LOWELL JOURNAL

JAS. W. HINE, EDITOR.

Publisher's Announcement.
During my absence from home this winter the business affairs of the JOURNAL will be left in charge of Mr. CHAS. H. KRIFER, the foreman, to whom all subscriptions and other dues to the JOURNAL may be paid. Mr. Krifer will also have charge of the local department of the JOURNAL and patrons are requested to send him all items of interest that may come to their knowledge. The publisher desires to make special request that all subscriptions, and all other bills due, be paid promptly. Mr. Krifer will be ready to see the patrons of the JOURNAL at the office in TRAIN'S HALL BLOCK, each week day, from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. Give him an early call.
Weekly editorial letters from Lansing may be expected in the JOURNAL during the winter and the writer will endeavor to make them interesting.
Very truly yours,
Jas. W. Hine.

Republican Nominations.

JOSEPH C. JONES, of Saginaw Co., To Fill Vacancy.

Lansing Letters.

Both houses of the Legislature have behaved very well since I last wrote you. I think they ought to be marked "100" for diligence and general deportment. A large amount of business has been disposed of within the past ten days and the members manifest a disposition to keep on threshing until the big stack of bills before them are pouched out and put where they belong. A large majority of the bills passed thus far are local bills—city and village charters, &c. There is more of this kind of legislation than is necessary, as there is a general law under which cities and villages may be incorporated, framed for the purpose of preventing the introduction of so many special charter bills. But nearly every village wants a charter a little different from any other charter and the consequence is many imperfect charters which the next legislature will be called upon to amend. Probably one third of the time of the legislature is spent in wrestling with charter bills.

Last week Lansing was extensively lobbied. Railroad managers, representing all the main lines in the State, were here looking after their interests. There are several railroad bills before the legislature which the railroad men would not like to see passed. One is a Senate bill regulating freights so as to allow small stations lower rates than they are now able to obtain. The discrimination in freights between stations on competing lines and stations on non-competing lines, or towns having only one railroad, is oftentimes unjust, and works injury to the latter. Mr. Train also introduced a bill requiring railroad companies to make good all shortages in the shipments of wheat, i. e.—compelling them to make good all leakages enroute from place of delivery, etc. The railroad men oppose this bill—some of its provisions at least. In addition to the Railroad managers there were many insurance men here last week looking after certain bills affecting their interests. There was a big convention of hotel keepers held here. The hotel men want better protection against dead-beats and they ought to have it. As present they have no protection at all, except what they furnish themselves. They want a law that will send a man to jail for 90 days or make him pay a fine of $100, or both, for jumping his board bill or otherwise defrauding hotels. If this bill passes it will drive lots of people to the free lunch counter who now slide into first-class hotels for their provender. Among the insurance men were many in the interest of mutual companies. And there seems to be a mutual feeling between the Mutuals and many members of the legislature.

Very little "politics" is talked here, although it seems to be generally understood that the spring elections are close at hand. The Demo-greenback state central committees are busy and expect to "stall-hunt" a successful campaign. They will do their best to get out a full fusion vote and are confident that the Republicans will be able to poll anywhere near the full vote of their party this spring. This may be true but let us hope not. The Republicans can elect their state ticket this spring if they do their duty at the polls. If they stay at home they can't. The fusionists expect to see a very light Republican vote and therefore expect to win a fusion victory. A few days will tell the story.

Socially Lansing is a very pleasant city but it is not a commercial point of very great importance. It is a nice, quiet place for retired country editors and other distinguished persons of wealth and station to reside in, but it is not the town for a young man to grow up with unless the young man has a rich father or a bank account to draw on. I don't mean by this that it is unlike many other old settled towns in this respect, but I do mean that there are to many young men here to prosper. The state departments are crowded with clerks who, if they stay here in their present positions for 50 years, will never have enough money ahead to buy a home with.

I have omitted to mention the change in the Lansing Journal management. Mr. L. E. Rowley of Ionia Standard has purchased the Journal of Col. Sanford and has already very materially bettered its appearance and contents. Rowley is one of the keenest journalists in the state and he is ably assisted by F. H. Spencer, of Sarnac, who is also very skillful and happy with the pen. The Democracy of Lansing will find the Journal a paper worthy their most cordial support under its present management.

JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

Read Howard and Pease's new ad. Saturday was the finest day of the season.
O. W. Stone made Lowell folks a visit last week.
E. J. Booth of Grand Rapids was in town last week.
Remember the band boy's party Friday eve, March 30th.
Val. Kraft has a change of ad. this week.
The water is again on the rise but it won't get very high.
G. W. Hatch of Grand Rapids was in town one day last week.
Dr. J. H. Smith of Pontiac formerly of this village was in town "the other day."

South Side.

We are having a genuine old blizzard which has congealed nearly all the news.
Our Sabbath school flourishes in spite of all obstacles, owing mainly to the indomitable energy of Mr. Van Wagner, who has never failed to be present, unless duly called elsewhere. About 6 weeks ago he proposed we should raise money to purchase an organ; all acceded to the proposal at once. He procured a good second-hand cabinet organ for twenty dollars. Mr. Devendorf has put it in first-class order for $5. We have paid for the organ and repairs and have a surplus left toward papers, etc. "and now music's dulcet strains charm the listening ear," as we assemble weekly to worship in the school house on the hill. The young people and older ones too will please remember their engagement to this week; it is a sup—Hush! There, I didn't tell. But don't forget the children's social this week. Where?
G. W. Imo.

Neighborhood News.

Elmer Adams is visiting friends in this vicinity.
Mrs. Richardson is slowly recovering from her recent illness.
Livingston & Blough are conducting a first class meat market.
Freeport merchants are now filling up with new, fresh stock of goods.
Francis Withey, of Carlton has exchanged farms with a Mr. Newton, 5 miles west of Hastings, and will move there soon.
Mr. S. Wolcott is moving into his new house this week. He intends to materially improve his village property the coming summer.
Simon Hoffebower, of Carlton, has an attack of the western fever. Probably a short sojourn in Dakota, Oregon or some other Territory, is the only remedy that will ever help him.

A boy of Lewisville, of Bowne, aged seven years, broke his arm last Thursday, while climbing a fence. Dr. DeVore is attending and reports the little fellow as doing well.
Mr. John Walton met with quite a surprise while driving home from Freeport on Saturday of last week. Starting out with the intention of driving home in about two minutes, as usual, he stopped when he reached the corner and hid under the sleigh-box. Fortunately he was near by. Mr. Walton was soon extricated from his uncomfortable position without injury to himself or team.

It's a young Republican but he can't vote for 21 years yet.
Mrs. Jared Spring died on Tuesday the 18th inst. aged about 70 years. Funeral services were held at Rockford the 19th.
Chas. Haines Sen. lies in a very low condition.
A large number of Grangers gathered at the new Grange Hall on Thursday last and then sent for Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Hoag under a false pretext. To their utter surprise they were ushered into the presence of about 50 or 60 guests and made Mine Host. A copy of Bryan's poems was presented Mrs. H. A good time of course was enjoyed by all.
Mr. Ephraim Mills gave a general invitation to the lovers of the light festival to meet at his house last Friday eve, in honor of his son Eber. It is needless to say a good time was enjoyed.

The township republican committee request the republican electors of the township of Cannon to meet in caucus at Schoemaker hall on Friday, March 23 for the purpose of nominating officers of the township for the coming year. Let there be a good turnout and a strong republican ticket in the field.

VERGENNES VISITOR.
Mr. & Mrs. Hiram Tallmadge, of Big Rapids are visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Crosby.
Miss Martha Shepard of St. Clair Co., is spending several weeks with her sister Mrs. N. Collier.
Mr. Wm. Robinson has had the misfortune to lose one of his horses.
W. L. Merriman has sold nine head of fat cattle to Foreman & Aldrich of Lowell, for six cts. per lb. live weight.
About forty of the young people of Vergennes and Lowell surprised Mr. & Mrs. G. W. Crosby Tuesday evening of last week, by entering their house (un-expectedly) bringing music and all the goodies for a sumptuous feast. They had a right merry time, and tripped the light fantastic until the wee sma' hours. They brought a peace offering for their intrusion, a beautiful book for Mrs. Crosby and a large oil chromo in a nice gilt frame, of President Garfield, for Mr. Crosby.

Grattan Gatherings.

Messrs. M. & B. Friar, of Berlin, Ottawa Co., were visiting friends here last week. They are doing an extensive business in farming, stock buying and hotel-keeping.
H. Canfield cut and split four cords of stove wood, in one day recently.
Mrs. J. R. Trask has been visiting the old home friends of Berlin.
Mr. Compositor: You changed the name "Wid." to "Zed," last week. We know you did it all in kindness thinking we meant "Zed" Howe, but "Wid" Howe, is the right man. Both these gentlemen are musicians.
A. A. Weeks, Sheriff visited Reed City and several other cities north, last week, in hopes of finding a certain for resident, or at least frequent visitor here, who is wanted to fulfill important promises. His place of concealment is as yet undisclosed.
The latest sensation which called out about 100 of our social, warmhearted people in Grattan, Vergennes and Otisco occurred March 14, at the residence of Charles Francisco, at which time Mr. & Mrs. John White of Grattan Center were quietly invited to meet a few family friends. The "family" proved unexpectedly large, which caused a good deal of merriment. When order was called, John was informed by L. K. Alger of Vergennes—who knows so well how to talk to old friends—that this was the 49th anniversary of his birth, and himself and wife must take the consequences, also the following articles, as tokens of esteem from assembled friends: Very fine Waltham silver watch, from "father and three sisters" silver thimble from "Niece" silver spoonholder containing $13.00 in silver, and lastly an ax helve, inscribed "The Widdower's Mite, to John R. White." The friends were next asked to tend their aid in easing the overlaid tables, and when departing time came, we all thought the days were altogether too short yet. It is well to add that Mrs. White, Mrs. Francisco and Mrs. W. Ford, mentioned below are sisters.
In absence of the Alton correspondent, "Man" will report the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Ford, which took place Feb. 23, at their home near Alton. Seventy friends were witnesses of their surprise, and in whose name C. M. Sleyton of Grattan presented these articles in silverware: watch for Mr. F., "correct time keeper," very fine castor, from "three sons" twelve teaspoons and three table spoons and a hanging lamp, from "father and sisters." Of course the tables were well equipped for replenishing the inner man and the usual happiness prevailed. These reunions wear away the crusts of selfishness, expand the heart, and give us glimpses of the great gathering to be in the Beautiful City.—The Land more fair than the setting sun—Whose silver streamlets clearly run—where partings are all unknown. MATD.

Mr. C. S. Eastman of Johnston, Calhoun county, it is reported, fell while carrying a revolver in his pocket last week, the jar discharging the pistol and sending the ball through his thigh.
Tuesday, in Jackson, John Sherman had his hand drawn into a planer, when the knives went clear up to the palm. The thumb and one joint of the little finger will be saved.
Monday afternoon a cast iron yoke which supports one of the truss rods of the roof of the new Smith millings purifier mill in Jackson, broke, and a portion of the roof fell, injuring two workmen, neither of them seriously.

At Smith brothers' camp, near West Branch, Tuesday, David Small was instantly killed by a falling tree, which struck and rebounded from another. He was 23 years of age, unmarried, and his parents live near Kincaidline Out.
The Nevada Indians soak wheat in whisky and scatter it on the ground where the quail eat it, get as drunk as a Democratic ward caucus, and are easily picked up. In these parts a similar practice prevails; a great deal of whisky is used in hunting of quail, but the poor birds get none of it.

A Hamburg correspondent writes that the divers who have been down into the steamship Cimbric report that there are over 300 corpses in the wrecked vessel in every imaginable attitude of sudden agony; the action of the water caused it to sway to and fro in a most ghastly manner so that the scene is one of inconceivable horror.
The law passed by the late congress forbidding the importation of adulterated tea is a good thing for the people as about a quarter of the 80,000,000 pounds of tea we buy each year is principally weeds and is frequently sold for 4 or 5 cents a pound to dealers in the country who sell it again for 40, 50, or 75 cents a pound. A man thinks because he pays a good price he should get good tea; but he does not always do it.

ALL PERSONS indebted to C. C. Hazel or the late firm of H. B. Church & Co. are hereby notified that the accounts of said firms are in the hands of H. B. Church for collection: You will please call and settle without delay, at H. B. Church's Boot and shoe store, on the bridge.
H. B. Church.
For the next 60 days I will sell my entire stock of furniture at cost. Those desiring furniture will do well to call and examine my stock.

My friend Laura found it pleasant to be in the pale, because she is not strikingly beautiful, and in appearance she was slowly fading away...

"The fact is," said the doctor, "that tight lacing is rarely carried to an injurious extent nowadays, and late hours by women are usually followed by plenty of sleep..."

"How do you sleep?" he asked. "Splendidly," she replied, "nine or ten hours without a dream; but when I wake I have a dreadful headache."

"What is your room like?" "I had the prettiest and most comfortable room, and I enjoyed it very much..."

"I always sleep that way," said Laura; "I cover my head when I get into bed, and it stays so all night."

"Probably that causes all the trouble," said the doctor. "You manage to ventilate your room properly, and then manage to breathe vitiated air for eight or ten hours every night..."

THE REWARD OF MERIT. How a Heroic Detroit Fireman Was Compensated for Loss Sustained in Gallantry.

Phil Epper, the hero of the fire in the Telegraph Block, Detroit, finds himself in a most embarrassing position, and, being a diffident youth, don't know how to get out of it...

It was with a sorrowful face that Phil said to a Free Press reporter the next day...

A Ceremony of the Zuni Sun Festival.

Mr. Cushing's second paper on "My Adventures in Zuni," is a strong illustration of the Zuni Sun Festival...

As we entered the closely crowded, spacious room into which the first party of dancers had retired, a space was being cleared lengthwise through the center, from the altar down toward the opposite end...

Many of the dishes were placed before the dancers and priests and a group of singers whose nearly nude bodies were grotesquely painted with streaks and daubs of white...

When the little fire-god took his place in the center of the room, no one relieved him for more than an hour and a half, and I feared momentarily that he would drop from sheer exhaustion...

Just as the morning star was rising, the music ceased, and the congregation became silent, and the chief dancer was led to the center of the room...
