J. Campbell, a young swimming-teacher from Youngstown, a little village down the river, Sunday successfully sw um the whirlpool: rapids with no other protection than an ordidnary cork jacket. Starting at 3:30 o'cleck, accompanied by a deg, he rowed in a little bost from the Maid of the Mist landing till the current caught him and compelled him to unship his oars. Sitting in the bottom of the boat he clung to it desperately till after Buttery's cleavator was reached, when animal and man were thrown out into the boiling water. The life preserver enabled Campbell to keep affoat till in the second circuit of the great whirlpool he was thrown so near the shore that his father, who wated on the bank, was able to catch his hand and help him out. Once a huge log caught the back of his bead, and for a time held him down, but he dove from beneath it and was not much injured. At 3:40 he was pulled out, but little the worse for his trip.

In speaking of the trip the young man said that nothing in the world would tempt him to make the trip regain. He had had emough. The dog handed at the whirlpool all right. The boat was seen floating about in the whirlpool bottom up. Campbell is the youngest of the Ningar heroes, and will be 21 years old Outober 3. His height is five teet seven inches.

TOURISTS RETURN

Arrived in New York.
NEW York, Sept. 14.—The fifty American working-men ind women who went to Europe last July to invest gate the condition of the European workmen returned Thursday night in the steamer City of Rome.
Mr. Thompson said of the workmen on the other side:

Mr. Thompson said of the workmen on the other side:

"They are not to be compared with ours. Almost every trade was represented in our party, and they eximined carefully the products and nuchiery of the old country. It was observed that the machinery was combersome and lacks the completeness that is seen in qur country. We have had remarkable auccess from the time we started. We were met everywhere with country and treated in the best possible manner."

In Glasgow the party visited every steel and iron place except the factories of Campbell, and here admittance was refused them. It was found that wages were 35 per cent lower than in the country.

H. M. Ogden, of Cincinnati, went with the party and investigated the printing trades. He said that in Europe they are about where the pinters of this country were twenty years sayed in their transcraptions of the are about where the pinters of this country were twenty years ago. They were quick in their typographical work but the result was not so satisfactory as here. There were 4,00 out of 1,000 printers organized, and out of this number 1,200 were women. Joseph Thorpe, of Murphysboro, Ili., looked into the engineering work in Europe. They were not organized. Their wages were about 50 per oent lower than in this country.

Arrest of a Gang of Thieves Headed by a City Marshai.

CHRIENSE, Wy. T., Sept. 13.—By the arrest at Luak of Frank Watson and five others the authorities will be able to rid Northern Wyoming of a gang of wholesale horse thieves who have menaced the live-stock industry for more than a year. It is estimated that these men have stolen hearly 2,000 horses. Cattle outfits have been crippled by the depredators, many firms being unable to make a thorough round-up from I ck of mounts for the cowboys, and Sheriff Williams, of Converse County, would have long since broken up the gang but for Sheriff Williama, of Converse County, would have long since broken up the gang but for the fact that Frank Watson, his most trusted deputy and city marshal of the new town of Casper, was leader of the band. He consulted Watson and was of course thrown on the wrong trail. The traitorous officer and the word fight when arrested, but was quickly elienced. Watson and his companions had sixty stolen horses grazing in a camp when cantured. The gang stole

The Cronin Case.

Chicage, Sept. 16.—The thrd week of the Cronin trial came to an end at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when Judge McConnel announced that the fourteenth venire had been exchanged. Three hundred and twenty-seven veniremen have been exhausted. All have been excused except Culver, a real-estate dealer, and Fearmon, a farmer. Culver is a probable juror. Pearson will doubtless be excused by the State. Thus far the State has used twenty-four and the defense fifty-two of their persuppiery challenges.

Postanto, Ore., Sept. 16.—While twelve men were opening cans of powder with chieses at the stone quarries, near Vancouver Sunday morning an explosion occurred and one of the men, Pat Delaney, was instantly killed Four others were throw n a considerable distrace and fearfully burned. One of them, P t Moray, died shortly after reaching the hospital at Yancouver, and another, Jim Murphy, is not expected to live.

The Business Pallure The Business Failure.

New Yo nx, Sept. 14.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number for the United States 170, and for Canada 23, or a total of 193, as compared with 201 last week and 211 the we k previous. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 217, representing 190 failures in the United States and 27 in Canada.

Getting Rid of Relief Funds. Hagnesum, Pa. Sept. 16. The Johnstown flood commission has decided to distribute $1.5.0.000 among the flood sufferers of the Conemangh valley in addition to the sums received by them. Probably two weeks time will be required to complete

HIS LAST JUMP.

MONTHEAL, Can, Sept. 16.—Harry Howard, otherwise known as Prof. Peynaud, jumped from a tower 150 feet high Sunday in this city in the presence of 1,500 people. At the foot of the tower a netting was stretched, and under neath the netting was a heavy canyas held by terms. Peystretched, and under neath the netting was a heavy canvas held by ten men. Peynaud went to the top of the tower, placed his hands close to his side, and jumped, at the same sime shouting to his men to keep a good hold of the canvas. Not being used to the work several of the men let go and started off on a run. A cry of horror weak up from the spectatora. Peynaud went through the ropes with a crash, pleked himself up, and started to walk away. A moment later, however, he fell in a faint. An ambulance was summoned and he was conveyed to the city hospital, where it was found that one arm and five ribe had been broken and he had sustained internal figuries. The hospital authorities say it will be impossible for him to recover.

sentence in Jackson prison, having been convicted of an assault with intent to kill.
He was sent up from Mason County, where he bore a good reputation. On account of his general good character, because he had a sick and helpies wife, who, during all her hasbands imprisonment, has struggled on against sickness and poverty to keep her children together; because the prosecuting attorney of the county in which he was convicted, who also was the one who prosecuted him appealed in his behalf, and also because the judge by whom he was sentenced and many influential citizens all pleaded for his release, the Governor has extended this clemency.

The village of North Waldoboro (Me.) is so happy at getting rid of an affliction that the village poet burst into song over the event, in The Waldoboro News. The affliction is described as "the most ag-gravating dog that ever lived," and his epitaph follows:

"Old Prince" is dead, that horrid cur.
They shot the rascal through the fur,
And all who knew this canino bad
Can ne'er a feeling have that's sad.

TO GET A GOOD SLEEP.

BOON FOR WHICH MANY WOULD HAVE GIVEN ALL THEY HAD.

sleep," exclaimed Sancho Panza, philosophical squire of the redoubtable Don Quixote. And no one appreciates this so much as the unfortunate individual afflicted with insomnia.

A remedy for sleeplessness should be known by every one, since there is nothing which will so soon wear out the entire system as being unable to sleep soundly. "Sleep knits up the raveled sleeve of care," said Macbeth. This was a philosophy born of his own experience, since his conscience made sleep a stranger to his eyelids, and he was verging on madness. We have all felt, at some time for other, the truthfulness of Young's visit pays where fortune smiles," while he "flics from woe and lights on lids un-become unable to sleep soundly or even reasonably well is cause for serious alarm. It is also a source of great suffering. Any remedy, therefore, which will induce sleep to kiss the eyelids which have wood the drowsy god in vain will prove a boon to every one. The causes of insomnia are legion, but outside of general nervous debility and chronic disorder of the nervous system, whather caused from mental or nervous disease, or from some injury to the nerve centers, the causes of sleeplessness may be put down as anything that causes the blood to flow to the brain in increased quantities. Strong physical causes the blood to flow to the brain in increased quantities. Strong physical exercise, rapid breathing or deep thought will, according to the best authorities, conduce to bring about a state of sleeplessness. And unless checked it will grow until it becomes very serious.

It may be stated, as a fact overlooked by many who find themselves unable to aleep, that their insomnia arises from carelessness on their part in failing to observe certain easily ascertained rules in regard to sleening.

in regard to sleeping.

The body cannot sleep while the brain is excited. Anything which will diminish the flow of blood to the brain will allay excitement. Very deep, slow and quiet respiration will soothe the brain to a great degree, and, at the same time, serve the purpose of detracting the at-tention of the mind from the matters which may disturb it.

tention of the mind from the matters which may disturb it.

Moderate heat, monotony of sound and darkness tend to make one sleepy. The only effect of darkness is to shut outexternal objects and thus assist in, quieting the mind. The notion that sleep obtained in the daytime is not beneficial has no reason to support it. Sleep is sleep, and if one can aleep soundly and well in the day time it serves the same purpose as sleep obtained at night. But few people can do this on account of the light and noise. Hence the old but erroneous idea that only aleep at night could thoroughly rest and recuperate the body and mind after their labors. This is abundantly proven in the case of infants and convalescents. Both sleep in the day time equally as well as at night, and both grow more while sleeping than while awake.

Cool, fresh air is the best to sleep in.

Extreme heat and closeness of the air tend to prevent sleep, as does profuse perspiration. The teeth should be well cleaned and the month rinsed before going to sleep. After all these necessary rules have been observed, and still sleep refuses to come at the bidding of the pleading eyelids, one may be sure they are suffering from insomnia, and should seek to induce sleep by any means. But how to do this has been the question with many, and physicians are called in and soothing potions taken, all of which will fail in nine cases out of ten. But what, then, is to be,done? This is what thousands of sleepless persons have saked. There are many sure and simple print in recent years only older pe remember it. Physicians who make a specialty of nervous diseases are familiar with it, and recommend it in nearly all cases where a patient suffers from in-somple.

Mr. Gardner was a man of wealth and Mr. Gardner was a man of wealth and culture, and had accumulated a number of remedies, such as for allaying thirst where liquids could not be procured, for temporarily appearing the pangs of hunger, and for improving the syssight by various ingeniously contrived glasses. He became a great sufferer from insomnia, caused by an injury to his spine from falling out of a chaise.

The sufferer who wishes to sleep must lie on his right side, with his head placed comfortably on the pillow, hav-placed comfortably on the pillow, hav-ing his neck straight, so that respira-tion will not be hindered in the least. The lips are then to be closed slightly and a full inspiration taken, breathing and a full inspiration taken, breathing through the nostrils only if possible. The full inspiration taken, the lungs are to be left to their own action. Attention must now be fixed upon the respiration. The person must imagine that he sees the breath pass from his nostrils in a continuous stream, like steam from an exhaust pipe. The instant he brings his mind to conceive that he thus sees his breath, and grasps this idea apart from all others, consciousness leaves him and principle that monotony or the influence on the mind of a single idea induces sleep.—Chicago Times

Home Treatment.

Bufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membranes of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated, whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to fomales (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 303 W. In sever fails to cure old chronic cases of and soothing potions taken, all of which will fail is nine cases out of ten. But what, then, is to be done? This is what thousands of aleepless persons have asked. There are many sure and simple remedies.

The most celebrated remedy was that of a Mr. Gardner, of England. It was known to the entire reading world about thirty years ago, but having been out of print in recent years only older people

FORCED TO LEAVE HOME. Over 60 people were forced to leave their home yesterday to call for a free trial package of Lane's Eamily Medicine. If your blood is abad, your liver and kidneys out of order, if you are constipated and have headache and an unsightly complaxion, dont fail to call on any druggist to-day for a free sample of this grand remedy. The ladies praise it. Everyone likes it. Large size package 50 cents.

A NARROW ESCAPE. Col. W. K. Neison, of Brooklin, came home one avening, feeling a peculiar rightness in the chest. Before retiring, he bried to draw a long breath but found it almost impossible. He suffered four days from pneumouia, and the doctors gave him up. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption saved him and he is well to-day.
