JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

M. M. Perry was at the Rapids last week.
A day of business was Saturday in Lowell.
C. D. Hodges was at Grand Rapids last week.
C. A. Kniffen's family have joined him at Mackinaw.
The Michigan Artisan man was in town Thursday.
A large number of Grattan gentlemen registered at Train's hotel Saturday.
We are in receipt of Vol. 1, No. 1 of the Genesee Courier, which presents an excellent appearance.
King, Quick & King are building an elevated track preparatory to piling lumber on the island.
Ed. Robinson, who has been seriously ill with rheumatic fever; is reported improving.
A new blacksmith, weighing ten lbs., arrived at George W. Rouse's on the 10th. He will stay.
About 700 bushels of potatoes were bought by John Giles on Saturday last.
A broken plank in the bridge in front of Wisner's flour mill came near causing a runaway Friday.
No town of the same size as Lowell in this state has more manufacturing or does more business than it.
Pleanty of water in the rivers facilitates the business of lumbermen to a great extent.
Prof. Foster, of Ludington, has been appointed superintendent of the state school at Coldwater.
Notwithstanding the fact that nearly all the gardens are planted and many "up," the cold weather still hangs on.
The elegant Schmeer piano used in Prof. Wellenstein's concert was sold by Mr. Paul Friedrich, of Grand Rapids, to I. E. Strong.
The report comes from Carmel, Kansas, of the marriage of Charles Barber to Mrs. Celia Lampers, both formerly of this village.
George T. Howard, of Howard, Pease & Co., has gone east looking for bargains in the great breaks of the clothing markets.
Perry Sayles has returned from Ann Arbor where he has been attending the University. He will remain here until next fall.
Mr. and Mrs. Morris Johnson, of this place, started Monday for Minnesota, where Mr. J. has secured a situation. They intend to remain there during the summer.
The wire gang were though Lowell Monday, putting wire on the telephone poles. The line was expected to have been completed to-day.
It was reported Saturday that the stock in the McGee grocery store had been sold to S. D. Goss, but since then the report has been contradicted.
We have received a copy of the fifth annual book of the Michigan Sportsmen's Association, which gives the complete transaction of the seventh annual session.
The second spring fair of the Central Michigan Agricultural Society will be held at Lansing, May 29 to June 1st. Open to the world. No entry fee required.
We are informed that the place of locating the telephone exchange has been changed and that it will be in the post-office, where our friend McWilliams will have the management.
"Doc" Burgher, of Lowell, formerly of this city, the shaver, was in town Monday, looking for a location to open a barber shop. There is no place like Eaton Rapids. —[Eaton R. Journal.
The stock of agricultural tools at Taylor's foundry was sold at auction Saturday last. The foundry will again soon be in "full blast."
The merchant who can do all the business he wants to without the aid of a newspaper usually succumbs to the inevitable and advertise at last, but his advertisement is usually headed "Sheriff's sale."
Considerable talk has lately been instituted detrimental to Dr. Malcolm's Hambletonian stallion, Hart, and Mr. Malcolm requests us to say that the horse was bred just as his bills represent him to be.
Miss Flora Ball, artist, of Grand Rapids is in town and will be found for a day or so at the residence of Mrs. F. B. Hine. She has very successfully been giving instruction in oil painting and crayon. She will be happy to receive any new pupils and will also take any orders for work.
To our friends in Dakota and the West who may be pining to get back to Michigan, we would say: "If Dakota can furnish any worse weather than Michigan and do it legitimately we don't wonder at your wanting a change; but we'll bet two to one that Dakota can't do it."

Allen C. Adrit, of Grand Rapids, in town Saturday.
F. C. Alger, formerly of Lowell, but now of Groton, Dak., was in town this week.
W. Wallace, of Ada, was in town Saturday.
N. Weston, of Whitneyville, in Lowell Saturday.
Saranac must have taken an emetic Saturday night, which took effect Sunday, as witnessed the crowd that raided Lowell Sunday.
Flat and Grand rivers have been so high that log running has been stopped for a few days.
The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold its regular session Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with Mrs. Wittrop.
The Biographer, a new 64 page monthly, published at 23 Park Row, New York, is on our table. It is an excellent publication. Price 25 cents.
Hine's LOWELL JOURNAL reaches us this week, with a supplement of interesting news. The JOURNAL is worthy the liberal support given it by the Lowell people. —[Cedar Springs Mail.
Dan'l Williams found an ancient coin on the old State Road in Batavia township, a short time since which bears the date of 1773. It is a Spanish piece and when found bore evidence of having lain on the ground a long time. —[Coldwater Courier.
Mr. C. D. Hodges, of Train's hotel at Lowell, last night shipped a carload of 14 very fine young horses to C. Horner in New Jersey. The horses are valued at from $150 to $200 each, and none of them were over five years old. They will be sold for carriage horses. —[Leader.
A race on Train's track Saturday between the two horses—"Lookout" and "Utica"—owned by Clinton Woods and Chapin Sayles, was attended by about two hundred people. Bets were freely made two to one against the Sayles mare. The Woods mare made an excellent start and won the race by at least four lengths.
Misrepresentation, Saturday's Democrat says: "The Lowell JOURNAL speaks of a well known married man of this city, who spent a few days recently in that town, as 'Master Louie Hunt.'" This is a downright lie, as every reader of the JOURNAL and the editor of the Democrat knows. The item in the JOURNAL was exactly as follows: "Louie Hunt, of Grand Rapids, formerly of Lowell, in town over Sunday."
At the meeting of the State Firemen's association at St. Louis, last week, there was a good attendance and a large amount of business transacted. The next annual meeting will be held at Battle Creek, and the tournament will be held at Marshall some time in July or August next, when cash prizes to the amount of $1600 besides the state championship prizes, will be contested for.
The D., G. H. & M. R. R. will offer a new summer resort and picnic ground to the public this year. A branch of the road has been run from Pontiac to Orchard Lake, where the military academy is located, and the probabilities are that the place will be extensively patronized by Sunday school excursion parties, etc. The lake is beautifully situated, with very pretty surroundings, and should it get fairly known to the public will doubtless prove very popular. —[Leader.
Program for the L. L. C., to be held May 25th, at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Parker: Music—America—by the club; response at roll call, with some current topic of the day; Matilda of Flanders, queen of William, the conqueror, Mrs. F. B. Hine; Matilda of Scotland, Mrs. Sunderlin; music, solo, Miss Emma Lamb; review of High Life in New York, Mrs. Brower; recitation, Mrs. J. W. Hine; short discussion, "Has the sewing machine lessened woman's labor"; music.
Joseph Wilson Post, G. A. R., No. 87, department of Michigan, will observe Memorial day with proper ceremonies—a parade in uniform, etc. All clergymen, priests and leaders of all denominations are cordially invited to join with us, and all soldiers, whether of our organization or not, are requested to join us in the march and parade, and we, as an organization, especially request all ministers and priests to make the Sunday following Memorial day a special occasion for teaching fraternity, charity and loyalty and commemorating the services to the soldiers living and dead. Good speaking and music will be the order of the day.
L. A. SAYLES, Sen. V. C.
As some of the young folks of the Nickel Society have felt injured by our article in regard to their entertainment, we will say that no injury was intended. We said that some parts of the entertainment were excellent and we meant it, and while some parts of the entertainment were not up to the standard, yet, for the time employed in perfecting the different parts, it was probably rendered as well as could be expected. We do not wish to do an injury, and yet, if there were faults in the entertainment and we had praised it, the whole would have been considered perfect and the defects would have been the same in their next effort, while, naturally enough now, they will endeavor in their next effort in this direction to come nearer perfection. On the other hand, others would naturally notice defects, and should we call the whole perfect, those who did notice it would call us idiots. We hope our young friends will see that we intended no injury of feelings in our unbiased report of their entertainment.

F. H. Hosford, of Grand Rapids was in town Monday.
Alonzo Sunderland has returned from Florida.
J. C. Train was at Grand Rapids Monday.
C. McCarty shipped during last month 75,630 eggs and 6,974 bushels of potatoes.
Will Lilly has sold his furniture store near Train's hotel to Patrick Lalley.
Will Fulkerson left Monday for Casnovia where his sister is lying very ill we understand.
Lillian Smith, from Florida, is visiting friends here. Miss Smith was formerly of Lowell.
Some very fine samples of wool from the flock of Wm. Hartwell, of Cannon, can be seen at JOURNAL office.
Hon. J. W. Hine spent last Sunday with his family. Kent county's Senator is always at his post of duty, with an eye to the interests of his constituency. —[G. R. Post.
The forty-second annual meeting of the general association of Congregational churches and ministers of Michigan will be held at Manistee, May 16-20.
We are in receipt of a copy of the proceedings of the Northwestern Michigan Press Association. The pamphlet is nicely printed by the Traverse Bay Eagle.
The issuing of an historical supplement from the JOURNAL office has been postponed until next week, on account of not having been completed.
The State Pomological society holds its next meeting in Ionia, June 26 and 27.
A highly sensational case was unearthed by a JOURNAL reporter Tuesday. The facts implicating a young clerk and a highly respected married woman of Lowell. As we wish to do neither party an injury their names will remain unpublished until the case becomes generally known.
H. S. Maynard, secretary of the State Band Tournament Association, has issued invitations to all the brass bands through the state to attend the tournament to be held at Detroit, June 5 and 6. Members of all bands will be boarded free of charge. There are 21 prizes offered: First class—1st prize, $200; 2nd $150 Second class—1st prize $100 2nd prize $75. Third class, 1st prize, $75; 2nd prize $50. Fourth class, 1st prize $50 2nd prize $40. Bartitone and trombone—1st prize $30; 2nd prize $20. Amateur cornet solo—1st prize $50; 2nd prize, $40. Free-to-all cornet contest, $200. Special prize, one Frank Johnson cornet, silver plated and gold trimmed with fine case, valued at $80, presented by C. J. Whitney to the best ladies brass band. —[Eaton R. Journal.
Thousands of people have gone and are still going into Dakota Territory and the country is so completely overrun and crowded with the destitute and starving that the railroads are bringing them back from the "promised land" free of cost, to keep them from suffering. It is cold and disagreeable weather in that northern country and there is no grass for cattle, and no hay or other feed to be had for love or money. This disagreeable news sickened many families who are on their way to that cold and bleak country. They meet teams and droves of cattle returning south and are compelled to forsake their design of securing homes in Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Missouri, Illinois and other States, poorer but much wiser people. A few persons of Burt county, we regret to say, sold good farms here for what seemed a high price, and had started toward the north poles for their future home and are among the disappointed. —[Oakland (Neb.) Independent.
Mr. T. Tandy, general freight and passenger agent of the D., G. H. & M. railroad, was in town yesterday on his way to Milwaukee. He says the sidewheel steamer "City of Milwaukee," which is well known for its beauty and convenience, will be ready for business next week, having undergone extensive repairs and improvements during the winter. This boat is one of the three recently purchased by the railroad company from the Goodrich line, the others being the yessels "Wisconsin" and "Michigan." The "Milwaukee" will run on the day trip, leaving Grand Haven each morning and return from Milwaukee at night. The other boats will leave Grand Haven for Milwaukee on alternate nights. A change in the time table will be made to accommodate the new arrangements. The boats will run directly to Milwaukee, not stopping at Muskegon or any of the "way stations," and will doubtless be better patronized by the public than ever before. It is probable several Sunday excursions will be given on the "Milwaukee" during the summer, similar to the excursions which were so popular last summer. —[Leader.

N. A. Cole who has had charge of the JOURNAL for the past few weeks, expects to leave in a few days for Denver, Col., to accept a position on the Rocky Mountain Daily News.
A change of time took effect on the D., G. H. & M., on Sunday last, as follows: Going east, Detroit Express, 7:18 a. m.; Mail, 11:30 a. m.; Evening Express, 4:45 p. m.; Atlantic Express, 10:40 p. m. Mixed, 12:30 p. m.; Going west, Morning Express, 12:30 p. m.; Mail 4:45 p. m.; Steamboat Express, 9:55 p. m. Milwaukee Express, 3:40 p. m. Holly Ex. 12:40 p. m.
Stanton wants a railroad from Battle Creek by way of Lowell. If they are really anxious to secure connection with the Grand Trunk and a connecting line they can employ their energies to much more purpose by aiding the Nashville and Ionia route. If the road gets as far west as Lowell and goes north, it will seek the lake shore and not the interior. —[Ionia National.
Does the National know what it's talking about? The road, after leaving Lowell, runs to Belding and if Stanton works for it she can secure it.
A letter from a former resident of Kent County to one of our Grand Rapids exchanges, commences as follows: "Brace your feet and hold your breath, for I am going to 'let the critter out.' I am in the metropolis of the world the Garden of Eden, the gateway to health happiness Dakota, mud and blizzards; a fine depository for cash in large amounts—no small change taken here—board $14 per week; shave, 25c.; cigars, 15 and 25c.; stale beer, 15c., etc.—the land of speculation, the home of the insane."
It seems that postage stamps, as well as flowers, have a language. Thus, when a postage stamp is put upside down on the left corner of the letter it means "I love you;" on the same crosswise, "My heart is another's;" straight up and down, "Good-by, sweetheart, good-by;" upside down in the right-hand corner, "Write no more;" in the centre at the top, "Yes;" opposite, at the bottom, "No;" on the right hand corner, at a right angle, "Do you love me?" in the left-hand corner, "I hate you;" top corner, on the right, "I wish your friendship;" bottom corner on the left, "I seek your acquaintance;" on a line with the surname, "Accept my love;" the same upside down, "I am engaged;" at right angles in the same place, "I long to see you;" in the middle, at the right-hand edge, "Write immediately." —[Allegan Journal. Just where Don learned these facts is something we can't explain; but he must have been there.
The directors of Kalamazoo, Lowell & Northern Michigan railroad held a meeting at the Morton house, Grand Rapids, Monday. There were present besides the president Thos. S. Cobb Esq. of Kalamazoo and the secretary, Col. G. E. Dunbar the following directors; Col. F. W. Carrington, J. P. Woodbury and D. B. Merrill of Kalamazoo; A. J. Bowen, D. R. Cook, and Dr. Burton of Hastings, and A. M. Ellsworth, and J. C. Train of Lowell. The resignation of W. W. Hatch, formerly of Lowell, was received, and Dr. Peck of that place was chosen to succeed him. Messrs Fred Bush and W. S. Dewing of Kalamazoo and several Hastings gentlemen were present including Maj. Anderson. The directors had been called together to meet Geo. W. Balch, M. D. Woodford and E. W. Medbaum; the latter was unexpectedly detained away, but the others were present and made an offer to take the road with completed grade and woodwork and complete the line from Kalamazoo to Hastings, and the expectation being that it would be run under a working arrangement with the Grand Trunk. These parties would build the line to Hastings at once, and desire an opportunity to complete it to Lowell provided they could understand it soon, that is, without standing in the way of any other chances that town might have of securing additional connections. In order to examine more fully into the best means of carrying out such arrangements and to enable the Lowell directors to consult their people on the agreements for their end of the line, the meeting adjourned to Monday, May 14. —[Kalamazoo Telegraph, May 9.
