son Archie aged 8 years, of Fallasburgh, while scuffling at school last Thursday had the misfortune to break his right leg near the hip joint. Dr. Grant of Lowell was called and set the limb and he is quite comfortable. This should be a warning to boys not to scuffle too harshly while at play.
The Lowell Union Schools will open Monday next, Jan. 8th. Children and young folks enjoy to its full extent the balance of the week in play and recreation and next Monday morning, be ready to say good-bye play and welcome hard study. It remains with you, to a great extent, to make Lowell an A. No. 1 town in educational interests.
The Musical Union meets each Tuesday night, at the Baptist church. It has entered upon the study of a higher class of music than it has heretofore made use of, having commenced practice upon the operatic cantata, the Hay-makers. It will be a benefit to all singers to become regular attendants at each meeting.
A correspondent from Manton writes that on Sunday a tramp took possession of a vacant house in that vicinity and was ordered to leave by the owner but "held the fort" with a shot gun. The owner procured the assistance of five men. The tramp attempted to run but received five pistol shots in his back. He was taken to Manton in a bad condition and placed under arrest for house breaking.
What has become of our Musical entertainments? Lowell stands second to none, in fact, we have heard it rumored it is far ahead of most places of its size, in both quantity and quality of musical talent. We bear witness that delightful evenings have been spent in the past by lovers of music, at our musical soirees. Let us have more of them. The social season is now fully opened and promises to be, as is Lowell in all things, full of life, profit and entertainment. Let music be well represented.

Married.
On Thursday Dec. 28, 1882, at the residence of the bride's father in this village, Mr. Chas. P. Quick and Miss Theresa Crav were united in marriage by the Rev. J. M. Van Wagner. Only a few were present to witness the ceremony, which was admirably performed. After the wedding feast the bride and groom took the 4:45 train west to Grand Rapids thence to Chicago, and before returning will have visited various points of interest in Missouri. The worthy couple carry with them the congratulations of many friends who wish them a happy and prosperous career. They have entered a new life and as "life is what we make it" may their be full of usefulness and good cheer.

Sheriff Kinney has decided to appoint D. W. C. Burch, of Rockford, to a deputyship.
New Years day was a gay and happy day in Lowell. Many places of business were closed for part of the day. All vied with each other to take to themselves the full pleasures of the opening of the New-Year. About fifty of our gentlemen spent the P. M. in making New-Year's calls. The following ladies received. At Mrs. F. B. Hine's; Mrs. F. R. Hine, Mrs. C. C. Hazel, Miss Tillie Robinson, Miss Carrie Stiff, Miss Belle Malcolm and Miss Annie Carby. At Mrs. G. W. Parker's; the Misses Ella and Lettie Robinson, Miss Emma Lamb, Miss Mattie Althen, Miss Millie Keyes and Miss Mattie Perrin. At the Walker House; Miss Mattie Walker and Miss Nettie Wilson. At Train's Hotel; Mrs. C. D. Hodges, Mrs. Will Perrin, Mrs. J. S. Douglall, Mrs. C. Althen, Mrs. G. W. Parker, Mrs. W. E. Keyes and Mrs. C. J. Sweet. At Mrs. U. B. Williams'; Miss Mary Deegan and Miss Libbie Van Wagner. At Mrs. C. G. Stone's; Miss Jessie Stone, Miss Belle Squire and Miss Annie Maynard. At Mrs. S. C. Bradford's; Mrs. S. C. Bradford, Mrs. R. J. Enos, Mrs. H. Mitchell, Mrs. Wm. Edie and Mrs. E. A. Sunderlin. At Mrs. F. King's; Mrs. F. King, Jr., Mrs. A. Stone, Mrs. R. Bostwick and Miss Mary Owen. At Mrs. C. T. Wooding's; Mrs. C. T. Wooding, Mrs. M. C. Barber, Mrs. Danforth, Mrs. W. J. Medler, Mrs. C. D. Pease, Mrs. O. C. McDannell. At Mrs. O. A. Robinson's; Mrs. Clara Shaw, Miss Lizzie Robinson, Miss Clark and Miss Nora Kipp. The calls were complete with warmth, music and refreshments (no wine—Lowell ladies can spread the best lunch in the world without that.) In the evening the friends met for an impromptu social gathering at Train's Hotel, where, with visiting and mirth, merry hearts and nimble feet danced the Happy-New-Year-day out. Another New-Year Day is coming—a year that divides by 4. The tables will then turn and in due time, will be glad to publish the names of all gentlemen who will receive.
—Before election it was generally conceded that a large majority of the Republicans of Michigan desired that Senator Ferry should be returned to the United States Senate. After election it was almost universally conceded that a large majority of the Republican members elect of the legislature were in favor of Mr. Ferry's re-election. At the polls the people expressed their choice by voting for such candidates as were favorable to their choice. Since then the people have not been heard from. They have had no opportunity to speak since election. So far as the people are concerned they did their duty when they voted to the polls and voted. They voted for such men as they thought would best represent their wishes and the public good. They now have a right to expect that the members of the legislature shall be faithful to their trusts and honest in the fulfillment of their pledges or instructions. They have a right to expect and do expect that their chosen representatives will, so far as they are able, carry out the wishes of their constituents. Any contrary action is a violation of good faith. The Detroit Post and Tribune, (Anti-Ferry but not Anti-Detroit) says it is the duty of the members of the legislature, in choosing a United States Senator, to represent the whole state and not merely their respective districts. Let us ask the wise scribe who delivered himself of that sparkling gem how the choice of the Republicans of Michigan can better be ascertained than by hearing from each district through its chosen representative? The Post and Tribune not long since very sensibly remarked that "the Republican members of Legislature were competent to settle the Senatorial question in the usual way" but now that paper is doing its utmost to prevent their setting the Senatorial question in the usual way. The efforts being put forth to defeat the will of the majority are not in the interest of the Republican party. If a majority of the Republican legislators are in favor of Mr. Ferry's return he ought to be returned and the caucus is the place to settle the question.

DIRGE OF 1882.
For the Lowell Journal.
Hark! the midnight bell is tolling; Heaven's gate hath open wide,
As the stars with torches golden only wait to stand aside
Seeing down the vaulted distance coming in his winter shroud,
Weathered in Autumn leaves of glory, "Father Time" his head has bowed,
Folded hands are meekly holding, Summers' tresses, ripened grain,
And the Spring bends o'er him weeping tears in frosted rain,
Little children look and wonder, why at Christmas time, he died,
And they lay their wreaths of holly with bright berries at his side,
As the seasons four in number bear him on with measured tread,
Moaning breezes chant above him solemn requiem for the dead,
The morning bends in benediction, Eighty Two has passed away,
And the dirge is turned to gladness bearing forth the new-born day,
All the glories ring and triumphant; merry greetings meet the ear,
As the New Year forward presses, to the tables filled with cheer,
Quaffs the cup, so full of pleasure, bubbling o'er with youth and mirth,
Bowling low in adoration; toast the day that gave Him birth.

CHRISTMAS REUNION.
For some time W. S. Fuller, of Grattan, has worked and planned to meet his children at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham of Lowell, his eldest daughter, at merry Christmas time. There were present at this happy reunion of father and children, four daughters and one son; Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Elkins of Grattan, Mr. and Mrs. Inman Smith of Rockford, Mr. Carlos Fuller and wife, with host and hostess, also twelve grand children. In the meantime Mr. Fuller had prepared a "Paternal Memorial" for each child, comprising a poem of one hundred lines written by A. H. Stoddard, of Kalamazoo for this occasion, printed at the JOURNAL office, surmounted by a photograph of Father and Mother, (Mrs. Fuller laid down her life-work a few years ago, and resting from her labors, her works do follow her) then placed in a frame by E. A. Chapman. In the absence of Mr. Stoddard, Mrs. M. A. Lessiter of Grattan was chosen to make the presentation. Not one of the children had the least knowledge of what was coming until the "Memorial" was placed in their hands. Ah! my readers it was a scene any artist might be proud to depict. The circle of children—seldom all together—headed by the toilworn, yet ever affectionate father, gazing spell bound on their precious gift, which recalled their childhood's home, and many fond remembrances, mingling their tears of joy and surprise.
Over one hundred dollars' worth of presents were exchanged by the different families represented there, but not one bore the value of this sacred relic—Mr. and Mrs. Graham, made each guest welcome in their hospitable and pleasant home. The dinner reflected a great deal of credit on our hostess, showing her skill and painstaking. We would there were more such happy gatherings, more reuniting and cement of family affections, on this day of "Peace on earth and good will to men."
