STATE ELECTIONS.

The Result of the Strife at the Polls on Tuesday.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 9 .- The returns from every precinct in Ohio, unofficial, show that Campbell defeats Foraker by 11,454, and that the Democrats have both branches of the Legislature with 8 majority on joint ballot. The entire Re-publican State ticket, with the exception of Foraker, has been elected, fuller returns placing that fact beyond the possi-bility of a doubt.

DES MOTNES, Ia., Nov. 8.—Complete unofficial returns rave Boles (Dem.) 6,748 plurality for Governor. The entire Democratic ticket is probably elected by pluralities somewhat smaller. The by pluralities somewhat smaller. The Republicans probably retain control of the Senate by two majority. The House is probabl, Republican by one majority. The Register (Rep.) claims that ad-ditional returns give the Republicans a majority of eight on joint ballot in the Legislature, insuring Allison's re-elec-tion, and that its revised figures gives Boise but 4,790 plurality and indicate the election of the entire Republican State ticket except Governor. State ticket except Governor.

NEBRASKA.
OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 7.—Returns from OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 7.—Returns from this State show that the Republicans have elected Laws to Congress in the Second district by from 2,000 to 3,000 majority and that the Republican candi-dates for Supreme Judge and the Re-gents of the University have from 29,-000 to 25,000 majority.

000 to 25,000 majority.

NEW YORK.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The corrected returns make the Democratic plurality for Rice for Secretary of State $1,000. The Senate stands: Republicans, 19; Democrats, 13. The Assembly stands: 69 Republicans and 59 Democrats. Amos Cummings (Dem.) was elected to suc-ceed the late Sunset Cox in the Ninth Congressional district.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—The Senate will be composed of 29 Republicans and 11 Democrats, as compared with 32 Republicans and 8 Democrats in 1888. There are 162 Republicans and 78 Democrats elected to the lower House are 102 Republicans and 75 Democrats elected to the lower House, a Republican loss of 18 Representatives from last year. The vote of the town of Gosnold completes the returns from the State, and makes Brackett (Rep.), 120,801; Russell (Dem.), 120,817; Blackmer (Pro.), 13,854; Marks (Labor), 111, Brackett's plurality, 5,984.

NEW JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 7.—Later re turns from various portions of the State place Leon Abbett's plurality for Gov-ernor at 10,000. The political complex-ion of the State Senate is still in doubt and hinges upon Atlantic County, which both parties claim. The Assembly will consist of 38 Democrats and 23 Repub-

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 7.—Fairly com-plete returns from the counties show that the Republicans have made large gains in Maryland and their Represen-tatives in the next Legislature will be largely increased. The last House consisted of 71 Democrats and 20 Republicans. The next House will be made of 59 Democrats, 31 Republicans and I doubtful. In the Senate the Re-publicans have also increased their rep-resentation from 4 to 8.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 8.—Official returns from every county in the State except seven show a Democratic majority of 43,715. The House stands 70 Democrats, 14 Republicans, 7 doubtful, The Senate stands: Democrats, 20: Republicans, 9; doubtful, 1. This is the small-set representation the Republicans have had in the Legislature in the history of PENNSYLVANIA. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8 .- Revised returns from all the counties do not ma-terially alter the estimated figures al-ready announced. Boyer's plurality for State Treasurer, according to the latest nputation, is 62.231. ENDED IN MURDER.

FACTS WORTH KNOWING.

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrine the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, Snuffs, powders or syringes because they are all irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years bourn all the worry and pain that cutarrh can inflict, testify to the ters, and health has been in my family radical cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm.—Robert Johnson, Machinist.

FOUND IN A SEWER.

Dr. Cronin's Clothes and Surgical In-Atruments Discovered.
CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Dr. P. H. Cronin's clothes, box of metallic splints and case of surgical instruments were found about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the bot-tom of a manhele on Evanston avenue, Lake View. A gang of workmen who had been sent to clean out the sewer made the find within less than a block of the point where the bloody trunk was picked up May 5. Mrs. T. T. Conklin, with whom Dr. Cronin boarded, identified the articles positive-ly. No identification was needed of the case of instruments, as on its back was inscribed the dead physician's name. After a partial examination of the clothing and instruments at Chief Hub-bard's office the outfit was taken to State's Attorney Longenecker's office. Most of the garments, especially the were buriedly cut from the bleeding body of the slain doctor.

The finding of Dr. Cronin's clothes and surgical instruments was an accident, and not the result of a deliberate search. This was the case in the finding.

Later in the day Joseph Turner, another workman for the city, found Dr. Cronin's socks and a tin box of plasters further down the sewer near of plasters further down the sewer near the lake. It is believed that the shoes have been flooded out into the lake. Chicaco, Nov. II.—The police on Sat-urday fished out of a Lake View sewer a piece of carpet about eighteen inches square and believed to be a part of the ingrain article that covered the floor of the Carlson cottage the night Dr. Cronin was murdered. There was no signs of blood on it so far as could be de-termined. State's Attorney Longenecksigns of blood on it so has scould be de-termined. State's Attorney Longeneck-er and his assistants considered the dis-covery an important one. Dr. Cronin's ahoes and watch are still missing.

BAYARD WEDS.

The Ex-Secretary of State and Miss Cir-mer Married at Wash'ngton. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, ex-Secretary of State, and Miss Mary Willing Clymer were married yesterday at 1 o'clock p. m. at the bride's residence in this city in the presence of a most distinguished company. The intention was to have the wedding as quiet as possible, and the invitations, numbering about 150, were confined to the relatives of the contracting parties and a few personal friends. Among the latter were ex-President and Mrs. Cleveland and ex-Secretary and Mrs. Fairchild.

U. at present. The report of Miss. Eather. Purch the treasurer. of Miss Eather Pugh, the treasurer, showed the total receipts from all sources to be $23,889.97; total expenditures, $20,667.57. The dues for 1889 realized the sum of $14,386.59. The bal-tures, $20,067.37. The dues for 1889 realized the sum of $14,386.59. The balance in Miss Pugh's hands is $3,222.40.

At the evening session addresses of welcome were made by Mrs. M. B. Carse, Mrs. L. S. Rounds and Rev. Herrick Johnson, of Chicago, Mrs. Carse said Chicago had more than 4.000 salcons open Sundays and spent $70,000,000 a year on drink. Miss Willard in her annual address said America had become the dumping ground of European cities, and protested against the present wholesale exodus from the European slums. In referring to the Sunday-closing movement in Chicago she said the salcon-keeper and pot-house politician still held the business men and, to a great extent, the churches by the throat, while red flag riots, dynamite plots and Cronin murders were begotten by alcoholized brains and hatched in the high-license grog-shops of Chicago. Miss Willard said that as a method of raising revenue from vice high license was a success, and it was equally so as a life-insurance policy on the salcon. It arrayed the expert and the non-expert temperance forces against each other and made a man's own household his temperance forces against each other and made a man's own household his worst foes. It had set back the temperance cause ten years, if not a genera-tion; it had blinded men's consciences to moral distinctions, deadened the churches, muzzled the clergy, chloroformed the religious editor and rejoiced the devil and his hosts. On the labor question she said it was being proved question she said it was being proved that intemperance was most prevalent where the hours of toll were long, be-The speaker touched on the multiplicity of subjects in which the W. C. T. U. is deeply interested, including the marriage relation, social evil, protection to minors of both sexes, especially girls, purity in literature and art, physical culture and dress reform. In conclusion she recommended petitions against impure literature, asking an amendment to the Inter-State Commerce law prohibiting the bringing of liquor into Prohibition States, in favor of the Blair Educational bill and the

Blair amendment, forbidding the manu-facture of cigarettes and prohibiting smoking in a waiting-room and post-offices, and for various other purposes. CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—A breeze was started in the W. C. T. U. convention Satur-day by a telegram from H. B. Moulton, of Washington, saying a bar had, been licensed in Vice-President Morton's ho-tel building in Washington. Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, of lows, expressed her re-cret at the announcement reflecting on gret at the announcement reflecting on Vice-President Morton, and protested against its injustice. She read a tele-gram from A. R. Nettleton, of Washington, saying that the accusation against the Vice-President was without the shadow of foundation, and that Mr. Mor-ton personally denounced the canard hrough the newspapers last week. Reports from the National organizers were heard. A congratulatory telegram from Wyoming stated that the proposed constitution, containing a woman-suf-

PROHIBITION UNPOPULAR.

Iowa Republicana May Vote for the Re-peal of the Law.

Sioux Ciry. Ia., Nov. 9.—In an edi-torial article the Sioux City Journal, the leading Republican daily newspaper is Northwestern Iowa declares practically that the archibition experiment has that the prohibition experiment has failed, and that the Republican party of Iowa will recognize the fact. The Jourlowa will recognize the fat. The Jour-nal declares virtually for the repeal of the present laws even if such repeal re-quires the co-operation of Republicans in the Legislature this winter. Ex-Judge Joseph A. Reed, of the lowa Supreme Court, was interviewed here as to the result of the late election. He declared he had no doubt the Legis-lature would repeal the prohibitory law. Although strictly a Prohibitionist himself he said the Republican Representatives from counties giving anti-prohibition majorities would be justi-fled in voting for repeal.

THE GREAT TRIAL.

Testimony Given by Witnesses in the Cronin Murder Case.

Defendants in a Very Dan-gerous Position. THE GREAT CONSPIRACY.

THE GREAT CONSPIRACY.

CHICAGO, NO. 4.—NO testimony was taken in the Cronin case yesterday. Judge McConnell was willing to go on and the defense agreed to vaive the question of the legality of taking evidence on election day, but Mr. Hynes, of the prosecution, suggested that new consel might be employed for the prisoners who would not stand by the compact. A question of doubt being raised, the court took a recess until Wednesslay morning.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The Cronin trial was resumed at 10 a.m. yesterday. R. T. Stanton testified to the printing and delivery of some business cards the Patrick O'Sullivan, and identified the early given Dr. Cronin on the night of May 4 by the driver of the white borse as one of those cards. The cards were delivered to O'Sullivan May 2.

Capital Villiers, at the time of the murder a capital of the Lake View police force, told of the trunk being brought to the Lake View police station, and that he had, on locking inside, seen cotton saturated with blood, and blood still in the liquid form. Officer Phillips, who, with Capitaln Wing, brought the trunk, had given the witness a lock of hair about four inches long and of the thekenses of a lead-penell found in the trunk.

Herman Theel, a young German, told of finding the trunk on the morning of May 5 in the ditch at the side of Evanston avenue, just south of the Chicago & Evanston railway track. The trunk, which had been brought into the court-room and identified by Capital Villers, was identified by the witness as the one found by him. Herman Pausse and Kari Knop, who secompanied Theel, corroborated the latter's testimony.

Officer Phillips, of the Lake View police force, testified to the blood-stained cotton and taffs of hair found in the trunk and identified the trunk and cotton in court. He arrested O'Sullivan at the latter's house May 23 or 24.

Capitaln Wing, also of the Lake View force, went over the story of the finding of the terminur and blood-stained, before, testified to the blood of the trunk, the bloody cotton and the body away and Coughiln as the man who entered the cottage.

Officer Lorch testified to having gone to the Carlson cottage on May 23 and to inding 45b paint-spotted trunk key under the wash-stand in the front room.

Ex-Police Captain Schnack testified to an interview with O'Sullivan in which he drew admissions from him that he had telephoned Coughiln in April to come to his house for the purpose of discussing something about Kunge and a horse. Being pressed O'Sullivan said he had desired to see Coughlin about delivering fee at the latter's house, but Kunge's association with the transaction and the mystery surrounding the horse were left unexplained.

with the transaction and the mystery surround-ing the horse were left unexplained. Witness, and he was first asked about the custody of the trunk since it was given to the coroner. He said it had been in his sole care until delivered to the State's Attorney. This was also true ro-garding the lock and key. The chief identified suspect Burke as the Burke he had first seen in the Winnipeg jail, and the direct examination ended. ended.

Police Captain Scheuttier next told of his visit to the Carison cottage the day after the the United States and the dedication of the new National University for Cathe colos. It is estimated that 15,000 atrangers are in the city.

The Sun Shines Again.

DATTON, N. M., Nov. 11.—For the first time in nine days the sun shone here on Saturday and the storm abated. The loss of life is as yet uncertain, but over a score of men are missing. Trainmen report the different cuts completely filled with dead cattle and sheep, and unless the cold weather moderates the loss, which is tremendous, will be greatly increased.

Police Captain Scheutiter next told of his visit to the Carlson cottage the day after the body was discovered. May 2t Among the body was discovered. May claims, said that he had not talked with Carkson.

The most important witness was William Neiman, He keeps a saloon at the corner of Roscoe street and Lincoln avenue, and he told of O'Bullivan, accompanied by Kunze and Corghin, being in there at 10:30 on the night of May 4. He fixed the date positively by the circumstance of it being the day after his obtaining his license and the first day of O'Sullivan delivering lee to him. When asked to pick out the two men, the witness said that while he wouldn't swear that Coughlin and Kunze wore the ones, on account of his never

O'Sullivan delivering lee to him. When asked to pick out the two men, the witness said that while he wouldn't swear that Coughlin and Kusse were the ones, on account of his never having seen them before that hight, yet his opinion was that they were. About O'Sullivan, however, he had not the slightest doubt.

In view of O'Sullivan's statement about not having been out of the house on that hight, except for a moment about 9:30 o'clock, when his men came in, and then he had only gone as far as the shed, Neiman's story is very valuable to the State.

Alfred Kettner, a watchman, swore that he saw Dan Coughlin in the neighborhood of the Carison cottage late on the alternoon of May 4. Chicaco, Nov. 11.—In the Crosin case on Saturday Gerhard Werdel, the occupant of the house directly opposite the Carison cottage, testified that on the night of May 4 he left his house shortly before 7 o'clock. As he was returning atout 10:20 o'clock he saw two men enter the Carison cottage, Next morning as he and his wife were going home early mass he saw blood on the sidewalk of the Carison cottage, and called the attention of his wife to it. There was a trail of blood, apparently freesh, beginning on the steps and running out to the middle of the sidewalk. He could not tell who the men were.

Dr. Egbert was then recalled to testify to having at the autopsy clipped a lock of hair from the dector's head, and was followed by Prof. W. S. Haynes, for the past thirteen years professor of chemistry at listash Medical College, who said he had examined to the sidewalk. He could not tell who the men were.

At present Dr. Cromin's presence in the Carlson cottage hinges on a hair. The one hair found on the cake of soap is the only evidence that he ever entered that shaughter-house. Of course the circumstantial evidence that he was decoyed there and there was murdered is as strong as it well could be had on the cake of soap is the only evidence that he ever entered the sustement.

At present Dr. Cromin's presence in the Carlson cottage, which the

FEARFUL AND WONDERFUL.

FEARFUL AND WONDERFUL.

The Bible says, "man is fearefully and wonderfully made." But physiologists all concele that the most wonderful portion of man is his nervous system. In it are located the seats of life and mind, and the control of all the bodily organs. When the nerves are destroyed, the part is paralyzed. The flesh, blood and bones are as nothing to it. Derugements of the brain or nerves are causes of headache, fits, dizziness, fluttering of the heart, sexual weakness, steeplessness, neuralgia, cold hands and feet. A free trial bottle of Dr. Mile's Nervine—the latest and most successful cure for all these diseases may be had at Yeiter & Looks drug store.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousand of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this receipt, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. The Spanish have a proverb: "Wo-man loves with her ear, but man with his eye." Persuasive wooing captures a woman's heart, while an attractive appearance conquers the man. To retain man's affection and secure enduring man's affection and secure enduring happiness, a woman should be as charming in married life as in the days of bewitching maidenhood. Her captivating weapons are a fair and blooming complexion, soft and spotless hands, freedom from skin and scalp impurities, pimples, chapping, and the possession of the bloom of perfect health. Cole's Carbolisope, the perfect medicinial toilet, bath and nursery soap is her salvation. Price 25 cents. Sold by all druggists.

Saturday night Earl Nash heard a commotion in the road and went out to see what it was, thinking it was a runway. He could see nothing and returned to the house. Shortly afterwards as his father was returning from the Rapids, his team became frightened at an object at the roadside. On arriving at home Earl Inquired if he had met a runaway. He said no but told what had occurred. They started out to unvestigate and found a man by the roadside whom they at first took to be dead, but upon applying camphor and water he recovered partly and was removed to Mr. Nash's house. He gave his name as Mackelrath, or something like that, and said that he lived near Honey Creek. Word was sent in that direction but met some one who was looking for the owner of the team that Earl heard running away and which evidently ran the buggy against something and threw the driver out, who was considerably under the influence of liquor.

There is no guess work about it—it is a reality that Smith, the tailor, has the finest line of suitings, pantings and ov-ercoatings ever shown in Lowell, and he is making them up for very low prices. Nixie, The American Breeder says: "The usual custom of salting cattle, by many farmers, is a bad one; it is both overdone and neglected. Once a week, generally on the Sabbath day, he will fill a bucket with salt and scatter it on the ground in the feed lot, with the litter and fith. The cattle greedly lick it up and then fill themselves with water, from which severe and sometimes fatal results are experienced. The successful stockmen will keep salt in troughs under shelter, where the stock can help themselves at pleasure, or a still better plan is to keep Retsof Rock Salt where they can have access to it at all times, and where they will not get too much of it at once. As surprises seem to be fashionable in West Campbell, the children and grand-children of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Headworth, assisted by other members of the family, planned a surprise for them, for Sunday, Nov. 10, it being the 36th anniversary of their marriage. The surprise was a complete success. Although "Tommy" is not so young as he used to be, he showed them that he would not let them get the start of him in the way of entertainment. One noticeable feature of the affair was that all the children and grandchildren were present, death having mercifully spared them all. An excellent dinner was served, to which all did ample justice. The presents were numerous and useful. After a very enjoyable day spent in social conversation the company dispersed, all saying that they had a very pleasant time.

TRANSIT.

The Summer leans upon the passing year,
Leans heavily, and all her steps are slow
Like one who going lingers, loath to go;
The wan leaves flook about her sallow, easy,
Like ancient gossipe crowding 'round a bler;
The alient scythes on more the meadows mow.
The silent scythes on more the meadows mow.
The silent scythes on more the meadows mow.
The silent scythes on more the sleen's
Come, thou who with me liked the Summer well,
Together let us kiss her finger tips
And bind with foud good bys her lifeless brows;
Lay last year's lore across her silent fips,
Abore the secrets she will never tell,
And on her bosom cross two broken yowst

WHAT DRUGGISTS SAY

HE KILLED THE BEAR.

HOW FARMER JASPER'S OLD MUS-KET GOT IN ITS WORK.

Buckshet in His Heart.

"Two more o' them sheep lugged away last night, and by the same infarnal old bear, I know!" exclaimed Farmer Samuel Jasper.

"That makes nineteen sence the fust o' the month, and the bear hain's no nearer ketched than he was a week ago. We're got to ketch him to-night or give up sheep farmin! I'm goin' to try my hand at watchin' for him to-night, and if that bear has any friends they'd better tell him to look somewheres else for his mutton this evening."

Farmer Jasper's premises lie along Sly's Run, three miles south of Sol's Ridge, and for two weeks some of the best bear hunters in the region had been taking turns in hanging around the farmer's place on the watch for a bear that had been living high on his sheep; so high, in fact, that the flock had almost disappeared. The hunters had seen the bear several times, they said, and shot at him, but all the same he went on sampling the farmer's mutton almost every night, until the farmer at last resolved to stand guard himself over the pasture for one night at least. IN BATTLE ARRAY.

Farmer Jasper is no bear hunter, and all the firearm he possesses is an army musket of ancient pattern. When the farmer shouldered his you the night he went out to show the marauding bear that some things could be done as well as others, he could not recall the time the wespon had last been used. He had loaded it well with buckshot, and remarked, as he left home, that he wasn't afraid to meet half a dozen bears, but that he was elittle skittish of the old musket. Besides his musket. Farmer Jasper took his hired man with him. The sheep patture is a small one. The farmer posted himself at one side of the lot. On the opposite side of the pasture there are first a few yards of thick underbrush, and then a piece of woods that extend back to the foot of the ridge. Osi that extend back to the foot of the ridge. Osi that extend back to the foot of the ridge. Osi that extend back to the foot of the ridge. Osi that extend back to the foot of the ridge. Osi the same had a not been in his place more than a quarter of an hour when he heard a noise. Looking up he saw a big animal, which he naturally supposed was a bear, climbing over the stone wall not twenty feet away. The bear dropped down into the lot and was quickly followed by three smaller bear. The hired man was so badly exered that he was unable to utter a sound. The four bear and the ridge of the lot. After a time Bennett succeeded in getting snough out of the hired man to think that it might be well to find out what had become of Farmer Jasper. They found him lying on the ground at the foot of the stone wall where he had posted himself. He was just recovering conclosures: He was taken home, where it was found that his shoulder was dislocated. His right arm, from the shoulder down, was badly bruised and swellen. The farmer could recall nothing that happened from the time he saw the four bears marching down upon him. From what the hired man said about the passing of the bears, Abel Bennett concluded that the last hear was still in the bushes and dead. He went back and found it, got help and took is to the farmer's house. It had nine buckshot in its heart. The bear was a 300 pounder. Next morning the army musket was found. The chain of circumstantial evidence was strong enough to leave nodoubt in anybody's mind that the old army musket had got its work in at both ends.—Sol Ridge Cor. New York Evening Sun.

A method of photo engraving direct on wood is announced from Russia. The wood is boiled in a solution of sulphate of copper and afterward in a solution of carbonate of sods, which fills the pores with insoluble carbonate of copper. The block is then dried, its face brightly polished and the sides and, high coated with an asphalt varnish. The face is coated with blohromated gelatine, and after printing is developed with warm water, as in the earbon process. A coat of asphalt varnish, carefully applied, adheres only to the portions from which the gelatine has not been removed. The block thus protected with varnish is placed for an hour in strong nulric acid and then for an hour in strong sulphuric acid. When taken from the acid the unprotected parts of the wood will be found to be esten away and the block may be cleaned by rubbing with a hard brush. The varnish on the face is removed by soning in bearing and the block is at once ready to print from. While this process may be satisfactory for reproducing diagrams and coarse line drawings, we would point out that, for any fine works, printing on paper and transferring to the block, so that the print may be developed from ishind, would be far more likely to give clear and perfect results.—New York Telegram.

Should be used in attempting to cure that very disagreeable disease, catarrh. As Catarrh originates in impurities in the blood, local applications can do no permanent good. The common-sence method of treatment is to purify the blood, and for this purpose there is no preparation superior to Hood's Sarsaparilla. That this peculiar medicine does cure catarrh is shown by the many tastimonials from people who have found relief upon using it when all others have failed. A-Have you seen McPherson of late?

Yes, I was in there only yesterday. Found them busy as nailers.

A-Why is it they are always so busy?

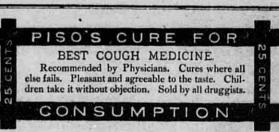

That is very easily explained. If you go there for what you want you are sure to find it (good to), and only costs you about half what you would pay elsowhere for it. B

I hear they have a big line of Holiday Goods on exhibition.

Big Line! I guess they have. The store is crammed from floor to ceiling with the choicest of Nic Nacs and useful articles and I never before saw the low as they have them marked.
