Was it a "mysterious dispensation of H. The man could drink himself drunk or not last Wednesday. Is it cold weather? just as he pleased. He used his freedom in the manner indicated, and died an extremely "natural" death. "No drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of God.'

The Hon. Neal Dow writes us a pleasant note concerning Constitutional Pro-Inbition in Maine as follows:

And further, all that is now claimed for such tax titles, before Judge Arnold in the chancery proceeding referred to, is that the holder should have a lien upon the lands for the amount of money paid for such titles to the State, with in-

One word concerning this man Jordan, who is charged by me as being the author of the article in question. He some years ago set up a claim to the ownership of the contract of the lands in question; he never paid one dollar of valuable consideration therefor, as is proved by his own' testimony taken in the case referred to; and the history of his interference in the lands show him to be an adventurer, seeking unjustly to obtain the title to 10,000 acres of land, without even offering to pay the taxes which have been paid by L. & L. Mr. FitzGerald has in his office assist ing him in the management of his large business Mr. Charles Chandler, a gentleman well known in this city, who has taught with credit in our High School and who for several years has been a member of our Board of Education and during the last year its President. He makes the following affidavit:

State of Michigan, County of Kent-ss. Charles Chandler, of said county, be-ing duly sworn, says he is clerk in the office of John C. FitzGerald, and has been in said office in that capacity since March, A. D. 1879. That it was a part of his duties in said office to draft the mortgages and attend to all matters in connection with the loans made by Mr. FitzGerald and his clients; that he has drawn and attended to the making of such mortgages during all the time of his clerkship with the exception of two or three loans which were made during his absence or sicknesss; that at no time has Mr. Fit2Gerald ever charged or re-coived a honum for making and the second has Mr. FitzGerald ever charged or re-ceived a bonus for making any loan during the whole period of such clerk-ship, nor has he loaned money at a greater rate of interest than that pre-vailing at the time of such loans, or tak en one cent of usury. That he has personal knowledge of the business dealings between Cornelius De Putter and Mr. FitzGerald. That he has read Mr. De Putter's affidavit in rehas read Mr. De Putter's affidavit in re-gard to two loans made by him of Mr. FitzGerald, and he says that for the convenience of Mr. De Putter two checks were given him for the money had on the first loan, and that the following are true conice of said checks:

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 27, 1879. City National Bank: Fay to Cornelius De Putter, or order, five hun-dred nineteen and 56-100 dollars in gold coin. 6619,55. J. C. FITZGERALD. Grand Rapids, Mich., March 27, 1879. City National Bank: Pay to Cornelius De Putter, or order, two hun.

I have been a resident of Ottawa county for upward of forty years and I am credibly informed and believe that Notary Public in sort of outside at the consideration for which was other than gold, and none of such mortgages have been made payable in gold. CHARLES CHANDLER. Subscribed and sworn to, before me, this 15th day of October, A. D., 1884. CHARLES W. FALLASS. Notary Public in and for Kent County, Michigan.

In addition to the foregoing, and in view of other facts of the same tenor, it is only necessary to say that the charges of Messrs. Comstock, Burlingame et al. that Mr. FitzGerald is in the habit of exacting usury and bonuses on his loans are wickedly untrue. There is not the slightest ground or excuse for charging that he has ever taken one cent on any mortgage during all the time he has liv ed in Grand Rapids in bonus or illegal interest. He has frequently, of his own 'We Are On the Ocean Sailing' accord voluntarily reduced the rate of interest on existing mortgages, and has given additional time in which to make payments of interest with great liberality, and without asking interest upon deferred payments, as appears from
