The last session of the Lowell W. C. T. U. was very interesting. The prin- day. cipal business before the society was the appointment of committees and partial arrangement for a Fourth of July celebration under the auspices of the above named society. For full notice and particulars see JOURNAL locals.

A communication from West Lowell W. C. T. U., with a gift of $3.00, was received with a yote of thanks,

We also had a report from Mrs. Chandler Johnson and Mrs. Stark, two of the delegates to the Annual Convention of the State W. C. T. U., held at Flint, June 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th. Mrs. Mary T. Lathrap, president of the State Union, presided.

Among the noted guests present were Gov. Begole and wife. He was said to be the first Governor ever seated upon the platform with the ladies of the W. C. T. U. He made a few remarks, expressing himself in sympathy with the society-said he was a temperance man -for forty years had been a strong temperance man. He said that one Prosecuting Attorney had been expelled from office on account of official delinquency in the temperance movement. Mrs. Lathrap, in behalf of the convention, presented the Governor and his wife a beautiful basket of flowers.

Floral decorations were in abundance and beautiful beyond description, baskets of flowers and other floral designs being presented to the district presidents

In the Supreme Court. An information has been filed in th supreme court by the the attorney general against James F. Jov. E. W. Meddaugh, A. B. Maynard, Joseph Hickson, C. P. Hanaford, W. J. Spicer, Charles Stiff, S. R. Callaway, J. W. Chase, Samuel Laing, F. W. Powell and others, incorporators of the Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee, and the action thus begun is intended to develop the point as to whether the road is legally incorporated or not. The claim is made that the Detroit and Milwaukee railway company as at present constituted is not Michigan corporation within control of the state courts, but is a foreign organization wholly outside of their jurisliction. On the other hand the company claims to have obtained a special charter from the extinct Detroit and Pontiac, and Detroit and Oakland roads. Legal opinions differ regarding the regularity of the organization under those old charters. The affairs of the company islature at different times; that made in

Professor Dickie of Albion College has been secured as the orator of the day. He is recommended by those who have heard him as a very fluent and entertaining speaker. His subject will be one in which the citizens of Lowell and vicinity are deeply interested, while the glorious Fourth will not be forgotten. As patriots we reverence the day of our national emancipation from the bondage of King George and the men who fought dom; as citizens we look forward with hopeful expectations that the day is dawning when our beloved country will be released from a greater tyrant, King Alcohol. As a Union we invite everybody to our temperance feast. The

The Harbor Springs Republican cordially endorses a Kent county candidate as follows:

We are pleased to note the fact that Mr. Taggart, of Grand Rapids, is gaining strength as a candidate on the Republican ticket for Attorney General. He is a good man and will fill the position if elected with great credit to himself and the state. He is an able lawyer, unassuming and a perfect gentleman in every respect. Vote for him.

Commendable and Commended.

Rev. D. O. Ball's letter published in ast week's JOURNAL has been the subject of much favorable comment, and deservedly, too. As an ardent prohibitionist he has carefully surveyed the whole situation and not shut his eyes to results. He gives most excellent advice to political prohibitionists when he

The perpetuity of our liberties and personal rights are of infinite value to every moral being, the preservation of which should lift us above the smoke of petty differences as to political fac-tions, or modes of accomplishing re-sults."

We commend the above manly and sensible utterances to the candid con sideration of those in sympathy with the Union party movement.

Again Mr. Ball, sp aking of the Re publican nominees, truthfully says: "The contest seemed to be between the politicians and the popular voice, Every inch of ground was contested

The battle was hard fought. Victory was gained in the use of the means. The people's candidates were placed be-fore them with one united voice that filled the air with sounding praise, and the battle will be fought in the name of "God and home and native land."
Whatever our party affiliations may be, we can but see, in the candidates of that convention, men of marked ability, heroism and broad conception, who will watch with equal interest every star that sparkles in the firmament of our national existence and see to it that none shall be snatched from its native place by the ruthless hand of rebellion.

Long's Confession. Andrew Long, in jail charged with the murder of his wife near Muir, made full confession in the presence of the sheriff and two others.
