EDITORIAL COMMENT.

—The democrats at present are very much in love with the party prohibitionists. They pat them fondly on the back and tell them to go ahead with their good work, and kindly assist them to all the Republican votes they can get. At the same time the democratic party to-day declares against sumptuary laws—emphatically against prohibition. At the Buffalo democratic demonstration for Cleveland the other night one of the banners in the procession bore this motto: "No Maine Law for us." Gov. Cleveland headed this procession. In his letter of acceptance Gov. Cleveland expressly declares against sumptuary laws. At the recent big democratic meeting in New York City a prominent speaker spoke of Blaine as a "Maine Law" man and said "we want no prohibition in ours." The party prohibitionists are doing all they can to place the democratic party in power. The democratic party appreciates the favor. In other words, the democrats say to the party prohibitionists—"We damn your principles but we do admire your methods." And the party prohibitionists, knowing this to be true, suffer themselves to be used as the tools of the democratic party. The time will come when they will realize the falsity of their position.

—Nobody pretends to say that Mr. Comstock begins to compare in ability and intelligence with Mr. FitzGerald. Nobody can justly claim that Mr. FitzGerald is not just as good a man in every respect as Mr. Comstock and those who know them best must admit that in many respects Mr. FitzGerald is immeasurably superior. Mr. FitzGerald in Congress would give prominence and character to the Fifth District. Mr. Comstock in Congress would be able to do little more than to take and keep a back seat. Mr. FitzGerald is a strong debater, an experienced legislator, and his influence would be felt and recognized. Mr. Comstock, his best friends will admit, is no debater and knows nothing of legislative work. Compare the merits of the two men and the result is such a contrast as to bring Mr. Comstock just about knee high to Mr. FitzGerald.

—Ohio election next Tuesday. Both sides claim the State. The result will probably be close. Ohio is good for from 5,000 to 10,000 more Republican votes in November than in October. If the Republicans carry that state next Tuesday by any majority, they are solid in November.

—The movement for St. John is distinctly in the interest of Cleveland, and is encouraged everywhere by the democratic managers.—Ex.

The third party leaders admit it.

—Several readers of the JOURNAL have asked us to publish the names of the democratic and greenback electors separately in order that the Butler electors may be known from the Cleveland electors in this state. Below is a list of the electors as chosen by each party:

Democratic.	Greenback.
Wm B Moran.	Moses W Field,
John W Flanders,	Herman Goeschel,
Hiram O Rose,	Andrew N Harshaw,
Alfred L Millard,	Fred Carnahan,
Wm D Thompson,	A S Dyckman,
A F Kelsey,	J J Watkins,
John R Savidge.	Wildman Mills.

All these names will appear on the Butler and West tickets; also on the Cleveland and Hendricks tickets.

—Democrat to party prohibitionist: "We do admire your methods but d—n your principles." Party prohibitionist to democrat: "Nay, say not so; our principles, like yours, are briefly stated thus: 'Anything to beat the Republicans.'" That settled it and arm in arm they walk away together and divide a peanut, each insisting that the other shall have the biggest half. How pleasant to dwell together in unity.

—In 1876 the national greenback party declared in its platform that it would never support a salary grabber for office. Benjamin F. Butler was the chief champion of the salary grab bill; he grabbed the extra salary and kept it. Did the greenback party in its platform of 1884 reaffirm its declaration of principles adopted in 1876? Make a note of this.

—While Gen. Logan was in the front of battle fighting for the Union, his opponent, Mr. Hendricks, was one of the army of stay-at-home rebel sympathizers who talked "fire in the rear." He will remain a stay-at home and after Nov. 4, he will be ready to declare as he did in 1864 that "the war is a failure."

—In the first ward of the city of Buffalo (Cleveland's home) 286 democrats have come out for Blaine & Logan and organized a club. Cleveland runs best where he is least known. Prominent men say he will run badly behind his ticket in his own county. Blaine always runs far ahead of his ticket in his county.

—D. E. Corbitt, of Grand Rapids, recently one of the ablest and most active greenbackers in Western Michigan, is making effective speeches for Blaine & Logan. He is now a zealous Republican and gives good reasons for uniting and working with that party.

—From all parts of the district come loud praises of Hon. John C. FitzGerald, our next congressman. He is one of the most effective speakers on the stump and wherever he goes he makes friends.

—Free trade in America would be protection to England. England wants Cleveland elected. England wants us to spread our bread with our butter and give the slice to her.

—Four years ago we could have traveled all over this country in cog. under the alias of Grover Cleveland. Mighty glad we didn't, though.

—Henry A. Robinson, one of Detroit's most prominent greenbackers, has come out for Blaine and Logan and is making Republican speeches.

—Cleveland went to Buffalo one night last week and back to Albany next day. Among his many friends to greet him was not Maria Halpin.

—It was John Kelly who said a few weeks ago that "a weaker man than Hancock is running against a stronger man than Garfield."

—Every man who votes for Butler must also vote for his associate on the ticket, Gen. A. M. West, a rebel officer in the late war.

—The Republican party will continue business at the old stand. No trouble to show goods.

—The party that is slandering Blaine is the same party that slandered Lincoln and Garfield.

JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

Fred Mason is improving.

Mrs. O. C. McDannell is very ill.

Wheat: 72c for white; 74c for red.

A fine 10 lb. boy, Oct. 3d, to Mr. & Mrs. W. T. Preston.

Mr. & Mrs. Geo. Wilson have returned from the far west to Lowell.

Mrs. H. M. Patrick of Le Roy, Mich., (nee Mary Barkley) is in town.

Hon. J. C. FitzGerald speaks at Ada to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon.

Lillie Bush, from Woods Corners, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bush, last week.

Hon. J. C, FitzGerald at Music Hall to-morrow night. He is a good speaker.

Owing to the severe rain storm the Ionia County fair was postponed one year?

Mrs. S. M. Martin, of Otisco, sister of Mrs. Dr. Richards of this place, died Oct. 1.

A wedding at the Congregational church this morning; to be reported in our next.

Rink open Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays—day and evening—until further notice.

'Bus orders may be left at Train's Hotel and the Davis House and will receive prompt attention.

Comstock's scrip, which he compelled his workmen to take for their labor, will not buy votes this fall.

Hon. Jno. C. FitzGerald at Music Hall to-morrow (Thursday) night. Go and hear your next congressman discuss the tariff and other issues.

W. J. Medler has added a lunch counter to his dining hall where cheap lunches can be had at all hours.

Henry Sebolt, of Cascade, aged 70 years, fell from a straw stack Saturday and broke his neck. Funeral Sunday.

C. W. Wisner went to Jonesville Saturday to attend the funeral on Sunday of a deceased uncle, Mr. A. R. Wisner.

Election three weeks from next Tuesday. Don't get excited but keep right on doing good work for the Republican ticket.

J. B. Fletcher's little six-year old girl picked up 25 bushels of potatoes in one day. There's a girl that is entitled to a blue ribbon.

Mr. S. E. Hull, of Albion, Mich., is visiting old home and friends here, where he is always greeted with a cordial welcome.

The Rink Grand Opening Saturday night was a success. Miss Garnsey pleased the large audience immensely with her expert rolling.

D. B. Kelley, of Fargo, Dak., formerly of Lowell, is spending a few days here. Daniel is connected with a large furniture and undertaking establishment at Fargo.

A young lady is canvassing this vicinity for subscriptions to Flower's History of the Republican party, a very valuable historical work which ought to be in every private library.

"The Lever" is trying hard to earn its money received from Democratic sources. That it does receive democratic aid there is not the slightest doubt among those who know the inside of the concern.

Hon. B. G. Stout, Hon. E. A. Burlingame and Hon. C. C. Comstock spoke for free trade and Comstock to a large audience at Music Hall last night. The democratic street banner tore itself into shreds soon after.

The last races of the season at Train's Driving Park will take place Oct. 23d & 24th, when liberal premiums will be given in trotting and running races and to horses on exhibition. Particulars next week.

T. B. Hastings raised 71 bushels of Early Ohio potatoes from one bushel planted, without fertilizing. Twenty-one of these potatoes brought to us weighed 28 lbs. and filled a half bushel measure "heaping full." Good tally for Hastings.

If the democrats think Mr. Comstock is as able a man as Mr. FitzGerald why don't they put him on the stump and arrange for a few joint discussions? Come now, what d'ye say? Let us have some joint discussions between FitzGerald and Comstock.

The Ionia National groans heavily because Mr. FitzGerald is making so many friends among the farmers and laboring men. Knowing well that Mr. Comstock is a mental dwarf by the side of FitzGerald, his friends will be very sure not to send Mr. C. to speak among the farmers.

"No chance for you there," he said to a friend who was looking with covetous eyes upon the fair form and face of a Grand Rapids girl whose pa is rich. "No chance for you there—her father keeps a coachman." We took the next train home and haven't heard whether the elopement was a success or not.

A rousing Republican meeting was held at Bowne Center last night and a large Blaine & Logan Club was organized. Speakers: W. A. Smith of Grand Rapids and J. W. Hine of Lowell. The Lowell Glee Club was also on hand. Splendid time. Bowne will step proudly to the front this fall for the Republican ticket.

Owing to the severe rainstorm last Wednesday night the Republican meeting advertised for Alton was not held. Another Republican meeting is announced for Alton to be held Saturday evening, Oct. 18. Two speakers and the Lowell Glee Club propose to be there, "rain or shine," at that time. Give out the notice.

A solitary Republican in Grand Rapids, W. W. Hyde, having gone over to Cleveland, thereat the heart of democracy greatly rejoices. Democrats pretend to feel good sometimes without being able to explain why. They forget, apparently, that there is a large democratic Blaine & Logan club in Grand Rapids that will, almost, offset Mr. Hyde's vote.

The flowers on the casket containing the remains of Mrs. Wm. Robinson were beautiful almost beyond description. Among the floral designs were a large sickle and harp from Grand Rapids, a handsome bouquet of flowers and another of grain, grasses, autumn leaves and everlasting flowers, from Mrs. G. W. Crosby and a lovely wreath from Mrs. Allen Lamb of Lowell.

M. A. Holcomb, of Bowne, is a man of good ability, strict integrity and is well informed on public questions If elected to the Legislature he will represent this district with credit. Some of his enemies say he is too outspoken, too positive, &c. Let us say to such that no legislator amounts to much unless he has the courage of his convictions and dare utter them. Mr. Holcomb is thus really commended instead of condemned by his enemies. He is honest, firm, positive, and these are elements found in every good and influential legislator.

One of the brightest and best young men in Kent County is R. A. Maynard, of Sparta, the Republican candidate for county clerk. Nature endowed him with brains and a right heart. Well educated, energetic and thoroughly active in every good work, he deserves the support of all good men. Elect Maynard and the county clerk's office will be run by a man the people will want to have run for the same office again.

Kent county never had a better Judge of Probate than Judge Cyrus E. Perkins. He is a model official, deservedly popular with all parties and all classes. His office is one of great responsibility and trust. The people have confidence in Judge Perkins and if merit wins he will be elected by a rousing majority. Property owners in Kent county, regardless of party, know Judge Perkins is the best man named for that office and in voting for him they are voting for their own best interests.

A large and appreciative audience heard Frazer's address at Music Hall Thursday night. Mr. Frazer made a rousing speech, bristling with telling points and pointed facts. He is one of the best on the stump and he did good work here for Blaine & Logan and the Republican ticket. He showed up the fallacy and inconsistency of the party prohibitionists in so effective a manner as to cause some of their democratic-fusion friends to hustle around early the next morning to brace up their prohibition party friends. It was very "amoosin" as A. Ward used to say of his kangaroo.

The Republicans of Montcalm county have nominated as their candidate for Judge of Probate a man who ought to have the cordial and earnest support of the voters of that county. His name is George P. Stone. We know him well. We knew him years ago when, while teaching school, he devoted his leisure hours to reading law, exhibiting that perseverance and pluck that meant success. He has worked his way up from a poor boy to the position he now occupies as an attorney standing high in his profession. He has always been an active Republican, a perfectly trustworthy boy and man and such as he we are glad to see go to the front. If the voters of Montcalm want any outside indorsements as to Mr. Stone's merits they can draw on a host of his old friends in Kent and the draft will be promptly honored.

A very pleasant social affair occurred at the rooms of the A. O. U. W. Friday night in honor of the worthy "M. W." of the order, L. F. Severy, who with his family move to Kansas this week. A large number of members, their wives, daughters and invited guests assembled and enjoyed the occasion highly. On behalf of the "Lodge" E. W. Dodge, Esq., in a happy and effective speech gave a brief outline of the excellent work of the order, closing his address by presenting to Mr. Severy a beautiful A. O. U. W. jewel, handsomely inscribed, from his brother "workmen" as a token of their high regard for him. Mr. Severy responded with feeling, gratefully accepting the gift and the good wishes of the donors. Refreshments were then served and social intercourse followed, pleasant and profitable to all present. Mr. & Mrs. Severy go to their new home in Kansas with the best wishes of a host of friends they leave behind. May success attend them.

"A voter" in Grattan wants to know what Representative Sellers' chances are for reelection in the third district. We have not definite information on that point but we can say and do say that if any representative in that district ever deserved a hearty endorsement from his constituents Mr. Sellers does. We personally know that he was a faithful and diligent legislator and made an excellent record. He introduced the soldiers' bounty bill and its passage in the house was due more to his own personal efforts than to those of any other member of that body. If there is an old soldier in his district that goes back on him he goes back on his best friend. Mr. Sellers worked and voted for submission of a prohibitory amendment. If there is a "submissionist" in his district who goes back on Sellers he goes back on decency and common sense. He represented faithfully and ably his constituents. If they don't return him to the legislature they will exhibit less good sense and more ingratitude than we have ever seen in his district. Do we believe he will be elected? We do, for we believe the voters of the third district will reward and not punish a faithful servant.

BLAINE!

At Grand Rapids, Wednesday Eve. Oct 15.

As will be seen in another article, headed "Blaine's Michigan Trip," our next President will be in Grand Rapids next Wednesday evening, where he will receive a magnificent reception. Reduced railroad rates will no doubt be secured and thousands of people from Western Michigan will visit the city to see Mr. Blaine. On Thursday afternoon (according to program) he will pass Lowell going east, making a brief stop at the Lowell station. Just what hour he will pass here is not yet known—probably between one and three o'clock p. m. Undoubtedly a large crowd of people will be at the depot Thursday afternoon to see Mr. Blaine. Let everybody turn out!

HON. J. C. FITZGERALD.

At Music Hall, Lowell, Thursday Eve. Oct. 9.

Hon. J. C. FitzGerald, Republican candidate for Congress, will speak at Music Hall to-morrow night. Everybody come out!

Republican Meetings.

At Music Hall, Lowell, Thursday evening, Oct. 9.

At the Watters School House in Vergennes, Friday evening, Oct. 10.

At Alton Saturday evening, Oct. 18.

Two speakers and the Lowell Glee Club will be present at each of the above meetings. Everybody invited to attend.

The Quint-essence of It.

At a meeting of Congregational ministers in Boston recently the Rev. Dr. Quint of Dover, N. H, said: "I am a Prohibitionist. In 1860 I cast my last Democratic vote. I do not care to cast another, whether for Cleveland, Butler or St. John."

That's what the JOURNAL calls the Quint-essence of the situation.

Card of Thanks.

Editor Journal—Permit us through your paper to express our deep gratitude to our many friends who so honored us by their presence and presents at the residence of Mr. C. B. Carter on Tuesday evening of last week; also to the members of Lowell Lodge No. 38 of A. O. U. W. Friday evening, for the cordial reception extended and beautiful gift presented. May Heaven's rich blessings rest upon them all is our earnest petition. MR. & MRS. L. F. SEVERY.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The JOB PRINTING DEPARTMENT of the JOURNAL office is now under the sole control of CHAS. H. KNIFFIN, who has a lease of the same and will carry on the business in his own name. This arrangement separates the job printing business entirely from the newspaper work of this office. Mr. Kniffin is a first-class job printer and will give his entire attention to that work, and we bespeak for him generous patronage of the public, which the office has had in the past. He will occupy the same rooms in which the job printing business of this office has lately been conducted. All bills for job work done previous to Oct. 6, 1884 are to be paid to Mr. Hine, proprietor of the JOURNAL. All bills for job work done on and after that date are payable only to Mr. Kniffin.

Our new foreman of the JOURNAL newspaper department is MR. E. L. CRAW, a competent and trustworthy workman. In the absence of the editor and proprietor Mr. Craw will receive money for subscriptions and advertisements, and is authorized to make contracts for the same. The proprietor of the JOURNAL, having transferred the entire business of the job printing department to Mr. Kniffin, will now have more time to devote to newspaper work and other matters requiring his personal attention.

What Of It?

The Prohibtionists in the Fifth district have nominated a man for congress who has just laid in two barrels of cider for winter use. In Clinton county they nominated a man for judge of Probate who rents a building for saloon purposes while the Republican candidate has been a temperance man all his life. The cause of temperance is very apt to go forward when leaders of the party put up that kind of men, when they have men whose temperance proclivities are well known, and are not mixed.—Howard Record.

Well, what of it? So long as the avowed object of the prohibition party is to beat the Republicans what difference does it make who they nominate? What care they for the temperance cause when they go about to defeat it? Mr. FitzGerald, the Republican candidate for congress in this district, never drank a glass of liquor in his life! He is opposed by Mr. Edsell, the prohibition nominee. Can Mr. Edsell show as good a record? But why parley? If anybody thinks the prohibition party is working in the interest of temperance he is sadly deceiving himself. It is merely a help-boost-the-democratic-party, and that is all it amounts to.

From P. D. Sneathen.

HORTON BAY, Mich.

Friend Hine,—I think your waste basket cannot be quite full, at least I infer this to be a fact, as I have noticed an unusual number of letters printed in the JOURNAL lately. With your permission I would like to say a word about the work of the fusion movement up here in this newly settled county (Charlevoix). I came across a man traveling about here, said to be drawing ten dollars per week from the fusion and berating the republican party, to a few people, generally in the school houses, trying to explain the great principles of "fusion." I asked him what great political principles they expected to gain by fusion with the democrats of this state. O, he said they were not contending for any great principles, but fused with the democrats of this state, for the same reason that they fused with the republicans in Missouri, to break down the dominant parties—organize a "true reform party." He did not say it just in these words but the hint was there all the same. He was a greenbacker. Why, sir, when we come to think of it, the republican party is the legitimate father of the greenbacks, as well as our whole country, and of its grandest institutions, grander than those of any other nation upon the face of the earth, and all these political side shows, are illegitimate children, born of renegade mothers. And will the real heirs of this blessed old homestead sit down in apathy and let the different aliases have their own way? I say NO with a big N! O, he says, they want a change. For one thing they want those "millions of dollars" of gold and silver piled up in Washington paid out towards liquidating the public debt. What guarantee have we that in a little while greenbacks and all government paper would be worth more than 30 or 40 per cent on the dollar, if put on the markets of the world, if this guarantee for hard money payment from any cause should become unavailing? There certainly would be a change and then, too, free trade would soon break down three-fourths of all the manufacturing interests of the United States. When this is done what guarantee have we that England would not charge us two or three prices for all her manufactured articles we would have to buy of her make? I tell you there would soon be a change!

I would like to say a word before I close about the republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor, the Hon. A. Buttars, of Charlevoix. He appears to be a thorough business man, of a real every day sort; not over and above rich as to this world's goods, but when you meet him and clasp hands, you instinctively feel that you stand in the presence of a real, true gentleman, who if elected, will be an honor to the state and the party who elects him to that office. Glad to see you hewing so close to the line now adays, and hope you will not allow, if you can help it, one of those illegitimate chips mentioned above to stick to any of the timbers of our grand old ship of state. Yours Fraternally,

P. D. SNEATHEN.

BLAINE'S MICHIGAN TRIP.

HOW THE NEXT PRESIDENT WILL SPEND HIS THREE DAYS IN THE STATE.

James G. Blaine will arrive in Detroit from Toledo on Tuesday, Oct. 14. Mr. Blaine will spend the three following days—Oct. 15, 16 and 17—in Michigan. The Republican state central committee announces Mr. Blaine's trip through the state as follows:

Mr. Blaine and party will leave Detroit at 9:30 a. m., standard time, on Wednesday, Oct. 15, on the Detroit, Lansing & Northern railroad. Brief stops will be made at Plymouth, Brighton, Howell, Fowlerville and Williamston. Lansing will be reached about noon, and a stop of fifteen or twenty minutes made. Short stops will be made at Grand Ledge and Portland. At Ionia a stop of fifteen or twenty minutes will be made. The, taking the Stanton branch of the road, the train will run to Stanton, Edmore and Big Rapids, a quarter of an hour's stop being made at the latter place. At Big Rapids Mr. Blaine will take the Grand Rapids & Indiana railroad for Howard City, Pierson, Cedar Springs, Rockford and Grand Rapids. Grand Rapids will be reached at about 7 p. m., and a demonstration will take place in the evening. Mr. Blaine will remain in Grand Rapids over night.

THE SECOND DAY.

At 9:30 o'clock on the morning of Thursday, Oct. 16, Mr. Blaine will leave Grand Rapids on the Chicago and West Michigan railroad. Brief stops will be made at Zeeland, Holland and Grand Haven, and Muskegon will be reached at 11 o'clock. About an hour and a quarter will be spent in Muskegon. Mr. Blaine will return on the Chicago and West Michigan to Ferrysburg, where he and his party will be transferred to the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee railway. Brief stops will be made at Coopersville, Grand Rapids, LOWELL, St. Johns, Ovid and Owosso. At Owosso the Michigan Central railroad will be taken for Saginaw. The train will go through Chesaning and St. Charles, arriving at Saginaw City at about 4:30 P. M. Mr. Blaine will there be escorted to the base ball park, and is expected to make a brief speech. He will then go to East Saginaw, where the night will be spent at the Bancroft house. Mr. Blaine will probably review a procession of torchlight companies at East Saginaw.

THE THIRD DAY.

Mr. Blaine and escort will leave East Saginaw at 9:30 a. m. Friday, Oct. 17, and go to Bay City on the Flint & Pere Marquette railroad. At Bay City there will be an hour's reception; thence to Flint by the Flint & Pere Marquette railroad, where a stop of ten minutes will be made. At Flint he will take the Chicago & Grand Trunk railroad to Port Huron, stopping at Lapeer. At Port Huron a reception of an hour and a half will be held. From Port Huron the route will be over the Michigan Air line to Pontiac, with stops at Romeo and Rochester. At Pontiac the train will be placed on the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee track and Detroit will be reached about 7:30 P. M.

Mr. Blaine will be accompanied throughout the trip by his eldest son, Walker Blaine, by Gen. Alger and a delegation of prominent citizens.

HAIL TO THE CHIEF.

The Pacer Johnston Knocks the Pacing Record to Smash.

He Measures a Mile in 2:06 1-4 Without Skip or Break — And Minute H. with Running Mate Does It in 2:03 1-4.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—At the Driving park, Friday, the pacer, Johnston, lowered his record over three seconds, pacing a mile in the remarkable time of 2:06¼. Though 30 at 12 o'clock. The air was stifling and people feared that a disaster of some kind was imminent.

It is reported that Wilbur F. Storey, proprietor of The Chicago Times, bids fair to end the complications in his business by recovering his faculties.

A MILLION AND A HALF

Is the Amount Chicago Shorts in Corn Were Squeezed for.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—The Evening Mail says that P. B. Weare was the head broker of the September corn deal, and Mr. W. Simmons, president of the Northwestern Telegraph company, the power behind the throne. Tuesday night after the directors of the board of trade had fixed the marginal price of corn at 50 cents Simmons, Weare and others of the clique held a conference to consider what should be done in case corn were called upon for margins beyond Weare's power to put up. The result was that Simmons wired for all he could, and the latter responded in an order upon the strongest bank in Chicago to allow the clique to draw on his account $2,500,000. As it happened, however, margins were not called. It is understood that the clique realized $1,500,000 net, and that the deal will be carried into October, on which dealers are already several million bushels short.

Another Batch of Questions.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 3.—In the Blaine libel suit against The Sentinel, the defendant has presented another series of twelve questions for Mr. Blaine to answer. The first three require more particular information as to the time and place of and witnesses to the Kentucky marriage; what form of marriage or contract was entered into, giving the words uttered, etc. To fourth and fifth inquire as to the whereabouts of Sarah C. Stanwood and S. L. Blaine. The questions from 6th to 10th inclusive require the age of Mr. Blaine and his wife June 30, 1850, and require specific information as to the movements of Mr. Blaine and his wife just previous to their trip to Pittsburg and after lirting there, who they saw at Pittsburg, and will endeavor to find petroleum. This territory has never been tested.

Monday, October 6.

St. Paul is to have the Northern Pacific railway shops.

The population of the United States is now 57,000,000.

An iron company at Chattanooga has closed a contract for 15,000 tons of rails for car-wheels at $30.50 per ton.

An English firm has begun to manufacture of casks and barrels of steel. They are lighter than wood and more durable.

The hottest night on record for that section was experienced Thursday night at St. Paul, Minn., the thermometer registering there were but few people present the performance aroused a great deal of enthusiasm. Johnston was jogged four miles and then rubbed down. When he appeared for the trial he was in first-class condition. Both the track and weather were favorable. The first quarter was made in 32 seconds, the half in 1.05½, the three-quarters in 1.39, and the mile in 2.06¼. Minnie R. also lowered her record. With a running mate she paced a mile in 2.08½. Her best previous record was 2.09¼.

The elements for fast time were all present—track in admirable condition, weather warm and not a zephyr stirring. It was not expected that Rickhall and Johnston would start together, and some surprise was occasioned by the judge's announcement that they would be started, about four lengths apart, but that it was to be distinctly understood it was not a race between them, each merely endeavoring to beat his individual record.

As the bay gelding sped under the wire and Secretary Hall shouted "Go," Rickhall Johnston leaned over the quarter-stretch fence, looked at his namesake, and said to a friend, "He'll beat it sure." Around the turn the pacer glided like a shadow, all eyes being on Johnston and none on Rickhall. As his nose reached the quarter-pole 100 watches clicked, and "32 seconds" was announced all over the grounds. Down the backstretch the pace was manifestly increased. Rickhall had broken and fallen far behind that Campbell pulled him up. At the half-mile the watches clicked again, and 1.05¾ was the mark. Various opinions were advanced as to whether the record would be lowered, the general impression being against the feat being performed. But still the pacer went on at the same terrible clip, and as his form was sharply outlined against the white fence on the lower turn the crowd began a summer of applause as the watches marking 1.35 as the pacer's nose struck the three-quarter pole, the second and third quarters having been made in the wonderful time of 31¾ seconds each. The old-ded heads thought this terrible burst of speed must certainly make the horse stop on the last quarter. But they did not know Johnston, nor the superb manner in which Splan had prepared him for the trial. Instead of faltering in his stride, he came down the home-stretch faster than ever, and at the distance-stand, when Splan called to him, he breshed out like a horse scoring for the word. As he went under the wire the watches showed 2.06¾, and the record had been lowered one and three-quarter seconds.

Minnie R. and running mate Firebrand next took the track, and Splan took them easily around the course for their warming up. The mare looked handsome and skittish, and in the half-dozen efforts made to start her behaved in a manner which, at most, was discouraging to those present, who had harbored high hopes of her breaking her record. On her own account, in every attempt at starting, Splan drove the team almost to the last quarter pole, and, turning them there, sent them back toward the judges' stand with both horses under fine control. The Minnie would show a disposition to stay, while her mate sprang forward with long and powerful strides that threatened to lift the pole horse off her feet. But with never a break the mare kept ahead, increasing her speed until at the second quarter pole 1.05¾ was reached—simply tremendous, and she covered the third quarter in the phenomenal time of 29¾ seconds. As she neared the home-stretch the judges' stand encouraging shout was again heard at the grand stand, and the whole journey across to its feet and cheered itself hoarse as the gallant mare came under the wire in 2.03¾. Her first quarter was made in 31¾, her second in 30½, her third in 29½, and her fourth in 31¾ seconds. No such magnificent exhibitions of speed have ever before taken place in Chicago, and it is in every way fitting that Johnston should have made his great record upon the track whereon he achieved his first turf victory. The horses will remain at their quarters in the Driving park stables during the coming week, and will doubtless receive many calls from admiring visitors as a result of their work Friday.

Outlook for the Steel Trade.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—After the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Steel company Wednesday, a prominent officer said the outlook of the trade in Pennsylvania for the coming year is brighter. The demand for steel is increasing and though prices would be low there would probably be enough trade to keep the mills in operation and all the men employed. This company is the largest manufacturers of steel rails in the country.

The Ohio Scott Law.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 30.—The supreme court Tuesday granted leave to file petitions in error in the Scott Express law case, and advanced them on the docket, fixing the time of hearing for Oct. 22. The two error cases from Columbus, one of which was to enjoin a collection of tax, and the other to recover the amount of tax already paid, were submitted on arguments made heretofore, and are liable to be decided any day.

Treating to Drinks.

There is a temperance lecture which has been delivered many times over, and never without commending itself to the good sense of prohibitionists, anti-prohibitionists, high license men, and that is the homily on the habit of "treating" in saloons, restaurants, and especially the barrooms of hotels. There is just now a fresh discussion of the subject and the New York Herald discourses of the evils in plain English, easily understood. Referring to the same the Post and Tribue says:

"As the custom now stands, if two men, of three, or more, who are not teetotallers, are thrown in each other's company in any way, they are likely to consume three or four times as much beer, wine, whiskey, or whatever their favorite tipple may be, as they would do if separated. This result is so common that every man who drinks at all, and still makes an effort to drink moderately, is constantly reminded that he ought to shun the companionship of drinking associates. A social "disposition" is the regular excuse given for dissipation of which it is inferred that a man would not have been guilty had it not been for the inducements to excessive guzzling which are held out by the custom of treating.

In some wild western communities it is well known that a refusal to "take suthin," is regarded as a personal affront, and barbarous as this interpretation of the act may be, it is only an extreme expression of a feeling that everywhere prevails among tipplers—that is, among men who under any circumstances drink at public bars. To decline a drink is considered in the nature of a slight to hospitality.

There is another notion that prevails, particularly among boys of 18 or 20, which is that it is unmanly to refrain from drinking with companions, or to express in their presence any fear of evil effects from liquor. Probably nine-tenths of the men of middle age can remember when they have been subjected to great and dangerous temptation by being urged to drink "in a social way," and also by that strange feeling of rivalry which is often exhibited among immature persons by trying to find out which can drink the most without being disabled.

The mischiefs of treating are universally recognized. The custom does more perhaps, than any other single influence to lead young men into the first habit of tippling. It does not have so much effect on old soakers who will take their drinks anyhow, if they can get them, but the number of boys—students, clerks and apprentices—who are led away by it are past counting.

It is evident that the evil cannot be cured by those who suffer from it most. Youths follow their elders and it is vain to look to them to set examples. The reform must come from the fathers and not from the sons. Jones and Brown senior must stop treating each other, before they can blame the juniors for doing the same thing.

Here is a temperance reform that all will approve. It involves no theory, no constitutional amendments, no voting, no platform, no pledges, no candidate; simply needs a recognition of the fact that on the whole the habit of social treating, is a separate question from the general habit of social drinking, has nothing to recommend it and many to condemn it. The custom is purely American, and has its origin perhaps in a generous impulse; but it is well nigh unknown in Europe, and should elsewhere pass out of existence."—Christian Herald.

Firmness of Senator Wilson.

He was sent to Washington to carry a petition against the admission of Texas into the Union. John Quincy Adams asked him to a dinner party, where he met with some of the great men of the nation. He was asked to drink wine. The temptation to lay aside his temperance principles for a moment, in order not to seem singular, was a strong one. But he resisted it, and declined the glass of wine. Mr. Adams commended him for his adherence to his convictions.

After Mr. Wilson was elected to the United States senate, he gave his friends a dinner at a noted Boston hotel. The table was set with not a wine glass upon it.

"Where are the wine-glasses?" asked several loud enough to remind their host that some of his guests did not like sitting down to a wineless dinner.

"Gentlemen," said Mr. Wilson, rising and speaking with a great deal of feeling, "you know my friendship for you and my obligations to you. Great as they are, they are not great enough to make me forget 'the rock whence I was hewn and the pit from whence I was dug.' Some of you know how the curse of intemperance overshadowed my youth. That I might escape I fled from my early surroundings, and changed my name. For wat I am, I am indebted under God to my temperance vow and my adherence to it.

"Call for what you wish to eat, and if this hotel can provide, it shall be forthcoming. But wines and liquors cannot come to this table with my consent, because I will not spread in the path of another the snare from which I escaped."

Three rousing cheers showed the brave Senator that men admired the man who has the courage of his convictions.

VERGENNES VISITOR.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Frazer, from Kansas, are visiting friends here. Mrs. F. is a sister of D. S. Blanding.

Henry T. Price, of Liverpool, N. Y., is visiting his uncle, W. L. Merriman.

Mrs. Wm. Brasted of Grand Haven is visiting her father, Mr. C. Misner, and other friends. IONE.

CANNON CATCHES.

Miss Nettie Noy has returned from Detroit, where she has been spending the summer.

C. L. Bostwick and wife are visiting friends at Hersey.

If a person is insane the Asylum is their place. If devilishness or pure cussedness is their game, then their family or the law should take care of them. No good reason can be given why a woman should expose her person to the public and be upheld in the act.

Mrs. Alice Broom of Grand Rapids is a guest of Mrs. James Bookey.

Mrs. Nugent departed this life last Tusday, in the 84th year of her age.

A picnic social will be held at Schoomaker's hall next Saturday, commencing at 10 A. M. All are invited.

CLARKSNILLE ITEMS.

Mr. Thomas Heaven has his cider mill ready to run.

The pound social for the benefit of Rev. John Turner was a success. After partaking of coffee and cake and a social chat, those present returned to their homes feeling that it was an evening well spent.

Clarksville was beaten today at Greenville.

Howard's hall was filled to overflowing to hear Mrs. Hazlett's speech. Nearly every one pronounced it very good.

Mr. C. F. Huntsman has his house ready for the roof. Mr. H. is building it southern style, with a hall running the whole length of it.

Mr. A. Jepson, living north of Clarksville, planted a piece of Missouri corn which has ripened nicely.

Wheat looks much better since the rains.

I understand that the patrons of the Clarksville school at their annual meeting voted to hire a dude or someone who can please every man, woman, child, etc., in the district. No teacher will be kept after he fails to do this. Can any one tell where such a teacher can be found? COR.

IN MEMORIAM.

Miss Caroline Daniels was born in Westmoreland, N. H., June 7, 1825, came to Vergennes, Mich., in 1838; was married to Wm. Robinson, Sept. 30, 1845, and departed this life Sept. 30, 1884, (being the thirty-ninth anniversary of their marriage), aged 59 years, 3 months and 23 days. Her funeral services took place Oct. 4, from her late home, Rev. D. L. Eaton officiating. Mrs. Robinson was a long and patient sufferer, although she was around and attended to her household duties until within twelve days of her death, and when the summons came it was very unexpected to all for no one thought she would go so soon. She passed away without a struggle or a farewell word to her weeping loved ones that stood around her bed. Her remains were followed to their last resting place by a very large concourse of mourning relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson have lived thirty-nine years on the same farm where they first began housekeeping and where they raised four children, who are an honor to their parents and to society. It will be remembered that Albert, their oldest son, died several years ago. Rix and Frank (their other two sons) live in Millview Fla. Mina and her husband are still at the old home. Frank arrived the day before his mother died; but owing to unavoidable circumstances Mr. & Mrs. Rix Robinson could not get here until she had passed away. To Mr. Robinson we would say "your loved one has gone but you mourn not alone, for every one who knew her loved her and mourn with you." And to the children: Mother has gone! you will no more hear Mother's voice or receive her counsel. We know how to sympathize with you for we, too, have lost a Mother. Your Mother is at rest in that "Home over there" where there is no sickness, pain or death.

Dear is the spot where Christian's sleep,
And sweet the strains that angels pour.
O! why should we in anguish weep?
They are not lost, but gone before.

We only know that she has gone.
And that the same returnless tide,
Which bore her from us, still glides on,
And we, who mourn her, with it glide.

Unsaintly St. John.

Mr. St. John, the Prohibition candidate for President, is not advancing his interests with Sabbath-respecting Temperance men by making speeches, seeking votes for himself, on the Sabbath. He recently made two violent political speeches on Sunday, begging for support at Jacksonville, Ill., thereby violating not only the Divine law, but the laws of the State. His doing so lost him many supporters.—Delaware (N. Y.) Express.

The N. Y. Sun's Opinion.

It is now tolerably clear that there is no chance of Grover Cleveland's election to the Presidency. He cannot carry New York. He will be beaten in this state by a majority of not less than fifty-thousand, in spite of every exertion that may be made between now and election day.

Why, then, should genuine Democrats any longer think of tying themselves up to such a hopeless candidacy? It was a mistake from the first. We warned its authors before the nomination at Chicago that they were engaged in an enterprise which was doomed to disaster; and this doom is now so plainly apparent that only the blind can fail to see it.—New York Sun, (Dem.)

American Free Trade is British Protection.

It is gratifying to know that at last the true sentiment of the Democratic party of the country dominates the party in which it has so long been in the majority, and no longer submits to the dictation of a factious minority within its own ranks. It is gratifying because the people can no longer be deceived as to the real purpose of the party, which is to break down the protective tariff and collect duties hereafter upon a pure revenue basis, closely approximating free trade. Patent platforms and the individual utterances of Democratic statesmen will no longer avail, and false pretenses can no longer win.—Hon. Wm. McKinley, Jr., of Ohio, in House of Representatives, Avril 30. 1884.

How Hendricks Voted.

Thomas A Hendricks was one of six Senators who voted against the thirteenth amendment to the Constitution (abolishing slavery).

He was one of eleven Senators who voted against the fourteenth amendment to the Constition (conferring citizenship upon the negroes and prohibiting the payment of rebel debts).

He was one of thirteen Senators who voted against the fifteenth amendment (establishing negro suffrage).

He was one of twelve who voted against the civil rights bill.

He was one of fifteen who voted against passing the same over President Johnson's veto.

He was one of the seven who voted against the reconstruction act of the Thirty-seventh Congress, and one of ten who voted against passing it over the veto.

He was one of thirteen who voted against the first bill for the admission of Colorado, and one of twelve who voted against the second Colorado bill—both being vetoed by President Johnson.

He was one of fourteen who voted against the admission of Nebraska, and one of nine who voted against passing the bill over the veto in 1867.

He is now the Democratic candidate for Vice-President and is just as rabid a hater as he was during the war. The JOURNAL believes Jeff Davis to be just as good a man to-day as Thos. A. Hendricks—every whit as good.

Importance of Protecting Our Wool-Growers.

There are nearly twice as many sheep in Australia to-day as there are in this country, and the importance of protecting our wool-growers cannot be overestimated.—Hon. Stanton J. Peelle, of Indiana, in House of Representatives, May 1, 1884.

Can this industry stand the unequal competition of England and her Australian colonies, of South America, Asia, and Africa, without the guardianship of a sufficient and judicious tariff? The fact that we produce but a small percentage of the world's product is to my mind sufficient answer that it cannot long survive.

The total wool product of the world is estimated at 2,500,000,000 of pounds taken from a thousand million sheep; and it seems a plain proposition that the farmer of my State cannot compete in the free markets of the world with his product grown upon lands worth from twenty to one hundred dollars or even more per acre, with the product grown in New Zealand and Australia, where the lands are of little value and the expense of growing the product comparatively small.

I will quote from the address of the National Wool-Growers' Association. In that address Mr. Markham, the secretary, says (and this authority is unquestioned):

There are 50,000,000 of sheep in the United States, with an annual product of wool of over 300,000,000 pounds, besides supplying annually over 12,000,000 carcasses of mutton. The annual value of the wool product is over $85,000,000; of the mutton product, $40,000,000. The capital invested in sheep alone is over $200,000,000, while the capital invested in the land necessary for their subsistence is estimated at not less than $1,000,000,000, giving employment to more than 1,000,000 persons.

These figures and estimates are given that we may form an intelligent idea as to the magnitude to which this industry has grown under the fostering care of wise and judicious protection, and the losses the country may sustain by this Congress refusing to listen to the petitions of thousands upon thousands of American citizens, praying this wrong may be righted by restoring the tariff duties as contemplated in this bill.—Hon. B. Wilkins, of Ohio, in House of Representatives, April 7, 1884.

How Many Know?

In these days of democratic attempts to construct mountains out of mole-hills let men of sense stop and think! Read the whole Fisher & Mulligan series of letters and then ask yourself what is there in them? Mr. Blaine is nobly vindicated by their publication! His enemies know:

1. That the Little Rock and Fort Smith Railroad bill passed both Houses of Congress unanimously.

2. That Mr. Blaine's ruling on it was right and just and could not have been withheld in honor.

3. That when it was made he did not have the acquaintance of a single person interested in the road or instrumental in promoting the passage of the bill.

4. That he alluded to his connection with the bill after his interest in the road had been obtained.

5. That the bill was a declaratory statute merely, not granting lands nor reviving a dormant or lapsed grant, and conferring no original nor substantial rights nor benefits.

6. That the investment was a losing one.

7. That Mr. Blaine honorably shouldered all the loss and restored to his friends every cent they had invested in the bonds on his representations.

8. That in the letters addressed to Fisher he said he had done the friends of the bill "a service without knowing it."

9. That instead of obtaining a favor through the managers of the road he suffered a severe pecuniary loss.

10. That his ruling as Speaker was in no sense caused by his interest in the road, but was six months antecedent to his obtaining a share in it.

11. That he did not rule in favor of the bill (which passed both Houses unanimously) because he was interested in the road, but became interested in the road because his attention was directed to it during the passage of the bill through Congress.

12. That the land-grant was simply restored to the State of Arkansas, which conferred it upon the road.

13. That the justice of the bill continuing the grant and the rightfulness of Mr. Blaine's ruling in point of law have not been disputed from that day to this, and cannot be.

The American people possess an inherent abiding love for fair play and as surely as election day comes, will tell these slanderers at the polls what their opinion is of this species of campaign warfare. So much for burnt powder.

A CURE FOR GRAVEL

A Common and Painful Complaint—A Statement You May Confide In.

It seems to have been reserved for Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., to accomplish, through his preparation widely known as KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY, what others have failed to compass. The subjoined letter will be found of vital interest to sufferers from gravel and to the general public:

Albany, March 29, 1884.

Dr. D. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.:

DEAR SIR: Let me tell you frankly that I have never been partial to proprietary medicines, as I believe the majority of them to be nothing better than methods of obtaining money from people whom suffering makes ready to catch at any hope of relief. They are mean cheats and delusions. But your FAVORITE REMEDY I know by happy experience to be a totally different thing. I had been a sufferer from gravel for many years and had resorted to many eminent physicians for relief, but no permanent good came of it. About three years ago your FAVORITE REMEDY was recommended to me. I can give you the result in a sentence: I tried it and it cured me completely. I am confident it saved my life. You can use this letter if you think best.

Yours, etc., NATHAN ACKLEY.

Captain Nathan Ackley was for a long time connected with the Canal Appraiser's office in Albany. He is well known and writes for no purpose but to do good to others.

As a medicine for all disease of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and digestive organs, KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY has fairly won its high reputation. Write if desirable to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.
