LOWELL JOURNAL

Editorially Speaking.

—“Lo, I am with you always,” said Gen. Crook.

—The papers have exhumed Tilden again. Wasn't the last post mortem examination satisfactory?

—Four of the dynamite conspirators have been found guilty and sentenced to penal servitude for life.

—Secretary Teller thinks the captured Indians should be punished for their crimes. It does look that way.

—Many parts of the State were visited by severe storms Sunday night, much damage resulting therefrom.

—Paper houses are coming into popular use in England,—where the people have so long been living in glass houses.

—Hoscoe Conkling's income is said to be about $150,000 a year. He must own stock in some country printing office.

—A New Yorker, whose life was insured for $25,000, suicided for the benefit of his creditors. The location makes the story seem improbable.

—A national convention of colored editors will be held at St. Louis (Mo.) in July. How would this item have looked in print fifty years ago?

—There was a big drop in hog fat in Chicago Saturday. One operator lost $2,500,000. Expensive pie crust timber. Too “short,” you know, for him.

—The Ohio Prohibitionists have nominated a full state ticket and the Buckeye state will probably go democratic again by a large majority.

—Lieut. Gov. Crosby presented the diplomas to the graduates of the Michigan Military Academy last week. And a very happy speech he made, too.

—The anti-Republican press damn the Republican party because the star route jury returned a verdict of not guilty. There were several democrats on the jury, though.

—The Indian war being ended, temporarily, at least, opportunity will now be offered to those of you who have means to contribute breech-loaders, ammunition, blankets, pie, etc. to Mr. Lo.

—The star route trial was brought to a close last week with a verdict of “not guilty.” And still some folks will always think if they were not guilty they were almost.

—The Jackson convict to Gov. Begole —“Beg pardon, Governor.” “Granted,” replies our principal seryant Josiah, and out steps the zebra bound brother to rob another bank or cut another throat.

—Take no stock in the report that there is a wild man roaming around in the woods, feeding on leeks and berries. He is only a 4th-of-July orator reaching out for the tail feathers of the bird of freedom.

—The Hartford Times thinks there is no occasion for any body to get round-shouldered over the Presidential situation. Yes, but that isn't the kind of shoulder the candidates are afraid of. It's cold shoulder that troubles them.

—The Railroad Exposition at Chicago is a wonderful exhibit of railroad mechanics. The first locomotive—built by Stephenson in 1825—is on exhibition there. Visitors to Chicago should visit the exposition.

—The Allegan Gazette says the poorest excuse for a newspaper it has on its exchange list is not Hine's Lowell Journal. Now, brethren, that word “not” in the above connection is to us a very important alphabetical arrangement.

—The Pope's interference in the political affairs of Ireland brings torrents of wrath and indignation upon his head. If he attempts to prevent the liberty of Ireland they will step on his big toe with vigor.

—The Republicans of Ohio have nominated a strong man for Governor and seem to feel confident of his election. It looks from here as though the prohibitionists would push the door back against the Republicans and let the Democrats pass in. That's the way they got prohibition in Ohio at their last election.

—It begins to dawn upon the democratic mind that Gov. Begole made a great mistake in vetoing the bill abolishing the office of State Swamp Land Commissioner. As the Lansing Republican puts it, “that veto allows a grab of $1,800 from the State Treasury without value received.”

—We don't know whether Senator Edmunds is magnetic and warm blooded enough to make him the most available Republican candidate for the Presidency, but we do know that he is a pure man; a scholar and a statesman of the highest type—just such a man as the country needs for a captain.

—Saturday night 178 children were trampled to death in a theater at Sunderland, England, by an outrunning audience, and more have since died. There was no method in the madness of the crowd—no excuse for a panic. It does seem as though we had reached the foot age. The recent Brooklyn bridge disaster was another exhibition of criminal stupidity which even born idiots would blush to show.

—Gov. Begole on Friday pardoned out of the state prison one life convict, one committed for fourteen years and one for five years. If he keeps on at this rate the next legislature will probably consider a proposition to abolish the prison entirely or convert it into “The Criminal's Refuge from Justice.” The Governor shows altogether too much sympathy for crime and too little respect for society.

—One of the most deplorable acts committed in our law abiding state was the hanging of the fiend Warner at Cheboygan by a mob of citizens there. Aggravating as was the case the offender was sure of his punishment by the due and regular process of law. It is asserted that the intention of the mob was known at Lansing many hours before the hanging took place. If so, and the Governor took no steps to prevent the lynching, as it seems he did not, his excellency is guilty of criminal neglect of duty. No case, however aggravating or damnable, justifies the suspension of the law.

—Sometime ago Gov. Begole indicated that his rule in future relative to granting pardons to criminals would be two per month. What should put it into his head to establish such a rule is more than mortal man can tell, and having established it, why he should violate it by granting three pardons in one day is also one of those things not generally understood. Now, when a man or Governor fixes a rule by which to guide his own action he ought not to go back on it without good reason therefor. To prevent further annoyance and embarrassment from this source the Governor ought to have somebody invent an automatic thingumby which, at a certain hour of a certain day in each month just two convicts shall be released from the State prison—no more, no less. This would serve the Governor a heap of trouble besides securing to his “rule” that protection which he is personally unable to provide. Possibly the machine might get cranky and let out the whole gang at one fell swoop, but that wouldn't be the Governor's fault. It would be the fault of the machine, of course. Are we throwing away good advice, again?

—We have of late frequently heard the name of Hon. James W. Hine, senator from the Grand Rapids district, mentioned in connection with the next Republican nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

—The above item (followed by a flattering compliment which we omit) going the rounds of the press may create an impression that the Senator from the Grand Rapids district is looking in the direction above indicated. Such, however, is not the case; he has no intention of posing as a candidate for that or any other office. For the good will of his friends, however, he is truly grateful.

—The foundation for the new brick block to be erected by John Giles and B. G. Wilson, is fast being laid and Mr. Morgan Lyon is preparing the foundation for his new block on the corner where once stood the old hotel.

—Gil Osmund, the genial and popular Legislative reporter of the Evening News, has gone back to his post as State news editor of that paper and the quill he drives is a very limber and industrious one. (You ought to hear Gil tell his m. c. story.)

—Program of L. L. C. to be held at the Bank parlors June 23d: Chataqua game of English History, to be played by the club; Conundrums to be guessed by the club; What soup would cannabals prefer? Why is flattery called Taffy? Why are the bars of a Convent like a blacksmith's apron?

—A mob of citizens at Cheboygan took Tim Warner (arrested for brutally outraging and stabbing a little girl) from jail Friday morning and hanged him to a railroad crossing sign. Mob violence under any circumstances is a disgrace to the State, granting at the same time that this was one of the most fiendish crimes ever committed within our borders.

—Directors Cook and Barton of Hastings were in Lowell yesterday, in conference with the Lowell directors of the Lowell and Hastings railroad. Matters of importance in connection with the project were discussed. The determination to go on and complete the road seems to be fixed. The JOURNAL hopes to see an early move made in that direction.

—Blind Boone, who appears at Train's Hall Monday evening, July 2, is spoken of in very complimentary terms by the press everywhere. The Fort Wayne Sentinel, in speaking of the entertainment says:—“This wonderful prodigy was greeted by a very appreciative audience at Liberty hall last evening. Boone is worth a fortune. Rev. W. N. Webb paid him a high compliment, and thinks him superior to any pianist on the American stage.”

—The sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Dr. Edie of Grand Rapids was received here Saturday with universal sorrow. The deceased was for many years a resident of Lowell, where she was held in high esteem by all. The blow is a severe one to the family and friends, and upon the afflicted husband and daughters especially does it fall with crushing weight. From Saturday's Eagle we take the following:

—Mrs. J. O. Edie, wife of Dr. Edie, died this noon after a terrible illness of five weeks. It is believed that a fall she received five weeks ago was one of the chief causes of her death. She attempted to step backward hastily, fell, and since then has scarcely been conscious or rational. It is supposed that her spine was injured. Her injuries were complicated by a fever that set in two weeks later. The deceased had the esteem and affection of all who knew her, and a large circle of friends will sincerely sympathize with Dr. Edie and his motherless daughters.

—The following patents were granted to citizens of Michigan, bearing date June 12, 1883. Reported expressly for this paper by Louis Bagger & Co., Experts and Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C.

F., Lansing, Metallic pivot for window blind slats; Kelley, Wm., Saranac, saw sledge.

—The Flat river log drive this season exceeds 150,000,000 feet.

—To Mr. and Mrs. Will Perrin, a little daughter, June 10th—weight 8 lbs.

—Barnum at Grand Rapids next Monday. Biggest show on two earths.

—This is good weather for suckers. Plenty of them to be found in the corn field.

—J. C. West is still in Yakota. Dr. J. H. Smith and family have removed from Pontiac to Dakota.

—The W. C. T. U. wish to express their thanks to the Lowell Band No. 2 for its fine music, and all others who assisted at their ice cream festival.

—The wool season has not fairly opened yet. So long as men wear winter under-clothing they don't like to shear sheep. Some sense in that.

—Let nothing be advertised for the 4th that is not carried out to the letter. Let each of the various committees do thoroughly the work assigned.

—This number of the JOURNAL closes the present volume, and with this number many subscriptions expire. Please take notice and see how your subscription stands.

—The annual meeting of the Old Residents, at Grand Rapids, June 23, promises to be a large and joyful gathering. The public are invited to participate.

—The JOURNAL will be glad to hear from its township correspondents again. Brief, newsworthy items wanted, which should reach us not later than Monday afternoon.

—The people of Lowell and vicinity are invited to attend the lecture by Ex-Gov. St. John at the Baptist church, Grand Rapids, June 28. Excellent music provided for the occasion.

—Miss Libbie Van Wagner of this village has been invited to take part in Prof. Wellenstein's concert in Grand Rapids Friday night. Miss Van Wagner is an accomplished pianist.

—In the prize drawing for the benefit of St. Mary's Church, R. Vandyk held the winning ticket (No. 48). The prize was a handsome volume entitled “Treasures of the Poetic World.”

—The commencement exercises of the Lowell High School will take place at the M. E. Church on Friday evening of this week, commencing at eight o'clock. Diplomas will be granted to Miss Fannie Van Wagner and Mr. Ernest Graham. Good music will be provided.

—F. Homer Hosford, city editor of the Grand Rapids Democrat, was in Lowell Saturday. He seemed to be in a great hurry to return that night and the following item from the Sun may explain why:

—Married, at Kalamazoo Monday June 18, at 11 o'clock a. m. by the Rev. Robert Danan of St. Augustine church, F. Homer Hosford of Grand Rapids and Miss Maggie Maguire of Kalamazoo.

—Well, here's to their good health—may the honey-moon never go down.

—The communication from Mr. E. A. Chapman on the subject of the Bible in the schools is published this week by special request. While we shall not consent to the use of our columns for a prolonged discussion of the question we shall recognize the right to be heard on both sides, confining each (necessarily) to limited space. The proposition with which Mr. C. introduces his letter, relative to the action of the school board two years ago, does not seem to us to be fairly stated. If we remember rightly the action of the board in recommending that the usual religious exercises be held a few minutes before the morning school hour, was not taken because the board regarded such observance as “illegal” but because it was a satisfactory settlement of the question, for the time being at least, and would prevent a threatened disturbance to the interests of the school. We have no desire to engage in the controversy over the Bible in schools. Discussion does not decide. If there is “sufficient law” to exclude the bible and religious exercises from the schools, as Mr. C. thinks there is, let the courts determine. Individually we have no fears that Bible reading in schools will result in serious injury to our youth. Others have their opinions, varying widely. But it seems to us to be unwise to keep up an eternal quarrel over the matter. If there is any law to decide the question let it be applied. Meantime our advice to the school board is—use your own judgment and act upon your own responsibility.

—State Brevities.

—There are 146 posts of the Grand Army of the Republic in this State at present.

—The making of brick on an extensive scale is about to be engaged in at Muskegon.

—The net product of the Quincy mine for the month of May, 1883, was 261 tons and 40 pounds.

—The warden of the house of correction advises the labor of 100 convicts as being to let to the highest bidder for a term of five years.

—Grand Rapids Leader: It was State Senator Root, of Holland, who was relieved of $90 at the Union Depot last week by pickpockets.

—A project is on foot in Grand Rapids to change the system of time from the present actual time for this longitude to to Detroit time, which is ten minutes faster.

—The West Michigan Farmers' Club contemplate chartering a car and filling it with ruming, farming and manufacturing specimens and making a tour of the Middle and New England States sometime in September.

—The recent rains flooded the shops of the St. Johns manufacturing company so that work had to be suspended for a day or two and the city fire engine engaged to pump out the water.

—Work on the Grand Rapids plaster mills, to replace the mills recently burned, is progressing rapidly. The new mills will be much larger and more extensive than the old. The machinery will cost $150,000, which includes a $3,000 175-horse power engine.

—In the Hillsdale Standard of June 12, Mr. Bowlsom, the editor, gives some interesting reminiscences of Hillsdale as it was when he first took up his residence there exactly forty years ago. The population was 100, and of the number sixteen are now living residents of Hillsdale.

—Burglars entered the residence of H. E. Clark a few nights ago and took away $20, in cash. It is believed that the deed was done by parties living not 1,000 miles from here.

—West & Co.'s soda fountain has resumed business, notwithstanding the disgust it entertains for the weather.

—The spring term of school closes this week. Prof. Stuart, the principal, has given general satisfaction and will probably return.

—If you can't afford to pay $22 for one of W. H. Brearley's round trip excursion tickets “From Detroit to the Sea,” with which you could leave Detroit June 27th, July 11th or July 25th, for a 2,800 mile pleasure tour to the White Mts. and Sea Shore, the next best thing would be to send ten 3-cent stamps to W. H. Brearley of the Detroit (Mich.) Evening News, for a copy of his new 6-page illustrated excursion guide book. It also contains particulars of three cheap excursions “From Detroit across the Sea” to Liverpool. The book is graphic in its description, and affords for thirty cents an excellent substitute for an excursion to Europe, with the advantage that calm weather and exemption from sea sickness may be relied upon. One of these guide books has been received at the office of this paper, where it may be examined by any one interested.

—At a meeting of Cascade Grange No. 63, P. of H., held May 13, 1883, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, for the third time in the history of Cascade Grange, No. 63, P. of H., the grim messenger, Death, has come among us and although his visits have not been frequent, yet we are still admonished that he still wields his sickle keen, and

WHEREAS, this time he has stricken down a charter member and Past Master of our Grange Bro. Rufus W. Martin, therefore

Resolved, That while we know his voice will never more be heard in the sweet songs of our Grange we will think of him as being one in that great choir above.

Resolved, That while our dear sister is left so lonely and desolate, we tender to her our heartfelt sympathy and pledge ourselves to make her darkened road bright for her.

Resolved, That a memorial page be set apart in the records of our Grange and that our hall and charter be draped in mourning for ninety days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to sister Martin and also to the Grange Visitor, Grand Rapids Eagle and LOWELL JOURNAL for publication and also that they be spread upon the records of the Grange.

JOHN W. WHITE.

Died.

At Lowell, May 15th, Hiram Filkins, aged 82 years. He was buried from his own residence May 17th, sermon by Rev. D. L. Eaton. He removed from Genesee Co., N. Y., to this place about fourteen years ago. Father Filkins (as he was called) was a respected citizen and a kind neighbor. He felt the sickness that was the cause of his death, would be his last. His mind turned to a preparation for the future. The mercy of God through Jesus Christ was his only hope. He was ready to go to that better country. He leaves to mourn his loss his aged companion, three sons and two daughters.

DIED.—In South Lowell, June 4th, 1883, Florence Houghton, aged 7 years.

Memorial lines composed by S. E. DILL.

Our darling has gone, little Florence is dead. No more shall we see or hear her lit foot tread. Her voice that was music, her step that was gay. Will no more be heard in this frail house of clay.

We loved her, we loved her, only God knows how well. And it seems naught on earth could break the dark spell. But we turn from the grave as we laid her to rest. And believe she now lives, with the pure and the best.

Her schoolmates and teachers will see her no more. They shall meet on that bright happy shore. But they will think of her often and wish she was here. And drop for her memory in silence a tear.

Her parents will mourn, her brothers will weep. But they cannot call back their loved one from sleep. But there is a promise if we love her well. That Jesus said “let little ones come unto me.”

God took her home, he knew it was best. From her pure happy home she will beckon the best. And the pure will soon come, we must follow her there. Or be lost and sink, in dark gloom and despair.

En JOURNAL—Two years ago the Lowell school board...
"How did politics get you into it?"
"I was one of those who went to a bar..."
"I don't see why the fact that you gave a barbecue to your friends should have caused any trouble."

Quite likely the Lowell school board did not think when they were signing away the wages, the rights, the property of the people, and the laws of the government...
"In Lowell, Bible reading in the schools had been prohibited and the Union flag had been removed."
