☞ The Saranac Local of last week says that a warrant was issued on Thursday, for the arrest of David Peck, 70 years old, on a charge of rape upon Ida M. Howard, an orphan girl 12 years old who has been living in Peck's family for a year or more.

☞ J. P. Murray, of the firm of Murray & Coates, arrived home from Flint today and is making preparations to return and take charge of his uncle's property. The parties who committed the assault on the uncle of Mr. Murray are supposed to be near neighbors.

☞ A paper steamboat for a Pittsburg company is in course of construction at Lansingburg, N. Y. It is 20 feet long, will seat 25 persons, and has a carrying capacity of three tons. The sheathing is a solid body of paper three eighths of an inch thick. A bullet from a distance of four feet neither penetrated nor made an abrasion in it.

☞ While fishing near the Lowell Flouring mill, on Tuesday morning, Frank Hunter was attacked with a fit and fell in the river and would have been drowned had it not been for the assistance rendered by H. Tobias. Being subject to fits and constantly around the river fishing 'tis a wonder he has not been drowned ere this.

☞ The W. C. T. U. social at Music hall last evening was attended by a very large number of people. Receipts, $30.

☞ Saddle horses are in great demand apparently, several having been sold to local parties within the past few days.

☞ A buggy—or what was once a buggy—stood in front of Train's hotel last night in rather a mixed-up condition.

☞ The next social of the Baptist society will be held at the residence of Rev. C. Oldfield next Wednesday. A cordial invitation extended to all.

☞ The large tent used by Donnan & Gray to cover their agricultural implements was blown completely in two by Sunday Morning's gale. It has been mended and replaced.

☞ Johnie Buckley, who has been confined to his bed for several days with an attack of bilious colic, is out again. During his illness Mrs. Josie Birch has been acting as delivery clerk.

☞ C. Has, Hodges, of Edmore, has taken the position vacant by the retiring of P. B. McLeod, as clerk of Train's hotel. Charlie is a cousin of the proprietor, C. D. Hodges, and is an excellent fellow.

☞ Mrs. C. D. Hodges requests us to say that if anyone attending the W. C. T. U. ice cream social last evening found a silver tea spoon marked "Lida" or "H," they will confer a favor by returning it to Train's hotel.

☞ We have a few copies of last week's JOURNAL containing the supplement left, and those who have the interest of the town at heart will secure them and send to their friends. Let people outside know what Lowell is doing.

☞ Last week's LOWELL JOURNAL is a large supplement containing a complete history of Lowell from its first settlement to the present time. It is a commendable evidence of enterprise on the part of the publishers and a good boon for Lowell.—[Lansing Republican.

☞ Citizens of Lowell who have their own interest at heart and who delight in seeing the village prosper will not talk against having water works in Lowell. It would give Lowell a business boom never known before and would enhance the value of every foot of property in the town. Talk for it, work for it. That is the only way we can get it.

☞ On account of want of space several firms who merited mention were not spoken of. Among the more meritorious of these, we find the firm of Donnan & Gray, dealers in agricultural implements, etc. They have the only complete stock of this kind in Lowell and are the recognized leaders in that line of goods. The marked success attendant upon their career is of such a pronounced and obvious character as to demand more than ordinary attention. By their own industry and ability they have daily proceeded on the upward pathway to success. Their business success has been brought about by shrewdness, business intelligence and fair and honorable dealing. Their place of business is centrally located on the bridge, Bridge street, and the building they occupy is large and commodious. Their stock is complete in the implement furnishing and repair line. Farmers everywhere in the vicinity of Lowell are acquainted with one or both members of this firm and that they have confidence in their manner of dealing the sales of the house fully verify. It would be taking too much space to undertake to mention all of the goods they handle. It is only necessary, therefore to say that they carry all makes of mowers, reapers, threshing machines, hay rakes, plows, harrows, cultivators, pumps and pump fixtures, etc. They also handle the Jackson wagon, which has a well earned reputation of being the best wagon on wheels. Everything in their line that they keep in stock or handle is of the best make and can be guaranteed. We take pleasure in recommending these gentlemen as honorable and reliable.

☞ Leaman Rhodes, of Big Rapids in town Saturday.

☞ J. S. Gordon, of Grand Rapids, in town Saturday.

☞ F. Secord, of Johnston, N. Y., was in town Monday.

☞ Decoration Day was appropriately observed in Lowell, notwithstanding the unpleasant weather.

☞ Dentist Robertson's grandmother, Mrs. Rickert, of Brantford, Ont., is visiting in Lowell for a few days.

☞ A terrible catastrophe occurred on the new Brooklyn bridge over East river in New York, May 30, killing over a dozen people and maiming many more. The affair, we judge from the report, was caused by the bungling police.

☞ What might have been a serious runaway on Water street Saturday, was "nipped in the bud" by Mr. Riddell, the liverman, who jumped into the rear end of the wagon and grabbed the lines, and running the horses into the rear of another wagon.

☞ The proposition pending in the State Legislature to appropriate $40,000 of State funds for the Orchard Lake Military Academy, is an outrage upon the taxpayers. Such an appropriation would be a barefaced steal. The Academy, in the first place is simply an asylum for rich men's sons; a sort of a high toned institution where these youths may be educated apart from the common herd, and now to ask this same common herd to contribute towards the support of such an aristocratic institution is an act of unblushing effrontery. If an academy of this kind is any particular gratification to a wealthy few, who have sons they must provide amusements for, let them pay for the luxury out of their own pockets and not flitch it out of the hard working farmer. Better, far, that the Legislature appropriate this $40,000 to the education of the boot blacks and news boys and waifs, with which our cities and towns abound, for if it is looking for the future generals and statesmen of America it will be much more likely to find them among these classes, than among the petted and spoiled children of wealth.—[Ionia National.

☞ "Our long-time friend, Hon. Jas. W. Hine, Senator from the 22d (Kent county) district, the most populous in the State, whom we succeeded as Assistant Secretary of the Senate in 1877, although one of the youngest men in the present Senate, has proven himself one of the best and most useful members of that body. Coming with the parliamentary knowledge and skill acquired by four years' experience as Assistant Secretary in 1873-4 and 1875-6, he at once took a leading position among his fellow Senators; and by his close attention to public duties, his sound and practical judgment and his clear and comprehensive knowledge of what to do and how to do it, he has been able to make a record of which any legislator might well be proud. Occupying the responsible position of chairman of the Committee on appropriations and Finance (one of the most responsible of all the committees), he has so guided the legislation of the session now about to close, that no unwise appropriation bills have passed the Senate, and none have failed that should have passed. As Secretary of the Senate we have watched his course, and are glad to be able to thus bear testimony to the efficiency and ability of a brother legislator, who has for several years been classed as one of the brightest and sharpest of Michigan's journalists."—[St. Louis Leader.

☞ We clip the following article from the Battle Creek Moon: "In your issue of the Moon of May 16th you have very kindly inserted an article from the Grand Rapids Times, which says: 'The Lowell interest proposes to separate from the old scheme: form a new company; and build a narrow gauge road from Stanton to Hastings via, Lowell.' A new company is already organized, which will have turned over to it all the franchises of the K. L. & N. M. R. R. Co., north of Hastings. This new company proposes to construct a standard gauge road (four feet eight and one-half inch gauge) from Smyrna to Hastings and ultimately looking to Battle Creek for trunk line connection with some of the trunk lines that run into your city. In case the project from Kalamazoo to Saginaw, via Ionia should be constructed via, Hastings, and this new company succeed in reaching Battle Creek, Lowell will have secured both a south easterly and south westerly outlet, and the immense lumber interests of Flat river will have opened a route to the sea board and the South by the way of the "Sanitarium." There is every inducement for your citizens to unite with Lowell on securing at an early day, this great improvement. Many miles of the road north of Hastings are ready now to receive the ties, and the laying down of the iron. It is earnestly hoped that the citizens of Battle Creek will take hold of this enterprise with a determination which shall manifest that they are not behind Kalamazoo in securing every project which shall tend to promote their manufacturing and commercial interests."—[E. W. DODGE.

☞ Wm. McWilliams is building a new house.

☞ P. B. Briggs, of Ionia, at Train's hotel Monday.

☞ J. C. Baker, Howard City in Lowell Saturday.

☞ Amos La Rue, of Jamestown, N. Y., was in town Monday.

☞ On Monday morning it was reported that Clark & Smith had closed their doors and made an assignment.

☞ Mrs. C. V. Riegler and Miss Ellen Roush spent last Sunday in Lowell, the guests of Mrs. J. H. Adams.—[Freepress Herald.

☞ The premiums in the snake story contest are not usually awarded until later in the season, but all contestants after having read the following in the Bellevue Gazette, have retired and willingly relinquished the championship: "Elmer Sprague one day last week killed a black snake on the farm of James Hellawell that measured with his head off seven feet and three inches and in the largest part of his body five and three quarters inches around. He has been seen in the neighborhood by different parties for the last three or four years.

☞ About twenty—more or less—of the girls and employes at Train's hotel enjoyed themselves hugely at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lotte, who live about nine miles north of Lowell, on Saturday evening. We are credibly informed that several of them lost their way coming back and did not arrive in Lowell until late the next morning. It would be advisable next time the party go out—or at least some of them—to "tie their horses loose," and thereby avoid losing their way. We would also advise one of the party to keep awake, do his own driving and avoid stumps.

No other preparation so concentrates and combines blood-purifying, vitalizing, enriching and invigorating qualities as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Quality should be considered when making comparisons.

Owing to the backward spring E. P. Kidder & Co., the wellknown merchants of Grand Rapids, are making tremendous reductions in price of all their outside garments for ladies and children and their stock of these goods is without doubt the largest one in Michigan outside of Detroit. We would advise all those who are interested in these goods to give this firm a call. The largest assortment of choice dress goods to be found anywhere can be seen at this house.

Ed. Morse—Dealer in Buggies Horses and Harnesses. Mr. Morse and Mr. C. D. Hodges makes a business of buying and selling horses, and no better judges of that class of live stock can be found in the village—or, in fact, in the state. Mr. M. also deals largely in buggies—the more important ones being the Moyer buggy, manufactured at Syracuse, N. Y., and which has a world-wide reputation as the best buggy ever put on four wheels, and for which nothing is claimed but that can be proven; and the Spiral spring buggy, made at Grand Rapids. The Moyer buggy is a buggy for those who want a good one and, considering quality of material and workmanship it is THE buggy to buy. 50m3
