LOWELL JOURNAL
JAS. W. HINE, EDITOR.

JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

Mrs. W. E. Keyes has returned to Stanton.
Chas. F. Cobb, of Grand Rapids, in town Friday.
M. M. Perry, was at Grand Rapids Wednesday last.
Have you taken down your sitting room stove yet?
L. D. Sumnerland, of Pawama, was in town Monday.
L. P. Brock, of the Iron National, has been "tied for life" to a female woman.
H. W. Beecher—not the Brooklyn divine, but of Grand Rapids—was in town Friday.
Ira Slade, of Birmingham, mayor and lumber dealer of that place, was in town Friday.
Claire Tucker has accepted a position with Voight Herpolsheimer & Co. of Grand Rapids.
A little "racket" was indulged in by Frank Shepard and W. A. Harrington one evening last week.
J. W. Crothers, of Detroit, proprietor of the new dry goods store in the Jones block, is in town.
Our bright cotemporary—the Grand Rapids Times—has reached its fourteenth year of existence.
Winter must have been fooling around "gentle Spring," and the latter has turned towards us a cold shoulder.
C. C. Hazel, formerly of Lowell, is "on the road" for Geo. W. Weber, wholesale boot and shoe dealer of Chicago.
Grand Rapids is about to have revenge on its sister towns by sending out a dramatic minstrel company, numbering sixty people.
W. C. Durant representing Geo. T. Warren & Co. of Flint, was in town Saturday and has our thanks for some very fine "Warren" cigars.
F. D. Waldron, of the Grand Rapids Democrat, made us a call Saturday. He informs us that the Democrat's circulation is increasing rapidly.
Two "royal bloods" were showing to what extent they could exhibit their pool-playing faculties, by playing pool for $10 a game on Monday evening.
The prospect for a grand time at the celebration of the 64th anniversary of Oddfellowship, which occurs at Grand Rapids to-morrow, are very encouraging.
It having been neglected at the time, we are now required to notice the death of Asa B. Osborne who died in Lowell township, Feb. 4, aged 25 years, 1 month and ten days.
Rev. S. E. Buser formerly pastor of the Congregational church of Lowell, but now of Lodi, Ill., will deliver a lecture at Train's hall, Wednesday evening, May 2. Subject—"Homes of America."
The State Convention of anti-Masons was held at Grand Rapids last week beginning with Tuesday. The fanatics of this strange idea seem wise in their movements but the result of their efforts, will be the same as years ago.
The 70th anniversary of the birth of Mr. Sylvester Hodge, father of the genial host of Train's hotel, was celebrated at the residence of the former on Monday. Friends and relatives from Grand Rapids were present and an enjoyable time had. A handsome easy chair was presented to the aged father and counselor.
We will say a good word, in connection with one not so good, for the Democrat of Grand Rapids. It is a good, lively local paper, but it steals entire items of news appearing in the JOURNAL. We will again repeat that if items are worthy of reproduction, they are worthy of credit and we demand that articles taken from the JOURNAL be credited.
On Saturday last, while Will Snider, of Athens's clothing store, was engaged in serving a customer, he noticed a young fellow hanging around the store. Keeping an eye on him, Will soon noticed the latter take a hat and start out doors. Speaking to his customer, Will followed him. The fellow made the turn by Train's hotel and went back through the alley. When in the rear of the clothing store, Will halted him, when the fellow paid for the hat and went "on his way rejoicing."
The way it looks now there is a probability that a railroad is to be built very soon from Battle Creek to Lowell. In case that road should be built there is scarcely a doubt but that it will be continued in a northeast direction through Smyrna, Belding, Stanton, Elm Hall and so on to Bay City. It would undoubtedly pay as well as any road in the State of Michigan. The lumber freight that would be given by this county alone would be sufficient to keep it loaded with business for twenty five years. If Stanton is ever to have a competing road it would be wise for our citizens to keep a sharp lookout on this project. The way they are moving in the matter along the line between Lowell and Battle Creek, it has a very promising outlook.—Montclair Herald.

Gus Jacobson was at Grand Rapids Sunday.
Jud, and H. West have returned from Florida.
W. C. Booth, of Grand Rapids, spent Sunday at Lowell.
Gov. Bogie has issued six pardons thus far this month.
The Cobleskill Courier is one of our prettiest and newest exchanges.
Frank Crawford, of Grand Rapids, was in town Thursday on business.
Wm. Ware, attorney-at-law of Kalamazoo, was at Train's hotel Thursday.
Another railroad would give Lowell three times its present population.
J. P. Murray and O. M. Coates have rented the Wilson backsmith shop.
Mrs. Jacob Hocker, of Lyons, N.Y., is visiting her daughter Mrs. Chas. Aitken.
Will the "oldest inhabitant please enlighten us as to the kind of weather we are to have.
John Giles & Co. have shipped since Jan. 1, eighteen car loads of potatoes aggregating 10,800 bushels.
The Hastings Banner copies a column of Mr. Dodge's article which appeared in the JOURNAL recently.
Paul W. Frederick and A. E. Bolt, of Grand Rapids, made the JOURNAL office a pleasant call Thursday.
The spring cleaning given our streets, under the supervision of the marshal, gives them a clean and neat appearance.
The Grand Rapids Furniture Company's factory burned to the ground Sunday night. Loss $40,000. Insured for $26,000.
Married—at the residence of Robt. Hunter, Saturday April 21st, Simon Adams and Lissie Hennessy, both of Canupell.
In taking items from the JOURNAL we wish the Saravate Local would credit them. "Stealing" articles from any paper is not creditable to any journal.
Prof. R. A. Wellenstein, of Grand Rapids, was in town Thursday, making arrangements to treat Lowell people to a concert in the near future.
The first snow of the present winter fell the first of November, and Monday a light fall was noticeable. This gives us six months of cold winter.
M. Lyon has purchased the vacant lot east of the Jones block, and will commence at once the erection of a fine new block. This is just what should be done.
It is time to consider the feasibility of observing decoration ceremonies—providing the weather becomes warm enough so that artificial flowers will not have to be used.
We have received from the U. S. war department a copy of the Report of Michigan Forest Fires of 1881, which shows a total loss by that destructive element of $2,003,300.
The Hastings Home Journal copies Mr. E. W. Dodge's article from the JOURNAL, without giving due credit. This idea of stealing articles don't "wash" with us. If articles are worthy of reproduction they are worthy of credit.
If the B. & L. railroad should be built as prophesied by Mr. Willis in his letter, in another column, Lowell being about the center of the route, would have a chance of securing the car shops, which would add at least 1,000 to our population.
One of the tables at Train's hotel contains around its sides seven very queer borders. Not one of the seven can be induced to eat any salt upon their food. The reason, though is very easily explained: One of the salt dishes contains epsom salts, and they are all afraid of getting that particular dish.
The list of umpires for the Northwestern base ball league for 1883, is as follows: A. L. Foote, Fort Wayne; R. Webb, Fort Wayne; F. X. Brandecker, Chicago; O. Tilden, Brockton, Mass.; G. W. Burnham, Detroit; John Ryan, Saginaw; J. H. Morrissey, Janesville, Wis.; Chas. Naylor, Jackson, Mich.; John McKeeon, Grand Rapids; W. S. Walker, Ionia; J. O. Blackburn, Grand Rapids; E. P. Thayer, Grand Rapids; E. S. Hengel, Chicago; T. H. Webster, Springfield; J. M. Hurley, Peoria; D. Sullivan, Chicago; G. Bradley, Cleveland; B. F. Young, Cleveland; R. McNichols, Bridgeport, O.; Jas. Conley, Quincy; A. Dyke, Quincy; Jno. Bichelhaupt, Quincy; Benj. Tutthill, Saginaw.
Sen. Hine is on the right track. We never could see any sense in the State Legislature's grinding away so long when half the time ordinarily consumed would be sufficient. Tuesday senator Hine offered a resolution against granting leave of absence to members except on account of sickness or legislative business, and against adjournments except from day to day and from Saturday to Monday, which was promptly voted down. He then offered a resolution to open the daily session at 9, instead of 10 o'clock, which was also voted down with corresponding celerity. The people are becoming pretty thoroughly disgusted with the gradual lengthening of the legislative sessions, and it will not be very long before a halt is called.—Eaton Rapids Journal.

Dr. McLannell has been appointed health officer.
L. Spaulding of Caledonia, was in town Monday.
L. D. Webster, of Reed City, was at Train's hotel Saturday.
Little Charlie Gilfoil died very suddenly Saturday night.
Hastings has great hopes of securing the B. & L. Railroad.
A new barn 30x100 feet is being erected in rear of Train's hotel.
E. Collar is about to erect a new residence on Washington street.
The Belding Star, Vol. 1, No. 8, a neat looking sheet is on our table.
W. W. Cole's circus will visit Lowell during the coming summer.
Len Hunt is preparing to put about $500 worth of repairs on his residence.
Prospects for prosperity everywhere were never more encouraging than now.
Chas. Bush is building a barn 22x30 on his place in the rear of JOURNAL office.
Mr. C. D. Hodge expects to make a sale of four of his best horses at Grand Rapids to-day.
C. D. Hodge has engaged in buying and selling horses. He has some very fine stock now.
A gentleman from Greenville will, it is reported, put a bazar store in the bank block soon.
J. Winger has shipped since Jan. 1, 6,000 bushels of potatoes; Chas. McCarty, 1,800 bushels.
Mrs. B. R. Noble and son, Charlie, of Lexington, Mich. are spending a few days with Lowell friends.
Mr. L. P. Eddy, the popular Grand Rapids bartender, will assist in Prof. Wellenstein's concert.
A. St. Clair has the brick on the ground preparatory to erecting a new brick dwelling on Water street.
The Boston Store—dry goods and clothing—will occupy a space in the JOURNAL next week, offering bargains.
Miss Belle Kniffin, of this village, is still on the sick list, and will soon go north to the popular resorts, to regain her health.
Miss Ella Winger, daughter of C. C. Winger, Esq., has gone to South Butler, N. Y., to spend the summer with friends.
The Weatherwax store will be removed from Lowell this week or next to Stanton, both of the present clerks being retained.
Do not let your enthusiasm wane. We want another railroad, and now that the opportunity is offered, let us put forth every effort to secure it.
We shall endeavor hereafter to be on time with the JOURNAL, but our working force has been light this week and we have been considerably rushed with job work.
The sale of reserved seats for Prof. Wellenstein's popular concert at Train's hall, Friday evening, May 4, will begin at the post office and at F. D. Eddy's, on Tuesday, May 1st.
Correspondents whose items do not appear this week may wonder why, and we will explain: No items of the nature of correspondence will be published if received later than Monday noon.
Considerable bad blood was spilled near Pat Kelly's saloon on Monday, if we may be allowed to judge from blood spots on the sidewalk, etc. A "long John," from some where was parading the streets during the day, with a navy revolver fastened to his belt. It is told to us that he went into Kelly's place for a row and was politely thrown through the window. Another party was "spolling for a racket" and someone gave him a "send-off" that made his mouth look as though he had been wrestling with a double-jointed, back action, 4-horse power mule.
Following is a list of jurors for the May term of the Kent county circuit court: Anthony Butts, seventh ward; Lore M. Page, Fifth ward; Wm. H. Calkins, Second ward; S. W. Osterhout, Third ward; David Lankester, First ward; John H. Jones, Sixth ward; Grand Rapids city: A. A. Wilson, Walker; Geo. H. Godfrey, Vergennes; Thos. Hirst, Byron; J. K. Kilburn, Grattan; Harman D. Streeter, Nelson; Andrew Stout, Courtland; Wm. Mishlen, Bowne; Edgar Chase, Tyrone; Peter McLean, Ada; Wm. Wykes, Paris; Barzillai B. Roy, Cannon; Calvin Church, Sparta; H. G. Holt, Cascade; C. Daniels, Fourth ward; O. B. McClure, Spencer; Ephraim Hatch, Lowell.

Mrs. Nellie Mosher is to teach in the Rosenburgher district.
Mrs. Nellie Mosher and Miss Emma Lamb attended the meeting of the teachers' association, at Saranac Saturday.
The LOWELL JOURNAL looks brighter than ever under the sub-direction of Nathan A. Cole. The "new broom sweeps clean." May it continue to do so.—Grand Rapids Democrat.
James L. Hodge and wife and O. S. Hodge and wife, of Grand Rapids, were in attendance at the celebration of the 70th anniversary of the birth of Sylvester Hodge, father of the two gentlemen.
At a recent meeting of Lowell Lodge, No. 90, F. & A. M., the following was adopted: Whereas, the messenger of Death has again knocked at the door of our lodge and summoned to the portals of everlasting life one of our worthy and much-respected brothers, who, during his life, from youth to manhood, was well-known and highly respected as a business man and citizen. Daniel Driscoll was made a Mason in Lowell Lodge, No. 90, of which he has always remained a worthy member. He was initiated as an E. A. January 30; passed to the degree of F. C. April 30, and made a M. M. June 4, 1872. Resolved, That we tender our sympathies to the bereaved family and friends of the deceased; that we drape our lodge in mourning in memory of our beloved brother; that these resolutions be spread on the records of our lodge; that a copy be presented to the family of the deceased; and that a copy be published in the LOWELL JOURNAL.

B. C. & L. R. R.

The following letter from Hon. H. Willis, of Battle Creek, relating to the proposed Battle Creek and Lowell line, was received by Mr. E. W. Dodge, and by him given to us for publication. It is so full of good sense, we know Mr. W. will take no offense to its publication: BATTLE CREEK, April 20, 1883. E. W. DODGE, Esq., Dear Sir:—There is every inducement which prozeptive travel and freightage can offer, for Battle Creek to make railroad connection with Lowell, via Hastings, or at least for these places to unite in securing a Grand Trunk branch to this city. As soon as the Ohio & Mansfield road is completed, we can reach Cleveland and Pittsburgh 57 miles nearer than by any other route. It brings us 123 miles nearer Washington, 131 miles nearer Baltimore, 96 miles nearer Philadelphia, 92 miles nearer New York. With our new road complete, you can board the cars at Lowell and go over adirect route to Chicago, without change. Again, on the item of farm products, markets are opened on a line of cities of great importance, in a south-eastern direction to the sea-board. All of these cities are demanding everything which the farmer can offer. In this south eastern direction you traverse a portion of Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania Maryland and Delaware and directly reaching markets of Toledo, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Washington, Norfolk and a score of cities in every direction, which will pour into the lap of Northwestern Michigan millions of dollars for every kind of timber which the State produces. All these cities offer a market for everything the soil produces. I may be sanguine—for young men frequently are—but I seem to see this proposed route stretching on to the Straits of Mackinaw, and ultimately connecting us with the N. P. R. R., and thus, by the way of Lowell and Battle Creek, all the magnificent north-west, with its boundless areas of whitening harvest fields, and all the untold wealth of the Lake Superior region, with its copper and iron ore, finding their way to the markets of the world through this avenue of commerce. If I could make a correct mathematical demonstration of all the wealth to be created and fostered by this new railroad, men along the route would be frightened, and think I had "Aladin's wonderful lamp," and that by my "rubbing," a mighty "Geni" had appeared, whose only object would be to distribute wealth. The increased value of all farm lands, of all farm products, of all standing timber, would be so enhanced that I have no means of estimating the value created. Yours truly, H. WILLIS.

How to Suffer Trouble.
The last few days of my life I think when a man is troubled if he has a good little boy to take his mind from his troubles, and get him something else to do. Last night I had a good little boy to take his mind from his troubles, and get him something else to do. Last night I had a good little boy to take his mind from his troubles, and get him something else to do.

Mr. Duggan arrived in the city a day or two ago and has been making a regular weekly meeting here to show up. Much curiosity and interest were exhibited by members, and Samuel Shin, Young Hym Smith and Whitcomb Hooker could hardly wait for the meeting to begin.

Brother Gardner had having arrived at 2 o'clock. He had a good chair and opened the meeting, and it was announced that "The Ames" would be exhibited.

Mr. Duggan made a brief address, stating his views on the various questions, and the machine was placed on the floor and made ready for trial. It was a small box about the size of a large cigar, and was made of light-colored wood and a high top.

There is a certain amount of excitement in California city that it is not safe to go with just now. The other night, as the story is related, while he was being in his favorite room, a small boy came in and handed him a note. He opened it, and his face was pale.

At this point the grocery man picked up a fire poker, and the boy went out in a hurry and hung up a sign in front of the grocery, "Get out for fat dogs."

A Grand Pick.
There is a certain amount of excitement in California city that it is not safe to go with just now. The other night, as the story is related, while he was being in his favorite room, a small boy came in and handed him a note.

When something like on a horse was restored in the hall it was found that the horse was not a horse, but a dog. The dog was a small, black and white dog, and was very tame.

Wagner and Alexander Dumas.
That is an capital story told about the French writer, Alexander Dumas. He was a very famous writer, and his works are still popular today.

His Good Name Comes Back to Him.
Joseph Aschbach kept a small store at 81 Washington street, and he was a very successful merchant. He was a very successful merchant, and he was a very successful merchant.

A Memory of a Morning-Tea.
Under such good auspices, I have never before had so many friends gathered around me. We had the breakfast table set, and I had a very good breakfast.

My dear friend, I have never before had so many friends gathered around me. We had the breakfast table set, and I had a very good breakfast.
