

THE NORTHWEST

and George Green. Four other men were terribly injured and 110,000 worth of damage done.

Knocked down by the explosion, robbed of sixty dollars on the street in City the other night. He was drunk.

William Allen, of Whittemore, pleaded guilty recently to shooting deer on the town of Deerfield County and was fined $100 and $200 in damages.

Oil was recently discovered on the farm owned by Wesley Duval, near Testin, Colesburg County, and there was considerable speculation that it was rich.

Dr. T. D. Quinn, druggist, of Muskegon was recently convicted of violating new liquor law.

Mrs. Edward Wilman, of near Cambridge, was charged with poisoning and then killed himself because he would join the Adventist church, has converted and will become an Adventist in six months.

A girl named Ruby, aged fifteen years in Paris, was fatally burned the other day while lighting a fire with kerosene.

The copper output for May was as follows: Utah, 1,200; Arizona, 1,000; Colorado, 1,200; and Mexico, 3,000; Franklin, 185; Atlantic, 2,364; Quincy, 183. The mills were running on half-time.

There was a fire at a tree nursery at Stilesburg, south of Paris, John Scholten was struck by a limb and killed. He leaves a widow and eight children.

At Fraterville a few days ago Charles Adams was digging the corner of a house from an old well, was buried under a

A Port Haron man reported to the newspaper that a waterspout had burst over the city a few nights ago. It was several miles long and 100 feet in diameter, and was so loud, and the lady under whose window he was singing had turned the gas hose on him.

MINNESOTA.

At Duluth a few days ago Minnie Bloomer and Mackenzie Haron were drowned by the upsetting of a boat.

During an altercation at Wabasha on Monday night, a young man, Alfred Dechanet the former bad man, was struck between the wrist and the elbow by a brick. The question was the outcome of a feud of long standing.

Rev. Dr. Dana, after serving the last of his term as pastor of the First Congregational Church at St. Paul for ten years, recently tendered his resignation.

The mayor of St. Paul has been instructed by the police to destroy the nests of English sparrows in the parks.

People living in the neighborhood of the city of St. Paul are advised to be on their guard against the ravages of the English sparrows in the parks.

ced over the appearance of an enormous fish, which spots were fifteen or twenty feet in the air, and is declared by many to be a miracle.

A work train on the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba road, was wrecked recently near Anoka, and John Griffin, a local farmer, was killed. James Campbell, of Foreb, probably fatally injured, and four others seriously injured.

Barbara Luther, a dress-maker at St. Paul, has sued George C. Campbell, a local farmer, for breach of contract, she claims $400 damages. Campbell claims that she did the proposing.

The new Congregational church at St. Paul, is dedicated in marriage with the church cost $15,000, and was dedicated free of debt.

Art Eldridge, seventy-three years of age, died in marriage with Mrs. Sarah E. Staples, aged sixty-two years, North St. Paul.

A romantic wedding took place in the city on Wednesday evening. The bride was Jennie Whitcomb, one of the city's favorite, and the groom Hippolyte Haddad, a young business man of Paris, France. The happy people were married by their minister, there, but the bride's mother insisted that the ceremony should be held in the city.

DAKOTA.

The office of city assessor has been created by the council of Yankton.

Fifty-one dwellings-houses are now being constructed in Yankton.

The owners of mines at Bald Mountain have organized a shot-gun brigade for the purpose of defending their property from the depredations of the Indians.

In a recent runaway accident at Crows Falls City Carroll received a severe dislocation of the elbow and other injuries. He was taken to the hospital and also received severe lacerations of the face.

William Hamilton, a convict at the St. Paul penitentiary, while running a set of pottling machine the other afternoon was thrown from the machine and his body whirled around until he was a mass of broken bones and torn flesh. He was taken to the hospital and will probably never be able to walk again.

The Jesuit County Fair Association wants five hundred original mottoes tributed by the young folks of the county to be used in making the county fair at the Territorial fair.

Two young farmers named Bailey Wilson quarreled the other night Monday night, and the latter killed his own father. Wilson then fled to the city.

Lighting recently struck the house of a prospective bride at Devil's Lake, wrecking the building and killing her. The latter was injured both him and his wife. The ceremony was postponed.

At Watertown the hardware store of Walter M. Savage, one of the largest stores in Central Dakota, was placed in the hands of a receiver last Monday night. The stock was valued at $30,000. Liabilities were unknown.

D. H. Pierce, one of the early settlers in the state, died at a moment's notice at the supper table at a moment's notice, evidently of heart disease.

The fifth annual association of the So Dak. Fireman's Association took place at Rapid City, Minn., last week. The members being represented by two delegates.

The bill to provide for two additional Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of Dakota has passed the House at Washington.

Rev. C. H. Bohm, pastor of the Episcopal church at Yankton, disappeared the other night.

Kester, N. H., decorated her such as yesterday on Thursday, and hundreds of former residents and many distinguished persons of the State were present.

The ceremony was held at 8 o'clock on Monday. This would enable Senator Cullum to attend the funeral of the late Prime Minister of the Russian Cabinet to form a new liberal government.

Charles J. Thompson, aged 60 years, who had been married for 37 years to his wife, Mrs. Mary Thompson, died against her husband, who is also an ex-convict, for divorce and alimony.

A row-boat containing ten persons was capsized off the shore of Lake Michigan, and two of the party—Fry Skiviski and a companion—were drowned.

By the falling of a scaffold at Owens Park, O., last night, three men were killed, and four others injured. The roofing, and William Jones, workman on the building being constructed, was killed.

According to an ordinance reducing the rate of telephones from $100 to $50 a year, the Bell Company threatens to quit business at St. Louis, and has already taken steps to do so.

Deputy Sheriff Alford had a fight with the Seneca train robbers on Thursday night near Naples, A. T. While trying to arrest the train robbers, he and his mortally wounded, wounded the third.

