EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The appointment of Mr. George V. N. Lothrop of Detroit as minister to Russia is a very creditable one. Mr. Lothrop is one of the most polished gentlemen as well as one of the very foremost lawyers in the State. His presence and bright talents will grace any court. It is true that for many years he has been one of those forever-to-be-shunned "corporation lawyers," against whom the "anti-monopoly" papers have hurled their terrible anathemas; and to be consistent the Grand Rapids Leader, the Democrat and some other state papers can do no less than to demand that the President be impeached or shot for making such an appointment, but these papers are not consistent. The fact that Mr. Lothrop has been retained for 25 years as the general attorney of that great, grasping corporation—the Michigan Central Railroad—and is still its adviser, is entirely overlooked by the howling anti-monopoly press that has lifted up its hypocritical voice on all occasions—and without any occasion—"agin monopolies." No corporation lawyer in the state has received more money from these "grasping monopolies" than has Mr. Lothrop and yet his appointment as minister to Russia is applauded by the same so-called anti-monopoly-anti-corporation papers that have spent so much time and wind in howling down just such men as Mr. Lothrop—who happened to be Republicans. We speak of this merely to show up the hypocrisy of such papers whose columns have been filled with demagogic appeals to working-men and others to stand up and smite down all men identified with these "great, gigantic, grasping corporations." Out upon such demagogues—no odds what party they belong to—who for selfish and sinister purposes thus pander to the passions and prejudices of any class of people. The fact that Mr. Lothrop has been retained for 25 years by the Michigan Central Railroad Company shows that he is a man of brains and high legal attainments. Great corporations do not employ mental pigmies as their advisers. Mr. Lothrop is a ripe scholar, broad, brainy and polished. His appointment is one of President Cleveland's very few good ones.

—Harper's Weekly, alias George William Curtis, can't quite stomach such appointments as Higgins, Pillsbury, Chas. Troup and Keiley and intimates that if President Cleveland permits such men to secure prominent places under his administration he (Curtis) will have to speak real cross to him. We tremble for President Cleveland when Harper's hired man makes up his mouth to speak real cross to him. But why does Mr. Curtis complain? To be sure these men have very unsavory records but has not Mr. Curtis helped to place in power men with records quite as unsavory? Mr. Curtis objects to Mr. Keiley's appointment as minister to Austria, or to any other place, because Mr. Keiley is a bad man. Mr. Keiley not only characterizes "the authority of the United States Government in Virginia" as "due to a gross and bloody violation of right" but there is now discovered a work of Mr. Keiley's containing his reflections as a prisoner of war during the rebellion in which Gen. Sherman's campaign in Georgia is described as "that hellish carnival of lust and rapine and outrage and arson and murder and nameless villainies." And Mr. Curtis thinks he is not a proper man to represent this government anywhere and almost works himself up to a scolding point because President Cleveland has appointed this same Keiley as minister to Austria. Mr. Curtis has made a mistake in presuming that President Cleveland should make appointments acceptable to Harper's Weekly instead of the democratic party.

—The leading democratic organ of Philadelphia says President Cleveland has done just about as much for the civil service mugwumps as his party will stand, and adds: "The mugwumps may gnash their teeth, but the fall elections must be carried! There's be hid within smelting distance, sure."

—Now we call this sarcasm. The Ypsilanti Sentinel (Dem.) says: It is said the president assured a young man from the west that he would "never live long enough to see the end of Democratic administration." Some of them are beginning to fear they will never see the beginning.

—The legislative committee appointed to select a site for a soldiers' home have been visiting various cities and villages in the State, bringing up at Grand Rapids last Friday. On Saturday the committee, accompanied by prominent citizens of Grand Rapids, made a tour of the city and suburbs.

—President Cleveland has appointed A. P. Swinford of Marquette, Governor of Alaska. If there are any poker players in Alaska they will no doubt be seen by Swinford.

—An exchange says $10,000,000 worth of corsets were sold in this country last year. That is a heap of money gone to waste.

—The Utah mormons are in trouble. Aye, and there's a woman in the case—and her name is legion.

—Belva Lockwood is lecturing Michigan. Belva's vote was very light in Michigan.

JOURNAL JOTTINGS.

Come to Lowell Memorial day. The farmers are very busy now. Tea socials are popular in Lowell. Fred Yeiter is home from Kansas. A very heavy freeze Sunday night. Gov. Alger vetoed the minority bill. Our "Farmer's Column" is good reading.

A fine girl—84 lbs.—to Mrs. Bert Owen May 9th. Geo. Daley of Campbell has moved to Kansas.

Robert Marshall visited Kent City friends last week. George Hatton and Katie Flynn of Bowne are married.

John Coppens and Fred Yeiter took some land in Kansas. Geo. Winegar of South Boston has located at Stanton, Neb.

The Lowell Creamery Company is making a prime quality of butter. The Caro Advertiser wants a female apprentice. Girls, he's a married man.

Portions of the Hudson street sidewalk need repairing. Other sidewalks ditto. Coons & McNaughton have a fine stock of furniture which they are selling at low figures.

Rev. C. H. Callahan succeeds Rev. John Dunham as pastor at Spencer's Mills, this county.

Dr. Perry Sayles and wife of Burnips Corners, Allegan Co. have been visiting friends in Keene and vicinity.

There are now only six saloons in this village. At one time (under the old prohibitory law) there were eleven.

Topic at the Congregational church next Sunday morning "The now and then." Evening, "What is Salvation?" Editor Powell of the Stanton Herald announces that he has given up the use of intoxicating drinks. Good for Powell.

The Caledonia News, a new paper just started by J. W. Saunders, is a very neat and readable sheet. Success to the News.

Chief mustering officer F. D. Eddy of Lowell goes to Orangeville to organize a camp of Sons of Vets. to-morrow night.

Mr. N. D. Strong now has a fine house on his property (the Dr. Smith place), having added an upright and other marked improvements.

Geo. C. Potter, manager of the Chat ham, N. Y. rink was in Lowell Saturday and did some expert skating at the Lowell rink Saturday night.

Sheriff Kinney has captured the hen thief, Morrison, who recently escaped from confinement in the Kent county jail. He found him in Indiana.

The skating rink will be open as usual this week, on Wednesday and Saturday, afternoon and evening. The floor is in excellent condition now; better than ever before.

J. D. Sackett of Saranac deposited $130 in currency in the garret of his parlor stove. Mrs. Sackett kindled a fire in that stove. Loss $130; no insurance.

Married.—In Ypsilanti, Mich., April 29th, 1885, by Rev. G. H. Grannis, Mr. W. W. Weatherly, of Grand Rapids, and Miss Eva Osborn, daughter of Rev. W. H. Osborn of Lowell.

All teachers are cordially invited to attend the spring meeting of the Grand River Teachers' Association to be held at Ionia May 15 and 16. An interesting program is announced.

Bewitchingly becoming—the latest spring hat for ladies. The hat is worn near the head—so near that the lady can reach up and put it on herself. The style is an improvement on some previous designs.

The Mr. King associated with Mr. Fitz Gibbons in the cooper business in this village is not Mr. Francis King of Lowell, as many have supposed, but Mr. F. King, of Saranac, proprietor of one of the Saranac hotels.

It was Romains Beadle of Saranac who moved to Fortland and not D. C. Beadle of this village as some people have supposed. D. C. Beadle is still in the harness making business in Lowell.

Program for L. L. C. May 24th: Reading of the second episode of Bitter Sweet. Joseph, Mrs. Strong; Samuel, Mrs. Craw; Rebekah, Mrs. Parker; Ruth, Mrs. Graham; David, Mrs. J. W. Hine. Reading from Holland's Letters to the young, by Miss Layender. Com.

Major C. W. Watkins, collector of internal revenue of this district, will resign July 1. He says he would have sent in his resignation when the office of the interior department at Washington was draped in mourning on the death of ex-Secretary Thompson, if it had not been for consideration of the interests of his deputies and clerks.

Pretty good November weather last week. The Lowell Manufacturing Co. commenced building on King's Island last week.

The wool season will open a little late this year. Dentist Robertson went to Canada last week.

C. O. Sunderland has returned to York State. How'd you trade your coal stove for a soda fountain?

King, Quick & King have some fine logs in their boom. The Freeport band will play at Clarksville Memorial Day.

Forepaugh and Barnum will come this way this summer. Will Lowell celebrate the 4th? The JOURNAL believes in home celebrations.

An unknown woman, said to be crazy, has been running at large in the woods in Odesa.

Lloyd Breeze of Detroit announces that he will soon start a new paper in Grand Rapids.

Look in the JOURNAL next week for the program of the young Ladies Nickel Society entertainment.

Rev. L. F. Waldo, formerly of Lowell, has resigned as pastor of the Shelby congregational church.

The class in modern literature meet with Miss Fannie Daniels to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Frank Robinson of this village has sold his harness shop to Mr. Wm. Jackson, late of Oakland, Cal.

A furious snow squall struck Lowell last Friday afternoon, May 8. It also snowed a little here May 9.

Farmers and their wives, their sons and daughters, are all welcome as contributors to our Farmers' Column.

The Lowell W. C. T. U. hope to be able to induce Miss Frances E. Willard to deliver a lecture in Lowell soon.

A communication on "boat stealing" next week, from "VAN." You boat thieves'd better skip to Canada this week.

The ratters of the Freeport skating rink fell in smashing things, below. A week's delay in building; nobody hurt.

Dox Dickinson of Detroit wants no appointment. He prefers to be looked upon as the boss of Michigan democracy.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the reunion of the Army of the Cumberland in Grand Rapids Sept. 16 and 17.

The Rink floor has been greatly improved by the use of fine sand and a heavy stone drawn over it by a pad footed horse.

The name of J. C. Moore was inadvertently omitted from our "Allatona" notes last week. Jack did his part well; he always does that.

Mr. J. W. Rickert of Keene sold to Mr. Murphy of this village a ten months old pig that weighed 235 lbs. If you have a bigger one better shoot up.

A. V. Phister has sold the Hubbardston Advertiser to Chas. H. Miner. Phister has run the paper fifteen years and says he has made very little money out of it.

Prof. Townsend did not have such large and enthusiastic audiences in Lowell as he has had in other places. Lowell didn't seem to want to be mesmerized.

There is a bill before the Michigan legislature which, if it becomes a law, will materially lessen the rates of telephone service. The JOURNAL hopes it will become a law.

The next meeting of the Lowell W. C. T. U., will be held at the residence of Mrs. Chandler Johnson, Friday, May 15th at 2 o'clock P. M. —Standard time. C. V. Mount Sec.

Why do the people of Grand Rapids desire to celebrate the 4th of July? Didn't Sam Clay get a verdict a few years ago in that city wiping out the delusive idea that the 4th of July is a legal holiday?

Mrs. Edmund Lee and son Harry and Mrs. F. T. King, of this village, started for Lockport N. Y. last Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lee's mother, Mrs. John Miller, whose death occurred last Wednesday.

Boat owners complain of boat thieves. Several boats anchored along Grand River's pebbly shore have been appropriated by parties who have no right to use them. The owners propose to make war on those fellows.

Estimates from various sources indicate that the present year's wheat crop in Michigan will be about 25,000,000 bushels. With favorable weather until harvest it is believed the yield will exceed rather than fall below these figures.

Whether are we drifting? If the seasons continue to grow colder every year how long will it be before this part of the will eventually result in freezing us out

Married.—In Detroit. Tuesday, May 5th, by Rev. Father Bill, of the Cathedral of S. S. Peter Paul, Mr. Nicholas Lamp and Miss Mary Deegan. Miss Maggie Deegan assisted her sister; Mr.

Mary is well known in Lowell where she has many friends who wish her and

Lamp make bright her pathway through

Five very foolish Iomans invested their spare change in the tenth part of a ticket in the Royal Havana lottery.
Some of the boys about town learned their number and, securing in some manner proper blanks, sent the owners of the ticket a "telegram" stating that No. 11,315 (their number) had drawn a prize of $200,000. The boys set up cigars freely until one of them, more sceptical than the rest, went to the telegraph office and showed the telegram to Mr.
Waugh who smashed their dreams of fortune by informing them that the alleged "telegram" was bogus.—Standard.

With its extensive circulation reaching out in all directions beyond the trading territory of Lowell the JOURNAL is by far the cheapest and best advertising medium our business men can employ to carry their announcements to the public. Our advertising rates are no higher than those of many papers with less than half the JOURNAL'S circulation.
A glance at the JOURNAL'S columns from week to week shows that its excellence as an advertising medium is appreciated by our business men. Should the demands for advertising space continue to increase the JOURNAL will be enlarged to meet the demand, and it will at all times keep its local news and other reading columns full and complete if we have to double the size of the paper.

ONE BETTER.
To the editor of the LOWELL JOURNAL.
In your issue of May 6, you published the letter of S. B. Knapp in which he claimed to be one of a family of four that came to Michigan in 1826. My father came to Michigan in September 1823. I was one of seven children that he brought with him. He settled in the township of Ann Arbor, 2 1/2 miles east of the city. I, too, played with Indian boys but I excused myself from "eating the soup" as I saw it made. My mother, who left us for the better land in 1857, did not see a white lady the first year that she lived in the woods. I was born July 12, 1819; am forty-eight days younger than Queen Victoria. My home is in Lowell. I have lived in Lowell and vicinity since 1848. Next!

I see friend W. Johnson is dealing it out to the Lowell grocery men with a big spoon. They need a little good advice, but stop for one moment and see where the fault is. About 30 years ago when Lowell was smaller than now the farmers nearly dictated the prices of their products, but as the place has grown the situation is reversed. Now when the farmers get educated to dictate their own prices in a measure, then, and not until then, can the farmer expect anything better from the dealers of any town. The idea of the farmers taking their products to market and asking what they will give per bushel or per pound for what they have. Just as though the grocer knew what their stuff was worth better than the producer.
But this is not all; they will not let the farmer dictate their prices nor even let them know what their goods cost them.

The dog that kills sheep is as much a beast of prey as the fox that raids on the hen roost and should be as promptly killed as the fox.
Don't neglect to plant a liberal breadth of sweet corn for the table. If green field corn in the ear is the best kind of feed for cows, as some are beginning to believe, then surely sweet corn may be planted, for any surplus not needed for table use may be cut and given to the cattle with no waste. Farmers may have green corn on their table at every meal if they choose from the first of July until October and no cheaper nor better food comes to any table if picked fresh from one's own field or garden. I am much pleased to see so many new comers; it shows there are some that can write for the Farmers' Column.
J. W. RICKERT.

Is it laughable (or is it saddening, which?) to read the report of so many of the Agricultural and Horticultural debates of questions which come before them for discussion. A question comes up and one member expresses an opinion that it is this way and perhaps the next takes the exact opposite, and so through the whole debate no two agree upon the point. Now how shall those seeking information on the matter know which is in the right? Now is it not facts that have come under our own experience and observation that can be relied on and not guesses or bare opinions from which we receive benefit? Not long since the question came before the Kent County Horticultural Society: "What apple shall we plant for general cultivation?" Several leading varieties were named, when some one named the Baldwin. There may be locations in Western Michigan where the Baldwin may be grown with profit, but there are more places where it cannot be, and some may be misled and plant largely of that variety and be disappointed. The Baldwin will not withstand the cold of our extreme winters.

I notice in last week's JOURNAL that E. Hancock advises farmers to keep a journal. I have practiced it for fifty years and find it but little trouble and find it interesting to look over the events as they have passed in that time. My plan is, on Saturday evening to spend fifteen or twenty minutes in recording the events of the week, deaths in the neighborhood, or of prominent persons in the country, storms or whatever I think worth recording. I use blank books of the square form, I think the most convenient. I likewise keep a book of farm debt and credit, so that I can tell what has been the price of wheat or any other farm product every year and any time of year for the past thirty years. H. H.

Newspapers of To-Day.
People generally, and even those who may be termed steady readers and close observers, have but a faint conception of the magnitude and influence the press of this country has attained. From a careful examination of the advance pages of the 1885 edition of the "American Newspaper Directory," issued May 1st by Geo. P. Rowell & Co. of New York, it appears that there are 14,147 newspapers and periodicals published in the United States and Canada; of these the United States has 12,973, an average of one paper for every 3,867 persons. In 1884 the total number of newspapers was less by 823 than at present, and while the gain this year is not so marked as in some previous years, it is still considerable. Kansas shows the greatest increase, the number being 78, while Illinois follows with a gain of 77. It is curious to notice that New York, the scene of so much political activity during the last campaign, should have only about one-third as many new papers as the State of Pennsylvania. As an index to the comparative growth and prosperity of different sections of the country, especially the Territories, the number of new papers forms an interesting study, and may well occupy the attention of the curious.

SOME FOOLISH PEOPLE.
Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, Oh it will wear away, but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which we sell on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose.

Rules and Regulations

Adopted by the Board of Health of the Village of Lowell, May 11th, 1885.

ARTICLE I.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS.

RULE 1.—The President of the Common Council shall be the President of the Board of Health and shall preside at all meetings of the board and shall perform such other duties as are usually performed by like officers.

RULE 2.—The Recorder of the village of Lowell shall be the Secretary of said board and shall keep a full and true record of all the doings of such board, and perform such other duties as usually pertain to such office.

RULE 3.—The Trustees of the village as members of the board of health shall be entitled to vote on all questions arising under the health laws of the State, and shall have the right to make motions and offer resolutions and perform all such other acts as are usually performed by such members of such boards.

RULE 4.—The Board shall, on or before the first Monday of May in each year, appoint a Health Officer for the village, and as much oftener as any vacancy shall occur, who shall be a well educated physician and who shall act as the health officer of the village and be an executive officer of the board.

ARTICLE II.

PREVENTION OF NUISANCES AND DISEASES.

RULE 1.—All privies and cesspools within the limits of the village shall be kept thoroughly disinfected between the first day of April and the first day of November of each and every year.

RULE 2.—All places where cattle, horses, swine, other animals, or poultry, are kept within the village shall be kept free from standing pools of water and unwholesome odors and all such places shall be kept thoroughly drained and disinfected.

RULE 3.—All places where vegetables, fish, meat, fruit, or other perishable articles are kept—the persons keeping such places shall keep a tub with a tight cover, and all spoiled or decayed vegetables, fish, meat, fruit, and other perished articles shall be put into such tub and kept tightly covered, and shall be removed to a place designated by the board of health for the deposit of such matter every forty-eight hours, and the same to be so removed between the hours of seven o'clock P. M. and eight o'clock A. M.

RULE 4.—The alleys in the village shall all be kept well cleaned and drained and all persons are forbidden to throw or cause to be thrown into such alley or alleys any kind of filth, slops, or other unwholesome matter, causing the same to be filthy or muddy or that shall emit an unwholesome odor.

RULE 5.—It shall be unlawful for any person unnecessarily to lower the water in the pond in Flat river in the village so as to expose to the atmosphere the bottom or bed thereof, during the months of May, June, July, August, September, and October, of any year hereafter.

RULE 6.—No house offal, dead animals, or refuse of any kind shall be thrown upon any of the highways, streets, alleys, rivers or waters in the village, or left exposed by any person, and no butcher, fish monger, vender of merchandise, or other persons, shall leave any refuse matter upon any of the streets, or uncovered by earth upon the lots of the village, and all decaying animal or vegetable matter shall be removed from all cellars and out buildings on or before May first of each year.

RULE 7.—Between the first day of May and first day of November no hogs shall be kept within the village except in pens with floors kept entirely free from standing water, and regularly and freely disinfected; and during the months named no hogs shall be kept elsewhere within the jurisdiction of the board of health within eighty rods of any dwelling. The Board of Health will order the removal of such animals at any time, when they are prejudicial to the public health, safety, or comfort.

RULE 8.—No animals affected with an infectious disease shall be brought or kept within the village except by permission of the Board. No diseased animal, or its flesh, and no decayed, diseased, or unfit meat, fish, vegetables, or fruit, or diseased, impure, or adulterated milk, or other articles, shall be sold or offered for sale as food.

RULE 9.—No slaughter-house or abattoir shall be established or used as such within the limits of the village, unless kept free from all obnoxious smells, and all offal be removed every day and except by special permission of the board and defining the location, and no melting or rendering house and no place for manufacturing or other business giving rise to obnoxious or injurious vapors or odors shall be established or used within the village, except by such special permission as above.

ARTICLE III.

FOR PREVENTING THE SPREAD OF INFECTIOUS AND CONTAGIOUS DISEASES.

RULE 1.—Every householder in whose dwelling there shall occur a case of cholera, yellow fever, scarlet fever, diphtheria, mumps, measles, whooping cough, typhoid fever or small pox, shall immediately notify the board of health of the same, and until instructions are received from the Board shall not permit any clothing, or other property that may have been exposed to infection, to be removed from the house, nor shall any occupant take up residence elsewhere without the consent of the Board.

RULE 2.—Any physician who may be called to a case of any of the diseases specified in the foregoing rule shall at once report such case to the health physician and receive instructions in regard thereto and whenever there shall come under the observation of any physician such number of cases of scarlet fever, measles, typhoid fever, diphtheria, dysentery or cerebro spinal meningitis as in his opinion to justify the belief that a considerable epidemic thereof exists, he shall at once report the same to the Board, with such suggestions in regard thereto as may seem to him best.

RULE 3.—No person or article liable to propagate a dangerous disease shall be brought within the jurisdiction of the Board without special consent and direction of the Board. It shall be the duty of every person having knowledge that any such person or article has been brought within such limits to immediately give notice thereof to the health officer with the location thereof.

RULE 4.—No person sick with any of the diseases mentioned in Rule 1, of article 3, shall be removed at any time except under the direction of the health officer; and all persons affected with any such diseases and all articles infected by the same shall be immediately separated from all persons liable to contract the same, and none but physicians, nurses and the clergyman of the family shall be allowed access to such persons.

RULE 5.—Persons recovering from any such contagious diseases, and their nurses, shall not leave the premises until they and their clothing have been thoroughly disinfected and all bedding, towels and all other articles in contact with, or used by the patient while so sick shall either be destroyed or thoroughly disinfected.

RULE 6.—Infected beds, pillows and mattresses shall have their contents removed and thoroughly disinfected, and the ticks washed in boiling water; but no such article shall be burned without the consent of the health officer.

ARTICLE IV.

DUTIES OF THE HEALTH OFFICER.

RULE 1.—The Health Officer shall have the general supervision of all sanitary matters within the limits of the village of Lowell; he shall serve all notices unless otherwise ordered by the Board.

RULE 2.—He shall receive and examine into the nature of any and all nuisances, and complaints made by any citizen of the village, or coming to his knowledge otherwise, relative to any place, practices, or things whatsoever that may affect the public health.

RULE 3.—It shall be the duty of such officer upon receiving notice of any infectious or contagious disease within the village to at once give notice thereof by putting up a notice on the house or premises where the same may be and to give all necessary information in regard thereto with the view of preventing the spread of such disease, and such officer shall see that all such sick persons have all the care and attention that is necessary; and he shall see that no public funerals are held within the village for persons dying with such diseases.

RULE 4.—Such officer is authorized, in case of violation of any of the published rules, orders or regulations of the Board, to issue and serve summary orders upon the persons so violating any of the aforesaid rules, orders and regulations.

RULE 5.—Such officer is fully authorized, and it is hereby made his duty, to use any and all lawful means to prevent and limit the spread of infectious and contagious diseases, and to enter upon or within any place or premises when he believes conditions dangerous to the public health exist, for the purpose of examination and inspection of the same, and to perform all the duties defined by the laws of the State for such officers, so far as a medical officer can best perform them.

RULE 6.—The health officer shall make a full report monthly to the Board of Health of all his official doings under and by virtue of the foregoing rules, or any further directions and duties that may from time to time hereafter be prescribed by said Board; and no service shall be presumed to have been rendered except such as shall be reported to the Board as aforesaid.
