THE GOVERNOR INTERVIEWED.

An Evening News reporter interviewed Gov. Begole on the free pass question the other day and the Governor, after emphatically refusing to be interviewed, suffered the reporter to ask a few questions to which the Governor's replies, if correctly reported, seemed to convey the idea that he does not ride on free passes. We do not believe, however, the Governor dare come right out and say he does not use or has not used free passes on the railroads. A conductor on the D., G. H. & M. Railway told us only a few days ago that Governor Begole had used an annual free pass on this road ever since he was Governor and that for him to attempt to deny it or keep it a secret was simply supreme foolishness. Man or mouse, which? The Governor would certainly show more of the man to come out squarely and own up that he does use or has used free passes than to dodge the question with evasive answers. His answers, however, to the News reporter practically deny the charge. We'll bet a banana the charge is true and can be proven by many witnesses.

WHAT IS WOMAN?

Gov. Butler, of Massachusetts, and his attorney general have decided that a woman is not legally a "person," and Gov. B. therefore says that Mrs. Clark J. Leonard, a regularly chosen member of the state board of health, must go, as the law expressly states that the board "shall consist of nine persons." The question now arises—If a woman is not a person what is she? Is she an "it" or a "that" or "which"? If she isn't legally a "person" then how can she be held amenable to the laws restraining "persons" from doing this or that or the other thing, and how can she be legally punished for committing crimes or other unlawful deeds which "persons" are forbidden to do? The usual penalty clause or section reads:—"Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be punished"—etc. If a woman isn't legally a person she must be left without legal restraint in all things where the law applies only to persons. Happy woman! Free as a cyclone, and if she wants to chop her husband's head off with a rolling-pin who shall say to her nay?

"GIVE US A REST."

Politicians should be in no hurry to bring out their favorite candidates for 1884. Time enough for that after the winter has come and gone. Better attend to the closing up of this year's private business in good shape, if you have any, and the opening up of a clean set of books Jan. 1, 1884 with a pretty clear understanding as to your assets and liabilities and rating at Bradstreet's. Give the next few months entirely to home duties and when the spring time comes, gentle Ananias, you can hop into the political arena and yell the bark off the trees in yonder wood in behalf of your pet candidate, if you want to. But don't do it now, don't. Give us a peaceful, quiet winter, do. There is no sense in trotting out candidates a year in advance, anyway. So, let's burrow up, politically, until spring and then open up the candidate factory in full blast.

ITS TRUE INWARDNESS EXPOSED.

The Grand Rapids Leader exhibits exceedingly much of the Democratic gains in Iowa. The Leader professes to be the organ of the greenbackers of Western Michigan but its true inwardness is exposed when it rejoices over the result in Iowa—a Democratic gain and at the same time a very heavy greenback loss. How much longer does the Leader expect to wear the sheep's clothing? How much longer does it expect its readers to suffer themselves to be hoodwinked by its empty professions? How much longer does it intend to sail under false colors before going square over to the support of democracy, in a manly way. It has been talking to please the greenbackers and working to help the democrats, for a long time.

WE KNEW IT WAS FALSE.

The silly report started recently that the girls employed to count the greenbacks in the Treasury department were suffering from arsenical poison obtained therefrom, is denied by authority. Just as we expected. We've been publishing a country paper for the last thirteen years and guess if there is any danger of getting poisoned by counting greenbacks we'd have found it out before this.

THOSE BOOKS AT LANSING.

Under Republican rule Michigan has managed to squeeze along and get ahead so that it does not owe a dollar except the unmatured war bonds which are provided for and which the state would be glad to pay to-day if the holders would give them up. The "books at Lansing" which the fusionists last fall were so anxious to examine were laid wide open to their hypocritical gaze and they went away feeling like foolish children that had been throwing stones through a church window. It is well to remember this, for a year or so, anyway.

TWAS BUTLER'S BILL.

The Civil-Rights law, which has been declared unconstitutional, is not the Sumner bill as has been reported, it seems. A dispatch from Washington says "it was the bill which General Ben. Butler reported from the judiciary committee of the House and was the measure on account of which he has always boasted he could control the colored vote." The only way for Butler to get even with the supreme court is to tell them they lie—it is constitutional.

A few Massachusetts anti-Butler greenbackers met at Worcester the other day and nominated a straight greenback state ticket, headed by J. F. Arnold of North Adams. The new ticket will have a small following. The number of Greenbackers who stand by the greenback coalition when fusion presents a tempting bait are probably as few in Massachusetts as in Michigan.

The JOURNAL regrets the retirement from editorial labors of that very thrifty and prolific writer—Col. Vic DeLand, of the Saginaw Herald. While the JOURNAL has not always agreed with him in his political preferences it has always admired his ability and pluck and wishes him a happy and prosperous career in whatever field of action he may enter.

If the Democratic House elects Mr. Carlisle of Kentucky for speaker they will probably write on his collar before he takes his seat—"Free trade for protection only with incidental revenue for home industry." Their declarations on the tariff question should be clearly stated in some such unmistakable manner—and probably will be.

The women's congress at Chicago last week was largely attended by prominent women from all parts of the country. Many important questions were ably discussed and interesting papers read touching public affairs. Ben Butler's discovery that women are not "persons" was not even thought of.

Charley Hampton of the Harbor Springs Independent, a roaring red-hot greenbacker, has gone to Massachusetts to talk for Butler. When Charley opens up his eloquent powers and strikes his best dramatic attitude he can just make the stars tremble in the vaulty blue.

A man from up north visited the Art Loan in Detroit the other day and offered three dollars for a $5,000 painting—frame and all. He didn't get the picture and was glad of it afterward for he went to a dollar store and bought one nearly as large for 75 cents. It pays to look around.

The civil rights law having been declared unconstitutional there is much fear and trembling among the colored people in some states lest their future be more dark and dreary even than their past has been.

The oldest man now living resides in most of the southern and a few northern states. He is still hale and sprightly and when he dies there will be others to take his place.

Gen. Weaver, backed by a "solid phalanx" of 15,000 greenbackers in his own state—less than half the greenback vote of Iowa in 1880—will next year cut a swell almost as big as a weaver.

Warden Pond entertained Gov. Begole as his guest for several days at the Jackson State Prison.—Free Press.

And wasn't there enough convicts left to give him an ovation?

A heavy squall on Lake Michigan drove several vessels in the other night. A heavy squall will drive a man out of bed mighty quick sometimes, too.

The Republicans of Maryland are trying to believe they can elect their state ticket next month. Possible. Jesus came from Nazareth.

If the democrats continue to abuse their own ex-speaker Randall of Pennsylvania they will succeed eventually in making a pretty good man of him.

Gen. James B. Steedman of Toledo, the Chickamauga hero, died last Thursday, aged 67 years. One by one the gallant heroes drop out of the ranks.

O yes, the Democrats feel good over the Ohio election. Their majority this year was only about 8,000 less than it was last year, that's all.

—And now there is a small democratic presidential boom for Hoadly. It will last pretty near five minutes by the watch.

The Peninsular club of Grand Rapids will erect a $1,500 monument to the late Rev. J. Morgan Smith.

Congressman Horr and ex-congressman Burrows have gone to Massachusetts to stump against Butler.

Congressman Tom Ochiltree is looked upon in France as an intellectual mastodon.

Carpets are now made of cork. Some families have enough material on hand to make a nice carpet.

The father of Charley Ross is still looking for his long lost boy.

JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

The bell rings to night. The lulliputians at Train's Hall tonight.

Our Indian summer was a squaw winter. O. W. Stone of Ovid was in town over Sunday.

The paving has been completed on the east side. The clover seed crop is not a success this year.

Fred B. Hine moves into his new store this week.

King, Quick & King's mills have shut down for the season.

A cornfield with a pumpkin in it this fall was a rare sight.

The JOURNAL pays cash for wood and takes cash on subscription.

It is enough to make a man want to fly to drive down depot street.

Rumored that a new hotel may be put up on the east side.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bristol of St. Johns at L. E. Strong's over Sunday.

Are those wooden buildings on the east side to be moved back, or how?

When is Manager Watson going to put in that telephone exchange?

Work on the lower Grand River bridge has been progressing rather slowly.

F. Homer Hosford is now sole boss of the Saturday Globe. He writes much and writes well.

The Lyon block has attained its full height and is a handsome, well built structure.

Last Wednesday a man named Wm. Lannon was crushed by the cars at Ionia and died that night.

The Saranac Local shouts for a fire engine. The citizens will probably think about it.

Consult the label on your paper which shows the date to which your subscription is paid.

George Davis has opened a neat and well stocked meat market on the east end of the bridge.

The Board of Supervisors did well to elect Chauncy G. Merriman county drain commissioner. He is a very painstaking and thorough official.

Deputy Sheriff Weeks arrested John Downey at Cedar Springs for stealing a barrel of whiskey from the G. R. & I. bridge wreck, and jailed him at Grand Rapids Friday.

A common remark Friday: "Nice, warm day. Now we'll have a spell of Indian summer." Common remark Saturday: "By ginger—this is cold enough to freeze hair off'm a dog."

Wayne E. Morris, a former resident here and type of the JOURNAL office, has purchased the Bancroft Advertiser and is getting out a neat and lively paper. Success to Wayne.

All members of Lowell Lodge No. 38, A. O. U. W. are requested to be at A. O. U. W. Hall at 7:30 p. m., Friday eve., Nov. 2. By order of Master Workman, F. D. EDDY, R.

The Grand Rapids Post has a new and handsome head, of rustic design. Under the management of Mr. Ross the Post has appeared each week well filled with bright editorials, juicy jottings and excellent reading in all its attractive departments. May its gait henceforth beat that of Jay Eye See.

Later reports place the loss of the Saranac flouring mill, which was burned last week, at $23,000, including contents. The insurance was $10,000. The Local says that "among the losers were Albert Stobbins, who had about 300 bushels of wheat stored in the mill; S. Cahoon, nearly 300 bushels; Hiram Lee about 400 bushels; L. O. Austin, about 100 bushels; Albert Wilkinson, about 50 bushels. There were quite a number of others who had small lots stored but the firm have been so busy that they cannot tell just now who had grain there, or how much there was stored."

The schools at Lowell have opened very auspiciously, with an enrollment of 413-86 in the high school, a large percentage of whom are foreign pupils. Lowell has an enthusiastic corps of teachers, with W. L. Stuart, a graduate of the state normal, as principal. During the last vacation the buildings were put in first-class shape, and present a fine appearance. Miss Mary McVean, also a graduate of the normal, is assistant in the high school. The school has taken a new impetus, and everything indicates a successful year.—The Michigan School Moderator.

The school library is well patronized. Dr. Chas. Shepard has lived in Grand Rapids 48 years.

Good dry beech and maple stove wood brings two dollars per cord.

Immense quantities of wheat have been marketed here since Oct. 1.

E. J. Booth and family are welcome residents of Lowell once more.

Mr. & Mrs. George Robinson of Florida are visiting relatives in Vergennes.

Train's Hotel register shows a good transient patronage. The drummers are on the wing.

C. Orlando Sunderland has purchased the Lyman Aldrich property near the Catholic church.

The new county superintendent of the poor is Asa W. Meach, of Paris—a good man for the place.

There are Mother Hubbard dresses, Mother Hubbard bonnets and—yes, there are Mother Hubbard cupboard.

An open winter is predicted. We are looking for the man that predicts a short one.

Lizzie Holmes, a Grand Rapids girl with a clouded title to future bliss, took chloroform and is now in her grave.

The Impromptu Club announce their first hop for this season to take place at Train's Hall on Friday evening of next week.

The St. Johns Republican advertises for an able bodied liar. Just wait until those fellows get through stamping for Ben. Butler.

Ex-Representative James H. Campbell, formerly of Calhoun county, will locate in Grand Rapids. He is a brainy man and good lawyer.

Miss Jessie Clark commences her juvenile class in elocution Oct. 27th, at 3 o'clock at her residence. Terms $2. —12 lessons. First lesson free.

M. H. Walker received a visit yesterday from his father, who resides in Grand Rapids, and a brother from Massachusetts.

Who will occupy the Lyon block? is a question frequently asked. Wait a bit—the JOURNAL has the list nearly completed.

Hastings people are putting forth their best efforts to secure another railroad. They have the pluck and all they need now is more money.

The JOURNAL costs nearly two cents a week at yearly subscription rates. We speak of it because these are called hard times.

Wollen Sie deutsch sprechen lernen? in Prof. Franklin's new German beginner's class. Natural method, course 20 lessons six dollars. At G. Walker's.

M. L. Sweet, of Grand Rapids, goes to New York in a few days to bring home his herd of imported Holsteins, on which the ocean transportation insurance was $23,000.

Ex-Mayor Wm. Van Buren, manager of the State printing office at Lansing, has been elected alderman. He doesn't wear a very big vest but he wears a good-sized hat, just the same.

A man named Johnson was seriously injured by the caving in of the sewer on Monroe street last Sunday. He was buried to the chin in hard packed gravel and was unconscious when removed.

A permanent advance of two cents per pound in the price of tobacco is announced. Now why didn't they put that advance on flour instead of tobacco? How much longer are the poor to be made poorer and the rich richer?

A wedding-to-morrow will unite two very worthy people—Mr. Will Schneider and Miss Julietta Robinson. The balance of this item is strictly confidential. A prettier bride hasn't been discovered lately.

A lady jumped from a moving train at Owosso the other day and performed some gymnastic feats never seen at a circus. She came down the same day and found her Langtry wave in the same town where the exercises were held.

Married—At the residence of Solomon Annis Esq. in this village, on Wednesday eve, Oct. 17, by Rev. C. Oldfield, Mr. David Whittington, of Plainwell, and Miss Nora Prentiss, of Lowell. The printers were more than generously remembered.

To-night the Baptist society give an outer supper seasoned with music, readings, recitations, &c. at Music Hall, and all are cordially invited to attend. Refreshments served from 8 to 11 o'clock. Those who attend the Bell Ringers can afterward go to Music Hall and be well served.

The barns at the camp of the Grand Haven lumber company, six miles east of Stanton, burned Saturday morning. Seventeen horses, three yoke of oxen, one fat ox, some harness and a quantity of camp equipage were destroyed. The loss is about $8,000, with no insurance. It is supposed the fire caught from a lantern.

Nathan Church, of the Grand Rapids Times, in his character of "Old Gentleman" personifies the poor old dude very well for a man who will never know what it is to be old, even though he live man's full allotted age. At 70 Nathan still look like a senior just home from college.

The citizens' meeting at Train's Hall last Wednesday night was largely attended. The object of the meeting was to raise funds to defend the suit brought against the school trustees and teachers for giving Bible readings, etc. in school. Speeches were made by several present and $150 subscribed in a very few minutes. The paper was left with a committee who have since largely increased the amount.

Prof. J. B. Davis, of Ann Arbor, the engineer, is here to prescribe needed treatment for the lower bridge. The cement used in constructing the piers does not seem to harden satisfactorily and Mr. Davis is investigating the cause. It is a cement he has never before known to fail. Whether the stone work already done will have to be relaid is not yet ascertained. The construction so far has cost about $400. Prof. Davis, who thoroughly understands his business, will no doubt be able to discover and apply the remedy needed.

From the Genesee Co. Courier and the Crosswell Democrat we learn that the State Bank at Fenton and the Sanilac Co. Bank at Crosswell have just replaced their Sargent time locks for the new Holmes dynamite proof lock, the papers referred to giving a full description of the new lock and the reasons for the change. In both cases proof was given that the old style had been often opened simply by exploding two or three ounces of dynamite against the outside of the door which has caused the movement to run down and unlock, and in some cases to unlock or unlatch, and in other cases to unlock by all of these ways, the experiments being made on the three strongest and largest locks in use. We learn that many of the banks are changing their old Sargent and Yale locks for the Holmes, among them being two of the Grand Rapids banks, one at Grand Haven and at Muskegon besides many more who are quietly contemplating a change and that in advance of burglars' visits.

Will L. Smith's Bell Ringers and Comic Concert Company perform at Train's Hall to-night. With the company are those dainty little people—Commodore Foote and sister. The company is first-class, if any reliance can be placed up on the very complimentary remarks of the daily press, both east and west. They will have a big house.

Annual County Drain Report. County Drain Commissioner Chauncy G. Merriman has filed with the county clerk his annual financial report to the board of supervisors of drains constructed by him during the past year, as follows: Mud lake drain, Grattan, $175.50; Mason and Slayton drain, Grattan, $245; Jones drain, Grattan, $91.35; Flanagan drain, Grattan, $44. Kinyon drain, Lowell, $135.19; Pettis drain, Ada, $34.25; Davis drain, Grattan, $43.25.

Big Fire at Grand Haven. A very disastrous fire occurred at Grand Haven Sunday, destroying the Stearns manufacturing company's wind mill factory, three dwellings, one general store, a large warehouse and half a million feet of Norway pine lumber. The fire broke out at 7 a. m. and raged all day until 7 p. m. The excitement was very great, and much other property, and perhaps all the rest of that part of the city, was saved by the hard work of the firemen and citizens. The total amount of the losses incurred is estimated at $50,000, with about $15,000 insurance. The dwellings destroyed were owned by Albert Kiel, John Van Dyke and Mr. Wilcox. The store was owned by John Verhoeke.

Memorial Services. The memorial services of the late Mrs. Webb, held at the M. E. Church Sunday afternoon, were very appropriate and impressive. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Rork, in well chosen words paid a touching tribute to the memory of the departed; Prof. Stuart read a letter from the pastor of the Ann Arbor M. E. church, in which the writer manifested deep feeling and spoke in terms of highest praise of her christian devotion and rare endowments. Mrs. Wittrup presented an excellent memorial paper which echoed the heart-words of all who knew the admirable qualities of mind and heart of the lamented sister. Music appropriate for the occasion was rendered by the choir. A large and deeply affected congregation was present.

Sidney B. Smith. Capt. Sidney Byron Smith, who was instantly killed last Sunday at the Middleville fire, the particulars of which are set forth in another article, was well known to many of our readers. His war record was excellent and many will hear of his sudden and violent death with profound regret. He went to the war with the "Old Third" as a private, was wounded several times and lost a leg at Chancellorsville. For meritorious services he was promoted to captain. He was a brother of Mr. Henry Smith of Ada and of Mrs. Judge Tracy of Grand Rapids. Previous to our taking an interest in the JOURNAL he was for some months its editor and a very active and diligent worker in and out of the office.

The Concert and Recital. Miss Carr's concert and final recital Monday night was a decided success. To say there was not a weak part in the entire program is to give credit to the management as well as the performers. The stage setting was fine, a large and enthusiastic audience was present and the entertainment was first class. Miss Carr more than excelled herself. She was in excellent voice—and costume, and rendered both: humorous and pathetic admirably. "The Creel of the Bells" was never better given by any elocutionist in our hearing. Miss Carr has decided talent and a promising future if she continues to apply her energies to her work as faithfully as she ought. It was well remarked that Miss Lamb sang "Oh, how Delightful," delightfully. Her voice shows much improvement in culture and she deserves credit for acquiring so much unaided by professional instructors. Mrs. Strong fully sustained her excellent reputation as a vocalist in the rendition of that beautiful solo, "When the leaves begin to fall." She sang beautifully and merited much praise which was accorded. The piano duet by Miss Mason and Miss Stone was skillfully performed. In the courtship scene Miss Clark, Messrs. Powelson and Mason proved themselves equal to any emergency that might arise of that nature, and brought down the house very "audibly." The "big 4" quartette club—Messrs. Sunderlin, Burnett, Howe and Chapman, stood up like little men and warbled well. The accompanists—Miss Van Wagner, Miss Stocking, Mr. J. H. Bickert and Deacon Zadok Howe, each performed commendably the parts assigned. Miss Carr is to be congratulated upon the result of her efforts here and many friends wish her unbounded success in her efforts elsewhere.

Suicide of Edwin Krum. The startling announcement that Edwin Krum, of Vergennes, had committed suicide by hanging was received here Monday morning shortly after the deed was done. Few at first could believe the report to be true but it was true, nevertheless, and great was the surprise thereat. It seems that Edwin ate his breakfast as usual Monday morning after which it was supposed he went out to husk corn. He did not seem to be laboring under any mental depression, but appeared natural and gave no signs indicating rashness of any sort. Not long after he left the house his little boy went out to the barn and seeing (but not recognizing him) his father hanging from a beam ran back to the house and told his mother there was a man hanging in the barn. Mrs. Krum hastened to the barn to be shocked and horrified at the sight of her husband suspended from the beam over the hay mow. Her cries brought Ed. Bennett and Ed. Soules promptly to her aid who immediately cut the rope and took down the body. Life was extinct and probably had been for some minutes—perhaps half an hour. He was found with his knees barely resting on the hay mow, with one hand clutching the rope and the other clinging to his hat.

An inquest was duly held and a verdict rendered according to the facts as stated. Deceased leaves a wife and one child. What led him to take his own life is largely surmised; the prevailing opinion seems to be that he had brooded over a possible division of some property which he thought unjust, until his mind became unsettled. His brother George, in Dakota, was telegraphed to come to the funeral which was put off until yesterday afternoon to await his arrival. It is a very sad affair and has cast a deep gloom throughout the entire community.

Fatal Fire at Middleville.

Capt. S. B. Smith and others killed. A dispatch from Middleville Monday gives the following account of a disastrous fire and terrible accident which occurred there on Sunday:

At about five o'clock Sunday morning an alarm of fire was given by Aaron Lind, who was thus early on the street. The whole village was soon aroused, and the two-story brick block owned by Capt. Sidney B. Smith, and occupied by him for a hardware store and storage for agricultural machinery, was found to be all ablaze, so that there was no hope of saving the building or contents. In a shed adjoining were stored a large number of agricultural machines, and Mr. Smith and others went in this shed to save the property. While thus engaged the wall of the building fell on the shed and barred those inside in the ruins. They were immediately extricated by those present, but Mr. Smith and a boy 14 years old, a son of Thomas Walsh, were killed and badly mangled by the falling brick and timbers, and Silas Geer, a clerk for Mr. Smith, so badly hurt that his death is expected. Charles Bundy died from the injuries received last night. George Freeman was badly hurt, but not fatally. The loss of life has cast a gloom over the village which is all in mourning over the sad calamity. The upper part of the building was used for lodge purposes by the Masons and Good Templars, each of which society loses about $1,000 worth of property. The fire originated in the basement, and is supposed to have been in kindling. The loss on building is about $10,000 and on stockabout $20,000, said to be partially covered by insurance. Mr. Smith was an old and leading citizen and universally respected. He was a captain in the old Third Michigan in frantry, and served during the war. Capt. S. B. Smith, whose sad and sudden death is here announced, was formerly a resident of Lowell and for a short time (some 14 years ago) was editor of the JOURNAL. He was a man of great energy and perseverance and at Middleville had made a handsome property. The announcement of his death was received here with deep regret.

Send in your advertising copy early. Mr. A. H. Ball is visiting relatives and friends in Muskegon.

Handsome plate fronts have been put up in Giles and Wilson block.

Dr. J. L. W. Young, recently from Clarksville, has come to Lowell to practice medicine.

The old cistern back of the JOURNAL office will hold a few more boys. Office hours from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Hiram Potts, of the Grand Haven Courier-Journal, takes down the Democratic colors and runs up an independent flag.

The liveliest flurry in railroad stocks that has been known for many years occurred in New York Saturday. The "Shorts" were badly squeezed.

The editor of the Montague Lumberman (Democratic) speaks of Gov. Begole as the "Great accident" and wants to be forgiven for aiding in his election. Death bed repentance, brother.

The Detroit Evening Journal improves with age and its popularity seems to be steadily increasing. It may yet be the Jay Eye See of Michigan Journalism.

A man going out of town the other night pulled a flask from his pocket and found its contents gone. "O, I C U B M. T." he remarked and went back after s'more the same hair oil.

Judge Montgomery fixes the following dates for holding the several terms of court in his circuit for 1884-5:

- 1st Monday in March;
- 1st Monday in May;
- 1st Monday in September;
- 1st Monday in December.

The applications of Wesley Johnson of Lowell and Chas. H. Richardson of Bowne for rebate of taxes paid by them on certain lands was denied by the Board of supervisors. Or, rather, the committee reported adversely and the matter was laid on the table.

Some of our farmers are building additions, plastering or otherwise improving their dwellings.

SO. BOSTON BREEZES.

Rev. Mr. Rork preaches at the M. E. Church next Sunday at two o'clock.

C. L. Parsons, is spending a few weeks at Hastings.

Next meeting of So. Boston Grange one week from next Friday P. M. Question for discussion—"Deep or shallow plowing."

A party who attended our Early Settlers Meeting last year—said to us Saturday in Ionia, that they wanted to come again. We are glad to learn that some interest is taken in the matter already in our own neighborhood.

Let every one come with something which will add to the interest of the meeting—and help make it the best we have ever had.

It is reported that Joseph Tallant has brought a wife home from Canada.

W. S. Hughson's game counted 1449 at the Clarksville squirrel hunt. It was the highest of all the hunters.

John Season's bought a pair of yearling grade Short Horn steers of D. H. English for $75.00 to feed for beef. They must have looked good to his eye to have seen any money in them, with coarse grain at present prices.

CANNON'S ROAR.

Lyman H. Chapman and wife of St. Ignace are visiting friends here.

The house of Wm. Groner took fire last Saturday morning, but luckily the flames were subdued before much damage was done.

E. & W. Hoag of Vergennes passed Sunday with their cousin Will H.

Mr. Luce, Master of the State grange dedicated the grange hall of this place to the order of the P. of H. last Thursday after which he addressed the public.

His speech was good and to the point, and merits great praise. About 30 were present at the dedicating exercises.

After which a good hearty supper was enjoyed by those present. The county grange met the next day (Friday) which was largely attended. The Union grange will be held here next Saturday commencing at 10 o'clock.

Special mention should be made of the fact that Mrs. J. Bookey and Mrs. M. Pratt visited the school at this place last Friday; they being the first persons who have visited the school since its commencement Sept. 31. It is very strange that so little interest is manifested in school work by those who support the same.

The funeral services of Mrs. Wm. Austin were held at the M. E. Church on Wednesday last week, Rev. G. M. Griffith officiating.

Rev. Mr. Ward of Grand Rapids, conducted services at the M. E. church Sunday eve.

Church will close Friday for a vacation of two weeks.

Miss Misner of Grand Rapids is visiting Mrs. Belle Maddern. C. ANSON.

DR. PENNELL'S. Dear Sir—Overwork has done for me what it does for many. Having lost my appetite, I add my testimony to the value of your Zoa-Phora. For five years I suffered greatly with Erysipelas, being obliged to use a supporter during all those painful, weary years, but, thanks to your medicine, I was no more. I laid it off after using one and a half bottles. I am not well, but I work all the time, and am better than I ever expected to be. You may use my letter, if any one wishes to write me for more information, give them my full address. Mrs. C. G. JERSEYVILLE, Ill., April 25, 1882.

DR. PENNELL'S. Dear Sir—I am more than pleased with the effect of your Zoa-Phora in our daughter's case. I am surprised to see how she has improved. She is gaining in weight and color, and I think feels better than she ever did. My nerves are steady, and the distress in her chest is entirely gone. I firmly believe that Zoa-Phora is all that has saved her life. My husband said we would test Zoa-Phora thoroughly. He gave it to me according to the directions, and I feel better than I have in two hours. I had complete relief. I advise all ladies who suffer from nervous or sick headaches, or any form of female weakness, to use Zoa-Phora. There is no medicine to compare with it. May 15, 1882.

Our Pamphlet on "Diseases of Women and Children," SENT GRATIS. Every woman above 15 years of age, especially Mothers should read it. All letters marked private are read by Dr. PENNELL only.
